FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

Hillsway
 by ROLAND HILL

LAST week, the entire central part of the country was blanketed with the worst snow fall and blizzard conditions in 15 years, but we in Minnesota were spared completely. We had a bit of sleet that left the streets a bit icy for a day or two, but that was all. Then, a couple of days ago, we had a snowfall that left at least four inches of snow and everyone is complaining about how terrible it is. I don't know why. I can remember (as a kid) when we used to drive over the telephone poles, the snow was that deep. Minnesota has had nothing like that in fifteen years. It seems so great to have snow, to have seasons, and a challenge, from time to time.

Last night, our Minnesota branch of Kentucky Colonels met for dinner at the White Pine Inn over in Bayport on the Wisconsin border. This time the members brought their wives and enjoyed dancing until the wee hours of the morning. Pat Conroy (one of the Colonels) was the host as he co-owns the White Pine Inn with Dick Farr. Cocktails at 6:30, dinner at eight and dancing from then on, along with a brief business meeting, were the order of the evening. As far as I know this club of ours is the only one like it in the country. All the Governors of Kentucky have appointed Colonels on their staff, but no state has ever gotten them together before, for a club of this nature.

THIS WEEK'S COVER

. . . colleen is Jo Ann Horden, who reminds you that St. Patrick's Day is just around the corner and you true sons of Erin had best dust off the green ties and shirts to display your great pride. A graduate of Las Vegas High School, Jo Ann is one of the libation toters at the Hotel Sahara . . . She does very well at her hobbies of water skiing and bowling and very definitely announces her ambition is — matrimony. We don't believe this 22 year old lass will have much difficulty with that goal. She just might have a bit of trouble selecting one out of the group of young swains. (Photo by Mares de Vegas.)

Those in attendance at the party were the officers and their wives: William C. Wolf, President; John M. Thompson, Exec. Vice. Pres.; George Heimel, 2nd V. P.; Congressman John Blatnik, 3rd V. P.; Harry Settergren, Sec.; Jim Hartzell, Treasurer and Lyman Walters, Chairman of the Board. Board members are Don De Laria, Phil Smaby, William Frank Jr., Roland Hill and Charles Carey. Other members of the group are the Hon. Karl Rolvaag, Governor of Minnesota, Lt. Gov. Sandy Keith, Congressman Joseph Karth, Congressman Alec Olson, and Bruce Stone, Robert Baltazor, Pat Conroy, Richard Prescott, Howard Hanson and Frank Schiefelbein, as well as Dan Brutger of St. Cloud.

At the business meeting of the colonels, it was decided to charter a plane to attend the Kentucky Derby in May. Reservations have already been made at the Sheraton Hotel in Louisville for the weekend, which will include the Kentucky Colonel, banquet, the Ky. Cols. Barbecue at Anchorage, breakfast at the Governor's mansion in Frankfort and attendance at the Derby and the Pegasus parade, which rivals any parade in the country. A tour of the horse farms is also in the offing.

It is expected that Col. Sanders, who has become so famous of late with his Kentucky Fried Chicken franchises (there are two such places in Las Vegas) will join the Minnesota group for its festivities. Last year, Col. and Mrs. Don De Laria (holder of the franchises for the state of Minnesota) and yours truly were house guests at Colonel and Mrs. Sanders for almost a week, during the Derby festival.

Discussion was also held at the meeting about a chartered trip sometime in the future to Las Vegas. The members of the Minnesota group are among the top business tycoons in the Upper Midwest and they like to play. About the only one that cannot be so classified is your columnist — and the only way he gets into such an august group is to be the instigator and "getter" of the honors, due to his past connections with all the top politicians, Presidents, etc., in the country. Speaking of such people, I'd like to quote from a letter I just received yesterday as follows:

"When I called you on Feb. 3 to thank you for the books you had so kindly sent us, little did I know that in a few days we would again be marveling at the magic of your name and being entertained so elegantly in Las Vegas because of our knowing you.

