CRISWELL PREDICTS

WHAT PEOPLE WILL DO

I PREDICT that President Eisenhower and his Cabinet will meet privately during a coming crisis and will calmly decide to block Red aggression even though it carries a risk of war! Word from behind the Iron Curtain is that Russia must produce outside excitement for domestic matters are not too good! I predict that the "Duncan Sisters" who created Topsy and Eva from "Uncle Tom's Cabin," one of the musical comedy hits of the 1920's, will record the entire play for posterity! A coming film biography scheduled for this year will make the "Duncan Sisters" a top boxoffice draw once again! . . .

I predict that Sir Winston Churchill will appear before the House of Lords and the House of Commons in a joint meeting, and will flay the present British foreign policy as "Unwise, dangerous and non-profitable" in a blistering speech that will leave him few admirers! . . . I predict the return of the old fashioned bathing beauty contests, which were so popular during the First World War, before they become so commercial. Different age groups will enter the contests, which will be sponsored by local service clubs! . . . I predict that the top coming fashion for 1959 will be the flowing robes and garments of the Middle East, which will be worn with abandon, adorned with heavy costume jewelry and in all the brilliant hues and colors possible. Paris hopes to turn the clock of fashion back at least two thousand years!

FOR PEOPLE AND PLACES

I predict that Rudolph Valentino will return from the "golden shore" to new popularity when his famous silent films of the past are shown on television. These films carry a full musical score written to the true mood of pictures over thirty years ago. These poor silent ghosts of the silent screen will again wend their way across the stage of life. . . . I predict that the famed ivory tower in Shanghai will cradle the revolt against the Chinese Reds by the followers of Confucius. No foreign enemy has ever conquered Mother China, for Mother China swallows them up and they are forgotten. Do the Red leaders already see the hand-writing on the Great Wall of China? . . .

I predict that ex-Vice President Harry Agard Wallace will make a very startling report on his proven theory of crop rotation, animal husbandry and scientific farm management. This report will be carefully used as a blueprint for future generations of farmers. . . . I predict that a famed estate just outside of Paris will be on the front pages of every news-

SPENT a little more time than lately combing the concrete canyon for news, and after about two-weeks of catch as catch can, really came up with an armful of items. . . . Watch closely for a drastic remodeling program to get underway at PHIL LONG'S CALIFORNIA CLUB early this year. Plans for the many changes are just about ready for release, but the overall picture is just a bit hush-hush at the moment. . . . THE MINT Casino, expecting no doubt to reap a bit more volume dollar-wise from the space, took out the magazine and souvenir stand at the front of the shop and replaced it with approximately sixty to eighty brand new slots. . . .

Welcome to ADOLF DUBUC, Jr. and his family who recently arrived in Las Vegas to make their home here. The senior DUBUC is a Pit Boss at the HORSESHOE CLUB and delighted at having the clan all quartered in the same town once again. . . . EDITH SANDERS, Change Girl on the day shift at the WESTERN CLUB, has one of the most colorful backgrounds of any Glitter Gulch personality we've come across in a long while. EDITH hails from Czechoslovakia and was at one time the National Women's Ski Champion of that tiny country. In addition she is an accomplished horsewoman with an international reputation for expert horsemanship. Combining a vibrant personality, a winning continental accent, flashing eyes and an enthusiasm for life, she has become a favorite with WESTERNER CLUB regulars and employees in the matter of just a few short months. . . .

Across the street workmen are busily readying the store formerly known as BUCKLEY'S into a smart modern juice bar. Most downtowners can easily remember the days when BUCKLEY'S was one of the hottest slot machine spots along Fremont Street. . . . A story along the Street that keeps cropping up with persistent consistency, is that predicting an expansion east of the GOLDEN NUGGET that would eventually result in transferral of Bingo games from the LUCKY STRIKE CLUB down the street to the LAS VEGAS CLUB(?). . . . CHARLOTTE STEWART, Slot Machine Cashier at the CALIFORNIA CLUB, finally got an opportunity to break loose and immediately headed to Beverly Hills to visit her daughter, ROMAINE (ROTH) PATTERSON, and to see her granddaughter for the first time.

dening news the other day.
It was reported to us that JOE W. BROWN is seriously ill in St. Louis. His heart is acting up again.
Mr. Brown left our town because of illness and at that time sold his HORSESHOE CLUB to the FRE-MONT HOTEL. We know his wonderful wife DOROTHY is again by his side day and night as she was before when he was ill and in the hospital here. We certainly hope that he will make another strong comeback—he's a real great guy and an asset to every community and to civilization itself. . . .

In town visiting following his hasty departure from Cuba the day before CASTRO came through for a victory parade, was T. W. "RICH" RICH-ARDSON. He was a Co-owner of the DEL CAPRI HOTEL in Havana with GEORGE RAFT, who also left just in time. Rich has made no plans to return, even if the Casinos in all of the hotels are reactivated as has been indicated by the new government. . . .

An honest-to-goodness laugh riot:
BILLY GRAY and PATTI MOORE and BEN LESSY, currently appearing at the RIVIERA HOTEL in the new Starlight Lounge. When those three get to acting up individually or collectively it's just like a four alarm fire. . . .

Received the news that CARMEN CAVALLERO and his group have been held over at HAROLD'S CLUB in Reno, Nevada. He's a sure bet for one of our Lounges here — One of the greatest piano stylists we've ever heard. . . .

Now we know how to make unexpected guests feel happy and "at home" and get off the hook when the cupboard is short of "ready to eats".
Just call TONY MONGELLI at VAL-LEY INN and have him fix up some pizzas (or whatever you want) and Tony will go "all out" to make your entertaining a success. I know — it happened at our house, and Tony saved the day — or night I should say.

Seems everybody turned out for the Casbar Theatre opening at HO-TEL SAHARA of LOUIS PRIMA and KEELY SMITH. Every name along the Strip was on hand to honor this standout pair. It's great to see the sensational success these two stars are enjoying, and hope that they continue their record-shattering ways wherever they play. . . .

For a real friendly spot we suggest a visit to the New THUNDERBIRD HOTEL. The showroom was closed for approximately nine months for repairs. The official opening was held on December 23rd and although the interior decor is entirely different, the same fine service and sincere friendliness that has always prevailed throughout the Hotel in every department is the same as before. . . .

