FIFTH STREET

LAST WEEK in this column I had an entirely inadequate account of the growth, development and great increase in values of property along Fremont Street. This week I shall comment on the development of Fifth Street from a country lane into a brilliant street eight miles long with most of the frontage on it valued at One Thousand Dollars, or more, per foot.

When the townsite was laid out, it extended only from Stewart Street on the north to Garces on the south, a matter of just six blocks. The north end was extended to the Stewart Ranch about 1908, but the south end of Fifth Street remained at Garces. If we wished to go to one of the ranches south of Vegas we walked through the brush because there was no wagon road.

The first building of any size built on Fifth Street was the grammar school between Fourth and Fifth at Bridger. The town had outgrown the three small school rooms at Second and Lewis Streets and a contract had been awarded to a Las Vegas contractor, named A. W. Jurden, in April, 1910. When the picture of the proposed new building was published in "The Las Vegas Age" in May, 1910, complaints began to pour in. "Why such a big building?"; "Such a waste of money!"; "A fourteen-room school

An Accurate Glimpse of the Future

CRISWELL PREDICTS

DATELINE — THE FUTURE:

JUNE 1, 1959: For the first time, an actual cloth was made with air compression, which will revolutionize the industry as we know it today! . . . August 7, 1960: The first successful atomic storm-breaker was used today to break up a tornado forming near Alva, Oklahoma. This small bomb, fired with precision into the heart of the vortex, immediately dispersed the potency resulting in a clear sky in ten seconds! This new federal weather control is radarically operated! . . . March 1, 1965: A series of tidal waves all but destroyed Chinese coastal cities in the worst disaster since the 1964 cycle of earthquakes which terrorized all of South America! . . .

April 19, 1959: The Florida Canal, reaching from the Atlantic Ocean to the Gulf of Mexico through the northern part of the state, was started today with the first shovelfull of dirt turned by the first woman engineer! . . . July 12, 1966: The motion picture hit of the season is the revival of "Gone With The Wind" with Clark Gable and Vivien Leigh making personal appearances with the film in a Broadway Theater! . . . October 22, 1970: One of our largest life insurance companies will no longer sell policies due to the new Federal Insurance Policy which covers each and every citizen from birth to the grave, and is furnished free being paid for by a special sales tax on all merchandise sold within the borders of America, and her many colonies!

WHAT PEOPLE WILL DO:

I predict that the growing problem of mental health will be the number one health menace by this time next year! Our Federal Government will spend millions of dollars on new research in an effort to head off this growing ailment. Trifluorethyl ether, when inhaled, produces a brief spell of anesthesia and a slight convulsion, having the same effect on a depressed person as that of electro-shock. I predict this new, easy to give treatment will replace shock treatments in all mental hospitals! . . . I predict the life and times of Ed Crump, the Tennessee political boss, will be dramatized for Broadway! . . . I predict that Chief Justice Warren and members of the Supreme Court will appear together on tv-and-radio for the first time answering questions publicly submitted on the nation's problems! . . .

I predict the new Communist drive will be to forbid the teaching of religions, the mention of God or any period of reverence in our public schools, colleges and universities! . . . I predict that President Eisenhower will appear before the United Nations to stave off growing trouble in

A HE registrations at the HOTEL SAHARA include those of COL. TOM PARKER and his assistant, TOM DESKIN (of Nashville Tenn.). And — wherever Col. Parker is, naturally the talk is of "his boy," ELVIS PRESLEY. . . .

TOMMY CLAIRE, Manager-Host of the Lady Luck Bar and Skyroom (at the DESERT INN), will be absent from the local scene for a short time. He and his wife celebrated their Twelfth Wedding Anniversary, October 17th and then left for their two week vacation, in San Francisco. . . .

WILLIE ALDERMAN (of the RIVIERA HOTEL) is button-bustin' proud of his seven year old son, BILLY. The lad is enrolled at the BLACK FOX MILITARY INSTITUTE in Los Angeles. Naturally, Dad thinks a future General is being molded. He could very well be right!

HAL BELFER, Producer of Shows at the HOTEL FLAMINGO, tendered his resignation, effective, October 15th. Hal plans an extended tour in search of new ideas and talent and will undoubtedly be back in FLV, ere long. . . .

British film star, DIANA DORS, who wears a black wardrobe in "The Unholy Wife," doesn't own an outfit that's black, in her off-screen life. . . .

CHRIS GRAHAM is Assistant to General Manager, DICK TAYLOR, of the HACIENDA HOTEL. He is also in charge of publicity and public relations at that bistro. However, his greatest chore at the moment is the celebration he is planning for his son's (TONY) First Birthday, October 29.h.

Wonder if the rumors are true? We've heard many whispers about a gathering of highly-informed experts, here to discuss Satellites and the such! . . .

FABULOUS sends congratulations to BETTY BROWN and BEN KAYE on the opening of BETTY'S HOUSE OF CASHMERE AND MINK. While examining the luxurious assortment of fur trimmed cashmere sweaters and mink caps, you may relax with a cocktail (thank you, Betty!). . . .

If you've ever lived in New York, you know it is a proven fact that many next door neighbors never see or know each other. Here in Las Vegas, although you may not live far apart, this twenty-four hour schedule can often prevent you from seeing those you consider good friends. So it was with this pillar and the ARNOLD CHRISTENSENS. It took exactly two years for us to manage to see each other for a bit of a chat but — we finally made it! Here's hoping we can repeat our little visit at least three times a year — if not more! . . .

