Birthday- Anniversary Corner

FABULOUS birthday wishes to Norm Ryden, Cashier at the Pioneer Club, for his March 5th celebration . . . March 6th is the Natal Day of talented violinist, Russ Cantor. His group, The Stringettes, are currently appearing in the Riviera Hotel's Starlight Theatre . . . Delightful Dawn Grasso blows out one birthday candle, March 8th. Her Mother, Eleanor is Assistant to Jack Entratter and Dad, Tony is a dealer at the Sands Hotel . . . Elias Atol of the Riviera Hotel, has his special annual celebration, March 9th . . . Keely Smith receives her birthday wishes March 9th and her daughter, Toni Elizabeth will have her 11th Natal Day the same date . . . Joan and Joe Anzalone (owners of Ogden Manor Apartments) celebrate their 26th Wedding Anniversary, March 9th . . . Shirley and Hal Perry (Casino Cashier at Hotel Tropicana) also toast their Wedding Anniversary, March 9th — this will be their 5th celebration. Rounding out the March 9th festivities will be the addition of another wedding celebration in the home of Rita and Joe Petrecca . . . Adding another birthday candle on March 11th will be Cecil Gallagher, Boxman at the Fremont Hotel; Orlie Hyden, Manager of the Savoy Motor Hotel; and singing star, Gordon MacRae . . . Our sincere congratulations to all our celebrants, with fondest wishes for good health and many years of happiness . . . and that's for sure.

CRISWELL PREDICTS

An Accurate Glimpse of the Future

FLASH PREDICTIONS

Flash: I predict that the Civil Rights Demonstrators will imitate the Dukors of Canada by parading al fresco this summer! The Freedomites of Canada gained much in this manner! Chicago will be the first target of this certain arrow! Wait and see! . . . I predict that Quail be in legal season in many parts of the nation for the first time in history! . . . I predict that Wall Street will be very pleased when a certain brokerage firm is disbanded and removes itself to Canada! (Just barely escaping prosecution!) . . . I predict that in the case of a certain civil rights leader, "disent" will prove to be "treason" and a conviction will follow soon! . . . I predict that Texas will soon operate another "poll tax" but in a different manner and highly legal! . . . I predict that "Peyton Place" will be shocked when one of the major characters commits suicide in a most unusual manner! . . . I predict that the "Hollywood Palace" will have the highest ratings of all variety shows on TV by late summer! . . . I predict that Florida will publish the findings that all of the tax money collected from Negro taxpayers only equals one tenth of the present welfare cost, a fact that will be very highly publicized by the Liberals for sympathy! . . . I predict that the income of the Negro areas will advance 27% thru a new drive for jobs, better housing and public health! Yes, flash predictions which will help to change your life!

FORBIDDEN PREDICTIONS

I predict that the bride of the year 1966 will be Rachel Mussolini, the widow of the late Italian Dictator . . . that a famed Diplomat will die from a social disease by late spring . . . that Clementine Churchill will cancel half of her lectures from poor response in Canada . . . that the Third Grade School Art Class will paint from live figure models, under the "Head Start" program, privately administered in some areas . . . that the Peace Corps will be quietly recalled from seven nations as "undesirable" and "unwanted" and will be replaced with privately financed missionaries from our Churches . . . that the star of Madame Nehru of India will be ill-fated thru her red liberal attitudes and her communist bosses within the Indian Government . . . that a bitter backstage battle will rage at the Metropolitan Opera Company in New York over the affections of a famous singer . . . that the fatal ravaging of a famed Senator's daughter in Washington, D.C., will soon hit the front pages of your favorite newspaper . . . that the quiet divorce and remarriage of a famous Hostess will be kept undercover until the child is born . . . that a potent drug, once taken, will cure alcoholism, once and for all . . . that the new spray-on wigs will be the next delight for both men and women! A one dollar spray bottle will give you ten wigs! . . . and that a new instant-developer will give you 8mm movies in your home in 10 seconds!

YOUR FABULOUS FUTURE

I predict that the time will soon come when you will be awakened by a silent siren, tuned to your inner ear, to which you will respond as does an animal! You will soon be a numbered card in an automated file with your complete history, medical, personal, family, education, wealth, taxes, likes and dislikes, mental rating and abilities punched in little holes, so that in three seconds anyone can find out all about you any place in the country!

THE FRANKLIN MINT

February 17, 1966

Mr. Jack Cortez
1210 Stewart Ave.
Las Vegas, Nevada

Dear Mr. Cortez:

It gives me great pleasure to inform you that, in recognition of your outstanding service to the State of Nevada and to its resort and gaming industries, the Board of Directors of the Franklin Mint has unanimously decided to present you with a complete proof set, in pure silver, of the 1965 Dollar Gaming Tokens produced by the Franklin Mint for Nevada Gaming Casinos.

This set is one of a limited edition of 500 complete proof sets minted under the authorization of the 27 individual casinos represented and with the approval of the State Gaming Control Board. The selection of the recipients of these sets, however, is the sole prerogative of the Board of Directors of the Franklin Mint.

We hope you will enjoy this unique collection.

Sincerely yours,

Gilroy Roberts

Has the Police Department investigated that rumor concerning the tragic auto accident that involved teenagers? It's alleged that one of the victims had a gunshot wound, which might have been accidentally inflicted at a recreation area. If true, this indicates that the wounded boy was being rushed back for assistance . . . contrary to the belief that recklessness inspired the speed. . . The public should be informed . . . and that's for sure.

