... Practicing Yoga must help Beatrice Page temper the paradox in her life. She is a confirmed night person, and yet she is also a confirmed sun worshiper, relying on swimming and boating to retain her glorious tan. A showgirl in the Stardust "Lido" show, our cover girl loves to dance, reads extensively and is briefed on current events. Not much of a food buff, Beatrice doesn't care for culinary arts. # CRISWELL PREDICTS YOUR NEXT TEN YEARS

CRISWELL PREDICTED:

The Assassination of Martin Luther King
The Assassination of President John F. Kennedy
The Assassination of Robert F. Kennedy
That Lyndon Johnson Would Not Seek Re-election!

THESE—AND 87% OF HIS PREDICTIONS HAVE COME TRUE.

During the time since Criswell's first book Criswell Predicts To The Year 2000! was published, his astounding record of accuracy has gained him an audience numbering in the millions.

Appearances on Johnny Carson's Tonight Show; on The Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin Shows — and many others — have made his name the center of much discussion — and, at times, controversy.

His first book was a "Journal of The Future" covering the next thirty years until the date Criswell Predicts the world as we know it will end — August 18, 1999!

This book is more immediate. In these pages Criswell predicts the events that will befall America and the world during the decade of the 1970's. He also answers the 101-questions most often asked him about the next ten years. These predictions will affect us all, Criswell says — and if his record of 87% accuracy continues, then every person in the world has a personal stake in what Criswell predicts in this volume!

I predict that the answer to cancer will be found in the diet and the diet alone! We are what we eat . . . and we are all eating some item that results in cancer in some people! We will search out the diet of all nationalities under the Nixon Health Plan in all parts of the world where cancer is not too common, and then we will know the startling answer for cancer . . . diet! . . . I predict that one of the British banks will be short on cash but long on promises! This will cause a minor upset on Wall Street and Thread Needle Street! The sound of silver is the sound of the heartbeat of the financial World! . . . I predict Castro of Cuba will take a dramatic stand in South American politics! The Latin world will respond to his semi-heroics much to the amazement of our State Department! You cannot buy old fashioned loyalty and respect with new fashioned dollars! . . . I predict that Queen Elizabeth II will soon announce her farewell tour, mainly for political reasons! Some of the colonies do not cotton the pomp and circumstance! And the display of personal wealth! All is changing in a changing world! . . . I predict that a new surge of tourists will sweep down Florida way due to a new successful promotion by the Miami Chamber of Commerce! Tourist traps will be eliminated and many of the unsavory incidents made impossible! I predict other tourist spots will follow the lead of Florida's successful campaign!

THE CATHEDRAL OF TRUTH

I predict that your newspaper, your radio and your television advertising will become a cathedral of truth! Misrepresentation will not be permitted and you will buy any advertised item with safety and security! Yankee commercialism was built on fair trade practices and I predict they will return soon!

AN UNFAVORABLE SLUR

I predict that an unforgivable slur was uttered thru amnesty! All Confederate soldiers were termed traitors by a famous Senator! If the South from 1861-1865 were all traitors, any Democrat or Republican could be termed the same! The Civil War breached politics and even family ties, and today there is still a bitterness which runs deeply thru the United States!

FAREWELL JERRY ROSEN

Hollywood regretfully said farewell to Jerry M. Rosen, one of our better known agents and managers! Jerry Rosen was a giant in the agency and representation field, and his word was valued far above many other men in the film industry! We shall wait a long time in vain, for another Jerry Rosen!

that Cleveland, Ohio will soon have a new civic center second to none . . . that Christine Jorgensen will enter a successful political career . . . and that Erie, Pennsylvania will be the new keystone in a new industrial center!

TIDES OF TIME

I predict that the tides of time will bring us many, many changes: (1) The Black Continent of Africa will become the Red Continent of Africa! This was one of the most famous predictions of Nostradamus! A few years ago this would have seemed impossible, but in light of today's politics, it seems a breath away! When we consider the present trend and the accumulating circumstances, we may be nearer than we think to the Red Continent of Africa replacing the Black one! (2) The New Look in Air Travel! Our planes will be larger, yet more compact! There will be only one class! No First Class or Coach — all Coach! The fares will be reduced, the luggage problem solved, the food problem simplified and there will be no charge for the alcoholic beverages! Children will be confined to a certain section! Smokers and non-smokers likewise! Schedules will be re-shuffled for your convenience! Yes, the new look in air travel will delight you! (3) We will enter a period of mobile living! In our frantic escape to the suburbs from the city, we will choose mobile living! Many of these new homes are most attractive and comfortable and it will give us a chance to become free again of the drudgery of landscaping, roof repair, plumbing and heating problems! We will also be able to live more cheaply and in much more elegance! . . . and (4) The simplicity of the payment of taxes, our banking accounting, our Social Security payments and our daily life!

Spectators at the KORK-TV Channel 3 fire (March 6) were blunt in their criticisms of how the Fire Department handled it. First, "they" (the spectators) couldn't understand why the fire trucks didn't come in the (closer) back entrance, choosing instead the delayed route, circling around to the Boulder Highway approach. Then, "they" couldn't understand why the City Unit — the only one with the foam — wasn't cleared to fight the fire until two hours after it started. "They" hoped it wasn't politics that delayed the City from crossing the County line to fight the fire at the Studio, which services both City and County . . . On the brighter side, Don Reynolds kept the entire staff on salary . . . The transmitter will remain at the razed studio, where execs operated from a mobile unit to regain active projection . . . The temporary studio and offices are now at UNLV until the new studio is built . . . KORK-TV amazed everyone by returning to network programming exactly one week after the fire (on the 13th).

