I PREDICT that a gaping hole created by a meteor hitting the South Pacific, will be a major marvel of the year! . . . I predict that a new law by Congress will permit the creation of a full fledged Doctor in four years! This new Army-Navy course will cut the frills and give us 50,000 much needed Doctors at once! Not every Doctor does brain surgery! . . . I predict that the old radio favorite "Amos and Andy" will return as a TV series next season! . . . I predict that a new way of highway construction will save the taxpayers millions of dollars. The new revolutionary suspension system will shock you! . . . I predict that Art Linkletter's "People Are Funnier Than Ever!" based on his TV interviews, will hit the best seller lists! . . . I predict that Canada will soon deport all American boys who sought refuge from the draft but entered into the drug market and petty theft, as "undesirable in any light"! . . . I predict that Irene Bordoni, the late musical comedy and film star, will be a collector's item in the record world! . . . I predict that a new medicine out of Germany will dissolve the fatty tissues in your body overnight in a safe and sane manner! . . . I predict that the cast of a very famous daytime soap opera series will soon experience a plague which turns their hair purple! This series will ride the headlines and gain much viewing popularity! I predict many startling innovations for your TV-viewing.

WHAT PEOPLE WILL DO:

President Nixon: I predict your popularity will soar with the reduction of the interest rates on mortgages and on home financing, including construction! . . . Prime Minister Heath: I predict that you and your conservative party will bring England back from the brink of destruction with your new foreign and home policies!

. . . Mae West: I predict you will be awarded the Oscar for your performance in "Myra Breckenridge"! . . .

Walt Disney: You will soon tour the largest Diorama in the world with scenes of world history depicted in startling reality! . . . Vice President

Agnew: Your famous utterances will be in book form for the ideal Holiday gift! . . . Mary Pickford: Your films (both silent and sound) will be the new rage for Film Festivals early in 1971! . . . Glenn Ford: You will be elected to high office in the theatrical unions, much to your amazement! . . .

Vivian Kellems: You will win hands down on the next court decision concerning the unfair taxes for single citizens! . . . Regis Philbin: You will return to national TV in a format for women! . . . Governor Ronald Reagan:

You will spearhead an anti-narcotic drive in California to stop entry from the Mexican Border! . . . Mary Miles Minter: You will return to active theatre via a new TV series! . . . Jacquelyn Suzanne: Your next novel about Hollywood will deal with a murder still unsolved and will be the most discussed book of the year! . . . Leo Guild: Your criticism of current movies will place you far above George Jean Nathan of the theatre! Your Annual Hollywood Directory will be most popular!

DOES IT MEAN ANYTHING?

Many of you readers have written me about my family mention in the Genealogy Journal. Yes, I am one and the same. We have many very valuable artifacts, one dating back to Oceanus Hopkins, the first child to be born on the Mayflower. Does it mean anything? The Neeleys, the Mulhalls, the Hopkins, the Kings, the Criswells, the Jeffersons and the Chalfontes look upon with much pride! Many museums have been enriched with some priceless gifts. Our family was easy to trace as each lived to be over 90.

BUMPER STICKERS

I predict the new crop of bumper stickers which use profanity and a generous sprinkling of four letter words will be banned by our Highway Patrol, as they take the attention from driving!

INNER EARTH

I predict that in the month of September you will hear very distinct rumblings from inner earth! Fresh streams will magically appear in the desert! Lakes will drain of all water!

Coast lines will change overnight! The general shifting of the land due to the slight slippage of the Polar Cap!

DATELINE THE FUTURE!

Jan. 18, 1985, London, Ireland. The Irish Free State became the ruler of England today, due to the many loans made by the Bank of Ireland to save the British Pound Sterling. Many thousands of proud Britishers joined a plague of suicides, including the best known names in England. (Names censored.)

Jan. 19, 1985, Wichita, Kansas (our new Federal Capitol) The Pure Food and Drug Act cracked down today on all firms exporting and importing impure compressed air as a non-food (for those on a Federally imposed diet to reduce). Only air from mountains and high areas can be used. Many firms have been using ordinary ground level air in their city areas to save money. The death sentence awaits over 5,000 men and women who aided this fraud!

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

By ETTA CORTEZ

EVEL KNEIVEL, that fearless, daring young man on the flying bike, is back on crutches. He broke his back trying to clear 19 cars in a Seattle jump recently. But, the matter of a broken back doesn't deter this stalwart. He is currently discussing an exhibition jump for Nate Jacobson at his Kings Castle, with a warm-up scheduled at Boise, Idaho.

Diahann Carroll celebrated her birthday week filming her "Julia" TVviewer. Scenes were shot on the grounds of the Sands Hotel and at Lake Mead. However, her cake and candle day (July 17) was mercilessly spent on location in the desert (Dry Lake). At day's end, she still looked ravishing.

