Birthday- Anniversary Corner

... Former FLVite, the very popular Morris Kleinman shares his September 19th birthday with Hollywood's Joe Pasternak, in opening the ceremonies on this week's events . . . Landmark Stage Manager Bill De Angelis is setting a special birthday scene for his wife Jean on the 20th . . . Other 20th celebrants include Rex Jarrett (who chieftains one of the popular independent Insurance Agencies in town), Helen Malachway (Stardust personnel office) and that handsome but humble comedian Nelson Sardelli . . . Birthday cards bear a September 21st greeting for Frank Atol, Jack Pieper (charming Managing Director of the Silver Slipper) and choreographer Bob Banas . . . A very special greeting to Grace Kahn (widow of composer Gus Kahn) on the 22nd . . . Sharing the 22nd mutual are chef Hans Kuhlein, Sheryl Annette Martin (six year old daughter of Sandy and Leon Martin) and Carl Wilson . . . FABULOUS bouquet to Ron Amos (Publicity Director of CP), whose September 23rd date is also claimed by Ray Charles, Sylvia Petricciani and Stephanie Schultz (8 year old granddaughter of Jack Beekman) . . . September 24 has a double reason for excitement in the Stardust publicity office. It's the birthday of Lynn Cook, son of executive secretary Maxine, as well as the birthday of mom's boss man, Joe Glaston (Publicity Director-Stardust) . . . Edgar Stopher toasts his September 24th birthday in his Scottsdale (Arizona) residence . . . Rounding out the gift recipient list for the week on the 25th are Jack Durant (Sahara Comptroller), Ed Essington (maître d' Tropicana Blue Room), the wonderful Barbara Frazzini (whose husband is the Tropicana Security Guard affectionately known as "St. Nick"), Buddy Grover (handsome dealer at the Hacienda) and Juliet Prowse, the fiery talent who opens as the lively "Mame" at the International Hotel, on the 22nd.

CRISWELL PREDICTS YOUR NEXT TEN YEARS

CRISWELL PREDICTED:

The Assassination of Martin Luther King
The Assassination of President John F. Kennedy
The Assassination of Robert F. Kennedy
That Lyndon Johnson Would Not Seek Re-election!

THESE—AND 87% OF HIS PREDICTIONS HAVE COME TRUE.

During the time since Criswell's first book Criswell Predicts To The Year 2000! was published, his astounding record of accuracy has gained him an audience numbering in the millions.

Appearances on Johnny Carson's Tonight Show; on The Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin Shows — and many others — have made his name the center of much discussion — and, at times, controversy.

His first book was a "Journal of The Future" covering the next thirty years until the date Criswell Predicts the world as we know it will end — August 18, 1999!

This book is more immediate. In these pages Criswell predicts the events that will befall America and the world during the decade of the 1970's. He also answers the 101-questions most often asked him about the next ten years. These predictions will affect us all, Criswell says — and if his record of 87% accuracy continues, then every person in the world has a personal stake in what Criswell predicts in this volume!

SEPTEMBER 19, 1970

I REGRET TO PREDICT that our 20th Century science and advancement has created another Black Hole of Calcutta, not only in one city, but hundreds! The fantastic crime of the Year 1756 where 146 people were driven into a room 20 feet square and only 23 survived overnight! During the electric failure in a large Eastern City, the air conditioning and air circulation system went dead and took thousands with it, thru asphyxiation! Our buildings today are hermetically sealed like a vault, all of glass, concrete and steel, and no windows can be opened! The office workers died from lack of oxygen! First they felt drowsy, then fell into a deep sleep from which they never awakened! The crime of the Black Hole of Calcutta was repeated over and over again! This did not reach the general press, radio or TV, as it could be too frightening for the average employee! The same thing happens over and over again but to different people, witness the Black Hole of Calcutta! ... I predict that piracy of the sea that resulted in the War of 1812 will be repeated with piracy of the air and will result in another war of greater intensity! The many high-jackings to Cuba, the strong influence of Russia-China Communism, will be most apparent in the short weeks to come! The Black Panthers will remain active on many fronts! A new Vietnam Peace moratorium will be planned and carried out, new drives in and out of court will see action, shocking the American public!

PREDICTION OF AWARDS

Each year we project the winners in the Annual Las Vegas FABULOUS Awards and we hit seven out of the eleven ... Elvis Presley ... Mitzi Gaynor ... Barbra Streisand ... Totie Fields ... Nancy Sinatra ...

The 5th Dimension ... Sammy Davis, Jr. ... Sergio Franchi ... Sheeky Greene ... Engelbert Humperdinck ... "Lido De Paris" Production! We predict you know the winners listed! STAR BRIGHT ... STAR LIGHT!

I predict that five top entertainment names of TV-Hollywood-Las Vegas will be signed for a huge London Revue but will cancel as they will not be permitted to take their salaries out of the boundary of England due to a new Crown ruling! WONDERFUL — WONDERFUL!

I predict that wonderful — wonderful will be the way to describe the year 1971, for so many many wonderful, wonderful things will happen! (1) The greatest industrial boom that our nation has ever had! (2) The great drive for nationalism which will place our economy on an even keel! (3) The new bumper crops which will cushion against high prices on food! (4) The enforcement of law and order and justice! (5) The new boom on building plus an active real estate market! (6) The swing back to conservatism where everyone will know where they are! and (7) Continued stock market stock growth!

WE REGRET TO PREDICT

We regret to predict the deaths of three famed Americans who will take their final curtain next month within three hours of each other!

CONFESIONS!

