THESE—AND 87% OF HIS PREDICTIONS HAVE COME TRUE.

During the time since Criswell's first book Criswell Predicts To The Year 2000! was published, his astounding record of accuracy has gained him an audience numbering in the millions.

Appearances on Johnny Carson's Tonight Show; on The Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin Shows — and many others — have made his name the center of much discussion — and, at times, controversy.

His first book was a "Journal of The Future" covering the next thirty years until the date Criswell Predicts the world as we know it will end — August 18, 1999!

This book is more immediate. In these pages Criswell predicts the events that will befall America and the world during the decade of the 1970's. He also answers the 101-questions most often asked him about the next ten years. These predictions will affect us all, Criswell says — and if his record of 87% accuracy continues, then every person in the world has a personal stake in what Criswell predicts in this volume!

THE SOUL SEARCHING SEVENTIES

I predict that the soul searching seventies will prove to be a point of no return for seven nations who will vanish from the face of the earth in this era! . . . I predict that the present war in Africa will continue and continue, as food is no problem for the armies of both sides, as they eat their enemies and their own dead, in waging tribal warfare! . . . I predict that a strange chemical combination in the air will tarnish and dull your mirrors! If it does that to mirrors, what can it do to us? . . . I predict that every man, woman and child on welfare will be fingerprinted to avoid duplicate and sometimes triple payment! One set of children (age 2-4-6-8) was passed from one woman to another seven times and collected! The welfare frauds must stop or welfare will stop! . . . I predict that the new Civil Rights Group will demand the end of all religious and private burial grounds on charges of discrimination! . . . I predict that the next tragedy to strike England will be a series of bloody riots in London! . . . I predict that we are entering an era of fixed prices on food, clothing, rent and professional services of your doctor, lawyer, dentist, plumber and your favorite funeral director! . . . I predict that you can force your health insurance company to pay for mental illness, in spite of what their policy contains! Yes, the Seventies!

RETURN TO SANITY

I predict that our civil service, our local, county, state and national employees will be issued orders to "return to sanity" in dress and action! Scraggly hair, beards, heavy sideburns and hippie clothes will no longer be permitted! To receive government pay, the employee must conform to dress, action, politeness and to cleanliness! No personal liberties will be taken away but a code of conduct and dress will be enforced! Rebellion could lead to instant dismissal!

HOLLYWOOD ORGY!

I predict that a famed Hollywood orgy, which has been going on for years, will come to an end! The orgy of Hollywood spending! Future films for both Theatre/T.V. will be on a careful budget, if Hollywood cares to fight for its life!

CRISIS, CHAOS AND CONFUSION

I predict that Canada will face a period of crisis, chaos and confusion over the new "Buy Canadian Only" campaign. The buying citizen of Canada will pull in the purse strings for he will not accept some of the Canadian items! The subconscious boycott will include cosmetics, clothing and many medical items! Yes, crisis, chaos and confusion for Canada!

THE OLD STORY

I predict you will be shocked at the coming divorce of a newly-elected senator who seeks to dump his wife thru the divorce courts and marry the new secretary he recently hired! The washing of dirty linen in public is never too wise!

WHERE ARE WE GOING?

Many of you women ask "Where are we going?" Will the next ten years (1970-1979) be as tragic as 1960-1969? You girls demonstrated for civil rights, legal abortions, woman power! You saw Jacqueline Kennedy become First Lady, then a widow and then a bride! You saw Mrs. Martin Luther King become the new Black Joan of Arc! You copied Twiggy! You saw Margaret Chase Smith try to be the presidential nominee; Margaret, the Royal Princess, become Mrs. Jones! The topless bathing suit craze; Ladybird

You mourned the death of Grandma Moses, Eleanor Roosevelt, Marilyn Monroe, Jayne Mansfield, Clara Bow, Marie McDonald, Jeanette McDonald, Dorothy Dandridge, Linda Darnell, Judy Garland, Mitzi Green, Sonja Henie and other images of this era! But in the era to come 1970-1979 you will find that (1) abortion is murder (2) you will be asked to work for the government in a crisis (3) you will be required to be responsible as a man is, to your employer (4) you will own and control 93% of all American wealth by 1979 (5) you will enter banking, investment, the stock market, import-export and hold very responsible positions as executives (6) you will control the paycheck of the husband as it will be paid to you directly and (7) you will be favored by the politicians as your votes will outnumber the men, but most of all, half of all the elective offices will be held by you women, and in the early 1980's a woman will be President!

Q: Will there be more student rebellion?

A: I predict that the next student rebellion in our high schools, colleges and universities will be the defacing of any religious symbol or biblical quotation in, around or on any structure of the campus! Many will even find the "A.D." after a date offensive, while others will storm the statutes of national heroes. Memorial windows will be broken out in a frenzy of frustration. I predict that anarchy cannot survive and it will be replaced by strict police action to quell it! I further predict that many insurance companies will cancel all coverage of public and private school buildings for any damage and will classify them as "gray-riot-areas" very soon!

