THESE—AND 87% OF HIS PREDICTIONS HAVE COME TRUE.

During the time since Criswell's first book Criswell Predicts To The Year 2000! was published, his astounding record of accuracy has gained him an audience numbering in the millions.

Appearances on Johnny Carson's Tonight Show; on The Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin Shows — and many others — have made his name the center of much discussion — and, at times, controversy.

His first book was a "Journal of The Future" covering the next thirty years until the date Criswell Predicts the world as we know it will end — August 18, 1999!

This book is more immediate. In these pages Criswell predicts the events that will befall America and the world during the decade of the 1970's. He also answers the 101-questions most often asked him about the next ten years. These predictions will affect us all, Criswell says — and if his record of 87% accuracy continues, then every person in the world has a personal stake in what Criswell predicts in this volume!

I WILL POINT THE WAY for a safe, secure 1972! I predict that the key word for the year of 1972 is "Courage" from the Shinto Book Of Years! From San Diego to Bangor, Maine all Americans will hew their course in the coming checkerboard of nights and days to the one word "Courage"! I predict that our President will be always unafraid, with unshakable resolution in the face of many adversities and come thru the ordeal of 1972 unflinchingly bold as a hawk! I predict that the patriotic ability of each and every American will result in our living recklessly, snatching victory out of the jaws of danger with no such word as compromise in our vocabularies! We will move with the courage of our convictions that we are the greatest nation History ever produced for Fortune favors the bold! When the records are written of this generation they will speak of our fearless minds, our positive attitudes by looking danger in the face and upholding our finest traditions! We will be unmoved by fear with a bold disregard for danger and move steadily ahead! Stand by, 1972, for here we come! In the Shinto Book of Years, our clearly defined future is ahead! There will be a period of earthquakes, tidal waves, hurricanes, tornadoes, heavy rains, bitter cold and intensive heat! These will be but tokens from Mother Nature to show that there still is a greater destructive power than mere man! Yes, for 1972 I will point the way ahead for you and you and you!

FRONT PAGE ITEMS OF THE FUTURE

I predict that altho many investors have been shaken by the fluctuating stock market, they will be calmed by the good news out of Washington in March! Altho the Market was soon riding to the magical peak of the Dow Jones 1000, it has been slowed by profit taking and the inability to plan ahead! We have reached the plateau just as we did in 1939, and the increased economy will be derived from the manufacture of war materials for other nations! Again, America will become the arsenal of democracy as in 1939 and 1940! Front page items to appear in your future in the years of 1972 and 1973!

THE UNITED NATIONS

Just as the League of Nations carried its own executioner, I predict that the United Nations will come to a sudden and dramatic end! When the Communist Bloc can no longer profit they will withdraw in a body and America will lower the curtain overnight! The debating society without power will fade into oblivion and then will come the real power struggle! Two Chinas cannot exist! Two Germany's cannot exist! Just as two Cubas cannot exist in our hemisphere! Curtains, the UN!

THE END OF VIETNAM

You can expect the Liberals in Congress to fight the end of the Vietnam War as it robs them of a base of political operation! I predict that only one base in Vietnam will be manned until the complete pull out of every American by late Spring! Soon the last G.I. will be home from the Vietnam War!

BACKSTAGE BATTLE!

I predict that many Governors of many states will soon be involved in a backstage battle of great intensity and bitterness! The number one fight will concern welfare frauds and the second fight will concern the problem of school busing! One will be-

HAS anyone told the full story of the incident that sidelined Perry Como? FABULOUS was informed . . . "Perry was taping his Dec. 9 TV Special. In the particular segment involved, he said he needed extra light. He requested it three times . . . but didn't get it. He was onstage, set to finish the last five minutes. At that moment, there was only one pinspot on his face and he was standing on a point where two portable stages were rolled together.

"AS Perry put his weight on one foot to walk away, a stagehand (on musical cue) pulled the other half of the stage away . . . and it just wasn't there when Perry shifted to the other foot. He fell three feet. The doctor explained it was too short a fall for the reflexes to brace the body, especially an unexpected plunge into darkness. Contrary to Old Man Rumor, no second surgery was scheduled, simply because there was no first. It's hoped the pressure of the cast will re-set the knee cap. The cast will be worn three months, followed by a brace for at least 12 weeks.

"RESTING in his Florida home, Perry hopes to return to Burbank (In a wheelchair — if necessary) to complete the final five minutes of taping."