On Jack Kogan's KLAV radio interview from the New Copa Lounge, Herb Mills described his most outstanding memory of the long-lived Mills Brothers career . . . when King George V and his Queen gave them a standing ovation from the Royal Box during the Mills' Command Performance in 1934 . . . Herb, Harry and Don flew in to Hollywood early this week to have their name etched in the Star Sidewalk on Hollywood Boulevard, in front of the Roosevelt Hotel . . . the first group to be so honored.

Harry Mills greatly disturbed by the government cancelling Dr. Swing's annual $30 thousand grant for sight

Thoroughly enjoyed James Whitmore's performance on the Will Rogers tube special (March 9-Ch. 8) . . . and so did Will, Jr., whose enthusiasm was momentarily captured by the camera. Among the seriously-lined humorisms was the Rogers' quote . . . "Lead your life so you wouldn't be ashamed to sell the family parrot to the town gossip."

Years ago, the founder of FABULOUS magazine predicted that FLV would eventually woo the film makers here from Hollywood, to add that ecology free industry to our Capital accomplishments . . . Since that statement, no one has made a move to form a Motion Picture Committee here. New Mexico expended $250 thousand to attract movie producers and the returns for that investment total $25 million. The budget of our Economic Development Board was cut in half by the Legislature, forcing another delay of any serious attempt

Jack Morgan, who is batoning the Russ Morgan Orchestra through one of its many encores at the Dunes' Top O' The Strip (closing March 23), returns his aggregation to that beautiful room on June 28. Jack has also signed two more contracts with the Dunes' chieftains . . . for a total of 35 weeks between December of this year and October of 1973. He not only has inherited his dad's love for music, but also carries on the Morgan tradition of creating devoted fans for all who come to listen and dance. And, in view of those extensive contract dates, you can't sell Jack short on business acumen.

From San Francisco, Doros' High Lama Don Dianda insists . . . "Stealing a kiss may be petty larceny . . . but sometimes it's GRAND!"

Aside to Joe Yurmanovic . . . Wrong! Barbara Eden made her debut here at the Frontier, where she playdated twice before she opened at your hotel this year.

Fremont comic Jerry Collins, who now resides here with his family, tells about a torch he tried to drown some years ago (long before he met his wife) . . . and a certain bartender who tried to discourage his elbow bending. The libation engineer was Dick Martin, now of Rowan & Martin.

With an ailing poodle in the Cortez menagerie, we turned to pet talk with Takeuchi Keigo, star of "Geisha'Rella" at the Thunderbird. Keigo travels with three poodles, who have circled the globe twice with their master. The white miniatures have a Continental Show Cut, even though they are not on the canine pro circuit. BARBRA Streisand, deliciously skinny and enervating "isn't pretty" (I think she has wonderful eyes, marvelous skin and a tremendous personality) "—but she's sure got something," said a boyfriend as we watched Barbra's antics in her new picture, Warner Brothers' "What's Up Doc?" This was at its preem at Grauman's Chinese Theatre. Her hair was worn long, parted in the middle and her clothes are one, two, three . . . boy's cap, pants, sweatshirt and one dress. And when her name flashed on the screen, some heckler wondered if she had a paid applause chorus for the place went mad!

It's Barbra's singing that really captivates and sends you, and happily she does a few songs. Delight! But mainly, she's a comedienne — and for real!

Peter Bogdanovich, producer-director, is in for lots of kudos on this one, about the frantic, eccentric girl who spots an equally eccentric young man and decides he's for her. In the end she gets him too! (My, aren't women forward these days of the lib!)

Ryan O'Neal sat in front of us with his wife Leigh Taylor Young. They've resumed their marriage. After the picture, Ryan got the applause he well deserves playing the absent-minded professor to the hilt. This movie has so many innovations and new, laugh lines — it is hysterical! Everyone laughed through the whole movie, which is unusual in these days of strife, somber messages and killings!

Sammy Davis, Jr. made it back from Vietnam for only a day at his new home, the former Janet Leigh-Tony Curtis Manse, which Sammy and Altovise renovated so elegantly and which sits above Pickfair. It was off to the Star Circle Theatre in San Carlos, and so to the Sands in Las Vegas come the 15th. And on for the next four months of concert and club dates. Altovise is with him. Such a schedule! Wasn't he magnificent on the Flip Wilson show!

Sonny and Cher, today hot superstars with the tremendous new draw of their television series, are Lear-Jeting all over the country on one nighters. They are currently playing to turn-away business. And thousands of people crowd the airports on news of their expected arrival. Such is the power of the tube. Sonny and Cher open at the Sahara April 4th, to follow this with a Reno date April 27th and resume taping their show for CBS mid-May. Relax at home anyone? And they do have a beautiful home here. Remember when they made their night club debut at the Flamingo!

Robert Goulet was really elated and so was everyone with his screen test for Lerner and Lowe's "The Little Prince," which was made in London. Richard Burton wanted it, and was all but signed! Richard said he would take singing lessons for several weeks preceding production. Then it was decided a real singing voice was necessary for the really beautiful new songs! And that, in spite of Richard having sung in "Camelot."

