CRISWELL PREDICTS

An Accurate Glimpse of the Future

I PREDICT that Nasser will join Farouk, Kitchner, Julius Caesar, Saladin, Cleopatra, Ptolemy, Alexander the Great and Rameses II as a national hero of Egypt. Deep on the pages of history his name will be carved, for he perpetuated Egypt at a time when Egypt could have vanished! The vortex of time can make even a master of deceit a legendary hero in his own time! Arnold Toynbee, the British Historian, ranks Nasser among the very great of the 20th century! . . . I predict that the Vivisectionists are offering to buy for experimentation a foetus (alive and breathing) from any hospital giving abortions! A double murder is then committed by the so-called Medical schools of our colleges and universities! These hapless bits of humanity are boiled, tortured or frozen at the whim of human butchers! You can expect Ralph Nader to walk into this new labyrinth of public practice! . . . I predict that the sun and the moon would have vanished long ago if they were in the reach of progressive human hands! . . . I predict that millions of fish will die and float to the beaches of California and Florida due to the spewing of human sewage into the Pacific and the Atlantic Oceans!

SHOCKING SCANDAL

I predict that a famed TV-movie star will be arrested and convicted of having three children by his own three daughters! His wife, their mother, died some time ago, and he has been able to have a free hand with his three daughters!

THE REAL VS. THE UNREAL

I predict that the last moon flight will reveal the real vs. the unreal when full reports reach the public! The new mystery of the waves, invisible over the vast moon surface, will prove the moon is inhabited but by creatures of another sonic vibration, as they were picked by radar to be solid, but unseen! You can also expect another rash of flying saucers and other unidentified flying objects very soon!

HALF REMEDIES

I predict that our Authorities will soon realize that "Half remedies never heal!" This will be in connection with the coming campus violence and the growing crime in the streets! Many of the radical groups finance their movements by theft, mugging and even bank robbing! You can expect a stiffening attitude all along the line from the voter to the police!

THE NEW MOVEMENT

I predict the new movement will gain momentum thru college and university students to collect funds to bring back our "brave boys" from Canada and Sweden (who are escaping the draft)! Both Canada and Sweden will soon deport these students for narcotics, theft, black market and male prostitution, and these collected funds will furnish legal aid and bonds.

BEWARE OF THIS FRAUD

I predict that you will beware of this fraud! A smooth talker will approach you and tell you that he will be able to get your son or daughter into a college or university under a very liberal scholarship! You pay him $500 after he shows you his vague credentials. The scholarship and the school entry papers never appear and you are out $500!

TRIBUTE TO LOHMAN

I predict that all pet lovers will pay tribute to Francis X. Lohman (Kanine Korner) for his valiant work for pets the world over. Not only is his image on T.V., his voice on radio, his words in a widely syndicated column, but his influence is felt in many unexpected places! His annual Dog Parade on Hollywood Boulevard has outgrown the Santa Claus parade in importance! Politics, religion and race are all forgotten when we parade our lovable dogs every 4th Sunday in September!

STAR OF DESTINY

I predict that the star of destiny will rise higher than ever for President Nixon, who will emerge the greatest Republican President we have ever had to hold office! Just as President Johnson emerged the greatest Democratic President, President Nixon will be head and shoulders above all Republicans!

RACIAL BETTERMENT

I predict that a national organization will make the effort to outlaw marriage, tenure in office, labor unions and all private schools and instruction under the title of "Racial Betterment." This extreme leftish group will make great inroads this coming year and cause re-examination of conscience!

FAREWELL

I predict we shall not see their like again in the entertainment world, both were Titans and wrought many changes! Edward Everett Horton, who gave comedy a new sense of direction, and Perc Westmore of make-up magic, who helped every woman and man to look just a little better than they once did! We knew both men who were unselfish in aiding humanity!

HOVERING!

I predict that the peace of the world is hovering like a bee over the flower of mankind! Any misdirection of purpose could plunge the world into a vortex of legalized murder! Read your headlines, view your TV and listen to your radio! We are living history page by page in this exciting era!

IT happened at the Sahara, the other dawning . . . Vega Maddux and a group of friends sat in the confine of the dice pit, temporarily lulled by the late hour. While Vega sang the score from "Carmen," the casino personnel listened and an escapee from a mental ward casually skirted the area, wearing an unmistakable uniform. Two guards rubbed their eyes twice — before they believed — and acted. The escapee later confessed he had a hunch — and wanted to play it!

Pat Carroll is doing a pilot for Don Fedderson, a follow-up on "My Three Sons." It will be a continuation of the life of the oldest son, his wife and triplets, who establish a new life in San Francisco. Pat is the wife of the apartment house manager (Richard Slattery). According to Pat, she and Slattery "play kind of a Min and Bill to the NOW group of youngies." Rumor has it that the TV viewer has already been sold to CBS. With the comedienne doing ten out of thirteen episodes, she'll still have time to continue her guestings on other shows.

A famous personality is reportedly collecting all debts due him to provide for his wife . . . close friends say he's been stricken by a fatal malady.

Trini Lopez will tape an Adam 12 TV viewer segment on the 19th for future tubing. The fiery singer will do a complete turnabout into a more subdued role — that of a priest . . . Trini established a record for his four days at the State Fair in Albuquerque recently, topping the 40 thousand attendance mark.

D.I. opening-nighters are still wondering if Phil Harris and Harry James were concentrating on two different people during an onstage incident.

Phil began giving a build up to a "lovely lady," whom everyone believed would turn out to be his lovely Alice. Midway thru the intro, Harry took the mike and said he would like to introduce "her." The "her" Harry announced as "the love of my life" . . . was Betty Grable!

