Thousands of jobs
for Census 2000

If you are looking for an interesting job in the Year 2000, this one may be for you! Census 2000 wants to fill thousands of positions in communities across the country to take the Census.

As a Census taker, you will receive an official identification badge and competitive pay. You need no special experience to apply. You will be trained on the job, paid weekly and reimbursed for mileage. This is a convenient job if you are already working or retired. The hours are flexible: evenings, weekends, and when people in your community are home. You'll be asked to work at least 20 hours a week for approximately four to six weeks. Best of all, you'll work in your own community.

It's important that African Americans are counted in Census 2000. So pick up the phone and call your Local Census Office today or the toll free number!
