Birthday- Anniversary Corner

February 5th is the Natal Day of Allan Fontenot, Faro dealer at the Stardust Hotel . . . Mrs. Al "Andy" Gilbert also receives her birthday wishes on this date. She's the adopted Godmother of T.V. personality, Jack Kogan . . . Congratulations to Katy and Joe Lebeau for their 55th Wedding Anniversary, February 5th. They are the parents of our printers, Saul and Sam, owners of Lebeau Printing Company in Phoenix . . . Tony Atchley, the tireless Publicity Director of Hotel Thunderbird, adds another birthday candle, February 6th . . . Jake Kozloff has his special annual celebration, February 8th. He owns several gaming centers in Aruba, West Indies . . . February 9th marks the Natal Day of Jackie Fields, casino host at Hotel Tropicana and Flo Williams, Manager of the Wm. Baer Fur Salon at Hotel Tropicana . . . Michael Corday, former owner of the Beauty Salon at the Desert Inn, celebrates his birthday, February 10th . . . College student Judy Gianoulakis (daughter of Pat and Bob) receives her birthday wishes February 11th . . . Barbara Grasso blows out thirteen birthday candles, also on February 11th . . . Our sincere congratulations to all our celebrants, with fondest wishes for good health and many years of happiness . . . and that's for sure.

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

FLASH: I predict that a communist daily newspaper will be underwritten by American tax dollars for the continuance of the freedom of speech! The main objector will be the Catholic Church, later to be joined by the American Legion, the PTA, colleges, universities and many, many millions of Americans! . . . I predict that the greatest box office festival for the dying movie houses will be the delightful films of the late Jeanette MacDonald! There is never anything corny about good taste! . . . I predict that the next strike will be the nurses, interns, dentists and doctors, on a nationwide basis which will not set too well with the American public! . . . I predict that many "influence peddlers" who are not American citizens will be deported by the authorities within the next 30 days! This will be uncovered through the S.E.C. and will be a blot on our easy-going international laws! . . . I predict that the motorcycle will be the new rage of the middle-aged this summer, with the growing total of highway accidents and deaths! A new type of driver's license will be required for this new fad!

FORBIDDEN PREDICTIONS

I predict that Death, the proud brother, will strike at the Supreme Court, and through this empty bench, Governor Faubus of Arkansas will be elevated to that high post! . . . I predict that all of the metal coins of our realm will be replaced by currency of different colors. European nations have found that currency is much better for smaller denominations, and our nation will be forced to follow this example! . . . I predict that all stocks and bonds must carry a serial number given by our Treasury Department which will prohibit shady manipulations and bucket shop operations! Even private issues must be registered to the correct owner for tax purposes! . . . I predict that a head tax will soon be voted by Congress in an effort to gain more tax returns, as any one who does not own property walks away not paying school tax! Many millions of people openly boast they do not pay income tax of any kind, and through the head tax (every man and woman over 16) this will soon be remedied! Our Treasury is destitute and the non-tax payers must pay up! . . . I predict that every man, woman and child who is on welfare must carry an identification card with them at all times so they can be kept from collecting twice or even three times! When anyone is caught, he must pay the back welfare he dishonestly claimed, or go to work, or to jail! One tax payer supports Nine on welfare in many areas of our nation, and this will be stopped under a new federal law!

BEYOND THE HORIZON

I predict that all letters and post cards will carry a new six-cent postage stamp which will take the place of the airmail, and postage will all be One Class! With the zip-code address, mail will be speeded up 100%! There will not be any second class or third class/bulk postage, except for newspapers, magazines and catalogs over 100 pages! . . . I predict that the darkened screens on home television sets will start to worry the Networks! Many good programs were cast aside for rock-and-roll-teen-age carnivals which do not attract a single buyer of the sponsor's product! One national program with "key" advertising of a special price for a cosmetic soap sold seven bars in 48 states! Not only did the program have few viewers, but the viewers were all too young to need a cosmetic soap! Watch the Networks join the swing to programs which attract the adults who buy — not the thin audience of teen agers who have no network or sponsor loyalty! You can expect Madison Avenue to rewrite the history of TV! . . . I predict that many newspapers and magazines will combine publications and print shops, due to the rising costs, just to stay publishing! I predict that New York City will have two newspapers, one morning and one in the afternoon, to follow the example of Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago and New Orleans! . . . I predict that the White House will soon announce a double wedding for June, 1966!

NEWSLETTER 1966

I predict that the key word for 1966, no matter who denies it, will be INFLATION! Here is what is in store for you: I predict that your withholding on your paycheck will rise to 43% . . . which you will be asked to pay before you earn it by a pre-collection method . . . you will not be able to take "sick-leave" from your job unless you are sick and have a doctor's note diagnosing your illness . . . you will be asked to donate one month's salary to your union for the coming costs of the planned nationwide strikes in transportation, shipping, communication, food preparation and raising, for the coming battle will be long and costly to all . . . the draft will take many of the protesting beatniks out of circulation, along with many civil rights workers for the growing trouble in Vietnam . . . the merging of the ultra-liberal with the red-liberal in many areas of dispute where labor and welfare are concerned . . . the welfare system will be overhauled and no money will be given but only food stamps and rent coupons, to stop the flow of 87c out of every welfare dollar going for liquor, gambling and non-essentials . . . the flood of for-threatens to be a Las Vegas outlet around February 25, when the show bills herald the stars who frequently encore the FLV scene. . . . On February 24, Frank Sinatra takes over the Fontainebleau. . . . "Tonight's" Johnny Carson will be setting a show biz precedent with his date at the Eden Roc. In order to maintain his nocturnal TV viewers, Carson will play the Roc on February 25-26-27 and return again . . . just for the following weekend. . . . Bobby Darin will be at the Floridian city this month, as well as Milton Berle, The Dunhills, The Dukes of Dixieland . . . and other FLV performers. A February trip to the Beach will assure you a proxy trip to FLV . . . and that's for sure.

