Birthday- Anniversary Corner

... Former FLVite Sam Tucker batons the week's special events with his July 11th birthday, celebrated in his Surfside, Fla. home. It was July 11, 1910 when Lou Walters took his first step into things show business. Ruth and Ed Julian (drummer at the Hacienda) reach their 17th marital plateau on the 11th. Julius Caesar and Caesars Palace share the intentionally coincidental 12th birthdate. Other July 12th card recipients are Tanya Ann Adams, two year old daughter of Mike Adams (Hotel Stardust Manager), comedian Milton Berle, beautiful Brenda Binion (daughter of the Horseshoe's Teddy Jane and Benny) and Marvin Rubin (Santa Anita Race Book). A carload of luv to Ceil Chiarella, who marks another year in her

Orlando, Fla. happiness cottage on the 12th. County Commissioner Bill Briare and Dale Lenett share the lucky 13th birth date this month. July 14th is registered as an annual for the amazing composer-musician Tommy Vig, Mel Young (where are you?) Monte Prosler and the Trenier twins Claude and Cliff. Linda and Michael Gaughan (El Cortez) reach their 5th honeymoon year on the 14th. Mike Cohen (of the Sands slot department) and Bob Keegan (Dunes Hotel) are July 15 cake and candlers. Eleven year old DiDi Bommarito (Joan's dotter) welcomes the 16th birthday share plan with Ray Brand, 2 year old Michael E. A. James (Harry's son), Marion King (CP Casino Cage) and 2 year old Russell Gray Morgan (son of the Jack Morgans). St. Genesius smiled on the 17th and brought gifts to Judith Adams (hubby Mike — Stardust Manager), tune queen Vicki Carr, comedienne Phyllis Diller, Ada Fisher (mother of Dunes publicist Lee), adorable Mimi Hines (Phil Ford's bride), Art Linkletter and developer Bill Moore. Moving into the star's closing segment are Sara and Ed Ames, who take the Anniversary bow on the 17th.

CrisWell PREDICTS

An Accurate Glimpse of the Future

I PREDICT that you will ring the date of December 18th on your 1970 calendar at once, for on that date we face a great international tragedy! Remember the date of December 18th, 1970, as it will be a milestone in your gallery of tragedy! . . . I predict that the Hollywood producers will return to Hollywood shooting again due to the fluctuating foreign currency and the Communist take-over of three countries now being used! . . . I predict that the next national strike will be the Executives who will refuse to sign pay checks and confront the world of labor in an entirely different manner. Even Union Executives will join the strike, and employees of the Union themselves will be trapped in a condition of their own making! . . . I predict that a Merchandise Prince out of London will be forced to surrender his lofty position due to currency profits on the black market, which the new Conservative Party frowns upon! . . . I predict that California Senator George Murphy will appear before Congress on the new bill to pay housewives a salary! . . . I predict that New York Senator Ted Kennedy will pack a mighty wallop at the ballot box! . . . I predict that Etta Cortez will write the history of Las Vegas from an oasis in the desert to the Paris of the Western World! . . . I predict that the tickets for the inauguration of Governor George Corley Wallace in Montgomery, Alabama will be almost as hard to come by as for a Presidential inauguration!

STRAWS IN THE WIND

When I was a farm boy in Indiana, we could tell by the straws in the wind about the coming storms! I predict there are straws in the wind today which foretell (1) the growing number of train wrecks due to careless labor and delayed repair (2) Another Chicago Fire! Just as on October 8th, 1871, the most famous fire in all the world consumed Chicago! I predict another fire almost one hundred years to the day, due to the crowded areas of the city. (3) A new revolutionary way of payment of welfare! The revival of the Roosevelt W.P.A. project where the recipient must work 40 hours per week for the money he receives. "Something for nothing is nothing!" "We must strengthen our citizens and not weaken them with the present handouts!" so stated FDR in 1934, and it will be revived in 1970-1971! (4) A garrison law on the campus! I predict that the Supreme Court will deny that the campus is a sanctuary for theft, looting, murder, mugging and mayhem plus arson, and the State Militia or the National Guards will enforce if needed! Each Professor will be sworn in as a "Deputy" and "Tenure" will be a thing of the past! (5) The end of "Credit Traps" where no "late fee" may be charged for a late payment, all credit contracts on time will be the same, whether you are buying a house or a television set! Federal uniform contracts will also protect you from harassment by your creditor either by mail, phone calls or a knock at the door!

DATE LINE THE FUTURE:

International Air Port, July 1, 1990: The new Super-Super 1,747 lifted airward today! A complete city in itself on wings! 5,000 passengers! 500 crew! A parking lot where you may take your auto along with you! A hospital! Schools! Mortuary! Ambulance service! Ten restaurants! Live baseball! A sidewalk cafe! The very latest for travel in the year 1990!

THE TREND IS HERE

I predict that a ruling to be handed down by our Supreme Court in September will lift Woman from servitude forever! You men may think you have just a Wife now, but in September you will have a Dictator! Forewarned is forearmed for this coming fray!

MUCH GOSSIP

I predict that Hollywood faces a new 100% paralyzing strike in October . . . that Glenn Ford will be the new TV glamour boy this Fall with his new series . . . that Mae West will add to her autobiography the exciting incidents of the last five years . . . that Technicolor will add a new process called "filtered daylight" which enhances the color . . . that Bobby Dean will expound on the new "Shenandoah" Dixieland rage . . . that Janet Gaynor will return to the silver screen . . . that Judy Canova will marry a Pittsburgh millionaire soon . . . Tom Tryon will be the next one-man threat with his novel, his screen play and his starring for Ed Dukoff . . . and that Ginger Rogers will unite with Fred Astaire for a coming TV

Spec out of London, and that a very liberal politician, an actor, will be hailed in court by all his three ex-wives on September 27th!

THE LURKING SCANDALS

We are all threatened by the lurking scandals of the past! No one is safe! I predict three scandals which will break openwide thru the newspapers, the TV and the radio! (1) A famed Senior Senator and a love child of ten years ago! (2) The wife of a Diplomat who will find that her husband did not bother to get a divorce before their supposed marriage ceremony! and (3) The death of a famed Ex-Governor, who is now in a mental hospital, but whom everyone thinks is already dead! Headlines!