LEE FISHER, who is making himself heard on the subject of anti-pollution, is receiving many calls from people who want to know what they can do to help. Oddly enough, the first step is to register to vote. The voice at the polls will support the candidates who will fight pollution. Exercise your power of the ballot. Next, spread awareness among your friends. Thirdly, follow your conscience in petitioning officials and friends to act — NOW. The preventive measures are urgent. We cannot exist in a world in which clean air and water have become obsolescent!

The national situation of a tightened economy is currently invading our Meadows, although no one here has labeled it yet. Management is reevaluating the staff count and superfluous heads will be removed.

How embarrassing for our Governor Paul Laxalt to find an empty hall when he arrived to address the delegates from a certain convention. None of the conventioners were present at 10 ayem because scheduled activities had kept them up beyond dawning . . . It's a late town, this 24 hour town of ours . . . with constant activity and very little time for rest. Frankly, this is probably the reason for the condition that performers call "Vegas Throat." It isn't the dryness of the climate (we have more humidity than in years past), it's the lack of rest. You still can't burn that wax bar at both poles.

One of the security guards at a local casino presented a very important reason why his clansmen are determined to form a union. A performers' agent tore a telephone from its mooring and treated it like a cobra. When he asked a security guard for another, the hotel employee cautioned the show biz rep to be more careful with the second instrument. The agent reported the "insolent" incident and the guard was fired. The boys want protection in exchange for their protection of management.

The new "CBS-TV "Store Front Lawyers," currently shooting in Hollywood, will use actual locations, cost be hanged. Main Street, The Century Plaza, the court rooms of the new County Building and Sunset Boulevard draw crowds as in days of yore. A segment is planned for FLV in late February.

There's talk of a gaming innovation using Tarot cards, professed to be fast and exciting. Here? Probably for home use!

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

TINY TIM came to Doug Weston's Troubadour and set the women in this town atune and all aflutter tripping through his tulips! I was surprised, not realizing that Tiny reacts on la femme's hearts like Elvis! There they were, all ages and sizes, reaching out to touch him as he made his way to the stage for his performance. Some cried out hysterically, "I love you, Tiny!" "Kiss me, Tiny!"

In his dressing room after the first show, Tiny introduced his "Miss Vicki" (whom he wed on the Johnny Carson Show). "We had to, because we couldn't possibly invite all our friends to our wedding," said Tiny. Tiny's friends are his fans. They kept pounding for admittance on his dressing room door. Whilst his true love, "Miss Vicki" snuggled close to him, and he nuzzled her neck and pretty pink ears, whispering "I love only you. Don't be jealous. I am faithful to you."

"Miss Vicki" will become accustomed to this phase of show business. After all, that's what her husband's career is all about, fans wanting and paying to see him.

Tiny's act is clean fun, and the Troubadour's orchestra was augmented by six extra pieces while the lighting, quite carefully done, set the mood. Tiny sang and later he introduced "Miss Vicki" who is seventeen and shy. Everyone welcomed her, then returned promptly to Tiny. "We'll be on the road for concerts for four months. We'll make Vegas in the Summer," said Tiny.

"Just wait until you see Vegas," I told Miss Vicki. "That's where the glamour and excitement is. All the hardust, the FABULOUS shows, the big stars, all unbelievable, spell Las Vegas!"

Miss Vicki's eyes widened a bit. So, this side of show business, daily planes, schedules, rehearsals, show times, and packing isn't exactly glamorous. But then she's a newlywed, and perhaps it is all more than meets the eye.

"Oh, Calcutta" that closed here, grossed $40,000.00 in a small theater in New York, I hear, as against "Hello Dolly," the multi-million dollar Twentieth Century Fox Films musical, $85,000.00. The latter will play for years. It is one of the greats of a decade. And that big parade staged as it was in that period is worth the price of admission alone. And don't let anyone fool you! La Belle Streisand is completely natural on screen, which is what being an actress is all about, isn't it, if she plays her role for real. She's the best, and her singing, well, you already know. Hope you see "Hello Dolly," one of the greatest musicals of our time.

Lou Alexander is in town doing some of the talk shows, while playing his engagement at the Playboy. "I just signed with the same manager of Tom Jones and Englebert Humperdinck," said Lou. More, his contract with United Records calls for a schedule of albums; but was he a proud papa to say his second dotter is equally beautiful as his blue-eyed first. "This one looks exactly like me, a brunette," said Lou. "Except she's more beautiful, natch!"