"Barbara and I did not arrive in Las Vegas until about 11:30 p.m., Feb. 4, and by the time we got into the Lido show at the Stardust, the good seats for the midnight show were, of course, gone, and we were ushered to an out-of-the-way side table. However, since a few minutes remained before the show was to start and you had indicated to me on the phone from Washington that you were forwarding a letter to me at the Stardust, I went to the desk and found your letter waiting for me with many letters of introduction. When I returned and presented the Maitre d' Andre with the letter you had addressed to him in our behalf, we were immediately given a front row center table, from which we enjoyed that great show immensely.

"The following day while at the Tropicana, we were fortunate enough to find Mr. Robert Cannon in and

IF you didn't tune in on Perry Como's TVviewer, March 4, you missed a unique experience with solid talent. The bill starred the tantalizing Lena Horne, pianist Peter Nero (who appeared in the Tropicana Lounge in the recent past) and the inimitable Johnny Puleo with his Harmonica Gang. Bucking the environment of top artistry, we believe that Johnny stole the show. He and his group open at the Stardust Lounge May 21st. We personally invite you to drop by and enjoy them for this is the type of act that inspires sheer appreciation . . . and that's for sure.

Lovely Joy Hodges, femme lead opposite star Milton Berle in "Never Too Late" at the Hotel Sahara, has countless fans who fly in from Hollywood to watch her emote. The talented actress starred in a number of Broadway legit productions, motion pictures in Film, and had her own radio shows in N.Y. and Hollywood.

Handsome George Duckworth, co-owner of the Dunes Hotel, and his stunning bride are currently honeymooning in Honolulu. They are expected to return to FLV in time for the breadwinner to be back at his post, March 15th.

The Flamingo Hotel really threw a press whing-ding Thursday, for the gala opening of two great stars, Trini Lopez and Bill Cosby. What a bill this is! These two will be making many encores, FLV-side.

This Sunday kicks off the first of Sunday matinees — for the kiddies — at the Thunderbird Hotel. We hoped that Gene Detroy and his Marquis Chimps would arrange to perform for the youngsters and so they will. (The hour show kicks off at 2:00 p.m. for an admission charge of $1.00.) "Flying Fingers" Al Morgan interrupts his Tropicana Theatre-Lounge date to etch "Love Is Blue," on the coast. The tune was composed by Frank Sedivy of Chicago.

Well, the management of the Hotel El Cortez certainly believes in authenticity. The sidewalks outside of the bistro will be painted green for St. Patrick's Day. Shure and begorrah, the leprechauns will be cavorting happily on that colored cement!

The Swingin' Lads just closed their stint at Bob and Jake's Supper Club in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and the report is that there wasn't an empty seat for their four-weeker.

New on the market is a Decca single platter, "Goin' Steady," backed with "Never Leave Me," waxed by Ronnie Wallis and the Rajahs. Ronnie is Ruth Wallis' fourteen-year-old daughter and is already making her own impact in this field and on TV. According to the proud, lovely mother, the little beauty looks and sounds like eighteen. Ruth just closed her sock-starring gig in the Lou Walters show in Miami Beach and is taking a brief vacation with her talented family.

Co-owner Charles Rich took us on a Cook's Tour of the Dunes Hotel, revealing its exciting additions. The plans now being executed promise to make this one of the most exquisite bistros. The suites are tastefully appointed and we were especially impressed with the Topaz Room on the second floor. Within sixty days, the "Top of the Strip" will bow on the 24th floor. It will be a sort of "lower level" (in story count only) Rainbow Room, with Russ Morgan and his Orchestra providing the dance rhythms.

The "Watusi" is doing for Stacey Adams what the "Twist" did for Candy Johnson. Stacey heads the show at the Silver Nugget in North Las Vegas and her interpretations of the modern dances are craaaaaazy!

Thirty-two elated persons debarked on their Honolulu vacations at six ayem, March 7th. Sixteen of these were the lucky people who won those free trips to Hawaii during the November hunting contest at the Pioneer Club. The sixteen others? Why, they are the respective wives or husbands of the winners!

Helen Greco and the orchestra arose to the emergency with remarkable poise and showmanship when Spike Jones was too ill to appear on the Showboat Hotel stage. That little gal of Spike's has a capable pair of shoulders and didn't mind being leaned on, in the least. (Have you noticed how the attractive wives of today have shed the clinging vine role, to pitch in and help, whenever necessary? Bless their hearts!)

