A showgirl in the Thunderbird's "Latin Fire '71," she was Mexico City's leading fashion and photographer's model for the two years before she joined the show. Birthday- Anniversary CORNER

FABULOUS sends warm, though belated greetings to one of the truly beautiful people of the world, Kay Fish (of Joseph Magnin's) for her August 1st birthday ... Belated greetings also to Tom Albanese II, who reached his 16th maturity on the 4th ... The August 8th current birthdayers include Sheila Foster (widow of Preston Foster), actress Maria Korda (currently in New York) and Frankie Ross' image and name-bearer, who enters his teens this year ... Theresa and Thomas Albanese mark their 17th Anniversary on the 8th. (She is a booth slot cashier at the D.I. and he invents revolutionary plumbing products.) ... The Milton Ironsons carry on the delightful old-fashioned belief that marriage is forever with their 44th Wedding Anniversary on the 8th. (He is Purchasing Agent for the Southern Memorial Hospital.) ... If the FABULOUS memory is accurate, the Allard Roens and Bernie Rothkopfs enjoyed a double wedding ceremony when the grooms took their brides in 1951 on the 8th ... The stunning Barbara and super-talented Jimmie Haskell (composer/arranger) celebrate their 11th honeymoon on the 9th ... August 10th annuals are recorded for the perennially exuberant Rocky Cole (conductor for Patti Page), singer Eddie Fisher, Maxine Lewis (first P.R. gal who served on our FLV Strip), and Eugene Murphy (the Dean of Publicists) ... A man of tremendous business acumen, International Hotel Prexy Alex Shoofey shares his August 11th birthday with pixie-ish Percy Villa ... Happy Third Anniversary on the 11th for Eric Ironson, grandson of Milton Ironson, ... Incredible as it seems, Danny Thomas registers his 30th year in show biz on the 12th ... August 12th birthday cards to Joan Bommarito, Bess Rosenberg (that remarkable food magician), Tony Martin, Jr. and the baker of pastry wonders Kitty White ... The Earl Wilson, Jr.'s have a 2nd Honeymoon slated for the 12th ... Dennis Stephenson cuts his cake on the 13th as does Regina Riley of the Sahara publicity office ... Dunes' exec Bob Rice has plans for his wife Betty's happy day, as does jeweler John Fish for his wife Elaine on the 14th ... Jane Fonda & Roger Vadim cap the week's recipients with their Anniversary on the 15th.

CRISWELL PREDICTS

An Accurate Glimpse of the Future

I PREDICT that over 5,000 famous graduates of very famous colleges and universities will ask that their names be removed from the Alumni lists merely in protest of the unspeakable conditions on campus with riots, looting and burnings! These men and women will cancel all gifts and bequests to these schools in the name of decency and honor! . . . I predict that seven more cities will declare a curfew to save themselves from rioting, burning and looting within the next sixty days! . . . I predict that the stock market will boom in September and be on its way to the magical Dow Jones One Thousand! . . . I predict that the new Nixon Free Medical Plan will please one and all, with the Doctors bypassed and all prescriptions free! . . . I predict that "dog tags" will be introduced in England and Canada for identification purposes to quell the rising tide of crime! This metal disc will be worn around your neck at all times, government issued! . . . Many readers are shocked at some of my predictions but I call the future as I see it, impersonally! . . . I predict that the precious promises of the Bible will be wiped out in a new Mod Translation, printed behind the Iron Curtain and distributed free by Leftish Groups in America! . . . I predict that the Art and Jack Linkletter TV program will win the Good Citizenship Award for 1970! . . . I regret to predict that a famous American Diplomat will never enter the world of reality again from a private mental hospital in Connecticut!

ACTIVE SEX AFTER 60!

I predict that you will be able to enjoy active sex after 60, when you follow the latest book "Active Sex After 60" by Herman H. Rubin, MD and Benjamin W. Newman! Virility can be prolonged in both men and women by diet, deportment and an open mind! There is no reason a man or woman after 60 cannot marry again and maintain perfect harmony of sex life! You over 60, can change your life from dismal to delightful!

WITHIN THREE YEARS!

I predict that within three years, a college or university degree will be of no value whatsoever! In June of 1970, over 100,000 degrees were awarded to students who did not even pass the entrance examinations, refused to take the finals and were "forgiven" by the Educational Board for their acts of rioting, looting, burning and even cause of murder! I predict that diplomas will become so "bogus" that they will be discounted when employment is offered! I predict that the American Educational System, the greatest in the world will totter and fall like the fabled Tower of Babel!

HATEFUL, SPITEFUL ERA

I predict that a hateful, spiteful era in politics will soon be upon us! The gutters will be dragged to display all the smut, the scandal and the evil of any candidate who seeks to exercise his Democratic rights to run for office! Even tho the candidate's record will be as spotless as a Monday morning wash on America's clothesline, it will be dirtied, defiled and desecrated as Old Glory has been in the past year!

THE BITTER TRUTH

I predict that the bitter truth of behind-the-scenes activity of the British Diplomats will be laid bare for all to see by October 1st. The present Conservative Government will do all in its power to right the wrongs of the past three years! Some of these incidents border on treason!

George Putnam TV Newscasts "There is so much gossip I hardly know where to begin." I predict that Gower Gulch (Sunset and Gower in Hollywood) where western films were made for years, will be a huge shopping center and tourist pavilion . . . that studio guards are on duty while a TV series is in production, as a very bloody war is in progress between the actors, the writers and the production crew . . . that "Lulu Belle" the David Belasco shocker with Lenore Ulrich of the 1930's will become a top musical . . . that five very famous Hollywood names were arrested in a recent Rock Festival on a narcotics charge plus perversion and public display . . . that John Wayne will be asked to run for a Federal political office this Fall . . . that Marlo Thomas will have a new TV image this Fall . . . that the Writer's strike in Hollywood looms more important than first thought . . . that the hush-hush suicide of a star will be announced when they locate her Mother now in Europe . . . and that a face list transformed one of our male stars into a hideous, grinning monster, and he will sue and collect a million dollars from one of our most famous hospitals!