Lead dancer Roger Minami (of the Landmark's "Tower Sweets" Revue) is creating an original stage wardrobe for Fay McKay's upcoming tour with Liberace . . . After a year as topliner of the "Sweets" production, the comedienne checks out of the role on August 8th. On the first Anniversary of her opening here (July 21) in the topless smash, it was a natural for the FABULOUS FAY to dream her audience was suddenly invaded by a nudist colony.

Many hearts will be heavy when Marilyn Biehl takes a leave-of-absence from her desk as Secretary to Executive Producer Al Dobritch of the double Circus, August 1st. The Hoosier lassie has a natural ability to interpret the many foreign tongues spoken at C.C. In addition to being an unofficial U.N. delegate, her Diplomatic flair has won her the love of many devoted friends. FABULOUS trusts that Marilyn will return from her Indiana trip in September.

Although twins are commonly accepted, there is nothing common about the dual images at the double Circus. They are Ben and Bill McCrary, separated from being identical by 20 lbs. One tips the scales at 640 lbs. The other — 660 lbs. They are showcased in a sideshow off the Main Arena. When they flew in from Europe, each of the brothers was allotted two seats on the Pan American bird.

The chieftains of Lum's are apparently divesting themselves of all other properties (Abner's chain and that Poconos property), concentrating on their Lum's stores and Caesars Palace.

Comedienne Rusty Warren has also relieved herself of a holding. She sold her Jubilee Records at May's end. The "Knockers Up" gal has refurbished her Scottsdale manse. The storage area is so long, Rusty feels as though she's walking over a bowling lane. With her amazing humor, she roared as she explained the decking around her pool was torn up just in time for the cement workers to go on strike . . . The Warren topliner leaves things domestic behind when she returns to the Flamingo on August 13.

We like the Sahara-Tahoe's idea and would support its duplication in our area. The bistro has opened Gameland, an arcade with electronic machines and games of sport, far from the casino. It's a touch of Dis-

I tied a blue, white and red ribbon on my necklace and went forth to celebrate France's Bastille Day in glory. At the hillside villa of French Consul General Didier Raguenet, festivities were festooned with rosettes and flags and buntings in the tricolors of France — all over the spacious gardens, shrubs and overhead by lanterns. And in the courtyard was a mural backdrop of Paris itself, with the dome of the Paris Opera House, the Eiffel Tower, and the French dancing in the streets.

Methinks a woman had a fine hand in this colorful decor, for other years the Consul was a bachelor, and there was no one to go to such joyous if painstaking effort to make it Paris itself. It was his bride, of course, whose nuptials to the tall distinguished Consul General Raguenet were celebrated in Paris June 4th. This was her introduction to the French and their many friends here.

Mayor Yorty gave a toast and the Consul General gave a toast under the flying colors of France. Stirring national anthems of both countries brought tears of pride, patriotism and love for both countries who have stood side by side.

Mrs. Raguenet is chic, beautiful, slim, young, with a wealth of long chestnut hair. Her dress was midi in a voile print, that said Paris. Beatrice Raguenet is the daughter of a noted Parisian doctor and she is a welcome addition on the local scene.

In Paris last October a bridge made of stones was said to be from the Old Bastille. The Fortress jail (before the French Revolution on July 14, 1789) was where prisoners were kept without trial. The people of Paris finally stormed the jail, freed the prisoners and began the Revolution for democracy. Marie Antoinette and 1,500 royalty lost their heads.

Isn't it — and you can believe it — that today's youth who scorns the Establishment (anyone over 30) is so hungry for talent and great screen personalities, that they are demanding the good old days of cinema stars. Now Busby Berkeley at 70 has been signed to direct a Broadway musical version of his famed "Forty Second Street" movie of the 30's! And who is going to star on Broadway in it, but Ruby Keeler, who twinkled her toes in his musical gems of the 30's. Not to mention that Mae West won the 1970 Oscarette teenage vote, that W. C. Fields, Humphrey Bogart, Clark Gable, are top favorites with the teen set, but Wallace Beery shirts and hats are on sale in the department stores. Wally was different in real life than in reels. He was meticulous, impressive, took along twenty hand-tailored $350 suits when he flew his own plane to cities when he was guest-of-honored at big events. Beery and Gable were the two big stars at M.G.M. Wally would yearly take the 52-page contract handed him by Louis B. Mayer, and tearing it in two, he'd write on a piece of white paper, "I, Wallace Beery, will make films for Metro Goldwyn Mayer Studios for 50 weeks a year at a salary of $7500.00 a week. Signed Wallace Beery." He was the "bread and butter star" whose films always made money. When a London publisher with a great flourish arrived to present Wally with a trophy for having won the "most popular star in England" contest Wally, snoozing in his dressing room, told the informing publicity man, "Tell him to leave it by the door," and went back to his snooze.

Wouldn't it be delish if Richard Zanuck would release a "Marilyn Monroe Film Festival" for the theatres? Seven books, hard cover, have been published on Marilyn's life. She neyland that can be enjoyed by all members of the family.

