Birthday- Anniversary Corner

Belated May 20th birthday greetings to Norma Armet, of the Frontier Room Reservations Office . . . Sid Melton sets the pace for the current birthdayers with his May 23rd special . . . The delightful Betty Hoffman (wife of leading internist Dr. Arthur Hoffman) might be celebrating her May 24th birthday at the Beverly Hills Country Club this year . . . FABULOUS luu to Phil Solomon's delightful wife Madlyn, who celebrates her May 23 birthday with her adoring clan in California . . . May 24th cake cutters are Arlene Fitterer (Frontier Room Reservation Office), well known localite Maneta Jorgensen and Robert Lampson (son of IBM Customer Engineer Bob, Sr.) . . . Earle F. Thompson, the new President of the Parvin Dohrman Corp., will find many of his newly acquired staffers extending birthday wishes on his May 24th date . . . The very charming Regina Riley and hubby Charles register another Wedding Anniversary on the 24th. (She is with the Sahara publicity Office and he is with Montgomery Ward.) . . . Pretty Penny Kelley's May 25th cake-and-candle-day has been happily arranged by hubby Don, publicist and leader of The Swingin' Lads . . . May 26th birthday tune honorees are stunner Jacqueline Douget (featured dancer in the D.I.'s "Pazz"), the remarkable Miriam Lombard (of Hollywood) and George Von Tobel, of the pioneer FLV family . . . May 27th wires and cards will be directed to Scottie Delahoyde (Sahara front office cashier), former Veep Hubert H. Humphrey and Patty Kattleman . . . Former FLVite Larry Zampini will co-op his May 28th birthday with 11 year old nephew Mike Maccarone . . . International Sales Manager John Goodwill and the beautiful June (Johnson) May (daughter of the late Chic Johnson of Olsen & Johnson fame) tally another 365'er on the 28th . . . One of the dearest persons living in FLV, Shirley Morgan wouldn't surprise anyone if she spent her May 28th birthday hanging out her grandchild's diapers. (Son Jack is on a concert tour with the orchestra of his late dad Russ Morgan . . . This week's finale is beautifully handled by Sue Egink (of the Frontier Room Reservation Office) on the 29th.

CrisWell PREDICTS
An Accurate Glimpse of the Future

I predict that many ultra-liberal newscasters and commentators on radio-tv will refuse to work for stations which carry commercials from certain Detroit and Chicago firms who manufacture napalm and other war materials! This event will be a "first" in this pattern of protest! . . . I predict that a new sweeping police ruling will demand the registration of all known felons who are fomenting trouble on the campus! . . . I predict that a price war on overseas air travel will hit in July, the peak of the season! . . . I predict that the new "Fat Is Beautiful" cult will grow in popularity and a very happy contentment will reach from coast to coast! . . . I predict that the new outline of studies for the 7th and 8th grades will include a primer on Economics, Wall Street and American banking! . . . I predict that the Illinois public school teachers will defy the law and open each day's classes with a prayer! . . . I predict that our mental hospitals will be filled with the marijuana smoking juveniles who have become inert vegetables! . . . I predict that the next college and university protest will be held in the nude, and they will welcome the photographers with open arms! . . . I predict that crime will so increase in our federal capital Washington, D.C. that garrison law will soon result! . . . I predict that Miami Beach will prepare for their greatest season ahead! . . . I predict that female embalmers will outnumber male embalmers within a short five years!

CHANGES! CHANGES! CHANGES!

I predict changes, changes and more changes! I predict that women will choose to smoke the feminized cigar over the cigarette . . . that college and university campus deportment will be based on the laws of a penal system as is now practiced in Italy, Spain and

England and will soon be adapted by our nation . . . that the new Hollywood union contracts will permit deferred payments until after the film is sold and money coming in (this will also be used in tv for a basis on new series) and that a patient may no longer sign a waiver against the damage of an operation or prescription effect, and the doctor must accept full responsibility! Yes, changes! changes! changes!

SECRET SILENCE

I predict that the secret silence held by the majority of the American public will burst into a loud protest over the rising property taxes, the crime in the streets and the new wave of rioting and destruction in our colleges and schools!

CITADEL OF PROTECTION

I predict that Canada will revive the old Napoleonic Law of "the citadel of protection" where each and every person has a right for their person to be protected from others! I predict this law will be copied by various of the United States thru a garrison law before 1970 becomes history!

THE TIRED AND THE WEARY

I predict that those tired and weary of British mismanagement of London will take it upon themselves to hold a tax strike, which the Labor and the Conservative Party will both understand! The mounting taxes, danger on the streets, poor telephone and electric service will all be the last straw which will break the camel's back! Yes, the tired and the weary of England will revolt and pay no further taxes!

THE LATEST CRAZE

I predict that the latest craze of the jet set will be to board a plane and celebrate some one's birthday in all three time zones. Schedules can be met, and a birthday celebrated nation-

DEFYING THE FUTURE

On a coming series of radio interviews we will appear for BBC entitled "Defying The Future" which can be heard here in the States, as well as Canada. This is similar to the Jack Wheeler presentation over Radio KDKA Pittsburgh each and every Monday evening at 12:30 Eastern Standard Time!

FUGITIVE FROM A FUNERAL

I predict that one of the wildest law suits ever filed will be in Minneapolis where a woman sues her ex-husband when he always refers to her as a "fugitive from a funeral" and/or "my late wife." Just as you cannot out-and-out call a person a communist, you cannot refer to them as the late —! This will change our libel laws within ten days!

GEOLOGICAL FORECAST

I predict that the Geologists will soon warn us of the coming rains for the Summer and Fall — Could Judgement Day be the next rain away? The violent Winters will lead into the most searing of Summers, and then with September will come the rains! As Alexander the Great once said "I never believe in doctors, lawyers, weathermen, but I always believe in fortune tellers." All of the Prophets including Nostradamus forecast "the evil winds of the 1970's"! Just wait and see!

WHY IS IT?

I predict that Billy Graham, the Evangelist, will demand that the Liberals answer his one question "Why are they for a 100% Free Abortion Law yet against Capital Punishment?" Both are considered "murder" in the eyes of the Church International!

POLICE STATE

I predict that the state of Illinois will become a Police State due to the student uprisings, rioting in Chicago, and trouble in Little Egypt! Anarchy cannot be tolerated even in the freest nation in the world, America! Russia put to death over 5,000 dissenters last week who only offered vocal dissention! Illinois will find the nation 100% behind them!

