On the Cover

... Stephany Courtney concentrates on the outpourings of psychic Peter Hurkos. Although Hurkos is currently entertaining in the Circus Circus Hippodrome Theatre (afternoons), he gained fame as a psychic detective, with his famous exploits including the Sharon Tate murder case and the Boston Strangler case. . . . In a private audience, His Holiness Pope Pius XII said to Hurkos. . . "I hope you will always use your God-given gift for the betterment of mankind."

Birthday Anniversary Corner

... Gemini rules this week's birthdays, with greetings on the 26th to actor James Arness, Scottie Brooks (daughter of Teri and Foster Brooks, currently appearing at the Sands Hotel with Robert Goulet), dancer Jacqueline Douguet, singer Peggy Lee, Miriam Lombard (lovely visitor from Hollywood), George Von Tobel (of the FLV pioneer family) and actor John Wayne (his 66th), . . . Sharing Hubert Humphrey's birthday on the 27th are Patty Kattelman (daughter of Beldon Kattelman), Charles Monahan (Veep in charge of Sales at CP), actor Vincent Price (his 62nd) and Sig Sakowicz (interviewer-broadcaster from Chicago, now an FLV resident) . . . Gentlemen who enjoy birthday remembrances on the 28th are John Goodwill, Mike Maccarone (14 year old nephew of Larry Zampini, former Stardust Casino employe) and Uncle Larry Zampini . . . Two very beautiful and very charming ladies, June (Johnson) May (Marty May's everlovin' spouse) and Shirley Morgan (widow of the late Russ Morgan) receive our special FABULOUS wish that their respective birthdays on the 28th will be filled with much happiness . . . Send May 29th greetings to Sue Eggink (Frontier Rm. Reservations), Bob Hope (his 70th) and Beatrice ("Lady Peel") Lillie (her 75th) . . . Sascha Goudovitch (Dunes' Asst. Stage Mgr.) and Benny Goodman (his 64th) enjoy birthday toasts on the 30th . . . Dena & Lou Walters (now living in Florida) top their Golden Wedding Anniversary by three on the 30th . . . A long life toast on the 31st to handsome singer Jim Hodge (Barry Ashton Show/Aladdin), Joe Namath and Norman Vincent Peale . . . Johnny Farrow really should write a 16th Wedding Anniversary tune for his lovely wife Terry, to commemorate their May 31, 1957 union . . . Birthdays closing out the week with 1st of June celebrations are Pat Boone, Helen Bruno (Exec. Sect'y. to Sahara's John Romero), Dale Campbell, Andy Griffith, Charles Riley (wife Regina is in the IBM Data Processing/Sahara) and Sid Wyman, one of the most popular, longtime FLV gaming executives (Dunes Hotel).

Criswell PREDICTS

An Accurate Glimpse of the Future

I PREDICT the shattering news concerning a tragic incident in outer-space! Are the Gods angry with the man made disturbance in the Heavens? This coming mystifying tragedy will shock the entire world into a new respect! . . . I predict that Russia will execute on sight and on the scene where marijuana is concerned! The portable gallows will again be the fashion! The Russian state is a jealous state and will not permit any of her citizens to destroy themselves thru alcohol, marijuana, or drugs of any kind! Public executions will again be shown on television with a very high rating! . . . I predict that the new Christmas gift item will be the Irish harp, which can be held on the arm and can be played in a standing position! This will be introduced by Lloyd Lindroth (The Harper's Bazaar) on a coming television spectacular! You can expect a revival in harp music! . . . I predict that Hale Smith (The King of the Hollywood Hobos) will hit your front pages with his record making, world record walk across Death Valley in California from Shoshone to the Castle of Scotty! This fantastic feat of endurance will win Hale Smith new honors in the world of endurance! . . . I predict that Las Vegas will plan and hold a homecoming week this August of its famous former citizens! . . . I predict that a new control of cancer will be found from a root from Chile, which will astound the Medical World! The natives use this root in their daily diet and are entirely cancer free!

HOLLYWOOD — LAS VEGAS — BROADWAY!

