

Al Green, a legendary soul artist who's built an equally notable career as a man of the cloth, was among a handful of venerable performers recently inducted into the Songwriters Hall of Fame.
File photo

Green enters Songwriters Hall

NEW YORK (AP) - Charles Fox, Al Green, Daryl Hall and John Oates, Don McLean and songwriting duo Barrett Strong and Norman Whitfield are this year's inductees into the Songwriters Hall of Fame. The 35th annual induction ceremony will be held June 10 at the Marriott Marquis Hotel. Special award honorees will be announced at a later date.

"We are looking forward to another terrific and memorable evening where we spotlight the accomplishments of those who have provided us with the words and music that form the soundtrack of our lives," Hal David, chairman and chief executive officer of

Bash

(Continued from Page 7) sides to list. All of your favorite desserts are still on the menu.

Gospel Singer Penny Treadwell-Childress provided a lovely version of "You Are the Center of My Joy," as delighted groups ate merrily. The entertainment line-up for Sweet Georgia Browns has a little something for everyone. On Sundays, they will feature a Gospel Jam from 2 to 5:30 p.m.

On Saturday night's vocalist Bobby Rose, formerly of the Rose Brothers and The Band, will host a Saturday night jam. He played some favorites for the crowd, "A Change is Gonna Come" by Sam Cooke and "What's Going On" by Marvin Gaye, giving them a glimpse of all that would accompany a great meal at Sweet Georgia Browns.

To enjoy the best of Las Vegas' southern delectable delights visit Sweet Georgia Browns just a breath away from the Las Vegas Strip at 2600 E. Flamingo Road.

Call (702) 369-0245 for orders to go.

the Songwriters Hall of Fame, said in a recent statement.

Previous inductees include Carole King, Paul Simon, Bob Dylan, Billy Joel, Elton John, Stevie Wonder, Brian Wilson, James Taylor, James Brown, Curtis Mayfield, Jim Croce, David and Burt Bacharach.

Sentinel-Voice photos by Ramon Savoy

CIVIC SALUTE

Justice, Unity, Generosity and Service (J.U.G.S.), an international civic group, held a tribute to singer Dinah Washington April 4 at the Suncoast. (Left) J.U.G.S. member Jackie Shropshire, president Nona Carroll and attendee Piper Overstreet. (At podium) Madelyn Mokaie received the Founders Award for the Mokaie Scholarship Foundation. (Bottom right) J.U.G.S. member Princess Kelly Nga, left, stands with Letha Davis who, at 21, took guardianship of her 9 siblings' to prevent them from being placed into the state foster care system.

STEVEN HORSFORD

FOR

STATE SENATE

The Honorable Congresswoman Shelley Berkley together with

State Senator Maggie Carlton
Dr. Robert Fowler
Adriana Martinez
Diane Pollard
Jacquelyn Shropshire
City Councilman Lawrence Weekly

Dr. Tracy B. Cotton
Lois Green
Rose McKinney-James
County Commissioner Rory Reid
Pastor Ronald Thomas
Shannon West

Verlia Davis-Hoggard
Geo Arguello-Klein
Larry Mosley
Tony Sanchez
Tyrone Thompson
County Commissioner Myrna Williams

invite you to join

Steven Horsford

as he launches his campaign for Nevada State Senate District 4

Friday, April 16th

5:15 p.m.

Clark County Community Resource Center
2432 N. Martin Luther King Blvd.

(In front of the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Statue on the NE corner of Martin Luther King, Jr. Blvd. and Carey Ave.)

Join us on this special occasion if you believe in putting community first!

Food will be served immediately following the announcement.

For more information, contact Lillian McMorris at 808-9195 or Lillian@lillianmcmorris.com.

Paid Political Advertisement by Friends to Elect Steven Horsford for State Senate, District 4