Here's a cute "blindie" that the gamblers will appreciate. A business man from the southeast came to FLV and dropped a large sum that bordered on six digits. When he returned home he related his experience to a friend, shaking his head incredulously, wondering why it happened. Suddenly, the answer hit him and he snapped . . . "That's the last time I go to Vegas . . . with short money!"

There is such a thirst for the type of entertainment "Disney On Parade" offers, the package grossed $963 thousand for nine days at Manhattan's Madison Square Garden. The last two days of its run, the tabloids ran ads asking people not to come on speculation . . . there were no available seats.

Showboat toppers Karen and Red Coffee spend six months of every year entertaining in the Far East. Listening to the stories they brought back will convince anyone ours is still the greatest country in the world. In their travels, the Coffees discovered a certain country (necessarily nameless), where finances are so critical, mothers actually toss their infants in front of moving army vehicles. Our government must then pay the "grieving parents" a certain sum (hundreds) for the "accident." (The indigents from that unnamed country would gladly trade places with some of the citizens who want to undermine our democracy.)

There oughtta be a law . . . against door-to-door vendors leaving posted signs when people aren't at home. One cosmetic firm is inadvertently guilty of directing burglars to unguarded houses. It's a perfect way for thieves to case a potential break-in. The reps of this cosmetic firm leave a sign on the door, designating the time they called. The signs are followed by a rash of burglaries. The ladies should slip the signs under the door, out of sight!

Took another peek at Jim Bailey and caught him doing Phyllis Diller, with the original in the audience. La Diller looked more glamorous than Bailey's version and the amazing mimic was obviously surprised to note the offstage image differed drastically from his dressing room close-up of two years ago. . . . There are those who believe that Jim will one day make a hit record (he does have a voice!) and drop his FABULOUS imitations. Speaking of his mimicry, all of the Bailey characterizations should be wrapped up in a stellar tube special.

Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy have re-signed with agent Lou Irwin for a return to the club circuit. (A note of nepotism—Lou was also agent for Grace Hayes, Peter's mother, before she retired from the stage.) Peter and Mary just broke in their new act at the Detroit Athletic Club.

During her Testimonial Dinner (Oct. 2) at The Masquers, Pearl Bailey cited it as one of the most moving moments of her life. But, Ethel Waters stole the scene (as only she can) when

"MISS DESERT INN" hosted an initial and elegant cocktail party in such a charming gracious manner that I am sure she would be a worthy addition to the U.S. State Department. In fact, a beautiful girl with wholesome all-American qualities, simple and direct in approach, and lack of artifice, with expressive sincerity, she has foremost a quality of honest integrity. Couple all of that with a winning smile, she could certainly accomplish in diplomatic circles, I am sure, what some of our foremost statesmen obviously have not to date.

Anyway, Miss Jan Bruner, 5'9", 120, 36-24-36, isn't going gallivanting in politics. The winner over 250 girls in a year's search by the Desert Inn Hotel, is a lovely college coed who will act as goodwill ambassador for the noted hostelry. Not since Abe Schiller has Las Vegas produced such a winner.

Al Guzman, the personable Director of Public Relations, and members of his staff hosted the introductory soiree introducing "Miss Desert Inn." One of her essential requirements was not mere beauty but to be extremely personable and be able to converse with natural ease with people on all levels. This she did with grace. She is German-Irish, the baby in her family, majored in theatrical arts, is a versatile musician who plays several instruments, and is active in sports. When she isn't busy at the University of Nevada at Las Vegas, she will be off on promotional duties for the Desert Inn. San Diego and Los Angeles were first on her agenda. Next comes Denver, Dallas and San Francisco. That is, if the movies don't grab her in the interim.

"Mr. Wonderful" is Ed Sullivan, who was thus feted by the Thaliens at their 15th Annual Crystal Ball in Hollywood. Ruta Lee, this year's Prexy, and Debbie Reynolds (upped to Chairman of the Board) wore a dress and pants suit respectively of the same blue twinkling, sequined material. They spoke glowingly of the help received from the show world in raising the money to build the multi-million dollar Community Mental Health Center. It all began way back in 1955 when a group of movie and show people met at Jayne Mansfield's house to figure out some worthwhile project of their own. This was it. It started out to help emotionally disturbed children and has grown to make an enormous and important contribution in the Community. The show was a tribute to Ed, who has made enormous contributions to show business and the world itself in being — just what he is: "Mr. Wonderful." And a bow here to Sylvia who is "Mrs. Wonderful." Programming for the night was a direct play on Ed Sullivan's TV format. Nancy Sinatra, Jr., Debbie Reynolds — many-entertained to equal a Sullivan topper!

Another headliner was given for California's popular Governor Ronald Reagan, with Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, John Wayne, and Bob Hope, all outdoing themselves in their all-star show. Governor Reagan said, "I'm a fan." Sinatra said, "I've performed I think, in most of the countries I'm allowed to go to," and referring to his endorsement of Reagan for re-election: "I like the Governor's courage and conviction. I didn't like several things he's done in his career, but everyone makes mistakes. Take a good look . . .!" Said Reagan: "It's sheer coincidence that there's going to be a freeway through the lobby of Caesar's Palace." Dean Martin: "Sinatra's had a tough time. He was unwanted as a child and now he's

CLARK COUNTY IS CANNON COUNTRY

Senator Howard Cannon knows and works for Clark County. With 12 years seniority, he has the strength to get results, fast and effectively.

★ A key member of both the Senate Armed Forces and Space Committees, Howard Cannon has personally seen to it that the Nevada Test Site maintains its $200 million-a-year budget despite nationwide defense cutbacks.

★ Lake Mead is among Clark County's most beautiful and famous recreation centers. Senator Cannon has placed high priority on a continuing program of expansion and improvement of the Lake Mead Recreation Area. He was the first to act on the pollution threat and is working effectively to reverse the ecology threat to fishing and safe boating.

