must have law and order, not confusion, chaos and anarchy! Yes, coming events in your future!

PEOPLE - PLACES & THINGS!

Mel Blanc, the many-voiced genius of motion pictures, TV and radio will do a series of impersonations on his new radio series "Super-Fun" which includes me as "Gristle Predicts," which you will find very funny! Many letters reach me daily asking if my voice is back of the Marlborough commercials. That is not my voice. But thank you just the same! . . . I predict that Miami will be the next Hippie hang up, but for a short time only, as the Chamber of Commerce will act quickly with the aid of the Police and make a quick rift of the whole affair! I predict it will soon be a well known and established fact that 7 out of every 10 hippies are drug addicts, pushers, and seek to convert others to LSD, Marijuana and Heroin, in that order! . . . I predict that the new cosmetic line for men will prove most astounding, as it will contain a potent skin cleanser, a sun tan base, eye shading and an almost invisible mascara. A new hair spray will take care of any gray hairs and give the hair a body and a sheen! The floral scents will be preferred over the lavender! Yes, 1968 will be the cosmetic year for men of all ages! . . . I predict that Ex-President Truman will demand action in Vietnam almost to the point of dropping the bomb! Mr. Truman is tired of having to apologize for America! You cannot be a Communist sympathizer and a patriotic loyal American too!

A VERY FAMOUS PREDICTION

When Napoleon was Europe and Europe was Napoleon, he would have dreams of the future so clearly in 1815. He dreamed he saw the Czar and his family murdered and told many that "The Czar who wore a beard, beware!" and this came to pass exactly a century later in 1915! He also dreamed that the President of the United States would suffer a tragedy in 50 years, 1865, and this prediction bore out the assassination of JUDY . . . JUDY . . . JUDY . . . La Garland's opening night at Caesars Palace saw a standing ovation for the overture that preceded her entrance. There is a mystical rapport between this little lady and the public. The audience will commiserate with her, laugh with her, bow to her every whim. If she so desired, she could go down in the annals as the biggest star in show biz . . . and that's for sure.

Although Eddie Moss retired from the Hotel Sahara, don't count him completely out. It's very possible he'll be back in harness before long.

Last week, the Frontier's Cabaret Room took on the colors of a "French Cabaret." Christiane and Marcel Le Bon joined Dave Burton on stage for a medley of French songs. The spontaneous grouping featured the seductive Denise Darcel, who just closed out of the Riviera's Starlite Theatre.

Rosalie Shay startled Caesars Palace guests last Saturday when she walked up to the newsstand, saw her picture on the cover of FLV and shrieked . . . "That's Me!"

The Riviera will hold another special preview for the men of Nellis Air Force Base when it provides the service personnel with an advance peek at Mimi Hines and Phil Ford in "Funny Girl," December 19. The vehicle officially opens to the public the following eve. FLV is eager to welcome Ford and Hines back to their home away from home.

Singer Ruth Wallis, in Australia for her sixth Down Under nitery tour, segues to London to work on her personally-penned "Mame Was A Star" musical comedy, set to premiere in England.

Kiki Paige's selection of "Two Good Guys Of The Month" are Bill Lane and Maynard Sloate. The gentlemen came through at the Eleventh Hour, placing the Blue Room at her disposal for her November 29th audition, during which she showcased her new act, Kiki Paige And Her Sidekicks. The striking triumvirate opens at the Mapes Hotel December 14, for a two-weeker.

Garden Center chieftain Bob Schmutzer and Kiki Paige are now officially blood relations. Their Toy Schnauzers recently parented a litter of five.

When one of Nancy Austin's caps came loose right in the middle of "Bottoms Up" one afternoon at CP, she quickly put it back in place with a touch of false eyelash glue . . . and it stayed put!

Garwood Van advises the new Checkmates album finally arrived and is the biggest seller his Musicland has had in its nine year existence. . . . Van was busily detailing an autograph party at his store, honoring the Checkmates, Lou Rawls and the Baja Marimba Band.

Talk about more bounce to the ounce! Those Checkmates have it. The boys spaced out six shows last week in one day . . . two benefits for the Sun Youth Forum and N.S.U. . . . their triple sets in CP's Nero's Nook, and a special subbing job for Jackie Mason with Lou Rawls in the Circus Maxi-

Whatever happened to the Perez Prado bookings in FLV? If memory serves, up until 1961 he was in town two or three times a year. Now, Prado spends most of his time performing in Mexico and South America.