Wade Phillips (Phillips 66 Gas & Oil Corp.) has gifted the Boy Scouts Of America with the Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimarron, N.M. The 137 thousand acres include the home of Kit Carson (now a museum), trails and camping grounds, as well as signs of the old Santa Fe Wagon Trail.

The "Love, American Style" tube segment Phil Ford & Mimi Hines taped (for later viewing) before opening their Flamingo topline . . . is intriguingly titled . . . "Love And The Wig."

A star-studded audience totalling a billion dollars worth of talent is expected to attend the Salute To Joe E. Lewis in the Riviera's Versailles Room, September 13. Sponsored by the Beverly Hills Friars Club, the anticipated $75 thousand gross will be turned over to the Friar's Youth Fund. Hosting the gala will be Bob Hope, Dean Martin and Frank Sinatra. As if that isn't enough, the dais will hold a star contingent consisting of Tony Bennett, Jack Benny, George Burns, Jimmy Durante, Shecky Greene, Phil Harris, Jack E. Leonard, Ted Lewis, Jan Murray and Ed Sullivan. Tickets go on sale August 1. You can bet that Joe E.'s pianist-partner Austin Mack will be present also. It will be good to see Lewis back in FLV. He was actually the forerunner of the big-salaried performers, with his top contracts at the now defunct El Rancho Vegas.

FABULOUS Notes . . . The Hilton Hotel crew is making the rounds of the Flamingo and International Hotels . . . Double Circus performer Vito Venito (an amazing look alike of a young Douglas Fairbanks) performs on the Ed Sullivan TVviewer July 26 . . . Goldie Hawn and Ruth Buzzi were properly impressed with dinner at CP's Ah So Japanese Steak House . . .

Colonel Parker's fine hand is seen in all those green posters and banners stating "Las Vegas is Eddy Arnold Country." He's at the International July 27-August 9. Can he sing! Wow!

After tearing down so many of the sumptuous, lavish 3,000-seater film palaces, today new small ones are springing up. The Brentwood theatres opened as twins with Sid Kurstin and Eugene Rosenthal hosting a champagne cocktail party for the premiere. Theater One has a capacity for 600 and Theater Two for 400. They are small, intimate and beautifully decorated. Bobby Darin, John Hansen and many celebrities enjoyed the opening. Joseph Levine's "The Swimming Pool" was the initial picture shown. And then came Hal Wallis' prize award-winning "Anne of The Thousand Days," which so out-distanced the first picture, that the audience wildly cheered and applauded "Anne."

Elke Sommers' "figger" hasn't been publicized muchly, but now it will be, for she's opening a guys and gals athletic spot on the Strip. Guys? . . . Palm Springs says Frank Sinatra is building a home next door to his for his mom . . . Cosmopolitan's checking swingers, men with physiques for center folds . . . The Bing Crosby's are in town getting set for his Christmas spec on TV . . . which is sure to include "White Christmas," to air December 25th, of course.

Lee Atkinson unveiled Motilal Ghandi, the world renowned astrologer from London and India, who has one of the large astrological practices in the world today. He's here to establish headquarters in movietown. Lee says 22 countries and nations seek his predictions and advice yearly. So what will he tell Israel and the Arabs??? We'll ask.

Inklings to the birth of "new idols" come in fan letters. Are you surprised at this epistle which is only Number 120 this week for Mr. Lupus:

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

Lights of Las Vegas

By PHIL SOLOMON

WAYNE Newton, one of the great talents of this era returns to the Music Hall of the Frontier Hotel on Saturday night with brother Jerry and Tommy Amato in support. This will be a 33 day stand which should make maitre d' Jerry Schuetz very happy.

Much has been written and much has been said about Wayne. He is one of the best loved performers in show business by the young and old showgoers.

The exciting and exhilarating Wayne is a personable 27 year old star. He is a protege of Jack Benny and a real showman beaming with joy everytime getting on stage. Benny is delighted and highly pleased with the youngster and says, "There's still room at the top for young singers like Wayne who gets haircuts regularly."

As a child prodigy with virtuoso ability on the banjo, drums, guitar piano, trumpet and violin, Wayne signed his first professional contract here over 11 years ago.

The youthful singer possesses showmanship in abundance, his song selections are mature, his stage deportment is superb and his delivery is energetic which spells out the one-more-time vocalist.

As a single through the maze of young performers, Wayne has developed swiftly. His recording of "Danke Schoen" was the turning point in his career and then came "Red Roses For A Blue Lady" which really put the frosting on the cake. Another one or two hit records at this point in his career could skyrocket him to one of the all-time greats in the entertainment field.

Many of our star performers can't believe the fact of Wayne being so composed on stage at his age. It sounds reasonable though since he's been singing professionally for more than 11 years.

Brother Jerry plays the guitar in the act. He kids Wayne quite a bit about the high pitched voice and what to do when the voice changes. Jerry doesn't realize when the voice changes he'll be without a job.