Johnnie Ray has signed a Flamingo pact for eight weeks in 1972, dates to be determined by mid-December. Johnnie taped an ABC Special for Ilson & Chambers Productions, "20th Century Follies." It encompasses a light look at this century and its milestones, beginning with the 1950's. The singer's hectic schedule calls for a N.Y. concert with Woody Herman on the 26th. While in the east, he's being paged for Mike Douglas and Johnny Carson TV viewers.

June Allyson and Alan King also taped the "20th Century Follies." King, opening at the Sands next week, announced he will co-star with Lena Horne in a Theatre-In-The-Round show at the Deauville in Miami next year. La Horne fans will be delighted to see her back where she belongs — in front of the public. When are our entertainment moguls going to bring her back here?

At deadline, a press conference was called to announce Slappy White's plans to bid for the Vice Presidency. Can't you just picture Slappy in the White House (it was named after him!), presiding over a cabinet that includes Jack E. Leonard, Sheeky Greene and Don Rickles!

Long-distanced with Woody Woodbury, who was dashing off to do a convention date for the Amana Refrigeration Company in Illinois. Woody taped a series with Julius Boros and Lee Trevino to be composited by NBC-TV for theatres. He is now in pre-production with "Stillwater," working title of the flick he'll begin shooting in early December. Woody plans a total of eight pictures, all for family viewing.

Long-distanced also with a very enthusiastic Trini Lopez, who has discovered the art of kegling and has taped a segment for the "Celebrity Bowling" TV viewer. His "Reluctant Heroes" tubes on ABC Movie Of The Week, on the 23rd. The fiery Trini also taped a guesting on Johnny Mann's "Stand Up & Cheer," as well as one for "Juvenile Jury" (children ask questions of the stars). In his spare time, Señor Lopez is etching two albums for Capitol — one for Latin American countries — and one for the states. Still on the emoting trail, he included a recent taping of an "Adam 12" segment.

Chicago in Las Vegas . . . Gary Naseef has finally released word on plans for his New Year's Eve production. He has reserved both the North Hall (90,000 square feet) and Rotunda of the Convention Center. Hats, favors, et al will be handed out in the Hall, where a gourmet buffet will greet the revelers. Lounge acts will perform on a stage there until the Naseef Witching Hour of 11 P.M. Then, the sliding doors will open into the Rotunda where the fantastic Chicago group will make way for 1972. Tickets are $12.50 each (all for adults). Naseef plans to petition parents to give the ducats to their offspring as Christmas presents.

Ann-Margret and spouse Roger Smith greeted friends and press at a cocktail party after the star's triumphant opening night Hilton performance. When our distaff reviewer Mary Rettig remarked she'd been enjoying a watch of A-M's progress since the star's first major FLV appearance, with George Burns, Annie flipped "And I was seven at the time!"

Dwayne Hickman and his assistant Roberta Boschetto have resigned from their publicity-entertainment posts at the Landmark Hotel. They plan to open a local branch office of Holland, Rothman, Hickman & Assoc., an Advertising/P.R. agency with national accounts. The former "Dobie Gillis" (Continued on Page 30)

JERRY Lewis' new motion picture plans is to star in "The Day The Clown Cried." It is certainly Oscar winning material for Jerry. I first read this marvelous script when Tod Jonson, associated with Paul Mart Productions, brought it to me to read. That was a few years back. At that time, Paul and Tod were tremendously enthused because Milton Berle was to star, with the picture backed and made in Yugoslavia. A girl who had then recently visited the gas oven at Dachau had come back and written the story. It is a very moving drama of a clown imprisoned there to make the children laugh and stop crying. The clown's duty was leading the unknowing children to the gas ovens, so they wouldn't be frightened and alarm the countryside with their screams. The clown would leave them at the door. However, he fell in love with one tiny tot, and in the end led her by the hands inside to also meet death.

The film would have been great for Milton, with all its pathos and humor, but Milt and the company insisted on a certain young director whom the money backers would not okay. It was shelved. Jerry's great love for and understanding of children is world-wide known. His yearly telethons raise millions for Muscular Dystrophy — all combined with his sensitivity and special talents makes him a natural to play the Clown. I hear it is to roll after the first of the year. (I also hear Milton Berle will star in "The Day the Clown Laughed.")

Movies you should see, if you can take life in the raw with stark realism. But also, the beauty of seldom photographed parts of the world. Paul Newman both stars in and expertly directs "Sometimes A Great Notion" for Universal Studios. Filmed in the tall timbers of the northwest, the scenery is majestic and, at times, breathtaking in its beauty. Prepare to see a man drown before your eyes while his best friend right there can't save him. And there's so much, much more. Michael Sarazin emerges a new star in this one, based on the novel by Ken Kesey.