★ A senior member of the Senate Armed Forces Committee, Howard Cannon has brought a program of expansion to Nellis Air Force Base which will further increase the $6 million monthly budget there.

★ Our attractive new Federal Building in downtown Las Vegas is the result of Howard Cannon's personal fight for $4.2 million to build this project.

★ Because Howard Cannon has seniority and influence on the Senate Commerce Committee, he fought successfully for $10.3 million last year to build new roads in Clark County.

Yes, Clark County is Cannon Country, because only Howard Cannon has the seniority and Senate influence to keep bringing Clark County her fair share of Nevada's projects, payroll and prosperity.

wanted in five states." It was funtime and all very elegant. Glimpsed were: the Art Linkletters, Fred MacMurrays, Bob Stacks, Caesar Romero, Rosalind Russel and more.

Janis Joplin's (referred to often as "The Judy Garland of Rock") untimely death coming on the heels of Jimi Hendrix, all attributed to drugs, is tragic. But then the complaint in the song and music of hard rock and roll is: loneliness, unrequited love, searching, never finding, weariness, happiness for only a little while. Miss Joplin told me she didn't worry about tomorrow, or she couldn't live now. She lived on pure emotion, on the highs and lows — no levels — never on the happy medium. She was joyless or exuberant, never average-okay. She was only really happy when she was onstage. Her love affair was "them" — always them. It's sad that she died. Is spacing-out so far worth it all?

Sidney Glazier's new film, "Quacker Fortune Has a Cousin in the Bronx," starring Gene Wilder and co-starring Margot Kidder, is hauntingly human, filled with laughter and pathos. When human dignity is demeaned or subjected to derisive laughter by fellow men, such cruel behavior is degrading and sad to see. You see it in flashes as Wilder plays SINGERS come and singers go, but there is one vocalist that will be around for many years. He is Robert Goulet, who opens a four week engagement at Frontier Hotel, Oct. 22.

Known as a singer's singer in show business, Goulet has poise, personality and can hold an audience. The older he gets, the better he sounds.

A few years ago, during his local debut at the Flamingo Hotel, this pillar tagged him as "America's Matinee Idol" and the title stayed with him to this day.

Goulet is very relaxed onstage and there are not many around who can match him in showmanship. Men and women alike appreciate him.

Broadway producer Alan J. Lerner best describes the tall, good-looking baritone as the singing Clark Gable of the stage. No one doubts the claim. If you were rating top male vocalists of this era, the name of Goulet would have to be high on the list.

In this stand, Goulet will include his trademark of strolling through the audience with a hand mike crooning some 10 or more favorite standards and exchanging banter with the crowd.

Frontier Hotel Managing Director Richard Danner is very fortunate in having Goulet in his stable of stars. The dark haired singer appeals to all ages. His specialty is ballads and he sings all with authority.

Goulet is a very exciting, romantic vocalist, through his accomplished work on the Broadway stage. He refers to this city as one of the friendliest spots in the world. The Entertainment Capital Of The World has no challengers unless it's Reno or Lake Tahoe from his viewpoint.

"The expert staging combined with great audiences, the excellent musicians really inspire a performer. There is no feeling to quite match that of a successful rapport with a nightclub crowd. No Broadway ovation, no motion picture review acclaim's the same as that eyeball-to-eyeball contact with a live audience and Las Vegas visitors and residents really appreciate entertainers," said Goulet.

This marks his second engagement at the Frontier Hotel this year. Goulet has plans to produce a Broadway show after closing here.

RAMBLING AROUND — Arte Johnson is slated to join former "Laugh-In" stars Judy Carne and Goldie Hawn with his own headlining $250,000 deal at a Strip hotel . . . Tony Bennett laid out 10 grand of his own money to promote his last Caesars Palace engagement . . . Maynard Sloate is holding over Mitzi McCall and Charley Brill for another 16 weeks in "Folies Bergere" show at Tropicana Hotel . . . ONE of the nice people to work our town just has to be F.S., Jr. Need I spell out the name?

For those of you who may be wondering, it's Frank Sinatra, Jr., currently at the Circle "F" Theatre in the Frontier Hotel. The first time I caught young Frank was about 9 years ago on the Jack Benny TV show. The skit was about college life and Jack introduced young Frank to the nation for the first time. My first impression was just another off-spring of a famous person trying to cash in on the family name. The poise, phrasing, coolness just wasn't there. Quite a few guys would have given up right there and become a brain surgeon but, like his famous dad, Frank, Jr., became a band singer, and with a band that bore the same name with which Frank, Sr. made his name . . . the Tommy Dorsey Band with Sam Donahue leading. Any musician will tell you there is no better school for experience than the rough road of one nighters or singing the same thing to dance tempo night after night. Well, it paid off for F.S., Jr. Don't believe me? Drop by the Frontier and catch a man very much his own. He's got it all together.

Up the street at the Casino Theatre of the Flamingo Hotel is the man they call "The Tiger of Comedy," Jackie Gayle. Again, let's backtrack to about 1965. The place was the Blue Room of the Tropicana. Jackie was supporting the star and his name on the marquee was more of an eye test than billing but Jackie was preparing for what was to come. At that time, his manager was the mother of the late Lenny Bruce and a little of Lenny shown through in much of Jackie's mannerisms. After a few return dates, he migrated down the Strip to the Aladdin Hotel, where he was buried for a few years and more than once played to about four or five people. But the people in the know, the performers, writers, and especially the musicians, got the word to the masses and by this time Jackie had signed for the Flamingo. True, Jackie does have prepared material but he's so inventive, he takes off from whatever he is doing and goes in another direction. Reviewing Jackie Gayle is impossible as you never see the same show twice. All I can say, is for the laugh of your life, put a tiger in your tank . . . the "Tiger of Comedy" that is, Jackie Gayle at the Casino Theatre at the Flamingo Hotel.