NOTHING HIGHER THAN TRUTH

I predict that the chips will be down in the November elections when the Silent Majority will speak via the ballot box and both the Democrats and Republicans will take notice! Many will be swept from office in the greatest purge in the history of American politics! You can read this in your confidential business letters and newsletters within the next thirty days!

PERSONAL WARNING:

I predict a personal warning to all self-employed citizens: Doctors, Lawyers, Dentists, Plumbers, Funeral Directors etc. for the Treasury Department will examine your tax returns most carefully! A word to the wise is all that is needed!

FRESH NEW BLOOD

I predict that the entertainment and music world will have fresh new blood in the personality of Robert Nartoni, a 30 year old piano master and humorist, who will captivate the public, both young and old! This is the generation gap!

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

By ETTA CORTEZ

IRONIC is the word used by certain members of the medical profession in reference to the new N.Y.U. Hospital wing for Cancer Research sitting completely idle . . . with $3 million of uncrated equipment hauntingly sterile in disuse, as a result of the cancellation of government grants for research . . . Yet, the government supported lab that pays each of three technicians $400 weekly continues on an uninterrupted basis. The latter trio takes potshots at eight helpless baboons to . . . "test the Viet Cong ammunition and it's possible effects."

The accommodations of the Stock Market crash, inflation, transportation problems, and the general public unrest have all taken their toll. Labor and food costs are so high, they have affected the entertainment business all over the world, from the close up viewpoint of the recording industry. The public is beginning to find its television sets and home snacks much more desirable (financially). Here in FLV, the count on incoming tourists was down, a week ago. With our town considered the last stronghold in live entertainment, it would be wise for the local Solomons to pit their mental strength and contrive a suitable course of action that would erase the handwriting on the wall.

The bistro that snagged Jackie Gleason's signature is reportedly dealing out the most astronomical salary yet . . . a cool million dollars for four weeks. Granted that Gleason is a hot property — but a million dollars for a month? If the star salaries continue on this ludicrous rise, they'll vacuum costs even higher and we'll be caught in the quicksand . . . Again — this grim reminder. There is a big someone sitting patiently in the wings, waiting for the "stand-ins" to scuttle the show. The players are on cue. . . . FABULOUS shudders over the pending demise of a town it holds dear. It's difficult to picture FLV as anything but a resort and entertainment capital but . . . "having writ" . . .

Good news from Johnny Puleo. The harmonica pantomimist has formed a new group and is planning to return to the spotlight with a June date at Harrah's-Tahoe, with Al Martino top-lining. From there, Johnny and his gang will play the State Fair circuit until September.

Despite rumors to the contrary, CP's retiring Executive Veep Jerry Zarowitz assures us he will officially relinquish the post to former Sandsman Sandy Waterman on the 1st of June. Mr. Z. will stay on for a few weeks before he and his wife leave for the Summer at Lake Tahoe and later establish residence in Palm Springs. . . . The farewell FLV will extend to Jerry Zarowitz will be a highly reluctant one.

Flamingo - International executives wondered why the public was surprised at the re-shuffling of their top posts at the County Liquor & Gaming License Board meeting on May 11. The changes had received formal approval from the state in January. Fred Benninger replaced Kirk Kerkorian as Chairman of the Board and Director of both hotels. Alex Shookey is Prexy of the International and Jim West is Prexy of the Flamingo. Ernest Goodwin is Veep of the International with Arnold McGraw Secretary-Treasurer. Maurice Miller is Veep of the Flamingo, with Jim Orr, Jr. Secretary-Treasurer. Kerkorian still owns International Leisure Corp., which parents both hotels.

Jimmy Grippo, mentalist-magician of CP's Bacchanal Room, is currently recuperating from surgery at the Villa Gardens Convalescent Hotel in Los Angeles. He unequivocally credits Dr. Harvey Lippman (Associate Professor at UCLA) with a lifesaving performance in the operating room. It will be at least two months before Jimmy returns to FLV. He's being conditioned to undergo further surgery within the month . . . Needless to say, J.G. is missed by everyone, from busboys to the bosses.

Pat Edwards returned to her Silver Slipper desk from the MGM Studio auction she had attended with Barry Ashton. Now an independent producer, Barry made some successful bids for mementoes from his days as dancer/choreographer at MGM. Pat was amazed to see the grand piano used in "The Great Ziegfeld" go for a mere $450.

We could only find one fault with Fay McKay's appearance on the May 13 segment of the Engelbert Humperdinck TV viewer . . . not enough of Fay! But, when you are prejudiced in behalf of a talent, you want to see that person in her own special. That, too, will come for the Landmark "Tower Sweets" headliner.

Former FLVite Sam Salerno, now owner-manager of KRML Radio Station (Carmel), in to tape George Kirby during a short visit to his old home baliwick . . . In case you haven't heard, George Kirby is being held over after the current show closes, for a week's run with incoming Jimmie Rodgers.

The Dunes' new "Vive Les Girls" will open on June 4th with Vest & Clark, Elmarie Wendel and the Gimma Brothers in the featured roles. Both Ron Lewis and Jerry Jackson are choreographing this show that could be one of the most way-out productions seen in this town. They're doing a turnaround with huge stills of naked men, "demurely draped with portable props." Featured nudes in the new "Vive" are Pat Gill and Judy Ritsko. Oh, yes, they will also use someone else's offstage humor gimmick . . . the boys will be clothed in gorilla outfits in the first production number . . . Jose Luis Vinas again designs the spectacular outfits . . . Is it true one of the settings is a la "The Well Of Loneliness"?

At Circus Circus, Jay Sarno and Al Dobritch are excited over their signing of the fantastic magician Tihany (of Brazil). The modern Merlin plans to make Tanya The Elephant disappear during his afternoon shows in the Hippodrome when he opens on June 12. We were told that Tihany is the originator of the unbelievable disappearing illusion used in the Stardust "Lido" show. If anyone wants to challenge that, call Tihany — not FABULOUS — please! The quote didn't come from him but he might conjure the answer.

Young Wes Loper, a student at UNLV majoring in drama, was discovered moonlighting at the Frontier Hotel Art Gallery. While starring at that bistro, Robert Goulet was impressed with Wes' abilities and signed him as Production Assistant for the concert tour he and his wife Carol Lawrence embark on in July . . . Bob just etched "Healin' River" for Columbia . . . There's a very interesting story behind that huge amethyst ring (silver filigree setting) that the handsome singer wears.

Distaffers at the Sands' Diahann Carroll-George Gobel opening had that acquisitive look, eyeing beautiful Diahann's elegant Travilla costume, which appeared to be a tailored jacket and long evening skirt at the beginning of the act, but revealed a stunning gown when the jacket was discarded . . . David Merrick phoned the beauty and said he had the right Broadway property for her when she "tired of the tube and saloon." Diahann says she's willing — but "Julia" can't!