Amato, Jerry and Wayne get together vocally for some fine tunes. They are a strong trio, welded by their times together and a musical adhesive that is given few performers.

Wayne Newton's success is assured at Frontier Hotel because the audiences, like audiences the world over, are his kind of people. His effect is overwhelming and total, for after people laugh and cry together, they are friends. You really ought to make a reservation to see him — "One More Time."

RAMBLING AROUND — Word is out in Hollywood that Frank Sinatra is working out a new deal with Caesars Palace where he will work only one week stands, but more often . . . Harold Minsky will definitely move his "Minsky Burlesque '70" show from Aladdin Hotel to another Strip nitery . . . Thelma Houston has signed for a three week engagement at TOMMY VIG'S free public concert is the big plus on this weekend's agenda. It's slated for Caesars Palace in the showroom tomorrow (Sunday, July 26) at 2:30 P.M.

We claim Tommy as our fair-haired man of music. For the seventh straight year, he will be performing his modern music concert, with his 23 piece orchestra. The leader composes most of the material, cleffs it, conducts, and shines on the drum, vibraharp and percussion instruments.

Born in Hungary, the Communists wouldn't let him perform because "Jazz is American." He escaped the country after the revolution of 1956. Vig has won many awards, among which was the 1967 International Jazz Critic's Poll in the "Talent Deserving Of Wider Recognition" . . . "Bandleader Of The Year" for '68 to '69 by Playboy . . . Among the Top Ten Orchestras in the world by International Jazz Critics in 1969. Both Stan Kenton and Leonard Feather call him one of the future leaders in jazz music.

Among those Tommy will feature are the famous trumpet soloist Red Rodney and gypsy jazz violinist Elek Bacsik. Don't miss it! If you aren't already a jazz buff, Tommy will convert you!

Hollywood agent Harold Jovien called to advise that Big Tiny Little will return here for an August 27th opening at the Frontier. He's been a repeat performer at the Stardust, Tropicana and Riviera hotels. This trip, Tiny had to cut the four weeks offered by Frank Sennes, Jr. in half, in order to make his September 14 headline opening at the Bayshore Inn in Vancouver. From there, he moves over to the Winnipeg Inn.

If you like Dixieland, you've got to rock with George Rock at the Castaways Hotel. He and his Band are signed for an indefinite stay. The way George pulls those long dates (always picked-up-options), he'll be making the Kon Tiki Lounge his home! A big draw is Rock's occasional sing-alongs (should be more). It's a real social gathering with the audience calling the requests and George complying. The dusk to dawn bill includes the Maurice Stewart Trio, Peter & Hank and Rusty Isabel on the alternating go-round.

To close — or not to close — the Nero's Nook Lounge is apparently the big question at Caesars Palace. Both sides are being heard from. Latest is the speculation that the lounge will be closed after Frank Sinatra's closing night (Sept. 16) in the big room. Can't see how a Keno Lounge could replace this room! At least you get to see some new faces in here and we need all the break-in showcases the upcoming talents can get. The management should recall the unhappy results when they experimented with a theatre replacement for the lounge — not too long ago.

SCENE Lounging . . . The Thunderbird's "Latin Fire '71" is surprisingly outdrawing a few of its topless competitors . . . The Casbar is supplying a Graffiti Board for afternoon champagne doodling . . . The high-kicking precision routine getting applause for the Skinny Dippers in the "Mame" opener in the Casbar's "Skin" reminds you of the Rockettes . . . Is it true that CP has cut the 9 week scheduled run of "Don't Make Me Laugh" down to 4 weeks . . . Opening August 13 at Harrah's-Tahoe, Ray

MIGHTY MIXTURE

By GARY STEVENS

DATELINE: NEW YORK:

LIZ BIZ: Former actor Robert Montgomery loves the name Elizabeth. His first wife was Elizabeth Allan. Anybody who has ever focused eyes on "Bewitched" knows of daughter, Elizabeth and his present frau is Elizabeth Harkness.

NOTEBOOK NUANCES: Word to describe a well knit adaptation — an "adeptation" . . . Danny Kaye, as much at home with pots, pans and recipes as he is with the projection of fervent comedy, paid a first visit to the great Oriental restaurant, King Dragon. The entertainer, a kitchen buff and a terrific Chinese chef, made a promise to owner Richard Mei, to wit: "Now that I'm in New York to rehearse for Richard Rodgers' new musical, "Two by Two," I'll be in some night to cook dinner for 20. No doubt, the comedian will outdo himself. As an old devotee of this marvelous place, this is to warn Danny Boy he'll have to be at top form to equal or surpass dishes like Mandarin Triple Crown or Hung Shu Sea Bass. In these days of polarization and much bad feeling, Mr. Mei, a philosopher, once or twice or three times removed from Confucius, has this to say: "It is good to love not hate" . . . On August 10th Norma Shearer, the luminous one of early MGM days, has a birthday. This is to let the World Almanac and the N.Y. Times Encyclopedic Almanac fight between themselves. The former says she'll be 66, the latter has her listed as hitting 65 . . . Somehow all of a sudden Bob Hope's jokes about Bing Crosby don't seem funny any more.