We've heard many favorable comments anent the gowns STUNNING SMITH wears in the "Minsky's Follies" — at the DUNES HOTEL. Upon investigation, we discovered the "Stunner" actually designs and makes her own creations. She could be a

WITHIN the past few weeks, the World got a brand new baseball champion; Speedy Hawaii Kai III repeated again in the SAHARA GOLD CUP RACES that were well attended by "Glitter Gulch" personalities; The Los Angeles Rams started the league season as dismally as last year and the first snows have hit the Charleston resort area. Meanwhile, back along Fremont Street, the visitors and locals have taken it all in stride and have gained a few, lost a few and promoted a few of the familiar faces all along that busy thoroughfare. . . . Co-owner LIDO COSTELLO of the CALIFORNIA CLUB, a Nevada resident since 1927, who was affiliated with Reno's famed BANK CLUB for twenty-two active years, recently celebrated his sixty-first birthday. Fabulous, along with his many friends throughout the state, extend him "Many Happy Returns of the Day!" . . .

Former Bar Manager of the FREMONT HOTEL, FRANK CUTINELLE, has resigned and his place will be taken by the well-known and well-liked "MICKEY" MORENO. . . . You'll look a long while before you find a friendlier, more efficient and even tempered bartender as JOHN DELGADO, the day shift mixerman at the Casino Bar of the PIONEER CLUB. JOHN hasn't had a single "beef" with co-worker or customer in all of the two years he's been at that station. . . . MICKEY PHILLIPS, pretty and shapely brunette, is the new day shift cocktail waitress at the CALIFORNIA CLUB. . . . Everyone is happy to see RUTH AGATUCCI, FREMONT HOTEL waitress back at her station after a surgery session in Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital. . . . FORTUNE Room C. W. LAVERNE BATTAGLIA is just about the happiest one gal in FLV. Her three-year-old son, MIKE, who has been staying with his grandparents in Michigan for the past seven months trained back home the other day and "Mama" could hardly wait for the "iron horse" to come to a full stop before smothering the boy with a typical motherly greeting! . . . SAM FRANKOVICH, former CALIFORNIA CLUB bartender, has been promoted to day shift "21 dealer" at the same spot. His cousin is MIKE FRANKOVICH, former UCLA football great and Los Angeles Sports Announcer who is now a major movie producer on the European scene. . . .

HARRY is in charge of the TROPICANA Slot Dept. . . . A lovely visitor to FLV was PATRICIA, daughter of the FLAMINGO'S AL PARVIN. PATRICIA resides in Beverly Hills. . . . Very happy to welcome BERT PERRY, ABE SCHILLER'S Ass't. at the FLAMINGO back on the job. BERT was bedded while in L.A. by the "flu" bug and was seriously ill. Glad you "licked" it BERT . . . Wonder if the recent plane trip to New York made by HAL BELFER could mean that the future activities of this prolific producer might be centered in that metropolis? . . . PAMELA, CALIFORNIA CLUB Cocktail Waitress, should be an expert exponent of the rod and reel now that pit boss TED TITENGER has been teaching her the fine points of the sport. How about it PAM. Have you landed that "big one" yet? . . . DUNES Chief Deputy PETER WITCHER is now guarding MELISSA JANE, 6 lb. 5 oz. gift from his wife, IRENE. She was presented to him October 5th. . . .

DUNE'S Aladdin Room cashier VICKI HOGAN'S "Prince Charming" keeps her working night and day. "PRINCE" is a recently acquired daschound puppy who hasn't yet learned correct society manners. . . . RITA CONDOS, DUNES Change Girl, received her first orchid on October 5th. A gift from her hubby. Belated birthday greetings RITA. . . . SEASONED travelers the country over invariably take one trip every so often and that is the North Shore Drive along Lake Superior to the Twin Ports of Canada. Those in the know say it is just about the most beautiful drive in the entire country. Certainly it is one of the longest beautiful drives any place, because from the time you leave Duluth until you reach Fort William and Port Arthur, Canada, every inch of the drive is one of beauty, change, and interest. I always save this trip for the last one of the summer season and go after the leaves have turned and when there are few tourists to hamper my driving and sightseeing.

Thus last week end, I took Priscilla Dyar, who will be back at the Blair House for the winter come November 1st, and my sister and brother-in-law, the Harry Hutchinsons from Long Beach. We stopped off in Duluth to have a look around the harbor to watch the ore boats coming and going, then on out to the lovely Bon Air Tea Rooms, nestled down among the rocks, birches and pines right on the water about seventeen miles from Duluth, for lunch. The picture windows here present an almost unbelievable marine panorama, and the food is as good as you will find anywhere in the country. It is also one of the few resort places that keep open after Labor Day.

For 150 miles Highway 61 hugs the rock-bound coast of the greatest inland sea in the world and on the opposite side of the road is a myriad of colors that are indescribable. It has been many a fall since the foliage is as beautiful as it is this year. Crossing the border at Pigeon River was a breeze, for all they asked us was where we were born. The Twin Ports of the Headlands of Superior Lake are about seventy miles from the border and these seventy miles follow along Pine River which is a wide, stony, and beautiful waterway with many parks for picnickers and tourists to enjoy. We checked into the fine ROYAL EDWARD HOTEL in Fort William and had an exceptional dinner there. Surely seemed good to find a dining room with heavy linens on all tables with flowers and silverware enough to make you wonder what spoon or fork to use first, and that was a real joy. Oh, for the good old days, when table setting was an art like it is here at the ROYAL. We had debated whether to eat at the swank LORNA DOONE RESTAURANT, but finally decided on the hotel and it was an excellent choice. I am sorry we did not have time to visit Kakabeka Falls or take a drive up the north side of Lake Superior that finally joins with Michigan and Wisconsin on the east for it is truly a breathtaking drive as far as it is finished. Am saving that, however, until next year when I can drive entirely around the whole lake.