FABULOUS Notes . . . Tube execs are warning their performers against taking part in Protest Marches on campus with the threat of contract cancellations . . . Tony Bennett returns to CP July 12 . . . The Riviera's new $ contract is keeping Engelbert happily in the fold . . . Is David Leland actually receiving phone calls for

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

BOB HOPE, America's most celebrated humanitarian, gives more of himself to entertain and to help his fellow men than any other. He does it with ready wit that ignites laughter around the world. For six years he has cheered our fighting men in the Vietnam zone, has made 19 annual Christmas tours and for 27 consecutive years he's entertained American servicemen. While his 15-day tours are co-sponsored by the U. S. Defense Department and the USO, Bob himself pays the performers. The Defense department furnishes only the transportation.

This year Bob Hope was named TV's most popular entertainer. He topped a list of 368 performers in a survey conducted by the Home Testing Institute. He has received not only the coveted "Medal of Freedom" from the President of the United States, but from crowned heads and state dignitaries worldwide. He has so many awards and trophies that he had to build a house to hold them all. Nevertheless, he was pleased, he said, to receive the Ida Mayer Cummings Auxiliary's Annual May Mann Award (named for the columnist's years of work) presented to him this year at the Beverly Hilton. In fact, he flew in from Florida and skipped a couple of golf dates with Vice President Agnew we heard, to attend the event. Knowing what a golfer Bob is (and does he look it — trim, slim, clear-skinned, young and vital) that is a sacrifice. After the noted Rabbi Magnin made the presentation Bob recalled that he had played his very first benefit for this organization. "Ida called me one time and said, 'Mr. Hope, you'll be sure to be on time for our show? And do you know where I can get a good comedian?'" Even so, Bob was the backbone of Ida's galas all of the years. This was his first appearance since Ida's passing two years ago. And he received a standing ovation when he strode into the packed International Ballroom to "Thanks for the Memory." Surprise was glamorous Dorothy Lamour, his co-star in the movie Road series with Bing Crosby. More stars on the dais were Peter Lupus, tall dark and handsome star of "Mission Impossible," Ann Miller, sparkling from her triumph in "Mame," Jane Withers with her hit TV commercials, Fifi D'Orsay with her witty repartee, Edward Ashley who read Governor Reagan's letter, Charles Buddy Rogers, svelte in black velvet who read Senator Murphy's, and brought regards from America's Sweetheart Mary Pickford, Fay Holden, "Ma Hardy" of movie fame, John Hansen, the sensational new star of "Christine," produced by Edward Small, Christine Jorgensen, the heroine of her own life story, and Lynn Spencer, the noted dean of society columnists in the United States, "Choly Angeleno" of the Herald Examiner.

Since Princess has twice appeared here, fourteen people asked for her. Purr!

Bob Hope kept the room ringing with laughter and Bessie Little, celebrated New York editor, in the audience, expressed it well, "Having Bob Hope here is like having the President of the United States, no less."

Joe Pasternak, the noted film producer, who has made a remarkable recovery from Parkinson's Disease, was lauded and received awards for his long-time Annual Ball shows. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Weinberg and Miss Patti Moore presided and welcomes were extended by Prexy Alvin Levine and Harry Selig. Esther Karnes and Sam Brand were more.

Showing flawless training and presentation were young and dynamic

Pam Carrie and Questin. Art Mancini, the concert pianist, accompanied the songsters. Their act, engaging, sparkling, and young, was cleverly staged by Sal Ponti.

Sybil Brand honored writer Adela Rogers St. John at a beautiful lunch party at Hillcrest Country Club. Sybil is "Mrs. Los Angeles" with her many civic activities, which has named in her honor "The Sybil Brand Institute for Women," meaning the local pokey for femmes. Which is so great I hear, but I only want to hear.

Frankie Laine, my hero of "That Lucky Old Sun" and "Ghost Riders in the Sky," was cool, man, cool, with his new goatee beard when I saw him during a runabout at the International with Etta Cortez. Frankie said he now records for Amos Records and his contract calls for the masters to be returned to him. Frankie has made millions with his hits already. He observed, "Etta, you are beautifully dressed." Nice compliment. I got a kiss. Nice too.

Ilona Massey called me from her

Washington, D. C. home to say someone is posing as her son, which isn't so. "I've never had any children, and if this imposter doesn't stop, I'm suing." The gorgeous Ilona was interested in the M.G.M. auction. I went out to see Clark Gable's trench coat (he wore it in almost every film for luck). It sold for $300.00. Debbie Reynolds bought a four-piece Louis XVI salon set used in Norma Shearer's "Marie Antoinette" for $1200.00 A black boy in the decor business in Beverly Hills bought another for $9,000.00 and a few other trinkets for $5,000.00. Greta Garbo's hat from "Painted Veil" sold for $50.00. Hedy Lamarr's shoes for $10.00. I saw a marvelous life-size oil painting of Greer Garson, so good I called to see if she wasn't going to buy it.

An auction doesn't give you a buying choice, does it? You have to bid. Barbra Streisand offered big sums for certain items at the auctions preview, but she had to wait too, and bid. Debbie Reynolds was there everyday buying

Lights of Las Vegas

By PHIL SOLOMON

"POURQUOI Pas?" ("Why Not?"), the ninth edition of "Lido de Paris," is considered to be one of the most glamorous costumed shows in American theatrics costing over $350,000. This show is a bright new chapter in show business.

The Stardust Hotel spectacular was produced by Frank Sennes and directed by Donn Arden. When it comes to imagination and creative ideas there are few in the entertainment field that can match this duo. They are known for their dazzling impact spelling out excitement.

Offering artistic splendor as the show world has never thought possible, the high spots are beautiful showgirls and dancers, both topless, and wearing brilliantly jeweled gowns, rich furs, beautiful feathers and colorful materials to catch the eye.

At times the extravaganza is close to a three ring circus with the audience heads whirling in every direction to catch all the action.

The show has five large production numbers with various scenes. It opens in a mirrored ballroom featuring the Bluebell Girls, each of whom is multiplied several times, covering the entire stage with a magic necklace of beauties.

Then the scene shifts to Greece for "Symphonie of the Sea," simulating a raging storm at the Port of Mykonos and the sinking of its occupants in a boat to the Temple of Athena with the gods and goddesses of Mt. Olympus in spirited dance routines.

The "Theft of Mona Lisa" is one of the highlights and standout numbers lead by Jennifer Pierson and her gang in an attempt to steal the painting from a museum in a helicopter. The foursome is surrounded by two police choppers with gunfire and sirens.

