CRISWELL PREDICTS

An Accurate Glimpse of the Future

I predict a shattering change in the weather before the 4th of July which will amaze us all! . . . I will be most honored to fulfill the lecture dates this Fall and Winter for the late Drew Pearson! . . . I predict that your next tv favorite will be Jeanne Jannay in her new series, a soap operetta! . . . I predict that Jimmy Rodgers will hit a new gospel high with his new recordings! . . . I predict that "Christine" the movie based on the life of Christine Jorgensen will be the movie sleeper of the year! . . . I predict that Vice President Spiro Agnew will be offered $100 thousand for three lecture appearances in London, as the British public is captivated by his frankness and clarity! . . . I predict that California will not crumble and fall off into the sea, but that the rest of the country will, and leave California supreme! (this is the latest geological report) . . . I predict that more twins will be born in the coming fiscal year than ever before! . . . I predict that the new drive on marijuana and other harmful narcotics will reach a peak in September when new laws with teeth will go into effect! . . . I predict that the famed Friday Club of the Hollywood Brown Derby will make a seven day excursion to Paris in August! . . . I predict that seven famous stars of tv will learn the bad news that their programs have been cancelled for outside political protesting, inciting violence. Their sponsors had warned them of the consequences of the public boycotting the products, but to no avail!

THE RENT STRIKERS

I predict that the coming series of rent strikes (where the renters or tenants refuse to pay rent for an imagined reason) will be cut short by city, state and national ordinances! The moment a renter or tenant refuses to pay rent on a strike basis, they automatically give a 24 hour notice to vacate the apartment or house, and must do so, according to law! This will not only hold good on privately owned rental properties, but federally financed as well! The Rent Strikers!

THE STUDENT REBELLION

I predict that the Student Rebellion in Russia and China will be short in duration, with the public execution of the rebels! Even the most liberal Russian and Chinese cannot afford the luxury of anarchy and student rebellion, as others call it!

TRAITORS TO AMERICA!

I predict that the turn of a card will turn the revolutionaries into traitors to America overnight! The growing concern of safety on the streets, in business areas and residential areas, will result in a garrison state with police action!

I predict that the wide-open films out of Hollywood will no longer be permitted, as Hollywood and the stage will come under stern censorship! The permissiveness now shown will be quickly withdrawn before the nation faces ruination! The nudity, the words and actions will be toned down and the classification of all films shown will be closely watched!

THE QUESTION

I predict that our college students will ask a question and demand an answer from the so-called Liberal political aura . . . "If the Liberal way of life is so complete and non-disputable why is it that the Liberals always seek the financial backing of the Conservative Establishment, and have never been independent on their own?" This new tact of thinking will upset many Liberal politicians and the Liberal conquest!

THE stock market debacle caused many financial heartaches. One in particular concerned a local supplier. The brass of the company dispatched on-the-spot collectors to all hotels to demand current disbursement of their accounts. Without actual figures for determination, FABULOUS would estimate that this supplier probably averages $100 thousand weekly in accounts receivable. A month or two without cash receipts could have closed that shop permanently.

It was very kind of a local citizenry to approach this publisher with thoughts of being the first woman governor of Nevada . . . A warm, beautiful honor . . . but not this year.

There were two absolutely ravishing beauties in town last week . . . who couldn't find dates to escort them to an opening. The two famous personalities couldn't make the scene with just any available male . . . but they were willing to settle for that . . . if there were any unattached men about. The census proved an imbalance . . . too many femmes.

Ran into Superman the other day and discovered he is preparing to return to the footlights. He is Frank Agostino, an uncanny lookalike for the "Clark Kent" character. Frank is currently rehearsing the "Roman Chair" act with his stunning partner-wife Denise. A pin-patching shoulder job temporarily sidelined Frank but the physique fantastique is being conditioned for a return to the biz.

It's almost criminal — the beautiful exterior of Nishon's Restaurant on Dessert Inn Road. It is so sophisticated, some friends fear the table prices. That's a grave misconception. Dining there, we were very impressed with the reasonable charges. The service is excellent and the maitre d' Tony (champion of "worry beads") is a delightful transfer from the Dunes' Top O' The Strip. The evening reached a beautiful peak for us when Sascha Semenoff played gypsy melodies for us on his violin. If you seek gourmet fare for a moderate fee, Nishon's is a natural . . . This restaurant was chosen to supply the outdoor feast for the cast of "The Steagle," out on Spring Mt. Rd. last week.