Last week, a film company was in the Starlight Theatre at the Riviera to film Shecky Greene in action. Shecky is to have a part in the film version of the best seller, "The Love Machine." The producer of the movie was very wise and evidently a fan of Shecky's (as anyone who has seen Shecky work). You cannot give him a script and expect true Shecky. So, for the nightclub scene they filmed it where it happened and it should be one of the big highlights of the picture. One bad memory remains concerning Shecky and it wasn't his fault. It was the time he was booked on the Ed Sullivan Show and like the assembly line variety show it is, Shecky was given something like 8 or 9 minutes to do his thing. Anyone knows Shecky takes that amount of time to feel out his audience before getting a full head of steam. Now on the Johnny Carson show which is spontaneous, Shecky really shines. As I have said so many times, Shecky is the funniest man in the world with Jackie Gayle a close second. Imagine, both of them in town at the same time. Have a ball.

Still say Vic Damone going to the Riviera in a trade for Jack E. Leonard is a mistake. Vic played the Riviera before and at that time it was not his room while the Frontier is. Certain performers are suited to certain rooms and that's that. Nuff said!

SCENE Lounging . . . The lovely blonde Terri Russell, who filled in with Karen and Red Coffee at the Showboat for a few days, moved into the Flamingo to chant with Jack Bedient & The Chessmen (relief group in the lounge) . . . Call it slapstick — I love it — The Bernard Brothers are hilarious in the Landmark's "Tower Sweets Revue" . . . Sandler & Young, Phil Foster, Jackie Gayle, Joe DiMaggio, Jerry Vale, Betty Grable and Joey Bishop are just some of the celebs who were spotted in Davis & Reese's "Fun Machine" D.I. Lounge audience . . . Our Thing celebrated its fourth month in the Aladdin's Bagdad . . . Longtime favorites in the Stardust Lounge, The Kim Sisters move across the street next month to share billing with Bob Newhart at the D.I.

You may or may not see me here next week. I'm finally off on my first vacation in four years, heading for Disneyland and surrounding environs. But, look for the Christmas column in about two months. We will be reminiscing about the people met during the last twenty years and our impressions of them. Believe me, that will take two months to prepare.

come thru their new Chamber of Commerce and all complaints will be handled with dispatch . . . that the new Nixon Health Plan will make Free Public Health just that, free to every one without fees, and Doctors will be forbidden to have private practice . . . that Charles DeGaulle (the 20th century Charlemagne) will have a new political career very soon . . . that Littlestown, Pennsylvania in the heart of the beautiful Pennsylvania Dutch Country, will soon have world prominence thru a new book soon on the market.

MIGHTY MIXTURE

By GARY STEVENS

A FEELING FOR FIELDS: True, the lyrical giants of the music business, circa 1920 on, were Irving Berlin, Ira Gershwin, Lorenz Hart, Cole Porter, E. Y. Harburg, Oscar Hammerstein, Frank Loesser, Alan Lerner, Gus Kahn, Johnny Mercer, Mack Gordon, Al Dubin, Otto Harbach, not necessarily in that order. Sheldon Harnick and Steve Sondheim, inductees into the mythical club are relative newcomers. In among the male plumage there is an outstanding word bird, Dorothy Fields. For some reason, sex may be it or maybe she was just taken for granted, the lady hasn't been given her just due. If the Women's Liberation Movement has a subsidiary division that dotes on recognition then surely Dot rates a special spotlight. There seems to be some ligature among ladies these days. This being the case — one of the aggressive skirts should propose the works of Miss Fields for re-examination and subsequently, re-evaluation. She's 65 years old, an age when the frail have already surrendered and the sturdy are often only occupied collecting Social Security stipends. This brilliant mind, in tune with the times, in touch with the world, is still writing. This season she'll be represented on Broadway in collaboration with Cy Coleman in a musical version of the life of Mrs. Roosevelt — titled "Eleanor."

Dorothy Fields was born in show business, so her talents are probably inherited. Dad was Lew Fields of the immortal Weber and Fields, music hall greats of a bygone era. Brother was Herbert Fields, a potent librettist for the Broadway musicals. The lady of the lyrics lived and breathed the business and she reacted.

For 45 years, give or take one or two, Miss Fields has been a craftswoman. She has said beautiful things in rhyme. To the music of Jimmy McHugh, Jerome Kern and yes, Fritz Kreisler, she has been poignant and clever. All through her career she has been an original. There are only so many words in the language, but nobody will ever say that Dorothy Fields was guilty of plagiarizing a comma. Collaborating with Arthur Schwartz, Sigmund Romberg, Morton Gould, Burton Lane and more recently with Albert Hague and Cy Coleman, Miss Fields has been facile, deft and functional.

In a man's world . . . first Tin Pan Alley, then the legit musical or topical revue, motion pictures and back to a later Broadway, Dorothy has competed often and well. Her place in the ranks is firm, but unheralded. Not too long ago, at the Polo Lounge of the Beverly Hills Hotel, where the greats and the phonies of the trade share space and drink it up, the late Bob Russell, an old friend and a superb lyricist, said in discussing songwriters: "When you see Dorothy Fields, tell her I love her. She's so great. One of the best, really. Too bad she's not better known to the public."

When one thinks of "Fieldsie's" contributions to American popular songs, you literally skim from one to another. "I Can't Give You Anything But Love, Baby" ("dream awhile, scheme awhile; you're sure to find — happiness, and I guess, all those things you've always pined for"), "Remind Me" ("when your charms begin to blind me I'll simply tie my hands behind me"), "Don't Blame Me" ("blame your kiss, just as sweet as a kiss can be"), "The Way You Look Tonight" ("with each word your tend-

If there's such a thing as “hip nostalgia” that's what Phil Harris and Harry James are selling by the case-load. Their “with-it” attitude toward early times is like the beverage of the same name, mellow, choice, and intoxicating . . . Phil took out a personal patent on rakish style long before some latter day show biz swingers quit teething, and his wit, timing, and rhythm sense seem to grow with the years. He's the smartly dressed, fun kind of guy everyone would like

Phyllis & Bobby Sherwood; King Henry Explosion (8:30 P.M. to 6 A.M.)