Phil Harris, playing to "Philled" rooms nightly at the Desert Inn (with a talent-packed show that includes the gifted Kim Sisters), delighted opening-nighters when he introduced his ever-beautiful Alice Faye, topping the intro with the teaser, "I wish you'd go to work, Alice!" Their lovely daughter Alice was also on hand to cheer on old dad, one of the powerhouses of the stage.

Wick and Brand, comedy stars of the Thunderbird's "C'est La Femme," think it's sad about the cowboy who had to see a psychiatrist. At his home on the range, he never hears anything but discouraging words.

Don't forget to attend that Annual Heart Award Dinner being given by the local Variety Club Tent No. 39, at the Sands Hotel, February 14th.

Everyone seems to be floundering over the reason that Sammy Davis, Jr. has had various friends pinch-hitting for him in moderating his own TV viewer. When Sammy contracted for that recent ABC special, the small print prohibited his appearing on any other network for weeks surrounding the telecast. As a result, his NBC show has been piloted by other luminaries. Catch Sean Connery directing the activities on February 12th.

That Baseball Celebrity Golf Tournament kicks off at the Dunes Hotel, February 15th. The event will draw top baseball names and sports writers from all over the country.

Patrons of family shows are saluting the wholesome, entertaining frolic at the Hotel Sahara, featuring members of the King Family and comedian Jack Durant.

Xavier Cugat put on an exhibition of his paintings in the Flamingo's Candlelight Room, during his gig in the Driftwood Room. One of his paintings had just been completed the morning of the opening. The Latin maestro's past experience as a caricaturist for the Ellay Times reflected in the wit of his paintings, all collector's items. "Coogie" did so well, he now has to expend much effort to prepare new canvases for his New York showing.

Over at the Fremont Hotel, Joni James and her husband, Tony Aquaviva wax enthusiastically over their two youngsters. They adopted the children in Rome and, from our humble observation, we feel that theirs is now a truly blessed household.

Guy Lombardo and Helen O'Connell's Tropicana opening created a maddening crush in the Blue Room. The constant applause was enough to set off an automatic fire alarm.

Johnny Denis and Netta Rogers overheard one cat purr to another, "She's so biting, she doesn't clean her teeth . . . she just sharpens them."

During their last mink coat giveaway, the Hotel El Cortez was caught unprepared when their average-size coat was too large for the petite victor. This time, they had both the average-size and the petite model, when the winner approached to claim her prize . . . all six feet of her. . . . Next trip . . . things will be different.

Phil Ahn, the popular actor who is Honorary Mayor of Panorama City (Calif.) and owner of the Moongate Restaurant, returned to the coast, raving about the shows he took in here. . . . He expects his mother to be showered with birthday cards when she celebrates her 84th soon. The little lady is as highly regarded as her son.

"Doc Adams" flew into town, just for this week-end. . . . Milburn Stone (of "Gunsmoke" fame) arrived to award the grand prize in the Hotel Thunderbird's "Houseparty" contest.

The Courtesy Cuties at the Pioneer Club want to make certain no one will forget the proximity of Valentine's Day . . . They're wearing some mighty fetching hearts, these days.

Maestro Jan Garber literally enriches his audiences with music. According to his long-time buddy Vincent Lopez, the Garber band plays thirty-eight numbers in the first set alone! Pretty titian-tressed singer Linda Ware is a big plus on the vocals.

Joann Puleo writes she has formed a new corporation and has acquired a roster of new acts to book across the country.

Comedian Corbett Monica is looking forward to working on his own TViewer, when he completes his current gig with Steve Lawrence, at the Sands Hotel.

The final curtain rang down on another dear friend, when a heart attack proved fatal to Karl Maier. At the time, Karl was a Pit Boss at the Stardust Hotel. It can be truly said of him that he hadn't any enemies in this world . . . a fitting epitaph. Our condolences to his widow, Betty M.

Congratulatory notes are being received by Joe Rollo, recently appointed Entertainment Director for Milton Prell's Aladdin Hotel. The energetic chap was in show business himself, and developed more public awareness in his handling of Don Rickles (as the comedian's west coast manager). Add our felicitations to that mountain, J. R.

Another happy flash is the recent election of Joe Kelley to the post of Prexy of the Showboat Hotel Corporation. He has been with the 'Boat since it bowed on the local scene. Longtime FLVites will also remember him from his previous associations with the Hotels El Rancho, Last Frontier and El Cortez.

Talk about timing . . . Joyce Carol is a recent addition to the Thunderbird's Sales Department staff and is also the number one fan of the Four Freshmen. Since learning the F. F. open at the 'Bird on February 11th Joyce can barely contain herself. You can bet she'll be at their rehearsals, in between dictation and transcripts.

