SOCIAL LIFE BEGINS IN LAS VEGAS

IT WAS about a week after February 13, 1905, that our little party of adventurers from Los Angeles received the first rather formal invitation to dinner. This dinner invitation just meant food — sans evening clothes and the other amenities usually included in an invitation to a formal dinner.

It happened in this way: We had received permission to visit and inspect the brick kiln, operated by Peter and Frank Buol, as we were very anxious to find a suitable and cheap building material to use in connection with our lumber yard. It was about February 18, 1905, that the Buols came for us, with a team and buckboard to take us out to their brick kiln, which was located in the door yard near their cabin. The cabin was not far from the railroad track and about two miles south of the spot where the Armour Company built their ice plant.

It was a bitter cold day with the wind blowing from the north in a regular gale and we were all cold as the team jogged along through the brush as best they could. Suddenly I saw what looked like a small animal crouched beneath a bush and called to the driver to stop while I investigated. I got out of the buckboard, walked about eight feet off the road and reached down and picked up a large jackrabbit. The rabbit was so benumbed with the cold that it made no effort to escape. I took him back to the wagon with me and he snuggled against me and seemed very grateful for the warmth which I imparted to him. When we reached the Buol cabin, I took Mr. jackrabbit into the house with me and he soon found comfort under the cook stove in which there was a roaring fire.

We investigated the bricks that were being produced at the Buol Brick Kiln and decided that they seemed too soft and would not be fit to be used in a two-story building. So the Buols took us back to town and when they left us, they invited us to come out again in two days, which would be Sunday, and inspect another lot they would have ready at that time and also extended the invitation for the dinner party.

Now it had been noised around that Peter Buol had once been a favorite chef at Antoine's in New Orleans, so the invitation was accepted, though we tried not to be too eager about it.

We reached the Buol cabin soon after noon on Sunday and on going into the house I missed my little friend, the jackrabbit, who, after spending considerable time under the cook stove on our previous visit, had been hopping happily about the cabin when we left. I finally asked Frank Buol where he was and he took me over to the stove on which some sort of mixture was gurgling merrily, took off the cover to the pot and pointed into it and said "there he is."

This is how we learned that our little friend was to provide us with our first formal dinner in Las Vegas. At first it seemed a little difficult to decide between our friendship for the "jack" and our yearning for some good food, but after sitting for a time with our nostrils filled with the tantalizing odor of the luscious stew, the food won out and the dinner was a great success.

That spring when W. R. Thomas, a prosperous attorney who had recently come from Watertown, South

An Accurate Glimpse of the Future

CRISWELL PREDICTS

DATELINE — THE FUTURE!

IPREDICT that Red China and Indonesia will enter into an agreement that will give millions of Chinese to Red China, one of the greatest land grabs ever fostered in our times! . . . I predict that the coming birthday of the United Nations will be a very sad and sorry one, as Russia will await this time to bring into focus many touchy subjects concerning other nations! This grand stand play is well rehearsed, and will come off on schedule! . . . I predict that many airmen who are now being held prisoner behind the Iron Curtain in the Orient, will soon be permitted to get in touch with their families and friends, and will be released amid a great propaganda boom! . . . I predict that Vice President Nixon will gain the confidence of the world by his South American adventure, and this will show many nations the danger of underground communism and lawlessness! . . . I predict that a famed German doctor will soon announce that he has been able to "contain" the cancer cell, and this will be the greatest medical news of the year! This long time scourge of mankind will soon be made harmless! . . . I predict that England has quietly tested atomic radiation and its effects on humans, animals and foodstuffs very carefully and these results will be announced like a bombshell! . . . I predict that Rome, Italy will become a world mail-order center, offering Italian, French, Spanish, Oriental and European novelties, foods, candies, fruits, clothing and gift items for your pleasure at very low prices and lower duties!

WHAT PEOPLE WILL DO:

I predict that President Eisenhower will make his most dramatic appeal to the American public on the new international situation and the devaluation of the franc, pound-sterling and the peso! The present situation in other nations will make for a sturdier, stronger America, for we will combine our present foreign holdings, and create a fantastic boom! . . . I predict that J. Edgar Hoover, the head of our FBI, will mince no words concerning the increase in bank robberies by underage juveniles who seek a thrill! A careful pattern of records has been compiled, and Hoover will demand that juveniles pay adult sentences for adult actions! A new law which holds the parents equally guilty will be used in some cases, where warnings were issued before! . . . I predict that Howard Hughes will astound the world with his newest and latest rocket passenger plane, which will get you there before you know it! This new principle, which Mr. Hughes applied to rocketry, will revolutionize our present air force! . . .

I predict that the late Vice President Barkley will have his official au-

JUNE 15 (Sunday) is the day set aside this year for honoring the family breadwinner and champion diaper-pinner. Even though we love him 365 days of the year, this day is a special occasion for him. Hand him his slippers, his favorite pipe, give him a big "smooch" and TELL HIM how much he means to you. He'll appreciate it and love it! Remember, it's FATHER'S DAY — and That's For Sure! . . .

