87% OF CRISWELL'S PREDICTIONS HAVE COME TRUE!

PAST PREDICTIONS:

DEC. 31, 1965, on NBC "TONIGHT SHOW":

"I PREDICT THAT THE NEXT GOVERNOR OF CALIFORNIA WILL BE RONALD REAGAN."

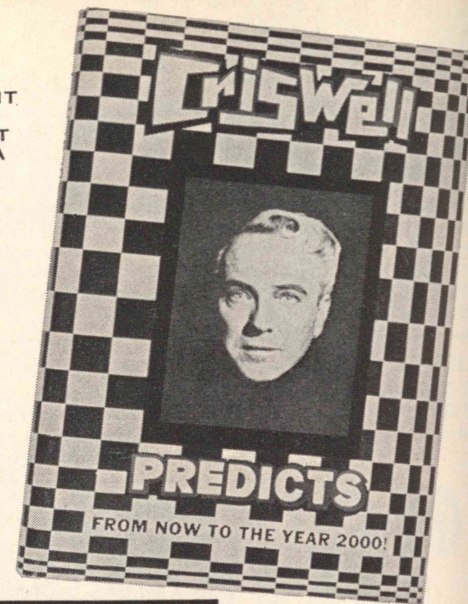

MARCH 10, 1963, ON JACK PAAR'S TV SPECIAL:

"I PREDICT THAT PRESIDENT KENNEDY WILL NOT RUN FOR RE-ELECTION IN 1964 BECAUSE OF SOMETHING THAT WILL HAPPEN TO HIM IN NOVEMBER, 1963."

ON JAN. 1, 1967, IN THE SYNDICATED "CRISWELL PREDICTS" COLUMN:

"I PREDICT A ONE-WEEK-LONG SHOOTING WAR IN THE MID-EAST WITH EGYPT-RUSSIA VS. ISRAEL."

"I PREDICT A BLONDE SEX SYMBOL WILL SUFFER A DIXIE DEATH." (JAYNE MANSFIELD)

This book was published and shipped to bookstores the last week of March, 1968. Already the predictions are coming true, including (Page 57) "The Assassination of the leading Negro Civil Rights Leader in America."

IN THIS BOOK, CRISWELL PREDICTS!

THE DESTRUCTION OF DENVER — SHIFTING POLAR CAPS — A SOLUTION TO RACIAL STRIFE — CASTRO'S ASSASSINATION — MAO'S DEATH AND ITS EFFECT ON CHINA — NATURAL DISASTERS — EARTHQUAKES & FLOODS — DATES AND PLACES — FUTURE POLITICS IN AMERICA AND THE WORLD — MAN MADE CATASTROPHES: WHERE AND WHEN — EVENTS THAT WILL SHOCK MANKIND — THE END OF THE WORLD!

Dramatically, and with a record of astounding accuracy, Criswell has predicted events in America and around the world for more than thirty years.

An ever increasing number of people follow his syndicated columns. Millions have seen him on the Johnny Carson and Jack Paar Television Programs, plus many others.

This book is Criswell's "Journal of The Future" — his only book of prophecy. It contains hundreds of predictions covering the next thirty years.

Readers may "keep score" on the accuracy of the predictions herein — until, as Criswell predicts, August, 1999, after which it will not matter.

FLASH PREDICTIONS!

I predict this is the way it is going to be . . . that the Black Continent of Africa will soon be the Red Continent of Africa . . . just as Nostradamus predicted in 1544, and 425 years later this is coming to pass out of the blue! The millions of dollars Red Russia and Red China are now pouring into Africa for Communist propaganda and culture will not be lost but bring China and Russia a handsome return. Many Idealists overlook the plans of Russia have never changed since Marx and Lenin and the basic Communism is still communism no matter under what label! This will prove to be one of the great problems of the 20th century which we inherited from the winds of spite, hate, jealousy and rage! After us, the deluge, but perhaps the deluge cannot wait! . . . I predict that all stores will be required to install metal gates for night protection against looting, arson and destruction or their insurance policy will not be extended! . . . I predict further heartbreak for a recent White House Family, which will come as a great shock to all. Remember this prediction! . . . I predict that the Westminster Literary Award out of London will go to a nine year old girl for a very advanced novel about divorce and remarriage, written firsthand from her own experiences with her parents! . . . I predict that all 50 states will soon have state income tax withholding to get their fair share of taxes from those who work within the state and then move on, leaving the localities to pay for the schools, hospitals, police, fire and street taxes for those who contribute nothing."

BONNIE SCOTLOND

I regret to predict that Bonnie Scotland will face political upheaval in the next 90 days due to the new tax demands of the Crown! I predict it will be the old cry of "taxation without representation" which has been a familiar refrain where the British Empire is concerned!

THERE IS SO MUCH GOSSIP . . .

Yes, there is so much gossip I hardly know where to begin . . . this is not slanted, but straight, without personal opinion . . . I predict that a major tv spectacular will be made of the Hollywood Brown Derby with its famous guests in person, playing themselves, in their most charming manner . . . that Hildegard will do her one woman show with a full symphony orchestra in Boston . . . that Jimmy Durante, Eddie Jackson, Sonny King and Vega Maddux will break all existing records in Las Vegas with their new act . . . that Queen Elizabeth II will cancel her proposed tour of Canada due to the unsettled conditions there caused by the Separatists, who are growing in strength and power . . . that a famed Wall Street lawyer will face court action on a past Wall Street killing, and will be obliged to answer many questions about a stock deal of 1967 . . . that Laurel and Hardy movies will face a revival in the theaters and also on TV . . . that Peter, Paul and Mary will delight you with their next album which will fondly glorify America . . . that Paul Harvey, the newscaster, will write of his career with no punches pulled! You can also expect a new book by Lowell Thomas, Liberace, Mary Ross (Hollywood police-woman), Jolie Gabor, Mary Astor, Richard Ney, Mr. Blackwell, Noel Coward, and the one and only Charlemagne of the 20th century, Charles DeGaulle! . . . that Ray Wilson, who presents top talent at the New York Penthouse, will introduce his coming Las Vegas Revue there next week . . . that Joe Gurley's "Break of Day," "Time and Changes," "What Became Of My Old Friend?" and "Wolf Creek Pass" will all hit the top 40 songs nationwide! . . . and Gloria Swanson will do a musical version of her famed "Sunset Boulevard."