Warner Brothers presents Richard Harris in "Man In Wilderness," and his will to survive after being clawed to the point of death by a grizzly bear. Historically accurate, it is filmed in the virgin wilderness of the northwest with an awesome beauty that is initial on the big screen. The story is early 1800's when it was inhabited by the savage and hostile Arikara Indians. John Huston heads an expedition of trappers who leave the wounded Harris behind to die. Henry Wilcoxon as Chief Red Thorn is believable. Seeing a native Indian woman give birth is one of the many unforgettable sequences in this blood-stirring picture of human predators who create their own fates.

I was happy to see Vic Damone (my choice) win the "Most Outstanding Male Singer" Award in the FABULOUS Stellar Awards, saluting stars of Live Entertainment. Victor is one of the great natural voices — too long unhailed.

K.N.B.C.'s party at the Los Angeles Press Club showed real effort to entertain. It was cleverly decorated wall to wall. Even the patio, with its huge dimensions, was decorated with wishing wells and drink stands, while inside a hard rock group played for dancing. During intermissions, solo musicians and singers entertained. There was a lavish buffet and the staff of KNBC was on hand to see that everyone had a marvelous time.

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

Lights of Las Vegas

By PHIL SOLOMON

LAS VEGAS — According to James T. Aubrey, prexy of MGM Studios, diversification is the name of the game by all large corporations. N.Y. Securities Analysts questioned him on a recent decision to enter the hotel business here and cruise ships to run over $150 million.

In order to augment income on a more regular basis than can be gained in the ups-and-downs field of picture production, Aubrey feels that acquisitions and mergers are necessary. The young prexy feels his corporation has a depressed stock and terms for acquisitions are costly to obtain and this is the reason to get start-up ventures.

Studio management thought right along that the film company ought to be merged with Kirk Kerkorian's International Leisure Corp., since sold off to the Hilton Hotel chain. The corporation is even more auspicious since they have the services of Fred Benninger.

Benninger was questioned whether the Entertainment Capitol of the World could support another 2,000 room mammoth hostelry costing $75 million. His reply was that the tourist trade continues to rise and any slack is not felt by the big hotels, but the motels, which currently account for half the rooms in town. He also stated to discount the possibility of gaming becoming legal in other areas, thus cutting into business here and he offered the view "gaming is difficult to control in densely populated areas" and therefore won't be okayed.

Benninger was asked why MGM is entering the hotel business and he said, "Sole reason involved Kerkorian's ownership of the Bonanza Hotel site on which the new complex will be built. The land originally acquired by Kerkorian for around $10½ million, sold for $11 million and regained by default for $4 million. The property recently was appraised for $7 million and can be bought for the default figure which is an excellent deal."

Plans call for a showroom on the order of Las Vegas Hilton. One that can be divided to suit the attraction. Show policy has not been determined at this writing, but my guess would be spectacles or Broadway shows that would appeal to the showgoing public. The dinner and midnight show prices will have to be competitive with the other Strip hotels.

RAMBLING AROUND — Talk around Hollywood has Hugh Hefner buying one of the Howard Hughes hotels and making it a Playboy Club . . . Close pals of Desert Inn star Debbie Reynolds say she may accept the Broadway revival of the musical, "Irene" next year . . . Tropicana's "Folies Bergere" co-producer Michel Gyarmathy says the American showgirls are the loveliest of all. The French expert has undressed 10,000 or more in his career . . . As predicted here Sonny and Cher bowed out of their three week stand at Hotel Sahara

MY, how you forget. Last week's trivia question was "Name the show that the late Jeffrey Hunter starred in." No one guessed it although many remembered Jack Elam as his co-star. The name of the series was "Temple Houston."

Now for next week. Name Andy Hardy's girl friend who lived next door . . . and who played her in the movies? Easy!

Slappy White, who is playing his last gig with Steve Rossi, has announced his candidacy for Vice-President of the U.S. More about this momentous decision next week.

If you are a jazz buff, you'll know the name Gene Quill. One of the greats on the alto sax. Gene recently moved here from New York and hopes to make his home here. Tells me New York is dead for musicians. In fact, dead, period. Is it any wonder that Las Vegas has the best musicians in the world?

Most of your major magazines have really gone into the nostalgia bit with great verve and vigor. They all take a look at the twenties and the thirties. Esquire magazine recently did a two issue bit on the forties. What about the Fifties? Not enough time lapse? After all, you can go back twenty years to the start.