MEMO ON A MOVIE: We wish we could tell you that we loved "Tell Me That You Love Me, Junie Moon" but we didn't. Mr. Preminger's flick suffers from Ottomation. He transferred the novel to the screen leaving behind much of the poignancy and substituting sick shtick and sentimentality for sentiment. Too bad. Liza Minnelli, a fine promise of an actress, is allowed to go off in too many directions without direction. It is a tale of three unfortunates who try to make something out of partly broken lives. Film flotsam comes across instead of a good picture. James Coco, in strong support, plays Mario, the owner of a fish store. On Broadway, currently he is "Barney Cashman," proprietor of a fish restaurant. He may not win an Emmy or an Oscar, but darn if he doesn't deserve a guppy.

EAT TREAT BEAT: Joe Kipness is a man of many facets. His endeavors are spread in unrelated areas. First, it was in manufacturing. A segue to show production on Broadway. Then multi operations in the restaurant field. In relation to the latter, Mr. K. is not superstitious or is he! Joey Pier 52 opened on August 13th, 1968. Today, fish minded diners, lobster enthusiasts, shrimp followers, beat a path to the door. To all the spot merely popular would be to exclude references to crowded rooms and lip smacking satisfaction from the lucky table holders. New and worthy addition to the menu is Maryland Crab Meat Chowder. A prize catch on the bill of fare is Poached Red Snapper with Lobster Sauce. The salad served here splashes off some of the tastiest dressing in these environs. Bill Steinberg, he of the legendary dairy eatery for 38 years (now closed) is the tip top manager at night; Joe Pedretti, a prince among headwaiters, is front and FABULOUS . . . Chez Vito, now sixteen years old, is Cupid's abode and who can resist a warm red

THE ALADDIN

736-0111 Maitre d' Gordon Shields
BAGDAD THEATRE—June 19-Aug. 20
 Minsky's All New Burlesque '70 starring Tempest Storm, Irv Benson and Jack Mann; Hank Shank Ork. (Sun. thru Wed.
 -10 P.M. and 12:30 A.M. — Sat. 3rd show 7:30 P.M. — Closed Thursdays), "Our Thing," starring the Dimwits, with Tommy & Jonny; The Loadstone (9 P.M., 11:30 P.M. & 2 A.M. Closed Weds.)
SINBAD LOUNGE
 The Bachelors (10:30 P.M. to 3:30 A.M.)

Perhaps the most famous of all current strippers, Tempest Storm presents a classy exhibit of the fine art of taking it off. Now a brunette, with long cascading tresses (her flaming red locks were a trademark for years) surrounding a very pretty face, the Tempest belies that name with a rather stately turn. Clad at first in layers of mauve filmies, she gradually relieves herself of such extra weight, then goes into a lighted dressing room for further reduction of coverage. The final revelation is unimpeded view of her vaunted size 44s, which, after all, is what the Storm has been about all these years . . . For the good old burlesque corn on the cob, the "Court-

SKY ROOM
 Murray Arnold (9 P.M. to 4 A.M.)

"Pzazz '70!" is a glittering jazzy knockout of a show bound to be on every "must see" list . . . Swinging — and it swings aplenty! — productionwise from Las Vegas and San Francisco, to Memphis, St. Louis, a heavenly Hollywood, and to New York, it reserves its most intoxicating, satirical "howdy" for prohibition daze Chicago, a hilarious potpourri of streetwalkers, a speakeasy "floor show," a mobster rub-out, and a realistic fire. "Pzazz '70 . . ." is 70

The new Casino de Paris is advertised "for the Savage '70's," and if that's the case we are obviously embarked on a ring-a-ding-ding decade!
 . . . The for-adults-only "spectacular," and that's le mot juste for this eyepopper, will appeal not only to the broadminded but to everyone who digs superb entertainment . . . Fred- eric Apar, who conceived, produced, and directed "Casino" on a grand scale, has gone first cabin all the way — from John Leccia's tuneful music and Jose Luis Vinas' rich, inventive costumes, to special effects and talent
 . . . The Clownerama opener, with clowns cleverly displaying the show's credits, is alone enough to give The Dunes another hit, yet it segues into a psychedelic, mod dancing finish so colorful the audience yips with excitement . . . Other lavish numbers featuring most of the cast of 100 are a wild Chicago sizzler complete with a dozen undraped femmes in bathtubs and a hair-pulling between topped

MARDI GRAS—June 30-July 26
 The Partners; Harry Wham; Johnny Paul (8:30 P.M. to 4:30 A.M.)