Spoke with comedian Marty Allen (the "Hello dere!" kid) at the Sands, immediately after he received confirmation that he and partner Steve Rossi's second stellar feature film will roll in June. Their first, "The Last of the Secret Agents," is causing much reaction in the industry. The latest, naturally a comedy, presents Allen and Rossi in living color . . . and they're lively ones! These pix aren't quickies but have lengthy shooting skeds, with over a million dollars invested in each.

Another Criswell prediction has materialized. Within the past six months, our oracle advised the day would come when the government would have salary checks sent directly to the bank. Well, the U. S. Chiefs have distributed a release, advising government employees this arrangement is now available . . . It's only the beginning of Criswell's prophetic declaration that this will eventually take a more general turn.

We feel quite honored to have been chosen one of "The Five Hundred" of the State of Nevada. In this issue, we have reprinted a letter from Mr. Gilroy Roberts, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Franklin Mint. Its contents gave us a tremendous lift, and the proof coin album is the finest gift we could have received, in celebration of our twentieth year of publishing. Our set (No. 60) designates us as a "Distinguished Citizen of Nevada," for which we are humbly grateful . . . and for which we extend profound gratitude.

Sue Carson and Rip Taylor really walked into a sparkling showcase (for their talents) when they opened in the second edition of the Desert Inn's "Hello America."

Televiewers were literally stunned when Jim Nabors revealed that rich voice on Danny Thomas' special TVviewer last month. Some who missed the revelation had their introduction to Nabors' vocal ability when he sang with Sam Melchionne's Orchestra at Don the Beachcomber (Hotel Sahara), last week. Whaaaaat a voice!

Sure would be interesting to have the network relay some of Melvin Belli's telecasts into FLV from the coast.

More about Tanya, that educated elephant who is doing a FABULOUS job of p.r. for the Dunes Hotel. The gifted mastadon is also set to appear on Walt Disney's "Wonderful World of Color" TVviewer. . . . She's a steady attraction in "Casino de Paris."

Enchanting, indeed, is Milton Prell's Aladdin Hotel. Had a sudden thought on the three different show bills that will be presented nightly. We can just see our charming show reviewer Mary Rettig covering all three in one night . . . and then trying to come up with a collection of adjectives to vary her description of each. . . . That's a tough assignment for the same boite! . . . but our gal has grey matter she's been storing for such an emergency!

It really pays to be a "Funny Girl." . . . Lucille Ball is rumored to have inked a million-dollar-a-month (12 straight) pact with C.B.S.

As of March 9th (Wednesday), Top of the Mint patrons will be dancing to "Sugar Blues" and a lot of other swingin' musical numbers, when trumpet ace Clyde McCoy mounts the bandstand for an eight-weeker.

At the Flamingo Hotel, publicist Dick Odessky patted us on the back, saying we just might be credited with getting that signal light up at Flamingo Road (on the "Strip"), after all our years of crusading for traffic lights in that area. . . . May this be the first of many! (Amen!)

Bobby Wick and Ray Brand (in the Thunderbird's "C'est La Femme") think modern kids are quite precocious. When a certain grandmathe asked one youngster if she'd like to go to the circus, the moppet sighed. . . . "O.K. If it will amuse you."

The Hotel Tropicana's Blue Room is upping the count of powerhouse attractions. They'll dual-threat with Tommy Sands, Jackie Gayle and Maynard Ferguson, alternating with George Shearing and his jazz group. . . . come April 26th.

Question of the nation. . . . Where will the "Champ" be when they play the National Anthem?

Erstwhile FLVite Leonard A. Turi, Veep of Datacon (Chicago), arrived for the Accounting Machine convention at the Sand Hotel. Between meetings, Turi renewed acquaintance with many localites.

Don't breathe a word of it. . . . but our Managing Editor flips over Buddy Hackett's humor. (He's currently co-starring at the Hotel Sahara with Sergio Franchi.)

Actress Mona Bruns, returning to the coast from a New York conference with Young and Rubicam exec Allen Potter, stopped off to visit with Sue Evans and Jerry Mandell, currently at the Dunes Hotel. She then returned East to begin a contract engagement in the NBC daily TVviewer, "Another World." (In private life, Mona is Mrs. Frank Thomas, Sr.)

You've got to feel a little sorry for President Johnson. Somehow I just can't picture anyone going up to George Washington as he climbed into that boat on the Delaware River, and saying: "Do you realize this could escalate the war?"

Seriously, I think it's wonderful the way L.B.J. has compromised between the Doves and the Hawks. Like, we've resumed the bombings—but we're not going to aim. If someone hits an ammunition dump—they have to go back and apologize. I'm a little worried, though, about the way we keep sending more of our troops to Vietnam. It's going to be embarrassing if Cuba attacks and we have to ask Bermuda for help.

Basically, there are three major groups in Washington. The Hawks, the Doves, and the largest group of all—the Parakeets. They don't know what's going on — they just repeat everything they hear.

In this time of crisis, the entire world is watching President Johnson. And the entire country is watching Batman. Hey, I just had a great idea for a new TV series. Roosterman—sort of a chicken Batman.