I predict that one of our most famed stars, long a victim of heroin, will never see the sunlight again. She has been closed away to await the end which is growing much nearer than her loving family and fans know! . . . I predict that Las Vegas will soon open a new subdivision for the growing population! Las Vegas will become more FABULOUS than ever! . . . I predict that many stars will appear on Broadway in "Concert" a one man or a one woman show! This new trend will soon spread over the nation and become most popular! . . . I predict that Hollywood will return as a production center for the processing and editing films shot in other locations! This change-over will boost the employment of the technicians but will decrease the employment of actors, writers and directors! . . . I predict that a Broadway producer will soon hit the headlines on a white slave charge! . . . I predict that the Sol Weinstein-Howard Albrecht "The Oddfather" will be one of the greatest film comedies to come down the Hollywood Pike in many a moon! This folk comedy of crime and love tops!

pressure from the sun in the following manner: The idonic rays of the sun will soon result in many of the earth people having an epidemic of skin cancer; The atmosphere has become contaminated with a mysterious element from outer space! The sun filters thru this fine settling layer of residue, bring poison and the corruption into contact with us! Even hardy plants which have withstood the barrage of time, are now withering and dying under this relentless pressure of the sun! If the geologists are worried about the end of plant life and all forms of vegetation being effected, even the California redwoods, you and I should be terrified! There are many, many things that the scientists keep from us that are truly an impending danger! I predict that if the truth were known to you, there would be precious little sleep in your life!

THE LATEST FAD:

I predict that the entire nation will be caught up in this latest fad of having a "Roaring Twenties Party" complete with gangsters, speakeasy booze, blondes, bullets and the Charleston! The jazz of fifty years ago can be captured in the famed recording now re-issued and you can sing-a-long with Helen Kane (The Boop-a-doop girl), Helen Morgan ("The Man I Love), the singing Duncan Sisters ("Topsy and Eva"), Rudy Vallee, coonskin coats, flappers, cloche hats, bobbed hair, rolled stockings, prohibition and all in the wonder era of nonsense!

THINGS TO COME!

I predict that hinterland America will be very outraged with the actions of a Senator who will refuse to utter the salute to the flag, recognize the American flag and will under no circumstances use the word "God." In his most blatant manner he will defy his constituents who voted him into office! Here is my prediction: Senator X will be removed from office by the voters from his state! . . . I predict that two magnets for the antique col-

DOUBLE Circus Prexy Jay Sarno happily counting bodies crowding the Hippodrome Theatre to catch afternoon performances of psychic Peter Hurkos. The psychometrist has lines forming for his second daily performance before the first one is completed. Doll-like Stephany Courtney (Mrs. Hurkos) begins each performance with introductory dialogue and a brief film that documents the origin of his psychic attunement. Then it begins . . . queues of humanity seeking the opportunity to sit in the onstage "hot seat," to listen to Hurkos psychometrize a personal belonging. Despite the crowded room, filled with people who are total strangers to each occupant of the "hot seat," not one person seems inclined to falter from the truth. Incredible! Peter's amusing, charming, entertaining . . . but . . . above all . . . he's absolutely mystifying. Of him it must be said that Peter Hurkos boggles the mind with his piercing perception and psychic flashes . . . a phenomenon of the Century!

A note to the curious, wondering about the financial facts concerning the 100 member orchestra with Tony Bennett at the Hilton . . . Their services tally out to a cool $800 thousand for the two week gig (without rehearsal time!).

Among Robert Goulet's dressing room visitors last week were Lloyd Bridges, David Hartman ("Bold Ones") and Roy Emerson . . . During a very private, advance showing of one of their tandem presentations slated for the Frontier June 28, David Leland and this publisher were the only spectators. It was between shows, and the guests in the showroom will never know what they missed as the profile-perfect couple danced, laughed and hugged behind the drawn curtain, in front of the deserted bandstand . . . Robert flies to New York immediately after his Sands closing, to appear on the Jack Paar TVviewer.

Lonnie Shorr . . . "The town was so small, the Avon Lady doubled as the church bell."

Comedienne Pat Carroll's film, "The Brothers O'Toole" premiered in Denver on the 17th. Co-starring in the film are John Astin and Lee Merriweather . . . Pat plans to do "Anything Goes" in Summer Stock (Conn.) this year and is currently on her Beverly Hills farm, deeply engrossed in details of The Center Of Better Films For Children, of which she is Prexy.