Paramount Pictures "The Brain" is a comedy about a fiendishly clever scheme to rob a train laden with NATO funds enroute from Paris to Brussels. The criminal mastermind is the same who engineered the Glasgow Bridge train robbery some years ago in England. Remember it? David Niven, Jean Paul Belmondo, and Silvia Monti and Eli Wallach star. It's a real romp of excitement, fun, and beautiful color and a holiday trip in your theatre seat to enjoy Sicily, Italy

Joan Crawford, lunching with Audrey Davenport at Cafe Chauveron, was wearing a hot pink dress with attractive cutouts along the cowl neckline and a matching turban of the same material. It's a rare day you see Joan Crawford without a hat, because she loves hats and always manages to get a piece of material of any dress, suit or coat, so she can give it to "Emme" to do her stuff. (Which reminds me, the Emperor of Fashion, "Mr. John," arrives February 1 on his annual p. a. tour of Magnin's.)

Joan is writing a new book (she dictates into a recorder every day) and Audrey will get all the tapes together and put the book together. Joan's book is "A Way of Life," in which Joan tells secrets of good grooming, makeup, exercise, all sorts of beauty care, and how to run a home, how to be a wife and mother and yet combine a career — that sort of thing.

Hildegard is due at the Century Plaza January 31st. "The Incomparable" one is great news. . . . Henry Fonda has cautioned his movie star sprigs Peter and Jane (Jane just may get an Oscar this year, ditto Peter) to be more careful talking to the press!

The big news of Henry Fonda is "Our Town," in which he stars opening February 12th at the Huntington Hartford with an all star cast. Big expectations and gala parties are fore and aft too. . . . Marlo Thomas goes on a 24-day p. a. tour for her first feature film, "Jenny," come February 1st.

Seems impossible Hal March (who died of lung cancer) is gone. He played such a fine performance recently at the Huntington Hartford. . . . Joan Fontaine decided not to do a picture for an Italian producer and he held all her baggage in Rome. Anyway Joan's back home and won't listen to any more foreign wooing without an American signed contract this side of the pond.

Hear Jim Brown was at the International in Las Vegas listening to soul singer James Brown. 'Cause movie star Jim Brown has a singing offer and wants to study, to see if he should. . . . Chris Jones' business manager has moved into the house where Sharon Tate was murdered.

Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Pan-Am back to town from an Hawaiian holiday replete with kids, pets and baggage. Elizabeth wears her FABULOUS diamond for breakfast. It's insured that way. They are next off to Puerto Vallarta for a rest.

Charlie Chaplin celebrated his 81st birthday signing a contract to direct a movie starring his two teen dotters, Josephine and Victoria, to be filmed in London come April.

Arthur Lubin is home from Spain where he filmed "Rain in a Dusty Summer" and discovered a new star in Gemma Cuervo. Arthur has become a millionaire from residuals and all from his famed TV Series "Mr. Ed," which is playing all over the world, chums!

And That's Hollywood!

JUST seven months after the opening of the $60 million, 1500 room International Hotel, Kirk Kerkorian is considering building another 1500 room addition directly adjacent to its present structure.

The proposed new hotel is being pondered as a probable alternative to a previous plan for enlarging the International by the same number of rooms and suites to cost in the vicinity of about $30 million.

Reason for wanting to build the new facility is now under consideration as an alternative to adding to existent structure because of the demand from people not occupying rooms in the hotel has been much greater than expected. People from other hotels have been patronizing the various restaurants, main showroom and lounge plus the legit theatre. The addition will help to fill the giant showroom due to more room occupancy. Only two entertainers, Barbra Streisand and Elvis Presley were able to fill the big showroom night after night.

To fill the large showroom it takes a Tom Jones, Frank Sinatra or a Jackie Gleason.

The decision whether to go ahead with the new addition will be made within three months. Should the green light be given the new structure opening would take place early in 1972.

Being adjacent to the present facility, the new addition could utilize the convention halls, restaurants and could be a big savings on the investment cost. No one seems to realize what it costs to run International Hotel.

In the meantime plans look favorable for a new 15 story high-rise, 1000 rooms at the other Kerkorian holding, the Flamingo Hotel, to cost somewhere in the vicinity of $5 million plus an additional $3 million for renovation and refurbishing. The completion date would be late this year or early next year.

One thing is certain and that is to try to obtain the biggest name entertainers to fill the International and Flamingo Hotels nightly every night throughout the year. This is easy to say, but hard to do as there aren't that many name stars with boxoffice appeal. It seems that every hotel here is faced with an entertainment problem except Dunes, Tropicana, Stardust and Desert Inn which has production shows. Let's make some new stars fellas.

RAMBLING AROUND — MGM records is rushing the release of "Two By Two" for the Cowsills, currently headlining at Flamingo Hotel . . . Johnny Carson, Jack Benny, Don Rickles, Danny Kaye, Dan Rowan and Dick Martin will display their talents when Sahara-Tahoe opens the Superstar season May 18 . . . the United Nations for future generations! Here is a hush-hush prediction: I predict that thru the right channels any girl or woman may purchase the sperm of a famous movie or tv star for artificial insemination by your own doctor in your home

Q: What is the next propaganda outlet?