An early start the next morning got us back to the border in time for a cup of coffee, and then on to Lutsen, just 20 miles below Grand Marais, where one of my favorite resorts is located – LUTSEN RESORT – run by handsome, young George Nelson Jr., and his father. George was away in Wyoming antelope hunting, and I was sorry not to have had a visit with him. This is Minnesota's oldest resort and it is wonderful. You dine in a huge pine paneled room with huge windows overlooking the water. It has a fireplace and food fit for the gods. This resort is open all year for skiing, hunting, winter sports and fishing. I have stopped here many times and like it more each time. A new, heated swimming pool has been added, as have shuffleboard and tennis courts. We fed the bears that come in from the woods to make themselves at home, before we left, stuffed to the ears with our Minnesota farmhouse American Plan breakfast that consisted of fresh fruit, hot cereal, a stack of cakes fit for a lumberjack, home-cured sausage, and a whole pot of steaming coffee. Sound good?

At Illgen City there is an odd looking Aztec Resort where we turned off Minnesota Highway No. 1 for a ninety mile trip of scenic grandeur through the Superior National Forest (world's largest, with 3000 lakes that you cannot get to except by canoe). We went to Ely, the canoe capital of the world, where you can outfit yourselves for a trip of from one day to three months and in which you canoe through lakes and country where you will never see another human being, a sign of civilization or go through the same lake twice. You must portage over the rapids and connecting bits of land between the lakes, however, so one has to be in good shape to do this.

From Ely we drove in a south-westerly direction over the entire Mesabi Iron Ore Range with its interesting towns, vast mining operations, palatial schools, and hospitals that would do cities like New York proud. From there over roads where the Greyhound Lines were born in an old Model T Ford driven by a Swede immigrant between Virginia and Hibbing carrying miners to and from work.

I urge you to read THE SEVEN IRON MEN, a story about my friends, the seven Merritt Brothers, who discovered the largest iron mines in the world there. There is so much romance to this part of the world.

And now the TACONITE story begins with its multi-billion dollar making iron ore out of low grade materials that had heretofore been considered worthless. You would never believe the cities that have sprung

THE HOTEL TROPICANA has joined the bandwagon heralding the strong comeback of Polynesian music and is currently featuring the terrific HARRY OWENS and His ROYAL HAWAIIANS in the beautiful Showcase Lounge. Ever since those smooth, South Sea Islanders began airing their mystic Hawaiian melodies in this room, business has soared. Accompanying the "master" are three luscious Hawaiian grass-skirted gals who truly do justice to the beautiful Hula, and to cap the show, there is one of the greatest exhibitions of the Hawaiian sword dance you've ever seen as staged by a native islander whose technique on this difficult, daring dance is breathtaking. . . . At the DUNES HOTEL in the Sinbad Lounge, DEBBIE HAYES and Her SIX MADMEN are unleashing a wealth of brand new material that is just as effective and entertaining as their now famous "Monster Number." This troupe displays an amazing amount of showmanship and boundless energy plus a sincere will to please. And, regardless of what they do, they accomplish their goal. . . .

In the same spot swingin' saxaphonist ART "Cow Eyes" ENGLER and His SEXTET are bouncing their rhythmic arrangements to all four corners of the room. . . . And, the all new JODIMARS open here October 24th. . . . The EL RANCHO VEGAS is featuring modern instrumentalist BOB MORGAN heading his very pleasing TRIO. Here are three first rate musicians who unleash tuneful arrangements with universal appeal. . . . Those swinging SALMAS BROTHERS have returned to the beautiful Casbar Lounge of the HOTEL SAHARA to treat patrons of the strip's jumpingest Lounge to generous helpings of their outstanding visual act of comedy and modern music. . . . They have joined up with the already impressive array featuring LOUIE PRIMA and KEELY SMITH with SAM BUTERA and THE WITNESSES; Beautiful KAY MARTIN and Her BODYGUARDS; SONNY KING and SANDO DEEMS. . . . It's a sad thing to have to report, but with the advent of cooler weather, the spectacular DANCING WATERS have departed the DESERT INN until next Spring. This novel act has attracted and enhanced thousands of visitors during the past five months and its reappearance will be looked forward to eagerly. Lots of credit should also be passed along to the smooth GROVER-SHORE TRIO who did such a splendid job of playing poolside dance sets for the spectators between shows. Many visitors and locals enjoyed this rare combination of lovely music and dancing under the stars as much as anything experienced here in FLV. . . . Another of the many fine Lounge combos at the DESERT INN, playing in the Lady Luck Lounge, are the sophisticated DON GREGORY QUARTET who always have a packed house of appreciative listeners to play to. . . . The Starlight Lounge at the RIVIERA HOTEL is blessed with a tremendous variety of outstanding entertainment: For comedy and song, it's almost impossible to top the rapier wit of LENNY KENT and beautiful JACI FONTAINE; The three WILDER BROTHERS excel both on their respective musical instruments and modern, close, vocal harmony for a listenable change of pace and the frenetic FABULOUS McCLEVERTY'S (of the Cuban McCLEVERTY'S) play the best of the stirring (Continued on Page 41) smooth Decca recordings, but mostly they play for fun. They work on an ad-lib basis with unpredictable results. . . . THE WAZZAN TROUPE, whirlwinds of the desert, is an act featuring six men and one gal who present an intricate display of Arabian acrobatics. Their lightning-fast tumbling and dextrous pyramid-building has made them one of the best known performing groups in the country. . . . THE CORDOLINS, a quartet of four girl violinists, is a unique musical act who blend semi-classical and popular tunes in a dramatic manner. . . . CARLTON HAYES and His ORCHESTRA are the musical sound behind the production and play magnificent support throughout.