Let's take a quick look at the "void" period of our life. The decade woke up when the North Koreans crossed the 38th parallel. If you were 18 years of age or older you began to sweat out the draft. Times haven't really changed that much, have they? I was in school in Minneapolis and working in TV when I got the news. One year later I was in the service. This was the decade of "Confidential" magazine and the ensuing law suits by the stars whom the mag maligned.

NOVEMBER 20, 1971

Steve Allen and the "Tonight" Show kept everybody up. And they did that show live, no tape, five nights a week.

The fifties saw Judy Garland emerge as its biggest star. It was a time that we saw a real American girl marry and become a Princess. We were humming tunes like "Till I Waltz Again With You," "Cry," "Kiss of Fire," "Why Don't You Believe Me," "Blue Suede Shoes," "The Green Door."

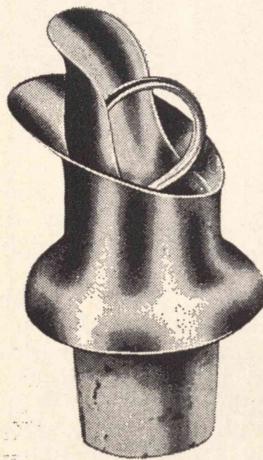

It was the time we saw the music business turn upside down from pretty, harmless ditties to what disc jockey Alan Freed called "Rock N' Roll." Cathy Carr, Gogi Grant, Jim Lowe, Laurie London, Lloyd Price. They made their mark in music then but where are they now? The fifties was the decade of the Dee Jay and "Top Forty." Let's face it. T-40 revived radio and was responsible for the transistor radio of today.

Marlon Brando did his best film work. Marilyn Monroe was everybody's sex goddess. TV dinners made their debut and tasted horrible, but why miss Jackie Gleason on Saturday night? Sid Caesar won all the Emmys but lost all the ratings. We saw "Gunsmoke" make its debut in the middle fifties. Is it STILL on?

The Academy Awards telecast for the first time. Still dull today but still getting all of the audience. The opposing networks could telecast Sophia Loren doing commercials topless and no one would watch. Still the same today.

"Birdland" and "Basin Street" were the only havens for modern jazz. Video tape was introduced and changed the whole concept of TV. As the decade ended, gone from TV was Robert Montgomery, Studio One,

Milton Berle, Red Buttons, The Hit Parade and many more that did more than their share to build the Telly. In sports in the fifties, Mickey Mantle was the talk of the baseball world, Sam Snead still played golf, an up and coming boxer by the name of Floyd Patterson was drawing crowds but it was Rocky Marciano who dominated the boxing scene. Sugar Ray Robinson was still in the ring but only flashes of his past greatness showed.

Men wore crew cuts and the Madison Ave. suit. Women all had short hair and skirts below the knees. Toward the end of the decade, the "Continental" suit started to revolutionize the men's clothing industry. If you ordered a cocktail it had to be a Daquiri. No one really cared about drugs. The kids in college were still trying to find their own way in this world as it existed then and never bothered to ask "Why."

Movies were better than ever, it says here. Hollywood was in the process of going the way of all flesh. The star system wained. TV took over the studio sound stages. Jazz music was first used as mood music for TV in "Peter Gunn." Thanks to Henry Mancini, it's still being used not only in TV but movies as well. The Edsel! Power everything in a car. Ah, the fifties! A real do-nothing decade, but at least we didn't have to worry. For a short time that is. Frankly, I'm glad they're over.

IS IT A DRAW

A third-grade teacher asked her pupils to draw a picture of what they wanted to be when they grew up. The pictures came in — pictures of nurses, of space cadets, of firemen — but one little girl handed in a blank sheet of paper. "Don't you know what you want to be when you grow up?" asked the teacher.

"Sure I know," retorted the little girl. "I want to be married. But I don't know how to draw it."

MIGHTY MIXTURE

DATELINE: NEW YORK

MANHATTAN MELANGE: Mrs. Lynda Johnson was the big reason LBJ didn't run again in 1968. If you believe in the power of the woman behind the man, write this down. Happy Rockefeller wants Rocky to forget seeking any elective office after his present term is over. . . . This is to tell Anne Baxter how well she fits the lead role in "Applause." Best replacement to come along in years. The musical keeps its validity and you know, the title song grows on you after each hearing. . . . If they ever want to do Norman Mailer's life on the screen Howard Duff would do just fine in the part. . . . They have to serve you great roast beef and Yorkshire pudding at Downing Square, Churchill and Disraeli are looking down from portraits. . . . Peter Duchin stopped us on Madison Avenue and asked: "You are coming back to La Forêt to see me when I return around December 1st, aren't you?" . . . Bob Thomas, the AP man on the Coast and biographer of "Winchell" is worth quoting, to wit: "To a columnist double planting of an item is like incest." . . . Erroll Garner at the St. Regis' Maisonette proved to be a parsimonious guy at the piano. With wild hand clapping and cheers at the end of his act, the Baldwin winner just didn't do enough encores. . . . One of the churches out West has this sign out to attract absent worshippers — "We Welcome You With Open Psalms." . . . A wall to wall audience is the throng that crowded the Waldorf's Empire Room to see Shirley Bassey. She'll be off on her first American concert tour in March. Woody Herman's Herd travels along as support.