MAELSTROM OF DISCONTENT

I predict that ten of America's finer cities will sink under a maelstrom of discontent! The increasing differences between the racial minorities within the framework of their own parties politically, will spell a depth of rioting, looting, burning and open attack on federal buildings and the so-called establishment! This will be most evident 90 days hence.

THE BELL WILL TOLL

I regret to predict that the bell will toll to announce the death of a member of the British Royal Family, quite unexpected and most shocking! Remember this prediction!

BITTER BACKSTAGE BATTLES

I predict a series of bitter backstage battles in Congress over (1) the new tax plan (2) new anti-riot laws and (3) the welfare frauds! Party lines will be crossed, and enemies created where now there is friendship. No two see things alike, and the river will widen and flow in two opposite directions. Consult your favorite newsletter for the political line up on this coming struggle to the finish next month!

MARIJUANA, THEN HEROIN, THEN DEATH!

I predict that over one million students will follow the prescribed path of marijuana, then heroin and then death! This physical-medical pattern is not to be taken lightly, for it is proven that marijuana affects the liver in a fatal manner, weakening the system for the lethal heroin! The students, professors and assistant teachers all glory in the use of this deadly narcotic and I predict it will only be a question of time until the death sentence is given for marijuana and narcotic pushers, the takers and the addicts themselves. This frightful problem will grow.

By ETTA CORTEZ

ABSOLUTELY CRUEL and inhuman . . . those were our thoughts as we coordinated the entertainment for the "GUS GIUFFRE Appreciation Nite," June 12. Without meaning to, we citizens are going to send that poor man back to the hospital. The entertainment is so humorous, the beloved Gus is destined to split his sutures. . . . When you hear and see what Jimmy Durante, Jack E. Leonard, Frank Sinatra, Jr., Sonny King, Eddie Jackson, Vega Maddux, Norm Crosby, Nancy Austin, Bill Fanning, Herb Kaufman, Stan Schwartz and the "Bottoms Up" crew do on film, you'll understand our concern. You can appreciate this, plus the live entertainment at the Sahara Space Center, next Thursday. Jack Morgan bats the Russ Morgan ork and Dave Burton plays for cocktails. It will be one of the most entertaining evenings you've ever enjoyed . . . and that's for sure.

On Thursday, June 12, another worthy event will be taking place at the Cinerama Theatre. It's a benefit premiere of "Sweet Charity," sponsored by the Soroptimist Club (Paradise Valley branch). The proceeds are for the L.V. Symphony Orchestra. Champagne reception at 7:30 P.M., followed by the flick at 8:30. This is one of those rare "G" films, for the entire family.

The Bonanza Hotel, chieftained by Nate Jacobson, enjoyed a highly successful opening last week. Phil Harris commandeered the mike to toast the success of the bistro-casino and introduced handsome Dale Robertson, who made his entrance through the audience, carrying out the "Howdy Podner" theme, shaking hands with patrons on his stroll to the stage . . . Among celebs spotted were Governor Paul Laxalt, Benny Binion, Kerk Kerkorian, Jay Sarno, Andy Williams, Chill Wills, Clifford Perlman, Line Renaud, Jimmy Grippo, Howard Levin and Jim Townsend . . . The absolutely charming "Indian" cocktail waitress who attended our table so hospitably is the lovely Dian Murphy.

Circus people do not say "good luck" for an opening . . . rather . . . their superstitious approach is to wish the opposite . . . "break a leg!" We wonder if anyone so spoke to Prexy Nate Jacobson? A couple of days after the opening, he was taken to the hospital with a sprained ankle, injured on the tennis courts.

While gathering column notes around town, we chatted with Jack E. Leonard who decided the most interesting thing about him was to tell everyone he loved them. So . . . luv to you all from Jack E.

Nancy Austin is completely enthralled with the progress of the summer replacement for the Carol Burnett show. She went into rehearsal this past week for a special spot in which she portrays the last of the Busby Berkeley girls and it sounds hilarious . . . Bill Fanning, in the same TV viewer with Nancy, tells of the kiddies scene they did. He roamed around outside the CBS Studios in the Lord Fauntleroy suit, without one double take from passersby. Anything goes on the streets of Ellay!

The Osmond Brothers plan a "D" for Decency, anti-smut program at the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City, June 13. They are being honored as clean-living Utah boys. The S.L. Philharmonic Ork Conductor Eugene Jellesnik was due in last week to tape the Osmonds and Andy Williams at C.P.

If you single gals are interested in an eligible bachelor with twin gorillas, your man is Jan Berosini, Sr., of Circus Circus. The Berosinis recently underwent an unusual divorce court action, wherein Mrs. B. wanted half of each of the animals in her husband's act. However, the ruling judge decided Mr. B. could retain full ownership, settling the wife's demands in cash. . . . A lip-twisting sidelight we hope the judge won't read here were the actual Yugoslavian statements that the translator had to revise completely for the ears of the court.

The lighting panels in the main control room of the Desert Inn are being redesigned by a team of engineers headed by Randy Wood for "Pzazz '70 & All That Jazz . . . Baby" which opens July 9. Lighting for the new Frank Sennes-Donn Arden extravaganza.

