We've switched!

I predict that it is not what happens to you but how you react to it! The rising rate of suicide among the college and university students throws fear into the hearts of the nation! The average college and university student is most atheistic and materialistic to a tragic degree! They are filled with fear not faith! The simple comfort of prayer and belief in God is most foreign to them! They were raised on protest and nothing they can do against the establishment can further their foolish aims! You cannot break the establishment you can only break yourself against it! When a personal defeat is met, it is a negative gesture, and often ends in self-pity, and the self appointed martyrs are in growth every day! The permissive sex, drugs and behavior has taken a toll! Dejection follows personal defeat! I predict a return to the study of Religion, Patriotism and Civics in our public schools, and then this will soon change! I predict that public education will no longer permit the useless subjects to be taught but will become highly practical! The Far-Left teachings will be replaced by modern American wisdom and learning! Our youth today is too valuable to let them waste away! America is the greatest nation in history and no one should sell America short through the apology route as we have been so doing! Yes, we must and will stop the suicide rate among our most valuable youth! Something for nothing is nothing for the lesson is clear!

PEOPLE, PLACES & THINGS!

I predict that Queen Elizabeth II will issue her intimate autobiography for the holiday gift buyers this year ... that Yadkinville, North Carolina will become a household word thru the new beat in sound by composer

Stephen Conrad called the "Yadkinville Sound." This booming town will also double its population within the next five years due to new industry moving into that area ... that vending machine divorces and vending machine marriage licenses will be the next rage out of Mexico! You merely insert a coin, secure your paper, and then fill it out with one witness. The marriage license must be signed by the minister or civil officer. ... A very big scandal will soon be brewing due to the advertised "sex change" for only one hundred dollars. New sex organs can be replanted almost overnight. Many deaths have taken place after the mutilation and the San Diego police are on the alert! ... that Sheilah Graham will zoom to the top of the best seller list with her fantastic book "A State Of Heat," quite amazingly frank, so different from the Hollywood-written books. (Sheilah gave us a prevue at the Brown Derby and I do value my autographed copy) ... that Las Vegas will attract the famous and the near famous of the entertainment world as residents. The Hollywood and New York Show Factories have all but closed down, leaving Las Vegas the one bright active spot in the show world! ... that electric tooth brushes and electric combs will be taken from some markets as they are a potential danger when in contact with water or face cream!

FLASH PREDICTIONS

I predict your telephone service will improve with the new automation now being installed on a nationwide basis ... that scented food will result in an aroma of the body which will last for twenty four hours. This can also be used as a protection against mosquitoes, insects and body

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

By ETTA CORTEZ

BACK in 1950, this publisher received a firm negative from every contractor approached on the possibility of a basement in our desert home. The immediate response was that the native caliche prevented it, as well as building over one story high. The caliche hasn't changed over the years, but the attitude has. Looking at the massive MGM Grand Hotel that just joined our mushrooming high rises, we were concerned upon hearing that one section of that magnificent structure has already settled 18 feet, without benefit of human traffic. Fact or fiction?

FABULOUS is greatly concerned over the conditions being requested by the Musicians Local, hoping this union won't retire its working trios, as AGV demands forced management to eliminate line dancers in the showrooms . . . A club owner informed us that he will not continue his policy of musical trios. Apparently a union rep advised him that he must hire a fourth man for every trio and contract a five day week, with time and a half (or was it double time?) for the sixth day. Dictates of this nature can only be rewarded by a lot of unemployed musicians. Other small lounges will close out their trio and small group bookings for the same reason. (Just heard that management and union resolved contractual details.)

Johnnie Ray, who not only made the clouds cry, but received the greatest amount of standing ovations in his record number of appearance at the London Palladium — and was the first to lose his clothes to overly-zealous fans — headlines the Century Plaza's Westside Room when he opens there April 10. It's Ray's first Ellay date since he played Ciro's 18 years ago . . . and the beat goes on.

