THESE—AND 87% OF HIS PREDICTIONS HAVE COME TRUE.

During the time since Criswell's first book Criswell Predicts To The Year 2000! was published, his astounding record of accuracy has gained him an audience numbering in the millions.

Appearances on Johnny Carson's Tonight Show; on The Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin Shows — and many others — have made his name the center of much discussion — and, at times, controversy.

His first book was a "Journal of The Future" covering the next thirty years until the date Criswell Predicts the world as we know it will end — August 18, 1999!

This book is more immediate. In these pages Criswell predicts the events that will befall America and the world during the decade of the 1970's. He also answers the 101-questions most often asked him about the next ten years. These predictions will affect us all, Criswell says — and if his record of 87% accuracy continues, then every person in the world has a personal stake in what Criswell predicts in this volume!

I PREDICT that a huge scandal will be brewing out of Washington, D. C. next month. The purloined Pentagon Papers will be child's play compared to this block buster! This will reach deeply into the inner circle of both the Republicans and the Democrats! Very little will be known publicly, as each of the politicians will seek to protect the other! This huge threatening shadow over Washington, D. C. will be of world wide interest! . . . I PREDICT that the next big Hollywood event will be to honor the Ziegfeld Girls at the famed Alexander Hotel, with many of these glamour girls of yesterday, recreating their own songs which made them famous! A coast-to-coast television show under the able direction of Ken Bufum will be the highlight of the day! Yes, a pretty girl will always be like a melody! . . . I PREDICT that Ireland will again be torn asunder by violence! The Catholic and the Protestant groups will make a truce, and together turn on the Crown with a positive strength! The new hue and cry will be "Bus the British Out of Ireland" and this will be accomplished, and Ireland will be at last free from the Crown! . . . I PREDICT that hand guns will soon be issued teachers for personal safety in many of our city schools where there has been a history of racial troubles! . . . I REGRET TO PREDICT that a famed Hollywood star will expire of cancer within the next month, which will shock us all!

I PREDICT THAT . . .

Pamela Mason, Hollywood's Lady Chatterly, will write of her life and times and the loves of others for Fall publication . . . that Mr. Blackwell, the new rage of the television and radio talk shows, will play himself in a new film "Fashion Row" next month . . . that movie sets will be under heavy security due to many threats of bombings . . . that Jerry Dunphy, the newscaster, who changed the news format over night out on the west coast, will move into prime time with his program . . . that Shelley Winters will play the silent movie queen in the remake of "Once In A Lifetime" . . . SO FAIR, SO LOVELY and SO DEAD!

Yes, I predict we will return to the old fashioned sentiment of the Victorians when death occurred! We will go back to the age when we were all half in love with languid death! Even as late as just before World War II in my home town of Princeton, Indiana, nothing really happened until some one died! This would throw the whole town into the tribal custom! The person who died was at once canonized, for one must not speak ill of the dead! This is the subject of the new John Morely best seller "Death, Heaven and the Victorians!" by the University of Pittsburgh Press, which will be thoroughly enjoyed by every one over 35! There is no price on sentiment, and there is no price on emotionalism in funeralism!

PEOPLE

I predict that Lucille Ball will change her TV format . . . that George Burns will relive his vaudeville days in print with his beloved Gracie Allen . . . that Ladybird Johnson will soon issue her famous Southern recipes for the Holiday shopper . . . that the all time favorite soap serial of the 30's and the 40's "Myrt and Marge" will soon hit the TV screens and will rival "The Return To Peyton Place" . . . that Vivien Kellems will win out in her tax situation with the Treasury over the high single tax for single people . . . that the last will and testament of the late George Sanders will shock many . . . that the bogus medicare doctors will be caught by their income tax evasion! Yes, a parade of people in your coming future!

POPE John told it to Red Skelton . . . Periodically, the Rabbi and the Pope met in a chamber where a scroll was encased in an exquisite container, upon which shone an ethereal light. The day finally arrived when they couldn't contain their curiosity. Because it was the Ecumenical Year, both decided they should determine the content. They carefully moistened the container with the fat of a lamb and opened it. Finding the scroll of Aramaic origin, an interpreter was summoned. When he translated it, the Pope turned to the Rabbi and sighed . . . "Well, we lose again. It's the tab for the Last Supper."

Looking into Red Skelton's background, one wonders if he became a clown as a result of the unhappiness that framed his tender years. Red was born two months after his father died. His foster parents tried to kill him when he was seven, by tying him to a motorcycle. The scars are still with him. He escaped that depressing atmosphere when he was 10 and came very close to joining the Ministry.

Earlier this year, a nouveau critic made disparaging remarks about Red's "flag waving" and ascribed his closing speech to another comedian . . . More people should be as proud as Red is of loving his country. . . . That closing curtain speech is one that Red's father used before him — and his father before him . . . Next time you hear it, listen a bit more intently. You'll hear Red's voice become that of a wistful child . . . a child that has long wished his daddy could be in the wings watching — if only for those few precious moments.