EL RANCHO

ing. . . . Appearing with her is the highly amusing "silk merchant" MYRON COHEN, with his variety of stimulating jokes and tales. His matchless stories usually deal with normal, everyday affairs, but when MYRON tells them, they become hilarious. He is truly a superb story teller whose humor is always in excellent taste and thoroughly appealing to everyone. . . . The production numbers of the beautiful RENEE MOLNAR DANCERS are both colorful and imaginative. . . . Skillfully backing the show is DICK RICE and His fine ORCHESTRA.

DUNES

Backing up the star with more of the same is STUNNING SMITH with a figure that is every bit as spectacular as her purple tresses. She packs a solid one-two exotic punch that has the patrons screaming for more! . . . Those masters of the art of juggling,

THE PIERO BROTHERS, return once again to the local entertainment scene to present an act that is world famous for it's great finesse and execution. . . . The flying LOS GATOS TRIO, another troupe of FLV favorites, will keep you in suspenseful wonder as they literally throw themselves all over the stage while presenting their daring and difficult acrobatic routines. . . . GARWOOD VAN and His ORCHESTRA back this chesty, gal studded music, comedy and variety revue with splendid musical support.

EL CORTEZ

Returning to treat patrons of the room to more of their breathtaking solos of figure and acrobatic skating are talented GLORIA OAKLEY and lithe, wiry GEORGE ZAK, two picture perfect artists of the silver blades. . . . The ICE-CUBETTES enhance the beauty of the light-hearted Mardi Gras spirit and they appear in all of the newly devised production numbers. . . . Seldom do you run across as impressive an entertainer as the magnificent TITO GUIZAR. He is returning to the Las Vegas scene and the EL CORTEZ by popular demand after having "wowed" audiences here a few short months ago. Featured in his thrilling vocal repertoire are the all-time favorites "Guadalajara" and "Rancho Grande," plus the greatest of the well-liked Mexican Folk tunes. An outstanding performer always, he possesses a magnetic personality, dashing and handsome good looks and one of the most colorful Latin wardrobes in showbusiness. . . . Senor BUSTER HALLETT and His ORCHESTRA do a tremendous job of playing the tuneful Mexican and Spanish music and afford the show strong, deft support.

Recognized as one of the greatest of the many great vocal groups of the decade, they can keep you entertained indefinitely singing their countless recording hits. . . . SENSATIONAL and WONDEROUS are two excellent words to describe the spine-tingling Apache Dance sequences presented by the MAZZONE-ABBOT DANCERS. The customers buzz for hours after each performance about how these fleet-footed, bullet-dodging Apaches manage to stay in one piece and still accomplish the act. . . . The beautiful FLAMINGOETTES execute a pair of stunning production numbers and each effort is brilliantly staged and blended into the overall package. . . . is one of the most dazzling ever shown and it contains a bevy of typical LATIN QUARTER dolls parading throughout the many entertaining acts and scenes. . . . Starring in this continental flavored gigantic is beauteous and shapely MAMIE VAN DOREN. This gorgeous gal has put together a thrilling act consisting of teasing, pleasing vocals and charming patter to score a smash hit in her initial nightery debut. She's the glamour attraction of the show and her showmanship leaves nothing to be desired. . . . Merry MOREY AMSTERDAM is an ideal choice for the starring comedy role and he tosses a carload of racy, clever quips with staccato drive that keep the room in a tumult of laughter. MOREY is a master of comedy timing and as the coordinator between the ridiculous and the sublime, he emerges the perfect choice. . . . In addition, there is a solid lineup of stellar talent in support, headed by impressionist BOBBY FELLOWS, who utilizes flawless pantomime to impersonate big names in today's vocal scheme of things and Flamenco dancers ISABEL and MIGUEL; Singers HOWARD MANN, ILONKA and PIROSKA; LORI SHEA and CARMEN PHILLIPS, plus a host of tantalizing femmes in the best tradition of LOU WALTERS' Productions. . . . JIMMY GROSSO mixes humorous monologue with terrific instrumental and orchestral impressions to gain the plaudits of all. . . . Blonde songstress LORAIN DALY is a pretty and pleasing vocalist with a smash repertoire of "hit parade" material. . . . JOE BENNETT and THE SPARKLETONES will have you tapping your feet to their animated rock and roll song stylings. . . . less" BERGEN and lead him a merry chase from beginning to end. Accompanying this act and setting the scene for more chuckle provoking comedy and quips are JACK KIRKWOOD and BARBARA HELLER who help "bait" the BERGEN wit to perfection. . . . THE MARY KAYE TRIO, an extra-added-attraction in this STAN IRWIN presentation, change the style and tempo, but not the successful pattern of the show as they treat you to a thrilling display of musical nonsense and tomfoolery plus a raft of entertaining songs featuring their amazing vocal precision and harmony. This great threesome is deservedly regarded as one of the best all-around troupes in the business. Their act consists of a marvelous blending of bright music and sophisticated comedy. . . . The beautiful production numbers of the SAHAREM DANCER, produced by SONIA SHAW and BILL HITCHCOCK, are truly breathtaking and completely satisfying. . . . CEE DAVIDSON and His ORCHESTRA beat out a solid background to provide excellent musical support. . . .

exposing the true nature of the male animal. Her numbers are excellently backed by the blended voices of the thrilling VOGUES — four guys who compliment all of the husky RUSSELL piping. . . . The outstanding comedy duo of ROWAN and MARTIN keep the patrons laughing constantly all during their session on stage. Their act is one of the greatest collections of zany antics and calculated nonsense you've ever seen and heard. One of the high spots, and a classic phase of their act, is the "Shakespearean" bit that is truly one of the funniest skits ever staged locally, or anywhere else for that matter. . . . The singing VOGUES come stage-side again to front the dazzling production routines presented by the indescribably lovely COPA GIRLS. . . . ANTONIO MORELLI and His ORCHESTRA lend their musical prowess to back the show with marvelous support from beginning to end.