Rowan & Martin want Foster Brooks for their new tuber, which begins taping in January. "Lovable Lush" Brooks received a standing ovation in Greensboro, S. C. last month, two years to the day that Perry Como discovered him . . . but it wasn't for pseudo-inebriation . . . it was for his singing of "My Way." Brooks did a fast encore guesting on the Johnny Carson Show this week (4th) and flew to Philly to tape the Mike Douglas Show on the 5th. On the 11th, he'll give another Command Performance for President Nixon at the White House. On the 12th, he tapes Joe Garagiola's new sports program . . . Before he took off for the east, Foster tickled this publisher's fancy with a comment on the new family home and garden . . . "I manage to sneak in a patch of green onions among my wife's rose bushes, when she isn't looking."

The Public Relations Association of L.V. is looking for an official city song. If you have a recording or tape (no sheet music, please) that could qualify, send it to Marci Peterson at the Desert Inn.

Coco Chanel once told me, "I never take money from big stars." Even though she would pin up hems on her suits for Ingrid Bergman, it was all on the House of Chanel? Coco also told me she wanted Audrey Hepburn to play her in the Broadway musical, and since she didn't like the choice of either Rosalind Russell or Katherine Hepburn, she wouldn't attend. In case you're interested Luvs, she gave me my Chanel number for half price without asking and with a giant bottle of Chanel No. 5.

Mary Levin, Ruth Lamport and Betty Oppenheimer, founders of "People Helping People," are putting on their big annual ball come April 28th with Sybil Brand honoree . . . George Dareos, the famed psychic, told me Gilbert Roland's dotter, Gyl, by Connie Bennett, will be the next big movie star. That was two weeks ago — and here it is! Gyl stars in "Terror Circus," her first big movie role.

Bill Hardwick, Publicity Director at Max's Factor's, has taken over spotlighting "The Masquers," as a member natch. Bill tells us: "Andy Albin, chairman of Mae West's forthcoming one-woman show in person on the stage of the Masquers Club in Hollywood, has originated a unique way for the club members to pay personal tribute to the celebrated 'come up and see me sometime' star. A special centerfold in the program will carry their signatures under a bannerline which reads, 'Mae West We Love You — Your Masquers Stage Door Johnnies.'" (And we thought a centerfold meant a Burt Reynolds, didn't you?)

Hal Kanter, the noted comedy writer - producer - humorist, will be Masquer of Ceremonies for the one-night-only-performance on April 14. And Joe Pasternak, Harlequin (President) of the club, will present Mae West with the George Spalvin Award, the "Oscar of the Masquers," which is the highest honor the internationally famous professional actor's club can bestow upon any member of the profession.

Bob Goodfried, V.P. and west coast Publicity Director of Paramount Pictures, received the accolades and was handed the award for "The Godfather" at the 10th Annual Awards Luncheon of the Publicist's Guild. Al Ruddy, producer of "The Godfather," awarded for the best motion picture publicity campaign of 1972 said: "We as film makers, put our dreams, our aspirations, blood, sweat, and tears

He has done a magnificent job —" he concluded, as he handed Mr. G. the trophy. (Film making, I've observed, is 50% production and 50% publicity advertising and promotion to sell it.)

Charles Champlin, whose reviews in the L.A. Times I wouldn't miss, received The Annual Press Award for the second time. Jerry Hoffman, veteran publicist, won the Les Mason Award. Jimmy Stewart accepted the Showmanship Award for Alfred Hitchcock and Carroll O'Connor accepted for David Wolper's T.V. Showmanship.

It was a gala where the publicists, who work behind the scenes of promotion and publicity, and who seldom take bows — were there to shine. Among those I saw were Milt Morris, Julian Myers, Stence Steinhurst and Jim Raker, A.I.P.; Frank Neill, Alex Babcock, Jet Fore, Johnny Campbell (nominee as best P.A.), Chuck Panama of 20th Century Fox, Mac St. John, Frank Lieberman, John Strauss, Teet Carle, Tom Gray (Lion Country Safari), Frank MacFadden, Charles Pomerantz and all ace publicists heading their own firms. It was nice to see Agnes Underwood, the world's most famous City Editor now retired from the Herald Examiner, pretty in blue with matching jewels glistening. And Bridget Byrne, Lynn Spencer, (Cholly Angelino) and on our "Best Dressed Men's" list right up with President Nixon, who sent us a marvelous letter of appreciation from the White House, ditto Governor Reagan and Mayor Yorty, and well, each one of the men on the list — who are indeed best dressed — all 12.

FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

Lights of Las Vegas

By PHIL SOLOMON

"Oh I've been East and I've been West and believe me, West is Best," is what Juliet Prowse almost sang to me as she took time out from rehearsing her new Desert Inn Hotel show. She opens a four week engagement on April 10 with comedian Jan Murray as co-headliner.

Juliet knows what she's talking about. From her birthplace in India to her growing up place in Johannesburg, S. Africa, to England, Italy, all over the continent as her career got rolling, the talented female star has been there. She plans to conquer the Orient in the near future.

With the upcoming stand and two more four week outings slated for 1973 at Desert Inn, Juliet decided to buy a home here for her small son (Seth) and three beloved dogs. Husband John McCook and the rest of the family are looking forward to living a home life while they work in the city they love.

The versatile entertainer claims she has found Las Vegas audiences very responsive and knowing about what performers are trying to give them from the stage.

"There's something about the people who come to see your show in Vegas. They are sophisticated in their own way, yet they seem to retain an eager anticipation. They're ready to be entertained. We all know there are audiences that approach theatre of any kind, with the attitude of 'Come On, I dare you to make me like it.' I don't mean whole audiences, but enough people who can put a damper on the fun. So when you know you're playing to people who want to see you, all the hard work that goes into a production and performance is worth while it makes one feel good," Juliet said.

Miss Prowse doesn't expect a home base here will change her from being a night-person. From past experience she knows the other night-people in the town are more fun than anyone . . . and there are those late shows.

"Phil, I hope you'll like our new show. Of the people I'm looking forward to seeing more often is you and of course my other friends on FABULOUS Las Vegas," Juliet said.

Slipping me a quick peck on the cheek, the dazzling redhead turned back to pizzaz into her new show and left this pillar feeling much taller than L.A. Lakers' center Wilt Chamberlin.

There are many surprises in store in Juliet Prowse's new show. This is a good, clean show for the entire family and put it on your list as a "must see" when coming to the Entertainment Capital in the next four weeks.

WHEELIN' 'N DEALIN' — Deil Gustafson and Tommy Corrigan told me the other night at Mitzi Gaynor's dinner party that they'll break ground for twin towers at Tropicana Hotel in July. They want to get the new Superstar Theatre open first . . . If Bob Hope signs with Grand Hotel, he would receive $5 million for five years

The plans include a bronze statue at Hollywood and La-Brea Avenues . . . that the desecration of graves in our national military cemeteries by activists will soon emerge a national problem. Any desecration of a grave, mausoleum or church will carry a felony charge with a heavy fine and one year imprisonment. From Sawtelle in Los Angeles to Arlington in Washington, D. A DOUBLE shift at the channel kept me away from the typewriter last week and I missed you all.

Trivia for this week . . . Who was Cinderella D. Stump?

The Chief blew back into town . . . Louis Prima, along with Sam Butera & The Witnesses. They're wild and funny and wild and musical. I know of no other musical group that has had the staying power of this one. No matter what style music, they do it and do it well. Of course, styles change — but Louis seems to sense the change and adjusts to it, without ever sacrificing the tastes of some of us old guys. Do yourself a favor — see a pro in action . . . Louis Prima at the Casino Theatre of the L.V. Hilton.

Last week, my girl opened at the Flamingo . . . Miss "K.U." herself — Rusty Warren . . . whom I like to refer to as the Den Mother of the World.

Rusty sings . . . jests with the audience . . . goes through her now famous routines . . . and just plain packs them in. Observe the turnaways at her every show.

This gal has come a long way from the days in Phoenix, where she was learning her trade . . . hoping her albums would sell. Sell they did, without the benefit of radio play. Have a ball. Go see my girl, Rusty Warren.