"Rhapsodie Espanole" is an enchanting segment devoted to a wooded-area gypsy fiesta, a cave concealed "Red Bordella." The gypsy tries to halt a wedding taking the groom to a flaming inferno.

"London is London" in the finale, without fog, reveals a pageantry of costume, beauty and performance racing with excitement as the "Royal Guard Parade," "A Page of History" represented by Queen Elizabeth (Nicky Gorsha), Mary, Queen of Scots (Jennifer Pierson) and Queen Victoria (Marya Linero) and the "Picadilly Circus Today" revolving on a star titled "Fountain of Light."

Prexy Earle Thompson plans to showcase the extravaganza for two years. Total cost runs over $1 million and this show is high on our recommended "must see" spectacular list.

RAMBLING AROUND — Barron Hilton confirmed our exclusive that the hotel chain bearing his name is definitely interested in International or any other hotel having a casino . . . Hamilton set Ernie Flatt as choreographer and Artie Malvin to write special material for the Carol Burnett and Jim Nabors show due to open at Caesars Palace June 4 . . . Johnny Tillotson has signed for his Sands Hotel lounge debut starting July 1 for a three week stand . . . Donald O'Connor inked for Harrah's, Tahoe, but still hasn't decided where to play here after appearing at Hotel Sahara for the past 18 years.

Nate Jacobson dotted Buddy Hackett to open the main showroom at Kings Castle, Tahoe on July 1 and also signed Line Renaud's "Flesh" revue for a six month stand in the lounge . . . Patti Page returns to Fremont Hotel on Oct. 1 for a four week

"LOUNGE STARS"

By Bob Joyce

Last week I had the pleasure of seeing and hearing Bobbi Martin in her Las Vegas debut at the Riviera Hotel.

Bobbi earned her name as a country and western singer but she had that hit record to put her with the big ones. If Bobbi was nervous on opening night, she hid it well. She was cool, collected and very much in command. It's hard to describe her voice. I could say like Kay Starr, Brenda Lee or a host of other gal type singers. Suffice to say, Bobbi is her own boss . . . and can she belt. She mixes her show with a little bit of everything and is so at ease. She has it all, personality, looks and a heavy load of talent. I'm pretty sure this will not be her last visit here. See Bobbi Martin at the Riviera.

Following Bobbi is the man . . . Sheeky Greene. What can you say about Sheeky that hasn't been said before. He is still the most inventive comic in show business today and the funniest. Good double pairing at the Riviera.

Up the street at the Blue Room of the Tropicana Hotel, the man they call "Mr. Piano" is back and, as usual, playing to turnaway crowds. Who else but Roger Williams. When Roger speaks to you, close your eyes and you swear you are listening to Jimmy Stewart but when he plays you know it is Roger Williams. These pages have used every conceivable adjective to describe Williams, so let me put it this way. If you are one of the Fifty million people who buy Roger Williams albums, you will be in seventh heaven watching and listening. He also happens to be one of the nicest people in our business. Never too busy to stop and talk. I wish other performers would realize that public relations plays a big part in becoming a star. In memory serves me, the Mob follow Roger into the Blue Room. Oh yea, there is one thing that accounts for the popularity of Roger Williams . . . taste and plenty of it. A highly enjoyable evening to be had for one and all.

Buddy Greco is back at the Sands Celebrity Theatre. Have not been down to catch him this time around but will before next week. Same applies to Jerry Vale and Dick Contino at the Circle "F" Theatre of the Frontier.

Am so glad that Irv Benson and Jack Mann are back together, doing what they do better than anyone else, knocking me out at Minsky's Burlesque at the Aladdin. Jack Mann should be studied by every guy who aspires to be a straight man. He is perfection personified and for timing there is none better than Irv. Theirs is a lost art and they are so great! Thanks, Harold, for bringing them together again.

Scene Lounging . . . Last week, an inebriated patron protested ventriloquist Russ Lewis' scolding puppet 'Brooklyn Boy' and had to be removed from the "Skin" audience at the Sahara, while the puppet insisted he wasn't really mad at Russ . . . Enjoying a brief run at the Fog Cutter, Alice & The Soul Sensations could hit hard with their first etching "I Found Love"/"Funky Feeling" . . . John Rowles, Wayne Cochran and Dick Jensen among the celebs grooving to Stilroc, International Crown Room topliners . . . The gals have their eyes on two handsome bachelors headed this way in June — Billy Joe Royal at the Flamingo and Ray Frushay at the International . . . Tommy Vig's annual concert set for CP Aug. 21 . . . The Command Performance luring the celebs to the Sands' Celebrity Theatre with their new sound . . .

The excitement generated by Von Ryon Express during their International debut in March is nothing compared to the reception they're getting now. Von Ryon is stirring the gals to the point of offering their napkins to him for onstage mopping up during a frantic warbling — Tom Jones style.

He's gotta be kidding . . . that TV and Hollywood star who is honeymooning his wife and romancing his stepdaughter while his momma-in-law has the inside track. That's a love quadrangle!

Until next week in these pages, dial my way every week day on KHBV-TV (5). 'Bye.

In another week, the Tbird will springboard a succession of top rock combos in all nite sessions beginning with the Orange Colored Sky . . . Look for an Alan Lee production to soon alternate with the Minsky Show at the Aladdin . . . CP Entertainment Director Dave Victorson expected back from Scripp's Clinic this weekend . . .

Mitzi McCall, newcomer to the Trop's "Folies Bergere" with hubby partner Charlie Brill, was featured in Jerry Lewis' "You're Never Too Young" when she was 14 . . . The Ray Conniff Singers debut at the Sahara June 16 . . . Composer-arranger Jimmy Haskell cleffed Fremont star Brenda Lee's latest Decca etching "I Think I Love You" . . .

Diane Wisdom is considering offers to headline L.A. and N.Y. Playboy Clubs following her May 23 closing at the double Circus . . . Sahara star Jack Benny selected "Man Of The Year" by the Illinois Broadcasters . . . FABULOUS strongly recommends a date to hear the Musical Arts Workshop in the UNLV Moyer Student Union Ballroom May 27 at 8:15 P.M. Tickets at the door . . .

Hollywood was excited over a visit from Vivian Kellems, who is waging a one-woman war on some of the inequities of the income tax system for single people . . . Bobby Rydell joins Totie Fields for her July 1 return to the Riv showroom . . .