A: I predict that the next propaganda outlet will be over 1,000 pirate radio stations on small boats beyond the 12 mile limit both on the East Coast, the Gulf Coast and the West Coast! This will play havoc with American radio reception.

THIS HAS to be the busiest town in the whole U.S.A. With my TV chores, getting to openings at night, fighting the Flu, I've had it. But another week is upon us, so onward, ever onward.

Vic Damone, currently at the Frontier Hotel's Circle "F" Theatre is still the most musical act ever to play our town. When Sinatra said that Vic has the best pipes in the business, he was putting it mildly. Vic is superb in every respect. His onstage warmth, his flair for light comedy and above all his interpretation of a song. From the old standard "Time after Time" to the current "Spinning Wheel," Vic lets you know who's in command. Of course, the real showstopper is his rendition of "MacArthur Park." A brilliant arrangement by Joe Parnello who, incidentally, is leaving Vic as musical conductor. As I understand it, Joe will continue to write for Vic but the traveling keeps him from home and Family for too long a period of time. Just keep those chats and arrangements coming in, Joe.

While talking to Vic the other night, he gave me a copy of his new album. This is the LP that he recorded "live" at the Frontier. On this, you hear the band. A band that could easily make a million dollars if they went on the road. But that's why the band is so great. It's made up of excellent musicians who paid their dues on the road long ago and still remember it. But buy this album if you can find it. I don't think distribution is the best, so insist on it at your favorite record store. Above all see and hear Vic Damone at the Frontier. He's too much!

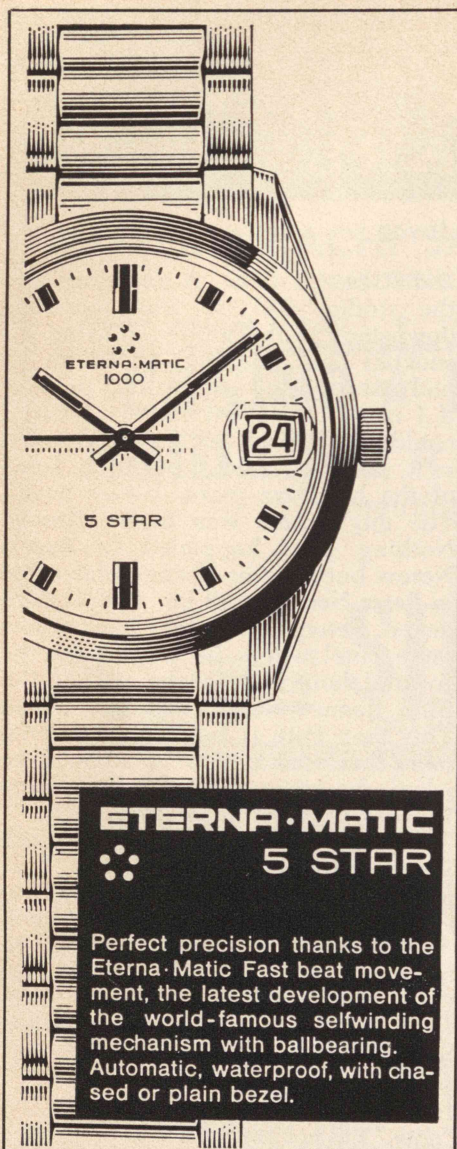

About eight years ago, I was doing a DJ show for one of the local stations. It was on a Saturday afternoon and I was all alone. A guy came into the studio, said he was appearing downstairs in the lounge, playing the cocktail hour. He had an album he had just recorded and wanted to know if I could play it on the air. I said I couldn't promise, but I would listen to it. After my show, I put it on. Some of the best jazz piano I ever heard. The guy's name was Bernie Nerow. Nothing good happened to Bernie Nerow but after he changed his name to Peter Nero, we all know what happened. Peter Nero comes back to the same hotel where he played for the cocktail hour but as the star of the Blue Room at the Tropicana Hotel. This time Pete is being paid a little more than scale pay. More about Pete when he opens. He follows the World's Greatest Jazz Band.

Got by opening night to catch Woody Herman at the Roman Theatre at Caesars Palace. What a difference from the last time he was here. At that last time, I found the band to be suffering with a bad drummer. This time, the old "chopper" came in to town with a young guy who knew just how to drive the Herd. Woody's current band is one of his best but I found the material just a bit too "now." I'm not saying not to play some of the current hits of the day, but aside from "Woodchoppers Ball," I missed hearing some of the great things that Herds from the past made famous. Next time in Woody, for old timers like me, throw in a few of the "oldies" that you updated. But the band is just great. About the Brothers Castro next week.

Jackie Gayle has found a home, finally. Namely the Casino Theatre at the Flamingo Hotel. I have to rank Jackie with the super comics who play our town. I have never met a man with such a quick, natural wit as Jackie. If you can stay up and catch Jackie's last show, do so. Nothing is sacred to the tiger. If he has a planned routine, he must throw it out the window before he comes onstage. Never have I heard such quick, inventive comedy. Catch Jackie Gayle at the Flamingo and go to pieces.