ABC's got it made with their new Batshow. Their only problem is someone's going to look at Batman and say: "A nice strong boy like that, how come he's not in the army?" Actually, this is no problem 'cause Batman suffers from a very serious impediment—his acting. It's so bad I got a card the other day reading: "An acting lesson has been sent to Batman in your name." The biggest thing Batman has done, though, is enable us to progress, in only one TV season, from Camp Runnamuck to run amuk camp.

PEOPLE, THINGS, AND PLUGS
Did you hear about the Chimp that had to pay dues to A.G.V.A.? When he was too old to work, his owner tried to put him in the A.G.V.A. Old Performers Home. They wouldn't take him because he wasn't sixty-five. The owner tried to point out that, in monkey age, he was over sixty-five. But you know how adamant A.G.V.A. can be.

You can catch Pat Cooper at the Fremont as often as you want. He does a different show every night. . . . George Ballan, the custom tailor, is probably the only tailor in the world who's flown at Mach-Two. He used to be a test pilot.

The Collins Kids, who just closed another sock Stardust stint, will work their way around the world before they return FLVside. . . . The Korean Kittens have been held over at the T'bird. . . . Myron Cohen was surprised last week by a visit from Herb Fritz, who's the father of the Smothers Brothers' manager Ken Fritz. Herb Fritz and Myron spent over an hour reminiscing about the days when they were both piece goods salesmen.

The Curtis Brothers closed out their Flamingo gig, amid numerous statements that they're the strongest opening act ever to appear there. . . . Mike Price tried to get jet set favorite Clitoria Caliente on his TV show the Consuelo de Bonzo is "Senora Los Angeles." Of course, our popular Mayor Samuel Yorty's wife is the official First Lady of the City. And there is Deputy Mayor Eleanor Chambers, one of the most loved and popular women in our City of the Angels, who also bears that title. But over the thirty-six years that this brown eyed Senora de Bonzo has owned and operated the famed La Golondrina Restaurant and Night Club on Olvero Street — she, too, is a First Lady of Los Angeles! And one permanently so, in spite of any change in city administrations (although the whole citizenry hopes the present one, the best one to date, goes on and on as witnessed by the last landslide election). First Ladies come and go, while Senora de Bonzo continues.

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

This column was honored to attend the dinner Fiesta Mardi Gras for the Los Angeles City Commissioners at La Golondrina. Such dancing, singing and gayety, no one has ever seen this side of the Rio in Brazil. There was a beautiful queen and her king, and even men from outer space who said, "On the moon we eat beans and tortillas!"

Conchita Pignatelli, famed socialite and civic leader, and Dorothy Moore, the Mayor's chic secretary, and all of the city fathers were present; except Eleanor and our Mayor, both bedded with the flue bug which has claimed, in a week, almost 200,000 Los Angelinos.

Leo Carillo, former Sheriff Gene Biscailuz and Consuelo's portraits in oil, decorate the walls of this delightful spot on the Walk of the Angels, the first and oldest street in Los Angeles. The brick and tile is lined with taco stands, art and gift shops, fortune tellers, museums, etc., all operated by Mexicans in their native costumes.

Consuelo's Mardi Gras celebrated

all of those who are and have been working to preserve and restore the birth place and historic buildings that were the beginning of the big bustling third largest city in this nation today. And no one has been more active and more dedicated than this little Mexican lady, who retains the bloom of a flower — one of the miracles, as does Dolores Del Rio and so many of the beautiful Mexican women today.

The fireplace in La Golondrina recalled the night Jack Dempsey took me there to dine. "Can we have a fire in the hearth?" I asked. The waiter said, "We have no wood. But no matter . . ." He picked up the nearest chair, broke it up and put it in the fireplace. And soon we had a roaring fire . . . Was I awed!!!! I still am!

Hugh O'Brian, one of today's highly successful motion picture and television stars, as well as being a most eligible and charming bachelor, can remember only a few years back when it was really tough going; when he was making the rounds of studios and little theatre circuits—trying to get a start! That's why, he said, he wants to put something back into the business which has given him so much. Hugh is sincere, for he has gone down into his pocket to dish out $500.00 annual awards for the Theatre Arts Department at the University of California at Los Angeles, to competing players. The money award not only encourages the winners, but may help them to continue their studies, or even provide their bread and butter while they, too, make the weary rounds of casting, directors, and studios — trying to get that magic chance.

The second annual competition was again held in the Playhouse at MacGowan Hall on the UCLA Campus. Those who are interested in theatre (Continued on Page 31)

"Shout, Baby, Shout"; The Contrasts.

The Fun Lounge of the Silver Nugget, a mecca for both North and South Las Vegans, has a brand new show "Shout, Baby, Shout" with a cast of fourteen, including the bevy of beauties for which the Club is noted. The fast-moving frolic was especially staged by George Simone and choreographed by Lon Fontaine. . . . Between productions, the swiging Contrasts, so popular they have been held over, play for your listening pleasure. . . . The Fun Lounge is an ideal place for entertainment seekers who like both a production show and music.

"C'est La Femme," starring Anni Anderson, featuring Bobby Wick and Ray Brand, with R. V. Brand Orch.; The Four Freshmen and Sue Raney; Korean Kittens; Alan Haven; Karen Leigh Trio; Tony Lovello Revue; Maori Hi-Quins.