(Editor's Note: Bob, why didn't you give Rusty that perfumed "G" String the Aladdin sent out as an invitation to its "This Is Burlesque" opening . . . instead of surreptitiously leaving it on your publisher's doorstep. The neighbors are starting to talk!)

Know who J. C. Curtiss is, coming into the Frontier's Winners Circle soon? That's Jackie Curtiss . . . who has been too long absent from our town. He is one of the truly funny men — neglected too long.

It happened this past Monday. I was on the job at TV-5, waiting for Dave Madden to come by to tape an interview. Dave and I go back 21 years, when both of us were overseas in the USAF. We had planned to have lunch together and talk over old times — but as it happened some of the staff was out and all of us had to pull double duty. When I told Dave no one would get a lunch break, he said he's stop off for a snack first and arrive in time for the taping. He did — loaded with food for the whole station. Needless to say, he made many friends here. The future of his TV show, "The Partridge Family," hinges on the settlement of the writers strike in Hollywood.

The Kim Sisters close out of the Stardust on the 12th, returning May 25 for another three weeks. The girls and their Brothers Kim (Flamingo Casino Theatre) will perform during the Easter Seal Telethon finale, their first appearance together on national TV.

will be well worth your time, in a coming movie form! Miss Arden tells all about the famous beauties of our time who needed a little extra to help them be and remain beautiful! Hollywood!

THE DRUG CURSE!

I predict that the drug curse will come to a sudden and abrupt end! The death penalty will be voted for all those who push marijuana, hash, LSD, heroin and other heavy drugs. When a nine year old girl dies in the school room of a heroin overdose, it is time action is taken! Think of the thousands of human vegetables now rotting in our mental hospitals due to drugs! The flower children have become skeleton roses!

I've got so many troubles that if anything happened to me today, it'll be at least two weeks before I can worry about it.

DATELINE NEW YORK:

NITES OUT: Peggy Lee delineates a song with warm cool, if you comprehend. The buxom one with the white blonde hair made the usual indelible impression at the Waldorf-Astoria's Empire Room. She used oldies for an opener and a closer. Lots of beat and no bathos from "Strike Up The Band" to "I'll Be Seeing You." Some of her contemporary attempts weren't nearly as effective as "Fever," etc., albeit. "Do You Know What I Mean" is a first rate song. . . . Jules Podell, the established pro in supper club management, made his annual contribution to the laugh requirements of New York by booking Don Rickles back at the Copacabana. Rickles may be the funniest mobile comedian in the business. Man, how he moves. At the end of his act he comes off quite exhausted. But how about the customers out front! They're wrung out, quite depleted from steady laughter. It's good exercise for the tummy muscles, but two many guffaws cause pains. No one and nothing is sacred to Don. He can insult with perfection. Most of his humor is slammed across with such high hilarity and good fellowship that no recipient of the barb really gives a damn. Rickles is a one man roast. He's also a pretty good amateur psychologist. Who else can create a mood where instant masochism is the order of the evening and you never resist being the target of his stings, zings and refined ribaldry!

CONFESSIONS OF A MOVIE TICKET BUYER OF THE EARLY 30's.

In the unreal life of make believe nice little, harmless fantasies creep into the brain of a young man anticipating first, and then living through adolescence. To us in the darkened movie house of decades ago a trio of cinemaids were unrequited loves. First, it was Billie Dove. Then it was Anita Page. And in the 30's our heart went out to Myrna Loy. The oft quoted lines — "the perfect wife," "the epitome of urbane sophistication," "witty," "wonderful" all fitted this not too sexy lady with the upturned nose, the almond eyes and the individual tonal quality to her voice. As the subject of "Legendary Ladies of the Movies," a four parter at Town Hall, thought up, produced and moderated by John Springer, Myrna answered a series of questions, following a succession of clips that showed her in the company of Karloff, J. Barrymore, Bill Powell and Gable to name four. Some of her statements are worth repeating: "I was told Dashiell Hammett modeled 'Nora Charles,' the part I played in 'The Thin Man,' after Lillian Hellman. . . . I never sang in a movie. . . . Nudity is beautiful when useful in a picture. . . . There's nothing like a good four letter word when you need it." It was a pleasant evening, this movie meandering with Myrna. Before the program started, the audience was asked to submit questions for her reply. We just lacked the courage to write: "Miss Loy, did you know out there in far out Hollywood that we were in love with you from 1934 to 1937 some thousands of miles and dozens of reels removed?"