Our sincere good wishes to J. K.
HOUSSELS, who was last week elected President of the TROPICANA

HOTEL. An old timer in Las Vegas, J.K. is also Co-owner of the EL CORTEZ HOTEL, SHOWBOAT HOTEL, BOULDER CLUB and the LAS VEGAS CLUB. His hobby is horses and the Houssels Farm breeds champions. The same felicitations and wishes for success are extended R. O. "BOB" CANNON, who was named Vice-president of the Tropicana at the same time. Bob has one of the most outstanding backgrounds in local Hotel operation and is one of the deans of the local resort industry. . .

If you're ever going to get back to feeling normal after the hectic holiday season there is one sure way to give yourself a boost. The NEW FRONTIER HEALTH CLUB featuring expert masseuse and masseur GILDA MONROE will do the trick. You go in feeling as if you're not "worth a cent" and come out feeling "like a million" . . .

JACK KOGAN, popular KSHO-TV personality, recently started a campaign on his All Nite Theatre shows

to get local folks to correspond with seventeen-year-old FRED PALMER, a victim of muscular dystrophy. Fred appreciates letters from people, so please, even if it's just a line or two, drop this very wonderful young man a note. Write about any subject, but do it now! Send your letters and notes to: Fred Palmer, 1701 Arthur Street, North Las Vegas, Nevada. Thank you . . . And That's For Sure! . . .

PHIL SHARE, a frequent visitor to our FLV, has finally decided to make our town his home. Phil is now associated with the FLAMINGO HOTEL as a Floorman on the swing shift. A very popular gent in gaming circles throughout the U.S., we're proud to welcome him to our community. Know he'll prove to be a big asset both to the town and the Hotel.

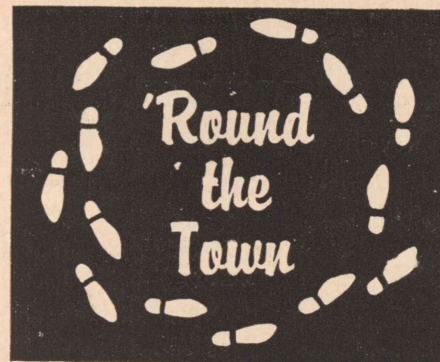

Monday, January 19th was lovely REINA SEAMAN'S birthday. Although it's a day the beautiful DUNES HOTEL Dancer could never forget, this particular birthday will

THE VARIETY CLUB, TENT 39 INDUCTION DINNER last Thursday at the DUNES was a whopping success and THE social event of the year. To each worker, to the warm hearted stars, and to all of YOU, the ticket-buyers, a mind full of satisfaction in the knowledge that you participated in a most worthy cause, which added glorious bits of entertainment as a bonus. . . .

Hurrahs are also in order for two stubborn flyers, ROBERT TIMM, pilot, and JOHN COOK, co-pilot, who (unless something went wrong since press time) have BETTERED the endurance record of FIFTY DAYS on behalf of the DAMON RUNYON CANCER FUND. Wonder who'll win the $10,000 donated by HACIENDA PRESIDENT, WARREN BAYLEY? This money is entirely separate from the monies realized from the contributions received. Hats off to a couple of die-hard fellas who overcame several tough breaks, and yet kept on. Now, in the tiny single-engine plane, only boredom and aching joints remain as a reminder of over fifty days in continuous flight. National recognition goes to BOB, JOHNNIE, WARREN BAYLEY (for his faith in the flight) and to PRESTON FOSTER who has been a tireless worker and Public Relations man in charge of this project. How about a nice feather bed fellas? . . .

It was mighty nice seeing our little MIMI back in town. Wedded last summer to JERRY PREZ, of THE HAPPY JESTERS, MIMI still looks and acts like a newlywed. JERRY is constantly beguiled by his effervescent French doll and life is so interesting to this happy, busy couple. THE HAPPY JESTERS couldn't make a scheduled appearance on ED SULLIVAN'S TV'er last Sunday (18th) due to their appearance here at the STARDUST, however, they will appear on the February 22nd E. S.'s SHOW. . . . Coming in for a visit and a delicious venison dinner were MR. and MRS. CARL and MARY HENNEMAN of Ellay. MARY'S dad, RAY McFARLAND, gracious Captain Host in the SANDS Garden Room, is an expert hunter as the deep-freeze will prove. There is a rare treat in a delicious venison steak dinner and may we say "Many Thanks" RAY, for ours. . . .

Welcome back to TOMMY CLARE, DESERT INN Lady Luck Host, who recently underwent surgery. Our sincere wishes for full relief and "better understanding." How're the legs now? . . . While in the D-I, let's stop and greet HAL BRISCOE who was on the very sick list. In the hospital with virus pneumonia, and convalescing at home, he couldn't wait to get back to his duties as mixologist in the Sky Room and downstairs. Nice to see you up and around, HAL. . . . LAS VEGAS seems to be getting more jazz conscious from week to week. Quartering some of the greatest musicians in the country and periodically being exposed to countless more visiting players in the Lounges and Showrooms along the Strip and downtown, the early morning hours seem to be host to an ever increasing amount of strident and clarion jazz notes of small and large groups. Whether your choice be pure, progressive, dixieland or hybrid, it's no difficult task to locate it somewhere in Fabulous Las Vegas. BOBBY MORRIS, the classy drummer with LITTLE RED and MARCY LAYNE in the Stage Bar Lounge of the FLAMINGO HOTEL is going to make it even easier for you to hear it in the future. BOBBY inaugurates Monday night (Tuesday morning) jazz sessions at the BLACK MAGIC this coming Monday, January 26th at 1:30 a.m. They'll go every Monday night thereafter and BOBBY promises a gang of swinging players. With CHARLIE VENTURA, RAY McKINLEY AND STAN KENTON in town you can expect to see a session studded with greats. Takes us back to a period some four years ago when BOBBY conducted a series of successful sessions in the same spot. . . .

Our best wishes to BILL ROSSI who underwent the knife last Monday for kidney surgery. BILL and his partner CHARLIE BOYER, who recently completed a lengthy engagement in the Celebrity Lounge of the EL CORTEZ HOTEL, have parted and CHARLIE has teamed up with former EL CORTEZ Ork Leader BUSTER HALLETT. Duo has headed for a Phoenix engagement and are expected to shoot into the northwest — Seattle, Portland, Vancouver, etc.

