Special Honors and Medallions

CENTENNIAL MEDALLION

The Nevada Centennial Medallion is presented annually to the graduating senior earning the highest four-year scholastic average at UNLV. Due to the early date of Commencement this year, it is impossible to determine by the time of the ceremony the name of the student who has achieved this award for 1993.

However, as soon as all grades have been checked and verified, the 1993 recipient will be identified and presented the medallion at a special ceremony.

One-hundred-and-one medallions were given to the university by the Rotary Club of Las Vegas at the time of the state's centennial celebration in 1964. The last medallion will be awarded in 2064, the year of Nevada's two hundredth birthday.

Previous recipients are listed below in descending order from 1992 to 1964.

Sallie H. Brasuell	Diane N. Aiello
Danny Siciliano	Steven B. Sedlacek
Natalia Hinojos	Mary V. Dibble
Paula Naegle	Kathleen Ashton
Lisa Marie Znosko	Phyllis J. Zagortz
Celeste Marie Williams	William M. Brown
Dinah Louise Beggs	Chris A. Beecroft Jr.
Janice Etta Woodford	Michael G. Carlson
Connie Maria Morantes	Amalie A. Austin
Julia C. Angelica	Carol James
Joanne Andrews	Myrna D. Selwyn
John Surina	Janet N. Monson
Nancy M. Forni	Jacqueline Mongeot
Judi D. Record	Dominic I. Daileida
Martin D. Schaffer

PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The Presidential Medallion is the official insignia of the President's Office and is worn at Commencement and other ceremonial occasions. The medallion celebrates its twentieth anniversary this year. It was a gift to the university from the Student Senate and Activities Board of the Consolidated Students of the University of Nevada (CSUN) presented in 1973.

Cast of sterling silver, the medallion embodies the official seal of the State of Nevada. Links of the chain carry the names of the current and former presidents of the university, with their terms of office, and symbolize the continuity of responsibility in the office.

PHI KAPPA PHI MEDALLIONS

Graduating seniors who have been initiated into UNLV's chapter of Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society are presented with bronze medallions hung on a scarlet or blue ribbon to be worn at Commencement. Each year Chapter 100 at UNLV invites to membership the top 10 percent of the senior class and the top 5 percent of the junior class in all academic disciplines.

BETA GAMMA SIGMA GOLD CORD

The Gold Cord worn by graduates of the College of Business and Economics designates membership in Beta Gamma Sigma, the National Honor Society for Collegiate Schools of Business.

GOLDEN KEY NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY MEDALLIONS

The Gold Key National Honor Society is open to juniors and seniors of all academic disciplines who have earned a 3.3 grade point average or higher. Graduating seniors wearing a gold medallion on a blue and gold cord are members of this prestigious society.

GRADUATION WITH HONORS

Summa cum laude, magna cum laude, and cum laude are the designations for students graduating with a baccalaureate degree who have earned 60 credits at UNLV and have a grade point average that places them in the top ten percent of students graduating from their college. Summa cum laude is bestowed on students who are in the top 1 percent of their college graduating class. Magna cum laude is bestowed on graduating students who are in the top 2 percent to 5 percent, and cum laude is bestowed on graduating students who are in the top 6 percent to 10 percent. These designations are final for August and December graduates, but the designations in the commencement program for May graduates are based on only seven semesters of academic accomplishment since final grades have not yet been tabulated. Students who have achieved the mark of summa cum laude, magna cum laude, or cum laude after their final semester's work will have the honor indicated on their diplomas and final transcripts.

UNIVERSITY MACE

The University Mace, which has its traditions deeply rooted in history, is carried on ceremonial occasions at the head of the academic procession by the Grand Marshal, whose symbolic duty is the protection of the university, its persons, and its processes.

Originally a weapon, the earliest mace was made of iron and was capable of breaking armor. Bishops, forbidden by canon law to bear swords, sometimes took the mace with them into battle. The mace consisted of a long club with a ball of iron, steel, or brass at one end, and was used in warfare as late as the sixteenth century.

The use of the mace as an instrument of ceremony, however, began about the year 1250 in England and France, and is still used widely today in university commencement programs as well as in governmental ceremonies.

The UNLV Mace has been cast from polished metal and features a black hardwood staff. Facets of the cubical top embody the university's seal; a symbolic depiction of the Statue of Liberty; a likeness of Renaissance scholar Leonardo da Vinci, representing the integration of knowledge from many fields; and a shelf of books flanked by artists' brushes.

The mace bearer today is Ms. Billie M. Polson, Head Catalog Librarian, who is marking her thirty-fourth year with the University of Nevada System.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The history of academic dress reaches far back into the early days of the oldest universities. It appears that academic clothing was first introduced and worn at Cambridge and Oxford Universities in the thirteenth century.

The European custom was carried to America with the establishment of our own colleges and universities. In 1895 an academic code of dress was adopted, and the standards were accepted by most of the colleges and universities in the United States. Today, the black robe, hood, and cap are generally worn.

Three different types of black gowns may be distinguished in the academic procession. The bachelors' gowns have long pointed sleeves; the masters' gowns have oblong sleeves with an arc cut away in the front. The doctors' gowns are faced with velvet and have bell-shaped sleeves with three bars of velvet.

The Oxford cap, the so-called mortarboard, is black and has a long tassel fastened to the middle of the top that is worn pendant over the left front of the cap. The hood, draped from the shoulder, denotes by its length and colors the degree and the institution which conferred the degree.

May 16, 1993

To the graduates of 1993:

On behalf of the UNLV Alumni Association, we would like to extend our most heartfelt congratulations to you on this momentous occasion. A college degree is a hallmark for which many strive but few accomplish. Today you have achieved a milestone in your life; today you begin a new adventure in living.

The Alumni Association encourages you to continue to support the fine institution from which you have just graduated by joining those of us who have continued to commit ourselves to this university. Membership in the UNLV Alumni Association will allow a stronger foundation to emerge as we work toward the goal of making our school the best it can be.

Enjoy the gifts of today; they will be everlasting.