The Smothers Brothers held a reunion with Jack Paar on his TVviewer, a week ago. When Paar discovered them four years ago, he insisted: "I don't know what you boys have but no one will ever be able to steal it!"

If you're an Ed Sullivan follower, don't be surprised when you see the Stardust's hilarious Novelites on that TVviewer, soon. They taped another guest shot for the smiling Irishman, last time he was in FLV.

The 1965 edition of "The Ziegfeld Follies" unveiled to a huge gathering of Fourth Estaters and V.I.P.'s at the Thunderbird Hotel, March 12, Advance reports on the new Gordon Jenkins songs and the performing talents involved promise this to be another winner.

If you are a connoisseur of good pastry and have missed the pâtisserie available in large metropolitan areas, then don't deprive yourself of another hour away from A Taste of Paris. FLV has long awaited such a tempting addition. Here is cheese cake as cheese cake should be made. When we first arrived here, many years ago, our friends in New York sated our affinity for this delicacy by shipping it out by air. Now, with Guy Pascal's bakery supplying the savory cakes and breads, no one need look elsewhere. Because the demand is greater than the supply, Monsieur Pascal has been forced to order another oven to increase the output. This man is the Rembrandt of the boulangier set.

Delighted to note that Dolores Cartright opened with the Ted Lewis show at the Desert Inn's Lady Luck Lounge, March 9. The chanteuse is a very popular localite. She and her husband (dealer) Jerry are parents of two beautiful daughters. Dolores has a beautiful voice but refrains from any road work, to remain close to the hearth and her family.

Even though there has been much talk around about construction coming to a stop, it really hasn't affected the boys who run the cranes and caterpillars. Seems we run into these implements of progress all over town. If they aren't building out — they are building up. And just try to get your favorite mason to do a fast job for you. You'll find yourself on a wait-

STOP The World I Want To Get Off," the hit at Hollywood's Ivar Theater was exactly "me," when I broke off a piece of my front tooth hours before I was to go onstage as one of the "celebrated cigarette girls of Ida Mayer Cummings Annual Charity Ball" at the Beverly Hilton!

Believe me, this catastrophic incident (and do you have them, too — at such strategic times and all . . .?) shattered me, until I got hold of Dr. Bob Lumsden. He rushed from his Beverly Hills home to his Hollywood office to paste my tooth so I could smile — with tears in my eyes yet! He made the effort so graciously at such an inconvenience, that it made me wonder if your dentist would respond for you so readily. Met the Jan Grippos. He's the famed producer. Anyway, I was able to make the scene, as it were, due to the doctor's kindness. And while you pay money, of course, this was even more, that extra, extra effort beyond the call of regular duty.

Meet two new tremendous stars in "Stop The World": Ray Alex, who plays the Anthony Newley role, and Bea Bradley, a six-foot-two talent who is equally good. She played Vegas in "Bottoms Up." Both are with the Los Angeles Youth Theater Group. Gerald Gordon, the producer-director, is convinced that Hollywood needed an outlet for new young creative talent and he's staging Broadway hits at the Ivar with excellent reviews.

"The Sound of Music" is not only a triumph for 20th Century-Fox Studios, but one of the most beautiful films you'll ever see. In fact, many at the opening at Carthay Circle said they liked it even better than "My Fair Lady." Julie Andrews, Christopher Plummer and the entire cast is fascinating to watch in this colorful story of a family in Austria before the Nazis took over and afterwards, too. The music will resound in your ears, making you feel merry and gay for weeks to come. The scenic grandeur of Austria with its castles, rivers, lakes, mountains and estates are indeed a journey to be jotted down on memory lane. Do see it.

Trini Lopez had the effect of an atomic explosion on Hollywood's oldest and foremost elaborate charity ball!!! Trini has lots of quiet charm, too, I discovered!!!

Mastershowmen Jos Pasternak, Jack Cummings and George Stoll with George Murphy have always staged the ball show for Ida Mayer Cummings, sister of the late great Louis B. Mayer. Jose Iturbi and his sister played twin pianos like out of this world. Bob Hope quipped, "Ida, why me? Why not get Sammy Davis Jr.?" Said Ida, "We aren't going to ask one of our own people to work for free?" (Sammy being Jewish converted by Jerry Lewis.) Yes, small wonder Brigitte Bardot and all of the sex kittens are crazy about Trini's music. Everyone was! Trini told me he starts two pictures following his Las Vegas engagement at the Flamingo: one with Frank Sinatra, and one for 20th Century Fox. Trini's really got "It"—whatever "it" is!