— following that stint. . . . Fairfax Avenue, Los Angeles has come to the Starlight Lounge of the RIVIERA HOTEL as laughmakers BILLY GRAY and PATTI MOORE and BEN LESSY have teamed up to bring uninhibited comedy of the sort that leaves you limp. Alternating on the stand they stage an extra-long comedy session and the gags ricochet around the room endlessly. . . . STAN KENTON'S first Lounge appearance in the Showcase Lounge of the TROPICANA is headed for record-breaking attendance. The flashy king of pure progressive, who was playing the jazz you hear today fifteen years ago, has the swingers pouring into the Hotel to catch his sets. . . . We've itemed several times before about THE ANDRINI BROTHERS who are appearing in the same spot, but anything as great as this combo deserves more notice. They're master musicians and entertainers sporting a beautifully diversified act that features a pair of the smartest looking and sounding thrushes, CARLA LUCERNE and MARY JANE, we've caught in many a day. . . . Another truly magnificent musician talent is JOHNNY ADO-MONO, currently playing his fantastic guitar in the Carnival Room of the FREMONT HOTEL. To give you an idea how marvelous this fellow plays, it's the first time in the history of the room that a single performer has worked the 9 p.m. to 3 a.m. shift, and believe us he carries it — keeps the room filled with intently listening patrons. . . . THE TOMMA JEAN TRIO moved into the Casbar Theatre of HOTEL SAHARA last Tuesday night. Previous local dates by this combo were in the Jewel Box Theatre of the HACIENDA HOTEL and the Celebrity Lounge of the EL CORTEZ HOTEL. . . . The GOLDEN NUGGET has two top flight Western units alternating for you devotees of the cowboy ballad — The world famous SONS OF THE PIONEERS plus the very highly regarded WADE RAY FIVE, both excellent combos in the true Western tradition. . . . For musical nonsense that never fails to delight be sure and catch THE HAPPY JESTERS in the STARDUST Lounge. They bow out on January 26th when THE VAGABONDS come in, but will return for twelve weeks after that unit closes. . . . Hope everyone caught PEREZ PRADO'S teevee date last week with STEVE ALLEN. Turned in a fine job — last seen in FLV in the Showcase Lounge of the TROPICANA HOTEL. . . . The music being turned out by the GLENN MILLER ORCHESTRA under the direction of RAY McKINLEY certainly brings back an era of musical greatness to Stage Bar patrons. FLAMINGO HOTEL rafters reverberate to a parade of the GLENN MILLER classics. Much credit belongs to RAY and to vocalists LORRY PETERS and ERNIE BERNHOLDT plus Prestige Label recording artist LENNY HAMBRO on alto sax and clarinet for bringing these unforgettable melodies back within reach and earshot of us all.

by ROLAND HILL

A GAIN this week we continue to bring you the recently personally compiled "Who's Who" by author, columnist and world traveler, Roland Hill.

MC LAUGHLIN, ALICE I. Born in Minneapolis on Decemberr 26th, she attended the University of Minnesota and for years has been Executive Secretary to Robert F. Pack, President of the vast Northern States Power Company. She has been a director of the Am. Red Cross, on the board of the Cenacle Retreat House, regent of the Daughters of Isabella, ex-pres. of Zonta International, League of Women Voters and the League of Catholic Women. She is one of the top career women in Minnesota and has sponsored more causes and raised more money than any other woman in the Midwest. She lives at 2529 Thomas Avenue South, and is one of the most wonderful persons I know.

MC NAMEE, FRANK. A scion of one of the oldest families in Las Vegas, Frank was born in Delamar, Nevada on August the 23rd, graduated from Stanford University and its Law School, was admitted to the Bar in California, has practiced law in Las Vegas for several years and has been elected to offices here and now holds the influential post of DISTRICT JUDGE. His hobby is travel — he has been around the world twice, to Europe several times, all over Mexico, Hawaii, etc. and belongs to the Elks and Lions Clubs. He is a national director of the American Cancer Society, is admitted as a member who can practice before the Supreme Court of the United States, and is a former Director of the Home Loan Bank of Los Angeles. As an eligible bachelor, he is never left off any important guest list in Nevada, and is certainly one of Las Vegas' leading citizens. To walk through a hotel lobby on the strip with him is like old home week — there isn't a person that doesn't stop to say "hello Frank" from the highest strata of society to the most menial of employees. He is quite a guy — I am glad I have known him well for lo these many years.

MADER, GUSTAVE G. Born July 1, 1910 in Milwaukee, Gus is married to Margarete and they have two children, Valerie and Victor. MADER'S famous German Restaurant at 1037 N. Third Street in Milwaukee rates equally with any German restaurant outside of Munich, Hamburg or Berlin. I think MADER'S RESTAURANT has done equally as much to make Milwaukee famous as any brew that so advertises. A "must."

MARTELL, FREDDIE. Here is a very original fellow, an excellent performer and golden-throated vocalist, and has been entertainment director of the lush ATLANTA BILTMORE HOTEL for the past three years. The current hit, Freddie Martell's Ice-O-Rama, is, I am told, a beautiful production and a smash hit. I hope it will be brought to Las Vegas when it ends its run at the Biltmore. Freddie is one of the most handsome fellows in show business, is known as the "Prince of Entertainers" and as a stager of shows, producer and director, he hasn't many equals. Some hotel should stage this show around their pool come next summer. It would be a tremendous thing for the town. I hope in my travels this winter to get to Atlanta to visit Gloria Oakley, Freddie, and Mrs. Hanson, and to see this show.

MATHER, RALPH J. Born on August the 13th in Springdale, Iowa, Ralph graduated from Cornell College in Mount Vernon, Iowa and now lives at the St. Paul Athletic Club. He is St. Paul's most eligible bachelor, debonair, suave, and at home in all the swank drawing rooms of the land, and is one of the top men at BROWN & BIGELOW. His hobbies are travel, business, the Shrine, music and horseback riding. Yearly he goes on a long ride in the Canadian Rockies. He is the most energetic man I know and one of the most affable and kindly.