ROSE and MAURICE KATLEMAN celebrate their forty-eighth Wedding Anniversary on June 21st. We know that their son, BELDON, Owner of the EL RANCHO VEGAS HOTEL, will surprise them with a gala Anniversary party in their honor.

JACKIE WINTERS, beauteous Showgal at the DUNES, is one of the most popular chorines in town. The gal has such a winning personality that her friends grow by leaps and bounds. . . .

This month marks the Eleventh Anniversary for ABE SCHILLER and his association with the FLAMINGO HOTEL. Our Congratulations to "Mr. Las Vegas" and hope he'll be around for many more. . . .

The haven for KENO players seems to be JOE W. BROWN'S HORSESHOE CLUB where players are consistently "beating the game" with so-o many winners. It makes the game look easy and it is, if you mark the "right numbers". . .

SANS SOUCI HOTEL and Insurance Exec BILL KOZLOFF has hit on the solution to keep those eyes wide open while working nearly around the clock on his two time consuming jobs. BILL washes his eyes in "benzadrine" to keep them awake.

We send fabulous greetings and sincere Congratulations to MR and MRS. A. ENGEL who celebrate their Fifty-Sixth Wedding Anniversary next Tuesday, June 17th. The couple are the Mother and Dad of well-known Florida Restauranteur HOWIE ENGEL, a familiar and frequent visitor to FLV and the DUNES HOTEL. . . .

DAVE VICTORSON has been appointed Bar and Restaurant Manager at the COLONIAL HOUSE by Co-owners MERV ADELSON and IRWIN MOLASKY. The well-known and very popular Victorson is now kept jumping around the clock as he guides the destinies of this busy, busy new Strip meeting place. . . .

EMIL MUSCELLI, former Maitre D' at the SANS SOUCI, is now the assistant to AL ARAKALIAN, Maitre D' in the Clover Room of HOTEL RIVIERA. . . .

July 1st is the day for a double celebration in "Glitter Gulch" as JOE W. BROWN'S HORSESHOE CLUB toasts its four-year-old Nevada Room and the LUCKY STRIKE CLUB has another anniversary, also its fourth. Congrats to the owners and employees of both of these familiar downtown Casinos and best wishes for many, many more to follow. . . .

JUDY EXBER (Secretary to Attorney MURRAY POSIN) and her husband, MARTY (Saratoga Sports Book), are infanticipating. Judy says October 15th to be exact. Needless to say, Judy is a "new" mother, and she will soon know the only "exact" thing you can count on is that the baby WILL arrive! . . .

By a new method which involves ten separate operations you can now bring back to life those well-liked expensive ties that you have kept on hangars. TIE ARTS METHOD of Beverly Hills, California, has provided a "mail-order" cleaning service that has caught on so rapidly that they have been able to reduce the cost to only $1.00 per tie, postage prepaid. So don't throw that old tie away — send it on a vacation and it will come back refreshed and like new again! . . .

BETTY THOMAS, Food Waitress at the DUNES HOTEL, is overjoyed at having her handsome and husky fifteen year old son, TERRY WILSON, in from Arkansas to spend his summer vacation with her. The proud and delighted "Mom" has a series of summertime events lined up to keep the boy busy and to allow him to get well introduced to Fabulous Las Vegas! . . .

CHUCK LUFTIG and GEORGE POLITO have brought both Beverly Hills and Fifth Avenue in New York to Las Vegas with the opening of their completely new and remodeled JOHN ALLAN MEN'S SHOP. It's one of the most complete shops in town with a Barber Shop and a Manicurist on duty and their clothes are among the sharpest you'll find anywhere. By the time they have their opening stock all sold it will be a wide open race to determine Las Vegas' best dressed man about town. . . .

LINDA LOU and JOHN ROSS are all excited as they await the expected arrival of their first born, sometime in November. The couple were married last February. He's the son of LOU and CHICKIE ROSS who are just as excited, and can't wait to become Grandparents for the first time. . . .

DR. STERLING BOWEN, very active Dentist in town, feted his parents, MR. and MRS. CARL R. BOWEN of Los Angeles, with a tremendous party at the RIVIERA last Saturday night. It was the BOWEN'S Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary and DR. BOWEN invited thirty-eight of their close friends from all over the country to attend the event. It was a most festive occasion and a tribute that must have made the elder BOWEN'S Golden Anniversary their happiest. . . .