Foster Brooks beat Gary Collins on the Lee Trevino golf show and donated his $1000 receipt to Pat Carroll's Center. The "Lovable Lush" was also a guest of (Ky.) Governor Ford, who delayed the dinner when Foster's plane was 5 hours late in arriving. Foster agreed to perform for the Kentucky Colonels, in exchange for their $10 thousand contribution — also to Pat Carroll's Center . . . Catching Brooks at his Sands opening with Robert Goulet, we noticed that he would have performed for 18 minutes, if the audience hadn't laughed him out of seven.

Why are people trying to hush the fact that Sergio Franchi's dotter Greta is with the Chapter One group, opening Franchi's Flamingo show? No one will complain about nepotism . . . and the fact that Greta is a stunning (Brunette on the left) teenager doesn't in the least detract from the magnetism that daddy projects.

Having seen Sammy Davis, Jr. on-stage, everyone knows he's in full command while performing, cool and unruffled. BUT, the adrenalin flowed and the nerves were shattered as Sammy attended son Mark's Bar Mitzvah and later watched Mark opening his gifts at a private gathering for friends at Harrah's-Reno.

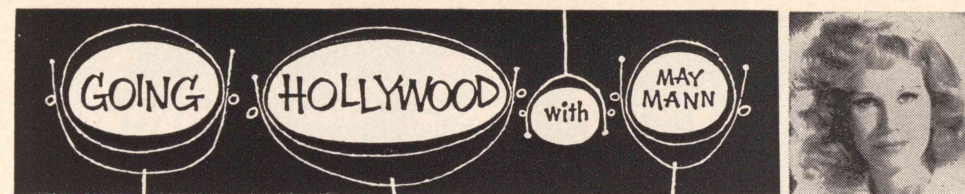

The Hacienda Hotel's new management purchased 80 acres on its south side (from Summa Corp.), for their expansion plans. The old, familiar look will make way for a hi-rise, that will include a 1000 room addition and elimination of the golf course. Their proposed convention area will boast a capacity of 5000. Submitting to the Camperland fever sweeping the country, the Hacienda will cater to the mobile travelers on the 27 acres in back of the bistro.

With Entertainment Director Bill Miller resigned from his Flamingo post, the MGM Grand and Thunderbird (Caesars World) hold top odds as his future choice. Between the two, the latter would be most logical, affording a reunion between Bill and Thunderbird chief Burton Cohen. One could go beyond that to other proposed bistros, including the one quietly planning to cultivate the ground opposite the Tropicana.

Tessie O'Shea, creating a panic with her variety show in Sweden, doing a Ruby Keeler take-off with 10 male dancers, and scoring strongly in London with her two tube shows, is a very potent answer to the show booker's dilemma, insidiously invading our Entertainment Capital.

Come now, Marlon isn't so bad, is he—? He is sincere and does believe in what he does — although he doesn't publicize it, nor ask to take bows!

Tina Sinatra is decorating the house and furnishing for her honeymoon manse with good looking music publisher Wes Farrell. They plan a wedding come June, July or August.

Milt Larsen, mastershowman, is a genius. What with his "Magic Castle" in full swing with all of its mysterious innovations, Milt produces six shows a year — and always sell outs — with fantastic entertainment!

Yet withal, he produced the Fiftieth Annual Magical Awards Banquet at the Beverly Wilshire Ballroom with some awe-inspiring as well as very funny bits: all originals.

Tony Curtis previewed his Houdini Act, which he will unveil in Las Vegas. Piece de resistance on the dias was handsome Cary Grant. What a contagious personality, pure magic — which drew the ladies from their tables to pay their respects. Gallantly, Mr. Grant accepted their homage, signed autographs graciously, and didn't get a chance at the really excellent prime rib — until his was cold. Most of the famous men I've known, always take an early dinner, or at home, before going to these — "do's", which is dire necessity if you want to eat.

Bill Larsen said he was sharing the world's most beautiful woman, his wife Irene Larsen. And in silver lamé she was an eyeful of feminine loveliness.