Harry Richman writes that he will be taking over Stephanie Zimbalist's home when she leaves to spend the winter at a mountain resort. Harry is also planning a mountain holiday with the Bob Colberts ("Time Tunnel") and their daughter, his godchild. Mrs. C. is the former Dotty Harmonie who was a dancer in FLV before she married the actor.

When Betty Bunch returned to the cast of "Bottoms Up" at CP last week (after taking the summer off to have a baby), she received her customary dozen yellow roses from hubby Joel.

This time, there was a beautiful red one right in the center from her new son Ricky. He wished Mom good luck and added . . . "I sure enjoyed doing the show with you last Winter!"

Speaking with maestro R. V. Brand during rehearsals for the Thunderbird's newly-opened "Cooking With Gas" spec, we learned his son Bobby has turned out to be quite an equestrian. Bob celebrated his December 3 birthday riding his Arabian steed. The fourteen year old has been riding in competition against older contestants and has come home with second and third place victories.

FABULOUS NOTES . . . Unable to attend her post opening night party, Sandstar Sammy Davis sent Judy Garland a mammoth bouquet of roses. . . . Songbird Toni Arden returned to Hollywood following her Aladdin closing to etch a new album, as yet unnamed. . . . The Mint is reserving its finest suite for Gregory Peck, who is due in for six weeks of filming. . . . With two homes in FLV and a ranch

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

SANTA CLAUS Lane Parade of Stars opened the joyous holiday season on the most famous street of dreams, magic and reality, Hollywood Blvd. Claire T. Grimes and the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce presented one of the most perfectly organized galas in years. Santa Claus gave me a kiss and when asked, I said my only wish for Christmas is to have "Princess" and "Jet" (Whose six weeks illness has mystified five of the top vets of the city) well again. "Princess", whose godmother is Los Angeles Deputy Mayor Eleanor Chambers, and "Jet," whose godmother is Sharon Di Betta, have been doing everything to help. Sharon, just returned from Philadelphia where she received the honor of rank of 1st Lt presented by the Old Guard City of Philadelphia for the Historic Military Commands Inc., where the original 13 colonies signed the Declaration of Independence of our great country. Arthur Middleton, one of the thirteen original signers, is our great, great, great grandfather. Thus, in some way, related to "Jet." Now isn't that so? (There is a cute picture of "Princess" and "Jet" in the current Movieland T.V. Time Magazine on the newsstands - showing them with Dack Rambo, who asked "Princess" to appear in his popular T.V. series, which has just been renewed, ABC's "The Guns of Will Sonnett.")

Santa Claus was very sorry that "Princess," who rides in the Christmas parades was unable to this year. . . . Lana Turner (in white mink and diamonds happy again) with Bob Eaton, Leonard Nimoy and his family James Shigeta, Sonny Tufts, Cesar Romero, Serph and John Conte and Pat Buttram (who introduced Glen Campbell the new pop idol of Capitol Records' "Gentle On My Mind"), Johnny Grant and hundreds more were having fun and goodies to eat at Englands on the Blvd., preceding the parade.

Harry Sugarman, who instituted the parade 36 years ago and was the famed host and owner of the Beverly Hills Tropics, has exciting new plans for Hollywood Blvd., as Chairman of the famed sidewalks of stars.

Sammy Lewis went way out in the lavish production of "Les Girls, Les Girls," which is the most spectacular revue ever to hit this town. Liliame Montevicchi, Ron Fletcher (director-choreographer) Jimmy Makulis, Rip Taylor (very funny but who needs to drop a couple dozen "Oh, God's from his lingo), the Marquis Chimps, George Carl, FABULOUS Milo and Roger. The fantastic Fredianis, Ron and Joy Holiday and Valentine and Valadez are without peer in their respective acts. All received raves at the champagne party hosted by Sammy Lewis, Danny Dare, Patti Moore and Hank Levy, the best of party givers. Walk, fly, run, drive, skate, use your credit cards and break your piggy bank but see this show, which even Paris can not equal.

Everyone everywhere is making this the most happy Holiday season. Starting the parties and galas are: the Hollywood Foreign Press Christmas Dinner dance at the Century Plaza, the preem of the International Hawaiian Revue at the Seven Seas, with the delicious Cantonese dinner, Ida Mayer Cummings' luncheon at the Smith Bros. Fish Shanty, "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" Columbia Studios preem and after theater supper, Richard Zanuck's for "Doctor Dolittle" at the Hollywood Paramount, followed with a gala; "Christmas in Mexico" in Le Grand Trianon Room of the Beverly Wilshire, chaired by Mrs. George B. Hunt, "The Moscow Circus" with this dazzling company on a 3 month tour under the auspices of the U. S. Soviet Cultural Exchange at the Sports Arena, not to mention the private house parties of friends and the big, big pictures all being shown before January First for Academy award consideration. And Lili St. Cyr, Ben Blue and Dagmar, starring in "Burlesque" at Melodyland. Rain or shine, I'll be at Disneyland to see the marvelous miracle of Christmas premiering there.