Before they closed out of the Fremont Hotel, the Clara Ward Singers informed us they were heading for New York, to cut an album for M.G.M. .

Looks like a red letter month for Gloria Tracy, the Tropicana La Fontaine harpist lovely, with her new Hanna-Barbera vocal single in release, her H-B instrumental album dittoing, and another Art Linkletter "House Party" TViewer guest shot for February 14th.

During the finale of the "Fun Lounge Revue" at the Silver Nugget, the gals invade the audience and select patrons to join them onstage in the "Watusi," "Frug," etc.

It's distressing to learn that Flo Brown is seriously ill. Wife of producer Jan Grippo, Flo has been on the Hollywood scene for many years and has countless friends praying for her recovery.

House Speaker John McCormack requested that an American flag be raised over the Capitol Dome on January 28, saluting the patriotic production of "Hello America" at the Desert Inn (second edition of which springboards March 1st). The same banner will be sent to the Inn, to be featured in "America's" finale.

Actress Ann Margret flew into chef at the White House quit and I don't blame him. Have you ever tasted crepes suzette with barbecue sauce? I'm not knocking barbecue sauce, but in Texas, if you can taste the meat, someone goofed. Thanks to barbecue sauce, nobody ever learns how to cook in Texas. This stuff has covered up more mistakes than a maternity bridal gown.

In Texas, everything is served smothered in barbecue sauce — and that's a horrible way to go. Down there, the aspirin doesn't race the Bufferin to get into the bloodstream. It just races to get out of the stomach, period. Sometimes I wonder if they really like barbecue sauce or they're just hooked on Tums.

Actually, barbecue sauce is known by many names. In Vietnam, it's called Napalm. Rumor has it that Texas is now officially declared a disaster area. Not by Washington, by Duncan Hines. This is the only state where he has to ask for volunteers.

Speaking of Duncan Hines, if he were alive to dine at the newly-opened Greek Village out at Paradise Road and Tropicana, he'd have to do more than give them his seal of approval. He'd have to erect a monument. Some places where you eat serve good food and some serve really excellent food. The Greek Village, with its exotic atmosphere, goes a step farther. They serve the kind of food you need to use poetry to describe.

PERSPICACIOUS PREDICTIONS

I predict that the following fearless forecasts will not vaguely beat around the bush, but name names and pull no punches . . . Mary Worth will play an important behind-the-scenes role in foiling Duke Ford . . . Harold Gray will not get anywhere with his simple, folkey plea for a change in farm policy . . . The Sahara will develop its own internal ad campaigns rather than deal with a regular agency.

By LARRY LING

I predict that a "Strip" casino will soon turn belly up. . . . I predict that next year's "Playboy Jazz Poll" will really feature outstanding musicians—like, maybe, Buddy Lester on trumpet and Sal Mineo on drums . . . I further predict that Playboy will cover this year's Helldorado and the Helldorado Queen will be featured in the mag (I just predict—you have to figure for yourself which ones are looks into the future and which are tongue-in-cheek).

I predict the Weinburg agency will start handling the Riviera's advertising. . . . I predict Steve Novak will avenge an earlier defeat by whipping Bix Porter. . . . Two of the Sands Copa Girls will be axed for parking their cars where they shouldn't have oughta. A third will win her appeal by proving the car wasn't hers. . . . The Korean Kittens will become one of the hottest acts in Vegas. They've got all the ingredients. . . . Jack Eglash will produce a revue for the soon-to-be-opened Caesar's Palace.

PICTURE PLUGS

picked up a few assorted pieces of metal and the tendency to giggle during war movies. "The Battle of the Bulge" is an exception. It kept me on the edge of my seat from beginning to end. The only thing that kept it from being perfect was that the director, like all Hollywood directors, insisted on choreographing the dying. Guys, when they get hit, just don't throw their hands skyward, spin, and stretch out in a dramatic sprawl.

George Ballan is fast becoming the most popular custom tailor in town. Shows good clothes sense on the part of our locals. . . . Phil Harris will miss the Mardi Gras for the first time since he learned the difference between corn squeezin's and Jack Daniels. His current clambake at the D. I. is the best yet. . . . Guy Lombardo will cut a new Capitol album at United, while he's in town for his hit Trop Blue Room gig.

GARY LEWIS

threw a party at The Other Place, located next door to a super market, which is the new "in" membership discotheque to rival the longer established, The Daisy — which caters to celebrities who like to "Jerk," "Frug," "Watusi," and do whatever they do in the dim lighted spots, to canned music.

Gary's fans stood outside to watch. Patti (Mrs. Jerry) Lewis in a chinchilla sports coat ($25,000.00 anyway) was departing as I arrived. She is petite and slim. She looks more like a girl friend than a mom, except Patti doesn't believe in dye jobs, and being a natural Italian mother to a family by a Jewish father, lets the gray come naturally in her dark hair. "I'm going over to pick up a yellow Rolls Royce," she laughed. "Imagine the Jerry Lewises with a yellow Rolls! Jerry is taping the Sammy Davis, Jr. TV Show tonight, and he called me just now — that Sammy made him a present of a yellow Rolls, and for me to come and get it."