MICHOPOULOS, JOHN. Now known as only Michelle, John was born August 9, 1917 in Athens, Greece. He had a varied army career, was wounded, escaped and joined the "underground" and later the Greek Unit of the Air Force for the Allies. Became a war correspondent in the Middle East and finally published IKAROS in Greece. He met his wife, Lois, when she and her family were touring Greece from Dubuque, Iowa. They have four fine boys, Peter, Timmie, Andy and Jimmie. He started his career in his father-in-law's candy store in Iowa and took a trip and fell in love with Colorado Springs and here has built up one of the most amazing candy and ice cream "empires" I have found. MICHELLE'S OF COLORADO SPRINGS is the finest store of its kind I have run across in my travels. Concoctions like his PIKE'S PEAK have made him world famous. Don't miss this place at 122 N. Tejon St.

MORELLI, JOHNNY. He and his wife, Clara, have one boy by the name of Martin. Johnny likes to fish and bowl. He was born in Italy on March 15, 1908 and was educated at the University of Bologna. He is the Maitre D' at the lush and lavish TROPICANA HOTEL way out on the strip in Las Vegas and is very well liked. This hotel defies description and is surely rated as one of the top resort hotels in the world. Johnny and Clara have been friends of mine for a long time and are very well liked in Las Vegas.

MURPHY DEAN. Born in Wisconsin and educated at the U. of Wisconsin — his dad used to be Governor of Wisconsin. Dean was "found" when entertaining his fraternity brothers by doing take-offs on Eleanor Roosevelt, Lolly Parsons and other characters, taken away from his law career (he holds a law and doctorate degree, believe it or not). When entertaining at the Radio City

A LITTLE BIT OF LEARNING MIGHT HAVE BEEN TOO MUCH: The eminent music critic and general handy man in the clef world, Deems Taylor, lunched with us at the Monsignore the other noon hour. Our chinfeest nestled itself quite conveniently in the realm of song manufacturers. Perhaps we were guilty of leading Mr. Taylor on a path straight to an anecdote. After all, it was our purpose. Deems recalled the days when Dr. Walter Damrosch, famed conductor and music educator of another day, ran a real "Come Who May" open house each January 1st. One such New Year's Day back in the Thirties, amid a houseful of celebs and party crashers, Irving Berlin showed up. The maestro-host chatted with Tin Pan Alley's favorite citizen and showered on him a series of sincere compliments. The reticent Berlin thanked him, but explained that his talent, devoid of any study, was thin indeed. Dr. Damrosch told him to pursue musical training; with it he might write something big and operatic.

"I wouldn't dare," answered Irving softly, "With my meager knowledge of music any additional learning could destroy me as a songwriter."

Reviews Who: It is possible that all Carol Channing has to do to enrapture a Persian Room capacity crowd is stride out on the floor, turn bright her extra large expressive eyes and sing merrily about an aspiring strip teaser's lamentable career in Las Vegas or chant voraciously about a chorus girl's homesickness for Manhattan while sitting on a bar stool in "Gay" Paree. However, in this second time 'round the Plaza, Carol is a more seasoned trouper, biting harder with her sardonic underplay at sophistication and doing some Fifth Avenue tricks with the kind of supper club fun that Dorothy Shay used to poke. Miss Channing is a class comedienne, who often is head and shoulders over her material. There are times, as the applause and titters die down, when our white blonde, whom gentlemen and ladies prefer, is standing there waiting for the act to catch up to her.

This writer would be handing in a mendacious report to say that Carol Channing is not a sparkling talent. But to our eyes and ears there is a big conquerable world outside of the flapper from "Lend An Ear" or the diamond digger from "G.P.B." One of these bookings, Miss C. C. is going to make a good act a great one. She is about one good writer away from being the Rosalind Russell of the cover charge circuit.

Eat Treat: In seven years the Bacara on East 45th St. has earned a rightful place for itself as a top quality restaurant. The surroundings are warm, the atmosphere dignified and the food served here would appeal to any discriminating diner.

An appetizer listed as "Canape Baccara" is a distinctive opening course. It is a superb blend of chopped tuna fish, anchovy, sardine, boiled egg and peeled boiled tomato. The ingredients are whipped together, garnished with Russian dressing and served hot on a piece of well done toast that is fried crisp in oil. For our taste, this concoction rates among the her first Las Vegas headlining appearance is master comic SHECKY GREENE, undoubtedly one of the fastest and most effective monologists in the country. Another fast riser in the entertainment picture, SHECKY gives further testimonial to the adage that talent, wit and ability do pay off. . . . The luscious line, billed as the MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRLS IN THE WORLD, execute stunning productions and Maestro NAT BRANDWYNNE furnishes a cushion of background music for MISS SHERWOOD'S notes to rest and supports the balance of the cast with equal finesse.

paper when the important announcement is made that Prince Juan Carlos has agreed to the date when he will occupy the throne of Spain. Dictator Franco will step aside to place this man of royal Bourbon blood at the helm of the government. . . . I predict that Chief Justice Warren will rally the members of both political parties to his side when he hands down a new decision on segregation.

DATE LINE — THE FUTURE!

I predict that the chemical spray which was used on the pyramids to insure lasting qualities will find a counterpart in our 20th century civilization. This corrosive dye, used by the Egyptians, was found to have a great protective and lasting quality. . . . I predict that a top secret of the pentagon will be the date of release of the findings of our last successful rocket to the moon. The television camera in the cone will have a very strange and thrilling story to tell us. . . . I predict that secret laboratories are testing the idea of air bullets which can be propelled from any distance and hit any object with the strength of a hurricane, tornado, or typhoon. . . .

I predict that rocketry will be the next fad for the hobbyists. Rockets that will carry one person and can be fired with safety on a fifty foot arc, will be the next rage. . . . I predict that erosion will slowly and surely ruin many parts of the Georgia coastline. The shifting sands will change many real estate values over night, and federal aid will be asked for a series of specially built breakwaters.