It might be a good idea to discontinue the audience introduction of celebrities at show openings. Somehow, someone is invariably overlooked. Happened again last week and there were two very unhappy performers reduced to embarrassment over the affront.

Pretty Pat Cooper is in town! Comedian Pat Cooper, currently at the Flamingo with Paul Anka, is married to a girl who shares his name en toto . . . and she is the pretty Pat of the Cooper duo.

Paul Anka closed out of Jules Podell's N.Y. Copacabana before opening here at the Flamingo. He arrived with the happy news that he and his lovely Ann expect their third child in the Fall . . . From an inside trackster, we understand that Caesars Palace is wooing Paul Anka to join their star stable.

Attention . . . all Captains . . . The Dunes Hotel has nominated Casino Showroom Captain Giovanni Parente as the handsomest of all his counterparts. The bistro will accept all challenges — and all odds.

Carol Burnett and Jim Nabors have to be two of the best dressed stars onstage in FLV, appearing in their CP co-headliner in numerous striking outfits and costumes. Ray Aghayan

MAE WEST generated the kind of excitement equivalent to zoom-zoom to the moon — just by word of mouth, that she was accepting the Fifteenth Annual Oscarette Award. As Oscar-ette chairman, I well knew that to announce the winners beforehand would be fatal. For what auditorium, less than the stadium, could hold the people who would want to see Mae in person! As it was, traffic was snarled on Wilshire for blocks. And regretfully (I understand, since I was backstage, not out front) nearly a thousand people were turned away, many whom had gilt-edged invitations to the black tie inner dress circle for the event.

Mae was there to collect her 1970 Oscarette because the Junior Symphony Orchestra of California headed by Founder Conductor Dr. Ernst Katz, with its revolving membership of 3,800 of the finest teenage musicians of California, had voted Miss West 1970 World Favorite Star. Now Mae has been getting votes like this worldwide ever since they named life jackets "Mae Wests" in World War II.

Today, wow! she is the rage of the college campuses and the hip teen set. Her movies on the late, late shows are camp. Her innovations of double talk thirty years ago is now! Her rock and roll records have made her today's generation favorite. This has come as a surprise to the fuddy-duddies of the Establishment. When her new picture, 20th Century Fox's "Myra Breckenridge," breaks (Miss West stars, has top billing and triple salary over co-star Raquel Welch) the world will see Miss West has never been off her throne as Sex Goddess. In fact, she is more sexy, though slimmer, and curved in all the undulating right places than ever before! She was a revelation to the thousands who jammed the Scottish Rites Theatre, one of the most beautiful in the world. Her skin is like sixteen, that smooth and fine. She sparkles as a great star! She insists she is like 76, but she looks and moves like 26!

To get on with it, Miss West arrived glittering with diamonds in her limousine with a body guard, swiveled on to the stage in a long slinky white satin gown, to a standing ovation, before she said a word, or Miss M.M. and Dr. Katz had the chance to present her Oscarette. That took at least three minutes before people like Mayor Yorty, civic leaders, judges, ambassadors and consuls from 32 foreign countries could calm down; to sit down, so we could proceed.

Clasping the Oscarette to her — shall I say — buzzoom — Miss West in her typical way, murmured sexily, "This is another new man in my life . . . to add to my collection! It isn't the men but the life in the man I say that counts. This one, I'll put on my charm bracelet." (where she has quite a few jeweled evidence of such). Although she is equally proud of some very modest diamonds, like half carat stones and less, that some of her enamoured teenage fans have bestowed on her recently.

Jack Oakie received the "1970 World Recognition Award for Comedy," and garnered tremendous applause, which was capped when he romantically engaged Miss West for a congratulatory kiss, which lasted for several, didn't it!

Tall dark and handsome Peter Lupus won the "New TV Star of 1970" Award. Linda Kaye Henning and Mike Minor won the "Married Lovers Award" for their seven years starring on CBS "Petticoat Junction." Master James Wixted the Third, aged six, 1969 Golden Baton Winner, presented Tod Starke (who plays Doris Day's son on TV), the 1970 Baton as 1970 Future Star.

More highlights were Edward Ashley (distinguished star of theatre, TV and films) and his rendition of "The Quest" from "Man of La Mancha" with the magnificent 110-piece orchestra accompanying. Later Benny Lessy, Edward Ashley and Sal Ponti took the baton in the famed "Battle of the Batons," which proved hilarious. Ponti won. Concertmaster Gary Greene, who is also prez of Phi Eta Sigma of UCLA, prez Ply Si, honorary Frat on UCLA campus, secretary of pre-law society, UCLA, whom President Nixon chose of 20 local youths to confer on campus disorders, read the congratulatory telegram from President Nixon, who had hoped to be present.