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

Milton Berle, Mayor Sam Yorty and John Wayne, we salute you!!!!

Mayor Sam Yorty's victory in the mayoralty race in Los Angeles reaffirms "The People's belief in democracy." Sam had everything political stacked against him by politicians, with whom he wouldn't make deals, and play ball. All Sam had — as George Putnam said on TV — was "the People." And "The People" elected him for a third term — as the best and most progressive Mayor Los Angeles has ever had.

Seven million dollars backed his rival's campaign — money coming from all parts of the country — sent by some who wanted to take over Los Angeles. There was the political machines, endorsement by a questionable group, a powerful tabloid's continuous fight against Yorty, and many Left wingers. The Los Angeles Police were so concerned, a poll showed many of them would resign if Yorty was not reelected! That's how serious law and order is in Los Angeles. John Wayne, No. 1 box office star for many years, worked day and night for Yorty to let The People know the truth.

With seven million dollars brought in to "take over," no wonder everyone saw so many bumper stickers and advertising for his opponent. Near the end, Los Angeles businessmen who need no favors, just protection from anarchy, put on a dinner at $1000 a plate, to pay for Yorty's campaign. All money for Yorty's campaigns has always been given by "The People," never big political machines and outside interests!

There were constant threats and violence, but Sam is a fighter and nothing stops him! The City needed his leadership and guts as it never has before.

The inside story of this biggest political war in history is being written by our top national magazines. But here is the scoop and the truth! Sam's trips to Europe, as you've read here before, made the Harbor self-supporting and from 30 million a year to 100 million, and the airport, the largest international one in the world.

Mayor Sam turned down the United States Ambassadorship to Mexico because he was so vitally concerned with his great plans for Los Angeles. And The People won him for the next four years! Yes, the vote is free, for this is still America!

Milton Berle, the King of Comedy, Television and Show Business, forgot to be funny in a most memorable, moving and heart-warming appearance when he was presented the 1969 Gold Medal Award of the Ida Mayer Cummings Auxiliary of the Jewish Home For The Aged, in appreciation for his wonderful gift, 'laughter,' and being a great humanitarian. Turning to President Etta Weinberg, who is successfully carrying on the auxiliary's tremendous work, providing for homeless aged fathers and mothers, (It was fate, coincidence, or whatever) Milton said, "I have received many awards, but this one I shall always remember." Laughter had left his eyes, to be replaced with nostalgia. "The date inscribed here, May 21st, is my mother's birthday. She would have been 92 today. And the ruby which centers the gold medal is my birthstone!"

Revealing that knowledge, wisdom, laughter, and tears dwell in the thoughts of men who are attentive and sensitive in their assimilation of the good in life, his expression of entrusted memories, conjured by the date on the medal, revealed the inner man, seldom exposed by the superstar-comedian. In this unexpected taste of genuine real life drama, you comprehend a human being, by knowing not merely what he does, but what lives in his heart — that golden link which binds him to reality. No one who heard Milton Berle at this charity event will ever forget it, for it was one of those priceless unexpected golden moments that become indelible in memory.

"My mother and I had it rough in the beginning," he recalled, "but I won't speak of that. I will speak of the day when it was good. Mother, whose name was Sadie, changed it to Sondra, and moved from Essex Street into the Essex House on Central Park South, and had her first mink coat!

"Mother never missed attending one of my performances." (Milton started his career when he was seven weeks old in a movie.) "I started out to become an entertainer and Mother was always there — my stooge, my plant, in the eighth row, waiting for my cues, and always starting the applause. In those days we had Harry Richman and Bing Crosby, instead of Beatles and Cockroaches today, singing. Competition was really tough. Ripley printed it 25 years ago: 'Believe It or Not but Milton Berle calls his mom on the telephone every day!'

"I'd have a date and Mom would say, 'Can I come along? I look nice, don't I? I won't bother you,' Mom would insist. She was a great woman. I loved her, and I am proud that I had a so-called Mother complex.

"She'd laugh at the right joke cues. If someone near her didn't laugh, she'd poke them in the ribs. If she'd happen to sit next to a very pretty girl, she'd tell her I was her son and invite her to meet me.

"By 1928 I was playing in N.T.C.'s girl show at New York's Hollywood Cafe. I was doing the same formula-like: 'That's a lovely dress you have on!' 'Yes,' the cutie would reply, 'I was made for the dress.' To which I would say, 'You should not settle for less than a fur coat!'

"Sondra was a great woman," Milton continued. "She had been a housewife" (Continued on Page 32)

RED SKELTON is a star who continues to amaze people with his versatile creativity, which will be apparent when he opens a two week stand at Sands Hotel on June 11. Singer Gloria Loring will support the carrot topped comedian.

For not only will the great clown entertain audiences for more than an hour with side-splitting humor, but all the music used during his act will be original Skelton compositions. To date the master of humor has composed approximately 5000 songs — many of them stirring martial airs.

Presently 10,000 schools and college bands are playing Skelton music, including "The Kadiddlehopper March," (a favorite of the UCLA Bruin Band).

The "Everett McKinley Dirksen March" was first played in public by the Pasadena City College Lancers Band at the 1968 Tournament of Roses Parade where the well known Senator served as Grand Marshal.

During the Sands stint, Skelton music will provide melodious backgrounds for his hilarious pantomimes, also created by the red-haired funnyman.

The serious side of Skelton became evident when he gave his interpretation of the Pledge of Allegiance on his national CBS television show.

The public's acceptance was immediate and to date Skelton has sent, on request more than 350,000 copies of the Pledge and Columbia Records released a single of him reciting it.

Because of the popular demand it was decided to repeat that show June 10 during the week of national observance of Flag Day.