The Partners are a triumvirate of kinetic performers who wrap up the whole ball of wax into a fast-paced show. Leader man is Joe Kirchen. He solos with his fine baritone and sets the harmonic pace for Joe Marino and Jimmy Smiraglia. It's easy to acknowledge that Jimmy has a solid musical background. The accordionist is profoundly involved with the harmony and also does the arranging for the group. Joe Marino supplies the com-

 Rita Tanner Trio; Phyllis & Bobby Sherwood (6:30 P.M. to 4:30 A.M.)

Well beyond the halfway point since bowing in last Christmas, Barry Ashton's 1970 Burlesque Baby is still sounding forth lustily, sexily and looking real good. The Ashton Girls, who proudly hail their well-endowed torsos (and why not?), are especially within the looking real good category and have the other elements in their appearances as well. The tried and true burley bits and blackouts are handled with generally howling results by little Tommy Moe Raft, one

STARDUST LOUNGE
 Kim Sisters; Kimberlys; Sunny Girls of Sweden (8 P.M. to 4 A.M.)

It was 1958 when the Lido spectacles began, with Donn Arden the director-choreographer, working his magic with people to bring forth what has become the epitome of the French-American successes here in Las Vegas. This edition, "Pourquoi Pas?" is so affluent and lavish. The million dollar-plus expended is obvious, as the richly caparisoned femmes flout beautiful bodies in their parades around, among, over and under the stunning settings . . . There is the opulence of the opening done with

PIANO BAR
 Gina Vaughn; Connie Kay (6 P.M. to Midnite)

This Latin confection comes back to the 'Bird after having made a flashy exhibit some months ago for a short term engagement. Now, the "Latin Fire '71" of producers Manolo Torrente and Freddy Manjon is more torrid than before. The topless showgirls add zest to the visual portion and the dancers are featured throughout several production numbers that build from an opening electrical display to an orgiastic Cubano rite at closing curtain . . . Both Torrente and Manjon appear in the revue, Torrente with some intense Spanish-English vocals

It's a temptation to name all his numbers because they're dandies, but certainly "Bridge Over Troubled Waters," "Sitting On The Dock of The Bay," "Honey Come Back," and "Everything A Man Could Ever Need," from his new stellar film "Norwood," are big winners, most with excellent choral backing by his Goodtime Hour Singers . . . An intimate instrumental interlude with the musicians from his TV show, Billy Graham on bass guitar, Bob Felts on drums, the star's accompanist & conductor Dennis McCarthy on piano, and brilliant young featured banjoist Larry McNeely, is a special treat. The remainder of the Campbell outing couldn't be more pleasing to his fans as he delights with the likes of "Mac Arthur Park" and "Try A Little Kindness," plus singing such of his heap of hits as "Wichita Lineman," "Galveston," and "By The Time I Get To Phoenix," with "Oh Happy Day!" for a happy closer—prior to which Glen's galloping guitar gets a wow workout in his "Classical Gas" solo . . . To borrow a word from that title, Glen is a gas! . . . So is John Byner, a really different comedian, and vive le difference! His material is hilariously off beat, and the clever impressions he weaves into it range from the entire "Ozzie & Harriet" TV show, Tonto, and Dean Martin, to convulsing surgical carbons of famed singers. More Byner, please! . . . The magnificent Joe Guercio Orchestra rings up the curtain royally with "A Portrait Of Glen Campbell In Sound" by Guercio & Bill Reddie. (Mary Rettig) etc.) and some of his choice of material. The big amped beat is very prevalent throughout the set, but there are quieter moments remindful of the former Jones boy who palmed everyone with his extra fine-textured ballading. Up in front of the brass, reed and strings of the admirable Antonio Morelli men and women are the solidly entrenched rhythm-makers for Jones led by pianist-arranger Joe Kloess; drummer Chuck Hughes; Chino Valdez, congas; Hal Robinson, Fender bass and Bob Thomas, guitar . . . Miss Worley has a conglomeration of ideas within her act, but it is when she's belting out a song with slices of comedy that she's her best. The involved setup with rear projection stills showing her way with men and early start in show business, the kidding with her costumed musical director, Armin Hoffman, is only titter material. Her straight singing of "Someone to Watch Over Me," and the quality of delivery in the grand opera ribbing at the close, reveals gold beneath some of the glossy plastic outer finish that she embellishes with hoots, howls, funny noises and gestures. So. sing, clown, sing! (Bill Willard) edy relief pattern, joined by his cohorts. He is an acro comic with emphasis on the athletics. Kirchen runs the gamut from Jolson miming to a "Mac The Knife" contemporary. The Partners are partners in fun! . . . Harry Wham keeps the appreciation at top level. It's sheer pleasure to see the happy faces throughout the bill. Harry addresses the keys, adds his voice to the artfully selected tunes, and it's a nightclub Disneyland where the accent is on humor . . . Host Johnny Paul has packaged this every night, every second, happytime program. When the spotlight is at temporary rest, Johnny moves among the audience, dispersing his up-close magistics for the more fortunate table buffs.