ROULETTE OF LOVE

I predict that one of the most famous cafes in London will institute a special night using the roulette wheel to pair you off! The numbers are sealed in a plain envelope, which you choose, and then the wheel is spun, awarding you a human prize! Post Office or Spin the Bottle is mere child's play!

WHEN DOGS ARE KINGS

I predict that September 12th of this year, Dogs will be Kings! On that date, the annual Hollywood Dog Parade will outdraw the Santa Claus Parade! 10,000 dogs with their owners will proudly parade Hollywood Boulevard? Why not bring your dog to say hello to our dogs on that date? Francis X. Lohmann again heads the committee composed of the famous dog lovers of all Southern California! See your favorite star and his dog then!

STARTLING . . . yet perhaps elementary . . . is the inside rumor that LLOYD BELL has already served notice and will officially resign from Sheriff Ralph Lamb's staff on September 1st . . . Next move — into the Hughes-Nevada Operations office, where brother (barrister) Tom Bell has his desk?

Don't drink the water . . . is the caution issued by our personal physician fifteen years ago. We were warned that our city lies within a hundred mile radius of the worst kidney infections in the country. Prognosis: buy bottled drinking water and use the tap for other needs.

A local business woman with children in a parochial school consulted a school authority to make arrangements for her progeny to attend public school on a part time basis. She wanted to provide them extra credits and an extended learning period following the early dismissal time of their school. She received a flat denial, with the explanation our Attorney General had ruled that such a grant would be defined as "public funds supporting a Parochial School." Seems more inequitable that the mother's paid tuition fees in the parochial school permits subsidization of her children's attendance there . . . but her payment of taxes (in support of public schools) prohibits her children from extra curricular activity in the public schools, based of the parochial school alliance. Does it therefore follow that parochial school supporters should refrain from paying taxes for public schools?

A hotel spokesman advised this writer that the hotels are willing to make price cutback concessions and pointed an accusing finger at the adamant stand of the airlines, whose flight prices soar ever upward. Remember when a round-trip ducat to Ellay was $26.00?

Another interesting rumor has the Hilton chieftains planning to divide the huge International showroom into two rooms, eventuating in a much smaller showcase for entertainers . . . It's also alleged that the Hilton heads do not pursue a policy of paying FABULOUS prices for superstars.

There's a lot more to this success game than talent alone. Phil Ford and Mimi Hines are one of the very limited count of husband/wife teams who have made it . . . and are staying there. In addition to the freshness in their every performance, there's a lotta love in their hearts. Nothing can top the most honest emotion . . . The beautiful Mimi's secret of indefatigability lies in the daily vitamin shots she schedules, combined with ten hours of sleep nightly . . . Currently co-starring with Myron Cohen at the Flamingo, Ford & Hines are playing to turnaway crowds every show.

Attention BILL MILLER . . . With the closing of CP's Nero's Nook a near fact, we advise your immediate signing of Steve De Pass for your Flamingo stable. He was such an instant hit in his Palace debut, Dave Victorson picked up all of his options immediately. Steve is putting on a two hour, one-man concert at New York's Town Hall on November 6. He is also dotted to play a two-weeker at King's Castle, November 25. De Pass is one of the most FABULOUS performers this column has ever reviewed.

The flick "Rocco & Raymond" is being screened by Paramount, 20th Century Fox, National General, et al, for release. The role comedian Lou Alexander portrays, a fast talking D. A., is so impressive, a tube pilot is being built around it.

With a December Aladdin closing definite, Harold Minsky is giving advance thought to another showcase. The two hotels at the head of Minsky's preferences are the Landmark and Thunderbird Hotels. Speculators believe the Landmark would like to sign Minsky to a long-term, to eliminate their booking headaches. The hotel doesn't have a solid projection of contracted talents.

As we went to press, the most likely candidate for Fay McKay's topline in the Landmark's "Tower Sweets" was Alliene Flanery (of the Mickie Finn Show). Fay leaves the cast on August 8th and will be on tour with Liberace until November. Despite a painful ankle (from tripping over an onstage wire), Fay has never missed a performance. She flew to the coast last Monday to pre-tape a segment of the Real Tom Kennedy Show. . . .

Vassili Sulich is back in the Trop's "Folies Bergere," following his exciting European vacation. He bears many wondrous tales, especially of his many trips to the "Flea Market" in Paris. This past weekend, he entertained William Como, Editor of "Dance" and "After Dark" magazines. Now, the "Body Beautiful" is on a full schedule, preparing his next one-man art show at the Tropicana in the Fall.

ELVIS PRESLEY, Jerry Lewis, George Hamilton, Governor Ronald Reagan and King Saud of Saudia Arabia, whose framed pictures on the piano in my living room cause great interest to visitors, since they were respectively and graciously presented to me personally signed — now move over for a new one: a beautiful color portrait personally autographed from President and Mrs. Richard Nixon. All of which is very nice, and I feel honored with the Nixons, who are doing everything possible for our country with what was handed to them from three preceding, successive administrations.

I have never asked for autographs nor collected them. And almost every celebrity who comes to my home, which is often, either for interviews, since my office is my library, or socially, looks at this wonderful array of friends on the piano and say, "Oh, I must send you mine." Well, the library is overflowing already, but the piano ones are very special.

