THESE—AND 87% OF HIS PREDICTIONS HAVE COME TRUE.

During the time since Criswell's first book Criswell Predicts To The Year 2000! was published, his astounding record of accuracy has gained him an audience numbering in the millions.

Appearances on Johnny Carson's Tonight Show; on The Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin Shows — and many others — have made his name the center of much discussion — and, at times, controversy.

His first book was a "Journal of The Future" covering the next thirty years until the date Criswell Predicts the world as we know it will end — August 18, 1999!

This book is more immediate. In these pages Criswell predicts the events that will befall America and the world during the decade of the 1970's. He also answers the 101-questions most often asked him about the next ten years. These predictions will affect us all, Criswell says — and if his record of 87% accuracy continues, then every person in the world has a personal stake in what Criswell predicts in this volume!

I PREDICT you may run away but you cannot hide! Congress will vote to open the Social Security lists publicly! This active catalog file will reveal where the individual is, where he is working and if need be can be apprehended. Many missing husbands who leave their families for public welfare, those fleeing from the law or hiding out, will all be found. The rising crime has made this step absolutely a must! . . . I predict that Hollywood faces a bitter, grim strike of writers, technicians, actors, directors and the business staff. It will paralyze television, and it will be doubtful if any "live" shows are shown. Even some of the films will be cancelled. The strikers will not gain in public sympathy as the public feels these are "glamour" jobs and the competition is very keen! Many are busy now pouring gasoline on the flames of this labor dispute! . . . I predict that plant lice will invade the many rose gardens on the west coast, the worst in years. This tiny lice-insect can sap the life from any rose shrub within a few days, and the entire plant dies and is beyond revival! . . . I predict that the new simple patterns for women's dresses will reduce the cost, and you will be able to dress for a fraction of what you now pay! For some time there has been a quiet revolution in the garment world, and now the revolt will spread, and with it will come the simple patterns and the reduction of the price. This will be good news to all girls!

SECRET SECRETS!

I predict that it will soon be established that nine out of every ten automobile accidents blamed on alcohol will be proven to be caused by marijuana! This teen age problem has mushroomed into a horrifying situation which will soon hit the front pages of your favorite newspaper! Marijuana is the sister of heroin, LSD and speed, for one graduates in this family very quickly! The secret of secrets will soon be made public! I predict that marijuana will never be decriminalized! Why doesn't Russia permit marijuana?

SUPER-SCIENTISTS!

I predict that the world's super-scientists (not the ordinary garden variety) will soon announce to the world that we are within the blink of an eye of complete destruction! At any moment, the oxygen could be destroyed and every living thing, every breathing thing would perish! We would all smother instantly when our world became a huge compression chamber! Our constant probing of the outer atmosphere has riled Mother Nature and she is not as patient with her probing children as we would want her to be! Just stand by!

TRENDS OF THE TIMES

I predict that the new Head of the FBI will be a police chief south of the Mason-Dixon Line, who will restore law and order in all fifty states . . . that snipers taking potshots from hidden places will continue to threaten the personal safety of our Washington lawmakers . . . that the political writers would have you believe the next Democratic ticket will be Senator Ted Kennedy and Governor George C. Wallace! There are more votes seemingly right of center rather than left of center! . . . I predict that Dan Curtis, the producer of the TV version "The Picture of Dorian Gray" starring the famed British actors Shane Bryan and Nigel Davenport as the Oscar Wilde characters of the 1890's, will win the special Emmy

Award! Oscar Wilde wrote "Dorian Gray" first as a play, then he novelized it, then it was an opera. Sarah Bernhardt played the roles of Sybil and of Lady Farrington with Lou Tellegen in the early 1900's. Several movie versions were made, the latest one with Hurd Hatfield. It is still a very stunning object of art of the Yellow Nineties! . . . I predict that Governor Frank L. Rizzo will be addressed that way next term in Pennsylvania. He is now the Mayor of Philadelphia! . . . I predict that the Wounded Knee Indian situation will clear up as quickly as it started. The dissidents will simply drift away! . . . I predict that radio and television sponsors of the news programs will demand straight news, no outside comment, no jokes, no slurring remarks — just news — straight news! PEOPLE . . . By ETTA CORTEZ

BY the time you read this, every state in the country will have been apprised of Jerry Lewis moving his MDAA Labor Day Telethon headquarters to FLV, due to the high concentration of entertainment here. Those of us who have been aware of this plan for some time, are enthused and confident that our community will extend its hospitable arms to the fund-raisers. Our good Mayor Oran Gragson is Telethon Chairman.