CAFE SOCIETY

I predict that Cafe Society will be revived in New York City, and altho many are gone, the few remaining will bring this institution back into former glory! Cafe Society flourished in the late 1930's and the 1940's! Yes, Cafe Society returns!

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

By ETTA CORTEZ

FROM a deep-seated perch on top of the Entertainment Capital, we've had a good vantage point of the total scene and there are some facets that are pretty raunchy in these eyes.

YOU may rightfully credit a business drop to the stock market crisis, as well as the high jumps of our prices . . . but don't forget to include the increased lack of family entertainment . . . excluding the spectaculars. . . .

PARENTS are not going to bring their children here to catch the four-lettered word clowns in the showrooms, competing with each other to see which uses the greatest amount of profanity.

WE'D personally like to put the dirt dealers on a diet . . . to lose about 50 lbs. of foul mouth.

YESTERDAY'S bosses ran their own hotels and casinos. Today, SOME of the chieftains deserve the yellow feather. A FEW are admittedly cowed by the threat of losing Joe Jerk of the odious jargon. FLV was recently spared the sight of one of these mawkish buffoons when he appeared in a Nevada casino in a medallion covered jock strap.

THIS is funny? This is humor? Who's kidding whom? Are the so-called sophisticates becoming so calloused they will eventually accept voiding and excrement as part and parcel of the stage scene? What else could possibly follow the current obscenities?

THE only way the bosses can contribute to the salvation of what's left in this biz called show biz is to eliminate the flotsam and jetsam and lower those prices. The computerized insistence that each department pay for itself is sacrificing the one and two hundred dollar spenders who have been the bulwark of this town.

THE exorbitant star salaries are a cause of resentment to the tourists who are being lured away to seek their dollar's value elsewhere. When a tourist struggles to save vacation money over a year's period, he doesn't look too kindly at a star's Rolls-Royce-per-week engagement salary . . . and that's for sure.

Attention Nevada Bar Association . . . A writ of attachment is filed against a defendant . . . The defending lawyer does not respond within the allotted time . . . The petitioner shouts "default" . . . no reaction . . . The defending lawyer stalls the trial date beyond the statute of limitations . . . The judge is unwillingly forced to dismiss the case . . . The petitioner is not notified but discovers the facts six months later when telephoning the lawyer to determine progress . . . Is this Nevada justice? Is it true that attorneys are more socially inclined toward each other . . . permitting the legal opposition to literally BREAK THE LAW by not complying with the answer period . . . sacrificing the desire of a client? If this is the manner in which clients are treated, then of what earthly use is a barrister? Involves might as well make a determination without legal expenses. Please respond

Art Long will be leaving the Reno Chamber of Commerce and News Bureau on July 15th to move over to Harold's Club. The Howard Hughes offer was too staggering to refuse.

It's almost three years since Maximilian Francis Wolkoff arrived here to head the Publicity/Advertising helm of the Desert Inn. In that short time, he firmly established himself in the hearts of our commune. On the 15th, Max returns to Miami, where he will perform as an independent P.R., with one of his accounts the Florida area coverage for 20th Century Fox. His D.I. post will be taken over by Al Guzman.

A special plane flew Sammy Davis, Jr. in on July 1st so he could join Paul Anka, Jimmy Durante, Pat O'Brien and Vega Maddux in an Air West tube commershill. It will be released August 15th.

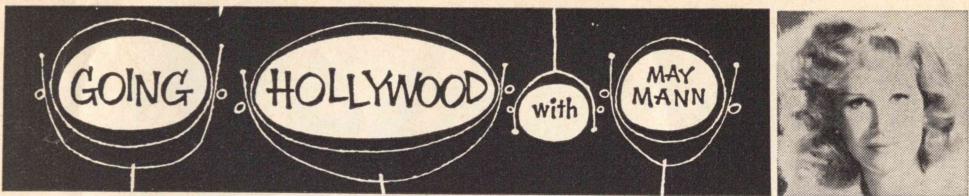

Trini Lopez opened at the Landmark Hotel, following a Montreal concert that played to 23 thousand attendees. Although the performance began at 8:30 P.M., the fans brought in their own chairs at 3 P.M. and were so enthusiastic, they even gave standing ovations to the crossover technicians, who were admittedly embarrassed by the unexpected showers of applause . . . Hubert Humphrey and heiress Charlotte Ford (is that the new romance, Trini?) caught the Lopez Luv-In at the Waldorf, earlier . . . Here, distinguished English actor Wilfred Hyde White, the Nelson Sardellis and comedienne Fay McKay were among his Landmark opening-nighters.

Comedienne Pat Carroll has signed to do a flick with Andrew Prine and Mort Sahl (who plays her husband in the film). They begin shooting August 3rd in San Francisco, then down the coastline to Carmel, where Pat has her own vacation home. However, it's rented for the month of August and the landlady will be checking into a hotel. The plot of the unnamed flick centers around a psychopathic killer. Although Pat can't sink her teeth into that role, she is gleefully playing a "witchy" woman this time around, instead of a "Miss Goodie Two Shoes."

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

EDY Williams' wedding to producer Russ Meyer in the private garden of the Bel Air Hotel was like a scene from a Grade A movie. It was sundown and the guests were seated in a row of very white chairs on the lawn, while the path to the canopy decked with flowers, was tied with nosegays. Edy with her long dark hair to her waist, wearing a mini-maxi white lace wedding gown designed by Walt Emeson, was a lovely picture of a bride. Russ, tall, dark and handsome, awaited her with the minister, to say their "I Do's." Edy was attended by her two beautiful sisters, one a red-head and one a blonde, all wearing their hair very long.

A lavish reception followed on the tiered lawns and Edy displayed her gold garters and threw her wedding bouquet to Barbara Beldon, Hugh Hefner's girlfriend. I congratulated Hugh, and asked if their wedding would be at the Bel Air. He shied away, as the perennial bachelor, and said, "I didn't know Barbara would catch the wedding bouquet!" I hear Hugh is next opening a Playboy's Club in Las Vegas on the Strip with gambling. Also heard happily that Tony Martin has signed a five-year contract with the Flamingo for eight weeks a year — good news!