It's Sherwood Forest again in the VIP Lounge as Phyllis and Bobby provide fun and music for fans who are hungry for their entertainment fare. The duo is well-versed in highlighting a full, well-rounded program, accented with the timing that makes everything a seemingly spontaneous offering . . . that's showmanship! Bobby has an innate sense of comedy that makes him take a back seat to no one. He and Phyllis are crowd pleasers with their tonal selections, namely “Raindrops” and “Jennifer Thompson.” They're back with their closely knit trio of Joey Darro on piano, Lou Lalli on drums and Dennis Havens on bass. Lou and Joey double on vocals . . . King Henry cuts a vivid picture with his hair of fire, and music to match—setting it contemporary, right-on! The regal one's guitar is abetted in the soul/rock 'n roll blending by Al Randolph on bass, Joey D'Ambrosia on sax, Gene Bernard on trumpet, Johnny Piniaza on drums. The King and his courtly musicians stir up a musical selection that works the spectators into a waving sea of humanity . . . This is a good double bill for anyone who is out for an evening of fun and appreciation.

The quiet elegance, the complete professionalism of Patti Page is so evident this trip. There's something about her vocalog, also, that makes the routining most listenable to all of her afficianados—which are many. It is a fine mixture of new and old ballading, with “Snowbird” and “He Ain't Heavy,” a couple of representative current tunes and the “Dream” coupling and the perennial “Tennessee Waltz” winning fine hands for the evergreen division. Her longtime pianist-conductor Rocky Cole comes in for an inning with a guttural shout of “One of Those Things” and otherwise

International favorite Juliet Prowse is having a ball as the International's "Mame." Audiences are giving her and the popular musical comedy a big welcome back. The show's entire cast, all veterans in their roles, is uniformly splendid, with Anne Francine a standout as "Mame's" witchy actress friend "Vera Charles." A dream part it is but Miss Francine gets that extra measure out of it that steals scenes . . . Other scene stealers are remarkable young Mark Savage, playing the ten year old nephew "Patrick Dennis" and Jane Connell as "Agnes Gooch," the secretary who learns how to live from "Mame" and "Vera." . . . Joe Gerlach completely ignores all sense of caution as he leaps from a 60 foot high perch and hurtles downward in his death defying sponge plunge . . . Señor Antonio causes many a heart to miss a beat with his swing trapeze-head balance . . . Bobby's Chimps offer people schticks on the pin wheel and trampoline, and inject humor in acrobatics and ethnic dance . . . The Canestrellis fascinate with their internationally-famous trampolining with riveted attention on young Marco's daredeviltry . . . No one rides a unicycle upside down on a monorail with only his teeth supporting a trapeze on which his wife works — except the Hildalys . . . Watching Le Lisa perform on her trapeze sans net makes you wonder what a nice girl like that is doing without a security web . . . Gigi is hypnotically garbed in a snakeskin outfit as she performs on the web . . . The delightful clown is Peluza . . . The Randels are a refreshing addition to the Big Tent with their artistry on the trampoline . . . Tanya is an unbelievable miniature pachyderm who skips, plays musical instruments and moves her 2300 lb. anatomy with the grace of a dancer . . . Vino Venito is extremely daring as split second timing separates him from injury during his knife balance challenge . . . Rena Smaha vocalizes during the Aerial Ballet, a spectacular that concentrates on a gallant gentleman propelling a mono rail with a line of 5 cuties performing on perches . . . The crowd relishes his trademarks such as "Smoke, Smoke, Smoke," "The Preacher And The Bear" and "That's What I Like About The South," but gets an equal charge out of his "A Boy Named Sue," country & western medley saluting his Nashville heritage, and a lovely new song, written for him, titled "She Believed In Me." . . . The Harry James Band backs Phil as well as thrilling in a powerhouse instrumental segment in which "Blues For Sales," "Gigi," and "Trumpet Blues," featuring Harry's hot horn with the band brass, are standouts . . . James' drummer Sonny Payne and saxophonist Corky Corcoran come in for special kudos . . . The Kids Next Door, and handsome, attractively dressed kids they are, sing and move great and add an ideal fresh young touch to the show. Their spirited "Guiding Light" spiritual and tuneful, very funny spoof on "Hair" are notable delights . . . Adding to the party atmosphere is an amusing Harris-James chat interlude, with both famed stars front stage seated on cushioned stools, and a rollicking "Chesapeake Bay" finale, with a steamboat paddle-wheeling on the back screen, featuring the entire company . . . Drop over to the D.I., and have a ball with Phil and Harry!

ceived, produced, and directed "Casino" on a grand scale, has gone first cabin all the way—from Jean Leccia's tuneful music and Jose Luis Vinas's rich, inventive costumes, to special effects and talent . . . The Clownerama opener, with clowns cleverly displaying the show's credits, is alone enough to give The Dunes another hit, yet it segues into a psychedelic, mod dancing finish . . . Other lavish numbers are a wild Chicago sizzler complete with a dozen undraped femmes in bathtubs and a pair-pulling between topped and topless dancers, a Roman stunner with wrestling gladiators, a live Bengal tiger attacking a hapless victim, and equally live horses in a thundering chariot race capped — if that's possible — by a realistic orgy and the burning of Rome! . . . Acts spotted throughout include the Peiro Brothers with their superb juggling, and apt impressions, the marvelous Jean Leccia Singers, the show stopping Berosini Jungle Fantasy — chimpanzees, two baby gorillas, and a scene-stealing orangutan — the Berosini Risley acrobatic act, and breath-taking balancing by David & Goliath (Jerry Howard & Fred Randall) and all the handsome, talented dancers brilliantly staged and choreographed by Ron Lewis and Billy Petch . . . Earl Green and his 21 piece orchestra are magnifique. Standard operating procedure is for Frederic Apcar to out-dazzle himself with succeeding editions of "Vive Les Girls." He's at it again with the '71 collection. There is comedienne Elmarie Wendel, the hung-up gal whose smart material by Bob Lees and Dickson Hughes is an extra click, . . . Vest & Clark, the volatile warblers and step-pers who do triple duty all the way through . . . and the Five Colombo