(co-owner New Copa Lounge) reminiscing about their meeting thirty years ago. During World War II, Rocky was with the Artie Shaw Navy Band and Al was the chef at the Officers Club in Hawaii . . . All roads have since led to Las Vegas . . . where Rocky enjoys spending time with another good buddy — Louis Prima.

Enjoyed a note from Chicago-based Gina and Sig Sakowicz. Sig was especially happy to hear of children's theatre coming to FLV, advising he and his beautiful wife are grossly interested in becoming a part of an adult version . . . Sig's taped interview with the Flamingo's Bill Miller will be used on his WGN Show today (May 13).

The Fremont's comedy star Vic Arnell reached into his store of personal experiences to tell this one. When he came out of the anesthesia following surgery, the first phone call came from his mother, who refused to believe his voice was weak because he had just regained consciousness — so she insisted on a full complement of nurses . . . Vic conceded it must have been the first time anyone suggested a 24 hour nurse alert, for a hernia patient.

Showboat's Johnny Paul returned from the N. M. Association of Counties confab long enough to wave hello to his wife Winnie before he flew to Ohio to entertain at the American Mining Convention in Cleveland, followed by a date at the Canadian Pipeline convention in Montreal.

Label it "Pathos takes a turn for the Humor" . . . With tight security control in Chicago, anti-hijacking, metal detecting devices are prominent at the airport. On his way to Philadelphia, Freddie Baccari (Hilton/The Characters) had to change planes in the Windy City. Passing thru the detection area, he registered a high metal count. Officials were unable to find anything on his person to merit the reaction so they shrugged it off as a malfunction. However, when Freddie walked by the device again, the results were the same. When security began to show signs of irritation, Freddie finally dropped the mask of innocence, opened his shirt to reveal the scars of his open heart surgery, and explained that his ribs were wired together. (Is true, Freddie? Or — is it a Freddie funner? Tell your sister-in-law it's plastic — not metal!)

Against her better wishes, Lori Perry signed the forehead of a young fan at the "Celebrity Signing Party" for ACS. Twenty minutes later, a sheepish young lad returned with paper and pen and explained his mom had insisted he wash his face.

Pat Cooper (Flamingo comedy star) and Izzy Marion extremely incensed over "The Godfather." Displaying a fierce pride for their ancestry, they want to know why film producers elected this theme, instead of favoring their centuries old art cultures which originated in the years B.C.

Dropped by for one of our frequent Flamingo Casino Theatre visits in time to catch Johnnie Ray enjoying another standing ovation, and spotted Entertainment Director Bill Miller at the entrance to the lounge. When someone asked him what he thought of Johnnie's return to this lounge, the elated Miller literally sang out . . . "Everything Is Beautiful!"

MARTHA RAYE was the recipient of "People Helping People's" first major award—and at their first installation of officers at a buffet dinner dance at the Beverly Hills Hotel. Martha stands for much more than a talented comedienne. This woman has known the highs and the lows of career and personal life. She's the living proof that if you give love and yourself, as she does — entertaining, nursing, scrubbing, doing everything she can for our servicemen in Vietnam—love, honors and great happiness comes back to you.

Martha was radiant, with her beautiful daughter Melodye, Nick Condos and other loved ones present to see her so honored. Red Buttons was tremendous as presenter. While Mary Norman Levin, Erna Lazarus Diverdi, Betty Oppenheim, Ruth Lampport in picturesque Summer gowns are the new officials, and also hosted the gala.

Mary said, "helping people in your own locality, your own neighborhood, at home" all started when four of these dolls were lunching last year. They were trying to decide how they could get help for a family devastated by the earthquake, but not eligible for relief. They decided people do need help, and they organized. New to charity work, they love it, and love will shower on them its reward for their efforts. They had been able to buy uniforms for a grade school team to go to the Olympics. The P.H.P. has a "Mr. Anonymous," who gave $500. "Mr. A.," me thinks, is Mary's husband Norman, or Ruth Lampport's Paul—or? Red Buttons took the bows for "Mr. A." until "Mr. A." stands up himself. Betty Oppenheim, wearing an unusual caftan of pieces of vari-colored suede sewed together, said Jill St. John had brought it back to her from Rome. Jill is ski happy at the moment in Aspen. You see where she gets her beautiful eyes from — her mom, natch.

There was a discussion of dentists, who really stick you—not with needles, but big bills. The biggest, busiest and most honest was voted Dr. Alfred Frank in Century City.

Tod Jonson, my former assistant for several years, but currently in picture production called all shook up—with happiness. "I feel just like Mike Todd," he announced. "I've just signed contracts for 'Broadway in the Park,' which kicks off the Summer season in Atlanta, Georgia May 23 with Carol Lawrence!" Tod and some friends were talking about their favorite stars and Tod said he'd like to turn producer of a big open air musical Summer festival season. Everyone began wondering where? It was discovered that the Chastain Memorial Park in Atlanta has been only used for occasional special events, and maybe someone could get the City Fathers down south to refurbish it and lease it to a theatre group, if there was a group. The boys call themselves "La-Jon Productions." They got the Parks and Recreation Dept. of Atlanta to allot $30,000 to put the park theatre back into business. The stage is being rebuilt and painted, and they'll run through to Sept. 2nd.