150 stations will be knitted into Telethon '73 by the Hughes TV Network, with Alaska and Guam joining the rapidly growing list this year.

Joel Rogosin will produce the spectacular. His sterling credits include "The Bold Ones," "Ironside," "The Virginian" and "Circle Of Fear." Mr. Rogosin's participation assures a change of format, with Telethon '73 to be comprised of 20 one hour specials, "featuring direct and dramatic ways of relating the network originations to local cutaways." Network originations will also emanate from N.Y., Nashville and L.A.

The Desert Inn's Jan Murray will entertain at the Roller Skating Rink Operators Assoc. convene here this week, during which conventioners will confer with MDAA reps about the six-figured sum they anticipate raising for Jerry Lewis' Dystrophy Telethon, through their skate-a-thons . . . From all indications, FABULOUS believes the greatest tote board results will be realized during Telethon '73, September 2 and 3, headquartered at the Sahara Hotel's Space Center.

Advised that Bob Hope had released the story on the Hughes Hotels interest in signing him, we phoned entertainment director Walter Kane for his statement. The Hughes Hotels stable master admitted that he and Perry Lieber conferred with Bob Hope at the comedian's Toluca Lake home, April 18 for that express purpose. At that time, Hope mentioned he had been approached by two other FLV hotels. Messrs. Kane and Lieber agreed that no deal had been consummated, but they left Hope with a feeling of encouragement. (FABULOUS anticipates an early statement from Hope, if it wasn't issued before this hits the stands.)

During their social encounter, Hope and Kane discussed a common entity. In 1924, the ski-nosed comedian was straight man for Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle. Two years later, the distinguished Mr. Kane joined Arbuckle in the same capacity.

With rumors re-circulating about Sammy Davis, Jr.'s requesting an interim release from the Hughes Hotels to open the Tropicana's Superstar Theatre, Walter Kane again insisted that neither Sammy nor any of his representatives have contacted him on that subject.

Speaking of the Tropicana's Superstar Theatre, another source implied it wouldn't be ready in time to honor Carroll O'Connor's first playdate there . . . and that O'Connor is seeking another hotel to showcase him

Winner of the Sealy-Faberge Ladies Golf Classic will take home $25 thousand in cash and a new car. The Classic, set for the Desert Inn's C.C. May 31-June 3, will again benefit the Variety Club Tent No. 39. Chairman for the $100 thousand event is Ken Sullivan, with Dottie Goffstein, Don Welch and Harry Williams his associate chairmen.

Recounting his record of 200 fights, without a loss, Thunderbird star Donald O'Connor reminisced about traveling the vaudeville circuit with his family. With cash at a premium, the brothers accepted challenges in carnival sideshows, using assumed names. They turned the extra loot over to the family financial wizard (mom), who would store it in the "grouse sack." Explaining it, Donald said . . . "when times were good, mom looked very healthy. We could always tell when we were broke . . . Mom was flat-chested." It's possible that Donald will join the champ George Foreman in a one-round charitable exhibition, in his (Donald's) farewell-to-the-ring-fling.

Chill Wills, the voice of "Francis" in the Donald O'Connor flicks, caught Donald's show and treated the audience to some of his great stories as he and O'Connor sat at the edge of the stage . . . Carrying Donald's wit a bit further, he twinkles as he explains why he hasn't made any movies lately . . . "because it's difficult to put taps on the soles of your feet."

Not having secured an official release of all details, we are necessarily laconic in advising Wayne Newton that a famous TV producer is preparing a series script for him . . . but how the Frontier star would manage it in view of his extensive bookings — we'll never know.