YOUR INCREDIBLE FUTURE

Are we already a captive planet? Are we already earmarked for plunder by some roving pirate planet in the sky? The legends of the Far East tell us about man-made moons circling the earth, long before we knew the earth was round! One fine day we will send our observation pilots into the air, and they will report an air armada coming toward us with only one thing in mind — conquest! Is another Planet building us up for capture? Are they permitting us to progress to a reasonable advancement, only then to pick us off like a sparrow hawk does a small helpless bird? Is this the cause behind our delicate machinery which has heretofore worked perfectly, suddenly balking and throwing up a mysterious resistance? Can this Planet, our unknown enemy, control Mother Nature? What if there were no more nourishment in our food, and all food was suddenly de-mineralized or devitalized? This could weaken us to the point of easy capture! All of the ancient religions fear this invasion by "A Fiery Planet" which would make us captive, individually as well as internationally! Prayers are being said against this coming invasion of the negative forces! Millions of words are being offered in supplication! Our Congress may meet in a very special session one of these days very soon to face this fearful "Pirate Planet" from the black velvet of outer-space! Traffic would stop in our streets, and our lights would go out one by one, for the signal would be given that we would soon be a "captured planet," "a captive planet" from now on in your incredible future!

MONT HOTEL for so long a time. The boys recently took off for a special engagement at the FOUR O'CLOCK CLUB in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. They'll return their pantomiming antics to Las Vegas and Reno and their regular stands in those two cities immediately following that stint. . . . GOLDEN NUGGET Security Guard-actor BOB ALLEN had a chance to visit with his director-producer and long-time friend JOHN FORD when the famous movie mogul was in town recently being guested at the STARDUST HOTEL by Hotel Executive JOHNNY DREW. JOHN-NY and JOHN first met when they were shipmates on an Italian cruise a couple of years ago. FORD has now returned to Hollywood to supervise cutting on his new epic, "Horse Soldiers," slated for release July 4th of this year. . . .

Speaking of cruises, always a fascinating subject to us since there must be at least a pint of salt water in our bloodstream (among other things), PHIL LONG, Owner of the CALIFORNIA CLUB, will be heading for a three week Caribbean cruise sometime in February. He's been invited by a friend who owns a floating hotel of some 185 feet in length. Not that we're feeling sorry for ourselves, but the best we can wrangle in the cruise line is a trip around Lake Mead in SCOTT GRIFFITH'S new inboard. . . . Pretty ELAINE SWAFFORD, Cocktail Waitress at the GOLDEN NUGGET, has moved onto the plush carpet and now totes beverages in the showroom of the day shift. Happy to see ELAINE getting up in the world. . . .

"GLITTER GULCH" a goodly crowd turned out to hear the nation's only metropolitan daily woman City Editor, AGNESS "AGGIE" UNDERWOOD. AGGIE'S infectious personality immediately found its way into the hearts of all in attendance and her true to life anecdotes relative to news dissemination at the HERALD EXPRESS in Ellay were hilarious. After listening to many of her experiences we can only say that as long as "AGGIE" remains as City Editor at the HERALD, there'll never be a dull moment in that particular publication. Toastmaster VERN WILLIS did his usual fine job of microphoning and hordes of key Las Vegas press people seemed to enjoy a truly outstanding event. Press Club steward JIM ROBERTS steered a straight course to success at the pre and post Cocktail Party in the Club Rooms adjacent to the Banquet Room.

'ROUND THE TOWN

home, with pleurisy and that same virus pneumonia is charming ALBERTA HAMBLIN, of the RIVIERA'S Gift and Cigar Shop. All your friends have been pulling for you (many didn't know you were ill) better move back into town where folks and the "doc" can find you, if need be! . . .

Someone was missing from the SANDS, and where did we find him? Looking as tall, handsome and alert as ever was Security Officer BOB FLEMING, tending his new duties at the DESERT INN. . . . With STELLA WEINSTOCK and sister EMMA, whose hubby is HUBERT MOOG, owner of the Moog Industries of St. Louis, Missouri, the FLAMINGO hosts a trio of annual visitors who vacation here for several months — not just weeks — and don't think that these glamour sisters don't lead

BERT a merry chase around the clock! Lots of fun and laughter. It's so nice to see you once again. . . .

The incomparable DUNHILLS, masters of dancing precision, appear on the GARRY MOORE TV'er next Tuesday January 27th. As WALTER and ARCHIE continued on to New York, BOBBY stopped off enroute to greet PEARLIE MAE BAILEY and a host of friends. . . . Enroute to New York City after closing a successful engagement at the CHI-CHI CLUB in Palm Springs, California, was JAY JASON who kept his audiences convulsed during his last appearance here at the FLAMINGO. Nice to greet you again, JAY you're a terrific comic on or off stage. . . .

LUCILLE BAILEY, EL RANCHO VEGAS change girl cashier in the Slot Department has taken off on a two-week vacation to cold Denver, Colorado where she will visit her sister JESSIE and brother-in-law, LARRY RINGWALT. He's with Graybar Electric and have only recently moved to this famed health spot. Have lots of fun and a good rest LUCILLE, but you'll be glad to get back — (it's co-o-ld up there). . . . A flying-tour of the Country and the West Coast, is a perfect honeymoon, with a fun-packed stopover in our FABULOUS city, so say newlyweds MURIEL and WILLIAM FABRICANT of New York City. A beautiful gal and a handsome Iron and Steel hubby — this happy pair have a wonderful "sensa yuma." Hashing over "old times" with their very good friend SARA ZIMMERMAN (RIVIERA GIFT SHOP) who says MURIEL "irons" while BILL "steels." It seems SARA has her "moments" too. . . .

Belated congratulations to HELEN THIGPIN and EARL JACKSON who celebrated their 4th Wedding Anniversary last Friday (Jan. 16th) HELEN is the beautiful voice as the "Strawberry — girl" in PEARLIE MAE'S smash show at the FLAMINGO. She played the same role in the tremendous picture "Porgy and Bess," along with several other performers now appearing with PEARLIE MAE. EARL will join the choral group when this very successful show takes to the road after completing a record-smashing engagement here at the FLAMINGO. We didn't mean to digress — Congrats and many more years of happiness to HELEN and EARL. . . . Belated but sincere birthday greetings to charming LOIS GOTTLIEB, wife of DUNES' owner JACKIE GOTTLIEB. LOIS celebrated last Saturday January 17th and was feted to a fare-thee-well. Deluged with greetings from friends all over the country — we meekly add ours, belatedly. Many Happy Returns. . . .

