OBSERVATIONS

by CHARLES "POP" SQUIRES

A HALF CENTURY OF SERVICE

THOSE MONTHS of October, November and December, 1905, are still vivid in my memory, because those were the months which, it seemed to me, we were to decide the fate of sick and failing Las Vegas. It seemed to me that Las Vegas had fallen as low as a suffering patient could go without being yanked into the realm of the gone and forgotten. With my partners in the Las Vegas Improvement Company, which had taken on the load of carrying and paying for a batch of lots in Clark's Las Vegas Townsite; and the Las Vegas Trading Company, which had bought a large stock of lumber, building hardware, cement, etc., with which to build a young city which it appeared did not want to be built. I felt that it was up to us to save ourselves by starting some new enterprises.

The building of the First State Bank, which still stands as good as new on the corner of First and Fremont was one way in which we might build public confidence in the town. Mr. J. Ross Clark, vice president of the railroad which had created the town, and his brother, Senator William A. Clark of Montana, who had financed and built the railroad, both agreed with us, so we started work on the new building. That made some of the pessimists, with whom we were cursed, sit up and rub their eyes.

The next enterprise (which I must admit also provided a market for quite a batch of our otherwise unsalable building material), was the Arizona Club of J. O. McIntosh on First Street. Although in "Block Sixteen" it was a respectable resort as long as Jim McIntosh owned it. It attracted many people to Las Vegas and when it opened its doors to the public in March, 1906, we knew it had really stimulated the town.

But, encouraging as they were, we knew that a lot more was needed to create a healthy community. I suppose that I was the primary dreamer on the subject — the providing of electric lights and telephones. We knew very well that such an enterprise would take money — considerable of it, much more than we had.

I found that the Armour Ice Plant had installed a small electric generator for which they had no immediate use and the engineer in charge got permission from his company to sell us electricity at about cost so that we could put in electric lights to replace the fearfully dangerous gasoline lamps which were then in use in every saloon, store, tent and shack in town. So about fifty years ago just now, several of us incorporated the Consolidated Power & Telephone Company. Although we found that the electric generator from which we wished to distribute electric current to the business section of Las Vegas, was direct current, and required large wires to transmit it, we took 4' by 6' redwood timbers from our lumber yard and used them as poles and strung copper wire about the size of ones little finger to bring the current from the live plant into town and early in February, 1906, had an electric lamp in about every place in town. It was a wonderful improvement and seemed a sure indication that Las Vegas would live.

But that was just the beginning of our troubles. The demand for electric lights was so great that the copper wire we were using could not carry the load and the voltage dropped from 110 to 90 and our electric lights were reduced to a sickly red glow.

Of course our customers were very much dissatisfied with their electric lights and many of them did not pay their bills. We could not blame them because, although we were giving them all we could, they were not getting much for their money. It was early in 1906 as I remember, that I went to Los Angeles and consulted with my friend, Ira Francis, who was manager of the Los Angeles branch

The Commercial Rabbit Raisers, under the leadership of Ann Brown will create a new and solid industry, not only profiting from the meat but also from the fur! I predict you will wear a rabbit fur hat next year, and you will also have rabbit for dinner at least once a week! by JACK CORTEZ

STAN IRWIN, (publicist at the HOTEL SAHARA) left for New York last week. His purpose is to audition lounge groups for the Casbar and also acts for the Conga Room.

When BILLY WILLIAMS closes at the NEW FRONTIER HOTEL, he crosses the Boulevard and opens at the RIVIERA HOTEL. TONY PASTOR and his fellows will follow Billy into the Frontier.

Ran into BOB RICE at the DUNES HOTEL. His right arm is in a sling. It was badly bruised and completely discolored, as a result of a bathtub mishap. Bob is now ready to vouch that more accidents occur at home, than elsewhere.

There will undoubtedly be loud denials. However, we are virtually certain that BILL MILLER (ROYAL NEVADA HOTEL) has signed RED SKELTON and SARAH VAUGHN to appear on the same bill (in the near future). And — if EDDIE CANTOR receives the green signal from his medics, he will bathe in this bistro's spotlight on another bill.

Chorines are really ga-ga in anticipation. Why is it that most of these gals want to "mother" a fellow? At least that's what the dancing damsels indicate their feelings are for JULIUS LA ROSA. Well, we'll find out soon enough. The singer opens at the HOTEL RANCHO VEGAS, November 9th.

Back in town is JAKE FREEDMAN, the "Little General" of the SANDS HOTEL. He returned from Houston, with his pockets full of Texas "calling cards." Did we hear you ask what Texas "calling cards" are? Just $1,000 bills — that's all, brother!

From San Francisco comes a note from IVAN PAUL, Nite Club Editor of the San Francisco Examiner. He sends his fond regards to the PARIS SISTERS (at the FLAMINGO HOTEL) and their manager, NORTON WAISS. We thank him for his kind interest in our publication and the wonderful compliments he has given it.

DR. ARTHUR ELLEN, the famous hypnotist who made front page news all over the nation with his recent $100,000 "Truth or Consequence" performance, returns to the HOTEL EL CORTEZ, November 3rd.

If you're looking for a good definition of "Conscientious", just watch EUGENE MURPHY, publicist at WILBUR CLARK's DESERT INN. Mr. Murphy doesn't worry about the amount of hours he devotes to his daily routine. In fact, he can always be found starting his day at 8:00 ayem (or earlier). Any man would be mighty proud to have someone like this running part of his organization. No headaches would reach the top brass from this quarter.

Visiting the BEN GOFFSTEINS at the RIVIERA HOTEL are the C. J. LATTAS. Mr. Latta is in charge of the ABC STUDIOS in London, a WARNER BROTHERS affiliate. When the Goffsteins were in England, they became quite friendly with the Londoners and are reciprocating their hospitality with a personal tour of our own fabulous town.

"FOX HOLE" JACK HOLLINGS is a be-medaled hero of World War I and is always doing something for veterans. He left for Fort Riley, Kansas (this past week), to be the guest of GENERAL PAT MOLLOY, Commander of the First Division. "Fox-hole" is an honorary life-time member of that division and has worked at JOE W. BROWN's HORSESHOE CLUB for many years.

LOU STYLES and his STYLISTS, entertaining HOTEL SHOWBOAT patrons during the late hours, came to FLV from the ALAMO HOTEL, in Colorado Springs. Three versatile fellows, they do distinctive impressions, vocals, instrumentals and comedy bits, with equal aplomb.

The FOUR KNIGHTS are playing to capacity crowds nightly in the Pirate's Den of the EL CORTEZ HOTEL. The reason being that this stellar group LIBERACE — Lee and George, sent out invitations to a gala party at Lee's home — post-scripted, "Mom's doing the Cooking!" And Mom Liberace cooked (she could have had it catered with the money pouring in, but no!) as Mom explained, "We are just simple folk, and my sons success hasn't changed our way of life. MY boys like my cooking, and I like to cook for them."

George, whose record albums rate him one of the world's finest musicians, greeted me at the door. And Lee wearing a plain suit enhanced by a ruffled and tucked white shirt and a gold lame tie, explained (when I asked, where?) that the mail box had finally been stolen. It was in the shape of a piano. His home is elegantly in good taste with the piano shaped pool lighted with floating candelabras. His own piano has a glass plastic top, and his boudoir and bath are an exclamation! Lee's bed has a piano shaped headboard, and the coverlet is white velvet with gold lame pillows. The bath is black tile with a sunken tub with indoor planters indirectly lighted. It is mirrored from wall to wall, and the door handles are solid silver. It is something to behold — in the shades of Valentino and his day. But let me tell you, when you see Warner Bros. "Sincerely Yours" (which I was to see two nights later) you can also say that Lee Liberace has smouldering dark eyes with a great depth of soul, understanding, and heart — as Valentino must have had. For here is a new star who could let his brilliant piano go, and still be a tremendous new romantic star on the screen. Surprised? So was I!

Getting back to the party, Jack Warner was among the many enjoying himself. Lee said, "Pardon me if I watch the Ed Sullivan show. I am on the show in a film clip tonight. Two weeks from now, George and I guest on his show in New York." Lee discovered he wasn't on and remarked, "I'm embarrassed."