It was a compliment to Edy and Russ. He produced "Beyond the Valley of the Dolls" which is doing sensational business, and stars Edy, that 20th Century Fox Hierarchy Richard Zanuck, James Denton, Frank Neal, Jet Fore and John Campbell were present, as well as a host of the happy couple's close friends. Later at the dinner and wedding dance in the Bel Air Room, festooned with wedding flowers and a huge wedding cake, Edy danced her wedding dance to a hot rock 'n roll band that is featured in their new film.

Walt Emeson, the designer, recalled that a few years back he was looking for a "Miss Emeson" to star in the "Miss Studio City" beauty contest. He spotted Edy in a bikini, buying gas for her car. She said she would be too shy to enter a beauty contest. She also had no aim to become a movie star. Walt changed her mind, and she won, and again won "Miss Los Angeles" and a 20th Century Fox studio contract. She is a luscious dolly and with her producer husband we think headed for the very top.

I'm told that Jackie Kennedy Onassis and her Ari have stayed three times in Las Vegas in the plush royal suite at the International without the press knowing. They enjoyed Las Vegas, I am told, with all of the security enjoyed by Howard Hughes.

The jet set society beauties are all aiming for today's multimillionaire bachelor tycoons: Howard Hughes, Stavros Niarchos and Bruce Norris, matrimonially I mean. Howard is being divorced by Jean Peters, Stavros is recently widowed by the death of his wife, and Bruce lost Pamela Curran, his long-time romance.

Speaking of Howard Hughes, does anyone know that the late Florabel Muir was writing a biography on H. H. for years? Howard Hughes, she told me, had been sending her a monthly check of $250 to help the expenses. One time, declared Florabel, "I was up against it for ready cash. I wired Howard. He wired me $3,000, and he never asked for it. He asked me many times to see the book I was writing about him, but I won't show it, until he reads it in print." Florabel passed on recently. The manuscript was passed on to Mr. Hughes, direct, unpublished.

Now a former Hughes associate Noah Dietrich is writing a book on

Mr. Hughes. Mr. Hughes is not only a genius but a very great man, who has done much for this old world of ours, besides aviation. Won't someone count the ways, and print it all as it is, please. I've met Mr. Hughes twice, and found him to be a very polite, attractive, infinitely interesting man. The mishmash anecdotes and descriptions concocted must really amuse him.

I brought Edy Williams' wedding cake home to put under my pillow to sleep on, with another white satin tied tiny box of wedding cake the same night from the elegant reception Dr. and Mrs. Nathaniel A. Davis gave for their daughter Natalyn to Frenchman Jacques R. Bergougnan at the Davis mansion. The bride wore a white satin pants suit under white lace. Again it was a hard rock 'n roll band for the wedding dances. This is the Age of Aquarius, you know!

To introduce Hedge and Donna Caper, Capitol's new recording stars and America's fastest rising singing duo, Bill Watters threw a luncheon party at the Cock'n Bull. Celebrating their new album and new sound, less folk and more pop, and their highly successful national tour, they said they are not flower children, nor love children; they are two thoughtful caring young adults, whose music reflects their optimism about life and the world we all inhabit. Asked if their inter-racial marriage (she is black and he is white) posed any problems in appearance in the deep south, they said no. "We're all attitudes. If you can reach out and touch another person and can communicate, there comes liking and understanding," they said. "Special circumstances" is proving special in the world of young adults — who like them, are not uptight, but are instead, cool, upbeat, confident young people, whose enthusiasm is infectious and forward looking. They are presently on tour and windup Aug. 29th at the Philadelphia Folk Festival. They hail from Whittier College where they met.

But This is Hollywood!

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

Lights of Las Vegas

By PHIL SOLOMON

OUR exclusive of Oct. 10, 1969 on the 300-mile-an-hour ground transportation system linking Los Angeles, Palmdale International Airport and Las Vegas seems to be taking shape and could be in operation sooner than expected with the proper financing.

The high speed system, using tracked air-cushion trains, would take passengers to Palmdale in about 20 minutes and then to the entertainment capital of the world in about one hour.

Preliminary cost just completed estimates for the line, starting in the northwestern corner of San Fernando Valley and terminating close to Casino Center, were set at $561 million.

This is the first step to develop a new technology system for the Southern California-Nevada transportation corridor.

The results of the eight month preliminary investigation and survey are more than sufficient to warrant more study and detail for a complete evaluation. The preliminary engineering for the 259 mile line should be completed early next year to provide an operable system shortly after.

Dept. of Transportation has promised some federal backing due to getting passengers to the new Palmdale superport. Southern Nevada Industrial Foundation and L.A. Dept. of Airports will seek additional funds.

At this writing, all parties concerned agreed that sixty-passenger air-cushion vehicles were feasible with a regular time schedule. During peak travel days there may be a possibility of adding an extra car or two. The route proposed would be directly through Barstow and Baker.

All high speed trains would be wheeless and skimming over a thin cushion of air. It would run in a U-shaped concrete guideway or channel to make it sturdy.

Propulsion would be supplied by linear induction motors through electromagnets and a center reactor along which the vehicles are propelled.

The air-cushion trains would make the eastbound trip in 66 minutes and the westbound trip in 76 minutes. A switching track near Baker would account for the differences in time.

A fare schedule of $5 for the trip from San Fernando to Palmdale was assumed in the latest report. Travelers going on to Las Vegas would pay $18 and those traveling from Las Vegas to Palmdale would be charged $14.50.

TRW Systems Group, Redondo Beach and Walter Kidde Constructors of Los Angeles conducted the investigation. Both concerns play a very important part in the project.

RAMBLING AROUND — Did you know that Sands entertainment boss Jack Entratter gave International Hotel star Perry Como the first nitery date at N.Y. Copacabana and the singer showed up in a blue suit, red tie and brown shoes — didn't own a tux then.

