"TOP OF THE ETCHINGS ..."

Every day we learn that more and more brothers from the celebrity arenas of acting, entertaining and playing sports, are getting into the game of golf on the serious side.

In addition to our knowledge that Richard Lawson, Clifton Davis, Smokey Robinson, Samuel L. Jackson, Richard Gant, Johnny Gill, Jim Brown, Fred Williams on, Tony Burton, Richard Roundtree, Stack Pierce, Michael Jordan, Charles Barkley, Jim "Mudcat" Grant, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Harold Nicholas, and a whole host of others who are avid golfers.

We've also learned that some of the newer celebrities seriously involved in the game include:

actors Art Evans and John Amos, NBA Basketball players James Worthy and Byron Scott, and legendary recording artist/entertainer Chuck "Any Day Now" Jackson.

Speaking of golf, CAL-PAC's "12th Annual Celebrity Charity Golf Classic" that takes place Monday, November 8th, at Braemar Country Club, is shaping up to be the biggie in Tinseltown.

For your information this golf tournament is one of the major financial sources that CAL-PAC South uses to generate monies which they use toward yearly scholarships to ambitious and deserving minority students from inner-city communities who wish to pursue a college education.

This tournament is expected to draw a full field of amateur golfers plus a number of popular celebrities and an assortment of corporate groups lending their support to this charitable cause. Some of the popular celebrities committed so far are, Art Evans from "A Soldiers Story," "Die Hard II," and more recently the 'hit' film "Trespass."

Other celebrities committed to swing for CAL-PAC's scholarship fund raising golf tournament are the likes of actor Wil Nye, who plays the recurring role of Sheriff Metzger on "Murder She Wrote," legendary jazz vocalist and renown entertainer Ernie Andrews, Milan Williams, an original founding member of the 'hit' group The Commodores, talented actor, song writer and singer Clifton Davis, former co-star of the hit NBC-TV 'hit series "Amen," actor Nick Tate of "Silver Spoon" and "Murder She Wrote" fame, also actor Stephen Poletti, who has played co-starring roles on "FBI: The Untold Story," "Jake and The Fatman" and "Roc."

John Amos, Tony Burton and Jim "Mudcat" Grant, former Cy Young Award winning pitcher plus others are some of the other celebrities expected to play on Monday, November 8th, in the "12th Annual CAL-PAC Scholarship Golf Classic.

Corporate support to date come from Anheuser-Busch, Inc., Pepsi-Cola West, G. Heileman Brewing Company, The Wave Newspaper, Pabst Brewing Company, McKenzie Rivers Partners, Coors Brewing Company, Frito-Lay, Inc., United Distillers/Glenmore, R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company and Lorillard Tobacco Company.

The deadline date to sign up to play in this exciting charitable Tournament is Thursday, November 4th.

Trophies will be awarded to 1st, 2nd & 3rd place winners in Championship, A-Flight, B-Flight, C-Flight and D-Flight, also the Ladies Flight. Former UCLA and L.A. Rams running back Woodley Lewis, is the Tournament Director; and Clem Daniels, a former Oakland Raider player, and current State President of CAL-PAC is hosting this years event.

For additional information or registration, call CAL-PAC South office at (310) 671-1081.

"MUSICALLY SPEAKING..."

Based on reports we're getting, and from the sound of the music we can't seem to stop playing since the mailman dropped the discs off in our mail box, two legendary R&B 'hit' recording artists are about to hit all over again via their latest CD Album releases that are musical mind blowers.

Solomon Burke's "Soul Of The Blues" LP on the New Orleans' based Black Top Records, is one of the best offerings Solomon Burke has ever recorded in our opinion; especially the cut on the old standard

"Candy." Then there's Dennis Edwards, the former lead singer of the Temptations, and his latest album titled "Talk To Me," released on the South Carolina based 3 Gem Records.

This new album by the long time no-hear-from Dennis is another monster musical offering, and the inimitable song stylings of the former Motown recording artist never sounded better — and we're sure you'll agree when you hear the 8-minute cut on the album entitled "Mama's Song."

Now that the word is out in Tinseltown about Bobby Bland, Hank Crawford and jazz organist Bro, Jack McDuff being packaged to play for the Entertainment Groups' Nostalgic Christmas party on Christmas Day in the Grand Ballroom of the International Airport Hyatt Hotel, Tinseltowners are busy making plans to be on the set for this fantastic 'blues and jazz' musical presentation designed to entertain folks 40 or over....and that's Hollywood this time!!

Until the next time, Lanier.