Wonder just what's behind the gifts to VEGAS CARR (??), red-headed Minsky Model. Scads of roses — AND a ring — heart trouble, maybe? . . . By the way, those new DUNES brochures are due to come into view in about another week or so, and from all reports — are beautiful. . . . MR. DAVIS KIRK of San Francisco in town to visit son DON and MARLENE (FLAMINGO talent) and to "spirit" away darling little KIM for a visit with her grandparents. DON'S pop is a charmer, wonder why they don't move here? Save travel expenses! . . . SUSAN WOOD who's been away from the Minsky Show on a too-long vacation is back here after leaving the frozen Windy City (Chicago) in a thawing condition. SUSAN appeared with the Minsky "one nighter" in the big town and rejoins the regular show now. . . .

The gal with the lovely voice now appearing with those very popular ANDRINI BROTHERS (RIVIERA), is named MARY JANE. So, let's give a warm welcome to this new chirper. . . . Our "squib" for last week's column got lost somewhere in transit so, we repeat, — "Good Luck to FORREST DUKE on his new "beat" — or is it just the "old beat" on a VF channel. . . . Let's be among the first (for a change we got it early) to wish the Very Best and Happy Anniversary to MAESTRO CEE DAVIDSON, (DUNES Ork) as he celebrates his first year at the DUNES on Friday, January 30th. . . . TONI and JERRY OSGOOD, he's a Captain at the STARDUST, are a couple of avid Skin-Divers, JERRY is among the best looking Captains on the Strip and has hosted the best in New York City and Florida. He and TONI own a couple "little ones" — a BOXER and a GREAT DANE! They spend every moment exploring under the waters of Lake Mead. There's no moss on the backs of these two nice people.

The very handsome chap behind the EL RANCHO front desk (on the late shift) is none other than former dancer ALBERT HENDERSON FARRELL PEGRAM! A grandson of our esteemed JUDGE A. S. HENDERSON, BERT and his beautiful dancing wife, WENDY, were involved in a motor accident December 15, 1957. Still sporting crutches and a limp, BERT remembers well his starting date at EL RANCHO, December 16, 1958. A former dancer at the SANDS with ANN SOTHERN and LENA HORNE, he's a happily married man and father of three year old STEVEN. Grit and a keen sense of humor belong to this chap. Lots of good luck and discard the "props" soon. . . .

Look for an interesting membership meeting of the Better Business Bureau as "Dragnets" SGT. FRANK SMITH, movie actor BEN ALEXANDER, appears as Guest Speaker. BILL ELWELL, Hotel owner, is the new President and TWA Mgr. RAY CULLEY is Vice President. Should be a sell-out. . . . Visited with MR. and MRS. CLINT PERKINS, the new owners of popular BLAIR HOUSE and here are a pair of real FLV boosters. CLINT and his lovely wife have been coming here several times a year from Seattle, Washington. He is a hotel owner and has various interests in the northern city, but both he and the missus have recognized the potentialities of Las Vegas since their first visit. Now, at last they have become enthusiastically "a part" of our Fabulous town and with CLINT'S "know how" and penchant for promotion this charming couple will be a real asset to the community. We welcome you "Round the Town" folks.

top recipe pleasures in town. Our compliments to Chef Alberto.

The co-owner Camillo, host and roving front man, took over last summer after fourteen years as a captain in the Grill Room of the Hotel Pierre. He has done two noteworthy things since he became a boss. First, he strengthened the ties of the fine reputation of the restaurant and then proceeded to pull the totally unexpected these days — he lowered the dinner prices.

His partner in the operation is handsome Armando, who handles the duties relative to expert bartending. The owners are assisted in the running of the establishment by a gracious and charming maitre d' named Leno.

ing what is inviting Italian cookery and featuring the tastiest French menu selections. Lunch here is a la carte; dinner can be full course or selected by the item. Each day there are specials. Personally, our recommendations extend to Tuesday's Tournedos of Beef Rossini and Friday's Lobster Aromattes Au Riz Pilaff. The mobile tray of at least nine desserts, plus ice cream, should suffice the sweet seekers.

The Baccara can accommodate over sixty-five diners at one sitting. One evening soon you should be one of them.

Short Shots: A night club doorman was the recipient of this worry from Marlene Dietrich. "I'm sorry your face gets so frozen," she sighed. "Oh, that's all right," he replied, "I'm sorry your legs get so cold." . . .

Worth Hearing: The RCA Victor L.P. "The Enchanted Woods" with Dennis Farnon's orchestra. The romantic sounds of woodwinds. . . . Dorothy Sarnoff, the soprano, was telling us why she'll never do another Broadway show. Said Dot: "I'm not going to tie myself up six evenings and two afternoons a week for a year or more. I'll never top the notices from "The King and I" that I have tiled in my bathroom." . . . At the Muann Internationale, which serves a different country's food each week, when they are out of the dish the little flag on each table is put at half mast. . . . This country needs more ex-convicts like Marie Torre, a principled newspaperwoman in the finest tradition. Ironically, a paragraph got her a sentence.

always remain in her mind as a most joyous event. The entire Dunes cast surprised Reina and the gal was loaded down with gifts — She's actually loved and respected by all who know her. . . .

M m m m m — if you are in the mood for a real tasty (and tender) charcoal broiled steak believe us folks, the PIONEER STEAK HOUSE on South 1st Street (near the PIONEER CLUB) is your "meat." Then top it off with some of DOLORES' superb cheese cake. You'll be going back time after time. Dolores has become nationally famous for her delicious cheese cakes and receives orders for them from all over the country. It's developed into quite a large mail order business. . . .

They've been going steady ever since she came to town as a dancer at the late SANS SOUCI HOTEL. Beautiful SHAW-HITCHCOCK Dancer SHERRIL MORTON at the HOTEL SAHARA and BOBBY FRIEDMAN, Chemin de fer Dealer at the FREMONT HOTEL. Sherril has said "yes" and the couple will walk down that aisle sometime in June. Couldn't happen to two nicer kids — best wishes! . . .

BUSTER BURNELL, Choreographer at the fabulous FLAMINGO HOTEL, is leaving his position and heading back to New York Sunday, January 24th. Buster has a few TV spectaculars to do plus many more show commitments. We wish him loads of success in his new environs. As yet no one has been named to take his place. . . .

What a busy man is our good friend NORMAN KAYE! Entertaining nightly with the famous MARY KAYE TRIO in the show room at EL RANCHO VEGAS and daily directing his fast growing Real Estate business. His friends are legion. He gives them a "good show" and a "good deal" . . .