Hal Wallis was voted the "producer of the past 30 years award," excelling consistently in fine pictures, and this year his "True Grit" and "Anne of the Thousand Days," the first won John Wayne his Oscar. However, due to an influx of "R" and "X" rated movies, the 1970 Motion Picture categories were not awarded as usual. The high standards of the awards revolved around culture, idealism and wholesome family entertainment. Judge Joseph Marchetti expressed it along with Dr. Nathaniel Davis and Leo P. Epstein, venerable master of the Scottish Rites, that the occasion was magnificent. And what a great pleasure today it is to see young people engaged in worthwhile endeavor, rather than destruction. The whole aim of it all, the Oscarettes and the J.P.O.C. is — a salute to youth!

Master Tod Stark told Jack Oakie, "I am an actor and I want to grow up to be a great star like you!" The girls said they'd like to be gorgeous like Linda Kaye Henning and marry a Mike Minor. They sighed over Peter Lupus of "Mission Impossible."

It was a night long to remember, and one specially marvelous in these years of violence, to witness those dedicated to the symbol of service, idealism and a good productive way of life for all.

And that's Hollywood!

Lights of Las Vegas

By PHIL SOLOMON

PARISIAN Folies executive Michel Gyarmathy and Tropicana Hotel entertainment director Maynard Sloate, have just about completed pre-production plans for the hotel's "Folies Bergere 1971."

The two gentlemen have all the know-how of staging spectaculars and must be ranked as one of the top teams in their field. Sloate and Gyarmathy estimate that the pre-production cost of the new extravaganza will exceed $1 million with more than $400,000 allocated for scenery and costumes. The designing of the sets and wearing apparel will be supervised and made in Paris by Gyarmathy.

The new revue will depart from the traditional Parisian "Folies Bergere" and be in a more contemporary vein and less steeped in tradition than previous versions according to the pair. "While nudity in the present show is offered practically on a classical ballet level, we will give a little more accent on this in the new show. In other words, there will be more nudes in the new extravaganza," said Sloate.

The more than one century-old show, long an institution in Paris, is a better spectacular here, produced in delightful profusion.

Another keynote in the new production will be variety and versatility with a splash of color. Many innovations will be introduced. Plans call for new comedy acts never seen before in this country.

Not satisfied to rest on his laurels, Sloate left on a tour covering all the key European cities, including the Iron Curtain in search of new talent and a new female headliner.

Fans of Elvis Presley will have the opportunity to see how the star prepares for his stand here when MGM films the rehearsals and opening night doings in Aug.

MGM prexy Jim Aubrey Jr. plans on sending a crew here to follow the famed singer from Aug. 1-9 and also the International Hotel opening Aug. 10 for a two hour feature film for theatre release. This will be swivel hips' first picture under a new pact and could be a new approach in the film industry.

Hawaiian sensation Dick Jensen could be the new find in show business. The Howard Hughes men have a lot of confidence in the newcomer and have signed the singer-dancer to a three year contract to appear at the Landmark, Sands and Frontier Hotels.

Screen Gems hopes to sign Jensen to a movie and TV pact. They plan to bring him to Hollywood for more exposure and in a short period of time feel he will be Mr. Boxoffice. He has a lot of talent and is versatile.

IT looked like a casting call in the Trop's Blue Room on The Mob's opening night, with droves of show folk in to cheer the group. They're such tireless and accomplished musicians, singers and entertainers, it doesn't seem possible they can do three a night! They're pretty good in the comedy department also.

You can catch every performance put on by Steve De Pass and you'll never get tired of repetition — because there isn't any. You hear something new everytime. It just boils down to his being a word magician. One night when we caught him, Scoey Mitchell, Irwin C. Watson and Bill Acosta joined Steve onstage for some scintillating (?) harmony. They had a lot of fun and so did the audience . . . in Caesars Palace-Nero's Nook. It's too bad he isn't a permanent fixture. These four weeks are going by too fast, so catch him before he leaves on the 18 . . . De Pass has a great band backing him, led by conductor/arranger Rudy Varón, who plays piano and does some great scat. Then there's Doug Richards on bass, Steven Wolf on guitar and Larry Benito beating the pollution out of his congas. You west-coasters can catch him on the June 17th segment of the Virginia Graham TV show. He'll be coming back here for many encores.