When the Landmark Hotel's team of girl bicyclists beat their Sands Hotel sponsored opponents, they celebrated their victory at the Sands. The Landmark's Perry Lieber presented Sands publicity chieftain Al Guzman with some Old Crow Whis-

Anne Marie Bennstrom's Sanctuary is like stepping into another world. It's definitive of its name; it embraces you, cuddles you, loves you, encourages you, and relaxes you while you jog, exercise to groovy music with some of the most beautiful people in town — including Ryan O'Neal, Ali McGraw, Leigh Taylor Young, Carol Lynley, Dyan Cannon, Jenifer Salt, who are among those I've glimpsed there. Best of all, it's great fun! Having been on a writing jog for our book, we suddenly decided before leaving on national tour, to drop in and get toned. We hadn't had any exercise — well of this kind — in some time. It does make you feel groovy. The delish aroma from the Hungry Tiger Restaurant downstairs, tempts as you arrive. It wafts up the elevators on occasion when hungry people press the wrong button by mistake. Quipped Anne Marie, "Temptation's down on the first floor. Heaven's here . . . We slim them upstairs to go downstairs and gorge." Her millionaire husband Robert Prescott owns the Hungry Tigers.

The vivacious blonde, blue-eyed Anne Marie, always for the new — is taking a lot of Hollywood and whoever on a tour of her native Sweden come June 27th. It's not a tour where you just go to see museums, bird-baths and art galleries. This one is a two-weeks getaway in Copenhagen and Stockholm with the spectacular experiences of the Fjords of Norway — and included is a one-week rigorous health program amongst the lakes and mountains of Valadalen in Sweden. 'Course, Annie Marie being an international authority on exercise and nutrition, is conducting the shape-up-tour — which with her is always fun.

Everyone will settle in quaint little cottages, enjoy home cooking and evening campfires, wake-up classes, hiking tours, over-night canoe trips into the back country where the sun never sets. Anne Marie's bounce and joie de vivre combines to make this one glorious holiday. Ask Anne Marie if you can go too. The invitation's open. Bob Prescott was in Las Vegas golfing and gambling, getting ready for the big time his little wife is planning for the beautiful people who people the Sanctuary. No one ever really has to be lonely. Join.

Anna Lee, smiling from your movie screen as the nun in "Sound of Music," is sharing honors with her famed husband poet and author, Robert Nathan, at multi accolades for his work which contemporaries list with Hemingway, Fitzgerald, etc. Anna, a big English star, fell in love with a pilot in World War II, when she was entertaining troops over there; married him, and her story from there on, would make a fantastic book: a glamorous film actress suddenly transplanted to a ranch in the raw, getting water from a well, cooking on a coal stove, washing with a scrub board and bearing three sons in the wilderness of Montana. The heroine Anna, bore it all bravely with a smile, but finally was forced to return to her career to support her children. There were five in total.

Two years ago at a party, she met the distinguished author. "It was love at first sight. It's the Summer of our hearts," the happy Anna told me.

Speaking of authors, "Law and Order," Simon and Schuster's, written by an ex-policewoman, Dorothy Uhnak, had every studio bidding for the screen rights. Bob Evans who made "Love Story" and "Godfather" for Paramount (Paramount bought the book for $350,000.00) will produce it himself — as well as carry on his demanding duties as Vice President of Production of Paramount. It will be a big budget film that traces the bigotry and corruption, both inside and out, in the police departments. A real eye-opener. "It dissects the attitudes of certain cops, anti-Irish-anti-Jewish, anti-Italian, anti-Black, that impels them against civilians and each other. It has the passion of "Godfather" told through the police instead of the Mafia," says Bob.

"There's violence and killing and one incredible one, where a policeman finds out that his patrol partner is having him tailed. The cop turns, shoots his tail. His partner asks, 'Why did you kill him?' The cop replies, 'Because that's the guy who killed you.' Then he shoots his partner." Bob says this will be the big picture of the year. His "Love Story" and "Godfather" are number one and four of the top five grossers of all time. And That's Hollywood!

Veteran stage producer Lewis Kerner won a $260,000 judgement in damages in his breach of contract suit against Hughes Tool Co. and Frontier Hotel. The trial took three weeks in L.A. Superior Court.

The suit for loss of profits totaling $1,040,000 was filed in June, 1969 alleging that the Howard Hughes organization broke the contract by not staging the 90 minute tab version of "My Fair Lady" at Frontier Hotel. A one page letter of agreement signed by all parties in June, 1968 constituted the contract for Kerner to do the show.