"C'est La Femme" is an entertainment bargain for showgoers. Production and costuming in the no cover, no minimum show are first rate. Presented twice nightly, it is a tasteful, adults-only frolic. In addition to some two dozen lively boy and girl dancers, shapely showgirls, and scantily clad models, a talented company of pera swinging song seller. He has a wealth of clever material, self-penned and created, and it fits the Carter style, and his audiences, like the well known glove. Since he also keeps it freshened with new goodies each trip, no crystal ball will aid me in predicting what he's up to this time around, but this Jack will keep you royally entertained with one of the fastest-paced acts on the boards. He is a master showman. . . . Barbara McNair, a great beauty as well as a polished singing star, is — at last — in Las Vegas. Much to our disappointment, her last engagement here was cancelled due to illness, but we are now given the opportunity of seeing and hearing what has prompted all those rave reviews from coast to coast. Miss McNair's songalog embraces show tunes, probably most praised of all her numbers, blues, ballads, and novelty ditties. She is at home with all of them, according to reports, and home free with the crowd. . . . An act, new to us, bearing the provocative name David and Goliath, opens the show with muscular and balancing feats. If they live up to the legend of their name-alikes, this is a pair to see! . . . Russ Black and his fine musical crew back the entire production, to be reviewed next week.

This has been a busy week. Highlight being the banquet held by the National Conference of Christians & Jews Monday night at the Mint Hotel. It was attended by some 200 of the elite of Las Vegas. Dr. H. Rettig was the mastermind of this affair and did an excellent job. His lovely wife, Mary (our own show-reviewer for Fabulous) was one of the prettiest of the fairer sex, and there were many. The banquet was to honor Del Webb but the flu had struck him down in Phoenix, so he had to have his speech read by an associate in his Corporation. It was like old home week for me. Among those I got a chance to visit with were Chet Gonce, Ray Sheffer (how does he stay so young and handsome all these years), Jack Walsh (what a friend he has been since the days when I lived at his Nevada Biltmore Hotel, just after the war), Stan Irwin, Ruby Kolod, Percy Villa, Bob Rohlman, Father Caviglia, Johnny Romero, Nick Naff, Ray Culley, Parry Thomas, Chic Hecht, Rabbi Aaron Gold, Randy McElhone, John D. Johnson, Sam Boyd, Dr. Chas. West, Johnnie Wilson, Doris Rhymer (Las Vegas' first Maitre d' at the old El Rancho), and many, many, more.

Enjoyed the Fish Fry at the Red Fox Tavern in the Holiday Inn last Friday, with my friend Eddie Kujawa who, with his friend, Danny Miller, is coming out with a sensational new sun-tan product that is going to be marketed all over the Southland. Maizie Foulds plays the piano here and does a beautiful job. Her husband is the Chef at the Aladdin, and they hail from British Columbia, via many, many detours. Maizie was with Mme. Rose and her Revue, way back when both Gypsy Rose and June Havoc were also members. When most gals age a bit and go to doing a single at the piano they think they must become risque to be good, but not Maizie — just sings and plays nostalgia to the 'nth degree. I recommend this cozy and lush spot highly.

After hearing so much about the Silver Nugget in North Vegas, I decided to have a look-see, and was pleasantly surprised and entertained for an entire evening, starting with an excellent meal (the special of the day for just $1.45 for everything from soup to dessert) in the beautiful and quiet dining salon. Enjoyed playing the new Cuban imported game of Black Jack, with four decks of cards. I had played it at the Habana Hilton Hotel in Havana when I was last there during the takeover of Castro. A few days later, had to flee for my life. Some of the dealers here at the Silver Nugget are direct from Cuba. Especially enjoyed the girl-dealers. They are beautiful, refined, courteous, and not aggressive. Sharon Zamora is a striking blonde who just this week married her "teacher at dealing" Lefty Moffett from up the street at Terry's Nugget. Another nice dealer was Mary Ann Stern. If you don't enjoy this new game, then there is something wrong. I think it is much better than the one deck deal and I predict it will become the rage of the "Strip" soon. Handsome Mike Rovinsky is the Managing Director of the Silver Nugget and another friend of mine, Irvin Fink, is a Pit Boss. I first knew Irvin when the Dunes opened, way back when. Ed Kover, a restaurateur who has no peer, is in charge of all the food here and Bobby Lasoff is Casino Manager. A darned good staff if you ask me.

Enjoyed a quick visit with Gene Delmont of the Flamingo at the Catholic Shrine on Desert Inn Road after Mass last Sunday. Also a belated visit with another old friend, Jess Kirk at the Silver Slipper. Had gone in there to have one of their famous Smorgasbords, but the lineup just was too long. Hope to see Jess back in at a showroom of one of the new hotels soon. He belongs there, where he can meet and greet his great number of friends. He is one of the best Maitre d's I have ever known. He and I once attended Irene Wright's wedding (at Joan Hays' home) to one of Jess's Captains at the Sands when Wilbur Clark and Gene Murphy furnished the wedding, cake, music, flowers and the works. It was a gala affair. Irene was Gene's secretary and is now with an advertising firm in Chicago.

Saddest part of my week was the funeral of Major Riddle's son Chuck last Saturday at the Palm Mortuary. What a shame for a boy so young to be taken. The flowers were absolutely beautiful, and the sermon in excellent taste. The Mortuary was packed and many could not get in. My heart goes out to the Riddle family in their sadness. He was a nice lad.