A cheery sweet note from Maureen O'Sullivan and the first Christmas greeting from Rev. J. Herbert Smith of the All Saint's Church in Beverly Hills. Calls from Dack Rambo, who is taking his stardom and being the new "teen-idol" in stride without the "big head," and Pat Woodell, who has been touring with Jack Benny as singing star, and who recently played the Fremont with Frank Fontaine in Vegas. Pat observed that she and husband Gary Clarke (he was in "Hondo" T.V. and M.G.M. is very excited about films for his future) have been able to keep their marriage happy with the unity of two people in love, without letting outsiders creep in to destroy it — as so many celebrity matings are sadly going on the rocks this holiday season. Pat says she and Gary have achieved both career and marriage together — by simply being honest with each other — and having that most rare of all possessions, love, loyalty, and pride together in their togetherness.

Happy Holidays everyone and hope you are getting more and more into the mood of this joyous season. Which reminds me a note from Jinky Lewis says she is so ideally happy with her Gary Lewis. Their doctor predicts "twins," which would be double ecstasy for Patti and Jerry Lewis. And that's Hollywood!

Some people can stay longer in an hour than others can in a week.

A rich uncle's will read: "I leave to my beloved nephew all the money he owes me."

CHATTING with Frank Smith, a captain under Jess Kirk at the Caesars Palace showroom, I learned that he and his wife Kay own Artists International, and have that great act the Young Jet Set under contract, among others. A great young fellow, Larry Guisasota, Security Guard at the CP, mails from Idaho and misses the great outdoors, hunting and fishing up here a lot. Pat Galo and his Hilads closed out in Nero's Nook. Hated to see them leave town. Same goes for David London. Enjoyed dining with Larry Snow the other evening in the Noshorium. Liberace and party, candleabra and all, were enjoying an incomparable meal in the Bacchanal Room the other evening when I visited Nat Hart. The night before, Bob Hope was dining there. Sooner or later, all the celebrities and VIP's visit this luxurious spot. Baron Bela Horvath, his Cimbalom, and Elec Bacsik and his violin are back in the Bacchanal Room, providing the sweetest dining music in the land for the patrons. Several evenings I have sat with Nancy Austin, Dennis Brockwell, Ralph Cowan, the incomparable artist at the CP and his partner, Edward Olander, at the bar in this room enjoying the "gypsies" and their music. Nancy regaled us with her jokes and she told of the wonderful Thanksgiving the "Bottoms Up" crowd all had at Breck Walls' home where many of the relatives and the band had gathered. The "Bottoms Up" group are not only great, but they know how to LIVE LIFE, NOT JUST PASS THROUGH IT — my motto.

Congratulations to Mary Stevens, loveliest model in town, who was married recently to Dave Goldwater, one of our town's finest attorneys. She is with Burnett's Store in the Riviera. While at the Cafe Noir, same hotel, manager Jack Hammes told me he was giving a $25.00 bonus to the waitress of the week, chosen from remarks by the customers along with the votes of fellow-waitresses. Nice gesture! Enjoyed an afternoon at Mike Tulane's Health Club on the top floor of the Riviera — the nearest thing to my Minneapolis Athletic Club. It is a rendezvous enjoyed by many. Joel Snow was there for his afternoon workout, Jack Kogan another regular devotee, Marty Allen, and one of the nicest young men I have met in a long time. Dr. Sidney Levine of South Pasadena who is in his residency at County Hospital. Just 28 years old, he has finished most of his medical education, has been in the service, is married and has two fine boys, Michael and Joel. Sure wish he lived in our town. With him was a friend from Detroit, Stan Solavich. There were four or five couples who met here at the Riviera for a reunion.