Tiny Tim open-nighted Doug Weston's Troubadour (Doug's San Francisco Troubadour opens this week with Kris Kristofferson, who's really one of the new greats in country music.) Tiny is a great showman and works hard which Gilbert Roland, sitting next to me, also opined. In fact, Tiny is so wound up he doesn't stop for breath for forty-five minutes. Miss Vicki, dainty, pretty and very shy, just murmured, when I asked is she were stork-expecting again, but Tiny had a good word for it. Showing he's really a fan, he said, after Gilbert Roland had congratulated his performance, "just imagine, Gilbert Roland coming to see me — Gilbert Roland!!!"

Same night Walt Emesen returning the "Larry Finley days of radio" to the Sunset Strip in the person of Jimmy Hawthorne, opened the latter's radio show for the wee hours in this popular restaurant. Walt couldn't show, for plus his new chain of hot dog stands, his gown shop in the Valley, he went to the hospital instead with a heart attack. But Buddy Ebsen and Peter Lupus, both with six a.m. TV calls, for their series, came in at midnight. Which makes them unusual people, but as Buddy said, "Walt is unusual people, so you go out of your way, too, for him." It's nice to see that genuine, nice, honest, good people do win over the bad guys now, don't they?

Kathy Potter, very pretty, was loyal on the spot; so were Ken Delo of the Lawrence Welk Show, Jim Hawthorne, who's been in Hawaii these past five years, and Bill Harper, the fab chef at "Steak and Stein," served his famed homemade bread, cakes and strawberry shortcake aflame. Don Haley producing the show, observed that Don Ameche, a regular at the boite, looks so great, and keeps in excellent physical trim.

Speaking of ornate elegance and a fascinating turn of the century evening, try to beg, borrow or steal a guest card to Milt Larsen's famous House of Magic high in the Hollywood Hills. If you know regular members like Cary Grant or Rock Hudson or . . . you're in. My New York visitor said the food was better than the exclusive Hillcrest Country Club, and half the price. He remarked the prime rib was prime and the sturgeon and salmon on the lavish buffet table a nightly feature here, was fresh, not frozen. Klaus, the maitre d', told us that Mr. Larsen had sent the chef to Paris to a special cooking school. And nobody had ever better try to get him away. The magic tricks performed all evening, and with the ghost of Irma, who plays any number you re-

Some lady readers of this column have been kind enough to call from time to time, asking the beauty and glowing vitality secrets of the stars, which we sprinkle here on occasion, if we find them out. Seems last year we had a mention on the famed Neihans Cellular Therapy, which was repeated in Vogue or Harper's, that it could be obtained here without going to Switzerland. To the several recently who long-distanced, saying they have read the current best-selling book, "The Youth Doctor," asking for the nearest reputable place from Las Vegas, where the film great go to get cellular therapy, it is not in the U.S.A. But it is Instituto de Terapia Celular (Institute of Cellular Therapy), La Mesa, Tijuana, Baja, California, Mexico. (Ask your telephone operator.) That's where the Neihans method is given authentically.

Barbara Stanwyck, the queen of television, who ever since "Big Valley," still tops all magazine popularity polls, stars in "Ammie Come Home," a movie of the week produced by Aaron Spelling. This is Stany's first TV appearance since her series, which is still in worldwide syndication. For ever, perhaps.

Dinah Shore returns to NBC-TV as hostess of a half-hour series, "Dinah's Place." One of the features will be some overweight Hollywood celebs as well as non-celebs who will be treated by a famed doctor for reducing; the results to be shown weekly on Dinah's show. It's going to be like that. Formats are returning away from the news media, for refreshing switchback to old policies that were popular years back.

The Everly Brothers on the Johnny Cash Show tell me that they began singing and twanging their "geetars" with their Mom and Dad. They were inspired to turn pro by the old Roy Rogers movies. The genuine country western folk is really the trend, isn't it. Lynn Kellogg, with the long blonde-ironed hair, here from two weeks at the Copa in New York, and ELVIS Presley, one of the top five best drawing entertainers presented here, returns for a four week engagement on Monday night Aug. 10 with comedian Sammy Shore in support at International Hotel.

This is swivelhips' third stand in the past year. He has played to SRO crowds nightly. Only one other performer can match Presley for honors and that happens to be Frank Sinatra. Maitre d' Emilio Muscelli reports a heavy advance registration list for the entire stand.

If this resort truly offers the best test of an entertainers appeal, the International Hotel provides the biggest challenge of all due to the 2,000 seat capacity and only a performer with a large degree of universal drawing power can hope to fill it.

Presley has many special abilities that attract a large and broadly based audience. He is handsome and a magnetic entertainer who wins an audience with charm. This kid can really sing up a storm. Many of the top vocalists in show business rate Elvis as a singer's singer.

There is something quite satisfying about watching a professional at work. Presley is as cool and thorough a pro as you will ever see on a stage. He has been a movie actor and television star since his late teens and the man responsible for the huge success happens to be Col. Tom Parker.

Parker took an unknown, untested singer with a guitar and many gyrations to stardom in a short period of time. Presley is still very much in demand and his asking price for a movie is $1 million.

The internationally known singer loves to perform before a live audience and revels in his ability to manipulate an audience. He projects personality and confidence the moment he enters onstage.

The phenomenal singing career has earned Presley nearly 50 gold records, unprecedented in the record industry. Breaking all sales records with platters such as "Blue Suede Shoes," "Love Me Tender," "All Shook Up," "Hound Dog" and "Don't Be Cruel," the last two going over the six million mark, Elvis can take his pick of tunes to record.