It was an exciting night with the awards interspersed with entertainment. Rosemarie, in a slinky blue crepe, was one of the presenters with lively quips. Milt, making his radio disappear, was really something.

But leave it to Cary Grant to pro-two dazzling girls from an empty box — as well as a bottle of Faberge. My date said he'd take the girls. Me, I'd take Faberge — oh well, the difference in the male and femme viewpoint you know. I'm sure the femmes would have taken Mr. Grant, had they had a choice!

Did you know magicians go to accredited colleges of magic to learn the arts — that we common people can't fathom?

Winners were: Topper Martyn of Sweden for visiting magician of the year; Lou Derman for lecturer of the years; Shimada of Japan for stage magician of the year; Bruce Cervon for close-up magic; and Mark Wilson, for the highest honor, magician of the year.

A special award of merit went to Bob McAllister of TV's "Wonderama" show and a Board of Director's trophy

It won't be the same without you! . . . I predict that the Communist inspired student uprising in Mexico will be short-lived and will be put down by force! Here is my prediction: When the looting and the shooting and the burning starts, the Mexican Authorities will have only one answer: bullets! No nation can afford the luxury of anarchy! . . . I predict that you can ease your telephone calling by using the new call roll which unrolls from the base of the phone with a listing of forty often called numbers! This small plastic roll is automatic to use and speeds up time with never a wasted second! . . . I predict that "Sister" the musical based on the life of Sister Aimee Semple McPherson, will be a smash hit when it strikes Broadway! # Lights of Las Vegas

By PHIL SOLOMON

INCLINE VILLAGE, NEV. — New owner Jud D. McIntosh and Chris Karamanos, General Manager and Exec. Vice-President, assumed new leadership and reopened Kings Castle, North Lake Tahoe's largest resort hotel.

Located on the lake, the 500 room tudor-themed pleasure palace, became the crown jewel of the Lake Tahoe area when it opened its doors July 1, 1970. Encountering difficulties by the previous administration forced the hotel to close Feb. 3, 1972.

McIntosh has been associated with successful luxury operations as Caesars Palace and Circus Circus. He has many holdings and interests in a number of corporations.

Karamanos left his post as Vice President and Gen. Mgr. of Circus Circus to assume the top position at King's Castle. At one time he held the title as Resident Manager of Las Vegas Hilton, the world's largest resort hotel.

The re-opening of Kings Castle will provide an economic boost to Northern Nevada, serving as a major attraction for thousands of tourists to this area.

Kicking off the big-name policy in the Camelot Theatre will be Tennessee Ernie Ford, becoming king for the long-awaited re-opening. He was signed for a one week engagement.

Ford is the soul of sophistication, the epitome of wit, the height of theatricality and the acme of titillation all wrapped up in one handsome package. He is dubbed as "America's No. 1 Pea-Picker" and is sixteen tons of talent.

The recent renaissance enjoyed by country music is in no small way due to the compelling talents of Ford. In Oct., 1955, he recorded "16 Tons" which soon became the fastest and biggest seller in the history of the record business — up to that time. Within three weeks "16 Tons" sold one million records and in nine weeks sold two million. Overall it is over the four million mark.

Ford shocked the entertainment world in 1961 by leaving his top rated nighttime television show in favor of Northern California where he could devote more time to his family. He has limited his personal appearances and television shows since that time.

McIntosh and Karamanos plan on obtaining the best talent available at prices they can afford. They have a budget and must stay within their means. Low room prices, food at a reasonable price, plenty of promotion and a big ad campaign could put the place over.

WHEELIN' 'N DEALIN' — Big offers and boredom is the only reason for Frank Sinatra making a comeback. He'll hit the niter circuit trail again and we predict a Strip hotel pact . . . HI gang! Sorry about last week's trivia question. It was a stinker. The suggested song to be used as the theme or background music for the old silent flick, "Birth Of A Nation" was "The Perfect Song," which wound up being the theme for the old Amos & Andy radio show. If memory serves, the late Lionel Barrymore was the composer.

Next up on the mind-pinchers. What was the first 100% all talking, all singing, all dancing musical movie? And — if that's too easy — who were the stars?