Louis Prima, with Sam Butera & The Witnesses returned to the Sands Celebrity Theatre from a date at Al Hirt's pub in New Orleans. It's the first time in 15 years that Louis played his hometown. He was sold out for the entire three weeks. Back in the '30's, Prima was considered the one most likely to dethrone Louis Armstrong as the greatest jazz trumpet player.

At the International Casino Thea- tre, you'll catch an act that got its start right here in town. About four years ago at the Pussycat A'Go Go, people in our business really started talking about a group that not only played well — but was a gas, visually . . . and the Checkmates, Ltd. were on their way. Today, they are called Bobby Stevens & The Checkmates. I know of no other group playing in today's idiom that can get to the people so fast and hold them.

On the same bill is one of my favorite funny men — Charlie Manna. If you're like me, you first heard of Charlie about five or six years back on his recording, kidding the astronaut program. Manna writes his own material — and it is funny! His opera-trained voice is a big asset, especially when he spoofs the classics. His "What Is A Loser" is a gem. Everything Charlie does just knocks me out — and is he cool onstage!

MIGHTY MIXTURE

By GARY STEVENS

DATELINE: NEW YORK

SCRIBBLINGS: At the Benvenuti-Bethea nothing fight in Yugoslavia, mike man Howard Cosell unveiled this malapropism, to wit: "From this point of vantage" . . . Big plug, please, for Steak, Chinese Style at Tom's Shangri-La. Delicious! . . . From the script of dazzling "Coco" this cherished line: "In Paris you are forgiven happiness, but never success" . . . Dakota Staton's return to town with a stint at the Downbeat illustrates what a big talent she remains. Such style and ease . . . Know what to call a pelt man here from another land? A 'fureigner', if you please . . . Jack Lemon in a descending elevator at the Sherry Netherland: "Nobody expects you to show up on time in New York, unless you're coming with a police escort."

PARAGRAPHS: George Gahary is a most original gent. Out in Paramus, New Jersey he bills himself as a "psychologist interior decorator." He refuses to take a job re-doing anybody's home until he analyzes the client. A Persian by extracation, he's decorated night clubs and a submarine, as well as private homes . . . At Gallagher's, the famous restaurant in the midtown Broadway sector, Dick Conlon, the personable, gen'l mgr., now pounds lighter and a teetotaler, explained part of the very different dessert menu. There's an item—Apple Pie, Mel Ott. Said Conlon: "Years ago, the little baseball star used to eat it here." "How about Rice Pudding, Noel Coward?" we asked. Replied Dick: "Oh, he just likes it." "Okay, explain Kid Chocolate Cake" we directed the boniface. "I can't," flipped Richard, blushing a bit, "I knew Kid Chocolate was a fighter and I know this is a cake, so what the hell, I combined the two."

FROM J-105/106: Katharine Hep-

burn is an electric magnet in "Coco," an opulent fashion show helped with the strong script lines and adult lyrics of Alan Jay Lerner. The music from the pen of André Previn is a letdown. More often than not it is just dull. Paris' Mme. Chanel is treated admirably throughout. Give George Rose a pat on the back for first rate support. Rene Auberjonois as the gay fitter - designer is hilariously on target in the role. The composer, a neophyte for Broadway, had a Lerner's permit, in his first try.

NIGHT OUT: You've heard the tired cliché — "so and so needs no introduction." Vikki Carr, the songbird with clout in her pipes, is a rara avis. She needs no reviews. In eleven songs, Vikki unfolded to Plaza Persian Room audiences all the wares, ballads, rock, folks, to illustrate why she is the songbird at the top of the nest. This is what determination and talent will do for you.

EAT TREAT BEAT: The evolution at The King Of The Sea continues. Now there's revised bill of fare and specialties of the house abound on its pages. An immediate eye catcher is Baked Filet of Grey Sole, Stuffed with Shrimp and Crabmeat, Cheddar Sauce. From the side of the listing which features Broiled Fresh Fish, Whole Sea Bass and Red Snapper are in great demand. . . . It's twenty years now for that fine, informal Indian-Pakistan restaurant, Karachi. The owner, Ahamad Meah, a genteel, quiet man labors with the drive of an artisan and the creative skill of a kitchen artist. Full dinners with such Ganges delights as Samosa (a tasty meat cake), and Beef Curry (hot, if desired) are big favorites. Vegetables here are prepared in an unusual, authentic way, indigenous, perhaps, to cuisine in New Delhi.

BAGDAD THEATRE — April 24-June 18
 Minsky's All New Burlesque '70 starring Joni Carson, Irv Benson and Jack Mann; Hank Shank Ork. (Sun. thru Sat.: 10 P.M. & 12:30 A.M. Closed Thurs.); "Our

 my & Johnny; The Lodestone (9 P.M., 11:30 P.M. & 2 A.M. Closed Weds.)

SINBAD LOUNGE

The Cover Girls; The Para-Fun-Nalia;
 The Bachelors (6 P.M. to 6 A.M.)

The orgiastic exhibit of Joni Carson is one of the most graphic enactments of its kind in all stripdom. The blonde lass has a bad case of the frantics, jabbering and cooing the while she's taking off her little doodads, skittering about like a demented minx. All of this action gets the voyeurs ready for the zap-pow-zing-zowie simulation scene. Then, her shakes, vibrations and quivers of flesh in all anatomical

 Winston; Steve De Pass; Patti York and the Love Train (10 P.M. to 3:45 A.M.)
 "Bottoms Up '70" (2:30 & 4:30 P.M.)

There's a shameless love affair going on at the Palace, with the entire crowd demonstratively smitten with co-headliners Carol Burnett and Jim Nabors, whose short fortnight there won't be enough time for their ador-ing public to get in to see them . . .
 The two TV stars are such professionals they've put as much time and care into creating their two-people show as if it were a network special . . . It opens with beguiling Jim's singing entrance from the audience, after the Burnett-Nabors Overture, and closes

The "1970 Folies Bergere" continues on the highest plateau of Las Vegas spectacles. You won't see many four-dimensional productions around, but top men Michel Garmathy and Maynard Sloate have worked it out so that everywhere you look, something entrancing is taking place! This kaleidoscopic dazzler is chiefly populated by richly costumed men and women in the splendidly choreographed scenes by Tony Charmoli, seven in all. When the Tibor Rudas Dancers finish their incredibly fleet Can Can, there is only one equal to that display, more Rudas Dancers in the "Marriage au Tyrol" . . . Mitzi McCall and Charlie Brill are devastating as they verbally wrestle with some highly entertaining bickering that hits the audience on home ground . . . Balancing feats of The Martys are electrifying, interspersed with funny regions bring the piquant display to a close as all motors seem to run down at once. Definitely, an X-rated strip . . . Irv Benson is perhaps one of the most famous of the current gang of burlesque comics, through his exposure on the Milton Berle vidshows. Whatever he did, or does, on the tube is nothing compared to the license he advocates on this stage, shooting his triple-entendre lines, gestures and muggings during the two blackouts. With estimable sidekick, Jack Mann, the raileries roil and the funnies build up to hilarities. Both of these veterans know to the nth degree how to take a rather cold audience and whip up responsiveness in little time . . . Clownish Jimmy Matthews also knows how to grab big yocks in "The Gun Ain't Loaded," a classic blackout; Dyanne Thorne proves her know-how of lines and action in several outings as straight woman and Jerry Lucas has a brief appearance as a goofball in the courtroom episode . . . Fine body department is exemplified by Suzette Summers, whose savage jungle strip captures the focus and holds it throughout her slinky paces . . . Jeannie Thomas has one of the best voices of any production singer on a Vegas stage, adding enhancement to the Jerry Norman choreos. Fronting these colorful rounds are lead femme dancers Orie Sasaki, Betty Stowell and Jody Lamb a la nude (almost), plus the muscular attitudes and adagio whirls of males Michel Stany and Rick Hamilton . . . The Minsky Dancers and Nudes are pleasing to the eye throughout the fetching patterns, the mannequins in particular surprising with their ability to move well along with looking scrumptuous . . . Costumes by Josephine Spinedi, executed by Eastwood are commendable, ditto the Winn Strickland settings, lighted by Bob Kiernan . . . Irv Gordon's charts are brio all the way, illustrated very well by Hank Shank's octet.