And now Skelton has accepted the invitation of Philadelphia Mayor

James H. Tate to recite the Pledge in Independence Hall on July 4.

During Skelton's stand at the Sands where he has appeared many years, he will have Don Ferris as his musical conductor for the entire show.

The show, always a sellout, will feature a blend of Skelton orated jokes and his pantomimes. In night-clubs where standing ovations are rare, they occur almost nightly for the all-time great comedian.

One pantomime that never fails to bring down the house is his interpretation of the Old Man watching the parade. There are few dry eyes after he finishes this comedic-pathos routine.

Show business entrepreneurs from every corner of the globe are requesting Red Skelton "in person" performances. He wants to do them, however television, the time consuming ogre, prevents this from happening. But don't be a bit surprised if in 1970 Red Skelton makes a tour of the world's capitals to display his internationally understood brand of comedy.

Wolfman Jack with the Olympics; Swingin' Lads; Kirby Stone Co. with Misti Walker; Kay Carole (8 P.M. to 5 A.M.)

The lights are on again in the Opera House and they strongly reflect the warmth that is Dale Robertson. The handsome Indian from Oklahoma need not indulge in self-abasement for his transition from the film world into this role as Country/Western singer. He has a charming voice for an easy sell of "This Train," "Honey" and

ROMAN THEATRE

Opening June 19.

Andy Williams has triumphantly returned to the Circus Maximus, the room he launched so brilliantly when Caesars Palace opened. Both the hotel and the star have been gaining in luster ever since. Even as long time a Williams fan as I must admit that I have never seen nor heard him in as magnificent form. He is an artist of the first calibre. Although Andy makes superb use of the beguiling Osmond Brothers, themselves stars of magnitude, it's Williams' show, an Andy

VIP LOUNGE — May 29-June 25

King Henry Soul Show; Lauri Perry Four; Bill Kane.

Ol' King Henry is a soulful ol' soul . . . all the way. The King is back with a new look. He plays up his fluorescent-orange, long-length tresses in an "Electric Hair" number and it effectively conveys the ol' shocked-by-energy treatment. The package is frenetic and loud. Providing technical perfection in music are Micky Sekulich on drums, Bob Mercereau on sax, Ralph Costa on bass and Jerry Van Blair on trumpet. The gal on the moving vocals is mono-named Valerie . . . Lauri Perry's return is also accented with a new look. The gorgeously-gowned, svelte leader has shortened her tresses, without distraction from her beauty. Lauri and her men play to the masses. They inject every facet

It's the age of variety . . . and Liza Minelli keeps the pace. She whangs off many a spark throughout her session, during which she absolutely enchants her audience. ## BONANZA

"Green, Green Grass Of Home," scoring dead center with "Help Yourself," which triggers a spontaneity of audience sing-a-long and hand-clapping. He repays the compliment with a spurt of choreo. The only complaint is for a better audio balance in spots to prevent the music from overpowering Robertson's vocals. The star's interspersed witticisms are as homespun as a Sunday afternoon on the back porch, with universal appeal. . . . Background harmony is delightfully supplied by the attractive Surrey Singers, from which Fred Thompson is singled out to solo a magnificent, pure ukelele that sounds like an electronic device beneath his darting fingers. Glen Keener shines in an electric guitar spot . . . Pat Buttram debuted "as nervous as a sports car surrounded by tall dogs." His cracker barrel humor is absolutely delightful. It had his audience wrapped up in a big, red ribbon. The successor to Will Rogers has no need for the brininess he injected in small quantity. His non-censurable spoofs on politics, family and farm life keep his grass roots image indelible. . . . Mr. Robertson's Musical Director Bobby Corwin batons the John Nagy Ork with perfection. (Etta Cortez)

The picture of health requires a happy frame of mind.

CAESARS PALACE

Williams concert, and a gourmet entertainment feast from curtain rise to fall. His solo performing of "Didn't We," "Who Can I Turn To," a clowningly fun "In The Summertime," and many of his hits in medley — he could do an hour or two of those alone! — are choice, but perhaps most thrilling of all are his "My Way" and his "Impossible Dream," the latter his friend Robert Kennedy's favorite song. . . . The Osmond Brothers join the singer midway for a show-stopping segment, with Andy and the boys blending voices on a lushly lovely "Scarborough Fair," a zingy "Peg Of My Heart," with choreography, and the boys take off on their own dancing a nifty "Fascinating Rhythm." The FABULOUS young Osmonds (5) turn musicians and singers to back Andy's smash "Where's The Playground, Susie," and medley from "Hair," including an infectious "Aquarius." . . . The Nat Brandwynne Orchestra, thirty some master musicians with a rich violin section, couldn't be more of an asset, as was the once-only opening night turn of tiny Jimmy Osmond and his big-voiced vocalizing backed by his big brothers. . . . The Andy Williams Show is one of the all-time major Las Vegas hits, a must for everyone who can wedge his way into the Circus Maximus. (Mary Rettig)

FIRST, you will have to excuse me for not reporting on the Corral Lounge at the new Bonanza Hotel this week. Opening night was so hectic and crowded that I found it impossible to even get into the lounge much less see the acts. Will try to make up next week. Must admit though, that I have never seen a more explosive opening in many a year in this town. The cocktail waitresses at the Bonanza have to be the cutest looking in town. And, for me, that was worth the pushing and pulling.