Mom Liberace, a real lady, said, "I started cooking the turkeys (five of the biggest George and Lee could find, all over 25 pounds each) two days ago. George took two home to be roasted in his ovens. And the dressing," she smiled modestly, "I won a blue ribbon for my turkey dressing at a fair in Wisconsin." She made little finger rolls as light as angels fluff and twice as good. She made spaghetti, her own way, the kind you roll the paste on marble slabs. And, "We had 25 pounds of ground beef for meat balls." She made luscious salad rings, a chocolate éclair, I could eat by the dozen. I restrained myself to one. Sigh, but I'd loved another.

Lee gave us a copy of his book on modern piano. I fully expect to amaze my friends and play, that is after I read it.

George has just bought an estate of his own. He'll be having a house warming by the Christmas holidays. All we say is, we hope Mom Liberace again "Does the cooking." That's something to remember. And I want her recipes.

George is not in the Liberace movie by Warner Bros. When you see it you can understand, that while the two brothers team as stars, and are, in their own respective rights, just that, that to have had George in the film, would have too closely identified the brothers with their television show. Public demand however, will see the two in the next.

I think "Sincerely Yours" is one of the finest pieces of entertainment Hollywood has produced in years. Lee's piano, he plays with his heart in his hands, left the audience begging for more. Aside from that talent, here is a serious romantic new star who gives with his heart in such technique to acclaim him overnight — a new matinee diol. There's no corn, no "Mr. Smiley" in this. His role is serious, and you feel it with him all of the way. After the picture I grabbed his hand, completely fascinated, I was, and his sister Angie rushed up to wipe

ATTENTION DOG LOVERS!
Our own SILVER STATE KENNEL CLUB is holding their first annual ALL BREED DOG SHOW 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. November 6 at CITY PARK. This show is to be an annual affair open to local dogs only. Anyone interested in entering their "pet pooch" should contact ROY SMITH at STEWARTS MARKET. Here is an opportunity for you canine boosters to pick up a few pointers on grooming your dogs and perhaps pick up information about the pet you've always wanted to own. Some of the best "stock" in the West will be vieing for top honors, so make a note, November 6 is a day the entire family will enjoy. . . .

I ran into DORIS, the "7 UP" GIRL the other night and man was she happy. She had just been made HONORARY SHERIFF OF NELLIS AIR FORCE BASE. She was so elated about it all that I expected her to explode at any minute. She also doubles as a camera girl at HOTEL EL RANCHO VEGAS and HOTEL THUNDERBIRD each evening. . . . Does beautiful work too. . . . Listen to the new Disc Jockey show emanating from FOXY'S over KENO every night midnight till 4 a.m. JAY DAVIS, long-time FLV favorite, is your "D.J." He spins the platters you love to hear and loves playing your requests. . . . I understand that the FRIENDLY IRISHMAN, one of our oldest Used Car Dealers has sold out to AL NAGLE of PAPPY'S AUTO SALES. AL's brother MICK will be the new lot manager. . . . De-lovely BARBRA CLARKE who is LINE CAPTAIN of the COPA GIRLS at the SANDS HOTEL suffered a very painful and unfortunate accident during a production number in the COPA ROOM. She and her partner were executing a very difficult lift when her foot hit the brass railing that encompasses the stage. Although she was in a great deal of pain she finished the number. Later she was told to see a doctor and found that she had broken her foot in three places. BARBRA will be laid up for at least a month. There's one consolation, honey, at least it's a month's vacation with pay. . . . BETTY JOE ALDRICH, a cashier at the NEVADA CLUB, and her three year old daughter MARSHA were reunited last week. Little MARSHA had been living with her grandparents in DELTA, COLORADO, while mama found employment and got settled here. The separation was just too much for BETTY JOE, so now mother and daughter are together again and everybody is happy. . . . ANDREW GAINES is the new bellman on the graveyard shift at the NEW FRONTIER HOTEL. He was formerly employed at the EL CORTEZ HOTEL. . . . Watch for the television debuts of NORMAN ALBERSHARDT, AL NEWBERG, and BOB THOMAS all employed at the SANDS HOTEL. The boys have spent the last couple of weeks shooting commercials for ED SULLIVAN'S TOAST OF THE TOWN sponsored by LINCOLN MERCURY. You'll enjoy watching these three kids. NORMAN gives a short driving exhibition, AL is the model seen in the close ups of the Mercury, while BOB, the back of his head is very pretty as he drives the slick new model down the highway. . . . BILL GREEN, Bar Manager at the GOLDEN NUGGET, has been ill since his return from the big city. He missed the final two games of the World Series due to the illness and hasn't fully recovered. Hope to see you back on the job soon Bill. . . . BUCK PLAIN of the same club is spending his vacation in JACKSON HOLE, WYOMING, doing a little fishing, hunting, and RELAXING. . . . Did you know the U.S. POST OFFICE located at the FRONTIER LAKE is the only POST OFFICE in the world that serves an area in which there are no permanent residents? Also, that it is one of the two POST OFFICES in the world that remains open on SUNDAY? . . . Don't miss seeing "the old school teacher" SAM LEVENSON who is appearing at the DUNES HO-

GREAT NEWS! Who do you think is the latest attraction in the EL RANCHO HOTEL'S LOUNGE — none other than that witty gent, LENNY KENT. Busy man, this Lenny, but that is understandable, with two ex-wives — $440.00 a week — and the "buy me, bring me, get me, take me, buy me, etc." . . . which is the funniest "bit" that I have heard for ages. Crowds roar with guffaws and much merriment. The not so subtle insinuations of this comic will literally keep you in stitches. The Lounge Act that he does is equal to, in fact, I'd say funnier than his regular show routines for the crowds join in and request number's that have made LENNY a famous personality. This is indeed an unexpected treat for us all. You owe yourself this happy interlude before he gets "even" with the house. . . .

Dulcet tones of the sweet, muted trumpet of HOYT HENRY that are now to be heard in the Lounge of BILL MILLER'S ROYAL NEVADA HOTEL were heard in the soft and sweet orchestra of TED LEWIS. Mr. Lewis is a perfectionist and that explains the calibre of "LUCKYS" beautiful blowing on his horn — sheer perfection. This group also features the delightful songstress SALLY KORBY who can chase all your cares away, just listening to her. . . .

What a versatile lad, this DAVE BURTON. Here is a man who can sing to you in thirteen different languages. Evidently, a lucky number judging from their popularity and the wonderful reception afforded them at the STAGEBAR at the FLAMINGO HOTEL. This group recently recorded an unusual platter, "Where You Hurt the Most" (a Sousa March) with "Ooba, Ooba, Ooba" (a rock & roll type) on the flip side. Happy sales in the record department and much success to DAVE BURTON & THE BURTON BOYS. They are here for the first time, their home base has been New York City and the surrounding territory. Glad they made it out to the wide open spaces. . . .

MARCO RIZO, who just closed at the STARLIGHT LOUNGE of the RIVIERA HOTEL opened recently at the MOCAMBO in Hollywood and is "knocking 'em dead" with his crazy Latin rhythms. In this town where talent is abundant, Marco has been welcomed. Great going, Marco!

You'll do a double take in the CASBAR LOUNGE of the SAHARA HOTEL these days, then you will discover — JACK KENT, drummer for the PIPERS is a dead ringer for GENE KRUPA. They are not only look alike, they are play alike, also. Jack sure can beat those drums. Three is their lucky number this week — they have signed a three month contract, and they have lived in Las Vegas for three years. Yes, sir, this is a local group that is now receiving the attention they deserve for they are excellent musicians and entertainers. . . .

Watch for BUDDY GRECO's new long-playing album of "Out of Nowhere", "You Can't Take That Away From Me". This former piano player for BENNY GOODMAN is touched with the same magic as his previous boss. Not only does he play a soothing, gentle piano, he croons a mellow tune. You can catch the BUDDY GRECO TRIO in person at the SILVER QUEEN LOUNGE in the SANDS HOTEL.

VICKI FRANCISCO, pert vocalist with SHOWBOAT'S JOHNNY SAVAGE QUARTET, knows baseball like QUEEN ELIZABETH knows cotton picking. Overhearing a discussion of a recent series player's fast-breaking curves, Vicki observed brightly, "But doesn't that make them extremely difficult to hit?" She was serious yet!