In the letter of agreement it stipulated that the deal was set for Kerner to produce the show for one year at $75,000 a week. Later another agreement which was never signed stated proposed run of the show for a guarantee of six months with an option for one or two years.

Judge William Levit ruled the letter of agreement valid and that verbal agreements or deals sealed with a handshake were the custom in show business. Years ago every contract was verbal and never a hassle of a star making good a commitment. A handshake and a verbal agreement meant a deal.

The judge's verdict and comments were an important stride for all in show business. Court ruling lends legal recognition that a handshake or informal memo is binding. Hughes' battery of attorneys will appeal the case in higher court.

Expert testimony by Broadway producer David Merrick, Edwin Lester, head of L.A. Civic Light Opera and Robert Maheu, who at the time of contract talks was chief executive officer of all operations of the Hughes Tool Co.

Merrick told the judge that show business had high regards for Kerner's professional opinions. It was Kerner who persuaded Merrick to see "The Matchmaker" leading to the production of "Hello Dolly."

Mahue testified that he knew about the agreement with Kerner and suggested a settlement of $50,000 when the Frontier's new manager decided to cancel plans for the show.

Hughes' attorneys also claim Kerner had not obtained the rights to do the show from the Columbia Broadcasting System.

For many years Kerner served as executive talent director for Samuel Goldwyn Productions and also was with William Morris Agency.

This may be a long drawn out legal affair taking years for a final verdict.

TO Bennie Caldero, Bell Captain at the double Circus hotel ... sorry ... you were wrong on both counts. The record was "You Call Everybody Darling." The answer is Al Trace, who is now producing records for other people in Hollywood ... But, man, I sure appreciate your interest.

Now for you and everyone else who digs trivia like I do ... Her first film role was in the movie, "Miracle On 34th Street." She was later nominated for an Oscar, won a Tony, as well as the Achievement Award of the American Academy of Dramatic Arts. Name her. There you go, Bennie.

Have heard rumors about the new show at the Royal Las Vegas Hotel ... anything goes ... another Finocchio's? Well, I'll try anything once ... err ... almost anything.

The Miss Nevada-Universe contest was held at the Tropicana Hotel two weeks ago. I was one of the judges ... a tougher job never existed. But I think we all made a wise choice in Laura Fritz.

Peter Anthony tore it up with his darts at the judges and Marcel & Christiane LeBon. It's gotta happen soon. Pete is going to be one of the big ones. How about the Sahara's Casbar Theatre? It's a natural room for one of the quickest minds in the business. Check that out for yourself. Pete is currently at the Royal Inn Casino Lounge, where ol' buddy Lou Lalli is maitre d'.

Passing thought ... This past Monday my channel (TV-5) showed the classic, "King Kong." A day before, it was reported that the producer Meriam C. Cooper and the star Robert Armstrong had both passed away. Talk about the Twilight Zone! Bob Armstrong was 82. It doesn't seem possible. He was the last of a breed.

The Treniers, all nine of them, back tearing it up in the Flamingo's Casino Theatre, have a driving new drummer, Dave Akins, making his first appearance here with the wild ones. The T's longtime drummer man, Henry "The Prince" Green, has retired from show biz.

Pete Barbutti is such a smash in his current Sahara Casbar headliner (closing the 29th), he's been signed for ten more weeks this year, coming back with a four-weeker, July 9. He even promises to bring his famous jazz broom back with him, if the straw holds out.

last two seats to Vegas. (And—greater love hath no wife!)

Can't help but do a repeat mention on Sonny King at the Sands' Regency Lounge. He's a pure delight. It's this kind of entertainment that gave birth to the lounge concept in our town and might just do it again.

When Rusty Warren's horse "Fanny" gave birth to a brown filly, none of her staff could find cigars with "It's A Girl" imprint, so they had to improvise — but improvise they did — and the cigars were passed out . . . Rusty's building a house in Kino Bay, Mexico. Whenever she manages a trip there, the residents beam at her and call her "Americana Rojo." Needless to say, Rusty is determined to learn the language.

Why doesn't someone bring Lori Frazier back to town?? Beautiful and talented, she would be a welcome addition to any lounge or revue. Same for Gingi James . . . So much publicity and we never get a chance to see her. . . . 'Bye now.