Same night down the street, one of my all-time favorite singers opened. Her name is Sylvia Syms and man, does she sing. Yes, you may call her a jazz singer or a pop singer or a musical comedy singer. She is all of these and more. From tunes like "Walking Happy," to "Didn't we," Sylvia is boss at all times. She is in such control that one feels as if she invented the art of singing. A well balanced program winding up with a highly emotional "Bali Hai," complete with resume of story and costume from "South Pacific." Long may Sylvia Syms sing and sing and sing. After Sylvia had us captured, out came the most inventive comedian working the club circuit today. Shecky Greene. I know of no other comic who is able to improvise complete routines on the spot. I know of no other comic who can do so much show business schtick. Excellent singing voice, exacting impressions, flawless dialects, and the master of story telling. All of these add up to Shecky Greene. You can't revue Shecky . . . you have to see him to really believe him. I can't remember one dull minute or one laughless second. Very few people working today can make me laugh 'til the tears roll down. But Shecky Greene did, does and will continue to do. All this is happening at the Starlite Theater of the Riviera Hotel. A friendly warning. Get there about 10:00 P.M. in order to get in and hopefully get a seat. I'll be back again.

Sorry to say that Godfrey Hirsch will not be with Pete Fountain when he opens in the Blue Room at the Tropicana Hotel. From what I have been able to gather in the way of information, Godfrey wanted to settle down in New Orleans and give up music in favor of a quiet, sedate life. More power to him but what a loss for music. Godfrey Hirsch was a credit to music and to the vibes he played.

Speaking of good jazz, mark this date down on your calender. July 11. That's the date of the first Tropicana Summer Jazz Festival. Good buddy Maynard Sloate has been wanting to do this for some time now and with the cancellation of Louis Armstrong (because of illness), this seemed an ideal opportunity to do it. For 14 straight nights in the Blue Room, you will hear Cannonball Aderly and his group, Joe Williams singing with Ellis Larkins on piano and Cal Tjader and his bunch. The MC chores will be handled by someone very close to me, namely . . . ME.

Thank goodness we will finally get a chance to hear Joe Williams work. He lives here but has only worked here as a single once. And that was downtown with practically no publicity. Incidentally, during the festival, there will be no two or three shows. The festival will start each evening about 9 or 10 and continue right through. This will allow each group a chance to really let go and stretch trigue the open-mouthed admirers of circus artists. The Alexanders, Cavarettas, Palacios, Rodriguez Brothers and Steeles are all skilled artisans in flying acrobatic maneuvers. Each of these acts is guaranteed to leave you breathless. Should one of them fall during a performance, in spite of the net below, the crowd roars its concern. You have to respect their ability, especially when you wonder how it would feel to fly way up there . . . Berosini's Jungle Fantasy is an excellent performance of tree-dwellers who appear much too human, especially in their wheeled maneuvers . . . The Berosini Brothers and their Risley cavortations are timed coordination . . . The creator of the trampoline must have had the Canestrellis in mind. They were born to this art, which they have conquered as simply as a child begins to crawl . . . The Carlssons have discovered the secret of flying saucers and incorporate humor with their perfectly timed take-offs . . . The Farfans inject a goodly amount of humor with their comedy flying antics . . . Joe Gerlach is unbelievable in his 60 foot dive into a sponge—unbelievable . . . The Three Goetschis are wheel experts, balancing precariously on a unicycle which they literally pilot on top of the world . . . Norbu, the almost human gorilla, is so frighteningly realistic, you wouldn't want to meet him on a dark street . . . Put Mike Pickering right up there with star trampolinists. In spite of his mugging, it takes split-second timing to reach his brand of physical humor . . . Maria di Roma performs her contortion-trapeze act on a platform swing that circles the arena . . . Breathtaking . . . Vino Venito and his nerve-shattering knife-balancing dynamics offer a thrill segment . . . On the ground, the stilt-walking Cosmos have conceived a remarkably agile dance segment, unencumbered by their wooden elevators . . . Bon vivant Clarence Hoffman is the glib word-master introducing the high-spirited action in the evening, with Mike Hartzell mikeside in the daytime .

Man on the Move in California: There was Lionel Hampton, an undisputed king of the vibes, using blue tufted mallets, to illustrate why jazz will never die. Filled room at the Hong Kong Bar of the Century Plaza Hotel. Hamp's two vocalists, Valerie Carr, who dramatizes "Time After Time" and George Smith are smooth additions to a well knit combo — Dino, the affable front man at the inescapable Polo Lounge at the Beverly Hills Hotel, never ceases to amaze with the warm greetings and fantastic memory for names —

Out at the Sportsmen's Lodge with top notch songsmith Sammy Fain for the annual evening when the members of the Composers and Lyricists Guild of America meet and put on a show. Personal reunions for this buff with David Rose, an old friend from Chicago radio; John Green, so proud over "Oliver" and what memories when he was John W. and later Johnny, a master songwriter, as a young man in the 30's. Don't you still respond to the melodies of "Body and Soul" and "I Cover the Waterfront," to name two? And Hank Mancini, the calm, cool pipesmoker was there. So was Ernest ("Exodus") Gold, Van Alexander, whose "A Tisket, A Tasket" started it all for Ella Fitzgerald.

And David Raksin, who penned "Laura," but more than that for us — he haunting score for "The Bad and the Beautiful." A big hello from Vic Mizzy, who never ages. He wrote a little years ago called "My Dreams are Getting Better All the Time." The local highlight of the night was fashioned by the Anita Kerr Singers, one of the most arresting group sounds these ears have responded to in many years. Kerrific! —

Without the expert assistance and understanding of the corps of telephone operators at the Beverly Hills Hotel, who could communicate with whom on such a regular basis!!!! Out Santa Monica way for a dinner at the Round Table where Bob Henry is proud of the Tournedos of Beef and upstairs there's a pool table to accommodate such players as Jack Lemmon and Cesar Romero —

Items you pick up: "Jack Benny was tired of living in that big house on Roxbury Drive so he moved into an apartment." "Jack Benny just couldn't take apartment confinement so he marched right back into a big house."