Now it seems Frank Sinatra is being coaxed out of retirement for what is bound to be a hit. Mr. Lowe is Frank's next door neighbor. He played the beautiful new score for everyone's favorite singer. And Frank couldn't resist trying some of the lyrics. Paramount is to produce and Bob Evans, the astute Vice Prexy in charge of world production, wants Frank. So the news will be out, maybe before you read it here. Bob is going all out for nothing but big hits to follow his big hit "Love Story." Wonder how he takes it — Streisand and O'Neal concluding in Warner Bros.' "What's Up Doc?" with the classic "Love is never having to say you're sorry!"

If Frank makes the picture, I am told, he will do so to give all money to his children of the world. As you'll recall, Frank has concertized all over the world to raise money for little children who need it desperately.

Met Doodles Weaver at Madame Wu's. Doodles is in the pink and is now a producer at Columbia Picture Studios he said, between quips and humorous stories.

Hugh Hefner, at a party other eve, put it well. He said his magazine is premised that normal men like to enjoy and be entertained. "Our policy is to be not only intellectually stimulating, but to be exciting. That's what life is about and we are finding the way as humans to put it back together."

Mr. Hefner, whose empire today rates at $160 million, started Playboy on his life savings of $600 when he was refused a raise of five dollars a week by Esquire Magazine. Today he's Hollywood based to add movie production. Giving birth to his vast enterprises was time consuming and long hours. Now he's on top of it all and has free time. Although he says he's been enjoying everything that he advocates in Playboy right along (wine-women-and song), work or no work.

Other day we went studio location-ing about town with American International's Julian Meyers who, with V.P. Milton Moritz, are two of the hardest working P.R. men in the business. The picture was "Blacula," an all black production. There we were on Hollywood Boulevard at an old mansion and even the undertakers, not unlike Sean Connery and Jill St. John's "Diamonds" and that funeral parlor in Las Vegas. Or is there one — that one?

The film is a terror, with shudders

Lights of Las Vegas

TAP dancing is kicking up its heels again. The everyday people are starting to jam various dance studios for instructions. A lot of teenagers are starting to take up hoofing. Does this mean before long show business will produce some Gene Kellys, Eleanor Powells, Donald O'Connors, Sammy Davis, Jr., Fred Astaires, Ginger Rogers, Bill (Bojangles) Robinsons, Ann Millers and Elaine Dunns? ...

Dance Studios across the country have been rejuvenated. This certainly will produce some new blood and opening acts. There are a few tap dancers around today that can fill the bill for an opening act. Not very long ago every Strip hotel used buck and wing dancers and the showgoing public loved every minute of it.

Ralph Hadsell, manager of the Capozio Dance Shoe Co., in Hollywood, says there's been a 300 per cent increase in business the last couple of years and it keeps building every day. Shoes now cost from $7.50 to $25 and hour lessons start at around $4.

Teachers say the trend has really picked up in the past six months. During Shirley Temple's heyday, mothers around the country trotted their tots to tap classes. Everything goes in cycles according to dance instructors and the reason tap dancing faded was because it was considered "cornball."

The nostalgia boom on Broadway of "No, No, Nanette," "Dames at Sea" and Twiggy in "The Boy Friend," old movies like "Gold Diggers" and "42nd Street" triggered the resurgence of tap dancing.

There's more than a little fantasy involved. Tap dancing is a very internal thing. It may have something to do with a desire to make music. You're making music and it's almost primitive.

Learning to tap or ballroom dancing is not a snap. It has to be practiced regularly. Tapping is the simplest form of dance and it makes different sounds. One must like the idea to be successful.

For many years the various dance teachers have worked to elevate tap dancing to merge with jazz and now we are on our way back to the buck and wing.

$12
PER YEAR

Mailed anywhere in the United States

By Bob Joyce

WELL, good old Jim Seagrave came through after a long drought and came up with the answer to last week's trivia.

Sidney Greenstreet was 61 when he made his first movie, "The Maltese Falcon." Now for next week. Whose picture was on the old tax stamp on a pack of cigarettes? Think back for that one.

Back in 1956, I was fresh out of the service and eager to resume my broadcasting career. A new type of radio greeted me on my return. It was called Top 40. And the music was new. It was called Rock 'N Roll, a name given this music by the late D.J. Alan Freed. And dig the names of the hits at that time: "Love Me Tender," "The Green Door," "Ivory Tower," "Hot Dog Buddy," "Heartbreak Hotel" and an infectious thumper on the old Chess label, called "School Days" or subtitled "Ring, Ring the Bell."

It introduced to the world Chuck Berry. Chuck Berry, who went on to one hit after another and became a favorite with every teenager who bought records. And then just as suddenly as he arrived on the scene, he was gone. As in everything, times and tastes change. But during the last 5 or 6 years, looking back has become a comfortable thing to do and therefore, sounds, sights and people are returning to again amuse and relax us.

Last week at the Casino Lounge in the Hilton-International Hotel, the same Chuck Berry arrived . . . no . . . not arrived . . . BURST on the Las Vegas scene. And the people remembered. That place was packed. I stood in the rear and remained transfixed for what had to be the shortest show on record. But Chuck was on a full hour. Never has an hour seemed so short. His own introduction to his act is simply telling you who he is and how he helped give birth to R & R . . . then off he goes.

His playing is dynamic and his singing is like listening to a human metronome. Chuck Berry, you've got a home in our town as far as I am concerned. I hope the Hilton-International feels the same way. If you plan to catch C.B., please, for your own sake, get there early.

