

Dance, Dance Revolution

Sentinel-Voice
photos by Ramon Savoy

As a prelude to the Las Vegas chapter of the NAACP's signature ACT-SO competition for young people, the chapter hosted the second annual Las Vegas Top Dance Crew Competition at Canyon Springs High School. (ACT-SO is an acronym for the Afro-Academic, Cultural, Technological and Scientific Olympics). The competition featured young dancers competing for a cash prize. Show Stoppers #1 (directly above) won the 6-12 youth division, while Above All lower right) captured the top prize in the teen division. Other performers included Hypnotix (top right). Adrian Burse (below) performed, as did the Canyon Springs drum line (top left) and a wheelchair-bound young man with the help of a member of a local motorcycle group (far right). Franklyn G of KCEP 88.1 FM (right) deejayed the event. The Las Vegas NAACP is hosting the ACT-SO contest on Friday at 6 p.m. at Nevada Partners on 710 W. Lake Mead.