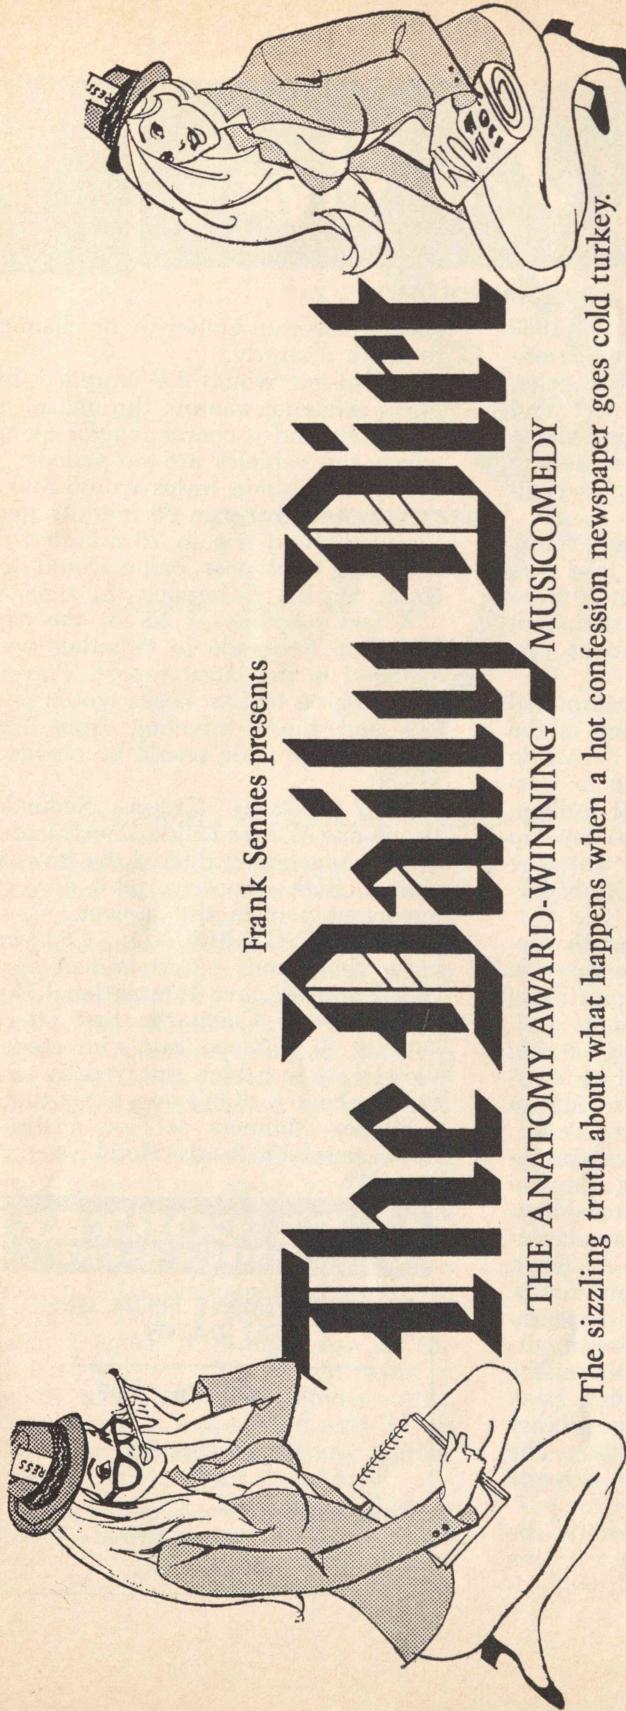

Mickey Manners set for a three week stand at Sands Hotel starting Aug. 12.

VIC Damone opened and I was there. Again I say that musically this is the most consistent act of its kind.

Vic never sounded better nor looked greater. Joe Parnello was back conducting that too much big band that backs Vic. I understand that it is just for a week or two and after that Dick Palumbi takes over. Dick is quite a busy guy as he conducts for Tony Bennett and Anthony Newley also. Back to Vic. Oh yea, he is in the Circle "F" Theatre of the Frontier Hotel. Vic came in this time with quite a bit of new material. Standout for me was Joe Parnello's arrangement of the Academy Award winning song, "Raindrops." Joe took this tune out of the ricky tik style that made it popular, gave it a Basie approach and Vic has a ball with it. Naturally, the crowd gets to its feet when Vic delivers "La Vita" or "This Is My Life." This is one guy you can't miss. There will be no more Sunday performances at the Circle "F." Vic Damone, you are too much!

Over at the International Hotel's Casino Theatre, Bobby Vinton is doing everything but waiting on tables. How many people know that long before Bobby had his first record hit, he fronted the band that used to back up Sammy Davis, Jr.? Bobby not only sings but dances, plays about eight or nine different instruments, writes, arranges and is pretty quick with lines. I can truthfully say that Bobby Vinton's act is one of the more rewarding things in our town right now.

If you are here for just one week you are going to be busy with all the talent in town. Have not caught Little Anthony or Lee Meza yet but plan to. The Everly Brothers are back at the Landmark. Don and Phil are two smart guys in their choice of songs. Naturally you hear the things that made them famous but they then get into today's bag as if they invented it. By now everyone knows about the Everly Brothers taking over the Johnny Cash show for the Summer. This could be another 1957 for the two boys from down South.

Congrats to Dwayne Hickman of "Dobie Gillis" fame for being named new PR man for the Landmark. Long before the TV series, Dwayne first caught my attention as the young nephew of Bob Cummings, on the show of the same name. So, "Dobie," welcome to our town.

SCENE LOUNGING . . . The Treniers make the cross country dash from their July 12 Catskill Mt. tour closing to their Flamingo Casino Theatre opening on the 16 . . . You'll enjoy "Our Thing" in the Aladdin's Bagdad . . . Slipper's Russ Martino playing with a Pagliacci heart since his wife Sundi's emergency surgery on the 1st . . . Bill Palmer replaced Nero's Nook (CP) Stage Manager George Gibbs, who moved to Kings Castle . . . The Fremont Lounge has been converted to a piano bar — kissing off another showcase for potential stars — Wayne Newton started here . . . Julie London and husband Bobby Troup are at the Trop Blue Room — not together — but alternating.