MIGHTY MIXTURE

By GARY STEVENS

DATELINE: NEW YORK:

WE CAN DO WITHOUT, THANK YOU: Guys who smoke cigars in elevators. . . . Fish filets that come complete with bones. . . . Screaming disc jockeys who yell about the top 40. . . . Joel Grey suffering from the "cutes." . . . Bicyclists who ignore red lights. . . . Jane Fonda doing anything but acting. . . . Bland Mexican food. . . . John Lindsay in show business. . . . Country-Western songs that sound like one continuous replay of an amalgam of "By The Time I Get To Phoenix," "Little Green Apples" and any other earache you care to name. . . . The dry look on a TV hair preparation commercial when the wet look looks better. . . . Wagnerian opera . . . Cab drivers who ask you how to get to the desired destination. . . . Phony fights in hockey games which often make you think a wrestling match has been moved on ice. . . . Red Caviar when you can't afford the choice black variety. . . . The thought of Orson Welles, Don Knotts, Phyllis Diller or David Cassidy doing a nude scene. . . . Discotheque music custodians who try to break the sound barrier. . . . Stuff shots in pro basketball. . . . Tail riders. . . . The Prez' press secretary, Ron Ziegler's awkward explanations at a press briefing. . . . Over-polite state troopers. . . . John Wayne's walk, Burt Reynolds' inside jokes about Dinah Shore, Doc Severinsen's tailor and Norma Shearer film festivals. . . . Muhammad Ali when he isn't up on his toes moving. . . . Women who go out neighborhood shopping with rollers in their hair. . . . Moog mood music. . . . The obsolete starched collars that go with white tie and tails.

THE BLOOM OF OFF-BROADWAY: In a beatup theatre, where the audience is inches away from being part of the set or for that matter, active actors, a strong drama with comedic undertones is offering some of the season's high points. Bathed in the style of Saroyan, "The Hot I Baltimore" (the "e" is out of the sign) is a human collage of losers. The hotel is third rate, going on fourth, short of demolition and the residents are; in the main, a feckless group ranging from three prostitutes (all forms), a couple of ancient permanents to a brother and sister who are wandering toward a non-existent promised land. And the rest contribute to the morbid surroundings. All the action takes place in a dilapidated lobby, for these people an arena for communications, for breathing, hoping, dreaming. Lanford Wilson, who wrote the expositive play, has brought real life to the theatre with this project. Suffice to say, he has given height to the dregs. Marshall Mason directed his players well. Trish Hawkins, Mari Gorman and Conchata Ferrell vie for acting honors. This fascinating play carries a few lines that linger — "Hot water coming down with hepatitis" and "Do you smoke in bed?" "Try me." The Circle In The Square is the place where an Albee or Williams might bone up and where a plain, paying audience should remain appreciatively attentive throughout.

ADDENDA: Monmouth-Evergreen, a label that keeps coming up with rare orchestra records of yesteryear, has a new release, album form, of some oldies. "Jack Hylton, Volume 2," gives the listener a chance to hear what the Paul Whiteman of England was delineating from '28 to '36. It is a big, full sound with intricate arrangements. The rhythm interpretations make "Sweet Sue" and "Tiger" (Continued on Page 32)

Joy is unconfined at the Desert Inn with Juliet Prowse and Jan Murray co-headlining. There's never a down moment in this delightful show—it's up, up all the way . . . Sexappealing Juliet is a dancing, singing, comedic knockout in her act, founded on love. Act I is a mesmerizing medley of love song eras ranging from "Peg O' My Heart" and "Bei Mir Bist Du Schoen" days to such modern hits as "Out of My Head" and "Close to You." Juliet

SPEAKEASY
 Kirk Stuart (7 P.M. to 1 A.M. Off Tuesdays)

Don Ho is an absolute delight in his Flamingo Hilton return. Although the elements of the Hawaiian superstar's previous shows are present, changes in routining and new numbers make this Ho production probably the most entertaining he ever has presented here . . . The colorful island mood is set with the love theme from "Mutiny on the Bounty" overture, and the nine pretty, shapely Don Ho Dancers shaking up the room with a hip swinging Tahitian dance backed by exciting percussion, before Ho rambles on stage as casually as if he got there by mistake . . . All the comfortable adjectives like "cool," "easy" and "relaxed" apply to Don, who has parlayed that soothing, intimate style and worldly attitude into international popularity. Of course

