

PLAYOFF SPOTS ON THE LINE AS PREP SEASON ENDS ON FRIDAY

By Marc Miller

Even though the AAA Southern Nevada football season will be technically over on Friday night, the Sunrise Division may not be decided until next week by the Clark County School District. Earlier this week, the Green Valley Gators were forced to hand back two victories (Boulder City and Las Vegas) due to academic ineligibility of a certain player who transferred from the state of Pennsylvania. Before the forfeitures, the Gators were 4-2 in division play and in position, with Chaparral's help, to earn a playoff spot this week. As it stands now, G.V.H.S. is 2-4 in division play and 3-5 overall and near the bottom of the standings.

An appeal has been filed by Green Valley's Athletic Administration and will not be heard by the school district until November 9.

In more sporty news from the High School Football world, Clark remained on pace for an undefeated season with an ugly 62-6 waxing of Durango. Phil Glover led the Chargers' offense with 177 yards on just seven carries and 2 TDs. Clark QB Jay Snowden threw for two other TDs in helping Clark move to 5-0 in the Sunset Division and 7-0 overall. The one thing that I can say in favor of Durango, is that even though they have yet to win a game, and have the smallest lineup in town, they have great fans. It is amazing to see so many students hang out through the first half alone. According to sources, this kind of support is always around for Durango. To Head Coach Darwin Rost, if your reading: Keep these guys positive. You have a team with not one single senior and very little depth, but they appear to have alot of heart.

Other notes: Cheyenne proved to be a playoff contender with a big 20-15 win over Western at home. The Warriors had a chance to pull off a last minute win but the Shield's defense held them from their own 35-yard line on four plays. Although holding RB standout Jason Clayton to only 86 yards, Las Vegas fell to Chaparral 35-14. The Cowboys kept their post-season hopes stable. Rancho pulled off the upset of the week, upending Eldog 30-8. Cimarron-Memorial blanked Gorman 20-0. Bonanza beat Hill Top, California 14-0. Basic regained the Henderson Cup, beating Green Valley 10-7. And finally, Boulder City topped Valley high 24-7 and Bowling Green battled to a 26-26 tie last Saturday, leaving first place deadlocked. Both Ball State and defending MAC-champion Bowling Green are 3-0-1 in MAC play.

Western Michigan is in second place with a 4-1 record while Eastern Michigan is only 1/2-game behind at 3-1.

This Saturday, both leagues will see four conference games played, while one team from both leagues will see non-conference action.

SJSU (2-5, 2-0 in the Big West), will travel to SW Louisiana (5-2, 2-1); NMSU (4-3, 3-1) is at UNLV (1-6, 0-2); Northern Illinois (4-4, 3-2) will visit Louisiana Tech (1-5, 1-1); Finally,

Nevada (4-3, 2-1) is at Pacific (1-6, 0-2). While Arkansas State is idle this weekend, Utah State (2-5, 2-1) will play host to BYU in the non-league matchup.

Ball State (4-2-1, 3-0-1 in MAC play) will have another big game on their hands when they travel to Eastern Michigan (4-3, 3-1); Toledo (2-5, 1-3) is at Kent (0-7, 0-5); co-leader Bowling Green (4-2-1, 3-0-1) visits Miami of Ohio (2-5, 1-4); And Ohio (2-6, 1-4) will entertain Akron (4-3, 3-2).

Western Michigan (4-3, 4-1) will play a non-conference game at Army and Central Michigan will have a BYE.