Bev, Sidro & Sneakers are stronger than ever at Harrah's-Reno after that great seven weeks at the Ilikai in Honolulu. If they could bottle those Hawaiian tans they'd make a fortune!

After four years away from the mike, Sandy Dobritch is back at it, this time at Circus Circus. Sandy is the "Scampy" who starred in the tube's "Super Circus" for so long. When other youngsters were in the playpen, Sandy had three rings to juggle and sawdust for his sandbox. He made 44 appearances on the Ed Sullivan TV viewer. A sixth generation of circus artists, Sandy also holds a degree in Radio and Tube Production.

Quite a milestone coming up in the literary life of our columnist Phil Solomon. On July 14, he will celebrate his 24th year of covering show biz in Nevada . . . just one year short of that big Silver Anniversary. There's another book potential.

Betty Voight, formerly with the TBird Publicity Office, is now B. V. Marshall, Veep of the James Eddy Company P.R. offices in New York.

The new Japanese Steak House at

CP opened per schedule without any untoward incidents, with the exception of being so dimly lighted, a photographer lost his balance and almost grabbed one of the hot table grills for support . . . We hear that CP Stage Manager Eddie Lynch (cold sober, incidentally) fell into the water grotto in Cleopatra's Barge and came up with a good-natured grin . . . Nat Hart is executive Maitre d' of the new Steak House, as well as the Bacchanal Room.

FABULOUS Notes . . . Joe Rollo is in the Ellay (Westwood?) Veterans Hospital . . . David Branower just underwent serious leg surgery . . . Among other complaints, Norway nationals are preventing the opening of a "Hair" company because "it's a hippie way of life." . . . Don Cronin, Barry Ashton's Road Manager, speculating on the boss moving the Florida company to Montreal . . .

Pat Boone's "Picking Up Pebbles" number one on Australian charts . . . Keenan Wynn is doing a series of (Continued on Page 33)

MIGHTY MIXTURE

By GARY STEVENS

DATELINE: NEW YORK

KEEPING YOUR NEWS TO THE GRINDSTONE: Show Magazine's listing of Hollywood's richest goofed by tabbing Jack Warner as being 54 years old. Leonard Lyons, the veteran scrivener of the N.Y. Post and mucho syndication, had fun by writing that the movie mogul would give millions if he were 54 again. L.L. mentioned the film pioneer's age as 75. To correct everybody's records, in August J.L., the Colonel himself, will hit the 78 mark. Perhaps he'd give a chunk of moolah to be 75 again. . . . England's esteemed writer of another century, William Thackeray had an appropriate middle name for today's market. His in between handle was Makepeace. . . . That competent actress Vera Miles was really Vera Ralston before she got into movies. She changed her name because Republic had Vera Hruba Ralston, who was actually Vera Hruba.

ASSORTMENT: Mae West, looking young enough to be Hope Hampton's daughter, came to New York for the first time in 20 years. The reason was the premiere of "Myra Breckinridge." Mae, very deep in her 70's, but looking as glamorous as a white prize kitten at a feline show, was in fine fettle. The Westian philosophy as per 1970: "Women were liberated years ago. These gals didn't read the right books or they stayed home too long. And the young people, well, they've got something to say, but personally I don't like the way they're saying it." . . . Joe E. Lewis is now retired and the saloon belt won't have another like him again. He was a late night trailer to a full next day at the race track. And glasswise he did more for the promotion of Scotland than Robert Burns or Harry Lauder. Funny thing about this lovable guy with the whiskey coated tonsils, for all his host of friends one always detected an air of loneliness about him. As we look back on many a long night's stationary journey into dawn, the ones invested in the company of Joe E. were always fun filled and enjoyable. Have one for the road on us, Joseph.

"AISLEPINION": You don't have to worry about getting to see "Applause." Take your time about buying tickets; you'll have to anyway. It'll be running a year from now. It is all pro. Lauren Bacall, who can't sing, manages beautifully. She is a veritable romp. Lithe as a dancer, her response to direction is a happy sight to see. Penny Fuller is just right as the conniving starlet with poison on her finger nails. Bonnie Franklin is darling in the title song. The music is fairish, the lyrics a shade beyond that. The choreographer-director comes across as a winner. Lauren is a lalapaluzza in a Ron Field-ay.

EAT TREAT BEAT: Make no mistake about it, the Broadway Belt has an abundance of fine restaurants. A key to that sentence is The Lobster, a pioneer seafood house since 1919. It is a comfortable place, no ostentation. The assets are many. Gus, the head bartender for 40 years, can come up with a terrific mixed drink in seconds. You order it, presto the waiter has said concoction in literally seconds. On the credit side, how about the delicacy, Finnan Haddie, the fancy name for choice smoked haddock. And forget not the Striped Bass, another winner. . . . There's a polychromatic feeling about a dinner excursion at South Pacific Ports, the attractive, quiet, well planned Oriental food oasis below the street in the Hotel Taft.

SINBAD LOUNGE
 The Bachelors; Upstarts (6 P.M. to 6
 A.M.)

Perhaps the most famous of all current strippers, Tempest Storm presents a classy exhibit of the fine art of taking it off. Now a brunette, with long cascading tresses (her flaming red locks were a trademark for years) surrounding a very pretty face, the Tempest belies that name with a rather stately turn. Clad at first in layers of mauve filmies, she gradually relieves herself of such extra weight, then goes into a lighted dressing room for further reduction of coverage. The final revelation is unimpeded view of her vaunted size 44s, which, after all, is what the Storm has been about all these years . . . For the good old bur-

"Pzazz '70!" is a glittering jazzy knockout of a show bound to be on every "must see" list . . . Swinging — and it swings aplenty! — productionwise from Las Vegas and San Francisco, to Memphis, St. Louis, a heavenly Hollywood, and to New York, it reserves its most intoxicating, satirical "howdy" for prohibition daze Chicago, a hilarious potpourri of streetwalkers, a speakeasy "floor show," a mobster rub-out, and a realistic fire. "Pzazz '70 . . ." is 70 kinds of colorful, glamourous fun, re-