I predict that next year will be the year of the literary confession! The bright shattering world of the exposé will bloom like the green bay tree! From barbers to barmaids! Even famous personalities will confess about their household help in unflattering manners! The year of the confession 1971!

AN AFFRONT TO AMERICA!

I predict that the words of one of our most Liberal of Politicians will come back to haunt him when he runs for reelection in November! (His allusion was "There is no difference between the Confederate flag and the Hammer and Sickle!") which will need much explanation to all voters everywhere!

What's one life to a guy who thinks he has nine.

THE PULSE OF WALL STREET

I predict that a profit taking around the 1st of October will not dampen the financial enthusiasm of the public!

THE BLACK CONGRESS

I predict that the so-called Black Congress will decide once-and-for-all that any White person cannot serve, teach, instruct or supervise any Black child on a fair basis! They will claim they do not understand the basic theory of being Black, and so they are helpless in the art of education!

DECENCY IS NOT DEAD

I predict that decency is not dead — no matter what the politicians want you to believe! In many states the Democratic Liberals have a Pro-Abortion Plank (you can have an abortion on demand, no questions asked) on their platform for November! Abortion is murder as "interruption of pregnancy" is murder! Many in office, and the office seekers, will be turned out by the decency of the American voter. On this party's same platform is a ruling against capital punishment, yet they praise and will finance abortion! Where is their decency now?

A COMING EVENT

I predict a coming event for you headline watchers — "Canada and Sweden will deport back to America thousands upon thousands of youths who fled there to escape the draft! The 3 reasons given will be (1) traffic in drugs and smuggling (2) theft, muggings and robbery and (3) morals, mostly male prostitution! This headline will appear in a very few days!

BEWARE: A DEADLY NEW DRUG!

I regret to predict that the combination of three famous remedies in your super-market-drug-store can send your mind on a round trip to oblivion when taken all at once! This combination is so deadly that the

"FRANK AND THE LITTLE PEOPLE" . . . is a phrase that's been bandied about quite a bit these past weeks . . . with the inference being that Sinatra has treated the "little people" unkindly. A ludicrous inaccuracy! Discharging the recent Sinatra/CP incident to your own conclusions, we are compelled to protest the baseless accusation of the singer's attitude toward the (if you will) masses. Don't be lulled by this canard.

To begin, Sinatra doesn't use the label "little people." He well remembers the lean years and unfailingly credits his success to the support of people from all walks of life.

From his unpublicized book of credits you can uncover a forest of generosity, if you are close to the insiders who keep the details secret, because that's how Sinatra wants it . . . When a composer of one of his best selling hits passed away, Frank immediately signed over all of his ensuing royalties to the widow . . . When a song plugger passed away, Sinatra ordered everyone to keep the news from the man's aged mother, and sent her monthly checks equivalent to those she had been receiving from her son, until her demise . . . A decade ago, Lee J. Cobb had a heart attack. Learning that the actor was in bad financial condition, Frank dropped by the hospital, introduced himself, and subsidized all the medical bills. If he hadn't, we wonder if L.J.C. would be starting a new T.V. series this month.

Every staffer we approached in each hotel Frank worked has attested to his magnanimous considerations. He hasn't overlooked any, from security guards right on down to the bus boys.

According to those who know him intimately, there's no better friend than Frank. If illness befalls someone close to him, Frank sends a specialist to insure the best medical attention.

Formulate your own opinion, if you must. But, don't be unjust in grasping at every bit of sensationalism, the repetition of which might make you the center of attraction.

Sinatra is one of the greatest entertainment magnets this or any other town ever had. The cash register attests to that, whether you do or don't like the man, himself. For the past two decades, his only request was to shield his personal and family life from publicity.

We ran a blind item (four to six months back) referring to our hunch that a "certain superstar would soon retire from the circuit." That reference was to Frank . . . there aren't many Chiefs left in the field. The entertainment world will have cause to mourn . . . if The Voice is stilled.

dition that film tape will become obsolete when cassettes take command in the industry. W.W. begins his own film production in late Fall . . . He's also being paged by Burt Reynolds to guest on his new ABC-TV series "Dan August," bowing on Channel 13 on the 23rd. (The series is being shot at the Sam Goldwyn Studios.)

It was an absolute shock when Lee Fisher told us he had filed his resignation an hour prior to our conversation. He did so on the eve of his 13th year as Publicity Director of the Dunes Hotel. There is no way to salute this word master except to say his name is a byword in the land of P.R. We sincerely trust he will remain in F.L.V. . . . The very lovely and capable Jean Magowan, who has been Lee's assistant for just three months less than those 13 years, has been promoted to the post Lee absents.

International star Pearl Bailey will make her October 2nd Testimonial Dinner, which Joe Pasternak is spearheading at The Masquers in Hollywood. She hesitated for just a brief moment, for she must be in the east to make the initial drawing for New York's first Lottery, October 6th.

Joe E. Lewis caught Jimmy Durante's D.I. show two days before his sellout Testimonial Dinner at the Riviera . . . Later, Jimmy confessed this was the first opening (in his over 50 years in show biz) that brought out the butterflies. The pre-curtain jitters were a hangover from the illness that forced Jimmy out of his Frontier date earlier this year. But, Jimmy can't do anything wrong onstage. The every-show-standing-ovations prove that!

Bobby Darin, currently headlining at the Landmark, is being romanced to return to Kings Castle (Incline Village). He played a four day sellout stand there last month . . . and he's not hurtin' for crowds at the Landmark, either.