Inside, Gary (who is a half-a-millionaire, with five straight hit records since the first "Diamond Ring" for Capitol) was as brushed, combed, and groomed as like no twenty-year-old you ever saw. Some of his guests like Lee Majors with Patti Chandler, wore open shirts, and sports clothes. While a girl with ironed-blond hair she could sit on was wearing bare "mid-rift" orange silk pajamas, and did the wildest bumps and grinds, that would make even a veteran ring-sider at a Burlesque house — blush, due to the naive innocence of her face. She was the floor show! Since nobody knew her, she was referred to as a "nobody."

More were Cynthia Lim of television's "Hogan's Heroes," Pat Priest, the normal girl in "The Munsters," Linda Foster, who was dating Eddie Fisher came with Chris George, a new young flirt from John Wayne's newly completed Paramount movie. And there were Yvonne Craig, once Elvis Presley's steady, and April Stevens with Nino Tempo.

Gary introduced a beautiful eye-tiling Hawaiian eighteen-year-old Miss Joanne Okiona, who had flown here as winner of an all-Hawaiian Island beauty contest, and whose No. 1 prize was a date with her idol Gary Lewis.

"I've already taken her out," Gary whispered. And proving that the male prerogative is still "The Hunter," he added, "I came without a date, and it's a real drag." Had Gary spotted Joanne for himself, he would have been more eager. Other males with roving eyes kept "Miss Hawaii" very busy on the dance floor, but her eyes were still beamed in one direction: Gary Lewis.

Jerry Lewis, I'll bet, never dreamed he'd have a "sex-symbol-hero-1966-style" as his eldest son. Nor that he'd become a-half-a-millionaire the first year he tried show business. Jerry once told me that when he was courting Patti, who was a girl singer with a band, he was playing vaudeville houses at two to four dollars a show. He'd scurry on the subway all over Brooklyn and New York trying to do at least three a night so he could buy Patti a dozen American beauty roses at one dollar per — even if he had to go hungry to do it. Jerry, at seventeen, had talked Patti into matrimony. Everyone said it would never last.

"The greatest thing I've ever seen in Las Vegas!" exclaimed one opening nighter of Phil Harris's Desert Inn tour de force, and it's a fact that the handsome big man from the south does put on a whale of a show, his potent personality enhancing every bit of it. V.I.P. LOUNGE — Jan. 20 thru Paul Dino; Charlie Shaffer Quintet, with Dianne Elliott.

Paul Dino and Charlie Shaffer, both popular El Cortez headliners, share the bill this time for a very V.I.P. attraction for the V.I.P. Lounge. . . . Dino bears a remarkable resemblance to Frankie Laine, and he also does a nifty impression of him. Musicwise, Paul and his group play in a delightful contemporary style. . . . Charlie Shaffer and his Quintet can whale with the best of 'em, and they have another asset named Dianne Elliott, the very pretty and talented singer.

CASINO DE PARIS SHOWROOM — Dec. 29, 1965 thru?

"Casino de Paris," all new 1966 edition, starring Jacqueline Douguet, Lena Pastor, Marlene Charell, and Chuck Dodds. Featuring The Ayalons, Tovarich Troupe, The Cardenas, Eva Trio, Rudas Dancers, Szony and Claire, Tanya, the Elephant, with Jenda Smaha, Bernard Chareyron, Ballets des Champs Elysees, and cast of 100. Bill Reddie Orch.

PERSIAN ROOM

"Vive Les Girls!" — new 1966 edition; Mickey Turner; Sasha Semenoff Quartet.

SULTAN'S TABLE

Arturo Romero and his Magic Violins; June de Toth; Sasha Semenoff Quartet.

TOP O' THE STRIP

Freddy Martin Orch.; Art and Dotty Todd; Sandra Karol, with Gerald Linden.

The second edition of "Casino de Paris" is a two million dollar production that looks like a couple of billion. With the same sure-fire ingredients, presented in a fresh way, that made a two year hit of the first edition, the new extravaganza is a cinch for a long, capacity run. . . . From its inspired opening electronic credits, spectacle is piled on spectacle — from scenes of opulent beauty, such as the Opera, and Carnival Brazilian, to an exciting Tartar raid, and the most exciting Russian dancing ever seen here. . . . The stars are four talented performers—luscious Jacqueline Douguet, a superb dancer, fine songstress Lena Pastor, multi-gifted Marlene Charell, and handsome singer Chuck Dodds. . . . The top-notch international acts include The Ayalons, an Israeli song 'n' comedy quartet, the Tovarich (Continued on Page 21)

adorable, and she is such a gifted comedienne she plays the role to a fare-thee-well, with expert counter-pointing by handsome co-star Max Showalter, as the man she sets her pretty cap for. Based on Thornton

Talented Karl Carson and the hilarious Goofers head up the fun. The lively Tres Rebertes spice remarkable acrobatics with comedy, and the exciting Flamenco team of Cruz Luna and Paco Juanas thrill with their latin terp artistry. . . . Principals are Marie José, gorgeous, wearing little but becoming accessories, handsome and accomplished singer Gary Marshall, versatile singer-dancer Bonnie Baker, and superb dancer Michel Stany. . . . The Frederic Apcar production, inventively staged and choreographed by Ron Lewis, has eye-popping avant garde costumes, from skin-tight geometric capris with a burst of feathers, and fabulous brocade ensembles, to sort of streamlined Dr. Dentons, transparent and covered with rhinestones, the inspired creations of Jose Luis Vinas. . . . Bill Reddie's tuneful musical score is played with verve by the Earl Green Orchestra.