Thirteen years ago, the young singing star made his debut in the Entertainment Capital of the world at the Last Frontier Hotel as a nobody and now he is the talk of the town. Since then, Presley did everything asked of him and it paid large dividends. Today, it is reported that Elvis is receiving in excess of $100,000 a week for two shows nightly.

RAMBLING AROUND — After opening night, Riviera owner Harvey Silbert tore up Liza Minnelli's contract to bits and signed her to a new pact through 1972 . . . Norman Kaye, ex-Mary Kaye Trio member, named local rep for Kimo McVay . . . Mickey Callan is working overtime preparing his new nitery act for a major Strip hotel . . . Ann-Margret is slated to tape her third TV spec after the

Mailed anywhere in the United States

I managed to steal into Los Angeles last week and left the lounge stars to you.

I splurged and stayed at the Century Plaza Hotel, billed as "The World's Plushest Hotel." Well, of course, it is plush and every room has color TV and private balcony. Something was missing and it wasn't until I returned here that I figured out what it was. The friendship you feel here in our hotels leaves a little to be desired in L.A. Don't get me wrong. They are not rude but I can count on two fingers how many people smiled when they served you. Another thing that would spur the economy is to abolish the 2:00 A.M. bar deadline and add a third show to the lounges. As this magazine covers the L.A. area maybe someone will see this and try to get the law changed.

Now, as to our own lounge scene, let's briefly run down some of the acts . . . like the Brothers Castro at Caesars Palace Nero's Nook. This Mexico-based group is too much. They are hip, "Now" and witty.

If Dixieland music is your bag, you'll hear the best at the Castaways with George Rock and his Band.

At the Lady Luck lounge in the Desert Inn, the grand lady herself continues to knock me out. I refer to the lady with the sweater and the bent cymbal, Roberta Sherwood who, along with the Mills Brothers, owns the song, "Lazy River."

Across the street in the Frontier's Circle "F" Theatre, my favorite young group is back. Beverlee, Sidro and the Sneakers.

Was out of town when Ike and Tina Turner opened at the International Hotel's Casino Theatre but from all reports this is where "soul" is at. Tina is still the sexiest soul singer working today. Redd Foxx!!!! He is on the same bill.

In the Stardust lounge the exciting and multi-talented Kim Sisters, who have the energy of an H-Bomb and explode for three shows every evening.

SCENE Lounging . . . The Kim Sisters will see their Brothers Kim when the boys return to the Flamingo lounge on the 13th for a four-weeker . . . All the Kims appeared in a family concert in Hawaii a few months ago . . . The zany Jets zoom in for their first landing in the Sahara Casbar and you can expect Arnold, Cola & Geno to take over, especially with the addition of their own trio . . . Too much! An "Our Thing" fan blames the Aladdin revue for our recent showers, insisting that the Newdees' cute Indian terp is a rain dance . . . Then there's ventriloquist Russ Lewis and his great "Supercallifragillistic" bit with puppet Brooklyn Boy in the Casbar, who knows a little girl fascinated by her bearded ancestors in the family photo album — "until she saw it, she thought only hippies and teeners wore beards" . . . There's a lot of talk about his local International fans making the trek to Tahoe to catch Ray Frushay's Harrah's opening on the 13th . . . The Treniers open at the Sahara-Tahoe on the 13, the nite after their Flamingo closing and return here November 5.

Just turn the pages of this issue to find out who is where. We don't have any bad acts in this town. If some act doesn't appeal to you, it will to the next fellow. Like we've advertised over the past years, an attraction for everyone. With that happy note, I'll say 'bye and hope to see you every day on KHBV-TV Channel 5.

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

MIGHTY MIXTURE

By GARY STEVENS

DATELINE: NEW YORK

MAN WITH A MEMO PAD: Corbett Monica begins to look more and more like Danny Thomas' son. . . . Helen O'Connell, who never ages, only mellows, was in her right element being charming and nostalgic 65 stories up there in the Rainbow Grill. "Miss Dimples," a top flight chirper rated the proximity of the near celestial heights. . . . Question: How many sanitation men, who clean the New York streets, own dogs????? You can say this for Veep Agnew — he's no Alexander Throttlebottom. . . . Line out of the movie "Charade," circa 1963 — "Tomorrow you may wake up dead." A rare feat, indeed. . . . On the Pepsi Cola TV commercial Johnny Cash sings flat at least twice. . . . Comment picked up on campus: "Sex is the only subject I can be furthest back and in the shortest time make the most improvement." . . . If Cary Grant completely lost his English accent, slightly Cockney, he'd sound a little like Chet Huntley. . . . Sergio Franchi kids himself that somebody upped and addressed him as "Sergio Franchise." A Greek man once called the city on the bay—"Sam Framciscus," so there. . . . Carol Burnett would be wise some night to have Eve Arden on the show singing a few songs. Forgotten is the fact that Eve in tandem with Bob Hope introduced "I Can't Get Started With You" in a "Ziegfeld Follies" of the 30's. . . . A lady wrote this desk and asked if we could tell her the first name of the late English actor, C. Aubrey Smith. After some research, we have the answer — Charles. . . . At the Downbeat, today's ultimate among trombonists, Urbie Green was thrilling on "Green Bee," a takeoff of "The Flight Of The Bumblebee." His group rocked with "I'm Comin' Home Again." And his new wife, Kathy Preston, was impressive with "I Get The Blues When It Rains." Other half of the bill, Marian McPartland, she of the deft jazz piano fingers and her trio. . . . Later this year there'll be a computer on the market that'll show the efficiency of computers.

ODDMENTS: For his best golf shots, Jack Nicklaus uses his head more than his legs or his swing. . . . The girl who growls and rasps for Salem ciggies on that commercial would be a great bet singing barrel-house ditties in a sawdust floor saloon.

