the buyout.

Negotiations for the label buyout and Jay-Z's appointment at Def Jam were separate and not contingent on each other, the source said.

Dash and Kareem "Biggs" Burke, another former Roc-A-Fella stakeholder, are in preliminary talks with Def Jam to launch their own label, another source said on condition of anonymity.

While Jay-Z has declared his retirement from performing, he still owes Def Jam two albums and a greatest hits record, the first source said. The rapper is tentatively planning to release the greatest hits album with a few new tracks next summer.

A spokeswoman said Jay-Z was not available for comment.