HOLLYWOOD

By ROLAND HILL

ONE OF THE greatest pieces of news to reach my ears lately concerns the introduction of a hotel and restaurant school at Southern Nevada University. I understand the hotels on the "Strip" have underwritten the expenses of this new school and it is to get underway shortly. I can think of nothing that is needed more, not only in Las Vegas but in the entire country. As prices soar, the service gets poorer and poorer and the food worse and worse in the majority of spots catering to the public in the food and lodging lines. Funny, I never hear of a banker, lawyer, doctor, hardware man or an undertaker complaining about his help, but just the minute you complain of service in a hotel, motel or restaurant, the manager or owner throws up his hands and yells it is the fault of the help. Hogwash! It usually is the fault of the owner who refuses to treat his help as normal human beings and refuses to pay them a decent wage so that they must live by their tips, and why we should pay that class of help their wages through tips and not the others has always been a mystery to me.

I only wish I were looking for a job. I would surely apply for a teaching job at this new school, because I feel I know as much as anyone about what kind of an education a waiter, waitress, bus boy, maitre d' or chef should have. However, I understand Dr. Meek is coming from the East to get it started. He has built himself a great reputation at Cornell University in New York. I believe he retired from there several years ago. Dr. Meek is a dynamic, though diminutive person, and was always the life of the party at every hotel convention I ever had the privilege to attend.

Here's a tip to you gals — better polish up your dancing shoes, because I never saw a person enjoy dancing any more than Dr. Meek. He danced continually (every dance) at every convention.

There are three good restaurant and hotel schools that I am aware of in this country — Denver University, Michigan State and Cornell University. There may be more, but the rest are on the local side. Miami, Florida has a good one for its own Dade County residents and Long Beach, California runs a fairly comprehensive school at its vocational high school level, and that is it. I may be wrong.

I believe the reason that nearly two million Americans go abroad every year is because of the service and food they get in the restaurants in any country outside of our own. They literally get sick of seeing a waitress come with menus and napkins tucked up under her arm pits and her arms laden with salads, plates, knives and forks, and the entree, all served in one fell-swoop, literally sweeping all off her two outstretched arms almost into the customers lap. Every restaurant, be it small or large, in Europe, gives Continental service; service that almost makes you weep because it is so thoughtful, careful and graceful. You can count the places in this country on your ten fingers that give that kind of service.

Why it is such a sin for waiters and waitresses in this country to even use a tray, let alone a cart to serve food, I will never understand. Just watch a waitress at the sideboard or serving table, painfully stack everything she is to serve on her arms. Why couldn't she make two or three short trips instead? Ask them sometime. And another sin of theirs. Why, oh why do they leave your dirty plate in front of you, instead of removing it when they see you are finished? They make several empty trips to the kitchen when they could just as well be carrying some of your used dishes and utensils and save themselves time and energy at the same time. Another thing, why doesn't anyone ever think to brush the crumbs off your table between courses? And it certainly doesn't cost much to serve a finger bowl, especially when serving fried chicken. I know for a fact that a waitress or waiter who takes the time and has the courtesy to deftly lay your napkin across your lap gains a much greater tip — at least from me and I know plenty of others who feel the same way. Same goes for individual servings of rolls or bread.

I know people get tired of us "oldsters," always harping about the good old days, but believe me, the good old days regarding restaurants and hotels were so far superior to ours today — the million dollar establishments notwithstanding — that it makes one sick just to think of it. Today, we have chrome, polish, gilt and all, but with poor service and poorer foods, and little or no tradition in the decor of the newer places. Oh to get back to the days when everything was served at the tables and not dished up (thrown together) by some belligerent chef in the kitchen.

Tragedy occurred the other evening in St. Paul when all the floats for its Winter Carnival (coming up this week) burned up in a half million dollar warehouse fire, where the floats were being built.

what of a cliché to say that she "sings up a storm," that she does. Whether she is melodiously asking "Why Don't You Believe Me?" or belting "Hey, Good Looking," she looks and sounds not only good but great. Miss James is a joyous addition to our town's big time show business roster. . . . Her husband, Tony Aquaviva, conducts for the star's turn . . . Male stellar singer on the bill is Brook Benton, who also struts the stuff that has made him such a big recording favorite. Personable, and with a nifty way with a song, he gets mucho applause for his program including, of course, his witty "Boll Weevil" hit. Brook's a natural for any ace entertainment spot . . . It's great to have Buddy Lester on hand again. He is faster 'n' funnier than ever. The audience greets his inventive comedy material with continuous roars, especially his classic hat routine and hilarious "Africa" segment, casting quite a light on the Dark Continent. Buddy's trumpet contest with one of the musicians is a risible wow . . . The versatile Rhythm Kings, with their songs and slick footwork, are a whopping asset to this fine show backed with flair by Nat Brandwynne and his orchestra.