Fay McKay passed through town for a fast two days before she picked

EDY Williams, the super sexpot dolly who stars in "Return of the Valley of the Dolls," invited me to lunch in her new honeymoon mansion. "Now that it is all settled and in order," she said proudly, as a new bride would. "I can't cook, but Russ (she's newly married, as the elegant wedding was reported here recently to Russ Meyer, known as the 'King of the Nudie Films') is marvelous at steaks and roasts. Otherwise we go out to eat." I demurred on the luncheon invitation. If Edy openly admits she can't cook . . . well, why not make it dinner, when Russ can. This is a bit wise, don't you think?

Edy is gorgeous as you know, with her natural wealth of long red hair to her waist. She can go far and be one of the biggest stars in this business. It's up to her. "I have a couple of new picture offers, one in Italy," Edy said. "Russ would like me for his next picture too. It's 'Seven Minutes,' but I would have some nude scenes in it, and I don't know. Russ says it's up to me. He doesn't mind the top half of me nude, but not the bottom half. But playing a nude scene with a camera man and all there, makes me very nervous. I know it isn't wrong when it's part of the story, but it is scary doing it. I don't know," sighed the sultry beauty, whom Walt Emeson had to coax to don a bikini to win her first bathing beauty contest which upped her to a contract at 20th Century Fox Studios.

Their honeymoon: "We went fishing because Russ loves to fish. He caught one and I caught five," disclosed Edy. More: "I am going on talk shows to talk about Indians, and their plight. The average Indian lives only to be 44. They don't speak up and fight for their rights. They need help." On the new midis: "I think they are masculine. I don't intend to wear them." "Return of the Dolls" got terrible reviews admitted Edy, "but it is making millions at the box office." The box office is the real critic, for people can either pay or stay away, isn't that so, luvs.

Lawrence Kasha, producer of Broadway's biggest current hit, "Applause," starring Lauren Bacall, is a young man of exceptional talents and great accomplishments. Prior to "Applause," he was co-producer of "Hadrian VII," and with Hal Prince, co-producer of "She Loves Me," on Broadway. And he produced Jerry Herman's "Parade Off Broadway." As a director, he staged the London production of "Mame," starring Ginger Rogers, which I saw last November at the Drury Lane in London and thought it all exceptionally good. So did all of England! Then there's his "Funny Girl," starring Barbra Streisand. That's just a few of the FABULOUS Kasha credits. Right now for eight weeks he is directing "Lovely Ladies, Kind Gentlemen," based on the Pulitzer Prize play, "Teahouse of the August Moon," on the boards of Dorothy Chandler's Pavilion of the Music Center. The book is John Patrick, the music, Stan Freeman's and the lyrics are by Franklin Underwood. Herman Levin, producer of "My Fair Lady," is producer . . . After here and several weeks in San Francisco, it opens on Broadway at the Majestic come December 28th. At the star-studded opening night were the very popular Jordan Wanks. (He's the brilliant attorney who got Hedy Lamarr freed of those shoplifting charges at the May Company.

It was interesting to meet Mr. Kasha at a luncheon honoring him at the Cock 'n Bull in Hollywood hosted by Bill Watters. With today's trend of complete freedom in expression, are actors controllable—do they waste valuable time, production-wise, in expressing their own interpretation of roles? "No," he replied. "When they reach the top level they are pro — they know they have to be or they'd be replaced in five minutes. Unlike working before a movie camera they have the feel of the audience for guidance." No trouble with Lauren Bacall who took perfect direction. Yes a director keeps hold of his play even though it is a smash hit like 'Applause' — which he will re-check shortly in a fast fly in to New York where his assistant is keeping house proper. "Bacall will bring it here perhaps in a year for the Music Center." Meanwhile with two big hits on his hands four months back to back, Mr. Kasha said he was in need of a bit of a vacation. Freddie March is his favorite stage actor — because "he is so magnificently pro."

Victor Huston starred in the music world in London with his own popular Victor Huston Orchestra. His sister, "Bunty Huston and The Melody Three," also played the music halls and theatres throughout England, Scotland and Wales. Victor, an air raid warden in the Second World War, lost a lung, recovered, and came with his family, the James Hustons, to live in America. Victor played the drums in many name bands. He was so good that the late Jayne Mansfield claimed him as musical backing and arranger when she was being paid $35,000.00 a week every six, annually, at the Tropicana in Las Vegas. Victor became Jayne's road manager until her death, when he took an executive managerial post with Modern Music. He was one very special, honest, decent human being with a heart, who gave a helping hand (and his money) to everyone. Well-liked in Las Vegas and the show world, it is sad to report that that big heart failed last week. We like to think Victor (too young to die — so was Jayne) is now with Jayne, comparing notes in that wonderful FABULOUS world which awaits us all.

Some of my readers declare I write for men, sexy at times. Huh? Some of the women readers say I write purely for women. And they often call and write for the latest beauty and health secrets. Well, here's a goodie:

For all of us who love delicious candy, chocolates, mmmm, and they do bring pounds . . . and books and every national magazine have new fad diets, well, I sat at a dinner party next to Dr. Yiwen Y. Tang of Beverly Hills, the specialist in weight reduction and arthritis. The Chinese are very guarded in what they say, keep their cool, as you know. After listening to everyone's crazy wild diets, he observed these words of pure wisdom, "If you have a compulsive craving for sweets, it means you have built up too much acid in your system from them. Naturally the acid craves more. Abstain for three or four days and the acid craving leaves. Then you can totally leave sweets alone." (Are you brave, luvs?)

up her busy itinerary. She was in absolute awe as she related details of a theatre-in-the-round date she played with Liberace in the east. "When Lee played the first notes of 'Raindrops Fallin' On My Head,' the skies opened up and so did the umbrellas. When he stopped playing, the raindrops stopped falling." When we managed to separate Fay from thoughts supernatural, we learned that she and the pianist will play the Latin Casino in late October. At that time, Lee will co-host the Mike Douglas show and we'll again be treated to a McKay tube guesting.