The "1970 Folies Bergere" continues on the highest plateau of Las Vegas spectac-

This kaleidoscopic dazzler is chiefly populated by richly costumed men and women in the splendidly choreographed scenes by Tony Char-moli, seven in all. When the Tibor Rudas Dancers finish their incredibly fleet Can Can, there is only one equal to that display, more Rudas Dancers in the "Marriage au Tyrol" . . . Mitzi McCall and Charlie Brill are devastating as they verbally wrestle with some highly entertaining bickering that hits the audience on home ground . . . Balancing feats of The Martys are electrifying, interspersed with funny biz . . . Gus Augspurg indisputably lesque corn on the cob, the "Courtroom Scene" is the best of Irv Benson. He is quite famous now through exposure on the Milton Berle telly shows, but he could never give out on the tube with what he tosses on the Aladdin stage. His rapid firing straightman sidekick Jack Mann is excellent as both zap the jokes and whap the audience for not responding as well as they would like . . . Jerry Lucas does his usual goofy role in the courtroom episode . . . Slithery is the word for Summers — Suzette Summers of the fine body, displayed in glittery spangles, but not for long. On her, the flesh look is better . . . Jeannie Thomas not only sings so well in her production rounds, but shows a flair for comedy in a scene with Benson & Mann. A beauty, she . . . Best of the Jerry Norman dance patterns to date, the various ideas in this Minsky edition feature lead femme dancers Jan Marts, Sharon Sinotte and Betty

Francisco ala nude (give or take a bead or two), plus the controlled muscularity in adagios by Michel Stany and Rick Hamilton . . . The Minsky Dancers and Nudes are splendid, the dancers with fleet precision and the mannequins belying that title by moving very well. Good looking gals, all . . . Costumes by Josephine Spinedi, executed by Eastwood are eye-filling and the settings by Winn Strickland, lighted by Bob Kiernan, are prismatic . . . Irv Gordon's charts are performed with gusto by the Hank Shank octet. The Alexandroffs provide a chilling experience with their uni-

The Canestrellis fascinate with their internationally-famous trampolining with riveted attention on young Marco's daredeviltry . . . Mr. Coco's chimpanzee trio are an absolute delight with some expert shoe pitching by the fun-loving jungle transplants . . . Elsbeth & Ray Cosmo are back and they're spreading their unique happiness, cleverly perched on those wooden elevators . . . The Hartzell Comedy Musicians perform a potpourri of dramatic humor in a swashbuckling mono rail encounter . . . No one rides a unicycle upside down on a monorail with only his teeth supporting a trapeze on which his wife works — except the Hildalys . . . Watching Le Lisa perform on her trapeze sans net makes you wonder what a nice girl like that is doing without a security web . . . The Randels are a refreshing addition to the Big Tent with their artistry on the trampoline . . . Tanya is an unbelievable miniature pachyderm who skips, plays musical instruments and moves her 2300 lb. anatomy with the grace of a dancer . . . Vino Venito is extremely daring as split second timing separates him from injury during his knife balance challenge . . . Rena Smaha vocalizes during the Aerial Ballet, a spectacular that concentrates on a gallant gentleman propelling a mono rail with a line of 5 cuties performing on perches . . . Sandy Dobritch, Mike Hartzell and Clarence Hoffman are the ringmasters.

plete with extravagant scenery, ravishing costumes, inventive special effects, and a huge, high-powered company of handsome singers and dancers . . . Between spectacles there are specialty acts including the delightfully handsome ventriloquist Dick Weston who gets howls with "Aunt Martha" and "Clarence," the fast-paced comedy of Alan & Shane . . . the acro-comedy of the funtastic Jolly Jovers . . . exciting singers Barry Monroe and Edward Whiting, and agile juggler Montego, the busiest guy in town tossing balls and spinning rings while balanced on a unicycle . . . It's a shame there isn't space to credit all the fine company, but featured standouts are Jacqueline Douguet, Nick Navarro, Bernard Charey, Sheila Sparr, Bobbi Hill, Jeanne Costa, Penny Pryor, Lillian D'Honeau, Betty Vaughn, Larry Massey, Jim Weiss, Gordon Cornish, and Loretta St. John . . . Lavish behind-the-scenes credits to Frank Sennes' production, Donn Arden's inspired staging and direction, Bill Campbell's opulently original costume designs, and Jim Harbert's music and arrangements, played with enormous pzazz by Carlton Haves and His Orchestra.

and that's le mot juste for this eye-popper, will appeal not only to the broadminded but to everyone who digs superb entertainment . . . Frederic Apcar, who conceived, produced, and directed "Casino" on a grand scale, has gone first cabin all the way — from John Leccia's tuneful music and Jose Luis Vinas' rich, inventive costumes, to special effects and talent . . . The Clownerama opener, with clowns cleverly displaying the show's credits, is alone enough to give The Dunes another hit, yet it segues into a psychedelic, mod dancing finish so colorful the audience yips with excitement . . . Other lavish numbers featuring most of the cast of 100 are a wild Chicago sizzler complete with a dozen undraped femmes in bathtubs and a hair-pulling between topped and topless dancers, a Roman stunner with wrestling gladiators, a live Bengal tiger attacking a hapless victim, and equally live horses in a thundering chariot race capped — if that's possible — by a realistic orgy and the burning of Rome! . . . Acts spotted throughout the extravaganza include the Peiro Brothers and their superb juggling, and their apt impressions, the marvelous Jean Leccia Singers, the show stopping Berosini Jungle Fantasy—chimpanzees, two baby gorillas, and a scene-stealing orangutan — the Berosini Risley acrobatic act, and breathtaking balancing by David & Goliath (Jerry Howard & Fred Randall) and all the handsome, talented dancers brilliantly staged and choreographed by Ron Lewis and by Billy Petch . . . Earl Green and his 21 piece orchestra are as magnifique as the new "Casino de Paris."