with an ovation for the two superstars exiting by the same route. In between, it's fun time with the comedian switching expertly from engaging bucolic to rich-voiced singer—his "Man Of La Mancha" medley is superb — and Carol, coming on in her charwoman costume singing "I Feel Pretty," before stripping to a stunning sequin gown to sing a sock "Meantime." They duet in a cute "Pineapple" song & dance and team for a handsomely staged, highly hilarious "Blind Date" sketch, a gem of visual-verbal comedy. Other hits are Nabors' strong solo, "Tomorrow Never Comes," the theme from his TV show, and Miss Burnett's boffo burlesque charwoman classic; despite her clowning and outlandish garb she's very, very sex appealing . . . If the two stars weren't so quick-witted, their impromptu question and answer segment could be pretty dumb, because some of the queries audience members toss at them are dreary, but they come up with side-splitting ad lib replies to almost everything, and it gives them a chance to catch their breaths before the demanding, striking finale of great Broadway song hits staged against a blaze of lights. Numbers from "My Fair Lady," "Sweet Charity," "Promises, Promises" and Jim's "Mama," from "Minnie's Boys," plus a wow dance number in which they're both fleet-footed indeed, are show stoppers in this once-in-a-lifetime show . . . Bob is very au courant with his emphasis on nudity; two of his other gems are of a man innocently happening into a restaurant with topless waitresses, and of a first timer in a nude group therapy session. The star's sparkling new act shows many more sides of Abbe, and every one is a treat! Looking sensational in Galanos creations, La Lane romps through a rousing revue in which she exhibits her excellent, exciting voice in an arresting range of songs such as "But Alive" and "Applause," both from the Broadway musical of the latter title, '70's hits, special material numbers, and a torrid Latin medley preceded by scene setting color slides . . . This FABULOUS new Abbe is also doing lots of wild dancing and comedy, joined by two gifted male performers, Garrett Lewis and Larry Billman. A 1940's film spoof, with Abbe slyly miming such sex symbols as Dorothy Lamour, Rita Hayworth and Betty Grable, is a comedy marvel . . . Other marvels are Neal Kenyon's staging, Billy Barnes and Earl Brown's music

Bartender Frank Taylor concocts special libations for his own June 13th date . . . Earl Olson (Assistant Shift Manager of the Sahara Casino) shares the lucky 13th . . . Jess Hinkle (General Manager of the T-Bird), comedian Gil Lamb, Tom Maloney (Catering Manager-Sahara) and Harvey Trees (formerly with the Check-mates) tally another annual on the 14th . . . Connie and Bernard Deussen (backstage Lg. Hacienda Hotel) register a happy 31 years of marital bliss on the 14th . . . June 15th year-adders are Ginger Downes, comedian Danny Jacobs and Herb Rouso (co-owner of Maru's & Sara's) . . . The most FAB-

To the tall lad Jimmy Mahar, who chieftains the Slipper casino, the merriest of birthdays on the 17 . . . To Mary Ann Cohen, the delights that warm a young heart on the 18, a birthday she shares with charming Bee Foster (hubby Dempsey is with the Flamingo casino) and the debonair Ralph Greco, maitre d' Flamingo Showroom . . . Thyra and George Hershberger (Director of Beverage & Conventions-Sahara) light the candles on their Anniversary cake on the 18 . . . Longtime buddy (and tube moderator) Jack Kogan confuses with his dual birth dates but we'll be recognizing his true one on the 18th . . . Sheila (Prell) and Ygal Sonenshine reach their 3rd honeymoon year on the 18th . . . The most delightful Rae Gray (mother of Shirley Morgan) gets a personal toast from FABULOUS on the 19 . . . The Herb Kaufmans (Wonderworld) fill the nursery with gifts for year old Richard Scott on the 19 . . . and special material, Hugo Granata's lighting, Sal Anthony's costumes, and George del Barrio's musical direction . . . Plate-spinning Leonardo, with one of the most suspenseful acts in show biz, opens the dual-star extravaganza . . . The brilliant Al Alvarez Orchestra has never been better. (Etta Cortez) are several familiar ones that have seen the grooves of vinyl on Atlantic Records. The only question mark among these is her way with "Eleanor Rigby." What comes forth is more surreal than a hauntingly poignant real question on the whereabouts of those lonely people. The blues set at the close, where she rocks at the piano, is just beautiful blues. Right on, Aretha . . . Redd Foxx comes up feisty, with his explicit descriptions and words about sex and natural functions, about races, religions, creeds, motherhood and the deity. Extremely extreme and extremely funny, he doesn't spare much of anything along the way. Those who prefer their comics to be white-polite and stay within "decent" bounds had better wear ear stopples, however . . . The three Sweethearts swing a brief opening duo of tunes, then emerge later with Miss Franklin for some neat blends and tonal punctuations . . . Gospel shouts of Albertina Walker and The Caravans are genuine, but the heavy amplification almost wrecks them. This quartet has enough lung power to go it without the room's sound system . . . Joe Guercio's house ork is headed by Miss Franklin's conductor, Donald Towns and has several of her sidemen ensconced within the sections. Everything sounds fine with a pungent bite. (Bill Willard) award winning "Get Smart" are so much part of him it's difficult to recall whether he talked that way prior to the series. Not that it matters, since it's the "Smart" identification fans dig, and he doesn't disappoint them by ignoring it. Comments on the popularity and widespread use of his characters' "would you believe?" expression are much appreciated. Other popular Adams bits are a funny on a non-scheduled airline flight, golf jokes and anecdotes, and amusing comments on his marriage. Don sings special material song numbers with great appeal as accompaniment to a colorful batch of projected slides, gag mixed with pictures of himself and his beautiful wife and daughter, that make a strong finish for his comedy turn . . . Although Karen Wyman is only seventeen years young the cute young singer has such vocal maturity it's suspected she must be several incarnations old. In fact it seems unfair to harp on her age because, regardless of it, she is remarkable, with a fine voice, outstanding modulation, lyric feeling, and superior diction. It's obvious this pert, pretty, talented girl has what it takes to go far. The songalog selected makes a fine showcase, and she shines with exceptional brightness on "Does Anybody Really Know What Time It Is?" "Music That Makes Me Dance," and "Bridge Over Troubled Waters." . . . Joe Massimino conducts Bill Reddie's inspired arrangements and Joe Guercio is her creative consultant . . . The Antonio Morelli Orchestra is so brilliant it's hoped Karen won't expect all the musicians who back her in the future to sound like that! (Mary Rettig)