A Saturday Night with a Filmmaker: Opus one in this series of six focused on Arthur Penn, a TV director, who later turned to Broadway and Hollywood, and left his mark in both media. These relaxed evenings take place at the 92nd St. Y with a Huge glittering neon letters spell out his name as the handsome latin makes his stage entrance. Trini Lopez is a model of groomed perfection. He accents his songs with subdued choreography and the right arm raised high above his head has become a trademark. Each of Trini's etching hits is rewarded with interruptive applause as he sings "Cindy," "Lemon Tree," "America," "If I Had A Hammer" and "La Bamba." "America" is

The '73 edition of "Casino de Paris" bears the distinct signature of Fred-eric Apcar, who conceived, produced and directed the New Year enfante. . . . The incorporation of horses and Hondas borders on upstaging the physical splendor of the boy and girl dancers and Les Mannequins. Kirk Stuart (7 P.M. to 1 A.M. Off Tues-days)

Tony Sandler & Ralph Young and Corbett Monica not only are "crowd pleasers" — as they say in show biz — but crowd winners at the Flamingo Hilton . . . Of Tony & Ralph's many stellar stands here I think this is their best, with their elegant, delightful act paced just right to build to a deserved ovation, several of them in fact. It is a pleasure to hear such fine voices blending together, and it would be impossible to improve on the order or choice of songs, in which they often employ the counterpointed languages gimmick that first won the team national attention . . . Sandler, the Belgian, and Young, the American, are doing all their hits including the delicious "Travel Number," "Mr. Boom-Boom," "Garmish Town," with Tony's exciting yodeling, French-American medley, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home"/"Battle Hymn," "I Believe," "Dominique," catchy tribute to such big bands as Tommy Dorsey and Glen Miller's, and a brilliant "Impossible Dream." Audiences also wildly applaud their lovely "If You Go Away" and zingy "Feelin' Groovy." . . . Among the high points in the act is the team's accomplished musical director, Leo de Lyon, doing a funny

Although Kimo's initial debut here three months ago labeled him a young pro, his interim growth in showman-ship is surprising. The encore stag-ing and lighting is so impressive, it is superior to that employed by some of the top stars. In the center of all the splendor, Kimo remains the com-manding figure, young, vital, with a voice apparently unrestricted by range challenges. During the dinner shows, Kimo concentrates on the subdued contemporary tune fare, serving vocal desserts . . . "The Good Life" . . . "Killing Me Softly" . . . "To The Ends Of The Earth" . . . "Bright, Sunshiny Day" and "I've Lost You." The tempo picks up for the cocktail shows with

The vivacious Sandra MacTavish looks as though she stepped from the pages of a leading women's fashion magazine. She remains meticulously groomed throughout her stage presentation, even though she is in constant motion. When not singing, she sways, choreos and jazz dances to the music. Sandra's strong on "For Once In My Life," "I Am Woman," "Never Can Say Goodbye" and "A Song For You." Whatever she sings proves to be a crowd pleaser and she is bringing in full houses. Today's Sammy Davis, Jr. bears little professional resemblance to the young lad who fronted the Will Martin Trio, the lad who never conceived he would one day mono-name the country's leading marquees. The Davis Show is one of the most hypnotic theatrical productions ever presented here. Even his red shirt evokes a 3-D effect against the sombre-suited musical ensemble . . . and the cacophonous applause salutes the magic that touches but few performers in each lifetime. He extracts belly laughs with his immutable humor — and clutches the heart with his "For Once In My Life"/"My Life" medley. The poignant-voiced star is singing better than ever. Arranger-composer Paul Smith piano-accompanies him in a mesmerizing "This Love Of Mine"/"The More I See You" pairing, then fingers the Wah-Wah to back Sammy's "Get It On" rouser. And get it on Sammy does, with his Svengali command, peaking intense concentration with his "I've Gotta Be Me" and "Candy Man" signatures. If the entire

MARDI GRAS—April 3-15
The Jets (off Mon.); Harry Wham (off Sun.); Johnny Paul (8:30 P.M. to 4:30 A.M.)