She is a graceful dancer and especially delightful singing a love duet with her gifted husband . . . Miss Meadows' striking onstage coiffures are created by Loretta (Harris) of Hollywood . . . The team's guest stars, RCA's The Friends Of Distinction, deserve a chapter to themselves the way they score in their Vegas bow, making it easy to predict much stellar exposure for them here. They are indeed distinctive, the men (Harry Elston & Floyd Butler) personalities, and the girls (Barbara Love and Charlene Gibson) knockouts. They are elegantly dressed, move excitingly, and their vocal

He knows the art of possessing an audience throughout any and all moods, tunes, comedy, or what is referred to as schtick — his inimitable way of projecting the best things he knows to make people laugh, cry, reminisce, cheer, turn themselves inside out for whatever he does. Whatever he does in this instance includes some old time grand piano, harmonizing and getting yocks with his partner of 54 years, the inimitable Eddie Jackson, who lives the "Young At Heart" he croons, schmoos-ing with six lovely Durante Girls as they disport around him several times throughout the evening, having a brief ball with huge, round Vega Maddux and the flying human object Don Hines, who skitters on and off in this fun scene, and an altogether happy session with the wee Pearce Sisters during their song-instrumental-dance time . . . Teresa Brewer has a very brief, but telling, set to bring up the curtain. With her four young men, The Terrytones, she belts some tunes from the musical "Purlie Victorious" and hits a peak in a fine way with the old ballad, "Cottage For Sale." Her closing zip is a western fling with the lads and some fancy yodelling that brings big reception from the audience . . . Al Alvarez comes in for some heavy ribbing by Durante as he pluckily leads his orksters, sided by Durante's men, Jack Roth on the skins and George Finley on the keys. Bill Hitchcock is Miss Brewer's knowledgeable conductor. few club dates between his last one twenty-seven years ago and the current outing. Living up to every synonym for "relaxed" and "charming" any critic can conjure, the super star is also in superb voice — rich, caressing, perfectly modulated — and exhibits a ready wit that wins everyone packed into the huge show room. Personable and unpretentious, he has no need for vocal gimmickry and uses none. He has exciting charts, arranged and conducted by Nick Perito, and the show Ray Charles produced for him should appeal to everyone; there are just enough of the newer songs, such as an enchanting "Everybody's Talkin'," "Didn't We," and "Raindrops . . ." to counterpoint Como hits and standards. Of the latter the crowd especially seems to relish his stirring, big-voiced "Without A Song," "Prisoner Of Love," and lovely "You'll Never Walk Alone" closer . . . In several of the songs he is joined delightfully by the Doodletown Pipers, and they have some comedy bits together as well, notably Como's sly clowning with them during "raindrops" . . . On their own the dozen Doodletown boys and girls get the night off to a strong start with their zestful "Make Your Own Kind Of Music" medley and infectious "Brother Love's Traveling Salvation Show," in which they get mid-number applause for a percussion tambourine spot . . . Very funny English comedian Billy Baxter makes an auspicious Vegas bow with fresh material on the Adam & Eve story, contrasting British and American terminology, alien admittance, and a Protestant's lack of religious identity. Baxter is sure to be back — often . . . The thirty-six member Joe Guercio Orchestra does justice even to a star the calibre of Perry Como. (Mary Rettig) bind excitement of his voice, swinging hips, and the beat of his guitar send the crowd to such a degree there are spontaneous shows all over the room as the rhythm raises people right out of their chairs. The electricity starts charging the moment high voltage Trini steps onstage to sock over a swinging "Show Me A Man . . ." and "Easy Come Easy Go," with impromptu provocative footwork. His next song segment is probably my favorite portion of his peerless show — "Take A Letter, Maria" in medley with "Straight Life" and two deliciously sung ballads, perfect showcases for his fine voice, "What Are You Doing The Rest Of Your Life?" and "Something." They set the crowd up for "Get Ready," one of those Lopez rompers that prompts dancing in the aisles and cavorting in the seats. Despite the contagious effect of his up tempo numbers, Trini's enchantingly beautiful "Cu cu ru cu cu, Paloma" wins heaviest applause of all . . . The closing portion of his show includes "Five O'Clock World," his sizzling new disk, and a medley of many other great Lopez hits such as "Michael," "Lemon Tree," "America," and, of course, "I've Got A Hammer." He not only has a hammer — Trini's got everything! . . . David Schriber is the singing star's accomplished bassist and conductor . . . Although Joey Villa makes the audience laugh a lot, particularly with his Jack E. Leonard carbon, he would be more effective were he to delete the material that's in bad taste, and an impression of the Pope that is execrable. The comedian's "United We Stand" Song closer goes over well . . . Ray Sinatra's Orchestra is glorious. (Mary Rettig) up with the Mods in his fashionable suiting (sleeveless jacket, blouse, bells etc.) and some of his choice of material. The big amped beat is very prevalent throughout the set, but there are quieter moments mindful of the former Jones boy who palmed everyone with his extra fine-textured ballading. Up in front of the brass, reed and strings of the admirable Antonio Morelli men and women are the solidly entrenched rhythmakers for Jones led by pianist-arranger Joe Kloess; drummer Chuck Hughes; Chino Valdez, congas; Hal Robinson, Fender bass and Bob Thomas, guitar . . . Miss Worley has a conglomeration of ideas within her act, but it is when she's belting out a song with slices of comedy that she's her best. The involved setup with rear projection stills showing her way with men and early start in show business, the kidding with her costumed musical director, Armin Hoffman, is only titter material. Her straight singing of "Someone to Watch Over Me," and the quality of delivery in the grand opera ribbing at the close, reveals gold beneath some of the glossy plastic outer finish that she embellishes with hoots, howls, funny noises and gestures. So sing, clown, sing!

edy relief pattern, joined by his cohorts. He is an acro comic with emphasis on the athletics. Kirchen runs the gamut from Jolson miming to a "Mac The Knife" contemporary. The Partners are partners in fun! . . . Harry Wham keeps the appreciation at top level. It's sheer pleasure to see the happy faces throughout the bill. Harry addresses the keys, adds his voice to the artfully selected tunes, and it's a nightclub Disneyland where the accent is on humor . . . Host Johnny Paul has packaged this every night, every second, happytime program. When the spotlight is at temporary rest, Johnny moves among the audience, dispersing his up-close magistics for the more fortunate table buffs.