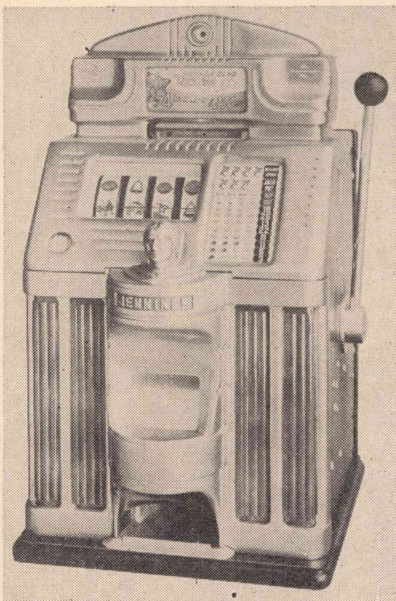

It will be wonderful to see the remarkable SALMAS BROTHERS back in our midst. They open in the CLOUD NINE LOUNGE at the NEW FRONTIER HOTEL, November 3rd. This very talented group is a great

COME IN, Mrs. Bipple! Happy Hallowe'en to you, and all the thousands who engage in "trick or treat", "Pumpkin-Come-Eye", and "Jack O' El Lantern" activities. It may be ridiculous to be a witch for an evening, but what fun! Thousands of Hallowe'en parties here in Hollywood — at homes — at the night spots — special music, costumes — and then one recalls those days in childhood, when we spent this frosty evening of fun, in an old abandoned cemetery, with the other kids. Curfew rang at eight in our town, and whether goblin, witch or just plain bed sheet-wrapped, we hied it home via an alley before we were caught. Now we can stay out after eight, but it will never be as much fun. . . . So, dearie, if you'll just hang your outsize sheet on the peg board, and lay your mask in the watercress, I'll give off as per usual.

One of our most publicized parties for the season is the annual Jack O'Lantern Ball held by the League for Crippled Children. This year, the gay affair will be staged at the Beverly Hilton Hotel, in the great and grand ballroom, with smart society flowing into the rollicking party, whose master of ceremonies happens to be Art Linkletter. As proceeds are all donated to the Orthopaedic Hospital's Rehabilitation Center, folks love to contribute, in addition to having a wonderful evening. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Sherman, official host and hostess of the early Cocktail party, will greet guests under a gigantic "Lucky Golden Pumpkin", which will spill dozens and dozens of gifts from it's huge laughing mouth. This year, Mrs. Elton Hallett, who is ball chairman, Mr. Hallett, Dr. Brockway, and Mrs. Alvia Brockway, (his wife and president of the league), will also greet the guests, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Forest E. Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Coulson, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. Mark A. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Winne, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald F. Rackett.

Speaking of socialites, how thrilled we were to have Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ricciardi of Palm Beach, drop in for cocktails last week. Toni and Rick, as they are known to their friends, spent a few days at the Beverly Hills Hotel, and then on to FLV for a visit at El Rancho Vegas. As they have visited every country in the world, by air, travel or in their own famous yacht, they decided it was time to see their own country. Never having been west before, Toni was quite excited over seeing FLV. They brought news from our old friend, Franklin Hughes, and tell us that he has more work than he can handle in decorating. (He is known internationally for his murals). We might add that Toni is one of the most beautiful women we have seen for ages, and we do see quite a number of them around studios.

Mrs. Bipple, do you know why black cats are considered bad luck by superstitious people? Sure, I know. I'm really up on my black cat lore. Firstly, thusly, and who caresedly, we find them displayed Hallowe'en days, because in ancient times they were supposedly the companion of witches. In 1854, a book titled "Beware of the Cat" was published and known as one of the "Black-Letter" books. (Wonder if our present-day Little Black Book originated from that source?) "Beware the Cat" gave warning that black cats were witches in disguise, and that killing the cat did not mean the witch was killed, as the latter could take on the body of a cat nine times. From that, we get the old saying that a cat has nine lives.

During the Middle Ages, the brain of a black cat was an absolute essential ingredient in all witch doctors' recipes for magic brew. So where did the witch doctors get their ideas? . . . History tells us they based these beliefs on an ancient Egyptian lore. The Egyptian cat-headed goddess, "Pasht", was said to have nine lives. However, they revered this nine-lived cat goddess, but through the years confusion mixed everyone up and the bad luck superstition evolved from the DROPPED by Las Vegas this week on my annual trek back to the coast from my cottage and the most exciting news I heard was from Gene Murphy who was breakfasting with Allard Roan at the DI. Gene tells me that at long last WESTERN AIRLINES are inaugurating a flight from the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul to Las Vegas. Gosh how long I have fought with WAL to do this — heretofore I have had to fly to LA and then back to LV. There is a wealth of untapped business in the Upper Midwest that Las Vegas should be getting and this new flight will do much to stimulate western vacations instead of Florida. Will have more on this flight next week.

Found a new and exciting place to dine in Minneapolis before leaving. It is the new Bavarian restaurant out at 66th & Lyndale called the HEIDELBERG. Authentic German dishes with the best German potato pancakes I have ever eaten — even better than at Henrici's in Chicago. Took my cousin Clayton McCartney and his friend, Jim Oliverson, both Freshmen at the U this year and from Olivia, Minnesota, the town that gave us the author Kathleen Winsor of FOREVER AMBER fame. Clay's father is supt. of schools in Olivia and we argue long and loud as to the quality of the present day high school students — I, of course, haven't much time for them after being used to seeing California zoot-suiters and hot-rodgers cavorting around all the time, but after spending an evening or two in the company of Clay and Jim, I begin to see what Ralph means when he says that high school students are far above what we were in our time. I don't know when I have spent a nicer evening — handsome Jim Oliverson, coming from a farm as he does, couldn't be finer and I would swear that he was accustomed to far more culture, refinement, table etiquette, and finesse than any of the kids being brought up in our cities today. When I see such fine boys I begin to feel that our country won't be in such bad hands come the next generation.

Back in the depression when I hitchhiked to Chicago to be a Page at the national Democratic Convention in 1932 I stopped off to visit my father's relatives who live on farms around Creston, Illinois — had intended to stay overnight as I had never met any of these cousins, but I stayed the balance of the summer — nearly two months and felt something like THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER. The "Hills" around here were the salt of the earth, the finest farmers in the finest agricultural state and the Union, and they had been hard hit by HOOVERISM, and in this atmosphere of no prices, and no hope, a revolution was born that had lasting results. The Farmer's Holiday was instigated and many farmers stopped trucks along the highways and dumped the produce that was being sent to Chicago. Had it not been for this drastic action perhaps FDR never would have gone ahead so fast in relieving the farmer's situation.

I stopped back here to visit some of my cousins, Mrs. Olive Hill and her three sons, Arvene, Orson and Carl last week, knowing that if anyone would be concerned with the farm situation as it is right now, these good folks would be and I was disappointed. SOMETHING is happening again and I fear that revolution of some kind is going to break out soon if Ike does not see fit to hog-tie Sec. of Agriculture Benson and get a new one but quick. Farmers have gotten new machinery so that one man can do the work of four or five back in my day on the farm, but, believe me, they need the extra time because now the farmer does most of his farming with pen and pencil and text books and telegram blanks and attending meetings. Perhaps the best read and most well-informed people in the land today are our farmers. They have to BE IN THE KNOW and keep up to keep above

JESS OPPENHEIMER, top writer on "I Love Lucy", has been signed by NBC-TV to develop new ideas and shows. . . . Dancer Bernice Allyn has made the Fall season a little lovelier by her return to the Main Stem after eight weeks in Buffalo, Albany, Montreal and Quebec. . . . German thrush Caterina Valente, who had a click disc here in "The Breeze And I" is making a movie in Berlin.

Danny Kaye will headline a vaudeville bill at the Cleveland Palace Theater sometime in mid November. . . . Robert Dowling will convert the Globe Theater on 45th and Broadway back into a legit. house after 23 years as a flicker emporium. . . . "Lunatics And Lovers" finally shuttered after 335 performances. Also in the "obit" column is "Catch A Star". We thought "Star" was a good show and feel that if all it did was introduce Helen Halpin to the theater it was certainly worthwhile.

A new play called "The Lovers" has been optioned for next season on the boards. The theme is based on an ancient feudal code that permitted a warlord to "entertain" the bride of one of his subjects on her wedding night. Hm. . . . Leo G. Carroll has been signed to head the cast of "Someone Waiting", a psychological thriller that had great success in London. . . . Richard Greene's "Robin Hood" TV series puts him back on top of the heap.