Those zany fellows are back again with their frenetic fun frolic and there are absolutely no complaints about The Jets rocking the 'Boat. The 'Boat rocks and your innards roll, in protest to the continuous laughter that is engendered by the antics of the irrepressible triumvirate. Chuck Arnold's attempt at sophistication is utterly destroyed by Ronnie Cola's buffoonery. But Arnold uses a leveler when Cola sets out to do some serious singing and Chuck emits that startling, piercing whistle. The serious musician of the lot, Bob Geno hopelessly attempts to play it straight on his amped guitar, but oftentimes is outpointed by the flanking wits. As frivolous as their humor is, The Jets inject their entire program with advanced musicianship . . . When the curtains reveal Harry Wham in his balcony scene, the audience reaction is decided.

highlighted with a stimulating red, white and blue backdrop, with "La Bamba" encouraging audience sing-along. The star's "Butterfly" rouser features an enchanting, colorful pictorial. However, ever outstanding in the Lopez presentation is his selection of romantic ballads, especially when his voice is singularly balanced by his own guitar accompaniment, in the glow of a solo spotlight. With each engagement, Trini adds more humorous interjections and his "La Bamba" finale, with flashing lights, sends his audience home with a song in their hearts. Byron Olson is Trini's pianist-conductor. Robert Wirtz is on guitar and Bill Terry on bass. Gino Riggio is Mr. Lopez' superb drummer . . . Joan Rivers is such a human dynamo, at times one would rather choke than laugh away one of her next lines. She charges across the stage to employ verbal fencing with her audiences as she triggers truisms on wedding nights, ethnic lovers, doctors, housework and "the class" of Jacqueline Onassis. She has to have an electronic brain to be such a compelling regiment of one. Long may the Rivers' works wonders in production and direction. It is obvious that a great deal of care, along with great amounts of money, have been expended and nothing is wasted. The acts, the settings, costumes, music and extra touches are all evident from the breathtaking "Ca C'est Paris" opening to the equally eye-popping finale . . . Audrey Arno is a small, but choice, bundle of international joie de vivre, singing and dancing away in a variety of numbers. She frequently changes her act for benefit of return fans. Audrey is especially captivating singing a French medley and moving "Til The Parade Passes By," terping an Eiffel Tower tour with the revue's dancers (choreo conceived by Jerry Jackson) and affectionately song saluting the beloved Maurice Chevalier . . . Gus Augspurg always breaks up the place with His Girl Friends, one a 26-year-old Rhesus monkey, the other a Guinea baboon of 24 years. The Augspurg chatter and the monkeyshines make up one of the perfect acts in showbiz . . . According to one's viewpoint, Berri Lee is either a magician with a good comedy act or a comedian who spoofs magic, with both interpretations fulfilled in good humor . . . The Ultra Three bring one of the most humorous acts to springboard the "Folies" to a high pitch of amusement. If you don't quite believe what you see, just trust your eyes. They tell it like it is and so do the roars . . . Vassili Sulich contributes a great deal to the overall splendid air of productions with his special balletic stances and adagios, two of the finer duos being with lithe, lovely Janelle Urbina . . . The high soprano of Carolyn Everett is a standout, while Felicia Atkins and Joyce Grayson stand out in their own way, figure-wise . . . No group excels like the Rudas Acro Dancers, exhibiting precision and adept ability in the "Can Can" and in a later scene amidst the lavish "Casanova" sequence . . . The stately and curvaceous Les Mannequins move well within the scenes surrounded by the fleet Tropicana Dancers, their patterns directed by Larry Maldonado, with Nick Navarro assisting . . . A fine blend of voices occurs throughout production numbers from the Tony Costa Chanteurs, and in all the music, the arrangements by Billy May and original scores by Henri Bettis of Paris and May, lyrics by Bobby Troup, have the special conductorial talent of George Hernandez. The orksters in the pit make good sounds for the entire cast . . .

