Despite the ill feelings of residents like Johnson, Wal-Mart remains a favorite among many Americans.

Those who live near a

Wal-Mart built recently at 1521 Cockrell Hill Road said they were glad to see the store.

"I have no complaints about it," said Juan Flores, 18, who works in Cockrell Hill. "I go there and I shop for my groceries."

AIRPORT SECURITY ADMINISTRATOR
McCarran International Airport
Salary $59,417.28 – $92,092.00 DOQ
The progressive and rapidly expanding county airport system, including McCarran International Airport with its 36 million passengers annually (12th busiest in the world), is seeking a new Airport Security Administrator. The Administrator reports to the Deputy Director of Aviation and administers a comprehensive program to ensure airport security in compliance with federal regulations and the Department of Aviation's Security Plan. With a staff of 15 FTE's, the Administrator trains and develops staff, makes recommendations about Security Plan updates, and maintains liaison with airport tenants, contractors (e.g., computer card access contractors), the Transportation Security Administration, and the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. Additionally, the Security Administrator will have frequent interaction with the Director of Aviation and with other division heads on the executive team. Airport administrative offices are located at McCarran.
The Airport Security Administrator must have strong analytical, organizational, supervisory and technical writing skills, a team-oriented style and substantial experience in administering a complex and critical security program. Excellent written and oral communication skills are prerequisites, along with solid interpersonal skills and decision-making ability. A Bachelor's degree in Business or Public Administration, Law Enforcement, or a closely related field is required, AND four (4) years of administrative experience in an airport security setting, two (2) years of which includes supervisory experience, along with the ability to acquire and maintain a valid Nevada driver's license. Experience in a law enforcement setting is desirable. (Note: an equivalent combination of formal education and relevant experience may be considered.)
Clark County's very family-friendly communities offer an abundance of parks, trails, and golf courses, along with cultural venues and nearby Lake Mead. Executive and affordable housing are plentiful and residents enjoy the benefit of paying no state income tax. The county offers a generous benefit package that includes the 100% agency-funded Public Employee Retirement System.
If you have the credentials to collaborate with a team oriented staff and forward thinking executive office in a fast-paced environment, please send your resume, list of three references, current salary and cover letter by February 21, 2005. Your submittals should reflect the size of budget and staff you have managed and both months and years of positions held. Submit to David Harris at:
