

LeBron, Wade lead way for team USA

LAS VEGAS (AP) - Mike Krzyzewski's version of summer school was back in session Monday.

With the start of the world championships only 20 days away and their first exhibition game coming this week, LeBron James, Dwyane Wade and the rest of the U.S. basketball team returned here for their second segment of training camp.

And they were going to see a different mentality from Krzyzewski.

For the Duke coach, the first part of camp was about getting to know his roster of NBA players. This time, it's about getting them ready to win games.

"We'll get much more detailed," he said last week. "We haven't put in a lot of sets yet, quick hitters, out-of-bounds situations. We'll get them more ready to play a game. This week was more about getting a good foundation for a system and building camaraderie.

"Now we have to start doing more basketball stuff where we actually have to look like we know what we're doing."

They don't have long. The Americans will play tonight against Puerto Rico — the team that embarrassed them in their opening game at the 2004 Olympics.

The U.S. team reconvened without Adam Morrison, Luke Ridnour and Shawn Marion, who didn't make the 15-man roster that will travel to China and Korea for more training and exhibition games following this camp. Marion would undoubtedly have been a part of that group, but he developed a sore knee during the first segment.

Three more players will have to be dropped before the Americans submit their final 12-man roster before the start of the worlds.

Also possible during the second part of camp was a visit from another injured teammate: Kobe Bryant. The NBA's leading scorer, one of the first players chosen by managing director Jerry Colangelo for the national team, is unavailable while rehabbing from knee surgery earlier this month. However, USA Basketball previously said that Bryant was still expected to join his teammates in Las Vegas and travel with them to Asia.

The U.S. still has James and Wade, the NBA's biggest young superstars. Then again, they were also on the

'04 team that lost three times in Athens and managed only a bronze medal. So they didn't need to be told there was plenty of work still to be done in the coming days.