EAT TREAT BEAT: A great way to eliminate ennui is to dine at Copain. The famed restaurant is an ideal point to mingle with comfort and exceptional food. Nothing pretentious here. A casual air dominates the summer season. Norm Moomjian, he of the good looks and affable attitude, presides in a place where a first visitor is accorded much the same hospitality as a long time regular. Hors d'Oeuvres on the order of Periwinkles Provencale, or a soup, very special and sensational, Black Bean get vocal raves nightly. Boneless Squab Chicken aux Peaches or Saute Beef a la Stroganoff are examples of the exciting cuisine. . . . The Inn Of The Clock has a character about it that sets it apart from all other restaurants in town. To be sure, there are clocks on the premises but the distinguishing features relate to auspicious surroundings, the UN Towers, the building where it is located, the proximity to the United Nations, the chic coterie present daily at lunch and dinner. What surprises no-one, but delights all is the all encompassing menu. The full dinners, popularly priced offer very fine iced Vichyssoise, a well prepared Scallopini of Veal Piccata and Roast Prime Rib of Beef.

Perhaps the most famous of all current strippers, Tempest Storm presents a classy exhibit of the fine art of taking it off. Now a brunette, with long cascading tresses (her flaming red locks were a trademark for years) surrounding a very pretty face, the Tempest belies that name with a rather stately turn. Clad at first in layers of mauve filmies, she gradually relieves herself of such extra weight, then goes into a lighted dressing room for further reduction of coverage. The final revelation is unimpeded view of her vaunted size 44s, which, after all, is what the Storm has been about all these years . . . For the good old burlesque corn on the cob, the "Court-"

"Pzazz '70!" is a glittering jazzy knockout of a show bound to be on every "must see" list . . . Swinging — and it swings aplenty! — productionwise from Las Vegas and San Francisco, to Memphis, St. Louis, a heavenly Hollywood, and to New York, it reserves its most intoxicating, satirical "howdy" for prohibition daze Chicago, a hilarious potpourri of streetwalkers, a speakeasy "floor show," a mobster rub-out, and a realistic fire. room Scene" is the best of Irv Benson. He is quite famous now through exposure on the Milton Berle telly shows, but he could never give out on the tube with what he tosses on the Aladdin stage. His rapid firing straightman sidekick Jack Mann is excellent as both zap the jokes and whap the audience for not responding as well as they would like . . . Jerry Lucas does his usual goofy role in the courtroom episode . . . Slithery is the word for Summers — Suzette Summers of the fine body, displayed in glittery spangles, but not for long. On her, the flesh look is better . . . Jeannie Thomas not only sings so well in her production rounds, but shows a flair for comedy in a scene with Benson & Mann. A beauty, she . . . Best of the Jerry Norman dance patterns to Cate, the various ideas in this Minsky edition feature lead femme dancers Jan Marts, Sharon Sinotte and Betty Francisco ala nude (give or take a bead or two), plus the controlled musicality in adagios by Michel Stany and Rick Hamilton . . . The Minsky Dancers and Nudes are splendid, the dancers with fleet precision and the mannequins belying that title by moving very well. Good looking gals, all . . . Costumes by Josephine Spinedi, executed by Eastwood are eye-filling and the settings by Winn Strickland, lighted by Bob Kiernan, are prismatic . . . Irv Gordon's charts are performed with gusto by the Hank Shank octet. (Bill Willard)

Joe Gerlach completely ignores all sense of caution as he leaps from a 60 foot high perch and hurtles downward in his death defying sponge plunge . . . The Alexandroffs provide a chilling experience with their unique loop-the-loop on a giant trapeze without a net . . . Señor Antonio causes many a heart to miss a beat with his swing trapeze-head balance . . . The Canestrellis fascinate with their internationally-famous trampolining with riveted attention on young Marco's daredeviltry . . . The Hartzell Comedy Musicians perform a pot pourri of dramatic humor in a swashbuckling mono rail encounter . . . No one rides a unicycle upside down on a monorail with only his teeth supporting a trapeze on which his wife works—except the Hildalys . . . Watching Le Lisa perform on her trapeze sans net makes you wonder what a nice girl like that is doing without a security web . . . The Lemke Chimps do people tricks for a tightwire, wheels and balance happening . . . DeMille exhibits daring of youth, performing a dangerous backward somersault in his tightwire act . . . Norbu, the Human Gorilla, is delighting Darwin theorists with his jungle humor . . . The delightful clown is Peluza . . . The Randels are a refreshing addition to the Big Tent with their artistry on the trampoline . . . Tanya is an unbelievable miniature pachyderm who skips, plays musical instruments and moves her 2300 lb. anatomy with the grace of a dancer . . . Vino Venito is extremely daring as split second timing separates him from injury during his knife balance challenge . . . Rena Smaha vocalizes during the Aerial Ballet, a spectacular that concentrates on a gallant gentleman propelling a mono rail with a line of 5 cuties performing on perches . . . Sandy Dobritch, Mike Hartzell and Clarence Hoffman are the ringmasters.