Abbe Lane broke in her new act in Springfield, Ill. before heading here for her May 28 opening at the Frontier. Broadway's hit "Dames At Sea" director Neal Kenyon staged it for her . . . The Michael Ianuccis (former ecdysiast Ann Corio) weekended at CP . . . Writers Guild West is wooing talented actor Rudy Kovar.

After seeing the local tube commer- shill utilizing the dollar bill with George Washington making a pitch, we discovered the idea was conceived by Ken Clark, new Executive Producer of the Haboush Company, for a coastal Federal Savings account . . . The government hasn't really relaxed its grip. The law still prohibits filming of U.S. currency. However, that bit of legislation was drawn in the pre-tape days and that's how Clark presented the exposure — on tape. Mighty clever these videotapers . . . and that's for sure.

ing for her museum, which she proposes in a hotel on Hollywood Boulevard, that she has recently acquired.

Talked with Gene Kelly, who said he is taking a bit of rest after that long and successful engagement at the International, which followed his TV spec, which followed his directing "Hello Dolly." . . . Luching at the Polo Lounge, Beverly Hills Hotel, heard Diana Ross is a smash hit at the Frontier with Comedy Star Sammy Shore who always plays Elvis' shows at the International. Also that soul singer Aretha Franklin follows Glen Campbell at the International and Bobby Darin opens at the Landmark May 20th. Saw Pat Boone, just back from Hawaii, who says he opens at the Fremont June 11.

And That's Hollywood!

MIGHTY MIXTURE

By GARY STEVENS

DATELINE: NEY YORK

OUT OF THE NOTEBOOK: That super horse, Nijinsky, running on the English tracks, has a secret. Thinks he's a man, . . . Stewart Granger could hardly have kept his real name and remained a movie star. His legit handle is James Stewart. . . . Geraldine Page's favorite lunch is an Orange Julius and a hot dog. . . . George Shearing commenting on his 'just misses' in the biz: "Many years ago I had an idea for a drink called Six Up." . . . If they ever do the life of Mae West on the screen, how's about Peggy Lee for the lead! . . . Now we've heard everything, a rock group called The Rare Steaks. Bet their songs never come out well done. . . . Girls: Jack Nicklaus, the golf great, lost seven inches around the hips. . . . That album "The Compleat Bud Freeman" shows off the tenor saxophonics of the legendary star. "Exactly Like You" and "That D Minor Thing" are superb spinnings. . . . Sun Luck East bills itself as "The ultimate in Chinese cuisine." Lives up to the line. Consistently good. . . . Know what makes a spinster's elopement different? She builds the ladder.

WHEN THE SUN GOES DOWN: The Rainbow Grill, that celestial supper club where every star in the sky seems touchable, has Jonah Jones' trusty trumpet. In his group is percussionist Cozy Cole. Two pals from Cab Calloway band days. Felicia Sanders' dramatic style and specialized songs are abatement from the banal. . . . Jane Morgan at the Plaza's Persian Room carried a winning ethos throughout her act. She makes "That's Life" very alive and goes almost Dorothy Shayish in "A Girl Names Johnny Cash." Working sans shoes with that proximity to Mr. Lindsay's lawn, label the turn — "Barefoot Near The Park"

. . . Milton Berle never relinquished his title as king of the one liners. Why abdicate now! In his return to Gotham after too many years, there he was at The Royal Box at the Americana saying: "I'm in the movie 'The Love Machine'. I play the part of the vibrator." And "There's no business in show business unless the actors are nude" and "I predicted Mia Farrow would be a nun" and "My brother Frank was an atheist. Gave it up. No holidays." We have a low Berle-ing point, we laughed.

OFF THE BOOKSHELF: For us the 1930's were extra fun because there was Robert Benchley to read or look at in an off beat "How To" high humored movie short or to listen to on radio. Bob was a true wit. He tossed the bon mot with the accuracy of one of those professional dagger flingers. Doubleday has a darn fine compendium from the research of Babette Rosmond. It is aptly titled "Robert Benchley His Life and Good Times." It's for people who like to read and re-read.

HOORAY FOR ARRAY: Martin Greenstein, 96181, has a button show in his cab. The taxi driver has 90 different sayings festooned in the front of his hack. All of them, save the Avis disks, were given to him by passengers. Examples — "Hack Power, Put Your Vote Where Your Mouth Is" The display started 3 years ago. No lewd sayings on any of them. Button, button, who's got the button? Greenstein has.

Stranger: "Nice home you have here. Worth about $20,000, I imagine."

Owner: "Nope, it's worth every cent of $35,000. You thinking about buying it?"

Stranger: "No thanks. I'm the new tax assessor."

Governor's Trophy To Mitzi

Reno, Nev. — MITZI GAYNOR, headliner in Nevada's major showrooms since the early '60s, has been named to receive this year's annual GOVERNOR'S TROPHY from the sponsoring GREATER RENO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The award will be made by GOV. PAUL LAXALT at the chamber's 67th annual dinner June 7 in the HEADLINES ROOM at HARRAH'S, preceding the TENNESSEE ERNIE FORD show.

The trophy is presented each year "to a performer who has made outstanding contributions to Nevada's fame as the entertainment mecca of the world." Previous winners were SAMMY DAVIS, JR., JIMMY DURANTE, DANNY THOMAS and LIBERACE.

MISS GAYNOR, whose next Reno engagement will be Sept. 3-23 at HARRAH'S, has been a familiar name on Nevada marquee since she first played the FELAMITY GO in Las Vegas and HARRAH'S at Tahoe in 1962. She is currently under contract to the RIVIERA in Vegas and to HARRAH'S for northern Nevada appearances.

In addition to her concert, nightclub and television appearances, MISS GAYNOR has played major roles in such movies as "South Pacific," "The I Don't Care Girl," "We're Not Married," "Bloodhounds of Broadway," "Three Young Texans," and "There's No Business Like Show Business." She starred with BING CROSBY in "Anything Goes," with DAVID NIVEN in "The Bird and the Bees" and "Happy Anniversary," with GENE KELLY in "Les Girls" and with FRANK SINATRA in "The Joker Is Wild."

MISS GAYNOR imbues her personal life with the same energies applied to her professional career. She has acquired an enviable art collection which enhances her Beverly Hills home. Her reputation also extends into haute couture: she has appeared consistently on the "best dressed" list and Town and Country magazine has described her as "one of the most socially, professionally and aesthetically prominent women in the world."