He's a cinch to flunk the table dealer's test, for Wayne Newton can't deal anything except full houses. But, neither management nor the casino bosses are complaining . . . neither are his nightly admirers. From the moment he strolls onstage singing "You're Nobody 'Til Somebody Loves You," the audience is decidedly his. The femmes need no convincing and if a hesitant male is present, he's soon won over by the disarming personality and the humor Newton employs to poke fun at himself . . . "Did we have to come to see that fat kid—

 April 13-May 10: Peter Anthony (Mid-

 Vincent! (11 P.M. to 5 A.M.)

When Peter Anthony takes command of a stage, he addresses the audience as though he were speaking to each one individually. He's a peripatetic comedian, never allowing a "dullie" to intrude upon his ever-upkey humorisms. The audience digs the fondly foolish little fills he tosses in like the variations of ethnic strolls.
 Never offensive, Peter incorporates pub-hoppers into his performance, creating the people-to-people harmony so highly appreciated by viewing auditors. He is devastating as he storms about the stage, destroying every vestige of a frown, as his humor molds a grinning congregation. A

Danny Thomas is one of the two greatest story tellers in the world.
 Ask Jimmy Vernon, who starred Danny at his La Martinique in New York at least 26-27 years ago . . . or ask the younger generation that is invading Sands' audiences, these days.
 A good story-teller, like wine, grows even more mellow with the years.
 Whatever Danny does, he hits home, whether it's the "Oath of Allegiance to the Management," pointing out that "man and woman are natural enemies," "Irish Wakes," or his Italian father-in-law. He also turns a good lyric. Sports figure Jim Weatherly was in the audience when Danny sang
 "You're The Best Thing That Ever Happened To Me," written for him by Weatherly as a Christmas gift for Danny's wife Rosemary. Thomas' comedy is disguised psychiatry. He makes you smile at trouble. And he gives you one of the most beautiful experiences you will ever have, watching every person in the room light a match simultaneously as he sings,

MARDI GRAS — April 17-29

Anyone who would use the beautiful Pam Egbert and Baby Rae as foils for his comedy has to be crazy . . .
 crazy like a fox . . . that's Billy Kay.
 B.K. has to be one of the funniest human beings on the circuit. He has a constant humor pattern that defies interruption. But who would want to interrupt the deliciously zany clown except those hilariously moved by his mirth. That being the name of his game, Billy will wait for the laughs to subside, unless he's matching them, one for one. No matter what he does, every member of Kay's audiences is wreathed in smiles, with the majority buckled up in laughter. Pam and Baby Rae are cover girl beauties with "Miss America" dimensions. They aren't merely decorative but contribute a lot of sparkle and color to the Billy Kay Show — you'll like it! . . .

Back with Don are such other talented people as handsome young Sam Kapu, Jr., captivating both with his singing and his personality, Angel Pablo, again being awarded ovations for his big, electrifying voice soloing on such songs as "My Love Forgive Me" and cute, sexy Patti Swalley, who does a funny bit with Don before singing, and very well, a strong version of "Happy Days Are Here Again," mindful of the Streisand arrangement . . . There's much fun in the Ho show, with the star's witty remarks and ad libs adding to the natural comedy of Don's doings with the eager grandmothers who come onstage — twenty of them opening night — and another volunteer segment with men from the crowd vainly trying to match steps and movements with the Don Ho trumpet pro, Peter tickles the fancy as he blows his mouthpiece, without the horn. He also does a serious take off on trumpet players, scoring strongly on his carbon of the great Louis Armstrong. Do yourself a favor, go and enjoy the comedian with a horn . . . Vincent is back, with his remarkable voice range that spans five octaves. He has a warm onstage personality that invites informal chats with the mixologists and the audience, that never fails to shower him with requests. There doesn't seem to be any limit on the tune variations this singer can produce. It's always astounding to hear him segue into a falsetto, direct from a full, deep-voiced ballad. Fans count his "I Can't Live" and "For Once In My Life" as repeat favorites, but he runs the gamut of contemporary and standard, covering all musical bases in his six hour nightly stint. Elaine Bay is the lovely femme singer this time around. Dick Revere is on drums, with Julio Rivera on bass/organ and Vincent doubling on Conga drum.