ceived, produced, and directed "Casino" on a grand scale, has gone first cabin all the way—from Jean Leccia's tuneful music and Jose Luis Vinas' rich, inventive costumes, to special effects and talent . . . The Clownerama opener, with clowns cleverly displaying the show's credits, is alone enough to give The Dunes another hit, yet it segues into a psychedelic, mod dancing finish . . . Other lavish numbers are a wild Chicago sizzler complete with a dozen undraped femmes in bathtubs and a pair-pulling between topped and topless dancers, a Roman stunner with wrestling gladiators, a live Bengal tiger attacking a hapless victim, and equally live horses in a thundering chariot race capped — if that's possible — by a realistic orgy and the burning of Rome! . . . Acts spotted throughout include the Peiro Brothers with their superb juggling, and apt impressions, the marvelous Jean Leccia Singers, the show stopping Berosini Jungle Fantasy — chimpanzees, two baby gorillas, and a scene-stealing orangutan — the Berosini Risley acrobatic act, and breath-taking balancing by David & Goliath (Jerry Howard & Fred Randall) and all the handsome, talented dancers brilliantly staged and choreographed by Ron Lewis and Billy Petch . . . Earl Green and his 21 piece orchestra are magnifique. Standard operating procedure is for Frederic Apar to out-dazzle himself with succeeding editions of "Vive Les Girls." He's at it again with the '71 collection. From the startling gorilla opening round to the "Hide & Seek" finale, the word is fantastique as those darting lovelies of the line and curvy mannequins frame every act superbly . . . There is comedienne Elmarie Wendel, the hung-up gal whose smart material by Bob Lees and Dickson Hughes is an extra click, . . . Vest & Clark, the volatile warblers and step-pers who do triple duty all the way through . . . and the Five Colombo Brothers, whose gymnastics and other amusing inserts give added zest . . . Judy Ritsko and Pat Gill are two fine figured birds who show off most of their natural plumage during some rapid rounds . . . As for the draped type of plumage, the costuming, this is another surpassing department as Jose Luis Vinas outdoes previous stunners . . . The same idea goes for choreographer Ron Lewis . . . Music by Jean Leccia, Don Hannah and Joe Lane is sounded forth with aplomb by the Tony Marillo Ork. (Bill Willard)

She moves beautifully as she sings. Dodie's "Natural Woman" & "Let It Be Me" teaming with bassist Jerry Goodman are standouts . . . Tommy continues the unusual pattern of introducing his original songs. He combines simultaneous piano rhythms and trumpet melodies, with a bit of harpsichord tripled in. Jerry Goodman is on bass and Jerry Zapata on drums . . . umphant thesping tour has kept them away from Nighteries for nearly a year, they are in finer form than ever. Technically tabbed a comedy team — and there's none funnier! — they are more accurately superb all-around entertainers. Opening with a frisky, catchy "Making That Love Scene" duet, they then proceed to make every scene in their show a delight. As sparkling as her glittery gown, gifted, adorable Mimi is one of the rare pretty girls who looks sexy even when clowning, and charming Phil — moving smoothly from being the perfect foil to shining as an outstanding personality and performer in his own right, is a pleasing singer, fine clarinetist and pianist, as well as a crack comedian . . . Their candy store bit, with Ford as the proprietor and La Hines as precocious little girl customer, is riotous, as is the comedienne's classic impression of an inebriated mouse and of a nippy dog show contestant . . . Indisputably, Mimi is one of the most exciting of all femme singers, with a spell-binding voice, range, and feeling. Her "Nothing Can Stop Me Now" and "Chicago" are smashers, and her "Always Mademoiselle," from the "Coco" musical hit, is a show stopper . . . Norman Geller is the brilliant team's musical director . . . Myron Cohen is not only a grand story teller but one of the most beloved of all comedians. Elegant, with an unfailing respect for the taste and intelligence of audiences, he has an actor's aptitude for making everyone see as well as hear the people and scenes he describes, and for keeping them laughing helplessly and affectionately at them. The handsome young superstar can't do anything wrong as far as audiences are concerned, and the fact is that wily Wayne has that inborn sense of pleasing with which the rare ones like Al Jolson were blessed. He's a showman all the way, whether moving with "Bridge Over Troubled Waters" or rocking with "Rockabye," "Danke Schoen" and "Bill Bailey." "Stage Child," a new number written for him, is a superb piece of song material, likely to become another Newton standard, and the blown up slide photos of such famed stars as Jackie Coogan, Shirley Temple, Mickey Rooney, and the brothers Newton — when they were tot performers — projected as he sings so arrestingly, add to the effectiveness . . . As always Jerry Newton is an enormous asset with his spirited romping and saucy asides in addition to his musical prowess. The song and dance bits in which he joins his gifted brother and versatile musical conductor Tommy Amato are delights . . . The wow final portion of the show has Wayne shining on banjo, fiddle, guitar, and trumpet, before going into a superb segment, donning clown costume and make-up on stage, for a dazzling dramatic musical tour de force that leaves the crowd limp, but not too limp to hop to their feet to award the incomparable star a couple of ovations . . . There's nothing fake about Glenn Smith and The Fables — they are genuinely fine musicians, entertainers, and a powerhouse opening act. With