The orgiastic exhibit of Joni Carson is one of the most graphic enactments of its kind in all stripdom. The blonde lass has a bad case of the frantics, jabbering and cooing the while she's taking off her little doodads, skittering about like a demented minx. All of this action gets the voyeurs ready for the zap-pow-zing-zowie simulation scene. Then, her shakes, vibrations and quivers of flesh in all anatomical regions bring the piquant display to a

Like they say, "Too much!" — this embarrassment of entertaining riches is almost a surfeit. You have the 5th Dimension, who wring everyone out with their hour, preceded by the comedies of George Kirby for over a half hour and the same period of time for showcasing the new comer to the songs scene, Steve Alaimo. . . . His TV fans will be there in droves, as will his recording fans and country music fans, but anyone staying away on account of the "country" aspect will be missing a fine singing star. Personable Campbell, togged in an elegant western suit, is no recording fluke. His voice will stand up in any league as will his phrasing, both major contributors to all those hit disks. close as all motors seem to run down at once. Definitely, an X-rated strip . . . Irv Benson is perhaps one of the most famous of the current gang of burlesque comics, through his exposure on the Milton Berle vidshows. Whatever he did, or does, on the tube is nothing compared to the license he advocates on this stage, shooting his triple-entendre lines, gestures and muggings during the two blackouts. With estimable sidekick, Jack Mann, the railries roil and the funnies build up to hilarities. Both of these veterans know to the nth degree how to take a rather cold audience and whip up responsiveness in little time . . . Clownish Jimmy Matthews also knows how to grab big yocks in "The Gun Ain't Loaded," a classic blackout; Dyanne Thorne proves her know-how of lines and action in several outings as straight woman and Jerry Lucas has a brief appearance as a goofball in the courtroom episode . . . Fine body department is exemplified by Suzette Summers, whose savage jungle strip captures the focus and holds it throughout her slinky pacings . . . Jeannie Thomas has one of the best voices of any production singer on a Vegas stage, adding enhancement to the Jerry Norman choreos. Fronting these colorful rounds are lead femme dancers Orie Sasaki, Betty Stowell and Jody Lamb a la nude (almost), plus the muscular attitudes and adagio whirls of males Michel Stany and Rick Hamilton . . . The Minsky Dancers and Nudes are pleasing to the eye throughout the fetching patterns, the mannequins in particular surprising with their ability to move well along with looking scrumptuous . . . Costumes by Josephine Spinedi, executed by Eastwood are commendable, ditto the Winn Strickland settings, lighted by Bob Kiernan . . . Irv Gordon's charts are brio all the way, illustrated very well by Hank Shank's octet. raphy of Jo Jo Smith. In person, the quintet is Marilyn McCoo, Florence La Rue Gordon, Billy Davis, Jr., Ron Townson and Lamonte McLemore. Each is personable, able to solo well and, naturally, make one of the finest blends of voices in current tunology . . . George Kirby's massive frame doesn't impede his lightning shifts of humor, much of it the black whomps so popular these days. Kirby has the knack of presenting startling impressions all the way from monology to songs and even the pianistic blues tinkles of Count Basie. His straight singing is also a plus, with a nod to "Green, Green Grass of Home" . . . Steve Alaimo comes on strong with his warbles in the mod catalogue. He has the blue-eyed soul temperament and vocal quality, coupled with a fine way of communicating it to the audience. He also does some mimicry of pop chanters, with an amusing four-way interpretation of The Temptations that starts that section off very well. The only minus is his Louis Prima style of "My Way," to close his curtain-raiser. He is too young for that tune in the first place and in the second place, it doesn't groove at all at blistering tempo . . . The Nat Brandwynne musicians are in top form, whipped into proper fury for the 5th Dimension by their conductor, Rene Knight. (Bill Willard)

Martinez Flyers and the Flying Palacios (with that daring young 5 year old Raphael), each with its individual specialty . . . with the Flying Farfans providing an admixture of comedy in the mid-air feats . . . Señor Antonio adds to the heart-stoppers with his head balance, swing trapeze performance . . . Joe Gerlach completely ignores all sense of caution as he leaps from a 60 foot high perch and hurtles downward in his death defying sponge plunge . . . The Canestrellis fascinate with their internationally-famous trampolining with riveted attention on young Marco's daredevilry . . . Mr. Coco's chimpanzee trio are an absolute delight with some expert shoe pitching by the fun-loving jungle transplants . . . Elsbeth & Ray Cosmo are back and they're spreading their unique happiness, cleverly perched on those wooden elevators . . . The Hartzell Comedy Musicians perform a pot pourri of dramatic humor in a swashbuckling mono rail encounter . . . No one rides a unicycle upside down on a mono-rail with only his teeth supporting a trapeze on which his wife works — except the Hildalys . . . Watching Le Lisa perform on her trapeze sans net makes you wonder what a nice girl like that is doing without a security web . . . DeMille exhibits the daring of youth, performing a dangerous backward somersault in his tight-wire act . . . The delightful clown is Peluza . . . The Randels are a refreshing addition to the Big Tent with their artistry on the trampoline . . . Vino Venito is extremely daring as split second timing separates him from injury during his knife balance challenge . . . Rena Smaha vocalizes during the Aerial Ballet, a spectacular that concentrates on a gallant gentleman propelling a mono rail with a line of 5 cuties performing on perches . . . The wonderful Clarence Hoffman and Mike Hartzell share the ringmaster chores . . . Bill Kirkise leads the music makers thru the dramatic background.

kinds of colorful, glamourous fun, replete with extravagant scenery, ravishing costumes, inventive special effects, and a huge, high-powered company of handsome singers and dancers . . . Between spectacles there are specialty acts including the delightfully handsome ventriloquist Dick Weston who gets howls with "Aunt Martha" and "Clarence," the fast-paced comedy of Alan & Shane . . . the acro-comedy of the funtastic Jolly Jovers . . . exciting singers Barry Monroe and Edward Whiting, and agile jug-gler Montego, the busiest guy in town tossing balls and spinning rings while balanced on a unicycle . . . It's a shame there isn't space to credit all the fine company, but featured stand-outs are Jacqueline Douguet, Nick Navarro, Bernard Charey, Sheila Sparr, Bobbi Hill, Jeanne Costa, Penny Pryor, Lillian D'Honeau, Betty Vaughn, Larry Massey, Jim Weiss, Gordon Cornish, and Loretta St. John . . . Lavish behind-the-scenes credits to Frank Sennes' production, Donn Arden's inspired staging and direction, Bill Campbell's opulently original costume designs, and Jim Harbert's music and arrangements, played with enormous pazz by Carlton Hayes and His Orchestra. broadminded but to everyone who digs superb entertainment . . . Frederic Apcar, who conceived, produced, and directed "Casino" on a grand scale, has gone first cabin all the way — from John Leccia's tuneful music and Jose Luis Vinas' rich, inventive costumes, to special effects and talent . . . The Clownerama opener, with clowns cleverly displaying the show's credits, is alone enough to give The Dunes another hit, yet it segues into a psychedelic, mod dancing finish so colorful the audience yips with excitement . . . Other lavish numbers featuring most of the cast of 100 are a wild Chicago sizzler complete with a dozen undraped femmes in bathtubs and a hair-pulling between topped and topless dancers, a Roman stunner with wrestling gladiators, a live Bengal tiger attacking a hapless victim, and equally live horses in a thundering chariot race capped — if that's possible — by a realistic orgy and the burning of Rome! . . . Acts spotted throughout the extravaganza include the Peiro Brothers and their superb juggling, and their apt impressions, the marvelous Jean Leccia Singers, the show stopping Berosini Jungle Fantasy—chimpanzees, two baby gorillas, and a scene-stealing orangutan — the Berosini Risley acrobatic act, and breathtaking balancing by David & Goliath (Jerry Howard & Fred Randall) and all the handsome, talented dancers brilliantly staged and choreographed by Ron Lewis and by Billy Petch . . . Earl Green and his 21 piece orchestra are as magnifique as the new "Casino de Paris."