of the old timers in the game. For example, his semi-pantomime schtick in "Movie Theatre," the nebbish little man in "Getting Arrested," plus the quickies during the next to closing catchall scene are some of the best of the craft . . . Herbie Barris, another longtimer in the biz, puts his rubbery puss into gyrations and reveals his way with the lines, retorts and actions in "Getting Arrested" and "Doctor's Office" . . . Charles Vespia is a little guy who can do all the funny stuff, from his candy butcher pre-curtain rounds, to breaking up partner David Walker (act is called The Vespias), swishing in "Movie Theatre," and plenty of other risible inserts along the way . . . Walker is the handsome straight, six foot three, who belts out production rounds as well as shooting lines here and there for the comics . . . Angelique, a tall blonde peeler, has extra dimensions where it counts. Her divestiture down to zero has the guys gasping, but her warbling in a couple of numbers doesn't equal the grade with the body displays . . . Contrast in style and technique in this art form is brunette Astradella, whose figure is outa sight, if not outa space. Very sexy, this femme, with her symbolic plastic appendages becoming as fascinating to watch as a nest of cobras . . . Adagio team Manfred & Marino have excellent bodies, revealed in a very open way during a well-received exhibit in the "Tropical Village" number . . . The Lloyd Lambert costumes on the romping Ashton nudes are cunningly designed to show the anatomy . . . Tommy Hodges is responsible for the solid charts, performed with brio by the Paul Lowden Sextet. (Bill Willard) mirrors to establish the theme, "Pourquoi Pas?" the "Symphony of the Sea," the Louvre scene with theft of the Mona Lisa as helicopters fight the brigands from overhead, the "Rhapsodie Espagnole" fiesta with The Red Bordello orgy becoming a flaming inferno, and the brilliant conclusion, "London is London," featuring the scintillating Fountain of Light, the entire finale designed by Michael Knight . . . Interslicing all of this magiloquence are many highly entertaining acts . . . Rudy Cardenas, one of the most fleet and agile of jugglers . . . Heather Belbin, champion figure skater proving why she's a champ . . . The Volantes, doing impossible, breathtaking tricks on unicycles . . . Siegfried & Roy, magico to confound everyone, such as the trunk switching (shades of Houdini!) and a tiger replacing Roy and a cheetah popping out instead of Siegfried . . . The Dancing Devils are a dashing group of Argentine Gauchos from the Pampas, who perform exciting ethnic dances with skilfully controlled boleadoras . . . and the famous pick-pocket Dominique, who brings up several men from the audience to the stage for still more thievery . . . Spotlighted for outstanding dances and/or singing among the production rounds are Jillian & Ron, with some fine adagio expositions, Marya Linero, Jennifer Pierson, Nicky Gorska, Tom Allison, Charles Gray, Dick Moll, Johnny Ritsko, Dan Parker and Gig Gallion . . . Madame Bluebell has achieved another success d'estime with the splendid choreos of her Bluebell Girls . . . A tip of the topper to the agility of the Arden Boy Dancers, and salutes to the 14 gorgeous torsos of Les Belles du Lido (nice faces, too!) . . . Frank Sennes is the producer, Pierre Louis-Guerin and Rene Fraday, the French Lido producers, Harvey Warren, scenic designer, costumes by Folco, original music and lyrics by Jim Harbert and J. P. Landreau and orchestrations by Harbert, Bill Stafford and Ivan Lane for the Eddie O'Neil Orchestra.

and Manjon with some fleet dancing, plus production warbling. Manjon has an adagio whirl with Clarita Diaz and a sizzling bullwhip flagellation dance in the closing voodoo dazzler, both revealing his smooth technique. His choreography for all the dance numbers ranges from pedestrian to outstanding . . . July del Rio startles with her topless torching, moving sinuously as she chants her Latin wares in husky tones. She also heightens interest in some production ambles, nearly nude and having a walk that causes male pulses to race . . . Special guest stars Margie Ravel & Hector de San Juan are devastating in their incredibly rapid footwork, de San Juan in particular. Miss Ravel is a brunette doll, moving sexily through the perpetual motion routines as both change costumes in cleverly devised on and off dances, always leaving one of the pair onstage to keep the fire lit . . . Very spectral are the settings of Maria Casanova, with high chroma palette and opting for electrical effects throughout . . . Jimmy Wallace leads the supercharged septet, with added percussion effects by Walfredo.