"We've signed Carol Channing, Pearl Bailey, Mitzi Gaynor and Dorothy Lamour," enthused Tod. "We're flying a plane of press and celebrities there for the opening."

That's how Mike Todd got started. Anyone have a civic amphitheatre that isn't being used anywhere???

Got on the telephone to Greer Garson who, of all things, is moving out of her Stone Canyon Mansion. Between movers and packers, Greer said it was a real blast, moving day. She's taking a new condominium, and she's up to her ears in designers, painters and all. Louis B. Mayer told her when she first moved into the Bel Air Manse, "You won't be able to live in such a mansion always!" Greer has. Besides, she's got a ranch in Texas and another home in New York. Better, she is a happy woman with a wonderful husband. Oh well, a girl can have everything—if she's G. Garson.

It was exciting to attend Mayor Sam Yorty's press conference and hear first hand that he has asked the Youth Advisory Council of Greater Los Angeles to apply for $7.2 million in Federal funds, which will provide 18 million lunches for youths this Summer in the Greater L. A. area. "This is for the young people in the 3 to 21 years of age bracket," he said. "For some, this is the only balanced meal they will receive during the entire day." Makes you think.

Talked with Zsa Zsa Gabor, so sad over the death of George Sanders. "I don't understand it," said the beauty at her Bel Air home. "I was with George in Paris just a week ago. He seemed well. I had taken him to the doctor, who was giving him pills for high blood pressure. He had a film to make in Paris. He was not broke. I'm sorry I left him there. I thought he was feeling fine." Zsa Zsa, who has always been kindness itself to George, said she wouldn't go to the funeral. "It would be like a circus. I loved him," she said softly.

When I was a little girl, I was a great fan of Louella Parsons, Liza Wilson, and Mitzi Cummings, who wrote in the movie magazines. Louella came through Utah and publicly accoladed my first movie column on the Deseret News in Salt Lake City, saying I was going to become a great columnist. (Louella had never given such a plug to any writer before.) Then I met Liza Wilson, and told her how I read her every word. She replied, "I never read what I write—I'm too busy!" (I all but fainted, for I

Lights of Las Vegas

SHOW business around the country gets a shot in the arm with the opening of many open-air and theatres in the round. This will give the entertainer new grass roots. Many performers feel that the lost momentum will recover in a short period of time.

Concert amphitheatres, some located in suburbia areas of big cities are being blueprinted to hold as many as 6,000 persons, while others with a 3,000 seating capacity may have the biggest year ever, due to booking top name stars six nights a week. A guarantee against a percentage seems to be the trend.

In the past ten years most of the entertainers were essentially appearing in nightclubs and now it gives them another outlet which should hypo their yearly earnings and keep them busy.

Some agents and stars feel that the showgoing public was living in fear in going to a performance where possible violence may take place, parking problems, traffic congestions and general discomfort.

There must be a dozen or more spots set to show name performers such as Westbury, Long Island; Mill Run in Chicago; Circle Star in San Francisco; Sharp Center in Houston; Warwick, Rhode Island; Wallingford, Conn.; Starlight Theatre in Kansas City; Musical Carnical in Cleveland, Ohio; Cohasset, Mass.; Hyannis, Mass.; North Tonawanda, N. Y., and Melody Fair in Buffalo, N. Y. Most of the theatres are from 20 to 60 miles away from the heart of the city.

Having had the opportunity of talking to various show bookers of the places mentioned, they say people who go to see these shows are very enthusiastic because they get to see real live stars for a change.

The price of the show is fair. It starts at $4 and goes to $8. Most of the entertainers give at least a two hour show with the promoter and performer able to make a lot of money.

When you purchase a theatre ticket, one knows exactly where they are going to sit. In a nightclub it's up to the maitre d' and there are only so many choice seats. No one can have a guarantee of a certain table unless you know someone associated with the club.

Show business is now going where the people are instead of expecting people to come where show business is.

The new fad in open-air and theatres-in-the-round will continue to boom as long as the artist goes all out to give the showgoing public a run for it's money. It could turn out to be a healthy situation.

RAMBLING AROUND — Arvid Nelson set Sonny and Cher for a return stand at Hotel Sahara starting Sept. 19. They had a record breaking stint in their last outing . . . Sammy Davis, Jr. will not take over as Enter-

I THOUGHT everyone would get last week's bit of trivia. The movie star who had the nickname of "Babe" was none other than . . . Oliver Hardy. In fact, Stan Laurel never referred to his partner as Ollie or Oliver, in real life. It was always "Babe."

Okay, kiddies, here we go with next week's brain buster. Who was the star in the old TV series "Racket Squad"? Remember that one?