The popularity of a television star of a hit series is amazing! A picture star yes, but television has millions more see him, every week! John Smith was my date, and his first date out since his divorce (course the next week Claudia Cardinale arrived in town to claim him — sigh). Anyway, John, whose "Laramie" had four years on TV, with reruns starting this summer, was mobbed by fans the second we stepped out of his one-week-old Cadillac convertible. The photographers kept him busier than anyone else at the ball. "Yours Truly" was again a cigarette girl (a great honor—for Ida Mayer Cummings initiated "the cigarette girls" with Elizabeth Taylor, Debbie Reynolds, etc. — and starlets and stars vie to be selected). Each year George Murphy as master of ceremonies announced each girl, who walked across the spotlighted stage with great fanfare. However, this year Robert Q. Lewis was the wonderful new M. C. George Murphy, California's new senator (who always keeps his word so wonderfully) flew in from Washington, D. C., for this big annual event. Gee—but everyone is so proud of George and he was presented with a plaque. Well, anyway, I introduced John Smith as "1965 Cigarette Boy." We sold from table to table, and naturally John sold the most — like a couple thousand!! Patti Moore was top girl! Other ciggie girls were Linda Evans (whose date was Pat Wayne), Shirleen Baxter

(with Paul Wallace), Beverly Adams (with Harv Kresky), Carey Foster (with Robert Pine), Marie Wilson (with Bob Fallon) and Marie Windsor (who lost a silver compact inscribed "Runner-Up 1949" — said it was for a skeet-shoot match). More were Myrna Hansen and Alice Roven (one of the Mirisch brothers called me next day saying Alice was star material). The girls were all gorgeous!

George Murphy said making a speech in the Senate is approached like a movie scene. "You begin with an introduction — and you end with the climax." Hollywood is so proud of this wonderful man. Looks like Ronald Reagan is next — for California's governor.

Carroll Baker wired me to come to breakfast the first day of shooting "Harlow" at Paramount. Carroll arrived in a white Rolls, stepped out on a red carpet, (she was wearing a slinky white beaded gown — with nothing underneath, but herself), sat in a white satiny chair with a white velvet pillow and a shower bouquet of mystery gardenias and posed for pictures. Instead of a chummy twosome for us — it was for 200! Carroll took us inside Stage 4 where a champagne and caviar breakfast with strawberries and whipped cream were served at elegant tables decorated with huge giant white carnations. Joe B. Levine and Howard Koch were there. I chatted with Peter Lawford — who plays "Paul Bern," and the handsome Raf Vallone — who plays the pompous stepfather

MOVIES ARE HIGHER THAN EVER: Out at Kennedy International Airport the following quote was duly noted: "Dear, why don't we wait and go back home next week. There's a picture on American Airlines I want to see."

THE EXACT LOCATION: On our way over to dinner at the fashionable Chinese restaurant, Sun Luck East, we realized that our reservation was in a brand new room, which is under Bill Wing's hosting charm. We thought a special entrance was available, so we told our cab to continue on past the Sun Luck East canopy for another twenty feet west to the next extended sign. "Why didn't you say so?" spoke up the wheel man. "You want the Sun Luck Near East!" P. S. When we alighted from the cab we found out it was a dummy entrance. what we wanted, according to the observant cab driver, was "Sun Luck East East."

NIGHT OUT: We stopped in at one of the West Side's most popular places, the Mermaid Room of the Park Sheraton. The attraction here, as always, is two-fold — good food and a fine musical attraction occupying the space on the rotating platform, high above the inside center of the circular bar. Ralf Adams, the M. R.'s manager, told us the note dispenser was Peppi Morreale and his trio; John Lopes a personable captain, suggested the Shrimp and Lobster Pilaff. And in due time we were off to the proverbial races.