Friends of MRS. PAT JONES, formerly in charge of Central Service at SO. NEVADA MEMORIAL HOSPITAL, will be happy to hear that she is returning to town this weekend for a few days. PAT has been attending the University of Washington in Seattle to get a Master's Degree in Nursing Education. This will be a double occasion for Pat and her family for, upon her return, she will attend her daughter's wedding. Her daughter, JO ANN BARTHROP, who graduated

LAST WEEK'S sojourn to Los Angeles were some of the most enjoyable few days we've spent in many a month. Thanks to the generous offer of DUNES HOTEL Entertainment Director SY SAMUELS and Publicity Head LEE FISHER we negotiated the trip down and back via that Hotel's luxurious "Magic Carpet" flight and never enjoyed the air lanes so much. Flying in that comfortable liner on the return Sunday afternoon, eight thousand feet above the one hundred and ten degree heat of Baker, California, gave us a deep appreciation of the refreshing champagne and air-cooled comfort. The crew — Captain DON MORGAN; First Officer JIM ERWIN and pretty Stewardess JOAN SAUER — proved to be not only efficient in every way, but also courteous and friendly companions. On board this flight passengers are "wined" with the Hotel's specially bottled sparkling champagne and upon arrival are transported via limousine service to the Hotel where they are "dined" at the delicious Buffet and then royally entertained at the Arabian Room midnight performance of "Life Begins at Minsky's." On the return flight passengers are gifted with a bottle of champagne as a remembrance of what always is a pleasant trip. . . . As much as we wanted to see the Dodgers in action while in Ellay all games were night games and a busy schedule around the town didn't allow it. The closest we got was on the return flight passing over the Coliseum a few minutes after game time. From that distance it was a little hard to tell for sure, but JOHNNY PODRES' fast ball didn't seem to be "hopping" quite as much as usual and it looked as though WALT ALSTON'S hair could be a little more gray. . . .

No trip to Ellay, for us anyway, would be completed without a visit to BEN BLUE'S in Santa Monica with beautiful BARBARA DRAKE, who seems to get prettier by the day. BARBARA is currently working picture and teevee shots, but might be on her way to a Las Vegas stint very soon. The show at BEN BLUE'S was a laff-riot from beginning to end and featured the Master himself plus BUDDY LESTER and SAMMY WOLFE in the comedy department. We also got a preview of what to expect when WYNN GOULD opens in the June 17th Edition of the DAN DAILEY SHOW at HOTEL SAHARA. WYNN got encored several times and really brought down the house with her lusty vocalizing of "A Good Man is Hard to Find," "Bill Bailey" and then flipped a leaf from the great SOPHIE TUCKER'S book and belted out a vibrant "Some of These Days" . . . BEN is digging up a boatload of talent right inside of his own shop and each Thursday night features his talented workers in a special "talent discovery" show. . . . As usual the room was packed solid, and maître d' GUS DALLAS and Captain MAX LEONARD were all smiles. Two more personable and accomplished Hosts would be hard to find anywhere. Both GUS and MAX sent words of greetings to their countless friends in FLV. . . . Earlier in the evening we enjoyed the elegance and comfort of the Cocktail Lounge in the BEVERLY-HILTON with its gorgeous combination of travertine marble columns and matched walnut bar, and the pleasant company of four executives of LITTON INDUSTRIES in Beverly Hills. In the party were MR. and MRS. RIP HEWITT of Washington, D.C. (She's the former GINI ADAMS, top model for IRENE of Beverly Hills, BARBARA'S sister and a close friend for years); EMIL DE GRAEVE; RICHARD A. ROCHE and J. RAY DONAHUE, JR. Enjoyed seeing the pictures of RIP and GINI'S handsome seventeen-month-old son, GREGORY. From there a pleasant hour or two at THE TRADERS, sampling their delicious Cantonese Appetizers and finally to dinner at the perfectly wonderful SCANDIA RESTAURANT on Sunset Boulevard. This is Scandinavian food unequalled probably anywhere in the land. . . .

Another highlight was "tea time" at HAL BELFER'S, discussing his past successes in FLV with the TONY MARTIN and PEARL BAILEY Shows and his busy schedule ahead at the CAL-NEVA LODGE at Lake Tahoe. He recently signed Tahitian dancer MOANA GLEASON for an appearance at the Lake, and this week begins work on an all new capsule for TONY MARTIN who closes the season there later in the year. The shows at CAL-NEVA are being set-up by HAL and Producer DAVE SIEGEL. . . . Also had a chance to chat with CHRIS GRAHAM, Convention Director for the DUNES HOTEL at the Burbank Airport before departure. CHRIS had returned just a few days before from a quick plane trip

HO ALL DADS! You are great guys and we love you. We appreciate everything you have done and will always try to do for us. We even appreciate that sometimes you forget that us "young-uns" can't be expected to realize all the "facts of life" — that it took you fifty years, or more, to learn. We salute you — a simple statement, but sincere — all of the fathers in this complex world. . . . Combining a business trip with a little pleasure were MR. and MRS. THOMAS MACK of Ellay. He's V.P. of the DOT Record Company. . . . Speaking of DOT, RED NORVO, (SANDS Lounge) just waxed ANOTHER great album with all the tunes from the movie hit "Windjammer." Should be a record-breaker. . . . Welcome back to vacationers MR. and MRS. GORDON BECK. He's the important Light Man and she's head Wardrobe Mistress at the DUNES. They toured Nebraska, Iowa and South Dakota — visiting with friends and relatives enroute. . . . It was nice chatting with old friend GUS LAMPE and his wife last week. They were in town for PEARLIE MAE'S closer and RAY BOLGER'S opener at the FLAMINGO. GUS is the impresario at the Ambassador's COCONUT GROVE in L.A. and has a roster of stars lined up for his new showroom which sounds like a "who's who" of showbusiness and includes JUDY GARLAND, who opens there in July. . . .