Bill Tabbert has been dropped as the juvenile lead in "Fanny". A very surprising story goes with that item. . . . The Comedie Francaise makes its American bow on October 25th at the Broadway Theater. . . . Instead of holding a memorial service for the late Lemuel Ayer, his widow is setting up a cancer research fund at a New York hospital. . . . French mime Marcel Marceau is a solid hit the Phoenix Theater. His one man show is something that you classify as a "Must". . . . Speaking of one man shows, Victor Borge shortly celebrates his second anniversary at the Golden Theater.

"Annie's Son", a play about the drug traffic, is now in production off-Broadway. . . . Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne go into rehearsal in October for their new comedy, "The Great Sebastian". . . . Joyce Grenfell (you may not know the name but you will recognize her from many English comedy films) is bringing in a revue to the Bijou. . . . "Pleasure Dome" is casting boy and girl singers.

Show business cheered by the report that incomes in the United States are still on the rise. . . . Did you know that stocks of the country's largest and most prosperous corporations can be picked up at below the market price? Contact Arthur Wiesenberger & Co., a Wall Street firm that specializes in investment trusts. . . . The Marciano-Moore fight was the biggest money-maker in the history of closed circuit TV. Nate Halpern's NFI firm grossed over one million dollars.

Volkswagen, the German car company, has moved into the U.S. auto market in a big way. The firm purchased an automobile plant in New Jersey for four million dollars and is shooting for 25,000 volume in 1956. Contrast this with the 7,000 quota for the English Jaguar and you have the picture. . . . The incomparable Carmen Amaya is doing her Spanish dance bit at Carnegie Hall. . . . Saddler Wells ballet troupe won excellent notices in their stand at the Metropolitan although this visit has not been a financial success. As a press agent we think it's a pity that a better public relations job is not done to educate Americans to ballet.

Frank Sinatra's outfit in "Our Town" came from Lew Magram. . . . The new Chrysler will have a built-in record player as an optional feature. . . . The Fisher-Reynolds nuptials are the talk of the town.

"Rock 'n Roll" is now being played on the BBC. "Dance With Me, Sir Henry?" . . . PEOPLE TODAY Magazine is readying a picture story on how escape artists get out of strait-

FALL FRAGMENTS: Show you where the band biz has gone. Tommy Dorsey, one of the all time greats, has been mulling an offer to join the Ringling Circus next season. Supposedly to feature dancing after the performances. Can hear it now; a new tune — "Swingin' in the Sawdust". . . . Dick Haymes and Rita's attorney, Bartley Crum, have done most of the pre-divorce talking in dimly lit cocktail lounges. . . . Henry Luce, the 'have Time', 'love Life' gent, will be the spearhead to get money men behind the '56 Olympics.

Wanna get the shock of your career as a peruser? Admire the pretty feathers and colors and the stylish up-turned tail of a blue jay. Then let the bird start to give out with the sounds. The raucous throatings will throw you. Like seeing the most gorgeous femme in the world, perfectly attired, sound like a cross between Cass Daley and Gravel Gertie. . . . Maurice Cnevalier's heavy nitery schedule probably prompted Harry Richman to prep a new supper club act. Both gents are over sixty. . . . E. V. Durling, the INS scribbler, should like these. He collects euphonious names that rhyme like Lu Blue, Betty Petty, etc. We ran into two: Phil Hill, a race driver, and Floyd Boyd, a car dealer. . . . In Palm Springs the other weekend, a bar pest ordered a dry martini, very dry, over the rocks. As the obliging bartender was nicely forgetting the vermouth, the customer kept giving instructions on how dry he wanted his drink and how to make it. After three suggestions, the justifiably annoyed tender shot back: "Look, mister, do you want it over the rocks — or over some sand?" . . . The latest grave turning is by Vincent Youmans. His great melody, "Without A Song", now on the way toward being a big record for Kay Starr, is maligned and murdered with the cheap mambo treatment. . . . Freddie Martin, a west coast fixture, plays Florida this year, in case the California Chamber of Commerce is interested. Martin music in Boca Raton in December. . . . Johnny Ray is making up his mind about suing Confidential Mag. . . . Got an advance hearing of some Johnny Mercer songs for the upcoming "It Happened One Night" with Alyson and Lemmon. The Savannah songster has a nifty in "Watch the 'Watcha-ma-callit' Go" and a good Calypso titled "Happy As A Mule In A Briarpatch". If the lyrics of "Temporarily" get by the censors you'll howl at the 'Walls of Jericho' scene, which was the highlight of the oldie when Gable and Colbert were the stars. . . . Alan Young getting to be a subdued version of Peter Donald.

NO NAMES: Both of the subjects were married twice before so 'love for keeps' was old stuff to each of them. The sound of marital music wasn't new. They were going together, all right. He said he cared, but caroused and his periodic drinking nearly drove her crazy. She seemed quite at the end of her acting career yet she wanted to cling to this non-too-sturdy, wealthy dreamboat. Suddenly, they broke up — temporarily, she thought. He quickly tied up with another gal, much younger. And boom, a fast wedding. Our heroine, shocked outwardly at first, recovered this way. She rebounded by dating two or three others. Yet, on the nite of her former swain's nuptials, where do you think she insisted that her beau for the evening take her? You may have guessed. In the best tradition of Stella Dallas, she had to pass by the church while the ceremony was going on. . . . He was a glamour boy of the movies since the early Thirties. A semi-villain, but suave and romantic and dashing. He's late Fiftyish today and somewhat paunchy and rather tired. He's lonely, that's for sure. He always wanted a divorce from his wife, but for fifteen years she's fought the suggestion on every ground. He lost his great love that way. She married a writer. His kick these nights when he's relaxed and with the boys is to take in night ball games and make small bets. . . .

acrobatics that are so unusual, you find you are holding your breath — wondering how anyone can be so adept at performing such difficult feats. Plus what we have mentioned, the CHARLIVEL TRIO are accomplished musicians. A sensational, all-around group that are truly the most entertaining you'll ever see, anywhere, anytime! . . . The new production numbers are colorful and exciting. Imaginative and original choreography is gracefully executed by the scintillating DONN ARDEN DANCERS. Splendid musical backing is by CARLTON HAYES and his fine aggregation of musicians.

ways endears him to all audiences. He is indeed, a treasure, and always a great pleasure to watch and listen to. . . . On the same bill, Continental wit and charm enhanced by beauty of face and form, plus a big voice for such a petite lady can only mean, LILO. The toast of two continents and more recently the singing star of "CAN-CAN" LILO has come to visit FLV. Her manner and repertoire are as heady as a sensuous French perfume. The naughty twinkle in her eye, the saucy, quick smile that is always present, and a very bouyant manner will make ardent fans of all who see this lovely lady. We are happy to welcome LILO's exciting personality to local supper clubs and know we may plan on seeing her locally again and again. . . . Twenty-five glamorous HAREM GIRLS in Mme. Berthe costumes, execute charming, original choreography created by talented RENEE STEWART & BOB GILBERT. The very competent musical director of the show is JAYE RUBANOFF.