Have not seen the new review at the Desert Inn yet. "Fanny Hill" is currently there. Will try this week. I've heard nothing but good reports, though.

That's just about it for now. Hope you look in on KHBV-TV, Channel 5 and yours truly with "Dialing For Dollars" Monday to Friday and on our "Happening" in the wee hours Sunday morning. Until next week, this is Cap'n Bob asking all his little shipmates not to forget to send away for your Melvin Purvis G-Man badge. Bye now.

The personnel manager was giving a speech to the new sales trainees. "And don't feel discouraged. Remember, when you've been with us for five years, you'll get a beautiful red certificate which says you've given us valuable service for five years. When you've been with us for ten years, you'll receive a handsome bronze certificate that says we appreciate the valuable service you've rendered us for the past ten years. And when you've been with us for fifteen years, you'll get a badge."

"And what does the badge say?" asked a young recruit.

"Well-er . . . the badge says, 'This man has a red certificate and a bronze certificate'."

MIGHTY MIXTURE

By GARY STEVENS

DATELINE: NEW YORK

QUOTA OF QUOTES: Richard Burton: "There is nothing quite so compelling and powerful and fascinating as acting." Carol Burnett: "Sure I'd play 'Blanche Du Bois' in 'A Streetcar Named Desire' — if Zero Mostel was 'Stanley Kowalski'."

OFF THE BOOKSHELF: Bert Lahr was one of the theatre's grandest comedians. This desk revered his technique and manner. How many times we saw him, how many times we howled. He left the scene, took the final curtain call a couple of years ago. An enlightening literary experience awaits a reader who communes with "Notes On A Cowardly Lion." Put out by the enterprising Alfred A. Knopf publishing house, written by Bert's boy John Lahr, it is first rate biography, original in form and pleasantly loquacious in detailing the childhood, the start, the loves, the hates of the Broadway buffoon. This is a first try for young John. His attempt comes as a profound projection, treated with more objective quality than the expected subjective progeny to pater approach. There are times in the book when you can hear Bert getting his "Lahrffs." Other moments have you understanding his torment. Brooks Atkinson, critic emeritus and the best of the lot, always chided producers for letting seasons go by without casting Bert Lahr in a musical or a revue. The son of the famous father has listened, researched and snooped. What he put on paper implements the N.Y. Times reviewer's opinion. As a result of the work, we better appreciate the talent and know so much more of the man.

CHATTER CORNER: Heywood Hale Brown's line, worth repeating: "Basketball scores are running as high as stock market prices of 1929" . . . Listening happiness is lending the auditory system, all out, to Bob Wilber on soprano sax and Bud Freeman blowing a tenor horn through choruses of "Just One Of Those Things," just part of the inspiring music of the World's Greatest Jazz Band when they appeared at the revived Grill Room in the Hotel Roosevelt (currently at the Tropicana). And for the relief combo, who but Joe Venuti and his trusty hot fiddle plus a few choice assistants to supply unexcelled riffs and phrasing . . . Chinese culinary triumphs are many at Tom's Shangri-La. The hosts, Tom Chong and Peter Pond proffer expertise in suggesting the right entrees. Shrimp with vegetables in ginger-wine sauce and Chicken Chunks with chopped pepper and onion are standouts . . . Add Hollywood happy marriages: Jayne Meadows and Steve Allen . . . Virginia Graham, the amiable gabber, rates a nod for direct approach to frankness. The buxom blonde tells all in hearing distance that she's had a recent face lift . . . Observation: Comic Milt Kamen generally has an expression on his countenance equal to that look of a guy in search of cab . . .

EAT TREAT BEAT: The main room at the Spindletop has been given a becoming, subdued appearance. In the bar area, new lighting accoutrements add style and subtlety. As per always, the Roast Beef, Steaks and Seafood are top drawer. Owner-Host, Van Rapoport, in the height of Edwardian fashion, his ribbons upon ribbons on display which tell of his prowess as a horseman. The clientele here is equally divided among the sports faction and theatrical luminaries . . . At the French Shack, the owner-chef (Continued on Page 30)

THE ALADDIN

BAGDAD THEATRE — Dec. 19-Indefinite
The New Minsky's Burlesque '70; starring Tempest Storm; Hank Shank Ork. (10:15
P.M. & 2 A.M. 3rd show Sat. & Sun.
9:30 P.M.)

SINBAD LOUNGE

Paul Littlechief; Golden Gate Doorknob;
Wild Honey (6 P.M. to 6 A.M.)