Col. John Anderson, Nancy Austin and Rouvaun were all on Jack Kogan's Saturday night TV show last week and caused a near riot — one of the best shows ever put on here in town. Col. Anderson is Base Com-

Relaxed, yet deeply concentrating on her sound, Carmen's powerful chords result in expert deliveries of a moody "For Once In My Life" or invitational "Come Live With Me," all with the unique McRae jazz connotations that rouse storms of immediate communication and allow for a possible hurricane of unity. . . . Broadening their field from pop standards to nostalgic memorables to modern charters, the girls and their assets easily capture the fixed attention of their admirers. . . . George Arnold's Nudes On Ice has slipped into the Bagdad, with its lavishly colorful sets and costumes and stunning Ronn Meren choreography, interspersed with a galaxy of gorgeous icicles, raising arctic temperatures to an all-time high. Featuring three-time French skating champion Maryvonn Huett, expert gliders Arnold and Richard, comic-juggler Bobby Winters, vocalist Dianne Elliot, and one of America's foremost pickpockets, Ricki Dunn, the novel production is a memorable salute to our Northern neighbors. . . . Hank Shank and his Orchestra manage to provide a smooth musical background, in spite of the broad range of talent on this program. Exuberantly belting or soothing a Rawls hit or a modernized standard, Lou's unique repertoire enmeshes a distinct, moody personality that overwhelms with its meaning and sincerity, culminating only at a peak of rhythmic euphony. . . . Conductor-arranger-dancer extraordinaire H. B. Barnum rocks the singer's orchestra to perfection. . . . Accenting the humor is riotous Jackie Mason, capable of giving a seasoned taste to any production with his ethical-racial lines, Kennedy-Johnson, Sullivan impersonations, and hilarious audience quip-teasers. . . . And if a few hundred of them became part time hackies at night, the whole business would be a lot safer." . . . Sports have been on the move these last five years. Expansion has taken over in pro football, hockey, basketball and major league baseball. New teams are born; new names are immediately tagged on to the clubs. Jim Lowe, an able talk jockey between music items at WNEW, displays some expertise in compound trivia. Jim borrows established titles and hangs them on new sports groups. For example, there should be teams called the Minnesota Fats, the Cleveland Amories, the Nathan Detroits, the Dallas Townsends, etc. It's original anyway. Have you any nominations? . . . While she was at the Hotel Commodore, we called Dolly Dimples. The name mean anything to you? She's the subject of a book called "Diet Or Die." A buddy of ours, Sammy Roen wrote it. Dolly told us years ago she weighed 555 pounds. In the early '30's Paul Whiteman at 310 was unbelievable. After her long battle, Dolly now scales less than 130. So you see you don't need the extra piece of bread.

NIGHT OUT

Katyna Ranieri, a cross between an Italian Edith Piaf and a version of a singing Sophia Loren, is back at the Persian Room. She captures an audience quickly with her smooth, velvet-like tones. When she sings of Rome all is dolce and nostalgia. Her very deliberate delivery of "My Man" is extremely poignant for mistreated femmes. The latter must be an objective delineation, though, for Miss Ranieri as Mrs. Ortolani (wife of a popular composer) is a happy lady.

OFF THE SHELF

Bosley Crowther, the New York Times' man in the movie house, won't be handing in daily criticisms of the cinema after January 1st. Too bad, he was great. For Putnam, he has turned out an intriguing book called "The Great Films: Fifty Golden Years of Motion Pictures." Mr. Crowther has probed, weighed and commented on the eventful flicks since "The Birth of a Nation." All this and casts and pictures. Fascinating is the proper word for the tome.

Two beautiful gals, and talented too, Barbara Allen and Kippy Lou Brinkman, alternated on the floating harp in the center pool and the music was soothing and listenable. And the very next night again I dined there was Jack Kogan and Bettina Brenna, star of the new lounge show, "It's Hell" at the Post Time Theatre in the Frontier Hotel. Bettina had just finished a picture with Barbra Streisand in Hollywood. Jack was telling me about my friend Dick Gregg, one of the finest men in town, who is Sports Editor and Commentator on KORK-TV.

Good seeing Art Haritos, Casino manager at the Fremont one day. He is part owner of the Monte Carlo Motel, among other things. While having a piece of my favorite' pie that I have touted in my columns for years (Coconut custard) in the Fremont Coffee Shop, had a chance to have a long visit with Joe Glaston, Public Relations and Publicity boss for Ed Torres in the Fremont now. Another delicacy I enjoy at least once a week at the Fremont is chow mein - be sure and have orange sherbet with it as a side dish - best combination imaginable. Morrie Glass, the manager of the Fremont, and I reminisced for a long time. He and his fine wife, Betty, have a lovely home in which they take great pride. Betty is Executive Housekeeper at the Desert Inn, having been there since it was built. When in need of flowers, I suggest you visit Louise Chekez at the Patio Flower Shop. She runs a fine shop there. Vic Isaacson of Nevada Optical Co. took me over to see the new Hualapai Club sky rooms high atop the First National Bank Building. This is one of the town's most exclusive luncheon clubs made up of only the top executives.