It's something when you beat your own record, but according to President AL PARVIN of the FLAMINGO, that's just what the wonderful PEARLIE MAE did in her just-closed LUAU LEI ROOM smash-hit. Natch! . . . Greeting his friends at the old stand is genial HERB SAUL, Box Man at the DUNES. HERB spent some time in Palm Springs, California, but decided his vacation was over and returned "home." . . . The hard luck gal "dood it" again! LENORE STOTT (MICHAEL CORDAY'S SALON) had her Memorial Day holiday spoiled in a boat accident at Lake Mead. Dislocated vertebrae and several cracked ribs was the net result of her "Memorial" day. . . . Incidentally, no truth to the rumor that ALAN (same place) is altar bound. He's available, gals. . . . Glamorous PAT "Amber" HALLADAY (DUNES Show) is a happy gal indeed. Her birthday isn't until the 28th of this month, but she's already received a very valuable Chinchilla stole. Whew! What will the natal day bring, at this rate? Chinchilla!! . . . Stop in at the SAHARA HOTEL barber shop and welcome back our tonsorial artist, JOE RANDO and assistant GREG FULGINITI. FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

THERE ARE now so many new super-highways coming into Washington, D.C. that all of the old landmarks and beauty spots have been left out of the picture. For an old-timer of a Washingtonian like myself it is not so good. No matter how many times I arrive in Washington I get a thrill that I get no place else in the world. I tried living there three different times, for a year or two at a time, and each time I got thoroughly disgusted with all that goes on there, but I guess it gets into one's blood no matter how disgusted you get.

Coming in from Richmond you first see the Capitol Dome, followed by the Washington Monument, the airport and then you pass the new and world's largest motor Hotel, the MARIOT, and the world's largest office building, the Pentagon, which, though it is a nightmare to work in, is one of the most beautiful buildings ever devised by man. Its view of the Potomac and the parks in the foreground make this setting one of the most beautifully planned in the country. You pass by the Arlington Memorial National Cemetery with its (now three) Unknown Soldiers, and the beautiful Lee Mansion, high atop a hill in the cemetery that faces the drive across the Potomac. This is the famous drive that leads directly into the world-famed Lincoln Monument, which many acclaim as the world's most dignified memorial.

This Grecian Temple-like building with its thirty-six pillars and forty-eight state's names carved high above them and its simple, but life-like statue of Abraham Lincoln faces the United States Capitol in the far distance. There is a many hundred foot long reflecting pool in the direct foreground and the Washington Monument halfway in line to the Capitol. The only things to mar the beauty of this stretch of land called "The Mall" are the buildings on either side that were built as "temporary" war buildings during the First World War. They are still in use thus proving the old adage that "the temporary always tend to be the permanent."

As you drive around the Lincoln Circle and head north you will pass the Department of Interior buildings, the Navy buildings, and down Constitution Avenue to the beginning of the Government Triangle topped by the Department of Commerce Building. This was the world's largest building until the Pentagon appeared on the horizon. From there you pass the Department of Labor, the Post Office Department (I worked in this building once for a year when genial Jim Farley was the Postmaster General of the United States); the Department of Justice; the Archives Building, housing all the documents of historic value belonging to our country and the Federal Trade Commission Building.

Directly across from this square building is the Mellon Art Gallery which many say is as fine as any in the world. It houses millions upon millions of dollars worth of art objects collected by the late Andy Mellon, former Secretary of the Treasury.

The White House is up and in back of this triangle, almost at a right angle from the Washington Monument. From the porch of the White House on the south side you get a marvelous view of the new Jefferson Memorial, which was just built a few years ago and is a strong contender for beauty honors with the Lincoln Monument.

world's largest "wild" parks within a city, and the drive from one end of it at the Potomac Basin to the Maryland Line is one that no American should miss. To keep it natural you have to ford the stream many places as they built no bridges at many of the crossings. While out on this drive, stop and see the famous Wardman Park, now the SHERATON PARK HOTEL, the SHOREHAM, the Navy Hospital in Bethesda and then swing around and tour the grounds of WALTER REED HOSPITAL where yours truly spent a solid year after the last war convalescing.

Also, be sure and go out to Catholic University and see the Shrine to the Immaculate Conception which will be one of the great Cathedrals of all times when it is finished. Countries from all over the world have contributed to the building of it with money, granites and marble.

The Franciscan Monastery out Northeast also is another place any visitor could spend several hours viewing the catacombs, the cloisters, the beautiful gardens and hearing Mass or Office sung by the monks.