Although Arnold tabs himself "a Heinz 57 kind of singer," it's his country-western numbers that bring biggest response, things like "Cotton Fields," "John Henry," and such of his many hits as "Anytime," and "Make The World Go Away." As for my personal preferences, they'd be the star's appealing "Everybody's Talkin'" and funny, warm "The Richest Man In The World," written just for him . . . Rock 'n' roll oriented kids might find Eddy's show tempo slow, but his fans find the pace just right, and relish every number — especially the intimate period during which he sits on a stool to sing, to his own guitar accompaniment, several older songs, some nostalgic and some fun, like "Tennessee Stud." of the old timers in the game. For example, his semi-pantomime schtick in "Movie Theatre," the nebbish little man in "Getting Arrested," plus the quickies during the next to closing catchall scene are some of the best of the craft . . . Herbie Barris, another longtimer in the biz, puts his rubbery puss into gyrations and reveals his way with the lines, retorts and actions in "Getting Arrested" and "Doctor's Office" . . . Charles Vespia is a little guy who can do all the funny stuff, from his candy butcher pre-curtain rounds, to breaking up partner David Walker (act is called The Vespias), swishing in "Movie Theatre," and plenty of other risible inserts along the way . . . Walker is the handsome straight, six foot three, who belts out production rounds as well as shooting lines here and there for the comics . . . Angelique, a tall blonde peeler, has extra dimensions where it counts. Her divestiture down to zero has the guys gasping, but her warbling in a couple of numbers doesn't equal the grade with the body displays . . . Contrast in style and technique in this art form is brunette Astradella, whose figure is outa sight, if not outa space. Very sexy, this femme, with her symbolic plastic appendages becoming as fascinating to watch as a nest of cobras . . . Adagio team Manfred & Marino have excellent bodies, revealed in a very open way during a well-received exhibit in the "Tropical Village" number . . . The Lloyd Lambert costumes on the romping Ashton nudes are cunningly designed to show the anatomy . . . Tommy Hodges is responsible for the solid charts, performed with brio by the Paul Lowden Sextet. (Bill Willard) mirrors to establish the theme, "Pour-quoi Pas?," the "Symphony of the Sea," the Louvre scene with theft of the Mona Lisa as helicopters fight the brigands from overhead, the "Rhapsodie Espagnole" fiesta with The Red Bordello orgy becoming a flaming inferno, and the brilliant conclusion, "London is London," featuring the scintillating Fountain of Light, the entire finale designed by Michael Knight . . . Interslicing all of this magniloquence are many highly entertaining acts . . . Rudy Cardenas, one of the most fleet and agile of jugglers . . . Heather Belbin, champion figure skater proving why she's a champ . . . The Volantes, doing impossible, breathtaking tricks on unicycles . . . Siegfried & Roy, magico to confound everyone, such as the trunk switching (shades of Houdini!) and a tiger replacing Roy and a cheetah popping out instead of Siegfried . . . The Dancing Devils are a dashing group of Argentine Gauchos from the Pampas, who perform exciting ethnic dances with skilfully controlled bol-eadoras . . . and the famous pick-pocket Dominique, who brings up several men from the audience to the stage for still more thievery . . . Spotlighted for outstanding dances and/or singing among the production rounds are Jillian & Ron, with some fine adagio expositions, Marya Linero, Jennifer Pierson, Nicky Gorska, Tom Allison, Charles Gray, Dick Moll, Johnny Ritsko, Dan Parker and Gig Gallion . . . Madame Bluebell has achieved another success d'estime with the splendid choreos of her Bluebell Girls . . . A tip of the topper to the agility of the Arden Boy Dancers, and salutes to the 14 gorgeous torsos of Les Belles du Lido (nice faces, too!) . . . Frank Sennes is the producer, Pierre Louis-Guerin and Rene Fraday, the French Lido producers, Harvey Warren, scenic designer, costumes by Folco, original music and lyrics by Jim Harbert and J. P. Landreau and orchestrations by Harbert, Bill Stafford and Ivan Lane for the Eddie O'Neil Orchestra. (Bill Willard) plus production warbling. Manjon has an adagio whirl with Clarita Diaz and a sizzling bullwhip flagellation dance in the closing voodoo dazzler, both revealing his smooth technique. His choreography for all the dance numbers ranges from pedestrian to outstanding . . . July del Rio startles with her topless torching, moving sinuously as she chants her Latin wares in husky tones. She also heightens interest in some production ambles, nearly nude and having a walk that causes male pulses to race . . . Special guest stars Margie Ravel & Hector de San Juan are devastating in their incredibly rapid footwork, de San Juan in particular. Miss Ravel is a brunette doll, moving sexily through the perpetual motion routines as both change costumes in cleverly devised on and off dances, always leaving one of the pair onstage to keep the fire lit . . . Very spectral are the settings of Maria Casanova, with high chroma palette and opting for electrical effects throughout . . . Jimmy Wallace leads the supercharged septet, with added percussion effects by Walfredo. (Bill Willard)

THAT'S OIL!

A Texas multimillionaire oil man was touring the world in his private jet plane.

"That's London just below," his pilot said.

"Never mind the details," snapped the Texan, "just mention the continents."

place! This kaleidoscopic dazzler is chiefly populated by richly costumed men and women in the splendidly choreographed scenes by Tony Charmoli, seven in all. When the Tibor Rudas Dancers finish their incredibly fleet Can Can, there is only one equal to that display, more Rudas Dancers in the "Marriage au Tyrol" . . . Mitzi McCall and Charlie Brill are devastating as they verbally wrestle with some highly entertaining bickering that hits the audience on home ground . . . Balancing feats of The Martyrs are electrifying, interspersed with funny biz . . . Gus Augspurg indisputably has one of the most engaging acts of its kind, introducing his Girl Friends, a Rhesus monkey and Gibbon baboon, who absolutely convulse everyone with their people-shines . . . The humorous Spanish trio of Pompoff Thedy Family has some ridiculous musical and sight gags in an action potpourri filled with laughs from start to finish . . . The juggling of Valente Valente is fascinating on two counts — the boy and girl both engage in nifty tricks, particularly with pingpong balls . . . Vassili Sulich is one of the better solo dancers around today and his adagio with Pat LaForge, both nearly nude, in "Feast of the Spider" confirms it . . . Moving out from the Tropicana Dancers, the Tropicana Boys and Les Mannequins are four enchanting Loreleis, Felicia Atkins, Joyce Grayson, Monica Lind and the beautiful voice of Bonnie Avenia . . . The Randy Van Horne Singers add special effects to the music with their harmonies . . . Special credits are deserved by Gyarmathy for scenery and costumes; production coordination by Paul Szigety and Larry Grayson; original music by Henri Betti of Paris with lyrics by Johnny Bradford; musical arrangements by Jerry Fielding . . . Si Zentner decisively guides the intricate music cues from the pit. via the Jack Wheeler KDKA Pittsburgh outlet (12:30 to 1 ayem), then on Tom Adams KOID in Miami (1 to 2 ayem). Our FABULOUS prognosticator refers not only to his column in these pages, but quotes from every other feature in our publication. The response is absolutely overwhelming. It's amazing how many more Eastern people are still adept at the art of writing.