The Flame Restaurant threw a going-away party the other AM for the incomparable Royal Show Band group from the Stardust, who left for their homes in Ireland. While there, I enjoyed a long visit with Bell Captain, Don Davis. He and his co-worker Don Strang, captain on another shift, could pass for brothers. Also at the party were Tommy Callahan, Prexy of the Four Queens, and Bucky Neville, Cindy and Tom Ford and Gina Kelly. Also George Morse of the Silver Slipper.

And what do you think of my good friend, Senator Gene McCarthy of Minnesota and his entering the presidential race next year against LBJ? He was a close contender for the VP spot against his fellow-Minnesotan Hubert Humphrey last time, but the Unions wanted HHH, so LBJ picked him over Gene. This could make for pleasant complications in the national scene next year - at least the dissenters and the anti-Vietnam war folks will have a choice in at least two or three state primaries. Watch it - startling things might just happen.

To The Ladies

Men have made fortunes writing about women. They have also fared very well writing for women. Where they sometimes get into trouble is in writing to women. So far we have not distinguished ourself in any of these ways.

However, we were a little startled recently to discover that our readership has been rising noticeably among those members of the species alleged to be more something-or-other than the male. In fact we now get more letters from bosses' secretaries than from bosses themselves. At our age this is both surprising and gratifying, but it is a development not to be taken lightly.

We have always assumed that we were operating almost exclusively in a man's world. We believed that statistics, like Y.M.C.A. pools and the Union League Club, were strictly masculine territory. Kibitzers also warned us that women lack a sense of humor. This is a base calumny, as we have learned to our delight and occasionally to our confusion. They even find funny things in our writings that were not intended to be funny at all.

Although neither a Kinsey nor a Liberace, for which we have heretofore been secretly grateful, we must confess that we are very happy to have the confidence of the ladies. If women actually control as much of the nation's wealth as some surveys indicate, we are going to cultivate them (in a chaste, analytical way, of course) even more assiduously than in the past. Apparently the hand that rock the cradle also cradle the rocks.

We may ultimately be obliged to inaugurate a Woman's Page, a Woman's Column, or at least a separate corner of this bulletin that the girls can call their own. However, if we know women, a highly ridiculous hypothesis on the face of it, we shall never win them over to a diet of facts and figures. The only figures they are interested in are their own.

A VERY FAMOUS PREDICTION

Many of you have asked for a listing of the famous predictions of Nostradamus (1544) The Centuries which foretell the present years to come! And here they are, which Nostradamus classifies to happen between 1960 to 1970! And we quote: "Beware of the Red Liberals for they will try to wreck your world! The tides will run in their favor until the moment of truth!" (This is an amazing prediction when you consider that Khrushchev always boasted "First I am a Red Liberal") . . . "Violent storms will sweep the world, entire populations will suffer. Tidal waves will reduce coastlines to rubble. Earthquakes will re-arrange boundaries. Rivers will flow backwards! The heat will turn to cold and the cold will turn to heat. The populations will be dismayed at Mother Nature." (We have never had such a span of bad weather in our weather history. Some tidal waves have come. Some of the earthquakes have happened. There have been some rivers which behave peculiarly, and there is the change of climate, but for the most part the worst seemingly is yet to come in the next three or four years) "Famine will ride the lands, and the yellow man (oriental) will turn from his warring to the keeping of the fields for his protection." (This is a most curious prediction. Can it mean that the Oriental can no longer depend on Europe and America for food, as we will be heavily smitten? And the Oriental must be self-reliant? Thank you, Mr. Nostradamus, and we will check further!

NEWSLETTER 1968

I predict that the newsletter of 1968 will contain (1) the entire record of the crimes of a man before he became a self-styled civil rights leader, which will shock you! This will all be revealed after the man is sentenced for his crimes! (2) the new counterfeiting rings which use teen-agers to pass off the spurious bills! Some of the bills have been traced to Canada and Mexico, and some thru Cuba! (3) the new alert system of the FBI for the arrest and conviction of known criminals who have now extended their talents to robbing banks! The FBI has an enviable record of catching wanted and known criminals! (6) the new sensible double-felony charges for any one under the influence of marijuana, drugs, LSD, glue-sniffing or STP! This will take many killers off the highway and out of circulation! (7) the new federally re-written buying-on-time contracts from a washing machine to a house mortgage! These contracts will be standard with no late payment fee, no "points" will be permitted and no harrassing for payment allowed!