SILVER SLIPPER

. . . The matchless HANK carries the comedy load and this popular comic is at his laugh begetting best as he rifles the gags in an endless stream and punctuates each line with his incomparable and hilarious facial expression. . . . Stunning TONY MOHR is a perfectionist on the torrid bump and grind routines that never fail to please the male members of the audience. She combines sultry good looks and a ravishing figure with blushing daring routines that score heavily. . . . VICKI YOUNG, the vibrant and lovely singing star, sells the hit tunes of the day with renditions the way you like to hear them sung. . . . RENE THE PUPPETEER has a clever act woven around his amazingly life-like little wooden figures and uses material that is drawn from the vast source of life itself to keep you smiling all the while. . . . SPARKY KAYE and MAC DENNISON toss the show a strong comedy assist with their respective brands of humor dispensing and JIMMY CAVANAUGH, Emcee and Irish tenor, sings the great ballads of Ireland with warmth and sincere feeling. . . . Both of the BARRY ASHTON devised production numbers showcase the beauty and precision dancing prowess of the SLIPPERETTES to perfection. . . . Musical backing of the show is amply supplied by GEORGE REDMAN and His capable ORCHESTRA.

ing beautiful lady of the dance brings a spectacular group of routines designed around scanty but effective costuming and imaginative staging and props to capture everyone's fancy. . . . VIC ARTISE and His ORCHESTRA provide excellent support in the musical department.

Comedian SHELLY BERMAN, a new face on the Las Vegas horizon, is a pleasing laugh dispenser with a unique, different style. His whimsical, sophisticated material is brand new and the style is one of the freshest noted around the nite club circuit in a long, long while. . . . THE BRUXELLOS are a fast moving troupe of speedy acrobats who will captivate you with their unbelievable feats. For a thrilling climax they precariously balance a tray of eight drinks while still going through their animated gyrations. . . .

selections to satisfy even the most discriminating or jaded taste. It co-stars screen and musical comedy star VIVIAN BLAINE and comedian DICK SHAWN and features an original musical score of ten tunes composed by GORDON "Manhattan Towers" JENKINS, plus a sturdy cast of supporting talent. . . . VIVIAN sings five of the great, new show tunes as she appears in several skillfully staged "show within a show" presentations showcasing her glamour and talent to perfection and adding lustre to the production. This great star, as lovely as she is talented, emerges as another bright, new show personality on the Las Vegas scene. . . . Comedian DICK SHAWN has scaled a new high in his spectacular career with this performance. He comes into his own, not only as a terrific cabaret comic, but also emerges as an exciting find for future musical comedy rolls. . . . In support of the stars, and executing the series of colorful "musical vignettes" to perfection, is an impressive array of high ranking singing and dancing talent. Starring in and out of these capsule size musical gems are NEILE ADAMS; DANTE DE PAULO; MARY ELLEN; LEONA, "Miss U.S.A. for a Day," GAGE; "pixie-ish" dancer LIZANNE TRUEX; BOBBY MILANO; BETTY JEAN HANSEN; KITTY DOLAN and the bouncy and brash BILL NORVAS SINGERS. . . . The TROPICANA GIRLS lend their exquisite beauty and appear in all of the spectacular production numbers. . . . OBSERVATIONS will never be needed!"; but, fortunately, the bond money had been paid and we were assured of a building for years to come for both grammar and high school.

Then complaints again poured in that the contractor was not living up to the contract. The school board appointed E. W. Griffith as inspector for the school board. Then, when the building was finished and the contractor tried to turn it over to the school board as completed according to the contract, Mr. Griffith pointed out certain things that were necessary to comply with the contract. These Jurden refused to do, and the much needed school stood vacant for an entire year until the school board made some kind of settlement with the contractor and the school was opened in the fall of 1911. Mr. Jurden refused to be reconciled and would not let his daughter attend school there, "as the building was unsafe."

But, in spite of the fact that many people were certain that the building was far too large, by the time the year 1916 rolled around, it was necessary for the high school board, which had been renting the south wing of the building, to vacate and find other quarters because of lack of space. The high school board immediately purchased the entire block south of the Fifth Street School, had the street between closed and then built Las Vegas' first High School building. These buildings were the first great improvements along Fifth Street, and really put that street on the map.

In the early 1920's, we started a campaign for an automobile road directly to Los Angeles, instead of going by wagon road by way of Eldorado Canyon and Searchlight to Highway 66 at Goffs. It seemed like an almost impossible undertaking but we figured that the proposed new route would save ninety-three miles and one weary day of travel. In 1914, Charles McCarthy, then county surveyor, now Col. McCarthy, Retired, with a team fastened to each end of a steel rail, dragged the brush off a new road to Goodsprings. That really was the beginning of our present highway to Los Angeles and also the reason for opening Fifth Street south of Garces. Surveys for the extension southward on Fifth Street were made by the State Highway Department and C. C. Boyer, State Highway Engineer for this district in 1923.