PERSIAN ROOM

The '70 edition of "Vive Les Girls!" — is all new indeed, from the opening pulchritude-packed Parisian-style western number, with the gun-twirling dancing cowgirls in feather chaps — those are pants, gang! — and a burro wearing the credit placards, to the witty, jazz-age "A Night At Maxim's" finale, with so many goodies in between. The surefire show is conceived, produced and directed by Frederic Apcar. The stars are uproarious record pantomimists The Bernards, down to earth laugh-getter Berl Williams and handsome singer Gary Grande . . . Featured are the marvelous adagio team of Joan Palethorpe and Ron Watson, whom I'd never recognize with their clothes on, and rhythmic bongoist Ricardo Rincon . . . The always brilliant "Vive" dancing, choreographed by Ron Lewis, is fleet-footed by the lithe Ron Lewis Ballet . . . The Mannequins de Paris are the bosomy showgirl eyefuls . . . Jose Luis Vinas, among the world's most inspired designers, has outdone himself with the spectacular costumes . . . Tony Marillo conducts the Earl Green Ork.

FLAMINGO

chi's first FLV appearances with his present engagement brings up striking contrasts, all to his advantage. Although the singer was immediately acclaimed for the magnificence of his vocal gifts — and there is no finer voice to be heard in a night club — a certain reserve, perhaps as a result of his years in opera, prevented his establishing complete rapport with audiences. But now — what a difference! The voice is as grand as ever, beautiful, true, and so powerful it's suspected he could shatter every glass in the room if he didn't have such control, but the singer has become so relaxed his show could be subtitled "Fun with Franchi." Distinctively handsome, with a melting affect on women fans, the brilliant star also exhibits wit, charm, and an impish verve that enchants crowds, as when he indulges in impulsive choreography and dangles the microphone to the floor to pick up the sound of his taps! These are additional Franchi facets, and it makes a whale of a show . . . His song program is bliss, running a wide musical range from a frisky "Love," romantic Rod McKuen Medley, and delightful "Mala Femina," to "Stay," the lovely song from his starring motion picture "The Secret of Santa Vittoria," an aria from "Tosca" and "Impossible Dream," for both of which he receives ovations, a romping "Fiddler On The Room" medley, and other Franchi treasures . . . Cal Custer is the singing star's musical director, Lee Perlman his drummer, and arrangements are by Joe Guercio & Custer . . . Master story teller Myron Cohen is a great actor as he tells his funny tales and anecdotes in many dialects and with vivid facial and physical artistry. Audiences love the stylish comedian, enjoying the stories they have heard him tell before as much as they do those new to them . . . Russ Black's Orchestra shines, playing Franchi's musical score. Not only do the six lads harmonize effectively with Miss Lee in most of the tunes, they also prove to be versatile with several instruments. In other words, the Lee-Casuals package is one of those rare combinations, conceived for entertainment, that really does the job expertly . . . Homer & Jethro are the original cornballs of the Grand Ole Opry set and continue their haw-haw tunes and jokes in a well-received opening session. The only possible concession to contemporary life is the non-country suiting on each, but the vocal material is old and true, predictable and warming to out-fronters. Their plinkings and plunkings on electric guitar and mandolin add the right background and soloistic sound to their installment . . . The Al Jahns musickers do well with the Lee arrangements, conducted by her trumpeter Terry Mead and aided by Denny Freeman, drums, Don Erdman, sax, Archie Barnes, guitar, John Orr, bass and Williams, piano — all members of The Casuals. for the bill. It takes a blockbuster to follow the comedian, whose physical approach and convulsing material, such as his bit on a cowardly bull-fighter, impressions of automobiles, and ranting evangelist, leave audiences limp from all the laughing . . . Al Alvarez' Orchestra is supreme.

Glen sings a full program — many of his over a million sellers such as "Gentle On My Mind," "Wichita Lineman," "Galveston" and "By The Time I Get To Phoenix," plus the likes of a driving "Proud Mary," moving "If You Go Away," rhythmic "Sitting On The Dock Of The Bay," and "Y'all Come," the latter with enthusiastic audience participation. With musicians from his TV show — brilliant young Larry McNeely featured on guitar and banjo, Billy Graham, bass guitar, Dennis McCarthy, piano, and Bob Felts on drums, he does a delightfully intimate song and musical segment that's a sure winner . . . Marty Paich is Campbell's arranger and musical conductor. . . . At the opening Dean Martin was onstage to introduce Glen, but I shouldn't count on his being there every show! . . . Television comedy favorite Dom DeLuise is such a pro there's no doubt he'll prune his turn to make it more effective. He's a very funny guy, and it's hoped he'll keep in his convulsing bit on an over-confident bank teller coming unglued as he goes on camera to do a TV commercial. . . . The Joe Guercio Orchestra, super all the way, shines in the jazzy "Portrait Of Glen Campbell In Sound" overture, by Guercio and Bill Reddie.