Dimebox, Texas' own Ray Frushay is doing the home folks proud with his crowd-pulling power in the L. V. Hilton Lounge. As you watch him, you suddenly feel this has to be the John Wayne of contemporary/country song styling. He does one of the meanest Elvis carbons ever, backed by a group of skilled musicians he calls Scene West.

Over at the Sahara's Casbar, Ron Eliran is enjoying instant rapport with FLV pub-hoppers. Haifa-born, he served in the Israeli Army Entertainment unit with Aliza Kashi, when they were both in their teens. His backup musicians are Yaron Yakubovitch, Manny Katz, David Earl Johnson and Bob Marculo.

From the Flamingo's Lonnie Shorr . . . "She was so ugly, they had to tie a pork chop around her neck for the dog to play with her."

Billy Kay, who has to be one of the funniest men in the spotlight, takes his lovelies Pam Egbert and Baby Rae to Honolulu and Pearl Harbor, following their June 13th Frontier lounge closing. Then they head for a week at the Calgary Stampede, with plans to return to the Frontier in August.

If you can play the washboard (?), uke, banjo, mandolin, gazoo, sweet potato, spoons, jugs, bells, plates, saws — drop by for the Friday evening rehearsals at 8 p.m. at the Richie Astone Studio in the Tropicana Shopping Cts. (Paradise & Trop.)

Hey! Let's ramble into the movies. Did you know that MGM got mad at Clark Gable back in 1934 and reprimanded him by loaning him to a small studio, Columbia? Gable didn't have the reputation of doing comedy well and Columbia didn't know what to do with him. Director Frank Capra wanted him for a low budget film he planned. Gable had no choice but to accept. The film was made, released without any fanfare, and slowly gathered momentum, turning into a classic. "It Happened One Night" won oscars for Gable, Capra, Claudette Colbert and was "Best Picture Of The Year." When Gable returned to MGM, he called his shots, from then on. For my money, the crown he wore as "King Of Hollywood" will never again

Did you know that Lucille Ball's first screen appearance featured her with long blonde hair? She was in "Roman Scandals," starring Eddie Cantor.

Did you know that Bela Lugosi was the original choice for the monster in "Frankenstein"? Carl Lammele, then head of Universal, didn't like the makeup and junked the pic for a year. Second choice Boris Karloff created a legend, with a big boost from make-up man Jack Pierce. Of all the "Frankenstein" movies, Karloff only made three but was associated with this role for the rest of his life. In private life, Karloff was a quiet, gentle man, who loved children.

Speaking of Lugosi. He could have gone on to bigger and better things, had he lost his accent. He refused... and was relegated to supporting roles the rest of his career.

Sydney Greenstreet was 65 years old before he entered movies... The only non-pro to win an Oscar was Harold Russell, for "The Best Years Of Our Lives."... Robert Cummings had to go to England to be discovered by Hollywood movie-makers... Aldo Ray was a Deputy Sheriff assigned to guard a movie set when discovered... John Gavin, now President of SAG, was a security guard at one of our Strip hotels.

Saddened by the death of Lex Barker, "Tarzan" after Weissmuller retired. He suffered a heart attack in N.Y. Know who was the second runnerup for that role? Rock Hudson — that's who.

At one time, Dana Andrews and Joseph Cotton considered pro-football careers. Once a movie buff, always a movie buff. More of this trivia another time.

If all the good resolutions that are kept were placed end to end they wouldn't reach very far into the new year.

MIGHTY MIXTURE

By GARY STEVENS

DATELINE: NEW YORK:

NUMBER FOUR WITH A FILM-MAKER: William Friedkin, a young man with good, fixed notions on directing films, had a very pleasant time talking with Richard Brown, a professional filmphile in front of a crowded audience at the 92nd St. YM-YWHA. The ticket holders to the series responded exceedingly well. Silence, admiration and good questions — all ingredients of a successful evening in a solo seminar of this type — were present. Billy Friedkin said he rejected seven prints of "The French Connection" before the now famous picture was released. Using his hands a lot and finger snapping to give accent to a thought, he admitted he never sees one of his own pictures with an audience. More on "The French Connection" from Friedkin: "It was originally supposed to be released as "Doyle" and with 20th Century Fox using this as the advertising slogan — 'In the great American tradition of violence.' Also Gene Hackman was my eighth choice. I thought of Jackie Gleason early in the casting stage. Jimmy Breslin was a possibility, but after a reading with him, he was the worst actor I ever encountered and you know the chase scene in the picture, well Breslin doesn't drive." An enjoyable evening with an assured fellow of 33, who describes seeing one of his pictures after its been released — as "it's like an old love affair. It's over."