Brothers, whose gymnastics and other amusing inserts give added zest . . . Judy Ritsko and Pat Gill are two fine figured birds who show off most of their natural plumage during some rapid rounds . . . As for the draped type of plumage, the costuming, this is another surpassing department as Jose Luis Vinas outdoes previous stunners . . . The same idea goes for choreographer Ron Lewis . . . Music by Jean Leccia, Don Hannah and Joe Lane is sounded forth with aplomb by the Tony Marillo Ork.

plies his chores with the Al Jahns band very effectively. His "Patti Page Overture" is an opener for the Jahns men to swing neatly, just as all of the backing is performed on the Cole charts later on . . . Leonard Barr's kooky one-liners, gargled in a "take-it-or-leave-it" manner is taken well by outfronters for laugh after laugh. One of the old vaudeville funnymen still around, Barr reveals that heritage with delivery and choice of jokes. It's no surprise to hear the latter is #1 on the best selling charts because it's a numero uno electrifier with the Frontier crowds awarding it every-show ovations . . . Additional high points are Miss Ross's sly "Is That All There Is?" parody, tied in with her witty chatting anent career beginnings . . . The Blackberries are a delightful background vocal chorus for Miss Ross's songs, and Marvin Laird is her accompanist and musical director . . . John Byner, the charming, blessedly understated young comedian, gets huge laughs with that soft sell. His material is original and very, very funny featuring such choice bits as his impressions of Ed Sullivan interviewing an Italian golf champ with the aid of an interpreter, half-time marching bands on a high school football telecast, and well-known figures in unlikely roles, including "Tonto" as an interior decorator and Dino as an airline pilot . . . swishing in "Movie Theatre," and plenty of other risible inserts along the way . . . Walker is the handsome straight, six foot three, who belts out production rounds as well as shooting lines here and there for the comics . . . Angelique, a tall blonde peeler, has extra dimensions where it counts. Her divestiture down to zero has the guys gasping, but her warbling in a couple of numbers doesn't equal the grade with the body displays . . . Contrast in style and technique in this art form is brunette Astradella, whose figure is outa sight, if not outa space. Very sexy, this femme, with her symbolic plastic appendages becoming as fascinating to watch as a nest of cobras . . . Adagio team Manfred & Marino have excellent bodies, revealed in a very open way during a well-received exhibit in the "Tropical Village" number . . . The Lloyd Lambert costumes on the romping Ashton nudes are cunningly designed to show the anatomy . . . Tommy Hodges is responsible for the solid charts, performed with brio by the Paul Lowden Sextet.

French-American successes here in Las Vegas. This edition, "Pourquoi Pas?" is so affluent and lavish. The million dollar-plus expended is obvious, as the richly caparisoned femmes flout beautiful bodies in their parades around, among, over and under the stunning settings . . . There is the opulence of the opening done with mirrors to establish the theme, "Pourquoi Pas?," the "Symphony of the Sea," the Louvre scene with theft of the Mona Lisa as helicopters fight the brigands from overhead, the "Rhapsodie Espagnole" fiesta with The Red Bordello orgy becoming a flaming inferno, and the brilliant conclusion, "London is London," featuring the scintillating Fountain of Light, the entire finale designed by Michael Knight . . . Interslicing all of this magniloquence are many highly entertaining acts . . . Rudy Cardenas, one of the most fleet and agile of jugglers . . . Heather Belbin, champion figure skater proving why she's a champ . . . The Volantes, doing impossible, breathtaking tricks on unicycles . . . Siegfried & Roy, magico to confound everyone, such as the trunk switching (shades of Houdini!) and a tiger replacing Roy and a cheetah-popping out instead of Siegfried . . . and the famous pick-pocket Dominique, who brings up several men from the audience to the stage for still more thievery . . . Spotlit for outstanding dances and/or singing among the production rounds are Jillian & Ron, with some fine adagio expositions, Marya Linero, Jennifer Pierson, Nicky Gorska, Tom Allison, Charles Gray, Dick Moll, Johnny Ritsko, Dan Parker and Gig Gallion . . . Madame Bluebell has achieved another success d'estime with the splendid choreos of her Bluebell Girls . . . A tip of the topper to the agility of the Arden Boy Dancers, and salutes to the 14 gorgeous torsos of Les Belles du Lido (nice faces, too!) . . . Frank Sennes is the producer, Pierre Louis-Guerin and Rene Fraday, the French Lido producers, Harvey Warren, scenic designer, costumes by Folco, original music and lyrics by Jim Harbert and J. P. Landreau and orchestrations by Harbert, Bill Stafford and Ivan Lane for the Eddie O'Neil Orchestra.