Last week was taken up with my son's birthday on Tuesday, and my daughter's on Saturday. In between, I helped someone move and was saddened at the death of a very close and personal friend. He was Marty Flax, a musician. I'm writing this as there may be friends of his in different parts of the world who might not hear of his passing, except for this column.

I was honored to have been asked to deliver the eulogy. This was a jazz service. By this I mean Marty's closest friends played three jazz sets during the brief but deeply moving ceremony. This was the way Marty wanted it.

Saturday night, I took both of my heirs to double Circus and turned them loose. From 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. they had a ball. One thing I noticed . . . the young people who run the fun games are the most patient and courteous I've seen since Disneyland. Jay Sarno should be congratulated. And these kids work. No wonder, C.C. is my kids favorite place.

Rumor has it that the Tropicana's Blue Room will open in about four weeks after extensive expansion and will open with big name entertainment other than music and singers. Sure will miss Maynard Sloate on opening nights.

Maybe it's me, but there seems to be too many beauty contests during the months of April and May and I am on record as vowing that never again will I be a judge. It's not bad enough to hear phrases like "fix" or "bribe" but during the last contest I judged I had the word "prejudice" thrown at me. Prejudice in regards to race. Now come on! The people of Southern Nevada are smarter than that. My record on human relations speaks for itself. And how about co-judge Gus Giuffre . . . I rest my case. This might be called sour grapes on my part but believe me, I've had it. To me, my daughter is the only one who should win any contest. And you know something, I'll be the first one to yell if she doesn't win!

One of the most colorful characters of films and television is Chill Wills. Thanks to his longtime friendship with Benny Binion (Horseshoe), we all get to see this fine person once in a while. He looks good in Las Vegas and there are a lot of people who would like to see him settle here. He could easily commute for his acting assignments. Chill wanders around town like a founding father and draws more crowds than a lot of the so-called glamor set.

Wonder if it's more than rumor that Gordon Mills plans to move Tom Jones over to the Riviera, where his other money-in-the-banker Engelbert Humperdinck is contracted?

During the week, Barbara Roman works with Jan Berry, Frontier Talent Coordinator. On Friday and Saturday, Barbara returns to show biz, singing in the hotel's lounge. In just a few week's time, she's lined up quite a following of fans.

Have you gone by to catch Cherry

Wainer, yet? She's in the Bonanza's lounge and this little lady makes a lot of music leap out of those keys. She and Don close on the 14th for a date in the Islands... but Bill De Angelis wants to book them back as soon as they have available time.

Don't forget to visit Dave Burton, Red Norvo and Chuy Reyes in the Tropicana's Casino Lounge. You'll enjoy a lot of good music — and Dave's still one of the greatest performers to hit town. He's the hotel's "Music Man!"

With that, I'll leave you until next week... same time... same station... so tune in for more thrills and adventures. 'Bye!

A geologist wished to convey the facts of life to his son but feeling that a professional could do any job best, he took the boy to their family doctor, and felt gratified that the lad paid such close attention.

Leaving the office he said, "Well, son, the doctor covered the subject very well but is there anything else you'd like to ask about sex and life?"

Replied the boy, "Yes Dad, there is one question on my mind."

"What is it?" the father inquired, bracing himself for some difficult problem.

"Well," asked the boy, "what do I wanna know about all that stuff for when I'm going to be a mining engineer?"

MIGHTY MIXTURE

By GARY STEVENS

DATELINE: NEW YORK:

DIARY: Peter Duchin says he's President and Chairman of the Board of the 400 Entertainment Corp. His company, according to society's charm boy, will produce records, manage personalities, publish music, etc. Our old friend, his late pater, Eddy, would have loved his lad's perspicacity....

Up to King Dragon, to enjoy Lobster Kew and hear owner Richard Mei do a minor oration on the scholastic achievements of his daughter Joanne, just back from the People's Republic of China. And mamma at home, he calls "the housekeeper." Don't look now but Betty Friedan is flying in on that broom behind us.... In case the reviewers didn't rave enough, Walter Levinsky's first rate charts and superlative conducting helped Nina Van Pallandt immeasurably at the Maisonet. ... Romeo Salta's isn't just a great Italian restaurant. Ogle those Raphael reproductions on the menu covers. Before you order a morsel, dig the "artipasto"!!! ... Definition: A Stalemate: Not a tie, a draw, a stand-off. A tired spouse.... To Downstairs at the Upstairs where we caught undisciplined, energized Rip Taylor toss a hundred gags about the room.

Oldies, outrageous props, but the guy got laughs. Examples: "I got a goldfish that tarnished." "Two old maids out on a drunk. They refused to get off." Alice Whitfield, an intense, strong voiced singer, showed respect and feeling for Jacques Brel's songbag. To Upstairs at the Downstairs for listening session to the guitar team of George Barnes and Art Ryerson. Smooth interpretations of great oldies. Silken jazz sounds. Helped by their manager, Peter Dean, who swivels, shuffles and sings slightly above a whisper. He remembers recording star Cliff Edwards and the tenor of the torch set, Tommy Lyman. A great mood setter.