Out for a long, late evening at Valley Vegas to gain further evidence why Pat Collins, the hip hypnotist, is so deft at her trance inducements. Much fun and comedy drawn from volunteers of a comatose coterie. — Never invite Lee Remick to a date and expect her on time, 'tis said. The lovely arrives 45 minutes late and sometimes an hour goes by and no Lee — Senator George Murphy is a dog walker like the rest of us. There he was with a beagle and a collie returning to his abode on North Rodeo—

At a dinner at Luau, there was neat, trim and very slim Morey Amsterdam. "My lowest weight in years," he smiles, "155. I was once over 200. How do I do it? Easy. I eat everything I always did, but only half as much" — The very affable host at Stefanino's is Nicky Blair, one of the more talented acting potentials of the 50's who gave it up voluntarily. Can coax more laughs than the average comedian and is able to dramatize an hello with more skill than an Academy Award winner. — When Charlton Heston takes the family out for dinner he doesn't wear armor or any costume related to a picture. We spied Chuck giving Lydia a Mother's Day feast with daughter and son in attendance.

Worldly Bob Newhart and little girly Teresa Brewer are the potent combination headline packing the magnificent Crystal Room. The most inventive of all humorists and certainly one of the funniest, Newhart's thespic ability and soft sell, coupled with his inimitable comedy material, reap continuous howls from his opening comments on being an employee of the Hughes Tool Co., a natural lead-in to airlines, his well known reluctance to fly, and a hilarious impression of an overworked air traffic controller. Other new gems are the star's sly carbon of a Black Jack dealer, of a customer reacting to the discovery that he's dining in a restaurant featuring topless waitresses, and another dandy on a police official conducting an unusual identification lineup. In addition, Newhart delights the crowd by offering to do requests, and it's obvious the room's full of fans when far more favorite bits are called for than time permits. The opening show, Bob did two of my pets, the Retirement Party and the Sir Walter Raleigh phone conversation, but given a choice we'd have kept him onstage all night . . . Cute Teresa Brewer, of he distinctively penetrating voice with the little squeak, is all glamourized up in a dazzling wardrobe, and joined locally by her four Terry Tones, who ridge costume changes with their own numbers. After opening with "If they Could See Me Now," Teresa sings and dances a lively Charleston medley in which are inserted many of her hits, including "Music, Music, Music," and "Ricochet Romance." She varies her program with fresh treatments of standards, pop tunes, and caps it with a strong closer — wearing a mini skirt that lights up! — spoofing rock 'n' roll singers and dancers. Leading the elegant Carlton Hayes Orchestra is her musical conductor, Bill Hitchcock.

The sixth edition of "Vive Les Girls! — '69" is all new indeed, from the opening pulchritude-packed Parisian-style western number, with the gun-twirling dancing cowgirls in feather chaps — those are pants, gang! — and a burro wearing the credit placards, to the witty, jazz-age "A Night At Maxim's" finale, with so many goodies in between — notably a fantastic "Voodoo Africaine" production — I'm bound to leave out something. The sure-fire show, conceived, produced, and directed by Frederic Apar, boasts a wealth of talent. The stars are uproarious record pantomimists The Bernards, stunning French chanteuse Frederique Paule, a delight throatily singing Charles Aznavour and Gilbert Becaud compositions, expert and stylish juggler Rudy Schweitzer and handsome singer Jim Hodge. . . . Featured are the marvelous adagio team of Joan Palethorpe and Ron Watson, whom I'd never recognize with their clothes on and rhythmic bongoist Ricardo Rincon. . . . The always brilliant "Vive" dancing, choreographed by Ron Lewis, is fleet-footed by the lithe Ron Lewis Ballet. . . . The Mannequins de Paris are the bosomy show-girl eyefuls. . . . Jose Luis Vinas, among the world's most inspired designers, has outdone himself with the spectacular costumes, matching the spectacular score by Bill Chase and Kenny Sampson. . . . Trumpet great Chase also conducts the Earl Green Orchestra. (Mary Rettig) of music, running the gamut from the gay '90's to today's happening. You name it and the Perry combine provides it. Musical backing is provided by Ernie McDaniel on bass, Stan Harris on drums, and Dick Boseck on the keys. Dick and Lauri team up for some easy boy-girl theme listening.

Appetites are whetted for the star during the early portion of the production, opened by the Lon Fontaine Dancers — two cute girls and a boy — with introductions throughout by emcee Joe Adams. . . . Then featured comedian Billy Wallace, togged spoof-western style, comes on with comments on how come there are so few negro cowboys in historical records, and gets laughs with reminiscences about his childhood when they were "poor," not "po." Billy says there's a big difference. His remarks that he is aware some in the audience will dig him and some won't, but he hopes the latter will fake it so he can continue working with Charles, gets a scream. . . . Reaction to the international star's appearance makes it obvious why everyone likes working with him. Not only is he a formidable talent, but he has such charm and warmth. Beginning his solo spot with a sax solo, Ray then moves over to the piano for his song session, elating the crowd with his torrid versions of such Charles hits as "Hallelujah, I just Love Her So," "Georgia," "You, Girl," a dramatic "Yesterday," and superb instrumental "Blue Sette," in which his own brilliant orchestra — sixteen pieces if I counted correctly — also shines. . . . The famed Raeletts, stunningly gowned in black velvet with glittery tops, join Charles for a zingy "Alexander's Rag Time Band," "Can't Stop Loving You," and "Eleanor Rigby," and solo "She's All Right." . . . The whole company is onstage for the swinging finale. . . . The Ray Charles Orchestra's superb musicianship on the outstanding arrangements is a big plus.