plus production warbling. Manjon has an adagio whirl with Clarita Diaz and a sizzling bullwhip flagellation dance in the closing voodoo dazzler, both revealing his smooth technique. His choreography for all the dance numbers ranges from pedestrian to outstanding . . . Norma Reyes startles with her topless torching, moving sinuously as she chants her Latin wares in husky tones. She also heightens interest in some production ambles, nearly nude and having a walk that causes male pulses to race . . . Special guest stars Margie Ravel & Hector de San Juan are devastating in their incredibly rapid footwork, de San Juan in particular. Miss Ravel is a brunette doll, moving sexily through the perpetual motion routines as both change costumes in cleverly devised on and off dances, always leaving one of the pair onstage to keep the fire lit . . . Very spectral are the settings of Maria Casanova, with high chroma palette and opting for electrical effects throughout . . . Jimmy Wallace leads the supercharged septet, with added percussion effects by Walfredo.

around, but top men Michel Gyar-mathy and Maynard Sloate have worked it out so that everywhere you look, something entrancing is taking place! This kaleidoscopic dazzler is chiefly populated by richly costumed men and women in the splendidly choreographed scenes by Tony Charmoli, seven in all. When the Tibor Rudas Dancers finish their incredibly fleet Can Can, there is only one equal to that display, more Rudas Dancers in the "Marriage au Tyrol" . . . Mitzi McCall and Charlie Brill are devastating as they verbally wrestle with some highly entertaining bickering that hits the audience on home ground . . . Balancing feats of The Martys are electrifying, interspersed with funny biz . . . Gus Augspurg indisputably has one of the most engaging acts of its kind, introducing his Girl Friends, a Rhesus monkey and Gibbon baboon, who absolutely convulse everyone with their people-shines . . . The humorous Spanish trio of Pompoff Thedy Family has some ridiculous musical and sight gags in an action potpourri filled with laughs from start to finish . . . The juggling of Valente Valente is fascinating on two counts — the boy and girl both engage in nifty tricks, particularly with pingpong balls . . . Vassili Sulich is one of the better solo dancers around today and his adagio with Stevie Danik, both nearly nude, in "Feast of the Spider" confirms it . . . Moving out from the Tropicana Danc- ers, the Tropicana Boys and Les Mannequins are four enchanting Loreleis, Felicia Atkins, Joyce Grayson, Monica Lind and the beautiful voice of Bonnie Avenia . . . The Randy Van Horne Singers add special effects to the music with their harmonies . . . Special credits are deserved by Gyarmathy for scenery and costumes; production coordination by Paul Szigety and Larry Grayson; original music by Henri Betti of Paris with lyrics by Johnny Bradford; musical arrangements by Jerry Fielding . . . Si Zentner decisively guides the intricate music cues from the pit.

THAT'S FOR SURE

she said that Pearl deserved the salute. She stated that Pearl belonged "on top of the mountain . . . but the top of the mountain can be cold . . . and can be lonely." Additional words advised all to "remember there is peace and happiness in the valley as well." The standing ovation Ethel received was the only such tribute of its kind that evening.

Ask anyone in the cast of "Mame" at the International . . . Juliet Prowse is exhausting . . . exhausting them, that is. This gal has energy to match her fiery hair. She's up bright and early every day, puts in a few rounds of tennis (or tows four carloads out to Warm Springs for a picnic) and supervises the troupe in stretch classes for one half hour before the first show, every night. Last week, they had a "Bring your own dish" gourmet party. Juliet made the grape leaves and Austin Colyer the fish specialty. It was a Roman feast . . . Next on the agenda is their private Halloween Eve party. Each has to improvise a costume that represents a line from the play . . . The ultimate result has the star's happy pattern the theme of the entire cast.

Charlotte Ford hosted a dinner party for Ann-Margret and Roger Smith in N. Y. Guests included the Walter Matthaus (filming "Plaza Suite"), Joe DiMaggio, the Hal Princes, Stephen Sondheim and Ron Field. According to "C. C. & Co." co-producer Allan Carr, Ann-Margret currently has the inside track to do the original Anne Baxter "Applause" role on the screen.

Ed Nigro's dotter Jackie is with Frankie Fanelli's group at the Sahara's Casbar. But, her dad is not General Nigro of the Sahara-Nevada Corp. Her dad is one of the Top-notchers, long famous in show biz. Jackie's parents flew in for a surprise visit with their talented offspring last weekend.

When Bob Ennis decided to withdraw from show biz completely and dedicate himself to matters religious, we were among those who doubted the permanence of the transition. (Bob was Rusty Warren's secretary/assistant, as well as dancer/actor. The grease paint has apparently won out for we learned that Bob is in the Robert Wise production of "The Baby Maker," soon to be released by National General.

FLV readers in Miami will be able to attend our own Criswell's program in the Dade County Auditorium on October 30th (8 p.m.). The country will be seeing him on the Mike Douglas, Dick Cavett, David Frost, Merv Griffin and Johnny Carson tubings within a month. He will also be guest speaker at the Publishers Convention in N. Y., November 6th . . . the same date Steve de Pass presents his concert at N. Y.'s Town Hall.

Sonny Liston has been offered two fights . . . one with Argentina's Oscar Bonavena in Philly . . . the other with ex-champ Jimmy Ellis in Louisville.

Does Trop casino exec Jackie Fields know that his delightful dotter Michele has decided that Doug Daniel (of St. Petersburg, Fla.) is the one to share the bridal path with her?

There are those who believe that Perry Como is not too happy about playing another nightclub date this year (November 10-International) and that Barbara Streisand doesn't want to follow her Nov-Dec. Riviera date with a back-to-back stint at the International. If they both pulled out of their Big "I" Fall dates, the management would undoubtedly extend "Mame" through those months.

FABULOUS Notes . . . A bad case of the flu delayed Art Carney's International opening until the 29th. . . One of FLV's favorite comedians reportedly suffered a "mild" heart attack last week. . . Lou Tavelman underwent brain surgery on the 9th.

Patrons are converting the CP Cleopatra's Barge moat into a wishing well with their tossed coins. . . Gladys Knight & The Pips upped their International lounge opening when appendicitis ruled Gary Puckett out of the spotlight. . .