The Morreale threesome, Peppi on piano, with bass and drum help, makes for easy listening. It is a perfect lounge act, which accounts for Peppi's popularity in Las Vegas. Surprisingly deft in scat singing, the leader man is much like a combination of Louis Prima, Johnny Hauser of the Whiteman band of the 30's, and Johnny Davis of Mr. Waring's aggregation of another day. Peppi, who works over the black and whites with carefree skill, philosophizes about the receptivity of his own vocals. Said Morreale: "The more you drink, the better we sound."

Chalk one up for Frank Dolan, the Park Sheraton's gregarious executive, who perched Morreale and his boys on the piano carousel, Peppi is a pip. You're just not going to hear "People" or "Time Out For Tears" done any better.

THIS TOWN HAS TOPICS: One of the conservative newspapers turned down a personal ad for the lost and found column. Under "Lost," the advertiser merely wanted to say — "Me," and sign his name and give a phone number . . . Ed Wynn, the most agile 78-year-old gent in show business, was telling us his definition of a pessimist. Giggled Ed in that trademark silly laugh of his: "He's a guy who happened to hear the just concluded radio newscast." . . . One of New York's Finest, a big broth of a bluecoat, was standing on 53rd and Madison Avenue, beefing about a sudden snow flurry, which in a minute turned to rain. "Do you know, it was supposed to be fair today!" he spouted. "Boy, oh, boy, would I just love to give that weatherman a ticket," he continued. "On what grounds?" we asked. "On wet grounds," he snorted . . . Anthony Gilbert, that distinguished veteran barber now at the Sheraton East tonorial parlor, told us about his most unusual customer. "A man came into the shop for a haircut. Immediately I saw he was wearing a toupee. "Give me a two-dollar neck trim," he said, 'but for heaven's sake, don't take a hair off my two hundred dollar top!'"

"The Finest
Nature's Products"

Locker room attendants at the nation's country clubs are a carefully trained lot. One Saturday evening about six, one answered the telephone and a female voice said: "Is my husband still there?"

"No, ma'am," replied the boy promptly.

"How can you say he isn't there before I even tell you who I am?" asked the woman at the other end of the line wrathfully.

"It don't make any difference, lady," said the boy. "They ain't never nobody's husband here!"

A woman went into the office of a cemetery manager and complained, "I can't locate my husband's grave. I know he's buried here."

"What is the name?" the manager asked. "Thomas Jones," she replied. Referring to his card index he said, "Madam, we have no Thomas Jones. We have only an Elizabeth Jones."

"That's him," she exclaimed. "Everything's in my name."

With a wild Latin beat and masses of charm, Lopez has such an impact on audiences that he was called back for more encores than The Beatles, when he was on the same bill with the hairy wonders in Paris. Although he was a smash at P. J.'s in Hollywood, with his swinging, ranging rhythms, Trini is not single faceted — his Spanish folk songs, to his own guitar accompaniment, are charming. Lopez' Las Vegas debut is bound to be some kind of memorable! . . . "A comedian who keeps an audience in stitches," Variety says of Bill Cosby, at the conclusion of four glowing paragraphs devoted to the young comedy star's debut at the hungry i. in San Francisco. He is no "message" comedian. His humor is observingly universal. His eye for the laughs in little things extends from a hilarious bit on a game of street football, to his classics on the perils of driving on San Francisco hills and his interpretation of a conversation between Noah and the Lord. As all his television fans know, Bill Cosby is one of the truly inventive and original talents in show business. . . . The wonderful Lomans, Barbara and Hal, are held over for this great show, much to our delight. is going to present him with a baby. As the wife, Joy Hodges IS a joy, in her slick transformation from the over-worked haus frau into a late-blooming glamour girl who wants to learn the cha cha. . . . The cleverly constructed comedy, written by Sumner Arthur Long and tautly directed by George Abbott, has three intertwining plots — the unplanned pregnancy, the belated maturing of the sponging daughter and son-in-law as a result, and subsequent endangering of the plan for a freeway to run past Berle's lumber yard. . . . Each member of the cast gives a well-rounded performance, with inventive young comedian Anthony Roberts, as the son-in-law, pretty Donna Jean as the daughter, and believable comedienne Kay Elliot, as the wife's confidante, outstanding. Douglas Rutherford, Wally Engelhardt, and Richard McMurray are also fine. . . . The versatile set is convincing as Berle's home, and serves as a perfect background for the hilarious happenings. . . . Unforgettable moments — Berle's reaction to the coming blessed event, and his inebriated cha cha with his son-in-law when life gets too much for them, and they get drunk together. . . . Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick wrote the "Never Too Late Cha Cha." The witty incidental theme is by John Kander. . . . Presented by Stan Irwin, with Elliot Martin and Daniel Hollywood, and production supervision by Wally Peterson, "Never Too Late" is such a fun evening, it could make theatre buffs out of non-playgoers. No stranger to show rooms, however, the glamorous redhead has been receiving fabulous reviews in the nation's elite supper clubs. In addition, the comedienne-singer scores big in motion pictures, such as "The Interns" and, more recently, "The New Interns." Her Sands bow has been eagerly anticipated. . . . Also debuting, as the featured act on the bill, is exciting Lydia Torea and Company. . . . For openers there is a new Renne Stuart production number, featuring F.L.V. favorite Harry Nofal, the talented singer, and the scrumptious dancing Copa Girls. . . . Antonio Morelli and his brilliant complement of musicians