OFF THE SHELF: By sheer weight, "Simon Says" is the biggest, fattest book ever done on the music business. Fortunately, the superlatives do not stop there. The author George Simon, who gave us "The Big Bands" a few years back, has allowed us to share his files, opinions, past nights and interviews with this volume on the swing era (1935-1955). Simon, by dint of editorship at Metronome, a great trade magazine in its time, and by inspired appreciation of the sights and sounds around him, comes across as the most qualified historian of the period and the people. In this compilation of data, the author exposes his reviews, focuses a light on his daily diary and tops things off with updated marginalia, which for the uninitiated but interested and the relivers of nostalgia puts the score of years in proper perspective. Arlington House is the wise publisher in this venture. The pictures alone are worth a good part of the hefty price for this valuable excursion into the bandleand of another time. You are never quite through with this tome. It remains ever fresh as a reference work. What the whole noble project relates to is a personal appraisal of an American art form done by a former small time bandleader, willing drummer turned pop musicologist and tireless writer. Harken back to the time when there was a Silver Grill in the Hotel Lexington; look at the photo where T. Dorsey stood tall by his trombone and skinny Sinatra was a microphone clutch; sneak a peek at a poster which advertised Benny Goodman, Charlie Barnet and Larry Clinton and their respective orchestras at Madison Square Garden for 88 cents; peer in on the then happy married life of guitarist Dave Barbour and Peggy (Continued on Page 33)

Although "Casino de Paris" is billed as "a grand spectacle" descriptive words can't possibly convey just how grand it is. Larger than life in every respect, it is pageantry on a mind-boggling scale — the huge, many-leveled stage ablaze with color, whirling dancers, and such extraordinary sights as real horses galloping, Rome burning, and a dozen beauties bathing in glass tubs . . . As conceived, produced, and directed by Frederic Apcar, "Casino" is brilliant entertainment beyond imagination . . . The new star of the extravaganza is breathtakingly lovely Heidi Bruhl. With a face arresting as a young Dietrich and a stunning figure, the European singing sensation is sure to be every bit as sensational in Las Vegas. She has an excellent voice, showcased excitingly in such favorites as "I'll Never Fall In Love Again," "Raindrops Keep Falling On My Head" (in English & German) and "Look Of Love," and she moves with (Continued on Page 25)

Phil Harris and Harry James are great stars individually and funnier than many well known comedy teams collectively. Whatever it is The Matys Brothers have, it literally fills this room to the rafters, with the balcony attendance threatening to come through the ceiling. Before the curtain rises, and before the club hoppers even glimpse the zany quartet, pandemonium breaks loose. The Matys freres are famous for their earthiness in humor. Because there is nothing sophisticated in the roar of laughter, you'll find no cornstarchy airs in this production. When Johnny Paul isn't looking, the customers polka in the aisles. The singalongs are spontaneous. You even see cocktail waitresses marking time at their stations. Emil is lead singer and saxophonist . . . Gene is the mad- (Continued on Page 27)

Vic Garcia Trio (4 P.M. to 10 P.M. — Off Monday); Bob Fletcher & Vicky Lano with Hank & Company (10 P.M. to 4 A.M. — Off Sunday).

This edition of "Latin Fire," marked by circa '72, is quite a bit more commercial than the last south-of-the-border holocaust that singed the T'Bird. In other words, the tunes in the zippy production numbers are very well known oldies, fitting into the nostalgia trend this side of the border. Otherwise, the various soloists brighten up all turns with familiar tunes as well. The combination of Freddy Manjon and Manolo Torrente as guiding lights of LF '72 carries over, with Manjon's lead male dancing smooth as always and Torrente selling his songs with special vigor . . . Many ohs and ahs are expelled for the revealing undulations of Teresita Rodriguez as she chirps a tune or two and disrobes what meagre covering she has for some steppery . . . Clarita Diaz is very svelte with her topless lead dancing, and with Manjon, the only disappointment being the brevity of their eye-catching adagio in the "Cafe Torero" number . . . Tun Tun is a diminutive three-footer who (Continued on Page 29)