More lavish in gorgeous girls, costumes, settings, funnier burlesque blackouts — plus Tempest Storm — is Harold Minsky's new fun missile aimed at the visiting populace. All will enjoy getting hit with such outsize bombardments exemplified by the flaming tressed Tempest Storm. Hers is a slow, sinuous tease in the easy, sure way; none of that instant exposure stuff! . . . Looney Lewis comes into his own with this production. As top banana, he shows his great sense of timing and know-how of the jokes, gags and schtick that have made burlesque the riot it can be in the right hands . . . In Tout Paris, Les Girls is the name of the game and they have a bevy of beauties, opulently costumed for dazzling effect, with plenty of undraping to give audiences an eyeful. There is a sandstorm on the desert with two live camels, and a mirage in which the Sheik — and the audience — sees mermaids swimming in a pool. Another is a recreation of "The Phantom Of The Opera," with talented lead singer Jack Kassel as the phantom, and the illusion of opera spectators on stage. . . . "Tout Paris" is also notable for returning the side-splitting Nitwits to the stellar spot, the most popular act ever to appear in a Lido here, and for an array of other fine performers. The international ice skating team of Parker & Powers scores strongly. . . . Others are Mac Ronay, the delightfully humorous "magician," Tyrolean contortionists Evers & Toni, and human pretzels they are, and — the peripatetic activities of the acrobatic Reberte Brothers. . . . The ravishing dancing Bluebell Girls are the lovelies making Le Lido such a treat for red-blooded boys, who must pop a corpuscle when they spot such beautiful bra-less beauties as terper Marya Linero, Valerie Perrine, and Briony Merriman! . . . Frank Sennes is producer of the extravaganza conceived by Pierre Louis-Guerin and Rene Fraday.

This kaleidoscopic dazzler is chiefly populated by richly costumed men and women in the splendidly choreographed scenes by Tony Charmoli, seven in all. When the Tibor Rudas Dancers finish their incredibly fleet Can Can, there is only one equal to that display, more Rudas Dancers in the "Marriage au Tyrol" . . . Sue Carson makes one of her rare appearances to captivate the audience with a bubbly comedy turn and impressions of well-known femme chanteuses . . . Another addition to the body department is Suzette Summers, a holdover from the '69 show. Possessing a beautiful, symmetrical form, Suzette displays it well in a slinky, jungle strip. She also doubles nicely in the blackouts . . . Miss Loni is a silver blonde appealer who exhibits another kind of legwork, tossing various objects up and around, spinning, balancing, in what is known as risley. She's expert at it . . . The production singing of Jeannie Thomas is very impressive. This lissome brunette not only has the pipes to melt the flintiest heart, she moves well and becomes a definite asset to every scene . . . Lead femme dancers have the skimpiest of coverings and their figures and intricate movements certainly enhance the three impressive production rounds. They are Orie

This edition seems to top them all. Not only are the nudes splendid in proportion, they are fleet of foot among the Jerry Norman choreos. The six dancers make all of his intricate steppery look effortless and immensely colorful . . . Costumes by Josephine Spinedi, executed by Eastwood, are of the usual high order she always manages to design; the Winn Strickland settings have immediate sock impact on the eyes, aided by Bob Kiernan's imaginative lighting . . . Irv Gordon's scoring is bright and contemporary and the Hank Shank octet wails along through the charts, sounding like a crew of twice that number.

. . . The for-adults-only "spectacular," and that's le mot juste for this eye-popper, will appeal not only to the broadminded but to everyone who digs superb entertainment . . . Frederic Apar, who conceived, produced, and directed "Casino" on a grand scale, has gone first cabin all the way — from John Leccia's tuneful music and Jose Luis Vinas' rich, inventive costumes, to special effects and talent . . . The Clownerama opener, with clowns cleverly displaying the show's credits, is alone enough to give The Dunes another hit, yet it segues into a psychedelic, mod dancing finish so colorful the audience yips with excitement . . . Other lavish numbers featuring most of the cast of 100 are a wild Chicago sizzler complete with a dozen undraped femmes in bathtubs and a hair-pulling between topped and topless dancers, a Roman stunner with wrestling gladiators, a live Bengal tiger attacking a hapless victim, and equally live horses in a thundering chariot race capped — if that's possible — by a realistic orgy and the burning of Rome! . . . Acts spotted throughout the extravaganza include the Peiro Brothers and their superb juggling, and their apt impressions, the marvelous Jean Leccia Singers, the show stopping Berosini Monkeys chimpanzees, two baby gorillas, and a scene-stealing orangutan — the Berosini Risley acrobatic act, and breathtaking balancing by Dave & Goliath (Jerry Howard & Red Randall) and all the handsome, talented dancers brilliantly staged and choreographed by Ron Lewis and by Billy Petch . . . Earl Green and his 21 piece orchestra are as magnificent as the new "Casino de Paris."