According to a release—"the billboard stretched across two buildings on Broadway shows Ann-Margret and Joe Namath embracing in the nude—but in good taste." . . . Alice Faye, Joe DiMaggio, Betty Grable and Bernie Rothkopf in the audience for the Phil Harris/Harry James D. I. opener. . .

Actor Jay Robinson, who portrayed "Caligula" in "The Robe," into Bette Davis' "Bunny O'Hare" flick. . . Emmy winner Mike Constantine relaxed at CP for a few days. . . Atlantic City Elks sacrificed their "Playground Of The World" to vacation at our Entertainment Capital Of The world. . . Tour agencies now sending masses from other ports, once considered top resort areas. . .

Liza Minnelli's heart throb Rex Kramer rehearsing her new act for that Riv opening on the 21st. . . Former CP Chief Accountant Mary French upped to Kings Castle Comp-troller. . . Sahara Tahoe Resident Manager Bob Bradley—new Prexy of Utah-Nevada Hotel/Motel Association. . . Jan Bruner, "Miss Desert Inn," invited to return to Ellay for appearances on the Dinah Shore Show and three other syndicated TV viewers.

Attendees of the Awards Banquet Dinner of the Hughes Invitational Golfer were scheduled for some unexpected film fare at the Frontier, October 16. Tommy Moe Raft is the hero of the piece, with beautiful Janet Boyd (both of the Slipper's Ashton show) appearing in every girl-type role. The plot has Tommy, a janitor, dreaming about hitting the pro circuit and winning.

The Service League hosts the "1971 AutoRama" at the Convention Center's Rotunda, October 30-November 1. Top prize is a '71 auto, with the winning ticket drawn on the final day. Proceeds support the League's charities. . . We'll see you there . . . and that's for sure.

GOING HOLLYWOOD

an independent good-natured Irish oaf, who naively and without rancor admits he couldn't get past the fifth grade in school. He delights in the simple pleasure of merely being himself. He is used at times by those who feel superior, but whose actions belie their pretensions, to reveal a far lower level. The oaf shows honest class where the so-called upper class herein shows complete ignorance of what "class" means. The girl, a coed at Trinity College has an affair with the oaf for kicks, and therein lies the story. "Quackser Fortune" triumphs over conformity by refusing to permit himself to become industrialized, computerized and standardized. And in the end he lives happily. How many do?

The original screenplay by Dublin-born Gabriel Walsh demanded authenticity and it was decided to film "Quackser Fortune" in and around Dublin. Director Waris Hussein, who had been selected by Mr. Glazier and Mr. Wilder because of his sensitive work both for films and television, led a three-week search for the best locales. At the same time, Mr. Wilder, one of the most meticulous of actors in his preparation for a role, spent weeks absorbing the ambiance of Dublin and acquiring an amazingly accurate Irish accent.

In order to obtain as much of the flavor and uniquely Irish scenery of Dublin and its surrounding countryside as possible, the tasks of filming was divided between a main and a secondary unit. In this manner it was possible to include the streets of Dublin, the dock area, the pubs, the homes, etc., all designed to capture on film the feeling of the present in conflict with the past. Which adds up to genuine excitement and indulgence to us in the theater. Here is a very entertaining motion picture, a Universal Studios release.

Miss Bette Davis has just started her 100th motion picture, American International's "Bunny O'Hare," in which she stars. Now being filmed in Albuquerque, New Mexico, it is the most active of all Miss Davis' roles. During the first two days she has hitched a ride with an escaped convict, Ernest Borgnine, worked out on five gymnastic contraptions at a playground to become physically fit to rob banks, has robbed one, and has made a getaway on a motorcycle with Borgnine, right through the crowded Winrock Shopping Mall.

Forty years after her first film, "Bad Sister," for Universal, Miss Bette Davis is on just the second "location" of her career. All of "Bunny O'Hare" is being shot in New Mexico, with producer-director Gerd Oswald guiding Miss Davis at a breathless pace through a breathless chase. Norman T. Herman co-produces, from a story by Stanley Z. Cherry, with screenplay by Cherry and Coslough Johnson. Executive producers are James H. Nicholson and Samuel Z. Arkoff. And That's Hollywood!

MIGHTY MIXTURE

erness grows — tearing my fears apart and that laugh that wrinkles your nose touches my foolish heart") and "I'm In The Mood For Love" ("simply because you're near me") make more than an ample case for her artistry. There are lesser known contributions as per "I'll Buy You A Star" and "Where Am I Going" that cling to the memory.

Profound impact, that's what Dorothy Fields has had on Tin Pan Alley, the stage, the movie screen, etc. She deserves plaudits, a toast, a kiss, whatever.

CRISWELL PREDICTS YOUR NEXT TEN YEARS

CRISWELL PREDICTED:

The Assassination of Martin Luther King
The Assassination of President John F. Kennedy
The Assassination of Robert F. Kennedy
That Lyndon Johnson Would Not Seek Re-election!

$3.95
Illustrated

THESE—AND 87% OF HIS PREDICTIONS HAVE COME TRUE.

During the time since Criswell's first book Criswell Predicts To The Year 2000! was published, his astounding record of accuracy has gained him an audience numbering in the millions.

Appearances on Johnny Carson's Tonight Show; on The Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin Shows — and many others — have made his name the center of much discussion — and, at times, controversy.

His first book was a "Journal of The Future" covering the next thirty years until the date Criswell Predicts the world as we know it will end — August 18, 1999!

This book is more immediate. In these pages Criswell predicts the events that will befall America and the world during the decade of the 1970's. He also answers the 101-questions most often asked him about the next ten years. These predictions will affect us all, Criswell says — and if his record of 87% accuracy continues, then every person in the world has a personal stake in what Criswell predicts in this volume!