The National Episcopal Cathedral in Northwest Washington, the site of which was picked by no one less than George Washington himself, is another spot not to be overlooked. It is where Woodrow Wilson, Admiral Dewey and many others are buried.

The plaza around the Capitol, the Senate and Office Buildings and the Capitol is breath-taking. The Capitol itself, with its gallery of busts of famous personages and its huge dome which, if you feel like climbing, will afford you a sight equal that of St. Peter's Dome in Rome, all go to make your visit to Washington one of the most enjoyable in the entire world.

To the east of the plaza is the country's most beautiful depot with the longest single roof in the world, the Union Depot, and in front of this stands the Columbus Monument.

Be sure and visit your congressmen and get passes to the House and Senate galleries so that you can take in

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

WHEN MAAKA NUA'S HAWAIIAN HOLIDAY REVUE bowed into the DUNES HOTEL'S Sinbad Lounge, the idyllic atmosphere of the South Sea Islands immediately supercharged the air and the audience was sent drifting along in a musical outrigger loaded with authentic Polynesian music and a colorful Hawaiian revue. The costuming is about the most colorful you've ever seen in this type of show and the four beautiful hula dancers — WALANA, MOHALA, LANI and TANI — with their rhythmic dancing, swaying hips and musical names treat you to the "real McCoy" in expressive island dancing. Each sequence is a perfectly executed picture of some portion of the islands or island life and custom. Mistress of Ceremonies and comedienne, KUULEI, is a jolly, fun loving native Hawaiian well blessed with the Polynesian's youthful and direct approach to comedy. MAAKA NUA, leader of the group, and his handsome young son, TONU NUA, excel in the colorful and always exciting ritual fire and knife dances. Backing up the entire group musically is the outstanding AL MCINTIRE and His POLYNESIANS. Direct from Hawaii it's the group's first appearance on the mainland and Entertainment Director SY SAMUELS has done a terrific job of correlating them all into a thoroughly pleasing affair that brings big show calibre into a Lounge revue. . . .

Opening this week is blonde and beautiful JO ANN CASTLE, an extremely talented young performer who excels on piano and accordion. JO ANN has recorded several fast-selling records and albums for the Roulette Label and has won critics' acclaim from the west to the east coast. Her appearance last year in Las Vegas cinched her future on the "strip" and JO ANN now holds a three-year contract with the DUNES HOTEL. Two standout numbers that are undoubtedly still in her repertoire are "Malaguena" and a specially arranged "Honky Tonk" tour of the Las Vegas of several years ago. . . . The SANDS HOTEL now has one of our all-time favorites playing in the pleasant Copa Lounge. ART "Cow Eyes" ENGLER and his group have that certain something in their musical approach to entertainment that never fails to score well wherever they are appearing. ART has appeared in at least three of the major Hotels in town prior to this engagement, and is bound to bring a flock of loyal fans into this new, for him, location. The thing we enjoy about him the most is what could be called a calm, sensible approach to modern music — not saccharine, but smooth and offering a very sound beat. Actually it's a quality effort generally appreciated unanimously by the listeners. . . . While on the subject of smooth music we'll go a step farther and call atten-

Vivacious and pretty POLLY BERGEN'S re-entry on the Las Vegas entertainment scene, where she got her big break ten years ago as a singer with a local band, is a real triumph in the musical field. The arrangements written for her by LUTHER HENDERSON, JR., are the most original, intriguing and unique in their purpose as background for her songs as have ever been heard. The beautifully gowned POLLY has a voice that is at times deep throated, sultry and always compelling as in the Helen Morgan number "Why Was I Born." This gal can "belt" a number and she

High spots in the song session are his great rendition of "Something's Gotta Give" and the closer "Black Magic" as only he can sing it. His impressions include just about every big name known to the trade and each is a masterpiece of Dakota, announced that he was going to build a fine business block at the corner of First and Fremont Streets, the whole town was elated, but when he followed with the statement that he would use the bricks from the Buol Brick Kiln we were somewhat unsettled and many predicted that the walls of this two-story structure would not be able to stand long. But the Judge knew what he was doing and went right ahead with his plans. From the very first, the first floor was occupied by a drug store which was owned by Dr. Roy Martin and his brother, Chuck, who was chief clerk and manager. The upper floor was also rented by the Doctor and used by him as a hospital. The Doctor continued to operate the drug store until about 1916 when W. E. Ferron, who had come here from Salt Lake City, formed a partnership with the Doctor and a few years later took over the full ownership of the Las Vegas Pharmacy. However, the building stood staunch and true for many, many years until just a year or two ago, it was torn down to make way for the Silver Palace.

OBSERVATIONS

I remember when the building was under construction, the contractor had a great deal of trouble with water in the basement and repeatedly plastered the basement walls and floor with thick cement, but to no avail. The water kept coming in and finally it was decided that it came from an underground spring, so an electric pump was installed and it kept the basement perfectly dry.