Today, Saturday, January 24th,

JANUARY 24, 1959

FRIEDA and FRANK SOSKIN celebrate their 27th Wedding Anniversary. Our sincerest and best wishes to this wonderful couple who are on a perpetual honeymoon. Frank is Casino Boss at WILBUR CLARK'S DESERT INN. . . .

SID SHEPPARD, that "Old Man" of the furniture biz on South Main Street, has practically chewed his fingernails to the elbows. He will become a Grandpa any day now when daughter SHARON presents her premier offspring. Actually Sid is not an "old man" as we remarked, for he and his lovely wife, PEARL, will be two of the youngest grandparents we've ever seen. . . .

A must to see when you're out is MICHAEL KENT, superb violinist and leader of the strolling violin players in the Lady Luck Lounge of the DESERT INN. It's just like going to a concert: each member of the group is a top musician. There are eight violins and an accordion who roam through the lounge playing and on stage a piano and bass. They play your favorite tunes and all of your request numbers. It's the thrill of thrills to hear the greatest tunes ever composed played by such a fabulous artist as Michael Kent and his violins. The Gypsy tunes — Hungarian and Rumanian — just about makes one want to dance the Czardas. It's truly the finest music this side of heaven. . . .

HORTENCIA McKIERNAN (EL CHOLO MEXICAN CAFE) is having more fun than a barrel of Mexican monkeys in her newly opened curio shop. Most any night you'll find some of our Strip "personalities" browsing through the authentic articles on display which are usually only found "south of the border" . . . .

HOYT HENRY, popular local musician currently playing with JOHNNY BACHEMIN at the DUNES HOTEL, two years ago gave FRANKIE LAINE a tune he wrote and hoped the popular song stylist would like it. Last week Mr. H. heard from Frankie who stated that he will publish and then record "My Heart of Tears". Seems Frankie misplaced the manuscript when he left LV two years ago and just recently relocated it. When he tried it out he felt it could be bigger than "Mule Train" so immediately got the machinery in work to present it to the public. Imagine how Hoyt felt, not hearing from Frank for two years or so and then this news cropping up! Best wishes for a gold disc to you both — composer and singer! . . .

FRANK SINATRA'S opening at the SANDS HOTEL last January 14th boasted the biggest crowds we ever saw jam into a Strip Hotel—bar none! And, to make the occasion more auspicious, 'twas the JACK BENNY'S 31st Wedding Anniversary. A gala party was hosted by JACK ENTRATER. Also attending were MR. and MRS. EDWARD G. ROBINSON. The fun really began when Frankie joined the party after the second show and it continued on until ? ? . . .

TONY MARTIN, who was scheduled to appear on DINAH SHORE'S Show Sunday, January 18th, had to beg off because of a bad cold. Tony opens at the DESERT INN HOTEL Tuesday, January 27th, and we hope he'll be okay by that time. Meanwhile Producer HAL BELFER has returned to Los Angeles to prep the show. Hal recently spent a few days in FLV to check on the show at the THUNDERBIRD HOTEL, which he also staged and directed. . . .

Many Clevelandites who are now residents of FLV are hoping that HAROLD GREEN will pack his lovely FRAN and family and move to our town. Harold is a distributor of liquidated stocks and always has terrific buys to offer his clients. Well known in this business throughout the middle west and on the coast, we're hoping he'll now make his headquarters here. . . .

JEAN EDWARDS takes a lot of credit (and probably deserves it) for keeping so many of our entertainers healthy and happy and able to stand the rigors of "night life on the strip". The "smiling" ones are those that regularly partake of the "viands" that Jean's MILL - HAVEN HEALTH FOODS has to offer. . . .

MISCHA VIOLIN has been added to ANTONIO MORELLI'S ORCHESTRA at the SANDS HOTEL for the duration of the FRANK SINATRA Show. Mischa is acknowledged to be one of the nation's top violinists. . . .

We regret very much the news that our good friend, theatrical agent ROCKY CARR, passed away last Thursday, January 15th, from a heart attack. Everyone in and out of show business who knew Rocky, loved and respected him and his friends throughout the entire world of show-biz were legion. . . .

Singing star ROMO VINCENT appeared on the PETER LIND HAYES teevee show last Monday am (KSHO-TV, Channel 13) and he's greater than ever! Stopped the show cold! Hope he'll be on every day and perhaps turn up with an engagement in FLV — a truly great star! . . .

When BILL WOLF and BUD CHANDLER visited Las Vegas a week ago, they made arrangements for the Helldorado Queen to fly to St. Paul January 29th to be a special guest of the St. Paul Winter Carnival. She will share the top floor of the St. Paul Hotel with Queens from all over the country and Canada for ten days and will be feted as visiting "royalty" should be. Next year, St. Paul should enter a float in Helldorado, or at least send its KING BOREAS and QUEEN to ride in the parade. There's a great tourist market in the Twin Cities as far as Las Vegas is concerned, and these exchanges will do much to bring them and Las Vegas closer together. Columnist ROLAND HILL has finally convinced them Las Vegas should be invited to participate in their gigantic Winter Carnival and now the door is open! . . .

"Opportunity '59": We attended luncheon at the DESERT INN COUNTRY CLUB last Thursday and then on to the ground-breaking ceremonies for the "Silver State Terminal Warehouse" — situated on thirty-two and one-half acres approximately a quarter of a mile west of the Strip behind the DUNES HOTEL. The structure is to be 197 feet wide and 1000 feet (three city blocks) long. It is expected to be completed June 1, 1959. Officers on the project are PHILIP GALT, President; SOL N. KERWIN, Vice President; O. L. DEVOR, Treasurer, and WILLIAM DEUTSCH, Secretary. All of the officers, plus the Board of Directors, are prominent businessmen in Las Vegas and contain such names as H.G.O. WEILER, Director and past President of the SOUTHERN NEVADA TELEPHONE COMPANY; H. G. LAUB, President of the SOUTHWEST GAS CORPORATION; BEN JAFFE, President GUARANTEE RESERVE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY and Owner of the TROPICANA HOTEL, plus many, many others. We could go on and on regarding "Opportunity '59," but we suggest you write to the company in care of the TROPICANA HOTEL and get their brochure or prospectus and see for yourself how necessary and important the "Silver State Terminal Warehouse" will be to the continued growth of Southern Nevada. . . .