Ann-Margret has been signed by executive producers Nick Vanoff and William Harbach to make one of her limited tube guestings on Yonge-street's John Wayne special, "Swing Out, Sweet Land," for NBC. She follows that spec with a topliner in Mike Nichol's "Carnal Knowledge." Paul Keyes produces the Wayne TViewer, with Stan Harris directing.

CP's George King informs us our town is virtually sold out (most of the larger hotels, that is) for the

By MITZI GAYNOR

No one stands alone.

Certainly, one of the most rewarding careers is being in show business, and I do mean every aspect — from acting, composing, singing, dancing, writing — just about anything creative.

Although I enjoy involving myself with the creative processes, I find my complete fulfillment in performing. As you know, a performer is essentially an interpreter who takes the works of the creator and imbues his or her own personality into the creator's works.

That is what any performer does when she stands in "one" and gives it her best. How lucky I am when I stand on stage, because I have, what I consider, the best creative talents behind me.

First came the word, some sage observer once commented. My words come from the fine hands of Larry Hovis, who is seen weekly on "Hogan's Heroes" and Anne Elder, two of the top comedy writers in Hollywood.

The three of us sit together on weekends to digest and dissect lines of comedy. Even though my art is liberally sprinkled with ad libs, most of my dialogue is that which the three of us have labored over for many hours. When a line doesn't play, it's back to the drafting board for the unholy three.

When my gowns elicit the "ohs" and "ahs" from the female members of the audience, I mentally bow to the Emmy award winning designer, Bob Mackey. Again, we get together on concept, but then I give Bob a free hand. He has impeccable taste.

If music soothes the savage beast, then I have two of the most original animal trainers in the business. My musical arrangers Billy May and J. Hill capture the essence of the songs I sing and the numbers I dance.

(Speaking of dancing, I have Broadway choreographer Danny Daniels in my corner.)

Danny and I select the music and exchange interpretive ideas. We'll sometimes discard six choreographed plots before we come to one which we feel best expresses the material. Now, you might think that with the choreography, the arrangements, the gowns, and the writers, that the behind-the-scenes cast is complete. Uh, uh.

What about that nice little fellow behind the spotlight and lighting plot?

My little genie is Curt Mercer, who makes sure that the lights are constantly in the correct position with the right colors. No performer wants to be on stage left with the spot light on stage right.

Still think you're through? Not a chance.

Every performer puts it right on the line everytime he steps on stage. Not only must the talent be there, but you've got to look right. I specifically refer to, as far as a female performer is concerned, a hairdresser and a wardrobe mistress. It is up to the wardrobe mistress to see to it that my zippers are all fastened and that the wardrobe changes are in good repair and always fresh. My right arm in that department is Dolly Derderian, who's been with me for many years. She really mother hens me.

If, when the audience leaves, a bevy of women comment on my hair style, they are really complimenting Tom Carlino, whose creative flair is of the "today" school. It's not vanity that keeps Tom with me, it simply is a case of the audience expecting Mitzi Gaynor to look well and I treasure his assistance.

It's rare that I am given the opportunity to credit my associates, so it is quite an honor and pleasure to indicate to the reader that others should share the applause when the performer takes a bow. I deem it a privilege to share my applause with these valued friends.

Thanks Phil for giving me this opportunity to speak, and have a good vacation in Hawaii. Hope you invite me back again shortly.

THAT'S FOR SURE

American Dental Association convene November 8-13. Others planning a visit here at that time should make reservations well in advance. The Palace is also sold out for the October 4-6 dates.

Sandstar Connie Stevens has hit such a successful stride since her nitery bow here two years ago, she's in demand by every major booker in the country. Latest to capture her is the Now Grove (formerly Cocoanut Grove) in Ellay, where she'll be the Happy New Year attraction December 30-January 10.

Trop Blue Room headliner Roger Williams has taped a guest shot on Milton Berle's Fall tube special, produced by Jackie Barnett. Roger's highlight "Ballad Of The Piano" is narrated by Uncle Miltie . . . The pianist is

"LOUNGE STARS"

By Bob Joyce

I first heard of WOODY WOODBURY in 1958, when I was DeeJaying back in my home town of Richmond, Virginia. It was then the policy of the record promoters to not only give you records to play on the air (that have hit potential) but also free albums for your own collection.

This is how I met Woody Woodbury. The album was called "Woody Woodbury Looks At Life and Love." It was recorded at Woody's own club in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. With me, the album was an immediate hit. Some of the cuts were airable, while most were not. It was the latter that got people to listen to the Woodbury philosophy of life. What was played on radio quickly caught the attention of the nation and the Woodbury comet was soaring. It took almost an act of congress to get Woody out of the Seminole country but it happened. He later turned up in a movie whose sole rewarding quality was Woody Woodbury.

So, dear people, I commend to you Woody Woodbury now appearing in Nero's Nook at Caesars Palace. The inevitable cap on head, drink in hand and the sharpest wit around gets to everyone. When not sitting at the piano, he sits on the steps and chats with the audience and there is where Woody shines brighter than anyone else. His spontaneous repartee is uncanny. What a mind! Whatever you do, see Mr. Woody Woodbury.

