movement, press freedom and other sensitive issues.

The report said China has become "more balanced in its approach" to Darfur recently, but said it still "has done much more to support Khartoum than to help the people of Darfur."

Activists also released a letter to the Coca-Cola Co., one of three sponsors of the Olympic torch relay, from a coalition of 153 Tibet groups asking it to press the International Olympic Committee to move the relay out of ethnic Tibetan areas. The letter also called on Coke to end its relay sponsorship.

"I am certain that you do not wish for Coca-Cola to be associated with brutality and bloodshed in Tibet," said the letter, signed by Alison Reynolds, executive director of the Free Tibet Campaign.

Chinese authorities cracked last week down on protesters including Buddhist monks in Tibet after demonstrations against Beijing's 57-year rule over the mountainous region turned violent.

Officials from some countries expected to host part of the torch relay said they had no plans to cancel the event.

"The relay will continue as planned," said Thailand's tourism minister, Weerasak Kohsurat. "The police will provide security, which is standard procedure, but they will evaluate the situation when the time comes if there is a need for tighter security."

PUBLIC NOTICE CITY OF LAS VEGAS 2008-2009 ACTION PLAN FOR HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Draft copies of the city of Las Vegas 2008-2009 Action Plan for Housing and Community Development are now available for a 30-day public review and comment period. The Action Plan outlines the housing and community development strategies and activities for the use of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) formula grant program funds. These programs include the American Dream Down payment Initiative (ADDI), Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), Emergency Shelter Grant (ESG), HOME Investment Partnerships (HOME), and Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA). These programs will target eligible low and moderate-income residents, special needs populations, and low and moderate-income residential areas in the city of Las Vegas. The HOPWA program will target eligible persons and activities located throughout Clark County.

The Action Plan outlines the housing and community development strategies and activities which will be undertaken by the city of Las Vegas for the period of July 1, 2008 through June 30, 2009. The preparation of this plan included extensive opportunities for citizen input and comment. The city of Las Vegas held focus group community meetings, public hearings, and public meetings and consulted with several non-profit and for-profit organizations, and government agencies.

The housing and community development strategies and activities included in this plan will seek to achieve HUD's goals to provide decent housing, a suitable living environment, and expand economic opportunities in the city of Las Vegas. Affordable housing activities include new affordable housing construction, housing rehabilitation, rental assistance, homeownership assistance, and housing assistance for persons with special needs. Homeless activities include providing essential services for homeless persons, operating costs of homeless shelters, and transitional housing. Community development activities include new construction and rehabilitation of public facilities, infrastructure improvements, and public services for disabled persons, youth programs, affordable child care, senior services, and employment assistance.

The Action Plan must be submitted to HUD by May 15, 2008 for HUD's review and approval. If you would like to receive copies of the Draft Action Plan, please contact the City of Las Vegas Neighborhood Services Department at 229-2330 or email a request with your name and address to: canderson@lasvegasnevada.gov. All comments on the Draft Action Plan must be submitted in writing no later than 5:00 p.m. on Monday, April 28, 2008 to:

Chris Anderson, Neighborhood Services Department, 400 Stewart Avenue, 2nd Floor, Las Vegas, NV 89101, canderson@lasvegasnevada.gov

Posting Site for the Draft 2008-2009 Action Plan: Neighborhood Services Department, 400 Stewart Avenue, 2nd Floor, Las Vegas, NV 89101

A Public Hearing to provide an opportunity for the public to comment on the approval of the Draft 2008-2009 Action Plan will take place at the city of Las Vegas Council Meeting on Wednesday, April 16, 2008, at 9:00 a.m. at the City Council Chambers, 400 Stewart Avenue, Las Vegas, NV 89101.
