EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE SCHEDULED

A non-denominational sunrise service will be held Easter Sunday morning, April 3rd, at 6:30 a.m. on the grounds of Palm Valley View Memorial Park, 7600 South Eastern Avenue, marking the ninth Annual Easter Sunrise Service at the park, announced Ned Phillips, President for Palm Mortuaries and Memorial Parks.

"This program has become a highlight in our annual activities and is a very special community event. It is an uplifting way to start your Easter Sunday celebration and a wonderful family event also. Sign language will be provided," Phillips said. "Don't forget to see your clocks ahead on Saturday night as this is the time change weekend for day light savings time!"

Participating in this year's program are Harold Dean, Minister, Vegas Valley Christian Church; Sam Roberson, Pastor of Community Baptist Church of Henderson; Chris Curry, Pastor, Grace Church of the Nazarene; and Mary Bredlau, chaplain, Nathan Adelson Hospice.

Music will highlight the program, and several special numbers will be presented by the Silver State Voices, a locally based community choir of approximately eighteen members. "This outstanding choir has performed for state officials, conventions, and various community and religious organizations throughout Nevada," said Phillips. "In addition this year's program will feature soloist, Mary Kay Mendenhall."

"Make plans, now, to join us in celebration at this uplifting and musical program. Bring the family, invite a friend or neighbor," commented Phillips. All are welcome. The Memorial Park is located at 7600 South Eastern Avenue, past Tropicana and Sunset, just south of Warm Spring Road.