PERSIAN ROOM

The '70 edition of "Vive Les Girls!" — is all new indeed, from the opening pulchritude-packed Parisian-style western number, with the twirling dancing cowgirls in leather chaps — those are pants, gang! — and a burro wearing the credit cards, to the witty, jazz-age "A Night At Maxim's" finale, with so many goodies in between. The sure show is conceived, produced and directed by Frederic Apar. The stars are uproarious record pantomimists The Bernards, down to earth laugh-getter Berl Williams and handsome singer Gary Grande . . . Featured are the marvelous adagio team of Pan Palethorpe and Ron Watson, whom I'd never recognize with their clothes on, and rhythmic bongoist Ricardo Rincon . . . The always brilliant "Vive" dancing, choreographed by Ron Lewis, is fleet-footed by the lithe Ron Lewis Ballet . . . The Mannequins de Paris are the bosomy showgirl eye-fuls . . . Jose Luis Vinas, among the world's most inspired designers, has outdone himself with the spectacular costumes . . . Tony Maril conducts the Earl Green Ork.

and as they pop up within the vocalog, the reception is the usual peak huzza manifestation. As for the contemporary tunes, there is a surprising acceptance of these entries as well. Miss Starr knows that she cannot go on forever chanting the evergreens, but must plant some new songseeds. With her typical love of the lyric and care for the melodic thrust, she is on her way to the building of an impressive new Starr catalogue imbued with her unique style and delivery . . . Her Four Men of Note are very able in all of the harmony supports . . . Leonard Barr is a freaky comedian, not among the usual chatters on view around the many showrooms. He harks to Henny Youngman, with a welter of one-liners, many of which are standards in the comedy field, but which take on a different, funny slant coming from Barr. His pantomime of Michaelangelo sculpting Venus de Milo (?) is a tickler and a shuffling, eccentric dance as he goes into the wings always pulls in hefty applause . . . Al Jahns leads his orksters through a "Birth of the Blues" overture, illustrated neatly by trombonist John Veith's vocal, then proceeds to back the Barr notations and, chiefly, the Starr charts with vigor.

The Al Alvarez rkers have a good workout with the unpredictable Durante calling the shots and having his sidekick, Jack Roth, at the drums. Durante also has his own pianist George Finley to play round with the musical mayhem.

ance and will return for a quick reprise April 28. Colorful costumes and latin music spell happiness in any language . . . Harry Wham spins the wheel of choice, making certain stops at everyone's favorite selections. He keyboards the strains and accents them with vocals that have assured him one of the steadiest of patron followings . . . We consider Johnny Paul "King of the Hill" of the Boat's entertainment scene. He is a one man trio. Johnny scouts the entertainment fare. Then, he takes over as host. For dessert, he table hops with some of the guests who are lucky enough to be regaled by his up-close hand magic.

as the straight man foil for Raft, she sizzles as "The Cat Girl" ecdysiast. She moves with the hypnotic grace of a panther . . . Burlesque veteran Milt Douglas has changed partners, introducing seductive Jeannie Linero to assist him in spoofing the atmosphere with their musicomedy interpretations. The Linero beauty comes across strong with her song and dance . . . Yvette & Paris are exciting exponents of the dance, lending complete abandonment of expression . . . A plaintive, innocent face belies the sensuality of tassel twirler Satan's Angel . . . Charles Vespia and David Walker shine in the vocals . . . Noel Sheldon's choreography has the Ashton Girls high stepping from opening number to the finale with Paul Lowden batoning the background for the Ashton-Wolf Kochmann production.

gaging acts of its kind, introducing his Girl Friends, a Rhesus monkey and Gibbon baboon, who absolutely convulse everyone with their people-shines . . . The humorous Spanish trio of Pompoff Thedy Family has some ridiculous musical and sight gags in an action potpourri filled with laughs from start to finish . . . The juggling of Valente Valente is fascinating on two counts — the boy and girl both engage in nifty tricks, particularly with pingpong balls . . . Vassili Sulich is one of the better solo dancers around today and his adagio with Pat LaForge, both nearly nude, in "Feast of the Spider" confirms it . . . Moving out from the Tropicana Dancers, the Tropicana Boys and Les Mannequins are four enchanting Loreleis, Felicia Atkins, Joyce Grayson, Monica Lind and Anna Kappel. Miss Kappel reveals a singing voice of commanding range . . . The Randy Van Horne Singers add special effects to the music with their harmonies . . . Special credits are deserved by Gyarmath for scenery and costumes; production coordination by Paul Szigety and Larry Grayson; original music by Henry Betti of Paris with lyrics by John Bradford; musical arrangements by Jerry Fielding . . . ## MIGHTY MIXTURE troupe at the Frontier. That poses a question as to whether the Jesters will fulfill their Feb. 24 D.I. lounge date.

In his current Frontier show, Jimmy Durante's line of girls are all cover beauties. Watching them, you miss the yesterday that featured dancers so prominently in show production numbers. Captain "Indian Jean" Steven and the girls (Kari Noven, Shirley Randel, Lydia Hill, Pam Egbert and Sharon Cunningham) put life into the backstage area, as well as dealing charm in the spotlight.

N.Y. Producer Nick Scott is planning a Telly special on "The Girls Of Las Vegas" . . . based on the recent Cosmopolitan Magazine story by Robert Daley. Daley will also write the tube version. Action will be centered around Caesars Palace.

