"Dick Gregory's Back On Stage And Performing..."

another milestone in his exciting and illustrious career, as he prepares to take his one-man show of comedy and satire to Broadway.

The first notice of his return to the performance arena took place at the recent National Black Theatre Festival in Winston-Salem, North Carolina in August.

His performance of his Broadway-bound one-man show of comedy and satire after an absence of more than two decades was considered by all in attendance... the highlight of the festival.

Gregory, 63, is currently in Los Angeles where he opened on Thursday evening, September 28th at Marla Gibbs' Vision Theatre. The west coast premiere performance of his laugh provoking statements that also makes people think, will run through Sunday, October 15th. During that time period, shows are scheduled for every Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, with matinee performances on Saturday and Sunday at 3:00 p.m.

After a 22-year hiatus from performing and being hailed as the greatest comedian of his era, Dick Gregory, the respected and reigning Civil Rights Activist and Health Guru who once ran for President, has returned to the stage.

His return to the stage marks

Although he didn't perform to a full-house on his opening night, the several hundred people that were there to see and hear him got more than enough in mirth, messages, insights on health and happiness, and the best of Dick Gregory, who relished every minute of being back on stage performing.

"Tinseltown Topics..."

Recently we told you about a new CD album by the reunited Jazz Crusaders that's smoking. Proof of the impact they're making with the new release was witnessed Thursday, September 28th, when the reunited musical aggregation kicked off their national performance and promotional tour with a special one-night stand at The Strand in the beach area of Tinseltown, that literally stopped traffic with the overflow crowd that turned out to see and hear them.

The Month of October will also bring the long awaited performance of Wynton Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra to town for an engagement at the Wiltern Theatre.

Janie Bradford's Heroes And Legends Awards that too place Sunday, September 24th at the J.W. Marriott Towers in Century City is still the talk of the town.

Jackee Harry and veteran R&B recording artist Chuck Jackson of "Any Day Now" fame were among those honored this year. The event is also becoming one of the most prestigious awards ceremonies around.

From the Arsenio Hall camp comes word that the former late night talk show host will be hosting the upcoming "Soul Train 25th Anniversary hall of Fame" special airing on the CBS-TV network November 22nd.

He is also busy developing the first of his three picture deals with Sony. The current production in which he will also star is a comedy about a football player who goes back to school... and that's Hollywood this time!

Until the next time, Lanier.

SELF-REALIZATION

"I REALLY DID IT LAST NIGHT," BARRY THOUGHT. "GOT DRUNK, ACTED STUPID AND WENT HOME WITH..."

"WHO IS THAT?"

"WHAT AM I STUPID? HOW DID I DO THIS?" BARRY BEGAN TO WORRY, REALLY WORRY.

WHAT ABOUT AIDS?

THEN HE REMEMBERED, "HEY, I'M JUST A CARTOON CHARACTER. I DON'T EVEN HAVE TO SHOWER."

GET HIGH, GET STUPID, GET AIDS.