with her multi transitions, presenting the problem of identifying her throughout the maze of efforts. Surprise partners are two volatile Negro ads who work with her singly and in pair. Billy J. Lee does the Astaire bit and Olan Godare goes back as far as "Singing In The Rain." Their happiest moments together, Liza, Billy and Olan, are in "Everybody Loves My Baby," which calls for the Minelli big finish, "Cabaret." It is a big concluder and she does it well. . . . Guy Marks has illusory skills in comedy. He is casual, works slowly, but before the audience is aware, they're locked up. His "Loving You Has Made Me Bananas" and the Bogart/Mitchum/Gary Cooper/Chief Crazy Horse vignettes are howls, but the very wildest are his mad vocalisms on the "Metropolitan Opera" sketch. What a valuable larynx Marks has. He should have it insured with Lloyds Of London. . . . The Jack Eglash Ork lights up the beginning with guess what? — "Liza," and does splendidly the rest of the scores with Miss Minelli's conductor, Jack French, at the helm.

Although there is no absolute pegging of her sound and manner of singing with such immediate recognition like a Lena Horne, Dionne Warwick or certain others, Miss Carroll does have a definite sophisticated style that goes over well with audiences here. And, dig the eye-popping pants garment adorning her svelte figure, with the deep V frontal slash, the daring cutouts! That's a groovy melody in itself. . . . Jerry Stiller & Anne Meara have the look and manners of coffeehouse escapees with their off-beat impressions and routines. He is short and stocky; she is tall, ungainly and nervous. Together they make an unlikely pair and their amusing dialogue hits its stride in a "Hate and Love" episode. everyone. The three lassies apparently have no need for vitamins as they whisk through choreography that is so infectious, you can't sit still for a single moment. The four lads provide the inspiring backing for the distaffers in their mod, updated tune weaving. "Keep Off The Grass" is paced for fun . . . It's perky . . . it's for you . . . Harry Wham with his remarkably wired keyboard is pursuing a precedent he set many years ago in FLV — that of insuring himself a long-term berth wherever he appears. Harry is an instant favorite. His musical moods and singing are fan instigators, as attested by the following he has. The Wham repertoire is so extensive, he covers all bases . . . Anchor man at the Boat is congenial Johnny Paul. He's not only responsible for the solid entertainment, he doubles as the host. Johnny also happens to be one of the most interesting companions around. He is an artisan at prestidigitation, limiting it to the close scrutiny of patrons at table range. The hand will ever be quicker than the eye.

style as it walks through yesterday's era of exciting entertainment. It's a new approach to comedy burlesque . . . Tommy Moe Raft has the timing of a Swiss watch as the Top Banana showers the eager viewers with the Americana of bur-lee-que routines. He's a one-man torpedo that impacts for belly laughs . . . Seductive Kitty Lynne is not only remarkably adroit as the straight man foil for Raft, she sizzles as "The Cat Girl" ecdysiast. The six foot blonde beauty will one day write her own ticket . . . Burlesque veteran Milt Douglas has changed partners, introducing seductive Jeannie Linero to assist him in spoofing the atmosphere with their musicomedy interpretations. The Linero beauty comes across strong with her song and dance . . . Jean & Helene trip the light fantastic with some zingy choreography, unencumbered by restraining fabric . . . Astradella seemingly floats in the midst of an interplanetary far-outism as she creates the most unusual act an ecdysiast ever put into orbit . . . Charles Vespa and Doug Culbertson shine in the vocals . . . Noel Sheldon's choreography has the Ashton Girls high stepping from opening number to the finale, with Paul Lowden batoning the background for the Ashton - Wolf Kochmann production.

production. Les Girls is the name of the game in Lido shows, and they have a bevy of beauties, opulently costumed for dazzling effect, with plenty of undraping to give audiences an eyeful of what made French-type productions a must both across the pond and in the U. S. . . . Second only to the Lido lulus are the startling scenes. This time there is a sandstorm on the desert with two live camels, and a mirage in which the heik — and the audience — sees mermaids swimming in a pool. Another is recreation of "The Phantom Of The Opera," with talented lead singer Jackassel as the phantom, and the illusion of opera spectators right on stage. . . . "Tout Paris" is also notable for turning the side-splitting Nitwits to the stellar spot, the most popular act ever to appear in a Lido here, and for a array of other fine performers. The international ice skating team of Parker & Powers scores strongly. . . . Others are Mac Ronay, the delightfully humorous "magician," Tyrolean contortionists Evers & Toni, and — the human pretzels they are, and — the tripatetic activities of the acrobatic Leberte Brothers. . . . The ravishing dancing Bluebell Girls are the lovelies making Le Lido such a treat for red-blooded boys, who must pop a corpuscle when they spot such beautiful bra-less beauties as terper Marya Linera, Valerie Perrine, and Briony Meriman! . . . Frank Sennes is producer of the extravaganza conceived by Pierre Louis-Guerin and Rene Fraday, staged and directed by Donn Arden, and costumed by Folco. . . . The Eddie O'Neil Orchestra plays the demanding score brilliantly.

various acts will change, but the magnificently costumed displays, the choreography by Tony Charmoli and the almost impossible acrobatic-dance feats of the dozen Rudas Dancers in the Can Can and "Mariage Au Tyrol," the "Feast of the Spider" with Vassili Sulich, are inspired components. "The Magic Screen" is almost Cinerama in scope this edition, with a thrilling finish that brings the entire audience up to extra plaudits . . . Davis & Reese are well cast in this showcase that highlights their laugh-timed uppercuts of humor . . . Classic pantomiming by George Carl, with an assist from beautiful Felicia Atkins, is a neat comedy touch within the framework . . . Bob Williams' repartee with his reluctant two pooches is also another classic . . . Fred Roby and his clever ventriloquisms offer a delightful interlude . . . There has never been a more amazing juggling act in any Vegas show than The Villams. Their work with silver tenpins, plus acrobatics, is startling . . . Dancers and showgirls are paraded by the dozens—a dozen each of the nimble Tropicana Dancers, the dozen fleet Tropicana Boys, the twelve gorgeous Les Mannequins, plus the previously-mentioned Rudas troupe . . . Special kudos go to Gyar-mathy for scenery and costumes; original music by Henri Betti of Paris; musical arrangements by Jerry Fielding, all resoundly and expertly performed by the Si Zentner Ork.

ganza will require enough electricity to service a town.