The cast is enormous, in keeping with the extravagance of the production. The world-famous dancing Bluebell Girls are featured and incomparable acts and talented performers include Les Salvadori, a zany troupe of comics, Andree Laurence, the lovely skating star, Dominique and his mystifying pick-pocket routine, skating artists Parker and Powers, Rudy Cardenas, one of the world's foremost juggling geniuses, and the fantastically acrobatic Elwardos. In the circus, Tosca De Lac does frightening aerial feats; the Zemgona Sisters perform on trapezes right over the heads of the audience and, on stage, there are Guerre and his delightful Sea Lions and Klant's ferocious tigers, put through their paces by Rita Luyck. The versatile production singers are Michael Tartel and Win Karish. . . . The magnificent production was conceived by Pierre Louis-Guerin and Rene Fraday, staged by Donn Arden, supervised by Frank Sennes, and fabulously costumed by Folco. . . . Eddie O'Neal and his orchestra smoothly pace the show musically.

Comedians Wick and Brand guest-starred on the third from last Regis Philbin TVviewer, which should arrive here 'long about March 17 (Channel 13).

Following eye surgery, Betty Ozier Glass was released from Sunrise Hospital, recently. The executive Housekeeper at the Desert Inn is actually a landmark at this hotel and the staff is most anxious for her hasty recuperation and return.

Terry Nee, former cocktail waitress at the Sands Hotel, looked at her three children one fine "growing up" day and decided to open her own Tee Nee Children's Shop, supplying apparel and toys for youngsters from tots to teens. It's a very attractive emporium in the new Tropicana Shopping Center, with a stock to satisfy every mother.

While at the Tropicana Shopping Center, we dropped in to chat with Mel Friedman, owner of Jolly Joe's, which boasts an unbelievable collection of magazines and paper backs.

While sitting at the lunch counter with Mel, we discovered this enterprising young fellow is still a bachelor. That's not much of a compliment to the young ladies of FLV, who have allowed this "catch" to get by them. (Must speak with Mel's uncle, George Rosen about this.)

Colbert Fine, son of Prexy Ray Fine of Don the Beachcomber, has joined the staff of the famed restaurant and plans to visit the local Beachcomber in the Hotel Sahara, 'ere long.

Golfers will be intrigued with the new course and club house at the Dunes Hotel. Three lakes, a thousand palm trees and thousands of shrubs adorn the greens. Even though the official opening is expected around May 1st, players are already active here on what may well be termed "The Miracle Mile."

All's well backstage at the Tropicana's "Folies Bergere" since Stage Manager Dave Johnson returned from his week's vacation in San Francisco. The wheel seems to operate more smoothly with every cog in its place.

We bade another sad farewell to another departing friend when Don Kambe passed away, March 5. He was Senior Sales Representative for TWA.

Jan Garber sends along one of the color table cards they are using during his Harrah's - Tahoe engagement and the 70 years young Maestro looks like a kid. Jan and the orchestra move on down to Harrah's-Reno March 18, for a three-weeker.