By the time you read this, Pete Barbutti will have a couple of nights left in the Casbar Theatre at the Sahara Hotel. When I arrived here in 1959 I went to the Thunderbird Hotel and caught a group in the lounge called The Millionaires. In that group was a nut named Pete-Something-or-Other. After leaving them he was known as the lovable Pete Barbutti as we know him today. It is always hard to review a comedian because of his delivery. Suffice to say, I am a hard man to break up and it has to be extra funny for me to laugh out loud. Don Rickles does this as does Jackie Gayle and Lonnie Shore and Sheeky Greene and now Pete who has always torn me up. He's all there with his musical broom, you heard right, a musical broom. His accordion played so badly, you know he does play it well.

The one thing I missed in the set I caught was his impression of the third trumpet player in a big band of the forties. That is a classic. But if you know little about the bands of the past this bit could bomb for you. Pete is a true funny man who is surprising everyone including Entertainment Director Arvid Nelson, who booked Pete in for two weeks not knowing how he he would be accepted. If audience reaction has any influence on Arvid, Pete will be back.

And Pete couldn't be happier. At last he can drive to work and be home with the family. That's right. He lives here with his lovely wife Mary Ann and family. And I'm happy to say he's a friend and I finally got a chance to get him in my column. Remember, he's at the Sahara Hotel in the Casbar Theatre.

Hey, do you realize how many lounges are left? The Tropicana, the Flamingo, Stardust, the Hilton-International, and the Sahara. If Keno parlors keep sprouting up, I'll be looking for another job. I still say it's a mistake. The lounges were the backbone in the building of our town into the Entertainment Capital of the world. Think of how many big names got their start in our lounges . . . Louis Prima, Mary Kaye Trio, Shecky Greene, John Byner, Jackie Gayle, Don Rickles, Totie Fields, Vic Damone and so on. The lounge was the proving ground for these people. The only hope for any kind of a return to the lounge concept is to start over again with the easy free wheeling open lounges like the Castaways is featuring with Bobby Sherwood and the Casino Lounge in the Trop with Dave Burton and Red Norvo and the Regency Lounge in the Sands with Bob Sims. This is how it all started . . . and they say history repeats itself. Let's hope so.

See you next week and everyday on TV 5. 'Bve now.

CRISWELL PREDICTS

Edson Gould and the Moody Stock Survey, points the way for a 1975 Dow Jones Average of 1400! The firming of domestic and foreign markets will bring the Dow Jones to a comfortable average for all of us! . . . I predict that the South and the West will feel the financial pull first and this will create more jobs than once expected. When we consider King Cotton and Queen Oil as the absolute rulers of thee conomy, there is little doubt left! . . . I predict that the bumper fruit, grain and vegetable crops will result in lower prices by mid-Summer! This could easily be a price war on frozen foods! The cost of freezing will be reduced due to a new method of freezing instantly on the spot! The cost of refrigeration is mounting, and the products will not be held as long! Yes, a price war on all frozen foods could readily happen by July-August, so be prepared! . . . I predict that semi-personal finance companies will answer many questions as to discrimination of borrowers! Some times the minorities suffer injustice and this will be looked into very closely by early Fall . . . I predict that the Great Lakes will suffer contamination again this Summer due to the excessive heat and the drainage problems! Many dead fish will again decorate the shores and create a health hazard! We are at the whim of Mother Nature and don't you forget it.

THE PUBLIC LOVES . . .

Often times the public loves a certain type of film and the critics hate, but yet money comes rolling into the box office! The Anthony Cardoza productions of "Bigfoot" and "The Outlaw Riders" with John Carradine, Lindsay Crosby, Joy Wilkerson and Chris Mitchum, both entertainment movies, have proven this very statement! Both these films on a modest budget, brings back a certain type of Hollywood glamour and suspense, which was all but lost! I predict the next Cardoza film will be Joey Heatherton in "Toni-Jo" an up-to-the-minute excitement!

MIGHTY MIXTURE

By GARY STEVENS

DATELINE: NEW YORK:

AS A MATTER OF INVESTIGATION: The Prudential Insurance Company, for all the years we can remember, has pictorially proclaimed its position of financial strength using a picture of the Rock of Gibraltar, a stalwart mountain on the narrow seaport that is controlled by Great Britain and desired by Spain. In the past season or two, relying heavily on television exposure for its advertising, Prudential has encouraged potential policy holders to join the ranks of the insured by owning a piece of the Rock, The Rock, in this case, being Prudential as per the longevity of the logo. And the company has sprayed the names of the industries it has investments in — real estate, construction, etc. In the final analysis, though, something comes up a little disturbing. The Rock (nickname for Prudential) doesn't own a piece of The Rock (the short term for the large mass of stone on Gibraltar.)

CINEMATTER: The Plaza Theatre is a handy place to catch a picture. It's a nice, comfortable house close by the very essence of New York's grandeur, the east side of the south end of Central Park. In recent weeks this film haunt played a very strong, satisfying movie. "The Garden Of The Finzi-Continis" is a staggering account of the decay and indifference that existed among the successful, financially secure Jewish families of pre-World War II Italy. Vittorio De Sica's mastery as a Director makes the screen glow. The camera work is magnificent, but one doesn't really commune with scenery. You see a placid, tennis playing society slowly succumb to the absorbed Hitlerian codes as tacitly applied by Mussolini to the scapegoats of his country. There comes out a sordid emptiness on the part of the Continis. It is a vapid surrender. Nobody fights back, only a handful of persons escape at the last possible moment. De Sica tells the respective stories of relatively shallow, thought to be safe people. They are an unexciting breed. What you see excites you and that is De Sica's secret.