Fond memories were brought back the other evening when, quite by accident, we ran into MARTHA HAYES, employed by KATIE JENKINS at the THUNDERBIRD SMOKE SHOP. She is the former wife of CARLTON HAYES, Ork leader at the DESERT INN HOTEL, and one of our all-time favorite people in Las Vegas. . . .

Our good friend and years ago "Round the Town" Columnist ALEX HENIG is now a partner in a music publishing company who presses records under the VIRGO LABEL. Alex recently sent us a pressing of a brilliant coupling that definitely has best seller written all over both sides. Side number one is "Leftover Love" and side two is "The La La Song". Vocalist is ANDY PHILIPPE and the Orchestra is conducted by RENE HALL. Predict that you'll be hearing both of these tunes via the air waves of your favorite radio station before long. . . .

One of those very embarrassing "boo boos," the plague of publishers the world over, recently came to our attention and we just have to make an apology. In our Christmas Issue several weeks ago, somebody slipped and our good friend HARRY OEDEKERK ended up on those pages with his name misspelled. Harry is one of our favorite folks and with the high regard we hold for him, just had to apologize for the error. This made our face as red as it can get, and we're truly sorry — And That's For Sure! . . .

BUSTER HALLETT and CHARLIE BOYER recently formed a new act built around comedy and songs and have unveiled it at the PUMP ROOM in Phoenix, Arizona. We were delighted to hear that the boys were a big hit from the moment they opened January 19th and we wish them continuing success. . . .

We join with all the FLAMINGO personnel today (24th) in wishing a very happy birthday to the very able president of that HOSTELRY, Mr. AL PARVIN. May you have continued success and many more happy days. On January 26th our best wishes go to PEGGY GORDON, lovely lens snapper at HOTEL EL RANCHO VEGAS who will be celebrating her natal day. And on January 30th we will say Happy Birthday and best wishes to JUDY DORSETT, a wonderful friend of ours whose uncle, the late HARRY DORSETT, was General Manager of the HORSESHOE CLUB. . . . Sincere congratulations to all you nice people. . . .

HILLSWAY

Night Club in New York someone from the White House saw him and he had a command performance there — shaking in his boots for fear FDR would hate him for his laugh-provoking take-off on Eleanor, but FDR literally loved him and from then on Dean was the fair-haired boy at all entertainments. This is where I first met him and we have been buddies ever since. He has entertained audiences all over the land and abroad and is as popular today as ever. He has a photographic mind and jokes about guests in all his audiences. He is long overdue here in Las Vegas. His wife is Dorothy Dey, an author of note and a swell gal. Lives in Miami, Florida.

MURPHY, EUGENE. Mr. "Publicity" himself, Gene Murphy was born in Chicago on the 10th day of August and attended school there. He later went to Journalism school for two years in the same town. His wife, Mary, is one of the most gracious gals I know and they have one daughter who is the apple of her dad's eyes

— she is at the Univ. of Calif. at Berkeley now studying. Gene handled publicity for Balaban & Katz theaters for several years, helped "make" such stars as Judy Garland, Jane Powell and Freddy Bartholomew, to name just a few. He was born on a farm in northwestern Minnesota and has never lost the "grass-roots" touch. He is just about one of the finest fellows to have for a friend imaginable. The only hobby he has time for is doing charitable work and his deeds for his church are many. Gene has been the power behind everything at the WILBUR CLARK DESERT INN in Las Vegas since it was built, has put it over like no other hotel has been skyrocketed to fame in our time, and now also handles all publicity and public relations for the UNITED HOTELS, which include the D. I. and the new and extremely popular STARDUST HOTEL, the world's largest resort hotel, also on the Strip in Las Vegas.

NAUMANN, EDDIE. Eddie is married to a swell gal by the name of Esther, and together they have made a success of running EDDIE & ESTHER'S RESTAURANT in Mora, Minnesota, and they also have a drive-in south of town. Eddie and I were in school together and later he went to work at the State Capitol building where his uncle, the late and great Henry Rines was State Treasurer and a Member of the Governor's Big Three. They have one son, Ronnie, who is a successful insurance man. Eddie is going on the road this winter working for HILLSWAY and I hope that he makes a whale of a success of it, and should he approach you regarding your listing in HILLSWAY, I hope you will receive him well.

NYQUIST, ROBERT W. One of the smartest and most logical young attorneys I know, Bob is married to a beauty by the name of Marian and they have three well-behaved and charming young daughters — Mary, Carole and Nancy. Bob is County Attorney in Mora, Minnesota, and is a grad. of the Univ. of Minnesota. He was born July 28, 1922 in Minneapolis. He golfs, reads, sculpts and plays bridge — all equally well. He is a world-traveler, having made safaris in Africa, has toured Mexico several times with Marian, and just last year they completely toured South America. Marian is one of the very best cooks I know and is an excellent homemaker. She is a graduate nurse, an excellent hostess, fine mother and a leader in civic and social affairs.

OAKLEY, GLORIA. An outstanding International skating star, Gloria is presently starring in the Freddie Martell Ice-O-Rama in the beautiful Empire Room of the fashionable ATLANTA BILTMORE HOTEL that my friend, Mrs. Howell Ross Hanson owns and is president of. Gloria was a holdover at the EL CORTEZ last winter and was beloved by all who saw her skate here in Las Vegas. She was with the Ice Follies with my niece, Val Ray Kohner, and later they were in Holiday on Ice in Europe together. Her recent stint at the Roxy in New York really gave her fame. Gloria is cute as a bug's ear, and just as charming and sweet. And very good looking, I might add. Hope Las Vegas brings she and Freddie Martell out here to skate sometime soon.

ORSENE, ALFRED W. He and his lovely wife, Aletta, have a beautiful ranch-type house out in Paradise Valley and are one of the happiest couples in Las Vegas. Before coming to Las Vegas Al was traveling auditor for the Hull Chain of Hotels in California and when I first knew him eleven years ago he was Comptroller of the old Last Frontier Hotel. He stayed on when it became the New Frontier Hotel, and now holds the job of Comptroller at the great TROPICANA HOTEL way out on the strip. His birthday is December 2nd, was born and raised in good old Minneapolis. The Orsenes are really solid citizens and very active in club, social and church work, always thinking of others and doing as much as they can to alleviate their suffering.