of the old timers in the game. For example, his semi-pantomime schtick in "Movie Theatre," the nebbish little man in "Getting Arrested," plus the quickies during the next to closing catchall scene are some of the best of the craft . . . Herbie Barris, another longtimer in the biz, puts his rubbery puss into gyrations and reveals his way with the lines, retorts and actions in "Getting Arrested" and "Doctor's Office" . . . Charles Vespa is a little guy who can do all the funny stuff, from his candy butcher pre-curtain rounds, to breaking up partner David Walker (act is called The Vespas), swishing in "Movie Theatre," and plenty of other risible inserts along the way . . . Walker is the handsome straight, six foot three, who belts out production rounds as well as shooting lines here and there for the comics . . . Angelique, a tall blonde peeler, has extra dimensions where it counts. Her divestiture down to zero has the guys gasping, but her warbling in a couple of numbers doesn't equal the grade with the body displays . . . Contrast in style and technique in this art form is brunette Astradella, whose figure is outa sight, if not outa space. Very sexy, this femme, with her symbolic plastic appendages becoming as fascinating to watch as a nest of cobras . . . Adagio team Manfred & Marino have excellent bodies, revealed in a very open way during a well-received exhibit in the "Tropical Village" number . . . The Lloyd Lambert costumes on the romping Ashton nudes are cunningly designed to show the anatomy . . . Tommy Hodges is responsible for the solid charts, performed with brio by the Paul Lowden Sextet.

mirrors to establish the theme, "Pourquoi Pas?," the "Symphony of the Sea," the Louvre scene with theft of the Mona Lisa as helicopters fight the brigands from overhead, the "Rhapsodie Espagnole" fiesta with The Red Bordello orgy becoming a flaming inferno, and the brilliant conclusion, "London is London," featuring the scintillating Fountain of Light, the entire finale designed by Michael Knight . . . Interslicing all of this magniloquence are many highly entertaining acts . . . Rudy Cardenas, one of the most fleet and agile of jugglers . . . Heather Belbin, champion figure skater proving why she's a champ . . . The Volantes, doing impossible, breathtaking tricks on unicycles . . . Siegfried & Roy, magico to confound everyone, such as the trunk switching (shades of Houdini!) and a tiger replacing Roy and a cheetah popping out instead of Siegfried . . . The Dancing Devils are a dashing group of Argentine Gauchos from the Pampas, who perform exciting ethnic dances with skilfully controlled boladeras . . . and the famous pickpocket Dominique, who brings up several men from the audience to the stage for still more thievery . . . Spotlighted for outstanding dances and/or singing among the production rounds are Jillian & Ron, with some fine adagio expositions, Marya Lino, Jennifer Pierson, Nicky Gorska, Tom Allison, Charles Gray, Dick Moll, Johnny Ritsko, Dan Parker and Gig Gallion . . . Madame Bluebell has achieved another success d'estime with the splendid choreos of her Bluebell Girls . . . A tip of the topper to the agility of the Arden Boy Dancers, and salutes to the 14 gorgeous torsos of Les Belles du Lido (nice faces, too!) . . . Frank Sennes is the producer, Pierre Louis-Guerin and Rene Fraday, the French Lido producers, Harvey Warren, scenic designer, costumes by Folco, original music

has one of the most engaging acts of its kind, introducing his Girl Friends, a Rhesus monkey and Gibbon baboon, who absolutely convulse everyone with their people-shines . . . The humorous Spanish trio of Pompoff Thedy Family has some ridiculous musical and sight gags in an action potpourri filled with laughs from start to finish . . . The juggling of Valente Valente is fascinating on two counts — the boy and girl both engage in nifty tricks, particularly with pingpong balls . . . Vassili Sulich is one of the better solo dancers around today and his adagio with Pat LaForge, both nearly nude, in "Feast of the Spider" confirms it . . . Moving out from the Tropicana Dancers, the Tropicana Boys and Les Mannequins are four enchanting Loreleis, Felicia Atkins, Joyce Grayson, Monica Lind and Anna Kappel. Miss Kappel reveals a singing voice of commanding range . . . The Randy Van Horne Singers add special effects to the music with their harmonies . . . Special credits are deserved by Gyarmathy for scenery and costumes; production coordination by Paul Szigety and Larry Grayson; original music by Henri Betti of Paris with lyrics by Johnny Bradford; musical arrangements by Jerry Fielding . . . Si Zentner decisively guides the intricate music cues from the pit.

Former champ Ray Robinson passed up the Landmark elevator in favor of a hike up and down the 27 floors for a speaking engagement . . . Julie London's husband Bobby Troup (Trop Blue Room) wrote the "Route 66" theme and "Girl Talk" . . . July 10, the Cuneo Animal Circus began two-a-day in the Stardust Convention Center . . .

Slipper comedian Herbie Barris has appeared with Abbott & Costello, Phil Silvers, Jackie Gleason and Milton Berle . . . The Thunderbird has made history by lowering its show tab to $2.25 for all you can drink . . .

Leola Vespa, wife of Slipper comic Charles, took four of her daughters to eat at the store (leaving the youngest at home) and they looked as though they had just stepped out of the Easter Parade. (Dad is hoping the October stork delivers a boy.) . . . Rusty Warren returns to dazzle the Flamingo loungers on August 13.

Before accepting the Oil Exploration Firm ad that we are running, FABULOUS checked the out of town source. In addition to determining the advertiser's financial and character stability, we also discovered that 87 of the 92 holes our client drilled proved fruitful. The activity is in the Claysville Pool, near Zanesville, Ohio. Only 12 wells were dry out of the 300 drilled by this firm and all the others in the surrounding area.

It's always sad to note changes that transfer our nice people to other climes. After seven years of beautifully decorated windows and elite wardrobe dispensing, Stuards-Sahara Men's Shop will move out of the Sahara on August 17. This town will miss Dave and his dad Truman Stuard, two of life's real people . . . and that's for sure.