LAZY AFTERNOON: Just when everybody was convinced that what we needed was an update of nostalgia along comes the Chilton Book Company with a volume called "The Dance Band Era." It was compiled by Albert McCarthy, who has been a music writer and critic since the 40's. To embellish his tracings of the population of the band business he has been almost generous to a fault with a stack of pictures. Lots of his space goes to Paul Whiteman, Ray Noble, Glen Gray. No book in our memory ever allotted so many pages to the music makers of Europe in the 20's, 30's, 40's, and 50's. Thus it becomes obvious early in the book that Mr. McCarthy lived over in England and approached this whole subject of dance music from behind a tea cup or something stronger in Londontown. And considering the Hylton, Noble, Ambrose, Geraldo, Heath contributions we'd say it was a jolly effort, worthy of a hip, hip and here, here.

EAT TREAT BEAT: They have a fresh wall display of paintings at Manny Wolf's. Beer trucks and blacksmiths are in place of a Paris street scene or some Xavier Cugat-art. The present collection is bent on recapturing the Old Days, the Good Old Days of the late 1890's when this restaurant first came into being. During the informal celebration, the management invites you to have a beer for a nickel

Elliott (9-11-1 A.M.)

Booking Phil Harris and Frank Sinatra, Jr. together was an inspiration.
Deliciously rakish Phil, who would certainly be one of my nominations for the "Mr. Show Business" title, and attractive young Frank, a personable personality in his own right, are as intoxicating a blend as Irish Coffee!
As a matter of fact, this engagement could be the beginning of a great new team were they so minded . . .
After the talented pair tees the festivities with some funny patter and a nifty "Possibilities" duet, Phil leaves the stage to Frank, Jr., who takes over

The '72 extravaganza of "Casino de Paris," the conception and production of Frederic Apcar, will continue to delight audiences for some time to come . . . It has some of the most extraordinary spectacle rounds held over from the '71 opus, including the bubbling clown opener, the wild psychedelic romp, the dizzy Chicago throwback and the opulent Roman Spectacle, all high standard examples

382-1500
VIP LOUNGE — Feb. 24-March 22
King Henry Explosion; Ronni & Company (8:30 P.M. to 6 A.M.)

King Henry wears the VIP's crown of popularity atop his blonde pate as he swings his men into another command (return) performance. Formerly a strictly upbeat programmer, the King is permitting variety to infiltrate the musical card, with a consequent upsurge of fans. Henry's guitar front row centers movers like "Ain't Got No Sunshine" and "Get Ready." Bassist Al Randolph spotlights "Natural Man" and "Do I Love You" among his solos. Sax man Joey Di Ambrosia singles on "Celebrate," "Never Been To Spain" and draws plaudits for his famous Louis Prima medley. Among the Explosion's crowd pleasers is "Closer To Home." Bill Monigo is on trumpet, Don Terrion on drums and the King sets the cue for the entire program on his swingin' guitar . . .
Ronnie & Company boasts two of the loveliest femmes on the circuit.
Ronni is a blonde charmer on bass, coming forward for solo turns on "Cabaret," "Way Of Love" and a poignant "Superstar" interpretation.
Complementing Ronni's fair beauty is brunette dazzler Judy Reisenauer, on guitar. Judy's "Knock Three Times" and "Cotton Ginnv" have become request numbers. The gals prefer hot-

MUSIC HALL — Feb. 24-March 22
Jimmy Durante with Sonny King and the Pearce Sisters; Edie Adams; Al Alvarez
Ork (8:15 & Midnite)
CABARET
Leonard Stanley (9:30 P.M. to 3:30 A.M.
Dark Mon.)

"Lemme Hear It" demands Jimmy Durante of the orchestra before he thrusts the curtain aside to greet an audience that begins cheering at his first syllable. King of the standing ovations, and most beloved of comedians, Jimmy's back with a slate of top favorites and a new bit that tickles him as much as the audience. His stunning sextet of dancing Durante Girls strip him of layered clothing that begins with a zoot suit and winds up with a Raccoon coat and varsity flag, as the waggish Durante intones,
"It's The Man That Makes The Clothes." Jimmy spends too brief a period in serious pianistics (love the way he plays) before he's back to tossing sheets of music, answering prop calls from "Gina," and "bullying" maestro Alvarez . . . Sonny King comes on strong for his "Look Me Over" duet with the boss and a valiant Indian wrestle bit. The former fighter never fails to startle ears newly tuned in to his amazing vocal range. He also has a keen sense of timing and a wit that parries well the Durante onslaughts. Sonny's harmonics with Jimmy on numbers like
"We're Goin' Home" have such a distinctive vaudevillian flavor, he would have been a natural for that era . . .

MARDI GRAS — March 14-26
Sherman & Leigh; Harry Wham; Johnny
Paul (8:30 P.M. to 4:30 A.M.)