. . . Featured with the D. D. show are the familiar, fave comedy duo, Karen & Coffee. Karen puts it on straight, admixing vocal impressions with her mod and standard guitarisms. Ol' Red Coffee comes on strong in the fun department, with his mimicry, comedy and western tunes. He gets the greatest yocks with his gorilla bit and the inebriated new mother take-off. Karen and Red wind it up with a song and banjo strumming duet. A very well-paced package . . . Harry Wham will go on and on and on — right into eternity if he so chooses. His piano bar is supported by people posts — not the wooden variety. As long as Harry continues his remarkable sixth sense of selecting vocal/tonal winners, he'll have a more captive audience than any prison commands . . . Johnny Paul receives the laurels for the entertainment bill, his impeccable hosting and those tricky hands of his. If you've never had the pleasure of watching Johnny's up-close magistics, you've been cheated.

tions in "Movie Theatre," stem from sex ploys and natural function mummery; the "How To Get Arrested" evergreen is a vehicle for burlesque comics to show all of their schtick, which Raft does beguilingly, and his quickies in "Old Time Burlesque," next to closing, are gems . . . Moving into Vegas for the first time is Irving Harmon, who reveals his ability to rope all kinds of reaction. He's quick on the tongue trigger . . . Charles Vespia, another vet along with Raft in this playhouse, does everything from candy butcher to breakup gags with partner David Walker (act is called The Vespia), gay boy romping in "Movie Theatre," and some varied funny actions and talkstuff in the other blackouts . . . Walker is versatile, not only warbling the production numbers with pleasing quality, but straightening for the comics in contrasty way. He's six-three and a handsome guy . . . Patrice Nicole is another of the versatile ones, thrushing the opening high camp production round with the jouncy beauts and moving around with the nudies later in a palmy "Tropical Village" frolic . . . Astradella has a stunning way of displaying her well-designed form and face. Her real monicker is Janet Boyd, but she is out in astra space with her costuming and choreo, very sexy and appealing to distaffers as well as males . . . Manfred & Marino are an adagio pair, both with excellent bodies which are graphically revealed in a torrid, snaky way, chiefly in "Tropical Village." The height of the proscenium does constrict them, however. It is a cautious toss in the air that Manfred gives to Marina on account of the low ceiling . . . The stunning Angelique is the tempestuous temperature-throber exotique who leaves nothing to the imagination . . . Costumes by Lloyd Lambert are splendidly realized within the settings. . . Tommy Hodges prepared the charts for the Paul Lowden Sextet, which performs with great spirit. (Bill Willard) mirrors to establish the theme, "Pourquoi Pas?," the "Symphony of the Sea," the Louvre scene with theft of the Mona Lisa as helicopters fight the brigands from overhead, the "Rhapsodie Espagnole" fiesta with The Red Bordello orgy becoming a flaming inferno, and the brilliant conclusion, "London is London," featuring the scintillating Fountain of Light, the entire finale designed by Michael Knight . . . Interslicing all of this magniloquence are many highly entertaining acts . . . Rudy Cardenas, one of the most fleet and agile of jugglers . . . Heather Belbin, champion figure skater proving why she's a champ . . . The Volantes, doing impossible, breathtaking tricks on unicycles . . . Siegfried & Roy, magico to confound everyone, such as the trunk switching (shades of Houdini!) and a tiger replacing Roy and a cheetah popping out instead of Siegfried . . . The Dancing Devils are a dashing group of Argentine Gauchos from the Pampas, who perform exciting ethnic dances with skilfully controlled bol-eadoras . . . and the famous pick-pocket Dominique, who brings up several men from the audience to the stage for still more thievery . . . Spotlit for outstanding dances and/or singing among the production rounds are Jillian & Ron, with some fine adagio expositions, Marya Linero, Jennifer Pierson, Nicky Gorska, Tom Allison, Charles Gray, Dick Moll, Johnny Ritsko, Dan Parker and Gig Gallion . . . Madame Bluebell has achieved another success d'estime with the splendid choreos of her Bluebell Girls . . . A tip of the topper to the agility of the Arden Boy Dancers, and salutes to the 14 gorgeous torsos of Les Belles du Lido (nice faces, too!) . . . Frank Sennes is the producer, Pierre Louis-Guerin and Rene Fraday, the French Lido producers, Harvey Warren, scenic designer, costumes by Folco, original music and lyrics by Jim Harbert and J. P. Landreau and orchestrations by Harbert, Bill Stafford and Ivan Lane for the precise and sonorous backing by the Eddie O'Neil Orchestra.

