

Feast for Hundreds

Sentinel-Voice photo
composition by Mel Davis

Above: Larry Mosley, left, president of the Las Vegas branch of the 100 Black Men of America, appears with Congresswoman Shelley Berkley, D-Nev., and 100 Black Men of America National President Thomas Dortch Jr. during the local chapter's first banquet Saturday at the Paris hotel-casino.

(Adjacent left) Carol Foster and husband Thaddeus enjoy the festivities. Ditto for Former Detroit Judge Wendy Colley and local 100 Black Men of America member Julius Conner (adjacent right). Local television personality Lillian McMorris and Loretta Arrington, liaison to City Councilman Gary Reese (bottom left), read a proclamation. Other attendants included (bottom middle) Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department Captain Greg McCurdy and Susanna Showalter, (bottom right) lawyers Uri Clinton and Denise McCurdy and (adjacent right) Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Carson and (on the right) 100 Black Men of America local member Buford Pender.