Song and dance stylists, STANTON & STEVENS present musical comedy in a style that is a pleasant change from the usual and most refreshing. These spirited youngsters have done a lot of work in Hollywood at film studios and help but love them from the moment they appear on the stage. They keep you laughing constantly. The three RITZ BROTHESR spell SHOW BIZ in every way, in capital letters! If you don't see these gents perform, you're missing a treat — you owe it to yourself. . . . Beautiful sultry, songstylist, MARY MEADE FRENCH has one of the most intimate voices we've ever heard in a long time. She is the girl with the "off-the-shoulder" tones that proves stimulating and exciting. She is, oh so lovely to look at, and most delightful to hear. Mary's songs are both nostalgic and modern to please all audiences, from teen-agers to the aged. Accompanying this delightful, wonderful songstress on the piano is the very capable and talented gent, TED GROUYA. . . . Something new in the entertainment circles is the NA-TIONAL CHAMPION SQUARE DANCERS that bring their version of what is doing in the gingham, calico and overall set plus the unusual gyrations of HOMER GARRETT'S Y-KNOT TWIRLERS. Something different is always appreciated in show business. . . . Outstanding choreography designed by RON FLETCHER is produced by a bevy of beauties, the FLAMINGO STARLETS. The color and flair of the production numbers round out a top-notch revue. . . . TEDDY PHILLIPS & HIS ORCHESTRA back the show with melody that is just great.

provoking are exquisite gowns draped on a model's dream of a figure. All this plus all that talent, just ain't fair. . . . Jester LENNY KENT sets a fast pace of comicy with his endless store of gags and tall tales. His daffy antics never fail to convulse audiences with laughter. No audience ever allows him off the stage without a few of his "Texas stories" that bring guffaws and hoots of hilarity, pardner. This boy

The showmanship of this quartet will cause you to remember them with pleasure, for always. Celestial singing presented in a gracious manner which is pure artistry. . . . Tricky and spirited footwork by the nimble terpsichoreans, the FOUR STEP BROTHERS, is done with precision plus. Their acro-dancing is exceptional and certainly displays an abundance of talent. Their challenge dancing is guaranteed to "rock the room". Individually and collectively the FOUR STEP BROTHERS are champions! . . . The heavenly VENUS STARLETS are featured in two beautiful DOROTHY DORBEN production numbers. The choreography is among the finest to be executed locally. It is exciting, original and artistic. . . . and newspaperman, the one and only DAMON RUNYON. The subject matter is especially "near and dear" to the heart of FLV. The "Sewer Scene" will be particularly rib-tickling for it is so far removed from the setting of our local plush gaming tables. Three show stopping routines are: Vivian Blaine's rendition of, "A Person Could Develop a Cold", Norwood Smith's "Luck Be A Lady Tonight", and Oggie Small's "Sit Down, You're Rocking the Boat". . . . The management of this hotel went all out with the many new sets by PETER WOLF, that are truly exquisite. Costumes were designed by ALVIN COLT and executed by DAVE BERMAN. The entire production is done beautifully.

. . . The music and lyrics are by FRANK LOESSER; musical supervision by LYN MURRAY and conducted by Royal Nevada's maestro, JERRY FIELDING. The exciting choreography is styled by ONNA. choreography is styled by ONNA WHITE. HENRI CAUBISENS is the capable gent who directed production for the "Road". In conclusion, we suggest early reservations.

Ed, Vic, Gene & Joe perform in person is — "the greatest". The AMES BROTHERS are ably assisted by their musical director, HENRY GELLER. . . . On the same bill is LARRY BEST whose byline is "Nothing but the best". This comedian (first time in FLV) believes in comedy without hesitation. He presents a solid stream of scintillating (dialect) humor, unbroken except by rib-tickling laughter. We're certain you will enjoy seeing Mr. Best's type of humor. . . . The beautiful RIVIERA GIRLS present new production numbers by choreographer and director, HAL BELFER. Both are done artistically, and the de-lovely gals are decked out in beautiful costumes that are most "eye-appealing". . . . In the all important spot of backing the show with his excellent ORCHESTRA is Maestro RAY SINATRA.

SAHARA

She is exotic, and a top-notch nite club entertainer. Marlene knows what audiences want — and gives exactly what they expect — only MORE! To watch Miss Dietrich in the spotlight is to watch a masterpiece, imbued with life and desirability. . . . Co-starring on the same bill is one of the nation's TOP comediennes, JEAN CARROLL. This gal, all alone on the BIG STAGE, fills the room with continuous, unabashed laughter. Jean has a wealth of material at her command and presents a stream of comedy that stimulates your sense of appreciation. We guarantee she'll keep your funny bone quivering with sheer delight. Miss Carroll is a very clever showman who accomplishes her main intent which is to gratify your desire for GOOD comedy. A great deal of the stories that Jean relates could happen to you —

The fabulous wardrobe that this lady drapes on an equally fabulous figure is the envy of all ladies. Miss Piazza's versatility is the delight of all showgoers, and will long be one of FLV's outstanding stars. . . . The rock and roll of LOUIS JOR-DAN AND HIS TYMPANY FIVE certainly makes the Copa Room "jump". They're heah' and the most; Each man in this group is a master musician and the results are the "gonest" melodies that we have had the pleasure of hearing in quite some time. Their bounce and happy spirits, plus their animated comedy makes for lots of laughter and appreciation of their lively art. Ingenious gentleman, this LOUIS JORDAN, the clever specialty numbers that they revel in, show his resourcefulness in finding the unusual and outstanding for "4 Star" entertainment. Spotlit with Mr. Jordan is DOTTIE SMITH, blues and jump queen and DANNY KNIGHT. . . . The BEACHCOMBERS WITH NATALIE creates a mood of melody that is most enjoyable and a change of musical pace. Melodic NATALIE adds pulchritude to the specialty music. . . . The COPA GIRLS are most beautiful in their costumes by Mme. BERTHE. They execute with precision and aptitude the exceptional choreography created by RENEE STEWART & BOB GILBERT. . . . Fine music by ANTONIO MORELLI and his men of music wrap up the show to perfection.

of famed personalities will amaze and amuse you. His refreshing fund of tall tales will keep everyone beating a path to be in his audience. Wouldn't want to miss any of his new material. . . . Her interpretive dancing is exotic and delightful to all viewers. . . . Handsome young baritone, GARR NELSON, sings both popular and classical numbers with equal aplomb. His outstanding voice sparks a romantic note and is sure to bring him great success. He attends to his duties as Master of Ceremonies with charm and assurance which causes patrons to want to see more of GARR NELSON. . . . The SHOWBOAT GIRLS present exceptional choreography with spirit and charm in very attractive costumes. . . . The SKIPPERS beat out a good musical background of music for the show. . . . rhythms of "RAGTIME BOB" DARCH, straight out of New Orleans by the way of the Red Dog Saloon in Juneau, Alaska, and the fine harmony of the JOHNNY SAVAGE QUARTET and LOU STYLES & THE STYLISTS.

His material is humorous and well-timed. Audiences always anticipate his stories of "His Kids in the Movies". Whatever the story may be, he never lets his fans down. His performances are always great! . . . The IRVING FIELDS TRIO is sparked by the fantastic fingering on the piano keyboard by Mr. Fields. His cohorts in melody are both accomplished masters of their instruments. The combination of all this talent could only mean — wonderful listening. . . . Spanish dancers ESTELITA & CHICUELO bring fire and excitement to the show with their fine performance. . . . OBSERVATIONS of the John A. Roebling Company, (which I remembered as the company that built the Brooklyn bridge). He recommended the gas engine made by the Western Gas Engine Company and agreed to give us the proper size, insulated wire in exchange, pound for pound, for the copper wire we were using.

I came back to Las Vegas and we at once began to build our "Power House" (which still stands), at Main and Lewis Streets. We had a big tank made, which, when buried behind our power house, leaked and saturated a large area with oil (creating a great oil boom), got our new engine set and started to provide electricity which really gave us light.

I had made arrangements to get some new capital into the business, and had very definite promises when I started, about October 6, for Milwaukee to meet the would-be investors. When my train reached Omaha the "Panic of 1907" had closed every bank in the United States. Yet, I would not give up and come home, but stuck around towns in Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin and in Chicago until about my birthday, May 22, 1908, when I reached home again.

That was the last of my experience in the power and telephone business and since that time I have been an interested spectator of the troubles, trials and tribulations of the business' in Las Vegas. I did not envy those who were bearing up as best they could under the public criticism and sometimes, the undeserved abuse which public utilities always get from the public. I know that Ed Clark, who for many years almost alone, carried the greivous burden, which he was forced into by circumstances of keeping the business alive. I suppose few people of Las Vegas, realize that for many years they enjoyed the cheapest power in America. And that when business in Las Vegas was really good, the demand for service grew so fast that it was impossible to keep up with the demand until the tedious process of getting sufficient new capital was completed. I think that many or most of the fast growing cities of America have the same sad experiences.

the lipstick off his cheek. I said, "It isn't mine." (On second thought, why am I the shy one?) A few hundred others were not so shy. Lee was getting mobbed by adoring women, and I said to my own tall, dark, and handsome escort, "Help him please, he's getting mobbed!" I was left on the fringe of Lee's adorers, and I listened. My mother was a Valentino fan. I am sure, that here is another Valentino worthy of the legend. He has that magnetic quality that leaves nothing to be desired. Yes, I'm talking about Lee Liberace. See for yourself!