That Smith gal, known as Keely to her fans and friends, opened for a fast one-weeker at the Vapors Club in Hot Springs, Arkansas, before first-nighting it at Houston's Cork Club, March 25, with Jeff Lewis touring along as her Music Conductor.

It's nice to know that people with limited income are still thought of by those whose services they require. While speaking with Dr. Harry Bernstein, we discovered he provides free eye, ear and nose examinations to patients in this category from six to eight in the evenings, Monday through Thursdays.

FLV newcomer is Irving "Pitt" Litwin, who has joined the executive gaming staff at the Dunes Hotel. Mr. L. owns the well patronized State Flower Shop in Detroit.

After an eight year absence from FLV, Ken Harris was "completely flabbergasted at the tremendous changes. The Stardust was only half finished when our engagement at the Royal Nevada was in progress and the Edsel car was also introduced at that time!" . . . Ken has cut his band down to four men, concentrating on engagements in California.

Before he left town, Sorcar the Magician forwarded some literature that revealed he had been in FLV, awaiting the license grant for the Tally Ho Hotel. Obviously, his other commitments wouldn't permit him to wait any longer than these two or more months and he has packed his troupe and returned to Calcutta. Sorcar has been hailed as one of the greatest of illusionists. He actually saws a woman in half onstage, without any props or box encasing the woman. You actually see the saw whirl across the table on which the assistant lies and see both halves removed. Of course, we know how it's done but it sounds quite gory, doesn't it. Sorcar was signed by Sidney Maclaine, who caught the act in Calcutta. Somehow, we feel FLV has missed a great experience, with the departure of this mystical one.

Johnny Denis and Netta Rogers, our own balladeers, are having a time in Vancouver, where they are featured with Van Johnson at the Cave Supper Club. The three of them are being partied all over town, following their nightly performances. Seems people stay up late in British Columbia, too . . . and that's for sure.

Defense Secretary McNamara tells of a departmental aid who heard another aid talking to himself. "Let's face it," said the first aid, "you're nuts."

"But talking to myself doesn't make me crazy," protested the other.

"No," the first one said, "That doesn't, but you even listen."

A single girl arrived at work and began passing out cigars and candy bedecked with blue ribbons. Puzzled, her co-workers asked the occasion. As she proudly displayed the solitaires on her third finger, left, she announced: "It's a boy — 6 feet tall, and 185 pounds."

Preparing to take off on one of his overseas flights to entertain the GIs, Bob Hope was filling out a required form which included the question: "In case of accident, whom do you wish notified?" He thought a moment, then wrote, "Louella Parsons."

SNUG AS A BUG WITH A DRUG

Bugs are smarter than people. At least they learn from experience, whereas human beings keep making the same mistakes generation after generation. Meantime, the battle between Man and Bug is a continuous seesaw, and there are even wide seasonal fluctuations. In summer both farmer and suburban gardener attack with vigor when things are in the open and they can actually see the whites of the enemy's eggs. In winter the fight is more difficult because the bugs are invisible, except under a microscope, and few of us carry microscopes.

Scientists keep eternally researching, and often appear to be making progress, but as deadlier insecticides are developed only the weaker bugs are killed off. A few with the greatest stamina survive and prosper. This is known as "Improvement Of The Species." After assimilating the poisons, the bugs learn to thrive on them. In this respect they resemble people, some of whom develop an ability to consume lethal quantities of alcohol and nicotine.

Eventual solution to the bug problem may lie in this direction—or the reverse. If we could get bugs addicted to something like Strontium 90 and then withhold the strontium, it might drive them crazy (i.e. put them permanently in the Bughouse). Other theories now being tried include interfering with their sex life, exposure to supersonic sound waves, feeding of tranquilizers, inducing neuroses, etc. So far, however, the clever little buggers seem to be able to take these things in stride.

One school of thought, admittedly reactionary, is concerned lest this tinkering disrupt the normal balance of nature. These people believe the best strategy is to fight fire with fire. We should encourage "good bugs" to become strong enough to clobber the "bad bugs" in sort of a ground level eye for an eye philosophy. There are no doubt dangers in this just as in alliances among nations. If the good bugs destroy all the bad ones, they will need a new target—perhaps us. Any volunteers?