This fine, prestige grand opening of the new Union Plaza has a natural in "Fiddler On The Roof," starring one of the best of Tevye's, Bob Carroll. His sundry plights with five daughters, three immediately marriageable, the delightful talks with God and some cunning ploys to offset the wrath of wife, Golde, are quite familiar as the Sholom Aleichem yarns unfold about the little pre-revolution Russian village . . . Fritzi Burr's Golde is a strong plus to the total action, with similar nods to Enid Edelman, Helena Grenot, Adele Paige as the daughters, Robert Crest as Motel, the tailor, Peter Alzade as Perchik, the student, Mark Shannon's Fyedka and Don Moore as Lazar Wolf, the butcher . . . FUN . . . Bobby's Chimps offer people shticks on the pin wheel and trampoline, and inject humor in acrobatics and ethnic dance . . . The Hildalys merit much respect when the master rides a unicycle upside down on a monorail, his teeth supporting a trapeze on which his wife works . . . Watching Le Lisa perform on her trapeze sans net makes you wonder what a nice girl like that is doing without a security web . . . Ronnie Lemus is the latest daredevil to toss caution into the cellar with his ceiling to sponge dive . . . Gigi is hypnotically garbed in a snakeskin outfit as she performs on the web . . . The art of trampoline timing and control has returned with the exacting Randels . . . The Rigettis perform intricate ladder balancing, highlighted by a three-high peak, featuring six and nine year old daughters . . . Six year old Sabrina is astoundingly precocious in her head balance trapeze act . . . Tanya is an unbelievable miniature pachyderm who skips, plays musical instruments and moves her 2300 lb. anatomy with the grace of a dancer . . . The Aerial Ballet is a group of curvaceous femmes performing on perches attached to a monorail, propelled by one stalwart Galahad . . . Mike Hartzell, Clarence Hoffman and Tommy Rundell are the Ringmasters.

Opulent production numbers range from a clown opening and jazzy psychedelic to a wild, witty "Chicago," a Roman spectacular, and the lushly beautiful "Presentation En Blanc," all featuring the superb boy and girl dancers and exotic mannequins . . . Staging and choreography by Ron Lewis, FAB-sound as vernal as those early Springs when her voice came on the scene as a clear freshet. Despite her recent serious eye operation and debilitation from recovery, her present stand reveals no less force and bubbly tone and attitude as before. This catalogue travels Memory Lane. The tunes go back to her beginnings, arch through the '40s and stop. Only one song, "Close To You" is from the present decade. Her torrent of exquisitely placed notes are enhanced by arrangements by Nelson Riddle, Party Paich, Jim Hughart and Oliver Nelson, a formidable quartet of chart-makers . . . Her pianist, Tommy Flanagan, is Musical Director and in one hushed session with the trio, there are Ed Thigpen on drums and Frank de la Rosa on standup bass to furnish neat note patterns around her vocalistics . . . Hines, Hines & Dad have a fine time once more as curtain raisers for Miss Fitzgerald. Gregory is the mad one, funny mugging and wild antics counterpointed by Maurice, no slouch himself in tapwork and songs. Dad doesn't merely go along for the ride at all, but enters the fun spirit with a spot of his own and otherwise presides over a large battery of drum-works. Their conductor, Paul Currie also hits the keys as he waves directions for some swinging backgrounds . . . the Russ Black musickers responding immediately to every cue.

The lovely Duncan Sisters are a matched pair of lovelies who blend their voices for delicate backgrounding during Jensen's turn . . . A tribute to Jensen's taste is the inclusion of Joe Recca in his package. Recca also possesses a true, well-controlled voice, admirably displayed in the Hawaiian Wedding number, dueted with the lovely Leonelle Anderson, whose lovely Islander voice brought to mind Yma Sumac . . . The Tahitis Dancers adorn the stage with loveliness and introduce an enchanting segment, "The Story Of The Menehunes," with Disney-type costumes . . . Len Piper is credited with the Volcano setting . . . George Simone the production . . . Charlene Thompson the choreography . . . Bill de Angelis the stage direction . . . Musical arrangements by Don Costa . . . Bart Basconi conducts the Tommy Martin Orchestra for Jensen. (Cortez) man on drums . . . Walter plays the accordion, with John on bass. Flying toupees, whipped cream, drum sticks all punctuate the hilarity. Somehow, John manages the expertise of "Hot Canary" on his amped violin – Emil is permitted to sax and sing "For The Good Times" – Gene settles in for a rousing drum solo – and Walter tries to knit the music together. The only touch of sanity is the lovely Maria Carmen. This time around, she makes an entrance in a filmy black creation that is shrugged off to reveal a long-fringed black bikini. How she shimmies that fringe with mod choreo!

