"LOU RAWLS PARADE OF STARS" TELETHON TO CELEBRATE 15TH BIRTHDAY SATURDAY

Fairfax, VA—From jazz jam to gospel fest, from rap to rhythm and blues, the hottest stars in the industry are keeping up the tradition of making the Lou Rawls Parade of Stars the best musical entertainment show on television. The 15th birthday show will be no exception. Gladys Knight, Boyz II Men, Meshell NdegeOcello, Rachell

Farrell, George Duke, Daryl Hall, Ray Charles, Andre Crouch and many more will join Lou Rawls for a celebration benefiting the United Negro College Fund (UNCF).

The party begins Saturday, January 7, 1995 for seven hours of glittering entertainment broadcast from the famous Apollo Theatre in New York City and CBS Studios in Los Angeles. The show will include inspiring messages by and about students at several of our nations historically black colleges and universities. The broadcast will air in more than 70 television markets nationwide and simulcast on many American Urban Radio Networks stations. Check local listings for time and stations. In its 15th year, the "Lou Rawls Parade of Stars," America's only national telethon for higher education, has already raised more than $100 million for UNCF's 41 member colleges. Last year the show raised $11 million. Proceeds generated (See LOU RAWLS, Page 22)
