city in general to come and share in this appreciation.

Lets not wait until his voice is silent and death claims it's own before we give him his flowers.

As one old saying goes, "Give Me My Flowers Whiile I Live."

We are going to say to Dr. Stewart, we love you, we appreciate your work, we are glad that God sent you our way to help those who are in need.

Let's remember. If you Can't Find A Friend In The World, you Can Fine One Here in Dr. Al Stewart.

This letter immediately sent my mind back almost 25-years ago when I first met the then Al Stewart, photographer, publisher of a monthly publication and promoter of fashion shows in Hollywood. We became the best of friends, worked on a number of projects together, and when he moved to Atlanta, Georgia years later, he assisted me in opening an Atlanta office for my PR Agency.

Several years later, it was the same Al Stewart that introduced me to Mayor Maynard Jackson back in the 70's, and worked night and day to help our PR Agency present one of the biggest and best Premiers in Atlanta for the motion picture "Brother On The Run," starring Terry Carter, Gwen Mitchell and Kyle Johnson with Diana Eden, James Sikking and Gary Rist playing supporting roles in the Fred Williams produced motion picture.

Subsequent years found each of us chasing our own dreams, and though our paths didn't cross too frequently we remained friends and kept up with each other through mutual friends and occasional calls or letters. This letter from the 'Friends of Al Stewart' was a welcomed addition to our regular mail delivery.

We also hope that readers of this column will see the good that one fellow man is doing to help other fellow men, women and children needing help and will offer their assistance to help Dr. Al Stewart continue the good work he's doing in the City of AtlanSa, Georgia. The address for the Institute of The Christian World is 201 Ashby street, N.W., Atlanta, GA 30314. The phone number is (404) 522-5934, and the date to help the Friends of Al Stewart honor him is Saturday evening October 29th, 1994, beginning at 7:00 p.m.

"TINSELTOWN TOPICS..."

Actor Roger E. Mosley is the latest Hollywood regular to sign to play a starring role in a stage production. The play is titled "Blue's Bar" and Roger plays a co-starring role opposite Phylis Hyman. Following their opening in Dallas, Texas, the show has hit the road and should be coming to your area soon.

Kene Holiday who's best remembered for his role as a private detective on "Matlock" is now traveling and playing a co-starring role opposite Melbe Moore and David Peaston in Michael Mitchell's stage play "Momma I'm Sorry."

With confirmations pouring daily from the list of celebrities that have been invited to the opening night performance of Millie Jackson's critically acclaimed 'hit' musical comedy stage play "Young Man, Older Woman" co-starring Reynaldo Rey at the Wiltern Theater, it seems like Tuesday evening October 25th will be a star-studded evening with loads of popular and familiar names and faces in attendance.

The invitation list covers from the A to the Z of who's who in Tinseltown, and the word is most of them are planning to be at the Wiltern Theater when the curtain rises on the opening night performance of "Young Man, Older Woman," plus attend the strictly invitational Cast party immediately following the opening night performance...and that's Hollywood this time!!

Until the next time, Lanier.