MIGHTY MIXTURE

By GARY STEVENS

1967 RUBBLE: The great history of New York hotel life is being written swiftly and hardly by anthropologists. The chop chop men are swinging the sledge hammers and iron balls in the name of progress (?) and down comes another landmark. Next year, as the announcement states, the Hotel Astor will be carefully crushed and gutted. In its place will be another shapeless edifice. The theory of raze and rise apparently takes precedence over renovate and preserve. Anyway, Times Square (which doesn't have the Times Building at this writing) will lose a world famous hotel. Compared to an operation of a human, let's say the Broadway belt is having a kidney removed. Innumerable changes in town are yet to come; time and hungry real estate men wait for no one. As for the passing of the Astor, we'll remember it well. Columnists Ed Sullivan and Frank Farrell lived there. After Durante moved to California, it was always his home in town. West Point Kaydets, grown men now, grandfathers some, will always revere those week-ends in town after the big football games — thanks to some extended Astor hospitality. Bob Christenberry, N.Y.'s Post Office chief, once a candidate for Mayor, was the manager of the hostelry for a good many years. Arturo Toscanini stayed there and we recall vividly one Spring evening as the maestro sat at a window table up on the Roof listening intently as Tommy Dorsey made beautiful sounds on the trombone. And who among us will forget the drug store in its heyday where every aspiring, starving actor lingered over "coffee and —," waiting to be discovered. Many a small time agent used a phone booth for an office.

There is no jubilation in this corner now that the Hotel Astor is going to come down. What a perfect meeting place — that lobby. The ballroom was home to some of the best social functions we've had in this century.

Forgive us for waxing sentimental. There was no intent to become maudlin. We wanted to go on record while the hotel was still brick and girders, to make the point that the Astor was something more than a passage way between 44th and 45th Streets.

EAT TREAT: Sixty years ago Mamma Leone started something — really started something. A restaurant was opened, a legend was born. For as long as we can pinpoint it, Leone's has been a tourist's haven. The quality of the food, the variety of the sources and the enormousness of the portions, plus an extremely just dinner price certainly attracted. The casa on West 48th Street is a sprawling wonderment. Six dining rooms are actually twelve. There's an upstairs and a downstairs. Private parties are a specialty. All told, some 1,500 persons can be served at one time in the loco citato.

Mamma Leone's, under Bruno Bernabo's direction, clings to the thematic policy of the time-honored famous dinner: The plate of celery, olives, tomatoes, green peppers, scallions and the famous house cheese (like a marriage of Swiss and Provolone) is offered with the placement of utensils and napkins. After that comes the march of the Antipasti: Melon with Prosciutto, salami, shrimp, eggplant, stuffed tomato, mushrooms and maybe six more are the temptations set before you. Then the dinner proceeds to the pasta course. It comes down to individual preference. One man's Spaghetti is another gent's Ziti. And our table wants Clam sauce and your crowd loves Marinara.

All of which leads to the main course, fish or meat. The former has items like Baked Italian Squid and Broiled Red Snapper; the latter department covers Veal Cutlet Parmigiana and Chicken Tetrazzini, plus perhaps ten or twelve more. The end is in sight after desserts like Zuppa Inglese or Cannoli. The Italian delight, Bugie, comes to every table. Coffee or Caffé Espresso, of course. All around Leone's the art is plentiful. One moment your eyes are admiring a statue. Another glance a few feet either way will have you gazing upon a striking painting. Tables are visited by a band of musicians. The trio honors requests as though you were Mastroianni and she was Signor Ponti's Sophia.

In February, the annual "Carnevale," a regular pre-Lenten celebration will take over for nine days. Much music, bright lights, tarantella dancers and excessive feasting. So, unrivaled spirit is assured at Leone's during this pageant.

Mamma Leone's, just west of Broadway on 48th Street, is open for dinner and supper six days a week. Sunday has a dinner only policy, but it runs from early afternoon to the shank of the evening.

Two words are used in the title of the restaurant — Mamma Leone's. Two words best describe an evening there — delicious and memorable.

all new, starts at a peak and builds from there. With masterful timing, flawless rhythm, that fine voice, and telling dramatic ability, he makes every song a many splendored thing. His "World On A String" — "Yesterday" medley knocks us out, as does his trademark "Mack the Knife" and hit record recap. A top impressionist, Bobby is fabulous, carboning over two dozen stars, and his guitar fun spot is another gem. But it's not all fun and games with Darin — he can and does move one to a lump-in-the-throat state with his acapella "Brother, Can You Spare A Dime." This, school mates, is a star, in every good sense of the word . . . Charming comedian Bobby Ramsen, a longtime Vegas favorite, has an entirely new act and, much as we loved him before, we feel he is hitting a great new high with it. He neatly and hilariously weaves together bits on New York apartments, television, and European tours — "fifteen days and twenty-five countries" — for overlapping screams . . . The amazing Rudenko Brothers amusingly prove that they can do just about anything in the juggling department, from expertly tossing around flaming torches, to their almost unbelievable blindfold-leapfrog stunt, while keeping the Indian clubs aфlying . . . The whole exciting bash, a sure winner for the hotel, is backed stylishly by the Russ Black Orchestra, with Richard Wess conducting for Bobby Darin.

musical comedy has a fine, funny book by Michael Stewart, and is cast with such superb company it is a constant delight . . . Top honors go to Arthur Bartow and Danny Lockin, as two very funny bumpkins learning big city ways, and to all the rest of the splendid performers including June Helmers, Billie Hayes, Judy Jenson, Richard Hermany, Patricia Sauers, Duane Morris, and Eddie Hanley . . . All are talented actors, singers, and dancers . . . Direction and choreography by brilliant Gower Champion are outstanding, and prompt constant excited exclamations from the audience . . . The tuneful musical score, played stylishly by the Jack Cathcart Orchestra, is highlighted by the spine-tingling title song, and "Before The Parade Passes By" . . . Costuming by Freddy Wittop, and settings by Oliver Smith, are inspired. . . The production is as close to faultless as is humanly possible in our opinion, and it should be a smash hit for the Riviera for many months to come.