That was our own Criswell exchanging predictions with Ellay's Mayor Yorty at the George Lim Chinatown Restaurant. Cris predicts the popular Mayor "will be the political bright light of the state of California very, very soon!"

Add Joe Williams to the "Fillies de Soul" celeb fan set. The jazz singing great gave the Sahara's musical Los Blues nothing but raves after catching it. Los Blues also drew verbal applause from the staff at United Recording when they checked into Bill Porter's platter and tape emporium for an overdub and remix session. Elvis and the Colonel have virtually adopted our Bill Porter, who correctly predicted an undesirable sound condition for the superstar at the International. Now, Elvis wants to take the master engineer on the road with him. Porter might arrange a few short tours . . . like the Houston Astrodome show.

FABULOUS Notes . . . Red Skelton's warm-up for live Telly audiences in the studio will be included in his next FLV date . . . A New York producer is trying to sell Clair Booth Bruce's comedy "The Women" (with a cast of female impersonators) to a strip hotel . . .

Vikki Carr shifts to the Riviera Feb. 7 . . . After 16 years as District Sales Manager with TWA, Ray Culley is now in charge of the Four Queens R., Sales Promotion and Advertising . . . Hortensia McKiernan will remodel her El Cholo Mexican Cafe before departing on a cruise . . .

Judging from the inside grumbles, P's Roman Theatre might be returned to its original lounge setting . . . Nationwide TV viewers are watching the Stardust Lounge Kimberlys "Love Of The Common People" special, in which they co-star with Waylon Jennings, Charlie Pride and the Collins Kids (now airing on all Metromedia Stations) . . .

Dunes "Casino" cast members have three weekly photo sessions with the "Gorgeous Tiger" . . . Edie Adams (opening CP with Woody Allen Feb. 12) guests on the Don Adams Telly special Feb. 26 . . . Alan & Shane have had their D.I. "Pzazz" option picked up for another six fortnights . . .

Enjoyed a reunion with Sharon Dierking ("Fanny Hill" star) and hubby Al Lanti ("dirty old man" in the piece) and marked the FABULOUS schedule to keep in step with the Green Acres Telly segment "Cow Killer" and the Bold Ones tubing of "The Lawyer." Al was cast in both TV viewers before he opened here at the D.I. Lounge with his beautiful frau. The couple last appeared in the same bistro's production of "Many Happy Returns" with Pat Carroll, John Carroll, Vic Buono, Linda Michele and John Raitt.

Roger Miller tapes the Johnny Cash TV viewer in Nashville in March . . . KORK-TV Channel 3 celebrated its 15th Anniversary on the 25th . . . Paul Ross moved into the Executive Assistant Manager spot at CP that John Dadas relinquished . . . Taking over the (Ross) resultant vacancy as Assistant Manager (CP) is Daryl Jorgenson . . .

Barbara Brown joined the staff of Hollywood Horoscope Records . . . Dunes Hoteliers draw a tremendous plug for their bistro and FLV with the front cover feature of "Casino de Paris" on the Carte Blanche March issue . . . Vacationing at CP was Morrie Kono, Equipment Manager of the Cleveland Browns F.B. team since it was organized in 1946.

DON'T MOVE . . . IMPROVE

Turn your home into your dream home and save ten to fifty thousand dollars over the construction and mortgage costs on a new house.

In the example above, a two-car garage was converted into a gracious living room with formal dining area and a separate family room. The old living room became an impressive foyer, plus an additional bedroom and a small sewing room. A breakfast bar was incorporated into the kitchen. The new living room included an atrium, through which the above interior photograph was shot. A final touch was the romantic courtyard and handsome double entrance doors. If you'd like to save money and have your dream home designed expressly for you, give us a call. No obligation.

devil twist, making his Circus Circus sponge plunge with his eyes closed . . . Zsa Zsa's cosmetics are absolutely delicious . . . Capitol expects Irving Fields' latest etching "Snatch 'N Grab It" to be another "Alley Cat."

You know you're really tired when you reach for a dictionary and find yourself looking up a definition in the telephone directory.

What started out as an ordinary Get Well Card became a nine and one half foot long volume when the staff at Circus Circus began adding signatures for high wire performer Raoul Rodriguez. The spunky performer suffered a tragic fall on his opening night in Flint, Michigan, where he performed sans benefit of a net. Raoul is still in intensive care, with a fractured spine and a partially severed spinal column.

Among the chosen is SAMMY COHEN, who recently underwent lung surgery and is now facing heart surgery. His thoughts however are concentrated on the employees at his Race Book, which he's keeping open against the odds, despite the strike that closed Santa Anita. In addition to straining his purse thin for this beneficence, Sammy works constantly for "his boys" at the Spring Mountain Youth Camp. Only those who are blessed are given the strength to live for others . . . and that's for sure.