Enjoyed a nice visit with a fine fellow, Ron Everett of Burbank, California, who was with a group of guys and girls from California on their return trip from skiing in Utah. He is with IBM and is just finishing his training, with Uncle breathing down his neck. What a shame there has to be a war to take our youth without even giving them a chance to get themselves settled for life. This Viet Nam thing has me baffled as it has everyone else, I guess. It all seems so useless, and when we have done with it, another war will start in some other far off place for us not to understand any better. And speaking of Viet Nam, was chatting at the Fremont with my old and good friend, Ken King dealing 21. Next to me was a youngster and his parents. He was Nick Karkula and he is in the Air Force in Tucson. I started talking to them because I thought it was so wonderful for a mother and dad and son to be getting along so well and having such a good time, and Nick told me he had just returned from his second hitch in Viet Nam. I looked at him closely and could almost see that his apparent happiness here was hiding much in the way of sadness and sufferings from his long stint of fighting. Wish all families could get along as well as this one from Chandler, Arizona.

Breakfast one morning at the Mint with Percy Villa was most enjoyable. John Johnson, the Administrative Assistant, came by and visited, as did his Asst. mgr. of food, Johnnie Wilson — a swell gal, efficient as all get out. Food is very good here. Another fine breakfast with my old friend Leo Massaro, owner of the Golden Gate was equally enjoyable. Was amazed to find the Sal Sagev done over so exquisitely. Leo brought me up-to-date on his many travels to Europe and on his family in California, where his son is a banker in Redding. Leo has two grandchildren who are the apples of their grandparents' eyes. He introduced me to Abe Miller and his sister Mrs. Helen Nuget. They own this hotel, as well as the lush El Trovatore, and the Ramada Inn Motels down in Kingman. Jack Farrell was also in the dining room. The Golden Gate is a jumping casino and popular with the local trade as well as the tourists who come by bus and train. I wish more of the guests in the "Strip" Hotels would find their way down to Glitter Gulch, because they would enjoy it very much, same as I do. Drop in for the best darned shrimp cocktail any afternoon and have a drink. You'll be glad you did.

Tuesday evening a long-time friend, Doug Delling, a black jack dealer at the Dunes, his mother (who teaches in the elementary schools here in town), and I enjoyed an evening at the Alpine Village. Was sorry that Hershel and Dora Leverton were not there, but they were having a night off. This restaurant is truly one of the most beautiful in this part of the country, very different, and with excellent cuisine. The waiters, all dressed in Bavarian costumes and liederhosen, are well trained, efficient and most courteous. Al Day, the accordionist, plays excellent music and strolls among the guests. After we had our dinner, we went into the charming little cocktail lounge for an after dinner drink and Joe Kriechbaumer danced for us. He used to be in the "Lido" show at the Stardust and when that show group returned to France, he decided to stay on here, finding employment at the Alpine. His wife dances at the Tropicana. Lovely Anna Pennington, cocktail waitress, sang for us. Her rendition of "Lily Marlene" delighted me. That was all we heard in the foxholes of North Africa during the war, where the German gal broadcast that beautiful number every night and all we GI's listened to Radio Berlin instead of the American broadcasts.

Had a very nice visit with an old friend, Joe Digles who is the Editor of the Review Journal. Was good reminiscing with him — look forward to having cockeails with him soon at the Press Club Car — we are both members. Was good meeting Bob Burdick, the new publicity man at the Desert Inn. He comes here from the Chargers Football pro team, owned by my good friends, Barron Hilton. Kitty White, John Hays, Mrs. Le Veaux and others took time out to say hello in the Executive offices of the DI. Breakfast with handsome Dick Kanellis and Fred Lanquette at Milton Prell's Aladdin was most enjoyable. Had a quick look-see at this elegant spot, which will soon take its place among the great hotels of Las Vegas. More about that later.

With the same sure-fire ingredients, presented in a fresh way, that made a two year hit of the first edition, the new extravaganza is a cinch for a long, capacity run. . . . The exceptional international acts include the fantastic and very funny unicycle feats of The Volantes, the Tovarich Troupe, five shapely blondes in a remarkable balancing act, the Cardenas, a man and woman in such surprising stunts as a head-to-head spin, the Eva Trio in aerial acrobatics, the marvelous, precision Rudas Dancers, the superb dance team of Szony and Claire, and adorable baby elephant Tanya, performing expertly under the direction of Jenda Smaha. . . . Featured in the cast of 100 are Les Plus Beaux Mannequins de Paris, dancer Bernard Chareyron, Les Neuf Bon Vivants, Patricia Craig, Ballet des Champs Elysées, Enrico Medini, and Les Quatre Cossagues. . . . Top credits to Frederic Aparcar for his brilliant production and direction, to choreographer Ron Lewis for the marvelous dancing numbers, and especially to Jose Luis Vinas, creator of the most inventive, lavish, and sensational costumes we have ever seen. . . . The Bill Reddie Orchestra backs this spectacle of spectacles with tuneful original music by Reddie.