More ecdysiastic novelty is presented in statuesque blonde Angelique's parade as Cleopatra, although Cleo never did a fan dance like this one — or did historians fail to report another interesting side of the Nile Queen? . . . More a-peeling novelty is in the arrival onstage of a member of the audience, a drunk amateur matron who wants to take it all off. She does and to many a laugh, finally emerging as Marilyn Robertson, one of the fantastically gorgeous showgirls . . . Martin Gavin and Marina Maubert are sensually exciting in their adagio ebbs and flows, hitting a peak in the Bordello number. Miss Maubert's body is something to behold and it can be beheld for there is little costuming to impede the eye traveling over her lithe figure . . . Gordon Cornish not only sets up scenes with his singing or spoken introductions, but dances with the girls and is an altogether useful and handsome guy to have around . . . All the Larry Maldonado choreographic touches are superlative, from the opening camp of Broadway, circa 1930, to a 1940 whirl, but the Bordello bash is the hottest of all. The femmes know how to move well, in or out of the well-designed costumes by Lloyd Lambert in front of the sparkling settings of Fred Aldrich and Tony Montleone . . . Tommy Hodges has charted fine production arrangements and Paul Lowden's sextet plays them faultlessly. The company does well in its various scenes, despite the small staging area, with the Jerome Robbins choreography giving everything an extra dimension, especially in the "Bottle" and "Wedding" dances . . . The Joseph Stein book from the Aleichem stories holds up well and the Jerry Bock music and Sheldon Harnick lyrics will be around for a long time to come . . . This Harold Prince production has the unique Boris Aronson settings & the Patricia Zippordt costumes. The excellent musical direction is by Sam Caplan, with orchestrations by Don Walker, vocal arrangements by Milton Greene and dance music arrangements by Betty Walberg . . . Jean Rosenthal's lighting is firstrate and all touches are coordinated by production stage manager, T. flew in to the coast this week to film a segment for "Love, American Style."

Jimmy Grippo has been invited to perform his magic at a gathering of all the Police Chiefs in Italy in 1972. Date will be announced when the lawmen decide on one convenient for all. The bewildering Mr. G. was invited by Giuseppe de Guitano, Police Chief of Rome, who planned the three day Fiesta expressly to honor Jimmy, who was born in Italy.

Harrah's-Tahoe and Reno chose Foster Brooks (who debuted here with Perry Como) to represent their talent on promo tours. He also filled in with Bill Cosby when Jerry Lewis couldn't make his opening night at Harrah's-Reno, earlier this year. Johnny Carson fans saw him this past week in an hilarious sketch, involving a plaque presentation. On Dec. 1, Foster films "Captain Nemo, The Homing Seal," on San Diego location, with Sterling Holloway the proverbial old man of the sea. In this family pic, Foster is an inebriated tourist who saves the seal's life, thinking it is a human. His beautiful dotter will make a one-liner debut in the "Nemo" saga, a Victor Landon Production . . . Brooks is in the recently released Anne Baxter flick, "The Late Liz." When premiered on the coast, the audience applauded his performance as he walked out of the frame.

From England, Tessie O'Shea writes that her two years of research are nearing fruition. She is finally compiling her special diet recipe book, which she hopes will benefit all weight watchers. The energetic Dame O'Shea interrupted her literary efforts to do a sellout show in London's Talk Of The Town with The D'Amores.

The Riviera Hotel's luncheon, honoring Earl Wilson's latest book, "The Show Business Nobody Knows," turned into a temporary roast session when Frontier Circle "F" star Jack E. Leonard took his funny turn at saluting the famed columnist. Other speakers were Mayor Oran Gragson, Riv publicity director Tony Zoppi, and Wilson himself, who delighted the guests with background info on the book.

Jerry Antes has landed the Bobby Van role in the road company of "No, No, Nanette." Rehearsals begin on the 22nd, in preparation for the company's opening in Cleveland, Dec. 27. Antes last appeared here with Debbie Reynolds at the D.I.

When the Castaways closes its casino for renovations, insiders say that Bobby and Phyllis Sherwood will be moved to another Hughes Hotel to continue their indefinite contract. Will they be moving over to the Frontier Cabaret Room, from whence Bob Sims was just transferred to the Regency Room (Sands)? And — what's this we hear about the Regency Room being converted into a lounge for New Year's Eve, just for Sonny King's appearance there?