Within the past few weeks, we lauded the Amusement Arcade the Sahara-Tahoe introduced and suggested it would be wise for FLV hotels to follow suit. Well, the corporation is keeping it a happy family, for the Mint Hotel opened an identical past-time area on its second floor, featuring electronic games and contests for all ages . . . all skill . . . no gaming. It's open 24 hours and the children may participate because the fun spot is far removed from the casino (main level).

The two hotels who never fail to inform this desk of the lowering of prices are the Thunderbird and Landmark Hotels. The T'Bird has reinstated its dinner show policy, with a $4.50 price fix on the steak dinner. The full price for its menu in the new, plush Gourmet Room is $6.45 . . . The Landmark has happily returned its "Original L. V. Chuckwagon." Remember all you could eat for $1.50? It's back — and the Landmark has it.

FABULOUS Notes . . . Pearl Bailey and Louis Armstrong follow Elvis into the International, before Barbra Streisand opens her December 13 holiday engagement . . . The Landmark hopes to move its Nighthawk Lounge to the main level on the 17th . . . Included in the boost tourism theme are "Welcome To L.V." buttons to be worn by local merchants. . . .

Nancy Austin and David London welcomed their 8 lb. 5 oz. heiress at Woman's Hospital on July 30 . . . Elmarie Wenden (Dunes' "Vive") bought Nick Navarro's house . . . Nick and his ex-Jacqueline Douguet (both in the D.I.'s "Pzazz") are reportedly lovebirds again . . . Localites wondering about the finalization of the Dunes sale. . . .

Back for his 23rd Sandstint, this is Joey Bishop's first club date since he bowed out of his tube show . . . 40,000 people are expected for the dental convention (Nov. 8-14) . . . Tune in and catch the Jovers (D.I. "Pzazz") on Ed Sullivan's TVviewer August 9. . . .

Don Crawford, formerly Minsky's lead dancer, featured in Dance Magazine this month (August) . . . Celebs in for the T'Bird's "Latin Fire '71" were Carol Channing, Augie & Margo with The Lomans, Tony Martin, Cugie, the casts of "Pzazz," "The Folies" and "Lido" shows . . . "Latin Fire" dancers Margie Ravel and Hector De San Juan once toured with Cugat. . . .

The Houssels family (Tropicana) at Del Mar for the racing season . . . Beverlee & Sidro With The Sneakers had opening nighters euphoric at the Frontier Circle "F" — especially Bev's proud parents — the William Browns of Albuquerque . . . Barry Ashton in town to check his Slipper production last weekend . . . Pearl Bailey headlines Kings Castle August 17-27 . . .

David Merrick wants Carol Channing for his upcoming "Moving Day" comedy . . . J. P. MacCarthy, leading Detroit deejay in with the Oldsmobile conventioners . . . George Jessel will emcee the Joe E. Lewis testimonial at the Riv Sept. 13 . . . S. F. Examiner News Editor Ed Frisbie vacationing at CP . . .

Redd Foxx has clearly taken over as the International "house comic" with his almost back-to-back dates thru '71 . . . Women's Lib members will be tuning in on "In The Name Of Allah" on Net TV 10 Aug. 11 at 9 P.M. . . . CHWO-Canada's Barry Morden in town taping star interviews for Toronto airing . . .

The generously proportioned McCrary Twins (currently at the double Circus) will appear at the Pomona Fair September 18-October 4 . . . Slipper's Pat Edwards heading for Manhattan in early September to attend sister Edie's wedding . . . Bill Miller released Connie Stevens for a three-weeker at the Sands (Sept. 16) but she returns to the pink bird in '71 . . .

Local fans delighted that Mitzi McCall and Charlie Brill were extended thru the full run of the Trop's current "Folies." In addition to performing, they also write for other comedy acts and are commershill pets . . . Live the history of our Goldfield on Channel 8, August 12 — 8 P.M.

When the Zacchins opened at the double Circus, they were the only duo in the world being shot from double cannons. Not too long before their early August closing, Wayne had to bow out when he suffered a whiplash, leaving his distaff partner a solo performer. This also was a record — for she was the only girl shot from a cannon . . . Producer Al Dobritch contracts the most outstanding circus artists in the world . . . He even has a 400 lb. singing pig successfully whistling for a contract from Rowan & Martin for their "Laugh In" . . . and that's for sure.

at the Troubadour, is one of the best folk singers, femme, I've heard.

Zsa Zsa Gabor's been playing to packed houses on Broadway starring in "Forty Carats." Miss Gorgeous' reaction: "I don't know if I needed this show, but this show certainly needed me." Sister Eva goes back along with Mama Jolie and sister Magda to applaud Zsa Zsa.

Sophia Loren is taking a year for her own major production from filmmaking to have a baby. That's the way she got her son, "Cheepy," which is for Carlo Ponti, of course.

Christopher Jones has temporarily deserted his Malibu pad for London. He was off also to see Pia Degermark in Berlin, who was here to see him a few weeks ago. But isn't Pia engaged or something to Denmark's Prince?

And That's Hollywood!