Miles Sherman and Darcy Leigh are making their bow at the 'Boat with this date. The husband-wife team deals out a lot of comedy, interspersed with popular standards, with Miles on guitar. Darcy is a lovely brunette who plays it "straight" for the Sherman humorisms. Johnny Paul caught them during one of his trips to the coast and immediately signed them. More about their antics next week . . . Harry Wham borders on a phenomenon. He is one man . . . and yet he creates unbelievable orchestra quality in his music. By virtue of the first quadraphonic exhibition to bow in FLV, strobed lighting, his own choreo and musicianship, Wham fills

RED CARTER LOUNGE — Thru Mar. 26
The Female Species (11 P.M. to 5 A.M.)

Barry Ashton, in his dashing style, has assembled the right amounts of flesh and fantasy to make his new edition of "Wonderful World of Burlesque '71" another potent winner. The flesh is all there in his beautiful dolls parading their sumptuous charms and the fantasy is in the collection of blackouts, presided over by that extremely funny man, Tommy Moe Raft. The little guy does it all in the old burlesque tradition and the howls roll in, one on top of an-

CASINO
Red Norvo; Dave Burton; Eddie De Santis Trio (9 P.M. to 5 A.M.)

This new "Folies Bergere," with the "Never Before" explanation, a sort of hint as to its dazzling newness, could just as well be tabbed "Better Than Ever Before." The Michel Gyarmathy & Maynard Sloate combination works wonders in production and direction. It is obvious that a great deal of care,

Johnny Leggett (Dancing 9 P.M. to 3 A.M. — Off Tues.)

It may have . . . "Started With Eve" . . . this "Verve" . . . but the team of Ashton-Kochmann planted the seed, germinating the most incredible production. Huzzahs to the producers for their daring to successfully create a full-sized spectacular on what might be termed a near postage-size stage . . . The costuming is wicked, in its obviously high-priced tag. Feathers and furs are lavish, with a profusion of rhinestones, gloriously blended together in exquisite beauty . . . Elsa & Waldo are an earthy comedy duo, whose absolutely silly capers have normally sedate faces roaring with laughter. A mismatched pair (their stage prop), they are delightfully inane in the center of such sophisticated wonderment . . . Gil Dova is a poker-faced juggler, who accents his skillfully-timed performance with infectious, clownish grins . . . The Rolan Boys execute some breathtaking actions on teeter-boards, including pyramid gasps . . . Regine Cartier, Sheila Blair and Tip Kelley are highly talented principals . . . The FABULOUS Ashton Girls are superb dancers and showgirls . . . The Ashton Boys really move . . . Every production number is flagrantly beautiful . . . but the "Adam & Eve" number is just sensational, with choreography tributes to Susan Tembey and Steve Merritt. with winning authority. His voice is good, showcased in superb arrangements, and though he is probably at his best on the swinging numbers he is effective in all musical moods. "The More I See You," haunting "Summer Knows," and "Walking Happy" are knockouts, with "Spice" scoring a special K.O. The lyrics, written by the young singing star himself, are so clever even Cole Porter would have been proud to claim them . . . Although Frank is very much himself, some of his phrasing and movements recalls the other Sinatra, not bad recalling. One of the show's high points is Junior's saluting Senior with a catchy medley of the latter's motion picture songs . . . Harris makes some admiring cracks about having to come on strong to follow a talent like Sinatra, Jr., but don't let Phil fool you—he could follow the California earthquake! . . . The beguilingly witty southerner, with the insinuating body english and flawless timing, wows the crowd both with his trademark goodies such as "The Preacher And The Bear," "The Poker Club," and "Smoke, Smoke, Smoke," and with newer delights including a country medley, some of the songs with Harris' hilarious special lyrics, and charming "But I Love You," written especially for Phil by Gordon Jenkins . . . During the highly entertaining evening there are two other happy Harris-Sinatra,