The extension of Fifth Street southward was a grand victory for Las Vegas. Just to show the necessity for that enterprise, the highway department made a count of the traffic for one week and found that twenty-three automobiles passed over that road every twenty-four hours. That was the start of the busiest highway in the State of Nevada.

For a year the extension of Fifth Street southward was unpaved, and, of course, nobody dreamed that it would ever become the thoroughfare it is today, but a Casino and night club was built called the Pair-O-Dice. As travel increased that name was changed to the 91 Club. Guy McAfee, I think, was the moving spirit in that enterprise. The Red Rooster and several other night clubs followed.

It was not until Tom Hull planned, financed and built the El Rancho Vegas that Fifth Street began to assume importance. El Rancho Vegas was opened in 1940 and then it was rumored that a hotel larger and finer than the El Rancho was about to be erected on the property of the Pair-O-Dice by a man named Griffith from Texas who owned a string of moving picture theatres. He financed what was called the Last Frontier with Bill Moore as architect and builder.

Next came the Flamingo, and we were sure that Vegas at last was on her way to greatness. "Bugsy" Siegel was the heart of this venture, but he was killed by a bullet fired through a window while he was seated in a friend's house in Hollywood one evening in June, 1946, and then we were sure that Las Vegas' future was blighted. But Siegel's friends took up the burden of completing the Flamingo. Delphine and I have been particularly interested in the Flamingo because for some twenty years we owned the forty acres on which the Flamingo was built. We sold it to Mrs. Folsom for $7500, which at that time seemed an outrageous price. She was intending to build an auto court there, but never carried out her plans, and the Siegel interests took it over. Today the Flamingo is rated at more than ten million dollars.

After the Flamingo came a parade of other fine resort hotels. Wilbur Clark's Desert Inn had its troubles and delays, but Mr. Clark never admitted defeat even when things looked dark for his enterprise. Following Wilbur Clark's Desert Inn came more resort hotels. I am not sure of the order — The Thunderbird, The Sahara, The Sands, The Dunes, The Royal Nevada, The Hacienda and The Tropicana, estimated as costing more than fifteen million dollars, and there are probably some others which for the moment have slipped my memory. On other streets are also fine resorts and in downtown Las Vegas are more lavish hotels and casinos including the thirteen story Fremont, but I am trying to picture the brilliant Fifth Street as it now is.

When Fifth Street began to assume importance, it was dark and dismal. Neon signs began to appear here and there, until now, for six or eight miles from where it crosses Fremont, it is reasonable to assume that when the one-thousand room Star Dust is re-financed and finished, it will add more luster to the already brilliant Fifth Street.

We will be able to manufacture oxygen in pills to give us a quick pick-up, to use in cosmetics to refresh the skin, in food to increase the digestion, and in manufacture to speed work. In the mystery of oxygen, may lie the mystery of life! The very simple principle of the steam kettle, controlled explosion, and rhythmic motion took man from his horse and placed him on a train, in an automobile and in the air in only a few short years! The simple discovery of bacteria increased our life span by 300% almost overnight! Some small town druggist could easily make the discovery of a lifetime in mixing up his home remedies, for all drugs are a combination of others! Some housewife in her kitchen may perfect a new food that would become an overnight rage! ROSE CONINO is the mother of two sons, JOE and TONY. Joe is in charge of the swing shift at the SILVER SLIPPER and Tony is in charge of the day shift — same spot. The boys are healthy and full of vim and vigor. However, they are currently wearing a bedraggled expression. Mother has been here for two weeks and has kept them on the go, nightly, escorting her all over FLV. Wonder why the boys are so exhausted? Mother is just seventy-three years young!

It is indeed a pleasure to welcome the MOREY ZUKERMANS, of Denver, Colorado. They are stopping at the RIVIERA HOTEL. In view of the many visits the Zukermans make here, we still can't understand why they don't move in bag and baggage? . . .

Never knew there were so many oyster lovers in FLV. Since JOE W. BROWN's HORSESHOE CLUB has them flown in daily from New Orleans, folks descend upon the delicacies. The club can hardly keep up with the demand. If you can time a fresh shipment, try them at the Nevada Room of the Horseshoe. . .

ture has its World Premiere ("Escapade in Japan"). The young co-star of the flicker will miss school for two weeks, while on a personal appearance with the film. However, a private tutor will be included in his entourage. . . .

That new sound behind the stars at the SHOWBOAT HOTEL, and doing a fine job of backing them up, is provided by talented VIC ARTISE and His ORCHESTRA. Congratulations on the new "post" VIC, and here's hoping all of your shows expand into a medley of "hits."

On October 28th, MATTHEW BENDER (of Providence, R. I.) will be honored at his Bar Mitzvah. That date will also mark his Thirteenth Birthday. Uncle JOE GOODMAN (of the Gift Shop at the FREMONT HOTEL) wishes he could be there but business prevents his making the trip. . . .

When the MARY KAYE TRIO open at the CRESCENDO in Hollywood, October 29th, they will have many additional dates to fulfill. They are signed to appear on the EDDIE FISHER telecast, also DINAH SHORE's TV program. And — they have signed for three appearances on the PERRY COMO TVviewer. To us, these contracts are tributes to a group of top performers. We've watched them from their show biz incubation period to their current attainments. We still maintain — their star is still going to rise, higher and higher. (Catch the trio at the HOTEL SAHARA, before they close, this coming Tuesday.) . . .