OFF THE SHELF: Last year we lunched at the Algonquin with Don Dunn, a contributing editor at Business Week. He told us of a project he was working on. It seemed original and challenging, this behind the scenes of the days when the revival of "No, No, Nanette" was pure nightmare, not a waking dream. His tome "The Making of 'No, No, Nanette'" is a salmagundi of a periphery production brain, a lady with a millionaire husband, a dance director long out of the business, a tap dancer-ingenue retired for decades, an aged (you'd never know by his enthusiasm) lyricist and his two magic songs "Tea For Two" and "I Want To Be Happy" and then a lot of etc's. New writer, new choreographer, new director, Boston, New York and smash. Citadel Press published. It is well done or Dunn well. The basics woven together through research and savvy would make a darn fine film musical (vintage '32). One of the current Goldiggers or the Ding-a-lings would be just fine as Ruby Keeler.

A FINAL THOUGHT ON GIL HODGES: The Mets' manager, big number 14, was a quiet Hoosier, a man of few words. He was very tight lipped when he first came up to the Majors. So in retrospect we wonder how we ever got him to agree to appear as a guest on a TV panel show back in 1950. The program was "Twenty Questions." Rest assured Gil didn't utter a word for thirty minutes. He was the silent man all the way. When the show was over we said goodnight, and shook hands. Hodges' big right paw was drenched with per-

The '72 extravaganza of "Casino de Paris," the conception and production of Frederic Apcar, will continue to delight audiences for some time to come . . . It has some of the most extraordinary spectacle rounds held over from the '71 opus, including the bubbling clown opener, the wild psychedelic romp, the dizzy Chicago throwback and the opulent Roman Spectacle, all high standard examples of how and why this Apcar dazzler remains so popular . . . Fay McKay certainly is another reason why the appeal is universal. The comedienne socks over a real professional old-timey kind of fun, with shouts of pop tunes, comedy mugging, vocal gymnastics and some pretty fleet footwork that belies her poundage. The funniest of routines is her "Twelve Daze Of Christmas," and no matter whether you see Fay do this capsizer

That mad, wild, irrepressible, un-the VIP boards, distinctively supporting the top 40 in a style that is singularly his. Boasting an appearance that contrasts sharply with most guitar players of the day, Henry looks like a refugee from a football team, with a head of blonde hair that appears electric in the spotlight. When Henry strums his guitar and rips off

"Get Ready" and "Ain't Got No Sunshine," the entire room rocks to his beat. He makes certain he is surrounded by a force of musicmakers who are consistent with his frenetic pace . . . Saxophonist Joey Di Ambrosia reaches home base with his Louis Prima medley, adding "Celebrate" and "Never Been To Spain" for dessert . . . A change of faces brings bassist Mike Galleus into the King's company, along with the heavy drumming of John Yaccino, formerly with Chicago . . . The King is unstinting with his musical helpings, never failing to include other favorites of the day, a la "Closer To Home."

Brenda Lee may be less than five measures a good seven and a half feet of impact. Showing no signs of the cast that recently repaired a painful leg injury, the Fremont star graciously welcomes her audience before she releases the big voice that sells those million platters. This time around, Brenda does a comedy bit with a ringside patroness who is more amply endowed than she, revealing a delightfully natural wit. Another welcome addition to the Lee production is her duet with conductor Terry Mead, which adds just the right amount of girl/boy spice for the hand-holders in the audience. Missy Lee's Ballad and Record Medlies are audience movers . . . but the wistful little girl really cements relations with a Southern Medley that proves she's a total woman, crooning a mournful lullabye. The dynamic one has a winner in her audience stroll, sere-nading faces into smiles as she poses with them for quick-photo momentos of their evening with Brenexperience. A wise showman, Brenda

The tempo is kept at top level by this talented quintet, that unstintingly deals the ultimate in musicianship. One of the most impressive of their presentations is their big band imitations, reviving the sounds of Glenn Miller, Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey, Benny Goodman, Artie Shaw, with extra treats of Harry James and The Tijuana Brass. This time around, the lovely Toni Sandoval's voice is properly amped and she delights with "You Got A Friend" and "I'll Be Your Good Time Girl." Lou Richard Green and Bill Hudson have Takeuchi Keigo is very much the star in his "Geisha Rella" revue, featuring his seven fleet dancers and four well-proportioned nudes called Imperial Japanese Dancers. With the inclusion of sensuously exciting Jackie Beer, Kimi Tanaka and Lian Chang, the choreography by Keigo, William Lloyd and special rock romps by Al Gossan, is exceedingly sharp in all its different aspects. These range from traditional type formations to modern seasonings and perhaps the best — at least the most different — setting in mock-Kabuki of the old warhorse "Frankie & Johnnie," presented in this town. Add the vocal spice of three Tudera Sisters, Las Vegas incidentally, to the highly colorful Oriental Occidental activities and the entire packet spells success. Production thrushes, the two Sabusawa Sisters, aid in the totally absorbing amusement that lasts just a bit over one hour. Production credits are essential for this well-conceived show,

