

THE CCSN SETS FOUR DAY PHASE IV DEDICATION

The Community College of Southern Nevada will hold a four day celebration February 17 to dedicate the recently completed Phase IV addition to the college's Cheyenne campus according to Dr. Janice Reid, Dean of Arts and Sciences and chair of the dedication committee.

Focus of the dedication ceremonies will be the Performing Arts Center and the Nicholas J. Horn Auditorium which will be the site of four of five planned events. Included in the Phase IV Cheyenne Campus addition are a new Student Lounge in which overall dedication ceremonies will be held on Thursday, February 17, and a Health and Fitness physical education area.

The ceremonies are co-sponsored by the college and The Associated Students of The Community College of Southern Nevada. The schedule for the weekend is:

Thursday, Feb. 17 - Reception and Dedication Ceremonies 5:30 p.m. in the Student Lounge. Dedication by Dr. Paul E. Meacham and civic dignitaries. Guided tours of the Phase IV addition will follow the dedication ceremonies.

Friday, Feb. 18 - "Issues: Other Than White" art exhibit in the new gallery. Reception and exhibit 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. The exhibit of 11 U.S. artists will