THAT'S FOR SURE

in 1931, when one couldn't have a casino within a certain distance of a school. To avoid an infraction of the law, the casino owners moved the school!

For the first time in his long career, Francois Szonyi isn't dancing. He'll remain immobile for the next four weeks. While filming "Mame" with Lucille Ball, one of the dance numbers called for his jumping an artificial hedge. The bottom of his oversize bell bottom rehearsal slacks snagged on the hedge and he was forcibly thrown into the metal hedge stand, "tearing the tendon that keeps the knee in place." The same medic who performed identical surgery on Wilt Chamberlain operated on Francois. He's cancelled his bookings and will begin dance instructions in a month, inviting all potential students to sign in.

She's in love . . . and the beautiful Helen Estrada divorces her tube career on channel 13, April 20. She has accepted a marriage proposal from a Southern Calif. resident and plans to settle in San Diego.

Diet control can be a lucrative passtime, if you're betting on the right side of the scales. Sahara-Nevada Veep Herb McDonald took off 45 lbs in a stipulated period and won a FABULOUS sum (we'll never tell how much), as well as six new custom made suits.

The District Attorney's Young Citizens Council (DAYCC) will elect a new slate of officers at its general meeting April 12 at the Frontier Hotel. D. A. Roy Woofter expects six to eight reps from every C.C. High to participate. This is the organization that spearheaded the Assembly's passage of AB 66 — the 18 year old majority bill. Pending on the projects agenda are Curfew Change Committee, field and exchange trips with the Ellay DAYCC and "ride along" sessions with Sheriffs, police and highway patrol departments.

Following his Sands closing, Sammy Davis, Jr. plays a San Mateo date before touring Japan and London, returning to the states May 18. He'll host the N.Y. originations of the Highway Safety Foundation's Memorial Weekend Telethon, with Paul Anka heading the L.V. hours.

What makes a girl feel like a star offstage? A floor-length mink coat, like the one Tropicana "Folies" headliner Audrey Arno shrugs into . . . just what every girl should have during the cold spells.

Currently starring in the Sahara's Casbar, Pete Barbutti certainly believes in fulfilling his destiny. He is sporting that trim beard because the name Barbutti is a variation of "barbuto," the Italian word for "bearded."

FABULOUS Notes . . . According to the grapevine, Jerry Lewis is planning to produce a film in Florida, with a June 30th start date . . . Red Glover, who began there as a Box Man, has been upped from the ranks to casino boss of the Landmark Hotel . . . Notice that the city limits Freeway speed has been reduced to 60 mph . . .

Lee Trevino wants to send his private plane for Evel Knievel, who is challenging any and all pro golfers to a head-to-head match for $10 thousand a hole . . . Four days after his April 12 Stardust Lounge closing, Frankie Rino begins etching his first single for the MGM label . . .

Psychic Peter Hurkos firmed a pact with the double Circus for a ten day appearance, opening here May 11 . . . Red McIlvaine moves his 1973 Annual "Bummer Awards" Dinner to the Sands, May 3, where presentations will be made for the worst TV and radio Commershills of 1972 . . .

Bowlers from all 50 states, as well as Japan, Finland, Canada, Puerto Rico and Bermuda, will compete in the W.I.B.C. national tourney, currently underway at the beautiful Showboat Lanes . . . Joy and her group have been inked to return to the Sands' Regency Lounge later this year . . .

It's whispered that the Landmark is having second thoughts and may revert to the former lounge policy and theatre atmosphere . . . Let the records show that Frankie Randall (Tropicana Lounge) has promised to treat this publisher to his own home-made egg plant parmigiana . . .