This new "Folies Bergere," with the "Never Before" explanation, a sort of hint as to its dazzling newness, could just as well be tabbed "Better Than Ever Before." Michel Gyarmathy works wonders in production and direction. It is obvious that a great deal of care, along with great amounts of money, have been expended and nothing is wasted. The acts, the settings, costumes, music and extra touches are all evident from the breathtaking "Ca C'est Paris" opening to the equally eye-popping finale. . . . Audrey Arno is a small, but choice, bundle of international joie de vivre, singing and dancing away in a variety of numbers, with 15 "Folies" dancers in support for the Eiffel Tower highpoint. Audrey's completely revamped act retains

The Strategy of '21'

By HANK KOVELL

A well known Las Vegas resort hotel is suffering from feelings of ambivalence because of a promotional undertaking which otherwise has proved to be a rousing success with the public. However, Casino Gaming Supervisors (formerly known as "Pit Bosses") have been watching the venture with mixed emotions.

With some professional help — a university instructor, no less — the Frontier Hotel has begun a unique form of instruction in the game of "21" — sometimes called Blackjack. A regulation full-size 21 table was set up in the lobby of the Frontier, cards entitled "The Strategy of 21" printed, free play chips supplied, trained instructor-dealers were hired, and the fun began.

It was an instant success. An explanation came from William D. Friedman, an instructor at the University of Nevada at Las Vegas. The course he teaches is "Casino Operation and Management," part of the curriculum at UNLV for students seeking a degree in the College of Hotel Administration.

"Inexperienced gamblers are reluctant to approach a table where play is in progress," says Friedman. "They're afraid to interrupt, to slow down the game or to appear ignorant, although most dealers expect questions and are pleased to answer them. At the instruction table all these fears are dispelled, and the player is free to ask all the questions he wants, and to test his skill with free-play house chips." Consequently, every day there is a substantial crowd around the instruction table.

The instruction card shows when to "hit," "stand," "double down" or "split pairs." It also states that the chart is "a compendium of recommended action used by leading authorities on gaming and odds arrived at by computer calculation." It cautions, however, that it is not represented to be a strategy for winning, but is offered "to aid them in learning the game of 21 while reducing their disadvantage and giving them the most for their entertainment dollar."

Enter the suspicious casino executives. They, like everyone else, know that the odds favor the house. They have kept a close watch on the neophytes and find that many do in fact head directly for the casino from the instruction table. Thus far, however, it appears that the fears of the casino bosses have been unfounded, although those players who follow the rules find that their money goes further, and by "reducing their disadvantage," have managed occasional wins.

"And does that make them happy!" says Bob Zonlick, one of the instructor-dealers. "Many of them come back to tell us how it worked, and thank us profusely for helping them." Zonlick is typical of the type of dealer whom Friedman has employed as a teacher. He is a gaming buff and has read every major publication on the subject. He is personable and patient and a modest theatrical background helps his presentation.

Friedman, too, has excellent credentials. He has written a reference manual entitled "Casino Management" for people in the gaming industry. When published this Fall (Lyle Stuart, Inc. Publishers, New York), it will sell for $25.00. It is not expected to attract the same general readership as has another best seller entitled "The Sensuous Woman" by the same publisher.

Instruction in 21 at the Frontier has proved so successful that a special table has been set aside in the casino for teaching the vagaries of dice. Space and time permitting, the management of the Frontier Hotel plans to add roulette, baccarat and keno instruction. Slot players can do their own thing. And although the instruction card contains a final greeting — "Good Luck!" — it might have been more appropriate to help further the purpose of the popular plan if they came right out and said, "Try it! You'll like it!"

There's not much use for an exclamation point these days. Nobody is surprised at anything any more.

duos being with lithe, lovely Janelle Urbina . . . The high soprano of Carolyn Everett is a standout, while Felicia Atkins and Joyce Grayson stand out in their own way, figure-wise . . . No group excels like the Rudas Acro Dancers, exhibiting precision and adept ability in the "Can Can" and in a later scene amidst the lavish "Casanova" sequence . . . The stately and curvaceous Les Mannequins move well within the scenes surrounded by the fleet Tropicana Dancers, their patterns directed by Larry Maldonado, with Nick Navarro assisting . . . A fine blend of voices occurs throughout production number ers from the Tony Costa Chanteurs, and in all the music, the arrangements by Billy May and original scores by Henri Bettis of Paris and May, lyrics by Bobby Troup, have the special conductorial talent of Si Zentner. The pit make good sounds for the entire cast . . . In this vast production, a hundred credits should be bestowed, but space does not permit.

THAT'S FOR SURE

Despite contrasting stage images, Flamingo Casino Theatre stars Johnnie Ray and Wayne Cochran have a common bond in the "Walkin' In The Rain" tuner. Long before he became the "Blue Eyed King Of Soul," Wayne sang the walkin' song, country style. These nights, he's listening to Johnnie's version and recalling those many months that preceded the B.E.K.O.S. label.