Cousins, one boy, Ric, and four girls, Jamie, Candy, Cathy, and Tina. Adding to the family affair are famed guitarist Alvino Rey, Alyce King's husband, and Marilyn King's husband Kent Larsen, conductor for the girls. The stunning sisters, long one of the favorite gal vocal quartets, get huge response to their tuneful blend, and to the witty way they spoof well-known femme singers, including kidding their own hit songs. The lively Cousins, appealing and talented as the dickens in their numbers, do their share of spoofing, aiming it at youthful difficulties. . . . Rey's electric guitar also scores in such ear-pleasing numbers as "Stardust" and "Granada." . . . Jack Durant, much admired for his infectious comedy attitude, keeps the house howling as he tosses out one liners and gags at such a fast pace the resultant laughs overlap each other, milked by his "You, too, sir?" to roaring ringsiders. He also includes his Clark Gable impression, startling the audience with the physical likeness. . . . The wild watusi "The Wildest," a Paul Steffen dance production, featuring a handsome, swivel-hipped company, opens the show, a good bet for all age groups. . . . Louis Basil's swinging orchestra backs effectively.

seen on the tube. This, too, was due to Steve's warm charm and talent. Not only is he a fine popular singer — he has four Gold Records and an octet of successful albums to prove it — but his personality is so pleasing that he wins friends and influences people the moment he appears. Lawrence has been a special Las Vegas favorite since he debuted at the Sands four years ago, and we are grateful Broadway finally relinquished him so we can see and hear him again in person. . . . Corbett Monica is another performer dear to our town, where he is considered a sort of adopted son. In the past few seasons, Corb has also won a huge national following as a result of his many appearances on television, as a comedy-actor on the Joey Bishop Show, and as a stand-up comedian and personality on most of the major variety and interview shows. He is scheduled to star in his own t.v. series in the near future. Basing his funny night club act on truisms, Monica gets roars with his witty comments on situations encountered in everyday life. His ability as an actor points up the material for superb comic effect. . . . After a month in the Celebrity Theatre, popular production singer Harry Nofal, and the comely Copa Girls, are back in a new song 'n' dance number choreographed by Renne Stuart. . . . The bill is backed by Antonio Morelli and his orchestra. . . . To be reviewed next week.

GOING HOLLYWOOD

Gary is the eldest of six sons, these twenty odd years later.

I've known actor Ronald Reagan since I was sixteen and first came to Hollywood. You could never know a finer, more honest and upright citizen. So it made me kind of sad, being the sensitive type, to hear some at a dinner, plan how the opposition party must destroy Reagan's character before the June Primaries in his race for the governorship of the state. The money-power machines of politics, have investigated Ronald, and finding really nothing, are blowing up just anything to undo him, like "ego"! What male succeeds without self-confidence? Of course, the old cliche "he's an actor" is also going into the scandal. George Murphy, a fellow actor and California senator, made it, and is proving his credentials!

Sergio Franco comes into the world Famous Cocoanut Grove as today's great tenor. At a new Hollywood restaurant, Small World Improtium, is an Italian tenor with a voice like Sergio Franco's. His name is Ray Mondi, and he told me he's just here from Italy to try his luck! "I sing as many as thirty-six songs a night," he sighed, "in the hope, of course, of discovery."

Singers with real legit-God-given voices had the toughest row to hoe, as Grandpapa used to say. Perhaps God shouldn't have been so good to them, and they might have turned up to be swingers and rock 'n roll singers with record hits, to make them millions. Anyway, the sandwiches are very good at Small World, and accompanied by his young brother, Mr. Mondi sings his heart out, until he gets on that glory road to fame. Except, I didn't see any movie or television producers there to discover him!

Here and There: Mr. Frederic Rossif has made a movie "To Die In Spain," which he's dedicated to the war correspondents, the journalists and reporters who died there doing their job with pen and camera, which made this actual, visual film of civil war possible. You see it between 1936 and 1939, a thousand years of Spanish history shattered, and a million lives perish in the bloody conflict of men fired by the cause of liberty or of nationalism. This is the fight to the death without any quarter being taken or given.

The present generation who didn't read about it in the newspapers, will see history in reality, the agony and the beauty that was Spain's; it's tug of war within, to the volunteers of the International Brigades to Hitler's crack candor legion and Franco taking over. "Mourir a Madrid" makes you think. It opens February 11th at the Beverly Canon in Beverly Hills.

Here and There and Everywhere: Mia Farrow and Nancy Sinatra, have become friends. They flew together in Frank Sinatra's plane to Las Vegas, and sat at ringside dateless, waiting for Frank to join them after the show.