place! This kaleidoscopic dazzler is chiefly populated by richly costumed men and women in the splendidly choreographed scenes by Tony Charmoli, seven in all. When the Tibor Rudas Dancers finish their incredibly fleet Can Can, there is only one equal to that display, more Rudas Dancers in the "Marriage au Tyrol" . . . Mitzi McCall and Charlie Brill are devastating as they verbally wrestle with some highly entertaining bickering that hits the audience on home ground . . . Balancing feats of The Martys are electrifying, interspersed with funny biz . . . Gus Augspurg indisputably has one of the most engaging acts of its kind, introducing his Girl Friends, a Rhesus monkey and Gibbon baboon, who absolutely convulse everyone with their people-shines . . . The humorous Spanish trio of Pompoff Thedy Family has some ridiculous musical and sight gags in an action potpourri filled with laughs from start to finish . . . The juggling of Valente Valente is fascinating on two counts — the boy and girl both engage in nifty tricks, particularly with pingpong balls . . . Vassili Sulich is one of the better solo dancers around today and his adagio with Pat LaForge, both nearly nude, in "Feast of the Spider" confirms it . . . Moving out from the Tropicana Dancers, the Tropicana Boys and Les Mannequins are four enchanting Loreleis, Felicia Atkins, Joyce Grayson, Monica Lind and the beautiful voice of Bonnie Averia . . . The Randy Van Horne Singers add special effects to the music with their harmonies . . . Special credits are deserved by Gyarmathy for scenery and costumes; production coordination by Paul Szigety and Larry Grayson; original music by Henri Betti of Paris with lyrics by Johnny Bradford; musical arrangements by Jerry Fielding . . . Si Zentner decisively guides the intricate music cues from the pit.

with that plate of divinity fudge, Mr. Peter Lupus . . . He is 6 feet four inches tall. Let us not deny one delicious inch.

He is also so staggeringly beautiful as to defy description and you are one lucky chick to have a sandwich, or any other thing, with him. Any time he needs a floor mat, he can skin us and fringe us around the edges. We'd love it.

How about printing more and more about him?? Why not put him on the cover? You'll light up the magazine stands.

And That's Hollywood!

A rich man looked suspiciously at the youth asking permission to marry his daughter.

"I wonder if you'd be so anxious to marry her if I didn't have a penny," he asked.

"Oh," vowed the young man, "I'd love her twice as much."

"Get out of here," yelled the father, "we've got enough idiots in this family already."

Frushay is getting maximum airplay on his Paramount disc "Santa Ana Winds" . . . The marvelous (BUT humble) Nelson Sardelli, long-term Flamingo contractee, is at San Juan's Caribe Hilton, then he heads for the Aruba Sheraton . . . Glen Covington doesn't play the 88's at CP's Cleopatra's Barge unless someone stops the boat from rocking during his spot-lighter . . . Billy Joe Royal heads for Ellay next week to get ready for his August 17th bow at the Greek Theatre, with buddies Joe South and Tommy Roe . . . Little Anthony & The Imperials are watching their latest waxing "World Of Darkness" gain steam in the East.

You gotta stop by and catch Phyllis and Bobby Sherwood at the Slipper's Red Garter Lounge. There's a whole lotta show here. This outfit has worked longer and more consistently on the local scene than any other. Their pianist Joe Darro is "the finest jazz singer" he ever heard, sez Mel Torme.

A big wish of much happiness to Kiki Paige — as if she needs it . . . the wish that is. She's just glowing since her recent marriage to (California) investigator Bill Howard. Although we're all happy for our gal Kiki, we hate to see her leave town — but she promises frequent visits.

Will be looking at you over KHBV-TV 5 — until next week.

decor, a "Carnation Table" to encourage amourour thoughts, hand holding and the etc., etc.! Food is of high caliber as per Baked Clams, Frogs Legs Provencale and Boneless Spring Chicken Parmigiana. It is an intimacy for Don Juanish pursuits, wine and music appreciation.

EAT TREAT BEAT: Le Chanteclair has been a dedicated haunt for over 17 years. The patronage has been divided between diners who appreciate prime French table fare and a select set of auto racing buffs. Often a track fan turns out to be an epicure. Then, in an atmosphere around the long, comfortable bar of posters inviting one and all to the Falstaff 400 and the Indy 500, the scene is set to eye pictures of the greats of auto racing, peruse bulletins of activities of the checkered flag coterie and ogle miniature car models encased as a treasure. All of this foreground is due to frere Rene's background as a race driver in Europe in the 30's. The picturesque dining room lures the discerning, no doubt. For visitors, it is a prodigious happening to become indoctrinated in the premium world of Gallic food. For an opening course, order Le Feuillate Au Roquefort (Puff Paste filled with Roquefort Cheese). It is an overture-delicacy. Two choice entrees are Le Poussin Roti (Roast Squab Chicken) and Le Boeuf Saute Bourguignon (Old fashioned Beef Stew in a Red Wine Sauce) . . . In the short period since December of last year Joan Marsh, she of the good looks and good cheer, has demonstrated that she possesses an additional plus — she knows how to run a restaurant. Joan Marsh's Pipeline in the very hub of the theatrical milieu, gets some cocktail play when it opens at 4 P.M. and goes along swingingly until 1 A.M. with heavy accent on dinner. Primarily, this is a well appointed Steak House with Prime Roast Ribs of Beef vying for top honors. There are many who detour from the expected and are laudatory about Broiled Red Snapper, Shrimp Scampi a la Pipeline (it's the sauce that makes it) and Boiled Beef.