Jr. duets, "Red Beans And Rice" and "Put Your Hand In The Hand," in which they are joined by singer Lot-tie Jones, featured in her own song spot earlier . . . Pianist Stanley Wrightsman is Phil's accompanist, and the Carlton Hayes Orchestra backs brilliantly. (Mary Rettig) of how and why this Apcar dazzler remains so popular . . . Fay McKay certainly is another reason why the appeal is universal. The comedienne socks over a real professional old-timey kind of fun, with shouts of pop tunes, comedy mugging, vocal gymnastics and some pretty fleet footwork that belies her poundage. The funniest of routines is her "Twelve Daze Of Christmas," and no matter whether you see Fay do this capsizer in Yule season or mid-July, it never fails to produce howls of genuine laughter . . . Aiding in the "extra-added" department are The Stupids, a zany sextet of wild acrobats who flip and flop over each other in a mad, unending stream; the Jean Lec-cia Singers, with Ginnie Pallone, Dean Hammond, Coleen Romero and Barry Monroe displaying fine production singing technique and a "U.S. Tour in Song," that whips up enthusiasm; the mystifying tricks of Rico the Magnificent, who brings lighted candles from silken scarves and makes a silver globe levitate; Jerry Howard and Fred Randall as "David & Goliath," with fantastic strength and control in their lifts and who team with Ric Valle for one of the wildest filmed and live auto runs in "Speed Crazy," and the livelies and lovelies from the nude chorus who have their own specialty called "Sex On the Ropes" . . . All the femmes are gorgeous and exceedingly shapely and the guys are agile and knowledgeable dancers within the Ron Lewis staging and choreography with the additional "Kaleidoscope" production another winner . . . Jose Luis Vinas conceived and designed the scenery and costumes, a formidable accomplishment . . . Jean Leccia's musical composition and arranging is performed with great flair and precision by the Earl Green ork. ters are as beautiful as they are talented. Dressed in hotpant outfits with fringed vests and boots, the youngstars are a self-contained band. Their youth (oldest is about 13) is strongly captivating, especially when the five musical Missies are joined by two more petite tots, the youngest about two feet tall. Jimmy has a ball with his "sisters," when they "audition" him. The Pearce Sisters make the room quiver with their "Beer Barrel Polka" and "Sgt. Pepper's Band." . . . George Finley is on piano and Jack Roth on drums for Durante . . . Blonde Edie Adams is backed by a mammoth portable sign that spells her name in light bulbs. Dressed in a gold metallic sheath with a hip high slit that reveals her pretty legs, Edie strolls into the ringside area, her emerald and diamond rings flashing. She's beguiling as she settles down atop the stage stairs at apron's edge for some intimate chatter dealing with women's lib, pill and tea time, before she sings a poignant "If A Picture Says A 1000 Words" and special materialized "Come & Show Your Face, H.H." The Adams impressions are patty-cakers, with her "Dollys" mimicry outstanding. She changes into a stunning cerise gown trimmed with mink for her classic "Musetta's Waltz" vocal showcase and into a "nude" beaded gown for her "Cabaret"/"My Way" finale. Edie's cigar segment is a certain applause draw. Joe Berlinger conducts the Al Alvarez aggregation for Miss Adams . . . Maestro Alvarez personally conducts his skilled crew for the Durante show. other . . . He has an excellent second banana in Lou Ascol, another vet in the art of grabbing laughs . . . Janet Boyd's novel way to take off her costume of rough motorbike female down to nearly zero gets plenty of attention, along with the slithering in and out of a black cage . . . More ecstasiastic novelty is presented in statuesque blonde Angelique's parade as Cleopatra, although Cleo never did a fan dance like this one — or did historians fail to report another interesting side of the Nile Queen? . . . More a-peeling novelty is in the arrival onstage of a member of the audience, a drunk amateur matron who wants to take it all off. She does and to many a laugh, finally emerging as Marilyn Robertson, one of the fantastically gorgeous showgirls . . . Martin Gavin and Marina Maubert are sensually exciting in their adagio ebbs and flows, hitting a peak in the Bordello number, Miss Maubert's body is something to behold and it can be beheld for there is little costuming to impede the eye traveling over her lithe figure . . . Gordon Cornish not only sets up scenes with his singing or spoken introductions, but dances with the girls and is an altogether useful and handsome guy to have around . . . All the Larry Maldonado choreographic touches are superlative, from the opening camp of Broadway, circa 1930, to a 1940 whirl, but the Bordello bash is the hottest of all. The femmes know how to move well, in or out of the well-designed costumes by Lloyd Lambert in front of the sparkling settings of Fred Aldrich and Tony Montleone . . . Tommy Hodges has charted fine production arrangement and his Orchestra plays them faultlessly. along with great amounts of money, have been expended and nothing is wasted. The acts, the settings, costumes, music and extra touches are all evident from the breathtaking "Ca C'est Paris" opening to the equally eye-popping finale . . . Audrey Arno is a small, but choice, bundle of international joie de vivre, singing and dancing away in several highly pleasing ditties, accompanied by a formidably agile sextet of male dancers from the Tibor Rudas Acro troupe, winding up her session with a walloping mod number entitled "Lucy MacEvil" . . . The totally amusing Bizarro Brothers (the older funnyman is actually the father) spring forth with a collection of instruments from whistles to bells, even having special suits filled with windhorns. It's a lovable trio and never fails to grab an encore after the jingle bell jam on "When the Saints Go Marching In" . . . Gus Augspurg always breaks up the place with His Girl Friends, one being a 26-year-old Rhesus monkey and the other a Guinea baboon of 24 years. The Augspurg chatter and the monkeyshines make up one of the perfect acts in showbiz . . . George Schlick's uncanny ability to toss his voice is a high spot. With a rabbit from a napkin, a from from a valise and a talking armor plate bust, Schlick's turn is clever and filled with hilarious interplay . . . The juggling of ten-year-old Albert Lucas is quite amazing. He does what the older razzle-dazzlers do with pins, balls, rings, scarves, lighted torches and a number of other objects, and does it all with ease. He also has a nifty surprise encore . . . Vassili Sulich contributes a great deal to the overall splendid air of productions with his special balletic stances and adagios, two of the finer duos being with lithe, lovely Janelle Urbina . . . The high soprano of Carolyn Everett is a standout, while Felicia Atkins and Joyce Grayson stand out in their own way, figure-wise . . . and vampiring of human blood — the whole bit. Horror films, the chillier the better, are the new cycle switch from the sexuality nudies. Witness the success of their "Dr. Phibes" starring Vincent Price. He's just completed "The Return of Dr. Phibes" in London. This one will probably bring him and his long dead wife back to life?

It's scary to see these films at night; they're nothing to dream by. Coming up is the preem at midnight of Cinerama Releasing Corp.'s "Tales From The Crypt," a chilling horror suspenser. My invitation says bring a loved one to hold your hand so

After a marathon search for a one-man athletic team, producer Bill Walsh has signed actor Jan-Michael Vincent for the title role in Walt Disney Productions' comedy, "The World's Greatest Athlete." Vincent, a muscular six-footer, plays a naive Tarzan type who is plucked from his African jungle to become the American collegiate sports champion of all time. In winning the part, Vincent vanquished dozens of sports pros and Olympic champs who had competed for it!