Principals are Marie José, gorgeous, wearing little but becoming accessories, handsome and accomplished singer Gary Marshall, versatile singer-dancer Bonnie Baker, and superb dancer Michel Stany. The tongue-in-cheek "Red Riding Hood" riot, of an earlier edition, has been revived by popular request. . . . The Frederic Aparcar production, inventively staged and choreographed by Ron Lewis, has eye-popping avant garde costumes, from skin-tight geometric capris with a burst of feathers, and fabulous brocade ensembles, to sort of streamlined Dr. Dentons, transparent and covered with rhinestones, the inspired creations of Jose Luis Vinas. . . . Bill Reddie's tuneful musical score is played with verve by the Earl Green Orchestra. —Mary Rettig talented addition to Las Vegas stellar regulars. Vivacious, with a lovely figure, she presents song 'n' dance numbers ranging from a strong "You And The Night And The Music" to a frolicsome "Tiptoe Through The Tulips." She pairs with terper Jimmy Sisco for a charming dance spoof on the "Red Shoes" ballet, and for some catchy, watusi-type hoofing. . . . Miss Wyler's smart act was directed and choreographed by Jonathon Lucas. . . . The excellent voice of Joe Williams is an ear-pleasing treat in a well-balanced songalog of some ten numbers. The recording star's full, resonant tones do more than justice to such varied chansons as "That Face," "Hallelujah I Just Love Her So," and a moving "Old Man River." . . . Attractive comedian Pat Cooper insures his being on the laugh scene a long time by bringing in mucho new and funny material this trip. Although his fans no doubt expect him to do his Italian wedding gem, he fools 'em, yet they can't possibly complain when Pat's so rib-tickling with this monologue. . . . Hal and Barbara Loman, such Vegas favorites they were held over eight weeks their last appearance in town, are in superb dancing form. The outrageously good-looking husband-wife team cap their turn with a brilliant "West Side Story" terp fest, for huge response. . . . He is unpredictable, happily, varying his material from outing to outing, but of all his stories the one we most hope he will repeat is his saga of a nocturnal journey searching for delicacies for his expectant bride, a shining comedy gem of gems. . . . Franchi has everything going for him to make women palpitate, but fortunately he is so virile he also charms their escorts. He has the good looks of a handsome matador, and a voice that does full justice to an aria, a show tune, or a special material number. Credited by no less an authority than Mr. Frank Sinatra with having "The best pipes in the business," Mr. Damone also has, in our opinion, just about the prettiest eyes. This may seem unimportant in the long pull, but t'ain't so. Handsome good looks never hurt a star yet, and since Vic is also a volcanic vocal talent, whether he's belting a rhythm tune or turning us on with a romantic ballad, his combined assets are surely what has carried him to his lofty peak as a box office attraction. . . . Kirby is another favorite with audiences here, and just about everywhere. He sings, too, and he has been known to hoof a few as well, but primarily he is a comedian, and a fine one. George's special forte is as an impressionist. His carbons are loving, with malice toward none. We particularly treasure his Pearl Bailey spoof, a bon bon even Pearl Mae must relish. . . . A lavishly mounted Renne Stuart production number opens the show, featuring popular Harry Nofal and his charming voice on vocals, and the stunning Copa Girls' dancing and parading. . . . Antonio Morelli and his superb orchestra provide musical accompaniment for the bill, in for only a fortnight. . . . To be reviewed next week.

Featured acts include The Nitwits, back again after an 18 months absence, with one of the funniest acts ever as they pseudo elegantly rib band concerts and chorale groups with shenanigans that have everyone falling on the floor laughing; the pretty Baranton Sisters expertly foot-juggle balls and even tables; amazing ventriloquist Fred Roby, suavely smokes and sips while his beguiling dummies chatter amusingly; the funny Marthys do amazing balancing stunts, while kidding the audience into thinking there could be a disaster, and the Gimma Boys, five zany, highly accomplished acrobats. . . . Among the featured performers are the dancing Bluebell Girls, ice skating enchantress Catherine Machado, adagio dancers Aleco and Vera, fine singers Carl Lindstrom, Tony Scotti, who sings the title song, and Buddy Hodge, the Arden Boy Dancers, Belles du Lido, and scantily clad beauties Vera Allen, Stevie Danik and Henriette Audie . . . Moving like a dancer, she knows how to make the most of a song, high points being her earthy "Love For Sale," and uninhibited sexsational "Babalu." Miss A. would be ideal for musical motion pictures . . . Bobby Wick and Ray Brand, probably the fastest rising comedy team in show business, show how come, as they get howls with their moon-rocket and conventioner gems. . . . Stylish red-headed comedienne-singer Jessica James is clever, cute, and a large asset to a production that also features fine dancers Marina Maubert and Rob Barran, handsome singer Bob Fletcher, and twinkle-toed terper Dorothy Wilson. . . . duction presents unique specialties that are the talk of the entertainment world — outstandingly, the living cinema, an amazing device produced by Tibor Rudas, in which the players in a motion picture are on film one moment, miraculously live onstage, the next, then back on film again. Then there are the Carousels de Paris, huge merry-go-rounds rotating over the very heads of the dazzled audience. . . . World famous acts alternate with the spectacles, headed by The Black Theatre Of Prague, a fantastically funny and original clever puppet act; Gus Augspurg and his Girl Friends, hailed as the funniest performing monkey act ever; fabulous Francis Brunn, tops in juggling dexterity, and the electrifying Kuban Cossacks, with their limber steps from the Steppes. . . . The sexsational Dior Dancers still stop the show with their earthy, acrobatic apache. . . . Stellar performers include impish Liliane Montevecchi, the dancing-singing doll delighting in her Tango Parisienne, slickly partnered by Vassili Sulich, vocally versatile Emilia Conde, the Puerto Rican prima donna, and shapely model Renate Hinzmann. . . . Others showcased are beauties Felicia Atkins, Monica Lind and Joyce Grayson, plus dancer Ray Jarvis. . . . The Florence-Frederic Dancers and Tropicana Dancers are superb. . . . sky) proved that the kegling activities are drawing greater crowds. Because this sport is open to participants of all ages (not the P.B.A. contests), bowling looms as a formidable foe to all other sports.