. . . George C. Scott, who gave Ava Gardner such a bad time with their romance, has arrived in Hollywood, sans wife, to join Tony Curtis and Virna Lisi in Warner's "Not With My Wife, You Don't." And everyone's wondering who he'll date now, and what will happen! While Michael Cain, long, lean, and lanky and looking more like a school teacher, has the girls in Movie Town aflame. But Natalie Wood has him most.

Saw Hedy Lamarr, who's cut her hair short and dyed it bright red to make her movie comeback at Paramount. That is, if her temperament, which has kept her out of pictures these many years, doesn't come back, too. . . . Omar Shariff has an ulcer to celebrate his success. Perhaps that, too, is caused by his dating every beauty in town and leaving his wife at home on the desert sands of Araby. She is objecting. . . . Martha Raye, back from four months of morale-boosting our boys in Vietnam, says she can't afford it, but she's going back. Along with Kay Francis and the late Carol Landis, Martha entertained the boys in World War II. The girls made a movie about their experiences based on their book entitled, "Four Jills and a Jeep." Do you recall who the fourth Jill was? I don't. Methinks Martha is writing another book.

And that's Hollywood!

It is always best not to tell people your troubles. Half of them are not interested, and the other half are glad you are getting what's coming to you.

CRISWELL PREDICTS

sign-made goods from the Iron Curtain Nations will alarm the American Manufacturers and the Union Members as well, who will direct a plea to the White House to curb this job-robbing movement . . . that a famed drug company will soon market a complete line of products for only 10c on the $1.00 in an effort to stave off medicare and the new medicare plan for free medicine for everybody!

A VERY FAMOUS PREDICTION

On the eve of November 21, 1963, a full moon excited the inmates of a mental hospital near Los Angeles, causing them to weep and moan over the death of the President! The patients were twelve hours ahead with their grief, as President Kennedy did not meet his death until the next day at noon! This has often happened the day before a famous person expired, like a pre-announcement of the death! The day before King George V died, a London shopkeeper closed his doors with this announcement on the window! The Sunday before the late Evita Peron expired, thousands of women knelt in the streets in prayers for her soul, and the illness was kept most secret! Yes, at the full of the moon, the perception is high of death to come!

THE AGE OF INNOCENCE

I predict that you and I are very much concerned about other nations in the world, and our real concern should rightfully be the coming dangers of outer space! Our Scientists are very much worried, and my friend, if they are worried, you and I should be terrified! It is not the people who inhabit the earth we should fear, but those who live beneath the earth! Many tribes have vanished from the face of the earth, and even our most conservative scientists feel they have gone underneath the surface for survival! Could the old wives' tale of the sea people, the cave people, the mountain people and the air people be true after all?

THINGS TO COME

I predict that Canadian Doctors will seek the power of life or death over an unborn child by having complete decision as to an abortion! The Doctors, even in America, declare that an abortion is a medical property not a moral one! You can expect a stern revolt from the Church on this very matter! . . . I predict that five million Negroes who now are employed on farms south of the Mason-Dixon will plan to move into Canada under the new Agricultural Plan! This new and startling turn of events will result in the Negro placing a new evaluation on his skills! . . . I predict that a growing crisis on the East Coast as to water supply will reach a peak in July when the entire area will be classed as a disaster area! . . . I predict that behind the stately halls of Congress will brew the largest and deadliest scandal since Teapot Dome! The good name of the White House will be dragged through the mire and muck of petty politics! Why must our Leaders permit such a thing to happen right under the capitol dome?

Are Your Public Relations Showing

One of the new "wonder drugs" currently in great demand is a magic cure-all known as Public Relations. As we rather dimly understand the term, public relations is (or are) good for what ails you — whether anything does or not. You may be doing all right but the chances are you are doing it wrong — like the awkward golfer who nevertheless manages to break par.

Basically, the PR formula is a simple one: either do what people like — or make them like what you do. The main thing is to SMILE, SMILE, SMILE, prolifically and perpetually, despite pain or provocation. Most PR smiles fall into these classifications: (1) the ingratiating grin, (2) the self-conscious smirk, (3) the gruesome grimace, (4) the labored leer, (5) the fluttery fawn, (6) the girlish giggle, (7) the booming bellow, (8) the flashing fangs.

When properly conditioned, you will spend most of your time thanking people for doing things they get well paid for doing anyway — or thanking them for thanking you for the same thing. This can go on indefinitely — and does.

Winning and keeping friends is no longer a casual matter of nature taking its course. You must really work at it, or hire it done. Everything, from politics to love-making, now calls for a carefully planned public relations "campaign". Even public relations firms employ public relations experts to help them become more glamorous than other public relations firms.

Of course, there is more to public relations than gimmicks and grinning — although this may be news to some of the medicine men now at large. What you are selling must be worth selling, including yourself. The temptation is always great not only to gild the lily but to try to deodorize the skunk. Building up incompetents and whitewashing scoundrels are perversions of the public relations concept.

Public relations, in our book, is the Golden Rule with a sense of humor — and a sense of responsibility. It should start with some honest soul-searching and develop into a relationship of mutual trust. Without sincerity, it is pure fraud. Quacks and glib promoters should be encouraged to employ their talents elsewhere.