Bad news though. Instead of the original four weeks that Woody was to have been here, his stay has been cut to two, due to decision of the powers that be to close Nero's Nook and turn it into a Keno lounge. Whoopee? As of this writing, Woody doesn't know what his status will be at Caesars. By his own admission, he does not want to go into the big room because he will lose the people. He's right. Something has to give.

Someone we forgot to say hello to is right now at the Celebrity Theatre of the Sands Hotel. Teen idol turned mature, Johnny Tillotson. Remember his hits of the early sixties, "Poetry In Motion," "Send Me The Pillow You Dream On" and so many more. Of course, Johnny makes reference to them in his turn onstage, but the New Tillotson commands. A little of everything is featured. A thoroughly entertaining evening is yours at the Sands' Celebrity Theatre. Hi, Jackie!

Up the street at the Tropicana's Blue Room, Roger Williams makes pretty music. Before Roger opened, I questioned the booking of two piano players, back-to-back (with a third following, in the person of Count Basie). But, opening night proved Maynard Sloate right. Basically, it's the same act Roger brought in a few months back, but you must see him. You may have heard "Born Free" by Roger Williams a million times — but — in person — it really gets to you. Roger is very personable. If you see him in the lobby — go talk to him. You'll feel as though you're talking to someone from back home.

SCENE Lounging . . . Apologies to Alliene Flanery and the rest of the kids who comprise the "Tower Sweets Revue" at the Landmark, for not dropping by. Hopefully next week! Jim Parker says it's a gass of a show. Okay, V.V., I'll take your word for it and promise to catch it soon . . . Beverlee & Sidro With The Sneakers, one of the most popular young acts in the bigtime circuit, return for a fast one-weeker at the Frontier's Circle "F" on the 24th, the night after they close out of their Harrah's-Reno headliner . . .

Diane Day, featured dancer in the Aladdin's "Our Thing," wonders if there's only one man in a million who understands the international situation, howcum everybody keeps running into him . . . Then there's Beth Ward, line captain of the Skinny Dupper dolls in the Casbar's "Skin," who met a girl that's happy to go out with men who kiss and tell — she's so homely, she needs all the publicity she can get!

Catch those talent showcases Harry Bloomfield is holding at the Hippodrome in Circus Circus these Sunday nites. This week, ferinstance, he'll have an amateur showcase, followed by a buyers audition of "Circle Of Love," starring Gary Grandé, who was lead singer in the Dunes' "Vive Les Girls." Watch the amateurs meet the professionals.

Key Howard left Don Rickles a month ago, after conducting for the insultin' one for eleven years. The entire Howard brood has moved back to town and Key is now playing for your cocktail pleasure in the Casbar every afternoon around five. But, that's just a sideline. Watch for Key to go into the talent agency business — a smart move. Can't think of anyone else who knows more about our biz than him. It's been a lotta years since the Canyon Room on Ventura Blvd., when we first met. Key has yet to be stopped on knowing every song ever written. Drop by and see if you can stump him.

That's just about it for now. Hope to run into you during the next seven. In the meantime, have a ball in our town. There's only one like it in the world!

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

DATELINE: NEW YORK:

GIRL ABOUT TOWN: How to snare a guy with real bucks was covered years ago by Doris Lilly when she did her literary thing and panned "How To Marry A Millionaire." The tall gal with the blonde hair, jewelry laden fingers and big expensive eyes, is the authoress of "Those FABULOUS Greeks," a book out right now and selling exceedingly well. We doubt if anything in it will exacerbate feelings between Onassis and Niarhos. Doris is one of those frank ladies who says what she means forcefully. In a recent conversation she told us that yesteryear's prudery was a bore, but today vulgarity in print is often embarrassing. She carries her logic right down to appointment keeping. We had a meeting set for 11:30 A.M. At 11:15 A.M. she strolled in. A lady on time! Unthinkable.

"I have a choice, Gary, don't I. For a date I can come late or early. Forget about being on time. Right?" she questioned. "All right then, I always get to the appointed place ahead of the designated time."

We haven't the vaguest idea of how the talk switched around to sex, but it did. This was Women's Liberation Day, mind you.

"How do you think women should take to sex?" we asked.

Darling Lilly's reply: "Gracefully."

NOTES: Here's a "now" definition. Slumber: The sleep obtained in a rundown tenement in the ghetto. . . . A dog and cat store in the Village labels itself — "Paws and Claws" . . . The thought just hit us. Somehow we'd like to hear Mickey Mantle sing "Raindrops Keep Falling On My Head." . . . Everybody still associates Ginger Rogers with Fred Astaire, like ham & eggs and Lum and Abner, but do you know that it's been 21 years since Miss McGrath and Mr. Austerlitz did their last prancing together in "The Barkleys of Broadway." And they hadn't made a picture for ten years before that. That one was "The Story Of Vernon and Irene Castle" . . . The show "Company," which we enjoyed, has a line in it like this truism: "I have everything but freedom — which is everything."

By GARY STEVENS

SWELLINGTON: The ageless Duke is a kick in the kisser or other anatomical parts to those who seek to widen the generation gap. If a young man of say 20 doesn't respond to Ellingtonia in music projection, pity him and all his rock infested friends. For the old folks, say those who started digging the daddy of "Mood Indigo" in the Cotton Club days, how can we ever let this great American music get away from us. At the Rainbow Grill up high in the RCA Building, Edward K. and his band, not the full complement, but the "Dukeleus," instrumentally, are magnificent. The "New Orleans Suite" is powerful. Cat Anderson comes across as merely wonderful on trumpet. Ellington, himself is savoir-vivre all the way. Hooray, too, for Harry Carney on baritone sax. And who in hell (great word for the heavenly surroundings of Rainbow Grill) can resist the composer-pianist's medley. "In A Sentimental Mood" is a thing of tonal beauty. Still is, after so many years. Rufus Jones is an extraordinary drummer. "Satin Doll" defies you not to foot tap. Stay around forever, Duke; your music will.