"The Sound Of A Distant Drum." Her haunting, moving "God Bless The Child" is an exquisite finale . . . Creative consultation and musical arrangements for Miss Carroll's new act, directed by Mark Warren, are by Joseph Guercio . . . Bill Reddie is her conductor . . . I take one look at George Gobel and start laughing. He has a beguiling little kid — a sophisticated little kid — quality I find delightful, and it's appropriate he sings a charming song called, I believe, "Through Children's Eyes." His material is hilarious and his droll delivery makes it even funnier as — in typical Gobel style — he tells tall tales he claims are so true he describes his act as "documentary comedy." Among the funniest, and tallest, is the comedian's description of a trek through a hotel, wearing "not stitch one," and his convulsing impression of a Clint, Texas radio station, with a cut-rate clinic commercial and yodeling hillbilly singer. Long live Gobel! . . . Antonio Morelli's Orchestra is splendid, as always.

ing audio results . . . and their sparkling choreography is mighty easy on the eyes. The results have earned them bravo ovations. The old and the new . . . and how it turns on a full, happy hour. It's a unique offering on today's entertainment scene, garbed in smart costumes, modeled in rhythmic movement and amplified in scintillating tunes — Stage Door Now — as long as there are people with love for the intimacy of a piano bar, Harry Wham will remain a consistent favorite. He has an uncanny knack for ferreting out the precise song and tune-ology that wins him a captive audience of instant returnees every time at the ivories. Your man is Harry Wham! . . . Remarkable host Johnny Paul personally scouts out every act that keeps the 'Boat lively. He is also one of the most talked about men in town by virtue of his magical manipulations at table-side, for those fortunate enough to capture him in between stage shows.

champagne. The eight Ashton Girls are not only structured well anatomically, but move about with verve — and that's one of the very big attractions of any Ashton revue, beautiful, high-tailing femmes! The burlesque bits are filled with laughs, chiefly instigated by little Tommy Moe Raft, one of the craftiest yock-grabbers alive. His actions in "Movie Theatre," stem from sex ploys and natural function mummery; the "How To Get Arrested" evergreen is a vehicle for burlesque comics to show all of their schtick, which Raft does beguilingly, and his quickies in "Old Time Burlesque," next to closing, are gems . . . Moving into Vegas for the first time is Irving Harmon, who reveals his ability to rope all kinds of reaction. He's quick on the tongue trigger . . . Charles Vespa, another vet along with Raft in this playhouse, does everything from candy butcher to breakup gags with partner David Walker (act is called The Vespias), gay boy romping in "Movie Theatre," and some varied funny actions and talkstuff in the other blackouts . . . Walker is versatile, not only warbling the production numbers with pleasing quality, but straightening for the comics in contrasty way. He's six-three and a handsome guy . . . Patrice Nicole is another of the versatile ones, thrashing the opening high camp production round with the jouncy beauts and moving around with the nudies later in a palmy "Tropical Village" frolic . . . Astrabella has a stunning way of displaying her well-designed form and face. Her real monicker is Janet Boyd, but she is out in astra space with her costuming and choreo, very sexy and appealing to distaffers as well as males . . . Manfred & Marino are an adagio pair, both with excellent bodies which are graphically revealed in a torrid, snaky way, chiefly in "Tropical Village." The height of the proscenium does constrict them, however. It is a cautious toss in the air that Manfred gives to Marina on account of the low ceiling . . . The stunning Angelique is the tempestuous temperature-throb-ber exotique who leaves nothing to the imagination . . . Costumes by Lloyd Lambert are splendidly realized within the settings. . . . Tommy Hodges prepared the charts for the Paul Lowden Sextet, which performs with great spirit. (Bill Willard)

French-American successes here in Las Vegas. This edition, "Pourquoi Pas?" is so affluent and lavish. The million dollar-plus expended is obvious, as the richly caparisoned femmes flout beautiful bodies in their parades around, among, over and under the stunning settings . . . There is the opulence of the opening done with mirrors to establish the theme, "Pourquoi Pas?", the "Symphony of the Sea," the Louvre scene with theft of the Mona Lisa as helicopters fight the brigands from overhead, the "Rhapsodie Espagnole" fiesta with The Red Bordello orgy becoming a flaming inferno, and the brilliant conclusion, "London is London," featuring the scintillating Fountain of Light, the entire finale designed by Michael Knight . . . Interslicing all of this magniloquence are many highly entertaining acts . . . Rudy Cardenas, one of the most fleet and agile of jugglers . . . Heather Belbin, champion figure skater proving why she's a champ . . . The Volantes, doing impossible, breathtaking tricks on unicycles . . . Siegfried & Roy, magico to confound everyone, such as the trunk switching (shades of Houdini!) and a tiger replacing Roy and a cheetah popping out instead of Siegfried . . . The Argentine Devils, a half-dozen hippie-styled lads who go pretty wild in fun-games and dances . . . and the famous pickpocket Dominique, who brings up several men from the audience to the stage for still more thievery . . . Spotlighted for outstanding dances and/or singing among the production rounds are Jillian & Ron, with some fine adagio expositions, Marya Linero, Jennifer Pierson, Nicky Gorska, Tom Allison, Charles Gray, Dick Moll, Johnny Ritsko, Dan Park er and Gig Gallion . . . Madame Bluebell has achieved another success d'estime with the splendid choreos of her Bluebell Girls . . . A tip of the topper to the agility of the Arden Boy Dancers, and salutes to the 14 gorgeous torsos of Les Belles du Lido (nice faces, too!) . . . Frank Sennes is the producer, Pierre Louis-Guerin and Rene Fraday, the French Lido producers, Harvey Warren, scenic designer, costumes by Folco, original music and lyrics by Jim Harbert and J. P. Landreau and orchestrations by Harbert, Bill Stafford and Ivan Lane for the precise and sonorous backing by the Eddie O'Neil Orchestra.

TROPICANA

has one of the most engaging acts of its kind, introducing his Girl Friends, a Rhesus monkey and Gibbon baboon, who absolutely convulse everyone with their peopleshines . . . The humorous Spanish trio of Pomhoff Thedy Family has some ridiculous musical and sight gags in an action potpourri filled with laughs from start to finish . . . The juggling of Valente Valente is fascinating on two counts — the boy and girl both engage in nifty tricks, particularly with pingpong balls . . . Vassili Sulich is one of the better solo dancers around today and his adagio with Pat LaForge, both nearly nude, in "Feast of the Spider" confirms it . . . Moving out from the Tropicana Dancers, the Tropicana Boys and Les Mannequins are four enchanting Loreleis, Felicia Atkins, Joyce Grayson, Monica Lind and Anna Kappel. Miss Kappel reveals a singing voice of commanding range . . . The Randy Van Horne Singers add special effects to the music with their harmonies . . . Special credits are deserved by Gyarmathy for scenery and costumes; production coordination by Paul Szigety and Larry Grayson; original music by Henri Betti of Paris with lyrics by Johnny Bradford; musical arrangements by Jerry Fielding . . . Si Zentner decisively guides the intricate music cues from the pit.