Bea and Orle Hyden have a way of making permanent transients of their guests. (They ferret the Hydens out, no matter where they are.) At the Savoy Motor Hotel, the Hydens purchased a Volkswagon Bus, just to transport their visitors to the airport, Nellis Air Force Base, et al. . . . Right now, they're hosting the entire Nancy Wilson show, Joe Williams and the Korean Kittens, along with radio and TV personalities from Winnipeg, Canada.

There's talk in the local entertainment industry of the changes that are being planned at the Thunderbird Hotel. "C'est La Femme" will remain

. . . but look for other announcements in the near future.

Catch comedian John Byner on the Ed Sullivan TVviewer, March 6th. He's been inked to open in the Tropicana's Blue Room with Mel Torme and S. Zentner, March 29th.

We aren't taking a definite stand in the local taxicab strike but we feel the conferees could have arrived at an early amicable solution, in order to relieve the transportation inconvenience placed on arriving and vacationing tourists. . . . This situation is even worse than that suffered by residents of a certain coastal area, where IRS men closed down a much-needed bus line, for "non payment of withholding taxes."

Local damsels displayed much interest in Mr. Blackwell's showing in the Desert Inn's Crystal Room (March 4th) and in the Distinctive Apparel shop, March 5th. Speaking as man to man (to Mr. B.), we admire his elegant styles.

Vic Damone's Sands date is the

Hotel Sahara supper clubbers lifted their eyebrows when Nancy Wilson incorporated the Schlitz jingle in her song medley. Then they learned the room was full of members of the Schlitz Brewing Co., in town for their convention.

Arthur Godfrey flew the Thunderbird's Anni Anderson (and her husband) to Reno, in his private plane. He guested on his radio show, which he's taping in Reno, during his date at the Sparks Nugget.

Those breathtaking unicyclists, the Volantes, are back in FLV. They replaced the Ayalons in the Dunes Hotel's "Casino de Paris." . . . The bill has also reinstated the speed crazy number (cars and screen projection), by popular demand.

All we need is a giant with an over-sized spray gun of sorts, to rid us of that infectious flu bug . . . or five. Germ warfare couldn't be much worse than this. If you think the hotels are cutting down on the number of their employees . . . don't believe it. It's the fault of one of the varieties of the debilitating virus.

Among those who finally conquered the flu is Jimmy Grippio, the ambulating prestidigitator at the Desert Inn. He is back on the scene and insists it's easier to contact Houdini, than to fight that tenacious bug.

That's quite a tour de force by Tropicana pop harpist star Gloria Tracy, having her Hanna-Barbara instrumental album, "Gloria A-Glow" and vocal single "I've Never Known," released simultaneously on March 4th.

Johnny Denis and Netta Rogers, trekking home next week from their hit return stand at Bimbo's 365 Club in Frisco, met a chorine who loses her head when she gets mad . . . "but with a head like that, she never misses it."

Ayllene Gibbons, the 300 lb. actress who was here recently, plugging "The Loved One" (in which she won rave notices), celebrated her birthday February 23rd, with composer-pianist Warren Richards hosting dinner at Phil Ahn's Moongate in Panorama City.

Lee Taylor is headquartering at the Hotel Thunderbird. He arrived here with his jet speed boat, "The Hustler," and is being sponsored by Harvey Aluminum. He'll make practice runs on Lake Mead, trying to break the world's water speed record, now held by England's Don Campbell.

A touch of the old west to be added at the Tropicana. . . . The Florence and Frederic Dancers will introduce a swingin' cowboy number in the "Folies Bergere" next week.

That really was a show Milton Berle hosted for Jackie Gleason's Golden Birthday on the rotund one's TVviewer, February 26th. The thought of Gleason's retiring from his weekly fun-casts saddens the millions of his devoted fans, of which we claim to be in the upper echelon.

If your children often perplex you with questions, here's one you can have an answer for. . . The pen knife got its name because it originally was used to sharpen the points of writing quills. . . . On that fascinating note, we will take our leave . . . and that's for sure.

GOING HOLLYWOOD

were there, including important successful working players like Connie Stevens, James Stacy, Marilyn Maxwell, Gregory Peck, Benito Preziosi, Ken Wales, Jane Wyatt, and many more.

Greg (an Academy Award Oscar winner, of course), as one of the judges, said he had received some valuable acting advice on his way. Max Rhinehardt told him during a rehearsal, "You can rid yourself of self-consciousness by always remembering that you are privileged to go on playing at make-believe all of your life, while most people stop at twelve years of age." John Huston, more whimsical, told him, "Always give a good show, and travel first class!" As chairman of the National Cancer Society, Greg was to leave on a national speaking tour of benefits. What a good, kind, and fine man he is, to give so much of his time and himself for humanitarian causes. "My next picture," he replied with a grin, "will be made in Switzerland. It's got a fancy title, 'Oh! Death Where Is Thy Sting A Ling A Ling'."