"I'll See You In My Dreams," before he bows off to "Danny Boy." . . . Hines, Hines & Dad are all doing their own thing these days, but the end result is still one of togetherness. Gregg comes on in pioneer garb and natural coif . . . Maurice sports the hirsute and garb image of a yogi . . . and Dad is in a dignified man's sports outfit, complete with tie. The brothers sing in contemporary fashion before they bring on Dad with an upbeat, "I Love You." Moving like liquid jazz, the sons manage to entice Dad into a triple choreo to "Come On & Love Me." . . . Walter Popp directs the grand Antonio Morelli Orchestra for Danny Thomas.

SHOWBOAT

When the curtains reveal Harry Wham in his balcony scene, the audience reaction is decidedly potent. With his unbelievable collection of electronic gizmos, Harry creates multiple voice harmony and total orchestra sounds. He is one of the marvels of the music business, lending the most inventive approach ever conceived for a one man act. Icing on the cake is the direct phone line available for patrons to cue in their requests and Harry is prepared for all of them . . . Johnny Paul is not only responsible for the top entertainment treats, he also hosts the room. Whenever time permits, he'll reach

What makes the Eterna Sonic so incredibly accurate? It's the tuning fork watch with a balanced tuning fork. The "balancing" of the tuning fork cancels out the adverse effect of gravity, and eliminates what watchmakers call position error.

As a result, Eterna Sonic is the only tuning fork watch guaranteed to within 1 second a day.

The Eterna Sonic — protected against damage from both shock and water.

a special magic and it has lost none of its lustre. Young as he is — and does he ever look it! — the star is of the showman school of entertainers, who started learning their trade soon as they could toddle. It is obvious Don did his toddling in tap shoes — at the Thunderbird he's doing a dance he learned at age three & a half! . . . The gifted actor-comedian-song & dance man is stylish, smooth, and an all around charmer. In his new show he is singing delightfully and dancing lots, with that very distinctive mobile-hipped style recalling such O'Connor stellar films as "Singing In The Rain," with each tap and soft shoe turn punctuated by elated applause. . . . Among his knockout numbers are "Without A Song," "Puppet Man," "Change Partners And Dance With Me," in which he goes into the audience to dance with dazzled women patrons, movingly effective "Mr. Bojangles" and exciting "Me And My Shadow," with little Terry Criner, of the Third Generation Steps, a perfect shadow . . .

The eight attractive Doodletown Pipers score strongly in "South Rampart Street Parade" with O'Connor and on their talented own in a great medley of hits and a stunning "Mac Arthur Park." . . . The Third Generation Steps, like the first and second generation of the fast stepping family, are some hoofers. One of the evening's high points is Donald's electrifying table top dance challenge with the three kids, Terry Criner, Ivery Wheeler and pretty Cindy Notz, and he comes out just fine, thank you! . . . The happy, tappy show concludes with a sparking ensemble number featuring O'Connor and company, followed by the star soloing a lovely song, his own composition, titled "Dreamin'." No one could have anything but nice dreams after spending an hour and a half with captivating Donald, whose show was produced by William Loeb, staged by Ward Ellis, and is backed with contagious zing by the Joe Berlingeri Orchestra. could well be tabbed "Better Than Ever Before." Michel Gyarmathy works wonders in production and direction. It is obvious that a great deal of care, along with great amounts of money, have been expended and nothing is wasted. The acts, the settings, costumes, music and extra touches are all evident from the breathtaking "Ca C'est Paris" opening to the equally eye-popping finale . . . Audrey Arno is a small, but choice, bundle of international joie de vivre, singing and dancing away in a variety of numbers. She frequently changes her act for benefit of return fans. Audrey is especially captivating singing a French medley and moving "Til The Parade Passes By," terping an Eiffel Tower tour with the revue's dancers (choreo conceived by Jerry Jackson) and affectionately song saluting the beloved Maurice Chevalier . . . Gus Augspurg always breaks up the place with His Girl Friends, one a 26-year-old Rhesus monkey, the other a Guinea baboon of 24 years. The Augspurg chatter and the monkeyshines make up one of the perfect acts in showbiz . . . According to one's viewpoint, Berri Lee is either a magician with a good comedy act or a comedian who spoofs magic, with both interpretations fulfilled in good humor . . . The Ultra Three bring one of the most humorous acts to springboard the "Folies" to a high pitch of amusement. If you don't quite believe what you see, just trust your eyes. They tell it like it is and so do the roars . . . Vassili Sulich contributes a great deal to the overall splendid air of productions with his special balletic stances and adagios, two of the finer duos being with lithe, lovely Janelle Urbina . . . The high soprano of Carolyn Everett is a standout, while Felicia Atkins and Joyce Grayson stand out in their own way, figure-wise . . . No group excels like the Rudas Acro Dancers, exhibiting precision and adept ability in the "Can Can" and in a later scene amidst the lavish "Casanova" sequence . . . The stately and curvaceous Les Mannequins move well within the scenes surrounded by the fleet Tropicana Dancers, their patterns directed by Larry Maldonado, with Nick Navarro assisting . . . A fine blend of voices occurs throughout production numbers from the Tony Costa Chanteurs, and in all the music, the arrangements by Billy May and original scores by Henri Bettis of Paris and May, lyrics by Bobby Troup, have the special conductorial talent of George Hernandez. The orksters in the pit make good sounds for the entire cast . . .