VIP LOUNGE—September 10-October 7
King Henry Explosion; Tommy Deering & The Inner Circle (8:30 P.M. to 6 A.M.)

The magic tandem of the King and Deering has returned to the VIP by popular demand and the place is literally jammed . . . King Henry personally sets the stage with his electric appearance — hair of fire. That clues right into the contemporary musical expressions — a rock 'n roll/soul union that sets the audience into an automatic beat movement. King Henry's merry men of music are Al Randolph on bass, Joey D'Ambrosia on sax, Gene Bernard on trumpet, Johnny Piniaza on drums and the regal one on guitar . . . Tommy Deering and his Inner Circle are a strong bet for a long-terminer, if the pact hasn't already been confirmed. The unusual leader reveals his prolific musical creations, at every performance. Tommy amazingly synchronizes piano, trumpet and harpsichord, setting himself up as a triple-plus threat. He features that stunning songbird Dodie Ruffin, who moves like a leaf in the wind. In addition to her solos, you'll dig her "Let It Be Me" duetting with bassist Jerry Goodman. Jerry Zapata milks the skins for full worth, in rounding out the combo.

In this visit Kay Starr has the women out front buzzing about a silver pantsuit combination wth long front and back bib. She begins with a standard floor length floral gown, and swings into an Oklahoma bit with change into the strange "sandwich board" design. Up front are some of the standard Starr-studded ballads and rhythm tunes. The wrap-up features a bluegrass foursome called The Expedition, with which la Starr opens up with some choice down home romps, including a new and amusing "Frankie and Johnny," a round robin "Nobody's Business" and the audience (Continue on Page 26)

The "new" Supremes are superiors in this major league outing. A symbolic "cold" blue transparent curtain (special lighting effects) introduces the girls with the boom of a background drum . . . eerie, yet enchanting. The blue curtain lifts and blue cold melts as the girls warm the audience in a crescendo of choice hit songs . . . a soul introduction. Draped in kaleidoscopic sequinned gowns, they weave to the accompaniment of the Al Alvarez Ork, conducted by Gil (Continue on Page 26)

 Palmer & Layne; Harry Wham; Johnny Paul (8:30 P.M. to 4:30 A.M.)

The demand for their return was so tremendous, the management of the 'Boat has brought back the hilarious Don Palmer and Cindy Layne for a six week stanza. They are well tailored to this room and to the fun seeking audience that adores their hijinks. Their reversal of which of the sexes is the tallest provides constant howls. It's a humor jackpot when the mismatched (by accepted standards) pair fires an exchange of well-honed verbal darts. The only bruises in the vicinity are the aching sides of the happy spectators. The thoughtful Palmer & Layne provide some relaxed moments when they concentrate on instrumentals, vocals and choreo, but even then the guffaws are just tem-

RED GARTER LOUNGE
 Rita Tanner Trio; Phyllis & Bobby Sherwood (6:30 P.M. to 4:30 A.M.)

Well beyond the halfway point since bowing in last Christmas, Barry Ashton's 1970 Burlesque Baby is still sounding forth lustily, sexily and looking real good. The Ashton Girls, who proudly hail their well-endowed torsos (and why not?), are especially within the looking real good category and have the other elements in their appearances as well. The tried and true burley bits and blackouts are handled with generally howling results by little Tommy Moe Raft, one of the old timers in the game. For example, his semi-pantomime schtick in "Movie Theatre," the nebbish little man in "Getting Arrested," plus the quickies during the next to closing catchall scene are some of the best of the craft . . . Herbie Barris, another longtimer in the biz, puts his rubbery puss into gyrations and reveals his way with the lines, retorts and actions in "Getting Arrested" and "Doctor's Office" . . . Charles Vespa is a little guy who can do all the funny stuff, from his candy butcher pre-curtain

This Latin confection comes back to the 'Bird after having made a flashy exhibit some months ago for a short term engagement. Now, the "Latin Fire '71" of producers Manolo Torrente and Freddy Manjon is more torrid than before. The topless showgirls add zest to the visual portion and the dancers are featured throughout several production numbers that build from an opening electrical display to an orgiastic Cubano rite at closing curtain . . . Both Torrente and Manjon appear in the revue, Torrente with some intense Spanish-English vocals and Manjon with some fleet dancing, ed by the Gibson-Martinez Flyers, Hillarys, Latinos and the Flying Palacios (with that daring young 5 year old Raphael), each with its individual specialty . . . with the Flying Condors providing an admixture of comedy in the mid-air feats . . . Joe Gerlach completely ignores all sense of caution as he leaps from a 60 foot high perch and hurtles downward in his death defying sponge plunge . . . Señor Antonio causes many a heart to miss a beat with his swing trapeze-head balance . . . The Canestrini fascinate with their internationally-famous trampolining with riveted attention on young Marco's daredeviltry . . . No one rides a unicycle upside down on a monorail with only his teeth supporting a trapeze on which his wife works—except the Hildalys . . . Watching Le Lisa perform on her trapeze sans net makes you wonder what a nice girl like that is doing without a security web . . . The Lemke Chimps do people tricks for a tightwire, wheels and balance happening . . . DeMille exhibits daring of youth, performing a dangerous backward somersault in his tightwire act. Gigi is hypnotically garbed in a snakeskin outfit as she performs on the web . . . The delightful clown is Peluza . . . The Randels are a refreshing addition to the Big Tent with their artistry on the trampoline . . . Tanya is an unbelievable miniature pachyderm who skips, plays musical instruments and moves her 2300 lb. anatomy with the grace of a dancer . . . Vino Venito is extremely daring as split second timing separates him from injury during his knife balance challenge . . . Rena Smaha vocalizes during the Aerial Ballet, a spectacular that concentrates on a gallant gentleman propelling a mono rail with a line of 5 cuties performing on perches . . . Sandy Dobritch, Mike Hartzell and Clarence Hoffman are the ringmasters.