John McCormick is the handsome singer FABULOUS discovered at the Hilton's Persian Bar and was instrumental in locating in a tubed series, following which he has been playing posh spots in California. John is currently causing the femmes to swoon at the Indian Wells Hotel, near Palm Springs. Even the men appreciate the tall baritone who is setting their loves a-flutter.

Landmark topliner on the 17th. The "Brady Bunch" star's turn was produced and written by Ken and Mitzi Welch (Carol Burnett Show writers), with choreography by Walter Painter and musical arrangements by Peter Matz, who also arranges for Barbra Streisand.

Beverlee & Sidro with the Armada, who have been FLV favorites since they first arrived here from New Mexico, open their initial Sahara Cas-bar four-weeker on the 16th. In just a few years, the youngstars have become nationally popular in main rooms and more intimate lounges, as well as on the network Telly.

Co-headlining with Bobby Darin at the Desert Inn, Jan Murray's material stems from true life situations, most of which he draws from home base . . . home base boasting his beautiful wife Toni and their four witty children.

Thanks to Stephanie and Peter Hurkos for the "Medical Withdrawal System," a set of five "kickers" (holders), designed to cure smokers of the habit. Each "kicker" is used for two consecutive weeks. By the time you reach number 5, the tar and nicotine intake is reduced by 90%. This column confesses the first is enough to cure you. It's almost impossible to draw a satisfying puff through the initial "kicker." (Here come the letters!)

FABULOUS Notes . . . Fremont star Brenda Lee beaming happily over the arrival of her husband and children from Nashville for a week's visit . . . The double Circus topping the gaming areas, segregating it from the trapeze performers above . . . Carme creating a riot describing the howls from matrons when Tommy Moe Raft does his "strip" in the Min-sky show at the Aladdin . . .

Patti Page looking lovelier than ever in her current Landmark run . . . With the commershills he recently made for that hamburger chain, singer Jerry Vale now an honored guest at every one of their dispensaries in the country . . . Dionne Warwick takes The Staples with her for her Westbury Fair date later this Summer . . .

Max Wolkoff expected for a brief visit this past week . . . Jean Tucci sailing on the Queen Elizabeth this month with plans to tour Paris, England, Italy, Switzerland, Spain and Israel . . . Harley Harmon (Nevada State Bank) petitioned the U.S. Postal Service for a banking world commemorative stamp . . . Merv Griffin taped his tube shows at CP, May 8-12 . . .

At his Doros Restaurant in San Francisco, Don Dianda observes that when it comes to picking up dirt, the vacuum cleaner doesn't compare with the telephone . . . Nancy Austin and David London filling their scrapbook with raves for their club dueting . . . Tony Bennett credits Robert Goulet's Musical Conductor Ralph Sharon for his decision to etch the "San Francisco" tune . . .

Elizabeth and Gus Giuffre plan to be in San Francisco June 2 to watch daughter Toni capped as a Dental Assistant . . . Herb Kaufman advises that 9100 people turned out for the "Celebrity Autograph Party" at the Hilton, for the American Cancer Society benefit . . . Among your dining pleasures, include the delicious prime rib served in the Lucius Beebe Railroad Car at the Bonanza . . .

Quarry will train at the Tropicana's Blue Room for his June ring date with Clay . . . Pete Barbutti back at the Sahara's Casbar, getting big laughs with his down-to-earthisms . . . The Treniers (Flamingo Casino Theatre) claim all Presidential candidates are promising to change "the status quo — that's Latin for the mess we're in" . . .

At the Showboat Hotel, Lou Styles featuring Johnny Farrow's "I Have But One Heart," revived in "The Godfather" flick . . . Making her stateside bow as the first performer with star billing in the Tropicana's "Folies Bergere," Audrey Arno has included an Eiffel Tower nightclub (where the Trop actually discovered her) scene in her new "Folies" act.

 So near . . . and yet so far . . .

Tessie O'Shea has been in the states for a month, visiting the eastern coast, without time to dash out west to visit her many friends here. Tess leaves on the 15th to prepare for her five month topliner in Bernard Delfont's new production at the Winter Gardens in Blackpool, June thru October. At the conclusion of that run, we hope the delightful lady will be able to return here, with or without her revue . . . and that's for sure.

GOING HOLLYWOOD

could hardly wait to see the editions roll off the presses or the magazines hit the stands, to pour over my every little word in print.) Mitzi Cummings, who had such an "in," it seemed, with the stars in her stories, I discovered was none other than Louis B. Mayer's niece! If Clark Gable hadn't taken me under his wing and made me his protege, by giving only me his interviews, I'd never have really made it big. I preface this all with the current June issue of Photoplay Magazine with Sammy Davis' interview, which he gave me. It is so exceptional, I think everybody would benefit by reading it. If you do, you'll never feel sorry for yourself again. Sammy hasn't. It's considered one of the finest pieces to come out in years. Congratulations Sammy (and me).

William Randolph Hearst, Jr.'s report on world affairs "as is" was one of the most fantastically exciting talks heard in Los Angeles in eons. Rather than a "phone-in" on brief space, I'm saving it for next week in full. It's a treat.