36 year old Artie Palmer, who played the Frontier (Mereer & Palmer), a recent victim of a fatal heart attack . . . Linda Michele, who appeared here in "Many Happy Returns" at the Desert Inn in 1968, returns to star in the Plaza's "Sound of Music," opening on the 13th . . .

A box of Harolds Club (Reno) matches was discovered in a tunnel at a campsite founded by Admiral Richard E. Byrd near the South Pole.

Closing out of the D.I. on the 9th, Joan Rivers is preparing for her Telly motion picture debut in the ABC-TV "Movie Of The Week," "The Girl Most Likely To . . ." which she authored. Her "Giving Birth Can Be A Scream" — a humorous baby book — is being published by Avon this Fall . . . Aside from writing books, film scripts, plays, making personal appearances, being a wife and mother, the comedienne has absolutely nothing to do . . . and that's for sure.

GOING HOLLYWOOD

Times and Phil Schuer (retired); Bill Lane, L.A. Sentinel; Raoul Gripenwaldt, Evening Outlook; Chester Washington, Jr. Central News; Dave McIntyre, San Diego Tribune; Jim Meade, San Diego Union; Chuck Walsh, K.F.W.B. Radio; Peter Latsis, National General. Holding court were Dorothy Manners and Dorothy Treloar. Too many forget who gave them their big start. I admire Miss Manners, who frequently kudos the late Louella Parsons, her one-time boss, who originated the Hollywood column business for everyone else. More were

Agent Hal Gefsky, and Julian's wife, Patsy Myers, who is a full fledged law student no less; Max Weinberg, Chairman of the Awards Committee, who previded and Henri Bollinger, retiring prexy. Adding glamour were Cicely Tyson, Susan Tyrrell, Cloris Leachman and Arthur Hill.

And That's Hollywood!

MIGHTY MIXTURE

young, somewhat renowned film historian, teacher and lecturer, Richard Brown as the benign host. The procedure is simple. The spotlighted megaphoner (only they don't use them anymore) is explained, his work is shown through simple clips and then he discusses and some questions from the audience are put to him. Penn is a warm man. He punctuates a great deal with his hands, expressive extremities in his case. Honesty is one of his undeniable assets. His picture credits were illustrated through "The Miracle Worker" and "Bonnie and Clyde," plus some footage when he called the shots during the Munich Olympics (this to be coordinated into a feature on the Summer event). Some of Penn's opinions are these. TV: "It's really focused radio. You hear something. Then you're shown it on the little screen." On Beatty: "He's a fine producer. After working his tail off as an actor in 'Bonnie and Clyde' he came in at the end of the day and poured over the books and checked what was spent and why." On Broadway: "It's a playwright's medium not a director's." On Hollywood: "A director can take on as much responsibility as he can handle." On "Last Tango in Paris": One half of it is brilliant, the parts with Brando; the other part I didn't understand. Would I have directed it? I think I would have been too embarrassed."

The secret of financial success is to spend what you have left after saving, instead of saving what you have left after spending.

CRISWELL PREDICTS YOUR NEXT TEN YEARS

CRISWELL PREDICTED:

The Assassination of President John F. Kennedy
The Assassination of Robert F. Kennedy
That Lyndon Johnson Would Not Seek Re-election!

$3.95
Illustrated

THESE-AND 87% OF HIS PREDICTIONS HAVE COME TRUE.

During the time since Criswell's first book Criswell Predicts To The Year 2000! was published, his astounding record of accuracy has gained him an audience numbering in the millions.

Appearances on Johnny Carson's Tonight Show; on The Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin Shows - and many others - have made his name the center of much discussion - and, at times, controversy.

His first book was a "Journal of The Future" covering the next thirty years until the date Criswell Predicts the world as we know it will end - August 18, 1999!

This book is more immediate. In these pages Criswell predicts the events that will befall America and the world during the decade of the 1970's. He also answers the 101-questions most often asked him about the next ten years. These predictions will affect us all, Criswell says - and if his record of 87% accuracy continues, then every person in the world has a personal stake in what Criswell predicts in this volume!