George was getting his share of acclaim by the fans, who were asking, "George, will you make a picture with Lee?" The two Liberaces own life story would make an unbelievably good script.

Maureen O'Hara and I sat next to one another as guests of honor at Ida Mayer Cummings' birthday luncheon at the Ambassador Hotel. Maureen is a beautiful girl. As Mrs. Cummings said, "Maureen and May have been friends since both arrived in Hollywood back in 1940. (Except I had already been here a couple of years). I want to tell you about Maureen and the public's reaction to her, both at the affair and afterwards, including a fan who on the spot asked Maureen to marry him. Being a beautiful film star is something, being a gracious one is another. Let me tell you next week. Oh, yes, Ida delighted Fay Holden with her new hat, a pink creation with crystal.

"The Big Knife" is a picture to make you think! I saw John Garfield star on the New York stage in the role, Jack Palance now makes it equally believable on the screen. And Shelly Winters' performance is tops. The question is — "Must you sacrifice your ideals to be a movie star!" (I don't think so — but the film did!)

And that's Hollywood!

She doesn't stop as much traffic as she used to; that's understandable, tho; she's been out of the public eye for more than ten years. He's a quiet fellow, about twenty years her junior. They've been married for a few seasons now and from outward appearances the wedded bliss has taken and they are still together and perhaps very happy. As a male entity he has had to battle with himself, no doubt — to get position as a man, not a former name's hubby. His bugaboo is this: nary a week goes by that some friend or acquaintance of former years doesn't come out and remind the lady that her present man resembles, greatly, her former husband — now deceased for many years.

ROCKING CHAIR GOSSIP

good luck one. Some folks of 1955 believe in the old superstition that if a black cat crosses the path it forbodes ill luck. See? You're all wrong. It's really good luck. But what I'd like to know is this: about 50 years ago a cemetery of mummified black cats was unearthed in Egypt. A cargo of these was shipped to England. Where are they? In the Museum? Anyway, after this long they're not "hep".

Dear me . . . too much cat, isn't it, Mrs. Bipple? Last week, upped myself from this dory rocking chair and dug like crazy over to Paramount. Wanted to see if Pauline Kessinger would add my favorite breakfast to the big time commissary menu.

That woman! What a gal, and how! She's never been seen on the screens of the world in either black, Technicolor or Vista-Vision, yet she's a handsome, aristocratic, impeccably-groomed blonde, and one of Hollywood's best personalities. Practically every big-star, as well as hundreds of studio technicians and studio workers, has a speaking acquaintance with her. Most of them know her as a friend of long standing.

Miss Kessinger is the woman behind the scenes of Hollywood production, allright. A real executive type, with important duties and a staff of 50 employees at her command. She's been the first lady of cuisine at Paramount studio for over 28 years. She has learned to cater to every eating whim of the great stars. For instance, here are some of them:

Danny Kaye: kippered herring for lunch.

Bill Holden: rare hamburger.

Cary Grant: hamburger and chocolate cake.

Bob Hope: fruit and yogurt, (always in a rush.)

Charlton Heston: steak and cucumbers.

Humphrey Bogart: quarts of black coffee.

Marlene Dietrich and Tallulah Bankhead once ordered peaches soaked in champagne. Miss Kessinger added that the stars of today eat simple meals, where as those of yesterday dined lavishly. She has few calls for caviar, a favorite dish of the older days. In fact she just doesn't keep it as there are no requests for it.

As visitors to the studio have come to discover by study of the menu, Miss Kessinger tries to please players who have a fondness for a particular dish, by putting it on the menu. They now have on the regular bill of fare, "Turkey and Eggs a la Crosby", "Spanish Omelette a la Alan Ladd", a tenderloin steak named for Producer-Director Edward Dmytryk, "Strawberries Heston", a delectable combination of fresh strawberries with sour cream, honey and cinnamon, the "Bob Hope Cocktail", popular with the luncheon crowd, and consisting of tomato juice-yogurt with a dash of Lea and Perrins, and the "Dorothy Lamour Salad", made of fresh pineapple, sliced bananas and strawberries. . . . So, Mrs. Bipple, why couldn't Miss Kessinger put on the menu my favorite (or easy-to-make) breakfast: left-over ground chicken livers, still partly frozen; brown bread, (shouldn't have let it burn); and expensive coffee in a sugared pink cup. What's wrong with that?

Miss Kessinger even goes along with Martin and Lewis' gags where eatables are concerned. With sober face, she has chronicled on the menu a Martin and Lewis Special with the following ingredients: Stewed Roads, Broiled Birds, with Woodchucks on Ry-Krisp. The price, $33.00. She had the surprise of her life when a tourist put $33 on the table and asked for this Special. Now the price is $64. Yes indeed, she's a wonderful woman, and has been known to bake a custard pie at midnight for the great DeMille.

In the lobby yesterday, talking with Francis Loomis, and I sed, "Frances, what do you think is wrong with men?" As she is always well groomed, comes from Tulsa and has a brother, highly educated from Oxford, Yale, and all points, thought she should know. What did she answer? "Everything!" (I think they are great inventions, myself). . . . Peggy (Mrs. Jack) Goldberg mink-strolling thru the lobby, very arty these days, since she is studying water color. If Van Gogh were alive, she'd make way with him, she's that gone on his works. Thank you, Mrs. Biplé, for the spinach.

water what with all the rig-a-marole of crop acreage, parity prices and what not. I think Cousin Orson had sent some twenty or twenty-five telegrams to leaders in the House in Senate just in the past week alone and he is constantly on the phone with Washington telling what must be done. The only one who seems unconcerned with it all is Ike himself. Also visited another cousin, Everett Hill at Washburn, Ill., who, with his family of three fine girls, had just returned from a trip to Denver, Yellowstone, and the Black Hills. I enjoyed their colored slides on their trip. I wish I could have stayed longer with these fine relatives because they are so very stimulating in their thought-provoking ideas and I only hope that they did not detect how inadequate I am in my thinking on current problems. I have literally "gone to pot" on politics — long ago I got to the point where I just didn't care any more what happened after I saw how the country crucified Al Smith on account of religion, how the country turned down such leaders as Father Coughlin, the La Follettes, Wendell Wilkie, yes, and even that great person, the late Robert Taft. I just figured WHAT'S THE USE and turned my efforts to telling people how to live to have a good time and not worry about the future. I wish I could now start some sort of a campaign against social security for I think that security is the greatest deterrent to thinking, to initiative, and to "guts" that this country has ever known, and for once I find myself in agreement with Ike when he said during the past campaign that he had little time for social security — if one wanted security one should go to the penitentiary for life.

Spent last weekend in Quincy, Ill., the town that perhaps is the geographical center of the country almost, and the town that more nearly represents the norm of living as we know it in this country. I was lucky in that I had met one wonderful fellow a few weeks back in Minneapolis and I hosted him around our town and he invited me back to his hometown. And when I am invited, no matter how weakly, I take advantage of it. So don't ever invite me unless you really mean it.

Hank Schonhoff is sales manager of the fine BROWER MANUFACTURING COMPANY in Quincy, is a college graduate and the very good looking father of four dandy children, Tom, Steve, Jerry and Mary, and together with his wife, Mary Ann and her mother, Mrs. Emma Twiehaus, they occupy a beautiful home on South 12th Street in Quincy. I've heard a lot about families that pray together, stay together, and this is surely a fine example of it. Gee it is wonderful to visit such a family and to live with them for three days, especially in these times when divorce and suicides and trouble are so rampant all over. I guess I have lived around Hollywood too long because as I sat in this comfortable home and saw people getting along so well I could hardly believe it — seems as though everyone I have come in contact with the past few years are either divorced, or going to be divorced, or fighting like cats and dogs.

Sunday after church Hank took me on a tour of his company and because it is a saga of America that is being enacted all over this land I think a few remarks are in order. The BROWER MFG. CO. was started 33 years ago by W. J. Brower who is now 83 years old and is chairman of the Board. His son B. J. Brower is the present president, and T. F. Thompson is vice president.

I think all factories should be located in small towns, and this company reflects the good judgment of the management by keeping it in Quincy instead of moving to a larger city once it started to prosper and grow. This company has had a steady growth through the years from an operation of just a few employees to its operation today of four modern plants in the Quincy area with an employment of several hundred people.