Brenda Lee suffered a throat infection in early October but managed to honor a date at La Fiesta in Mexico. The Nashville lassie has signed to play the Fremont three times next year, with her first topliner February 4-17.

The Union Plaza has decided against bringing in "Guys & Dolls" or any other new production once under consideration. Management was hesitant to make a change in view of the success the "Fiddler" company has enjoyed. Consequently, "Fiddler," which closes on November 28, has been invited to re-open on December 22nd.

Dianne Elliott is such a consummate clown in the Aladdin's "Funny Farm" many fail to recognize the songstress when she comes on, as her glamourous self, for her sultry "Something" solo, with canine actor Francy Dan as a rapt on-stage spectator. "The reason they don't know me is because they're looking at the dog," sez she modestly. "Do I have a bone to pick with him?"

Anne Baxter, hot in Broadway's "Applause," has two big offers she says for Vegas — dancing and singing too. Anne's a dramatic actress . . . Johnny Carson isn't steady dating (as you suppose) Joanne Holland. There's another . . . The Peter Ustinovs have their final divorce.

Angel Tompkins was lucky at Charles Tracey's party for her. She met Gene Hackman and is now femme lead opposite Lee Marvin and Gene in Cinema Center Films' "Kansas City Prime," I hear.

Is it true that Caesar's Palace is going to co-star Mae West and Liberace? Wow!! Judy Brown, the girl who said in a national piece she was tired of not being mentioned as No. 1 girl of Henry Kissinger instead of Jill St. John and Zsa Zsa, etc., blossoms forth in a starring role in a seg of Bearcats on T.V.

And That's Hollywood!

MIGHTY MIXTURE

Lee; listen closely for Harry James in September '39 or Claude Thornhill in May of 1941.

This is a long reading book, a medley of memories. "Simon Says" is as the 1960 hippies said — "George, all the way." On a personal level, it has roused your scribbler, once a proud part of that music world, to think of revolving, iridescent lights high above a dance floor in a ballroom and wonder how we'd get a ride back from Frank Dailey's Meadowbrook and hear Paul Douglas' amiable announcing style putting a band on the air.

If one needs a rapprochement with the tuneful side of the Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower years, this is it.

EAT TREAT BEAT: Very soon, they'll be waving the tri-color of France, bringing out the vintage champagne and toasting the 25th anniversary of Le Marmiton, a friendly, pleasant, most definitely excellent French restaurant. The attitude of the partners, Henri Badan and Edouard Duthu is twofold. The concern for what comes out of the kitchen is foremost, but the secondary concentration is on the look, feel, tempo of the off-Paris, near Brittany Inn. Take the advice, then, of accommodating captain, Gerard when this helpful little man, knowing the extraordinary potage is available, suggests Sorrel Soup. It is more than just Hot Vichyssoise turned green with envy. Cold Striped Bass with Green Sauce (there's that color again) is a tiptop appetizer. Duckling, Roast Lamb or any of the plats du jour (example — Wednesday — Pot au feu) are entrees well worth ordering.

CRISWELL PREDICTS

come linked with the other and shocking facts will become known! We will not be able to put the lid on this Pandora's Box as quickly and as silently as we may wish!

BUSINESS BOOM

The Prophets of Gloom will not be able to deny the coming Business Boom! America has no need for this army of undertakers and they will resent the slurs and the negation now being heaped upon our nation! Our radio-TV sponsors frown on this as it discourages sales! Our magazines and newspapers find that more positive news is more acceptable and the circulation grows! I predict you will be pleased with the future!

THE COMING TAX CUT

I predict the coming tax cut will improve conditions for us all! The Military Complex burdened by contracts for the past ten years will see the light of day and many will be cancelled. I had gone quite heavily into this subject on my album "The Legendary Criswell Predicts" (Horoscope Records) and quote "The personal social security will be lessened, but more will be paid to those over 65! Taxes on sales will be cut, but tax on liquor, tobacco and other luxuries will remain the same! Education costs will be lowered thru a new 5% rental sales tax, planned by the Roosevelt Administration, for such a time as this! The writing is on the wall for all to see, and the coming tax cuts will benefit us all, everywhere!

PHASE TWO

I predict that the mild application of Phase Two will more than slow our inflationary trend and bring us back into a more normal economic condition! There will be no speculation over Phase Three as that will not be needed at this time!

THE C.I.A.

I predict that the C.I.A. (Central Intelligence Bureau) will face criticism and attack from many angles this spring! I predict that the C.I.A. will defend itself with startling facts and conditions not known to the general public. The information will be even more startling than the so-called "Pentagon Papers!" (I predict we have not heard the last of the Pentagon Papers with still more revelations to come!)