And That's Hollywood!

"I've never been in a World Series," he said, "but if I ever get into one I'll tell you I won't be as scared facing a pitcher in the ninth with the bases loaded as I was tonight in front of those television cameras."

OFF THE SHELF: "Theatre World, Volume 27" (1970-71) is John Willis' annual contribution to the collectors who want more than a stack of Playbills. He has remained faithful to what Daniel Blum began years ago. Crown is the publisher. Every cast of every show, Broadway and off-Broadway is between covers and 750 pictures.

NIGHT OUT: The manufacturers of metallic jump suits should get Fran Jeffries to model for them. At the Rainbow Grill, up there in the towering RCA Building, Miss Jeffries also sang. But this chick has the body beautiful for her, before she intones one note. She does up tunes with ease and coos over a ballad. The musical background she gets from a quartet of musicians, not the least of which is Milt Hinton, bassist of the highest calibre, is tops. Joe Puma supplies excellent accoutrements on the guitar. Her strong points aside from the chassis come from "No Moon At All" and the bossa nova "Quiet Nights." The medley of oldies gets to you and because three of them were identified with an ex-hubby you wonder, you wonder. She slinks, she sets moods, she sits on a stool. A "Frantastic" bundle of femininity who came to sing and did.

EAT TREAT BEAT: Suddenly late last Summer the popular East Side added another Chinese restaurant to its topography. The Golden Palace is a small, comfortable retreat — a bar up front and a dining room in the back. The bill of fare features a special dinner, any one of five items. (A key is Beef In Three Delights — fillet of beef combines with abolone, ham, chicken and vegetables) and 48 other a la carte possibilities. Sweet and Sour Pork is one of them. The accent is on Szechuan seasoning and such delicate embellishments as Hoi-sin Sauce (sea food sauce). Bob Lee is a pip of a bartender — fast hands, good memory for ingredients. John Kao is the host in the nourishment area. He'll go one step beyond being friendly and suggesting. Instant chopstick instruction is another of his attributes. . . . There's plenty of red and green coloring at the new Enrico & Paglieri ristorante. In a maza of rooms, the latest entry in the advancement of Italo food is much like the rejuvenated older branch. You start by walking up to the antipasto table and fixing up a plate. No limit to the salad, beets, salami, cheese, pimentos and anchovies, beans, etc. Then with your meal pitchers of wine, red or white, are placed before you. Main dishes run from Eggplant Parmigiana to Steak Pizzaiola with Chicken Cassiatore, Shrimp Marinara and Veal Cutlet Parmigiana as other possible choices. All entrees are served with spaghetti.

to the school children, which will turn three out of every ten into a vegetable in a mental hospital within the next two years, if not stopped . . . the industrial and commercial sabotage by employees who cause thousands of automobiles to be recalled, soups, medicines and other products due to a faulty mistake on purpose . . . the flooding of the nation by pirate editions of best sellers! These books are offset and sold at a fraction of their American price! I was a victim of this very incident and my publisher is now taking legal action . . . the new cut in price of canned goods in your supermarkets, due to the bumper crops and the new easier and less costlier way of packing . . . the mounting increase of counterfeit five and ten dollar bills from Mexico and from Canada so please be on your guard . . . the new popularity of military band music that will pep up your patriotism to a new high . . . the Amnesty Plans for the draft dodgers either in Canada or Sweden will meet with much disfavor, and could lead to open protests by the American Legion, Chambers of Commerce and other Service Clubs . . . the proposed de-criminalization of marijuana will never take place in your lifetime . . . the new Fem-Lib will not permit the payment of alimony by the husband to the divorced wife, and if there are children, the wife must pay half the support costs! Yes, the bitter with the better!

CRISWELL PREDICTS INTERNATIONAL:

Paris: I predict another crippling national strike in the very midst of your tourist season! This will result in the formation of a new cabinet and bring on a national crisis! . . . Berlin: I predict that the Berlin Wall will be reinforced due to the many who escape the Red domination! No one ever escapes into Russia, always from Russia! . . . Rome: You will secretly prepare for another Holy Year which will draw many millions of converts from all over the world! . . . Hong Kong: Your next promotion for tourists will be a personalized plan.

AFRICA

I predict a revival in the black arts from Africa! This dark continent has many Gods, Pagan, Mohammedan and Christian! And now the growing power of the Hebrew faith. Many spirits of magic, witchcraft and prophecy also crowd the scene! I predict that these many cults will be transplanted into our America and will become a vital force in our philosophy!

APPLEJACK

I predict that applejack will grow in favor for hard liquor. This makes an excellent base for all types of plain and exotic drinks, easy to fix and easy to mask as to mild taste!

HOLLYWOOD HOMECOMING

I predict that the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce will plan a Hollywood Homecoming in September! Every one who ever lived or worked in Hollywood theatrical and non-theatrical, will be expected to attend! Remember the Hollywood Homecoming!