Quincy, Illinois is a typical American town of about 50,000 and boasts other nationally-known manufacturing plants such as Gardener-Denver Co. which makes pumps and compressors; GATES RADIO COMPANY, which manufactures equipment for radio stations, MOORMAN MFG. CO., makers of mineral supplements for feed; ELECTRIC WHEEL COMPANY; MOTOROLA with a new plant going up to manufacture even more car and portable radios — all these in this comparatively small town along with BROWER.

After living in big cities where I go for days without even passing the time of day with a person it was a revelation to me to walk through the sunny, tree-laned streets, and have friendly folks stop to talk all along the way. One evening Hank and Mary Ann had their relatives and their priest, Father Johnson from St. Mary's in, and I showed my European slides to them. It was tough to leave this friendly atmosphere but by this time I had worn out my welcome I am sure. I am looking forward to reciprocating next summer at my lake place.

jackets. "The Amazing Randi" posed for the series; we were there and we still don't know how they do it.

are tops in the tune department, and the comedy interjected by basso OSCAR BROADWAY is wonderful. His clowning brings rounds of applause and uproarious laughter. When he starts trucking about the stage, singing his own private Chinese ditty, much to the surprise and chagrin of the other lads, he breaks up even CLIFF HOWARD (their new member) who tries very hard to be stern with the irrepressible Oscar, but just has to laugh with the rest.

The IRVING FIELDS TRIO is really turning them into the aisles at the "Bird". Their recent recording of the "Davey Crockett Mambo" went over the quarter of a million mark in sales. Couldn't happen to a nicer group!

In Cleveland, HILDEGARDE is receiving brilliant notices for her appearances at the STATLER HOTEL. We hope it won't be too long before the chanteuse is back in our midst again.

The new GOLDEN GATE CLUB has sets it official downtown opening for November 1st. Their slogan, "Gateway to downtown Las Vegas" couldn't be truer. They are located at 1 Fremont Street. That is one place you should see. It's truly a beautiful club.

CHURCHILL. He handles the JENNINGS machine, here in FLV as well as the entire state. The latest one off the assembly line is the "FOUR REELER BUCKAROO" on display at the HOTEL SAHARA. It is giving (and getting) the most action in the bistro. Really sensational! . . .

Feminine spectators believed the two handsome gentlemen at the WESTERN CLUB bar were movie stars on location. However, they were actually two businessmen from Wichita, Kansas: GENE CUNNINGHAM and CHUCK COX, respectively owner and General Manager of the SOUTHEAST MOTOR CO. (in Wichita).

The BEN STACKS (of the IMPERIAL COIN CO.) and family have left for New York. It is a combined business and pleasure trip. Ben hopes to return with some rare items for his customers.

Newly-returned to FLV after their four month European Honeymoon, is HYMIE FRIEDNASH and his bride. The couple had the knot tied in New York prior to their crossing. They are now "at home" in Las Vegas.

JULES LEEDS now owns the Texaco Station at the NEW FRONTIER HOTEL. His warm personality makes him a welcome addition to FLV. He took over the station lease in June. The service station is remaining open for twenty-four hour service. (Under the former ownership it closed at ten, every evening.)

Looks like a "fast one" was pulled on us by CHUCK BENNETT, day shift boss at the DUNES HOTEL. Wha happen? We thought it was an October wedding for Chuck and the "Mystery Girl?" Is it to be held in the near future? 'Fess up, Mr. B!

We believe that the JERRY FIELDING ORCHESTRA (at BILL MILLER's ROYAL NEVADA HOTEL) is one of the finest to hit a podium. Each member of the organization is a master musician. At present, Jerry is so busy with orchestrations, he just doesn't have time to pursue his love of composition.

A belated bouquet of birthday greeting to WANDA SMITH, who very enjoyably celebrated her special day on October 23rd. She and her COVER GIRLS are treating HOTEL EL RANCHO VEGAS audiences to a great deal of pulchritudinous talent.

LOUIS JORDAN and his group are always acclaimed by supper-club audiences, from coast to coast. They are now co-starring with MARGUERITE PIAZZA, at the SANDS HOTEL. Our local audiences are hailing this bill with all the unabashed enthusiasm of completely satisfied show patrons.

THE FOUR KNIGHTS, popular vocalists now at the HOTEL EL CORTEZ, arrived in FLV, just in time to be Guests of Honor at the Dedication ceremonies for the new WESTSIDE RECREATION CENTER.

Over at the FLAMINGO HOTEL, the RITZ BROTHERS are passing out free tummy-aches with their post show gags. They travel around the casino and shoot humorous quips at the slot machine players. Needless to say, the advocates of the one-arm-bandits are so delighted, they shake with hilarity.

Looks like another "like father, like son" destination in the IRVING PERELMAN domicile. In 1932, Irving played with the CLEVELAND INDIANS. His son BURTON was imbued with love for sports and now plays Fullback. The lad has been attending MIAMI UNIVERSITY on a scholarship, for two years. In February, he moves over to the dorm at the UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO. Between baseball and football, Irving and his son should be kept busily engrossed in conversation, whenever they meet. (Mr. P. is a pit boss at the RIVIERA HOTEL).

Friends and co-workers miss JESS HINES, swing shift pit boss at JOE W. BROWN's HORSESHOE CLUB. Jess had a mild heart attack last week and is presently recuperating at his home. Speedy recovery, J.H.!

Soon after his November 2nd closing at the HOTEL EL CORTEZ (Buccaneer Lounge), WOODY WOODBURY will bundle up his cute little wife, SUSIE, and head for home in Miami, Florida. There, he has a big deal all arranged with his old buddies, THE VAGABONDS, whose Miami club is extremely popular.

When you say LES CHARLIVEL TRIO, you're almost tempted to bow your head in salute to their fantastic talents. They are currently at WILBUR CLARK's DESERT INN for what we believe is their fifth appearance in FLV. Here are three of the greatest entertainers to land in show business. They excel in ballet, acrobatics, music, etc. You name it — they can do it!

They are superb!

Enjoyed a conversation with NICK ("The Greek") DONDOLAS. Nick returned to FLV last week. He won his four week bout with Double Pneumonia. We were sorry that he had been so ill but were happy to see the legendary figure back in our midst and well on his way back to complete recovery.

JOHNNY SAVAGE, whose oh-so-smooth quartet holds forth during the evening hours at the HOTEL SHOWBOAT, is an ex-bass player with the Chicago Symphony. While attending the UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO, John played under the baton of FREDERICK STOCK.

ARNOLD's, Ltd., is featuring the latest in gentlemen's chapeaux. It is ANTON PESCHEL's "Tyrol Hat". Arnold's imported it, expressly for the fashion-conscious male. It comes in two colors, "Sandstone" and "Stardust". A man would expect to pay more for this hat but it is only twenty dollars ($20). A real buy!

TRUDY and BOB LEVOFF (of the HOLLYWOOD FURNITURE CO.) were preparing to leave their home to celebrate the occasion of their First Wedding Anniversary. As they stepped out of the house, they were surprised by a throng of friends who had gathered for the festivities. The uninvited guests brought with them the makings of a feast and serenaded the Levoffs on their doorstep. The unexpected party was a great success and the Levoffs have naught but the finest to say about "uninvited guests". (Can't blame them!)

DICK GOLDRING just joined ranks with the TEDDY PHILLIPS Ork, at the FLAMINGO HOTEL. He is comfortably settled in the sax department. His parents, ELSIE and LES are long-time residents of FLV.

SHERLOCK FELDMAN could give a magician some stiff competition with card tricks. He is graveyard boss at BILL MILLER's ROYAL NEVADA HOTEL. He will hand you a deck of cards (old or new). You select a card or two and return it to the pack, reshuffling yourself. He will locate your selections. A pretty fine trick in our humble estimation, especially since he doesn't touch the cards himself.

There isn't a person we know of who isn't anxiously awaiting the return of the "Red Hot Mama", SOPHIE TUCKER. Miss Tucker returns to the HOTEL EL RANCHO VEGAS for the Xmas holidays. If we know our Sophie, she'll be armed with a tremendous variety of new material but will always give in to a special request for an old favorite.