GUY LOMBARDO, currently at the DESERT INN, announced that Her Royal Highness, QUEEN ELIZABETH, specifically requested his orchestra to play for dancing at the Commonwealth Ball, honoring

Her Majesty and PRINCE PHILIP, at the Seventh Regiment Armory in New York, October 21st. The Ball will be sponsored by the Pilgrims and the English Speaking Union. Guy also played at the November 1st, 1954 Commonwealth Ball in New York, which honored the Queen Mother. He will perform without fee, after cancelling $10,000 in Ballroom engagements. . . .

JOE E. LEWIS' filmed biog, "The Joker Is Wild," is doing great box office at theatres throughout the nation. The other LEWIS — JERRY, by name — has watched his picture, "The Delicate Delinquent" gross over $4,000,000 to date. Looks like 1957 is a Lewis year — for sure! . . .

Starting date for the EL CORTEZ "Pheasant Hunt," another JACK SMITH "first" in Las Vegas, is November 15th. All prospective hunters must register at the EL CORTEZ HOTEL and each lucky hunter will be guaranteed five Pheasants. . . .

MARTHA HYER, who played "the other woman" type of role for the first time in "My Man Godfrey," is very happy. She commented, "I never knew it could be so much fun to be so nasty." . . .

Happy to see NATE SCHLAIFER back on the active scene. Nate is now a floorman at the RIVIERA HOTEL (swing shift). . . .

Congratulations are in order for MATT GREGORY. The handsome chap is now the local representative for the MILTON DEUTSCH THEATRICAL AGENCY. . . .

MORRIS KLEINMAN (Co-owner of the DESERT INN) is presently vacationing at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

DAVE BURTON has contracted to cut a new MGM Record Album, "Dave Burton at the FLAMINGO." It should be pretty terrific listening.

This lad is loaded with talent. . . .

JIMMY ABBOTT, former Casino Executive at the ROYAL NEVADA, has been pressed into service for that Spa in the roll of Convention and Promotion Manager. His wife, LOUISE, and two daughters, EVELYN and BECKY, are in Houston, Texas awaiting word from JIMMY to head for Las Vegas where the family will make their new home. . . .

NAT (KING) COLE will become a FRIAR, October 21st. Members of the club plan a real "roasting" for this great singing star. . . .

Looks like a serious romance between MIGNON WARNER and LENNY KENT. Mignon last danced here at the DUNES HOTEL. The comedian has that "mad about you — glad about it" look in his eyes when he gazes at his lovely. . . .

Most folks hire baby sitters when they are away from their hearth. However, VIRGINIA GREY had to hire a "home sitter," while on location for "Teach Me How To Cry." Seems burglars have already broken into her Encino home twice and she wants to discourage the third intrusion. . . .

SAM LEDNER, Stage Manager at the TROPICANA HOTEL, deserves mucho credit. The productions are very exacting, demanding precise timing and unwavering execution of scenic changes. Sam keeps everything right on schedule. How? We'll never know! . . .

It is certainly a pleasure to see WALTER PARMAN back in FLV. The distinguished gentleman owns the CIRCLE RB RANCH in Reno and was the original owner of the CALIFORNIA CLUB. Mr. Parman is now a day shift floorman at the FREMONT HOTEL. . . .

JACK DENISON, Maitre d' RIVIERA HOTEL, behaves just like a new father, when it comes to his White Lincoln-Continental. It actually matches his Silver Fox hair — don't you think? . . .

BILLIE GELLER, photographer at the HOTEL SAHARA, is off for her Annual holiday. Billie will spend her vacation in Bermuda — lucky gal!

VICKI DENNISON is the titian-tressed comedienne with "Minsky's Follies" at the DUNES HOTEL. You may join us in being incredulous when we inform you she is actually the mother of an eleven year old son, JIM. . . .

JACK LEHMAN is now associated with the KOZLOFF-COHEN Insurance Firm, as a Special Agent. . . .

MAC HARRIS (of the RIVIERA HOTEL) is one of the most popular Dining Room Captains on the "Strip." He acknowledges everyone by name and actually takes great pleasure in his work. . . .

The SY LIENS are hosting his Manhattan Mother, for a short visit. Sy's father, MORRIS, is touring the country with the "Ballet Russe Monte Carlo," of which he is assistant musical conductor. (Sy is Stage Manager of the HOTEL SAHARA.) . . .

FABULOUS felicitations to DOROTHY and BEN SAX. They were wed on October 8th and are spending their honeymoon, at the DUNES HOTEL. Ben is one of the owners of Auction City, Los Angeles. . . .

PATTI and JERRY LEWIS welcomed their fourth child, October 9th. The lad weighed in at seven lbs., thirteen ounces. Looks like the Lewis' are determined to create their own space ship crew. We're happy for you, kids and hope you'll go on for lucky number five! . . .

MAMIE VAN DOREN (star of the HOTEL RIVIERA show) and hubby, RAY ANTHONY act as though they are on a perpetual Honeymoon. Their sweet nothings continue even though their son, PERRY RAY (eighteen months old) tries to out-coo them! . . .