biz . . . Gus Augspurg indisputably has one of the most engaging acts of its kind, introducing his Girl Friends, a Rhesus monkey and Gibbon baboon, who absolutely convulse everyone with their people-shines . . . The humorous Spanish trio of Pompoff Thedy Family has some ridiculous musical and sight gags in an action potpourri filled with laughs from start to finish . . . The juggling of Valente Valente is fascinating on two counts — the boy and girl both engage in nifty tricks, particularly with pingpong balls . . . Vassili Sulich is one of the better solo dancers around today and his adagio with Pat LaForge, both nearly nude, in "Feast of the Spider" confirms it . . . Moving out from the Tropicana Dancers, the Tropicana Boys and Les Mannequins are four enchanting Loreleis, Felicia Atkins, Joyce Grayson, Monica Lind and Anna Kappel. Miss Kappel reveals a singing voice of commanding range . . . The Randy Van Horne Singers add special effects to the music with their harmonies . . . Special credits are deserved by Gyarmathy for scenery and costumes; production coordination by Paul Szigety and Larry Grayson; original music by Henri Betti of Paris with lyrics by Johnny Bradford; musical arrangements by

Jerry Fielding . . . Si Zentner decisively guides the intricate music cues from the pit. (Bill Willard)

Rumors had the Bonanza Country Club up for sale last weekend . . . Chanteuse Diane Emond, formerly with the Russ Morgan Orchestra, has returned to the Dunes Top O' The Strip with The New Ideas . . . Jim Kleffen, who has been strongly involved in N.L.V. politics, is the newest addition to the International Publicity-Advertising offices . . .

Enjoyed the backstage pizza party when Jimmy Rodgers and George Kirby closed out of CP . . . Is "Vive" dancer Connie Kay the same gal who recently played the ivories at the T'Bird . . . During the 111th Annual Convention of the American Dental Association at CP Nov. 9, four national dental fraternities will hold concurrent cocktail parties in adjoining rooms labeled "Fraternity Nite".

105 top executives from the recording and radio industries were in last weekend . . . Recuperating at Sunrise Hospital following a minor heart attack last week was Ray Pistilli, assistant to Dunes maitre d' Murray . . . Although Jerry Vale is building himself a Spanish Casa in Paradise Valley, guess who had to lend him a pen!

It was with extreme regret this pillar had to forego the pleasure of watching (her sister) Mitzi Gaynor receive the Governor's Trophy (Entertainment Star Of The Year) at Harrah's-Reno on the 7th. However, Phil Solomon represented FABULOUS, joined by other local 4th estaters Myram Borders, Forrest Duke, Joy Hamann and Frank Lieberman. The Star was her beautiful self, the Governor — humorous, the audience delighted . . . and that's for sure.