Hugh O'Brian recalled that he had been a student for six weeks in the drama department of UCLA, which was as long as his funds permitted his perusal of finer acting lore. "I worked in dozens of little theatre showcase plays around Hollywood," he said. "Milton Lewis, here in the audience tonight, and head of talent at Paramount, saw me and called me several times to audition. I never worked at Paramount. Solly Bianco, head of talent at Warner Brothers, also called me to do scenes, and I never worked at Warners. Tonight, the talent scouts from the major studios are here and they witnessed the six short scenes and the three young men and women performers currently in their sophomore and junior years, who are deemed the most talented by the faculty."

Warned Hugh, "Fame is very fleeting. With 'Wyatt Earp,' my series on television was 'number one' on all rating charts, and, with my photo on the cover of Life and Time, and others that week, I was invited to fly to New York for agency and television department conferences. There I was on the plane—first class. I was picked up at the airport in a chauffeured limousine, with a second one to carry my baggage to one of the New York swank hotels. I was quartered in an elegant suite. As I dipped into the fruit bowl, compliments of the management, I recalled that my only times in New York, I had hitch-hiked and usually had less than fifty cents in my jeans. Here I was arriving as number one television star, with all of this attention. I was treated like a King. Then when I was in the elevator, two little elderly ladies — obviously from the midwest, eyed me with smiles. One of them asked, 'I think you are in the movies — somewhere. What is your name, please?' Fortified with a martini, I replied, 'Natalie Wood!' She said happily, 'I knew you were somebody in show business!'

The action was fantastically pro. The judges had a problem, for each player had chosen such a diverse scene and role—that it actually called for "catagories." Alan Martin was great as "Julio" in "Paint Your Wagon." This boy is ready for Las Vegas musical comedy right now. Marshall Green as "Maggie" in "Cat On a Hot Tin Roof" was completely believable and excellent in this highly dramatic role. "The winner was," Hugh said "and I certainly agreed, that Bill Lithgow as 'Archie' in 'The Entertainers' should win. He is a combination of Laurance Olivier and James Mason with complete skill and remarkable talent as a character man. The distasteful winner was Jane Abby in 'Two For the Seesaw'."

Solly Bianco and I chatted at intermission about a scene of our own when a group of us had gone up to Marysville on a duck hunting trip with Roy Rogers, Dale Evans and several more. The men hunters in their attire were sleeping on the floor in the down-stairs section of a big two-story frame farm house. The girls were quartered upstairs. At two-thirty in the morning, the house shook with a terribly frightening, unearthly rumble, like nothing I had ever experienced, with a first class earthquake! I dashed out of bed in panic and down the stairs in the dark, expecting the roof to crash any second. I fell over Solly Bianco sleeping on the bottom step of the stairway. He thought the house had fallen on him for sure!

And that's Hollywood!

The mother of eight children under 11 told me wryly: "This morning the children were so noisy that I threatened, 'The first person in this house who screams is going to get his mouth soaped.' And, you know, I can still taste the stuff!"

This will cut down all crime, for you will be policed every moment! You will not answer to your name but to a number! You will not order food by name but by a serial number! Your life will become a game of calendars and clocks, and numerals from 1 to 9!

VERY FAMOUS PREDICTION

There are many quaint predictions made many centuries ago about Elizabeth I and Elizabeth II of England. One Scotch Seer said "England will be great from Elizabeth I to Elizabeth II, not including Elizabeth III!" (This long range prediction became a startling fact.) "Elizabeth II will sit upon the throne a divorced Queen, just as Elizabeth I sat on the throne as an unwed Queen!" (This could happen in 1966) "Both Elizabeth I and Elizabeth II will be scandal ridden, but will rise against a wagging tongue. Elizabeth II will move in the homes of all subjects and the world and speak to people!" This quaint prediction of 1677 included television, unknown at that time! Yes, a very famous prediction!

THINGS TO COME

I predict that the next flying saucer report will come out of Brazil with photographs to prove it! This will astound the world of Scientists no end! . . . I predict that Military aid will be given the Eskimo to fight off mysterious raids made by mysterious foes in a mysterious manner! Many hush-hush conferences will be held in the Pentagon in this new and startling hit-and-run Polar warfare! . . . I predict that the new fire insurance and personal liability insurance will cost upwards to 100% more in premiums on all property which is rented to families with children or even on an ownership basis! . . . I predict that the West German Mark and the new French Franc will be the most solid monies in all Europe by this time next month! . . . I predict that Cannibalism will again be rampant in Africa with 10,000 men, women and children being devoured each day, deflating the population explosion in that part of the world! . . . I predict that a monster rally will be held on a nationwide basis to regain interest in lagging unionism! You can expect five other states to pass the "right-to-work" law this year of 1966! . . . I predict that the Federal Treasury will oversee the present union and company pension funds to see that each and every person gets exactly what was promised and when it was promised! . . . I predict that food will cost you five percent more by September 1, 1966, in spite of White House denial!

MORE THINGS TO COME

I predict that "Drugs Thru Wholesale" (including any prescription) by mail order from Washington, D.C., will be the next moneysaver to ward off 100% Medicare! Then ten times mark-up on even the most inexpensively produced drugs will be widely aired! The AMA and the Drug Companies will be powerless to stop this new movement as each buyer will be a "club member" of a "private medical and prescription club" and will be protected legally! . . . I predict that the next false eye lashes you will purchase will be of spun glass and they will add much glitter to your eyes! You will also wear paint on your teeth to highlight your smile, even in the very dark!