October Birthdays:

When COCKY POWERS, CALIFORNIA CLUB Co-Owner, was eliminated from the State Tourney at the D.I. Gold Course, it took one whale of a trick to do it. COCKY was eliminated when DESERT INN Executive ALLARD ROEN sunk an almost unbelievable forty-foot putt to ice a "sudden death" victory. . . . HANK KOVELL, FREMONT HOTEL Publicity Director, is spending his ten day vacation in the San Francisco Bay Area. . . . DOUG BARRYMORE, handsome and personable swing shift floor-man at the FORTUNE ROOM, makes a perfect club host on the nightly club sponsored sojourns with visiting firemen along the strip and into the shows. He makes a very impressive good-will ambassador for the VAN SANTEN enterprises. . . . PAT KENDRICK just recently joined the staff of the GOLDEN NUGGET in the capacity of Cocktail totter on the swing shift. Along the way he picked up a new Oldsmobile 88 to make the journey home a little more pleasant. . . . BOULDER CLUB Cashiers JOHNNY FRANKS and BOB WAY are back in town following deer hunting efforts in northern part of the state. One did — one didn't! . . . ### Church of Religious Science

Rev. Lee W. Mooney, R.Sc.M., Minister & Practioner. Headquarters: 1000 E. Oakey Blvd. Phone DU 4-7201. Sunday Service: 11 A. M., Elks' Hall, 3rd & Carson. Healing Meeting: Wednesday, 8:00 P.M., 1000 E. Oakey. Radio KORK Spot announcements all week.

is greeting her friends over the counter of the EL RANCHO GIFT SHOP. . . . MRS. RUTH JULIAN has left for an eastern visit with hubby EDDIE'S (He's the demon drummer with GEORGE REDMONDS' ork at the SILVER SLIPPER) parents in Harrison, New York, and her parents in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. She is accompanied by daughters SUSAN and PAMELA and son GREGORY. EDDIE expects to be lonesome for about eight weeks.

. . . EARL CAROON, D-I Stage Manager, has purchased a fourteen foot Mercury powered speedboat and can be found on Lake Mead during any leisure moment. His long friendship with GUY LOMBARDO was partly responsible for his decision to indulge in GUY'S favorite sport. . . .

FRANK MAZZONE of the MAZZONE-ABBOTT DANCERS (FLAMINGO) was painfully injured Sunday night. At the climax of this thrilling act the break-away barrel on which FRANK takes a "header" didn't break-away properly. Result — a doctor had to take three stitches in Frank's chin. . . . MR. & MRS. MILTON HAYS (he's the owner of San Francisco's HOLIDAY INN HOTEL and the missus is EDNA FISHER, famous composer of many of our popular melodies) enjoying a late evening lunch in the Flamingo Supper Restaurant. . . . Items that are a pleasure to item: ELISE and JOHN FERRY (SAND'S Security Officer) celebrate their 17th Wedding Anniversary today. They have two children — also named ELISE and JOHN. Happy goings-on to you nice people.

. . . We were all sorry to see FRANK BERLE leave our town. FRANK is MILTON'S brother and business manager and does the "behind-the-scenes" work. FRANK is as beloved by everyone "behind the curtain" as MILTON is "out in front." . . . BILL HASSLER (RIVIERA Captain) is as proud of his new set of golf clubs as he would be of a new wife (if he had one). They were given to him by RIVIERA Cook SAM AXLER for a favor of long past. . . . Many Vegans claim they have the "best" dog in town, but OSCAR FERGUSON, President of SILVER STATE KENNEL CLUB says he can prove he has the "best" by the winners in last week's "show" here. Moral — if you have a winner, enter a show and prove it. . . .

A sure hit is CARMEN LOMBARDO'S new and beautiful song "Return to Me." CARMEN was inspired to write the melody while in Venice, Italy. It was completed with lyrics during the present D-I engagement and the audiences love it. . . . ELLEN SINDLER and HAZEL MEEDS, D-I Sky Room cocktail waitresses, took off for L.A. for a short vacation last Sunday A.M. They left hubby BERNIE SINDLER (Tropicana dealer) and FRED MEEDS (Sand's dealer) to cope with the housework. . . . HAL BRISCOE, barman at the Sky Room, is a disappointed hunter — no venison for the table and SHIRL, blond and lovely cocktail waitress there thinks she would like a job parking cars — (at the SILVER SLIPPER). . . . MR. & MRS. JACK KRUSE (he is a Sand's dealer) became grandparents on October 4th. They were "doubly" happy because their son ALLAN of Chicago, Illinois cabled and said "Twin Girls." . . . The new TWA service to Oklahoma City, Tulsa and Santa Fe, New Mexico, should be another boon to our Resort Hotel industry. . . .

Here's a "hello" to RAY BOUGERAL, former D-I Cactus Room Waiter. RAY is a patient at Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital and all his fellow workers and friends wish him the "best" and a speedy recovery. Come on gang, drop him a line or pay him a visit (Room 422). . . . I'll be seeing you all 'Round Town next week.

Latin tempos with vocal accompaniment. . . . Out at the HACIENDA in the Jewel Box Theatre the JOE FORNARO TRIO are packing them in

. . . At the Stage Bar in the THUNDERBIRD HOTEL, THE THREE SPARKS (DICK SPARKS, organ; BUCK MONARI, trumpet and HANK ADAMS, drums) have a brand new and lovely vocalist, MISS MARCY LAYNE. Be sure and catch this great foursome the first opportunity you get, they are as pleasing an aggregation of music makers as you'll hear around town. . . . In the same spa JACKIE and ROY continue to set the T'BIRD Lounge on it's collective ear with their progressive interpretations of standards and new melodies. They bring a brand-new wrinkle to the norm of Lounge entertainment and provides many a listener with some exciting musical moments. . . . Blonde, sensuous BETTY REILLY is headlining the Lounge attractions in the beautiful Cabaret Lounge of the ROYAL NEVADA. BETTY really sells a vast repertoire of varied vocals sung in five different languages. Not only is she a top flight night club chanteuse, but this little gal is a "Stunner" besides, with beautiful looks and a devastating figure poured into slinky, curve hugging gowns that command attention anywhere. . . . Maybe we'll see you there or in some other glittering Lounge enjoying your personal experiment with the biggest collection of entertainment in the U.S.A.