In the Jim Nabors/Harrah's-Tahoe Show, Beverlee & The Sneakers were signed to the Nabors' network TV-viewer, taping October 27, along with Rock Hudson. As icing on the cake, Hudson caught their Tahoe show. The favorites return to the Frontier's Circle "F" June 26.

The Sonny Kings became parents of nine pound, thirteen ounce Christopher James Francis on May 26 at 3:33 P.M. The same day, at 5:28, the Norm Crosbys welcomed their first, Daniel Joseph, eight pounds, five ounces . . . Norm is one of the many entertainers who is deeply aware of the solid citizenry of FLV and in his travels does his utmost to break those bubbles about our town being nothing but neons and fast living. The scandal sheets grossly neglect our community life which is comparable to that of every other community in the country.

Frank Sinatra was so intrigued with the orangoutang that made his own party scene last year, he had a miniature zoo turnout for the birthday soiree he tossed for his friend Danny Schwartz at CP. Guests enjoying the fund included David Janssen, Sammy Davis, Jr., Nate Jacobson, Bill Weinberger and Frank's mother.

How that Sylvia Syms do sing! Her Riviera Starlite closing "Bali Hai" in Muu Muu and a Lei presented her by Don Ho is magic. Sylvia followed Juanita Hall in the role of "Bloody Mary" in "South Pacific" and that was (still is) her show-stopping number.

The Circus Circus will soon break ground to reestablish its front entrance at the lower level, instead of the balcony adit now used . . . This past week a "Breakfast Show" Tube pilot was supposed to be shot, with an eye on national syndication. (Another similar pilot is being discussed by a very popular local couple.) On that subject, it would be nice to see Mary Healy and Peter Lind Hayes out here to do some of those breakfast programs, to get them off the ground. However, Peter's radio show, such a success in the East, we doubt he'd be able to break away.

Mickey Rooney and his bride are currently honeymooning before the star begins his road tour in the "George Jerry Zarowitz and Dave Victorson involved in 24 hour preparations for the opening of the Roman Theatre (and "Boys In The Band") at CP . . . Hilariously spoofing the dance, circa 1930 in the Sahara Casbar, "Skin" boasts some pretty, talented terpers . . . Frank Sinatra, Jr. follows his Frontier closing with a tour of South Africa and So. America . . . Ed Sullivan returns his Telly cameras to Circus Circus June 29 . . . Films Ariane will be filming at Circus Circus on July 7.

The story of Bonnie and Clyde . . . Clyde Carson, formerly Dave Victorson's assistant at CP, phoned the news of the latest family addition, nine week old Bonnie. The Carsons are currently living in Sacramento but the FLV attraction is very strong, constantly beckoning its own to return. We predict they will . . . and that's for sure.

GOING HOLLYWOOD

detective in Gimbel's piano department. One night I was ending my act when I heard a terrible commotion out front. A lady in the eighth row was beating a man with her purse and her umbrella. I rushed down because the woman was Mother! Before I could reach her, she had the man in the lobby, still hitting him with her umbrella and screaming, "How dare you!" I got her to stop long enough to tell me he made improper advances from the very start of the show. She didn't hit him at the first because she insisted she couldn't miss one of my cues.

One time I called her at the Essex House, and the girl operator said, "Mrs. Berle is in the lobby." Mom answered on the open house intercom, aware of all the people in the lobby: "Hello, is this my son, Milton Berle?" That was the love and pride of my mother."

Sondra Berle had reason to be proud of her son. How many mothers long for like devotion and wish their sons were as attentive?

It was instant Milton Berle Day and His Mother's Day from there on. Fifi D'Orsay, the vivacious French bombshell who said she's 65, which made Mrs. Leland Atherton Irish exclaim, "She looks 30," recalled making pictures and appearing in plays with Milton. Lita Grey Chaplin recalled movies and plays with Milton too. So did Rose Marie, the popular TV star. But Patti Moore, who knew Sondra Berle well in the days when she and Sammy Lewis were vaudeville headliners and appeared with Milton at the Palace, said Milton was a clever child star, and his mom always laughed up his jokes. I had the pleasure of being Mistress of Ceremonies and interviewing Milton. When he saw me taking notes for this column, he quipped, "I see May with her pen taking notes. Once a furrier, always a furrier."

Milton's brother Phil, Lita Baron, Hortense Katzman, Mitzi Cummings, Esther Karnes, Consuelo de Bonzo, who presented her marvelous Olvera Street entertainers, Sam Brand, and Jan Murray, who came in later from his Melodyland date to receive an award all were there with several hundred others.

As I escorted Milton Berle out, since he was due at the Paramount Studios, ladies' hands were reaching out in every direction, to touch him, and to tell him they loved him; some to tell him they loved him at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas, and to ask where he'd appear next. Lake Tahoe is it. I have seldom seen a star paid more homage. Film producers would do well to cast Mr. Berle in more dramatic roles, for there were tears in everyone's eyes as he spoke and, as quickly, he dispelled them with laughter.

And That's Hollywood!

Two small boys were standing together when a very pretty little girl walked by. One of the boys said fervently to his pal: "When I stop hating girls, she's the one I'll stop hating first."