We were justly proud of that corner with the First State Bank Building on the northwest corner and the Las Vegas Pharmacy across the street. They gave us a feeling of stability and we were sure that our town was really going to amount to something.

Then a little later, Judge Thomas erected another two-story building, diagonally across the corner from the drug store, which he called The Mesquite Building and his son, Ralph, occupied the lower floor with a grocery store. The upper floor housed the Masons and the Eastern Star organizations and also was used as a public hall which was very much needed. We were certainly on our way to bigger and better things.

I predict that the next motion picture trend will be to religion with the great religious leaders portrayed by unknown actors and actresses! This revival of religious films will do much to bring back many former movie customers who have grown weary of blood, sex, crime, brutality, cheapness, and other tawdry sins!

I predict that the most shocking incident of our century will be the sputnick containing the first human cargo — that human will be a pregnant woman (from the 3rd to the 5th month) for at that time, Mother Nature strengthens the physical body for the motherhood, and this body can withstand the rigors of the thin cruel air of outer space! YOUR INCREDIBLE FUTURE!

When will a very well known fact to our scientists be released to the American Public? For many years our scientists have recognized that the atmosphere contains a very deadly pocket of gas, that can not only kill, but can disintegrate any object! These gaseous packets float very near our earth, and are thought to be the cause of many planes disappearing into thin gaseous air! During the war, many huge planes left the field in Germany, never to be heard of again! In one month, Germany claimed many losses, but the Allies could not be blamed, for they had no record of destruction! Could it be that this gaseous air pocket would float near enough our earth to absorb a plane and cause us human danger? The astronomers have always admitted that certain meteors have hit "an atmospheric level" which caused them to disintegrate almost instantly — and this was nowhere near the "oxygen" line of demarcation! One other amazing mystery that is soon to be cleared is that concerning the unseen, yet solid objects, that float within our sky realm. This sky tundra is solidified gas, which give a solid impression to any object which may strike them! These invisible roadblocks of the skyway can cause a plane to crack up against the quick change of air currents, and tumble to earth in a shattered explosion! When our miracle men of science can explain these fantastic booby traps, travel to other planets will be safe and secure!

RAY CULLEY, TWA's "work-horse," has been a little "off his feed" for awhile and that's why he hasn't been seen too much at his favorite "stall"! Better check rein a bit RAY, we want you healthy and strong for the long, tough "Tourist Handicap" this summer. Hope you're feeling better now. . . . Happy vacation days to genial DOUG COLEMAN of the FLAMINGO Front Desk. Have fun. . . The happy smiles and friendly greetings at the SANDS were occasioned by the return "home" of well-liked Security Officer HARRY AMOS. HARRY left some time ago to work at the NEW FRONTIER, then later, the FREMONT. But there's no place like "home" is there HARRY? . . . That "Cloud Nine" feeling is "the real thing" for ALBERTA HAMBLIN and not just 'cause it's her birthday today (June 14th). Her cashier's desk in the DESERT SPA slot department is heaven these nights. Let's hope we can hear those "bells" in the near future for a swell gal. Incidentally, Happy Birthday ALBERTA. . . . We were a little proud to learn from an out-of-towner how our column and the news made it interesting enough here for a visit from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania of J. P. HOENIG, Vice President of the BELLEVUE-STRATFORD HOTEL there. Said to a friend here that the people, life and goings-on intrigued him so he paid us an enjoyable visit recently. Come back again and soon. Say hello to our good friend "Barky," VP of WHITMAN'S CHOCOLATES back there in Philly. . . .

NICK DANTOS, formerly with the "Ice-Capades" for several years, is the power behind the big promotion which will ultimately result in a beautiful, downtown public ice-skating rink. According to architects ADRIAN WILSON and ASSOCIATES, this huge (80' x 160') arena is designed with all the most modern features ever used in a public building. Its architectural beauty will add a pleasant note with fun and healthful exercise as its goal. Another FLV "first" . . . Those sparkling satellites seen nightly on the strip are glittering on the beautiful, huge sign of the soon to be opened new STARDUST HOTEL. This huge bistro, opening July 2nd, not only has customer's "Trams," but, according to General Manager JOE CUNNINGHAM, arrangements have been completed for a Lake Mead sight-seeing boat which will seat forty-five people. Always, the pleasure and comfort of their guests is foremost in their minds and the boat trip is another added feature. There will be others. . . . Glad to hear that the "ticker" scare by JOHNNY WINN was only just that. He's in charge of the DUNES slots and is feeling better and back on the job again. . . . And, if you aren't timid, ask them to take you to lunch in their private dining rooms where the most talked-about bean soup in the world is served.

