

CHARGERS GAIN BASKETBALL AND FOOTBALL NEVADA STATE CHAMPIONSHIPS IN 1993

CLARK CHARGERS NEVADA AAA STATE CHAMPIONS - Front row (l. to r.) Jermone Riley, Randy Banaria, James Boykin, Paul Suggs. Back row (l. to r.) Corey Bosket, Brenn Muntean, Sean Forest, Kevin Bell, Nathan Miller, Jose Taylor. NOT PICTURED - Tron Larkins, Ryan Tack, Head Coach Lee Koellikerr, assitant Coach Bill Crego. Athletic Administrator Wade Boyce, Athletic Director Roger Schumann, Principal Wayne Tanaka

It took a quarter-of-a-century to accomplish his goal, but 25 years after Clark High School Head Coach Larry Bamson guided the identical school to the 1968 Nevada State Championship, he and the '93 version pulled out a 7-3 victory over McQueen to capture the state AAA crown. The Chargers finished their championship campaign with an unblemished 11-0 mark. PHOTO: B.LEE

The Desert Shield of Cheyenne High School defeated eventual State Champion Clark High 67-61 last Saturday to capture the school's first-ever Class AAA Southern Conference zone men's basketball title. PHOTO: B.LEE

Las Vegas High School seniors Ray Flowers, Jeff Scott and Eric Boykin proudly hold the State Championship Trophy with coach tyrpne Armstrong, captured in May of 1993. Not pictured is Donnie Davis. The "Vegas Four" defied the odds as big underdogs to help L.V. High win it all. PHOTO: R. SAVOY

Former Runnin' Rebel Sidney Green was on hand in August, along with UNLV Head Coach rollie Massimino, KTNV-TV Sports Director Ron Futrell, KLAS-TV Sports Director Scott Higgins, local activist Kamau Khalfani and Youth Educator Mark Andrews for the Las Vegas Sentinel-Voice's 1st Annual Strivin 2 Stay In School Program at the Boys & Girls Club A.D. Guy Unit. Sentinel-Voice Publisher Lee Brown and Sports Editor Willie Ramirez were able to organize the event with Boys & Girls Clubs officials in an effort to tell kids to Stay In School. PHOTO: B.LEE

GET HERE BEFORE HE DOES!

GOLD $9.99 per gram

We predict chains. Lots of Chains. Not to mention rings, bracelets, anklets, whatever. We also predict: If it's gold, it'll be gone. At an unbelievable $9.99 per gram (save more than twice the normal price), this is truly a golden opportunity.

First Class Pawn & Jewelry, the Westsides newest Pawn Superstore. Hurry this sale won't las long, especially if that big guy with the funny haircut shows up. (Don't tell him we said that.) Prices good through 2/16/94.

702-631-PAWN

821 No. Rancho Dr., Las Vegas, NV 89106
Open daily 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.