breaks for the funny line inserts, brings on his six curvy gals for some amusing schmoosings, duets with longtime partner, Eddie Jackson (Jackson's cakewalking is always a highlight) and has a ball along with the audience with the tootlings, songs and dances of the wee Pearce Sisters. The corpulence of Vega Maddux is another laugh grabber near the end when she goes through a dance routine with a slithery guy called "Wrigley" and even gets Durante into the act, practically "bumping him off." Durante's buddies, Jack Roth on the drums and George Finley on piano, add plenty to the overall fun structure. Carlton Hayes not only batons his orksters with precision, but is on the receiving end of many Durante barbs, working well with the master . . . Abbe Lane pours it on with her varied songware, working with two gentlemen named Garrett Lewis and Larry Billman. Her repertoire moves from special lyrics to a mod medley, with stops in between to feature pops of yesterday. One of the best production numbers she and the lads depict is an amusing flashback to the 40's. The Lane Latin belting and hip swiveling is also a definite plus. Her musical director, George del Barrio, is sharp on the cues. (Bill Willard) juste for this eye-popper, will appeal not only to the broadminded but to everyone who digs superb entertainment . . . Frederic Apcar, who conceived, produced, and directed "Casino" on a grand scale, has gone first cabin all the way—from Jean Leccia's tuneful music and Jose Luis Vinas' rich, inventive costumes, to special effects and talent . . . The Clownerama opener, with clowns cleverly displaying the show's credits, is alone enough to give The Dunes another hit, yet it segues into a psychedelic, mod dancing finish . . . Other lavish numbers are a wild Chicago sizzler complete with a dozen undraped femmes in bathtubs and a pair-pulling between topped and topless dancers, a Roman stunner with wrestling gladiators, a live Bengal tiger attacking a hapless victim, and equally live horses in a thundering chariot race capped — if that's possible — by a realistic orgy and the burning of Rome! . . . Acts spotted throughout include the Peiro Brothers with their superb juggling, and apt impressions, the marvelous Jean Leccia Singers, the show stopping Berosini Jungle Fantasy — chimpanzees, two baby gorillas, and a scene-stealing orangutan — the Berosini Risley acrobatic act, and breathtaking balancing by David & Goliath (Jerry Howard & Fred Randall) and all the handsome, talented dancers brilliantly staged and choreographed by Ron Lewis and Billy Petch . . . Earl Green and his 21 piece orchestra are magnifique. (Mary Rettig)

PERSIAN ROOM

Standard operating procedure is for Frederic Apcar to out-dazzle himself with succeeding editions of "Vive Les Girls." He's at it again with the '71 collection. From the startling gorilla opening round to the "Hide & Seek" finale, the word is fantastique as those darting lovelies of the line and curvy mannequins frame every act superbly . . . There is comedienne Elmarie Wendel, the hung-up gal whose smart material by Bob Lees and Dickson Hughes is an extra click, . . . Vest & Clark, the volatile warblers and steppers who do triple duty all the way through . . . and the Five Colombo Brothers, whose gymnastics and other amusing inserts give added zest . . . Judy Ritsko and Pat Gill are two fine figured birds who show off most of their natural plumage during some rapid rounds . . . As for the draped type of plumage, the costuming, this is another surpassing department as Jose Luis Vinas outdoes previous stunners . . . The same idea goes for choreographer Ron Lewis . . . Music by Jean Leccia, Don Hannah and Joe Lane is sounded forth with aplomb by the Tony Marillo Ork. (Bill Willard) participation oldie of "Wabash Cannonball." Naturally, the curtain tune is "Wheel of Fortune," which brings on cheers and whistles, nothing unusual for the typical Starr finish . . . The Expedition's instrumental session is a rouser with demonstration of trick five-string banjo fretting in "Foggy Mountain Breakdown," a corker of a fiddling workout by one of the southwest's champs on that instrument in the exhilarating "Orange Blossom Special." . . . Dick Curtis is rather an oddball in the funny biz department. He works up old tunes and bits of parodies, does a fine carbon of an Enid, Oklahoma radio announcer with ludicrous mishmashing of a French tune in broad twangy accent. His Indiana sequence is also broad, although not measuring up to the Okie hokie. Al Jahns Ork has a strong "Roses" overture with Don Burke's vocal and gives Miss Starr a swingy backing. Askey, creating a psychosomatic breakthrough in what is often called "The Communication Gap," where audiences are concerned. The song in motion reigns supreme with "Love Child," "Mac Arthur Park," "Baby Love," selections from Westside Story and "Exodus." Newcomer Jean Terrel's peak electrical charge was her soul rendition of the latter. She came on with elegance but socked it to 'em with fervor and enthusiasm. She had "it," she felt "it" and projected "it." Groovy Mary Wilson and Cindy Birdsong back Jean in her spotliters and take turns doing their own thing specials. . . . George Carlin, oft repeat guest on national TV shows, is a comedian to reckon with. He delivers all the audience expects. With an unorthodox philological and semantical patter, George artfully simulates satirical weather reports, news broadcasts, commercials and comic verses in a way that captures his audience from the start. Carlin is not only unique but zany. This he not only gets across but also extracts from an audience that needs and appreciates his "tickling of their zany-bone." Makes you laugh off all blues.