Also, if you have a flagpole at your home or office, ask your Congressman or Senator to get you a flag that has flown over the United States Capitol one day — I have one flying in front of me now on my front lawn here at HILLSWAY on ANN LAKE in Northern Minnesota.

ten to DAVE APOLLON who heads one of the finest gypsy combos we've ever heard in the Lady Luck Lounge of the DESERT INN. By the way DAVE has acquired the services of our favorite local violinist, MORRY KING, and we certainly appreciate all of those "special" tunes whenever we have the opportunity to enjoy a few of their really marvelous sets. . . . Upstairs in the Sky Room Lounge AUDREY MORRIS and THE ERNIE COLEMAN TRIO continue to play the type of music that fits in beautifully with the swank and relaxing atmosphere. . . . Just received a card from MARSHALL LYTELL, Bass player and vocalist with the JODIMARS, and he tells us the group really enjoyed the stint at the COCOANUT GROVE in L.A. Apparently the "wheels" at the Grove must have felt the same way, for they have asked the group to return for a four-weeker the last part of this year. Currently they are appearing at HAROLD'S CLUB in Reno and write that the place is literally a "traffic jam" with customers flowing in and out in endless streams. . . . Those pantomiming, gag-tossing, music-making zanies, THE CHARACTERS, are back again plying their hilarious routines in the Casbar Theatre at HOTEL SAHARA. What a versatile and talented group these fellows are, both musically and in the comedy line. They augment the star-studded bill headed by LOU-

IS PRIMA and KEELY SMITH plus LENNY HERMAN, THE SALMAS BROTHERS and SANDO DEEMS. June 24th will find two new groups moving in: CHUCK LEONARD and DEL SIMMONS and then on July 8th the fabulous MARY KAYE TRIO returns. . . . JIMMY HENDRICKSON, handsome and SINGLE piano wizard, has been with BOBBY PAGE and His MUSICAL PAGES for eight years. He's the youngest member of the group and was formerly with WILL OSBORNE and other "top" name bands. BOBBY says he's one of the greatest ivory men around and we agree. The group currently is appearing at the Stage Bar Lounge at the FLAMINGO HOTEL. . . . LEWIS and SANCHEZ, the very popular early shift duo in the Sinbad Lounge at the DUNES HOTEL, bow out next week and will take a week-long vacation before heading for a "command return performance" at Lake Arrowhead this summer. . . . We know the heavy talent line-up in the Lounges around FLV is a tremendous drawing card for the southlanders, but locals may not realize how lucky they are in having these top groups on hand to entertain them from the Cocktail Hour straight through to breakfast call in the morning. Few spots in and around Ellay feature entertainment at all, and those that do cover only a few short hours of the evening. There certainly aren't nearly as many top combos throughout the entire area there as there are here in a relatively small and highly concentrated area.

HOTEL Opening, July 2nd. It figures to be one of the biggest ever held here with celebrities and V.I.P.'s from all over the globe on hand to toast its success. The huge signs were turned on for the first time this week and they add a new brilliance to the already glittering strip area. . . .

ART OLSEN, very active Justice of the Peace, recently contributed Three Hundred Dollars from his marriage fees to the VARIETY CLUB Heart Fund. Art also has pledged a month's receipts from his "Wishing Well" to the Variety Nursery. A very generous gesture and one that will be appreciated deeply by the recipients of Variety assistance. . . .

Title of MONTE PROSER'S newest TROPICANA Production is a provocative one, to say the least. Labeled "All About Sin," it's sure to be a revelation to stun even the most blasé of showgoers. The magnitude of this production can be better understood when you realize that the setting up of the original scenery created by GLEN HOLSE, necessitated closing the room the night before opening. All of the original music is, again, by talented Composer GORDON JENKINS. . . .

ERNIE LA VERNE, Day Shift Casino Boss at the HACIENDA, gives out with hints about a gigantic extravaganza to open in that Hotel's Palomino Room, Wednesday, June 25th. Featured in the show will be girls — girls and more girls. . . .

The dates of VARIETY CLUB INTERNATIONAL'S 1959 Convention in Las Vegas have been set. It will fall on March 31st and April 1st through the 3rd of that year. This marks the first time in the history of VARIETY that any city has ever been the locale for two international conventions in so short a span of time. . . .

JIMMY RODICH, Swing Shift Casino Boss at the HACIENDA HOTEL, is very happy over the enthusiastic public acceptance of the new completed Piano Bar featuring THE FOUR TUNES and JOHNNY OLENN at the head of its entertainment lineup. . . .

It's the right time of the year to send birthday greetings to lovely DUNES HOTEL Showgal PENNY DAVIDSON and to C. J. JONES of WILBUR CLARK'S DESERT INN, who both celebrate their natal day Friday, June 20th. Warm and sincere best wishes to both and many happy returns of the days.

