QUEST FOR THE BEST '94 HELD

Valley choirs joined together singing songs of praise, Saturday, October 8, 1994, at QUEST FOR THE BEST '94...the Third Annual Anthony D. Thomas Memorial Gospel Fest.

Each October this event honors Anthony D. Thomas (9/23/36 to 4/5/90). Thomas, a beloved member of our community, was born in Lake Charles, Louisiana. He graduated from Tennessee State University and the University of California. He was a respected retired Clark County school teacher, past president of Nevadans Against Apartheid, choir director for many local church choirs, and co-founder, Epsilon Psi Sigma chapter, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., the Las Vegas, NV graduate chapter. The music ministry of Anthony Thomas touched many Las Vegas. In 1982 Thomas began this annual event. It was then part of the Heritage Festival. The Epsilon Psi Sigma chapter continues this event as a way of remembering.

QUEST FOR THE BEST also shines a special light on the Phi Beta Sigma/Sigma Beta Club; a mentoring program for local high school young men, which focuses on issues that impact the African-American male, for the purpose of strengthening our community. Hugh Jones, the Epsilon Psi Sigma graduate chapter/advisor spoke about what the local Sigma Beta Club is doing. George Jackson, a member of St. James the Apostle Catholic Church; of which Mr. Thomas was choir director prior to his death, spoke about his personal recollections of the man and his love of music and community.

Choirs and groups in attendance for this year's QUEST FOR THE BEST '94, were Dayspring, The Meistersingers Community Chorale, The First Presbyterian Jubilee Singers, Community Baptist Church, St. James the Apostle Catholic Church, and the Men's Chorus of Greater New Jerusalem Baptist Church.