tic self loaded with fun and personality while staying up to the minute songwise with a program ranging from her opening "Applause" to a distinctive version of "Raindrops Keep Falling On My Head." She's in beautiful singing form notably in her lovely "Mama A Rainbow" ballad. The engaging star gets howls with her kidding with ringsiders and comments on White House visits; she has the chair presented to her by President Nixon right onstage with her! A medley of hits and her frisky choreography are other highs in one of the best Bailey outings ever . . . Co-star Satchmo and his crew, trombonist Tyree Glenn, pianist Marty Napoleon, clarinetist Joe Muranyi, & drummer Danny Barcelona, initial with their trademark "Sleepy Time Down South" and go on to delight with such typically Armstrong ditties as his "Some-day" and "Pretty Little Missy" compositions, and of course his hit "Hello Dolly" vocal, which "Dolly" Pearl also does in her segment. Both Louis' trumpet and distinctive gravelly tones are in fine shape. He and his musicians — all featured — beg off with a rousing "Saints Go Marching In." . . . They're back for the memorable finale teaming Louis A. and Pearlie Mae, a mutual admiration love feast that captivates the crowd and brings most members of it to their respective feet for the superstars delicious "Exactly Like You" duet . . . Drum great Louie Bellson conducts the splendid International Orchestra and dazzles with his pulsating percussion soloing.

Turn your home into your dream home and save ten to fifty thousand dollars over the construction and mortgage costs on a new house.

In the example above, a two-car garage was converted into a gracious living room with formal dining area and a separate family room. The old living room became an impressive foyer, plus an additional bedroom and a small sewing room. A breakfast bar was incorporated into the kitchen. The new living room included an atrium, through which the above interior photograph was shot. A final touch was the romantic courtyard and handsome double entrance doors. It's absolutely amazing how many people have their heads turned in your direction during one of those moments you wish you were an ostrich. Just as Ed Sullivan introduced your publisher on the Jerry Lewis Labor Day (Muscular Dystrophy) Telethon — and the beautiful Mary Healy asked one question, we spotted the frantic signal to rejoin the network and suddenly knew how it felt to be an idiot without a card. The preceding guests had plump choice

"idiot cards" for their "impromptu" chats. (Anybody for a mute blonde wort?) (That delicious food from Nishon's removed all frustration.) . . . Most outstanding memory of the telethon was the beauty of our youngsters here in FLV. The children troupes into the studio (KORK-TV) with their piggy bank savings and dumped the contents into a huge glass bowl. Their total was well over $3000 — without one adult penny included. (At last count, all FLV pledges topped the $75 thousand mark.) We're very grateful to all who gave . . . and that's for sure.

What is written on the blackboard is generally the choice of the day. Lucky are you if when you arrive Cioppino is ready, don't hesitate. What a delicious and luscious concoction this version of San Francisco Fisherman's Stew. It is a result of a meeting of the recipes of some terribly inventive, yet basic, Portuguese and Italian men. The combination consists of Lobster, Shrimp, Scallops, and Snapper . . . ## STARDUST

It was 1958 when the Lido spectacles began, with Donn Arden the director-choreographer, working his magic with people to bring forth what has become the epitome of the French-American successes here in Las Vegas. This edition, "Pourquoi Pas?" is so affluent and lavish. The million dollar-plus expended is obvious, as the richly caparisoned femmes flout beautiful bodies in their parades around, among, over and under the stunning settings . . . There is the opulence of the opening done with mirrors to establish the theme, "Pourquoi Pas?", the "Symphony of the Sea," the Louvre scene with theft of the Mona Lisa as helicopters fight the brigands from overhead, the "Rhapsodie Espagnole" fiesta with The Red Bordello orgy becoming a flaming inferno, and the brilliant conclusion, "London is London," featuring the scintillating Fountain of Light, the entire finale designed by Michael Knight . . . Interslicing all of this magniloquence are many highly entertaining acts . . . Rudy Cardenas, one of the most fleet and agile of jugglers . . . Heather Belbin, champion figure skater proving why she's a champ . . . The Volantes, doing impossible, breathtaking tricks on unicycles . . . Siegfried & Roy, magico to confound everyone, such as the trunk switching (shades of Houdini) and a tiger replacing Roy and a cheetah popping out instead of Siegfried . . . and the famous pickpocket Dominique, who brings up several men from the audience to the stage for still more thievery . . . Spotlighted for outstanding dances and/or singing among the production rounds are Jillian & Ron, with some fine adagio expositions, Mary Linero, Jennifer Pierson, Nicky Gorska, Tom Allison, Charles Gray, Dick Moll, Johnny Ritsko, Dan Parker and Gig Gallion . . . Madame Bluebell has achieved another success d'estime with the splendid choreos of her Bluebell Girls . . . A tip of the topper to the agility of the Arden Boy Dancers, and salutes to the 14 gorgeous torsos of Les Belles du Lido (nice faces, too!) . . . Frank Sennes is the producer, Pierre Louis-Guerin and Rene Fraday, the French Lido producers, Harvey Warren, scenic designer, costumes by Folco, original music and lyrics by Jim Harbert and J. P. Landreau and orchestrations by Harbert, Bill Stafford and Ivan Lane for the Eddie O'Neil Orchestra.