"The World's Greatest Athlete" tees off in April. Vincent, meanwhile, is working out for his role with Russ Hodge, a former decathlon champ, and Mike Larrabee, a professional with your dinner. And when the repast is over, order a cup of coffee for five cents. That's rolling back prices, eh Mr. President. It may be owner Ronnie Drinkhouse's own interpretation of Phase III. Surely it smacks of showmanship and diners are responding to the deflation technique. When all is said and done what attracts the good size crowds here nightly is not the bait for the pinchfists. The food is exceptional. Sliced Steak is a magnet. Some come running for Boiled Beef. Others love the liver. Portions are large, quality is first-rate. And the gratis appetizers — the pickles, tomatoes, olives, pepper, well the bowl runneth over. Clinton Mello, the maitre d', has instinctive feelings about customer handling. What happy insurance it is to know that at Villa d'Este there is hardly ever an error in service or a flaw in what comes out of the kitchen. Complete dinners more than accomplish the intended purpose. The courses supply tasty reasons why this place has earned lasting popularity since the 50's. Mario Marchi, an experienced restaurateur, is constantly switching things around on the bill of fare. But time, the best test of any success, hasn't changed the quality of Baked Clams for an appetizer, the just right Mines-trone Milanese as the preferred potage or Breast of Capon with Black Cherries Flambe as the main dish. Jimmy Durante and Eddie Jackson reminisced about "hiring a kid who did the Charleston" back in 1924, for $35.00 a week. He was George Raft, who eventually became one of Hollywood's most popular stars. During the same period, a little gal came in looking for a job. She sat on the piano and did three numbers . . . "and she murdered 'em." Jimmy asked Eddie to "see what you can buy her for." The singer insisted on $75 a week, turning down the standard $35 offered by the Club Durante. She "went around the corner and worked for Billy Rose," where George White discovered Helen Morgan and put her into his "Scandals."

Each story about the Club Durante (New York) is absolutely fascinating. Operating during the prohibition era, it was one of those "Joe sent me" clubs. One night, two fellows phoned Jimmy and "pleaded" with him to get past the guard. Good natured Jimmy said — "Aw — let 'em in!" The two fellows turned out to be government agents who took one look at the liquor and "closed the joint." It didn't last long, but the Club's tenure was packed with enough memories for a full-length film . . . and that's for sure.

A man stopped to chat with a farmer putting up a building. "What are you putting up?"

"Well," answered the farmer, "if I can rent it, it's a rustic cottage, and if I can't, it's a cow shed."

VERN LANEGRASSE

OPENING nights in Hollywood are still fun! We may not have as many motion picture premieres as before, but we now have opening nights of legitimate stage productions at the Music Center complex, in downtown Los Angeles, as well as openings at the Huntington Hartford Theatre on Vine Street in Hollywood.

An opening at the Huntington, for example, would not be complete without dinner before curtain time at the Brown Derby across the street. You can bet it's the restaurant to be in, "to see" and "be seen," when fellow members of the movie colony decide to take a theatre fling at the Huntington, as did Zsa Zsa Gabor in "Blithe Spirit," Ann Miller in "Mame," and Carol Burnett in "Plaza Suite."

I am still a movie fan as I was in the '30's and '40's, so Edmond, the genial host at the Derby, always sees to it that I have my usual table up front to see everyone who comes in.

Since 1929, the Derby menu has been extensive and varied. Some of the staff have been with them for over twenty-five years and you can never go wrong with the "daily specials" that are always house favorites like Irish Lamb Stew, Cobb Salad, Grapefruit Cake or Black Bottom Pie.

The Derby is truly a landmark and well worth dining consideration when in "downtown" Hollywood.

Mrs. Cobb, the owner, shared her world-famous Grapefruit Cake recipe with me and, in turn, it is my pleasure to share it with you.

GRAPEFRUIT CAKE

1½ cups sifted cake flour
¾ cup sugar
1½ tsp. baking powder
½ tsp. salt
¼ cup water
¼ cup oil

3 eggs, separated
3 tbsp. grapefruit juice
½ tsp. grated lemon peel
¼ tsp. cream of tartar
Cream Cheese Frosting
Grapefruit sections
Chopped nuts, optional

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder and salt into bowl. Make a well in center and add water, oil, egg yolks, grapefruit juice and lemon peel. Beat until very smooth. Beat egg whites with cream of tartar until stiff but not dry. Gradually pour egg yolk mixture over egg whites and fold in gently until just blended. Do not stir.

Turn batter into an ungreased 9 x 1½ in. round cake pan. Bake at 350 deg. 30 min. or until top springs back when touched lightly with finger. Invert onto a rack and cool thoroughly. Loosen edges of cake carefully with a spatula and remove cake from pan.

With a serrated knife, cut cake crosswise to make two layers. Fill with Cream Cheese Frosting and grapefruit sections. Spread top and side of cake with frosting and, if wished, sprinkle with chopped nuts. Decorate top with additional grapefruit sections.

CREAM CHEESE FROSTING

2 3-oz. pkg. cream cheese
2 tsp. lemon juice
1 tsp. grated lemon peel
Salt
Sifted confectioners' sugar, about 6 cups

Soften cream cheese at room temperature and beat until fluffy. Add lemon juice, peel, a drop or two of food coloring and dash of salt. Gradually beat in enough confectioners' sugar to make a frosting of spreading consistency. Makes enough for two 9-in. layers.