HOTEL EL CORTEZ Pheasant hunters who made the trek to Twin Falls, Idaho last week included J. K. HOUSSELS, SR., GENE Mc CLAIN, WHITEY SHUGART and JUD PARKER. They took along a gal, a little speckled lady, name of "Duffy", Mc Clain's Cocker Spaniel and constant hunting companion.

"RAGTIME BOB" DARCH may have instigated a new fad in FLV, with the advent of his honky-tonk piano on the HOTEL SHOWBOAT stage. Bob stripped the 1901 Fairbanks of all non-essentials and TONY MANN decorated the remainder with nostalgic phrases from the ragtime era. Bob's very proud of the result, as is Tony.

A proud woman indeed is MARY PHILLIPS, owner of New York's FRANKY JOHNNY Restaurant. Her place of business is so popular, it is one of the stellar dining spots of the east. From what we hear, it often looks like a place transported from our own FLV. F & J's is oftentimes crowded with traveling Las Vegans who have made it a must for their gourmet inclinations.

CHUCK LUFTIG (who has a Bail Bond office here) is excitedly anticipating his daughter's betrothal, in the near future. He is happily planning a local wedding reception and honeymoon for the pair. The bridegroom is a Los Angeles medic. We know that the prospective marital couple will appreciate Chuck's efforts. However, we're wondering if Mr. L. will be able to withstand all of this extra-curricular. It can be quite a strain, no matter how pleasant . . . and that's for sure.

TEL. This guy is without a doubt one of the greatest comedians of our time. His stories are the greatest.

EDDIE FOX, Impresario at the SILVER SPUR, really outdid himself this time by booking KALANTAN AND BUBBLES (I got it right this time) on the same bill. Man, what a show! KALANTAN is greater and more beautiful than ever before. And BUBBLES, she performs a Calypso number that "ENDS ALL CALYPSOS". Her debut in FLV has been an auspicious one and I'm sure she will be one of your favorites. Congrats EDDIE, it's the greatest. . . . FRAN TOLETE and JAY DAVIS your Friday night hosts on MILLION DOLLAR MOVIE on CHANNEL 2 will wed December 3. FRAN is also Traffic Manager at KLRJ-TV. JAY is doing free lance radio and television work and is a popular disc jockey around town. These youngsters were billed as the "Sweethearts of Channel 2" and by golly they really are. . . . He (Dining Room Captain) was born and raised in ROTTERDAM, HOLLAND. LOUIS moved to this country several years ago and has worked some of the finest hotels in AMERICA. He and his lovely wife LOIS, who is a waitress at BILL MILLER'S ROYAL NEVADA HOTEL, moved to FLV a few months ago and they plan to make our city their home. I drove out to the RANCH HOUSE last Sunday afternoon and had a dinner that was "out of this world". The cuisine is terrific, the atmosphere relaxing, and the service is great. Take the kids along too, they'll enjoy themselves being able to play on a REAL RANCH. . . . Fish story of the week comes from ANDY FAVA, Manager of the WESTERNER RESTAURANT, who just returned from a fishing trip on the KLAMMOTH RIVER. He claims that the fish are so plentiful that you tire of catching them. He told me that he averaged fourteen fish a day for each of the ten days that he was there and that there wasn't a small one in the catch. He didn't bring any fish home with him, claims he got so tired of eating the darn things he couldn't stand to have them in the house. Me,

... Scorpio people have a basic dual personality — they are both materialistic and spiritual. Paradoxically, they have luxurious tastes, little interest in making money. They are often mechanical, legal or spiritual geniuses — rarely executives. They take work, love and ideals seriously, but aren't surprised when hopes dissolve. They have a deep need for love, are usually successful in marriage and work.

The Scorpion is the symbol of Scorpio; the jewel is topaz or pearl; the flower is the chrysanthemum.

I never get that tired. The FOUR STEP BROTHERS are back again and greater than ever. They're appearing at the NEW FRONTIER HOTEL on the RED BUTTONS SHOW. They just returned from a continental tour. They also headlined the show at the CANADIAN EXPOSITION in TORONTO, CANADA. This is their eighth and I believe their greatest appearance in FLV. . . . I saw HARRY RITZ, one of the RITZ BROTHERS, and BOB ALLEN, Security Officers at the GOLDEN NUGGET having a very serious conversation the other day. Wonder what's in the offing? I'll see if I can find out what this is all about and I'll let you know next week . . . SEE YOU THEN. . . .

favorite among Las Vegas, tourists and the rounders. . . .

BILL MILLER is starting to do tremendous things! He has signed the incomparable INK SPOTS for the LOUNGE in his ROYAL NEVADA HOTEL. Isn't that fantastic and the most exciting? They arrive November 3rd. Man, that Mr. Miller will really have that Royal Nevada HOPPING!

Back for an extended engagement is the rockin', sockin' and completely sensational OSCAR McLOLLIE and his aggregation of hep musicians. This group was previously in the STARLIGHT LOUNGE at the HOTEL RIVIERA for nineteen wonderful weeks. It is like o'd home week, having them back in the same spot. Catch their new recording on MODERN RECORD, "Convicted" with "Roll, Hot Rod, Roll" on the flip side. Real crazy!

One of the most unusual and sensational musical feats to be viewed locally is the one performed by JACKIE KENT, one of FREDDY BELL'S BELL BOYS now appearing in the SILVER QUEEN LOUNGE of the SANDS HOTEL. You must see this to appreciate it. Jackie plays an E flat Alto Sax and a baritone sax simultaneously.

That is what I said — he puts both mouth-pieces into his mouth and plays both instruments to perfection. Crowds stand and roar for more. This you can't afford to miss. WOW!

That glib gentleman of song at the piano in the lounge of the EL CORTEZ HOTEL, WOODY WOODBURY, is leaving us to rejoin the lovable, zany VAGABONDS in their club in their mutual home town, Miami, Florida. Let's give him a rousing departure and let him know how much we have enjoyed his drollery and witty songs. Opening the next night is lovely HELEN BOICE, who is no stranger to the EL CORTEZ LOUNGE. She has many friends in our town that will want to be on hand to welcome her back to FLV.

We welcome back the THREE DONS & DEENA once again to the STARLIGHT LOUNGE of the RIVIERA HOTEL after a short two weeks vacation. They are happy to be back which is evidenced by the harmonious tones of this artistic group. They play popular music in the manner that we all enjoy. The sweet voice of DEENA is guaranteed to make your evening more pleasant. . . .

A new group in the SINBAD LOUNGE of the DUNES HOTEL that will get much attention is the TWIN TUNES who are making their initial debut in FLV. On opening night, which was October 24th, this group of lads were a mighty worried crew. The reason, up until about a half hour before they were due on stage, all their musical instruments were missing, but at the last minute the expressman was a welcome sight as he came lugging their precious possessions. I'll wager they will never let those instruments out of their sight again, if they have to sleep in the baggage car! That was enough to produce grey hairs on the head of any musician — and that is for sure. (To borrow an expression from JC).

fixture of the show. Here is a man with a "Kisser" that would cause the saddest soul to chuckle with glee. He needn't say a word, either, his appearances on stage is sufficient. . . . The four SLIPPERETTES liven the atmosphere with tricky and spirited footwork. . . . Unless you happen to be a complete novice, we needn't tell you of the hilarious situation scenes produced by the SILVER SLIPPER STOCK COMPANY. These scenes are famous from coast-to-coast. They may change the settings and the lines, but the theme is the same that has caused merriment since the beginning of man. They are on the same entertainment level as previous shows. Permanent members of this company includes such names as SPARKY KAYE (the funny little guy), JIMMY CAVANAUGH, (genial M.C.), DENISE BENNETT (a real eye-opener) and CLIFF FERRE (straight man). In the musical corner is GEORGE REDMAN and his fine ORCHESTRA.

A rich man said to his pastor, "Why is it that everybody is always criticizing me for being miserly, when everybody knows that I have made provision to leave everything I possess to charity when I die?" "Well," was the reply, "let me tell you a story about a pig and a cow. The pig was lamenting his lack of popularity. He complained to the cow that people were always talking about the cow's gentleness and kind eyes. He admitted that the cow gave milk and cream . . . but maintained that pigs give more. He asserted the pigs gave bacon and ham and bristles and that people even pickled their feet. He demanded the reason for such lack of appreciation. The cow thought a while and said . . . "Maybe, it's because I give while I'M STILL LIVING."