JACK mimics, gags, sings and injects a flock of "pratt falls" into the act as he knocks himself out to please the patrons. Seldom have we ever seen a comedian get so many encores and such tremendous applause, nor deserve it more. . . . Both of the production numbers staged by DONN ARDEN and featuring his lovely DANCERS are enchanting. Especially fine is the colorful "Picnic Time" number which is beautifully costumed throughout, and depicts a variety of picnic activities all set to bouncy music vocally backed by the singing of ART JOHNSON with specialty dancing by JOYCE ROBERTS and RON LEWIS. . . . PEOPLE: If Steve Allen had his way he'd be doing less comedy and emcee chores and more jazz eighty-eighth on tee-vee. . . . Bill Stern can throw sentimentality into a sports piece the same way Martin Block can get gushy over some phonograph record. . . . Betty Hutton, who's as bouncy and boozing as ever via her exuberant song act at the new and lavish Cafe de Paris, Lou Walters' new Broadway show place, must have great lure for other girl chirpers. Jill Corey, Frances Langford, Eileen Barton and Mary Small all turned out for the opening. . . . Alan King should break out as a top funny man before too long. . . . If Bette Davis were English and a man, she'd be Charles Laughton. . . . Ed Sullivan is an easy mark for personal identification. His auto license plate reads ES and he drives a Lincoln, of course. . . . In case you're interested, Mrs. F. H. LaGuardia, the widow of the late Mayor, lives quietly in the Bronx. . . .

The best salesman in the world is probably the guy who'll get Peter Ustinov and Skitch Henderson to endorse a shaving cream. . . . Harold Macmillan, the British Prime Minister, makes you think of a lovable Saint Bernard dog. . . . Hy Gardner, the pillar filler for the Trib, has almost the same affinity for a white tie as the late Mark Hellinger. Gardner, however, prefers lighter toned shirts. . . . De Gaulle is more than an inch shorter now than in 1946 and he's nearly thirty pounds heavier. . . . Mrs. Bob Feller, Imogene Coca and Phyllis Kirk should use the same hair-dresser, if they don't already. . . .

Overheard: At Steak Pommes Frites: "I hope Tim Tam got a three-room stall and a basket of apples for all his efforts." At the Medallion Room: "Long before outer space scientists were probing around, songwriters were busy investigating everything there was to know about the moon and the stars." At Cafe des Beaux Arts: "Now she's experienced everything. Was divorced in '56, remarried in '57 and I heard the other day that she just got an annulment." At George Herd's on Sixth Avenue: "Lissen, my mother-in-law always celebrates Flag Day. Just between us, I think the old girl went to school with Betsy Ross."

Manhattan Cruise: The new skyscraper look where the latest buildings, for all their aluminum and chrome and glass, have a towering monotony about them. Their beauty will depend on modern edifice cosmetics. . . . metal polish and Windex. . . . The modern art shoppes in the Fifties and Sixties, where the easel way is the splotching of garish colors. . . . The hungry eyes of the tourists on Grey Line sightseeing buses. Every pair of orbs drinks in the magic of the Big Town. And the barker's voice is as convincing and important as Ed Murrow's on "See It Now." . . . The big Yankee Stadium, a busting with pride encircle haughtily facing the rejected Polo Grounds across the river.

The shoppers' hubbub around Herald Square, where the middle class department stores play to packed houses and no recession is visible. . . . The little touches and tastes of Berlin, Budapest and Vienna of another day on the East Side avenues of Yorkville (from 72nd to 86th Street). . . . The ocean liners, big and inviting, snugly asleep along the Hudson — from 42nd Street on down, after night falls and lights play on their hueful funnels. . . . The tempo of Greenwich Village — off-beat and out of step. . . . A Sunday morning in the Show Biz streets west of Broadway. A stark sight — like catching a heavenly looking chorine without her makeup on. . . . The hot rod spirit and the race driver nerves of those gents who handle the wheels of the cars that deliver tomorrow's newspaper tonight. . . . The new conformist spirit among the ever-rushing Manhattanites, who seem to obey the new anti-jay walking rules. They peer at the red and walk on the green.

Gradings: Our good friend Herb Caen's revised edition of "New Guide to San Francisco" for Doubleday. Tells you what to see, hear and eat in the Bay Area. Hope Willie Mays has one. . . . The original l.p. album of "Gigi" for MGM Records. A souvenir. . . . The dessert tray at Little Vienna. A challenge to any diet. . . . Mary Ure's "dramatricks" in "Look Back in Anger." . . . Cantinflas, revisited, in "Around the World in Eighty Days."

Just For Laughs: Car sellers, who seem so desperate, can have this slogan: "We give you the best 'auto-mo-deal'." . . . Joe Brody, at his Albert French restaurant, says that Madison Avenue ad men are so Western conscious he expects to see them wear Zane Grey flannel suits."

If we are ever to enjoy life . . . NOW is the time . . . not tomorrow . . . nor next year . . . nor in some future life. The best preparation for a better life next year is a full . . . complete . . . harmonious, joyous life this year. Our beliefs in a rich future life are of little importance . . . unless we coin them into a rich present life. TODAY should always be our most wonderful day.

The Nine "Do Mores" are:
Do more than exist — Live.
Do more than touch — Feel.
Do more than look — Observe.
Do more than read — Absorb.
Do more than hear — Listen.
Do more than listen — Understand.
Do more than think — Ponder.
Do more than plan — Act.
Do more than talk — Say something.