UNION PLAZA

Plaza . . . an enchanting, sensitive proclamation of love in musical captivity. Maynard Sloate's production of "The Sound Of Music" is one of the most palatable stage offerings seen in the last three decades of theatre. Each of the cast fits his role perfectly. . . . Linda Michele is delightful as the light-hearted "Maria" whose warmth lifts her from total commitment to a cloistered life and places her in the arms of a Baron and his motherless brood . . . John Myhers, Richard Rodgers' original choice for the role of "von Trapp," is perfect as the reserved nobleman whose constraint is dissolved by love . . . The role of "Mother Abbess" could well have been created just for Virginia Jaeger . . . Norman Fontaine is an engaging clown . . . Ruth Johnson is the stunner who loses the Baron to "Maria's" overpowering presence . . . The voices of the ensemble are totally exquisite, commanding, penetrating. There is no room for improvement here. If one must reach for an outstanding vocal performance, single out the brilliant beauty of Linda's "Sound Of Music." And by all means laud loudly the unbelievable blending of "Mother Abbess" (Jaeger) and the Sisters (Jeanne Costa, Phyllis Deyo and Beth Peters) as they anoint the heart with an ethereal chorale . . . Nancy Reichert & Bill Katt are endearingly young in their brush with romance . . . Rick & Leslie Sullivan, Jimmy Cisco, Lisa Williford, Melissa & Twila McClendon (the little darling) are adorable progeny . . . Small roles are importantly portrayed by Ted Huffman, Belle Ellic and Kirk Norman . . . Multi-talented John Myhers created and directed this condensed version, potently scored by the Anthony Costa Orches- tra. Musical staging by Larry Maldonado. Original music and lyrics by Richard Rodgers & Oscar Hammerstein. (Cortez)

When Donald O'Connor announces the 3rd Generation Steps as the greatest team of young dancers he has worked with, that's a compliment from the master. Cindy's the beauty. Terry and Ivery are the clowns. As a unit, they create the legitimate versions of tap and soft shoe as originally created, long before these saplings were contemplated, and long before the languid form of choreography was insidiously phased in. This act doesn't know the meaning of coasting. The trio digs right down to the nitty gritty, including tumblesault and leaping splits, sparing no muscle . . . It's soooo good to see Donald and the 3rd Generation Steps "laying down the iron" . . . and that's for sure.

Our Sun sets all over L.A.

The new Sundance fleet of Hughes Airwest brightens western travel.

Airplanes with bright yellow bodies, silver wings and mirror-like windows that reflect the sun.

And like the sun, these planes set all over Los Angeles. Including the L.A. area airport most convenient for you.

Take your choice — Hollywood/Burbank, Orange County/Santa Ana, Ontario, or L.A. International. And take us. We go to all four from Las Vegas. We're the only airline that does.

Come fly the Sun.