A SMALL PART OF A BIG HIT: Make no mistakes about it, "A Little Night Music" is an event, which means it is more than a musical triumph. Besides the three men in the show, two who are hero and semi-villain, star Glynis Johns, venerable

Hermione Gingold and three other female parts, five singers make up foreground or background, as the direction so designates, and they are an integral component of the unfolded proceedings. We dubbed them the Swedish Chorus, basing that on the citizens they represent and the modern usage of an ancient stage device known as the Greek Chorus, circa Sophocles and Euripides' time.

The other afternoon at the Barberry Room we talked with Beth Fowler, one of the aforementioned five.

"I haven't been plugging away in show business all my life. You know, waiting to be discovered," she said as she sipped a scotch old fashioned, "I was a grade school music teacher in Saddle River, New Jersey. And all those things that crop up in biographies about coming from a totally musical family, well in my case, I can only trace such talent from my maternal grandfather, who at age 84 still has a fine parlor tenor."

Beth, honest, outgoing, with a sweet round face, good features, brown hair and gray eyes, is winsome on first glance; quite captivating during lengthy chats.

Somewhere in her days of pedagogy, complete with staffs and scales, she decided to give show biz a fling. Just a test run, you deduce from her words. And so a career was started. Leaving out details of earliest beginnings and submissions by agents, there were road company jobs in "Hello Dolly" with Molly Picon (a delightful experience, partly because Miss Picon is a wonderful experience. This show should have been retitled — "Hello Molly") and the Abigail Adams

Bobbie Gentry, the best advertisement Levis ever had, is a jewel of an entertainer and the jeans she wears for the opening numbers in her new act are adorned with a wealth of Tiffany's. John Byner, her special guest star, is another gem, and his appearances throughout the show sparkle plenty . . . The southern belle with the gorgeous face and gee-whiz figure is a stunner in numerous musical roles in her revue, beginning with a Mississippi medley including La Gentry's "Ode To Billy Joe" trademark. Her distinctive, husky-voiced singing, limber dancing and a polished turn at the piano definitely place Bobbie in the all-around performer category, a fact saluted by the unanimous standing ovation she received from first nighters . . . Standout segments in the production are her high camp Andrews Sisters medley and George M. Cohan song & dance medley (replete with flags and uniforms) with her dancers . . . She is adorable doing an impression of Elvis, even to bestowing a scarf on a ringsider, and a sizzler singing her own "Fancy."

. . . Byner, introduced in his funny stand-up comedy spot, is featured for fine effect in some of the super Gentry specials such as her definitive recapitulation of the old "Hit Parade" TV show, with Byner especially brilliant impersonating Frankie Laine, and another howler on disk jockeys . . . Dancers Mike Mann, Scott Pearson, Dave Rodriguez, Harvey Cohen, Don

The '73 edition of "Casino de Paris" bears the distinct signature of Fred-eric Apcar, who conceived, produced and directed the New Year enfante. . . . The incorporation of horses and Hondas borders on upstaging the physical splendor of the boy and girl dancers and Les Mannequins. The noble steeds, manes flying, gallop furiously on a moving floor that restricts each to his own unfettered cubicle of activity. The motorcycles are revved onstage by the shapely torsos of the girl dancers . . . Toplining in the glamorous adventure is titian-tressed Kitty Kover. A dynamic tunesmith, Miss double K. upstages all activity by her mere presence and creates a color transparency of every song picture she projects. Kitty Kover is a true star . . . The Flying Fercos are almost illusory as they execute breathtaking trapeze art from a stationary, grounded gym swing . . . A number of the Fercos troupe comprise the Four Tonys, two boys and two

If you're in the mood to be ro-manced by good music and entertain-ed by stage charmers, this is the place. Jana Mitchel and Mike Vaccaro are kicking off the entertainment eve-nings with lifters like "You Are The Sunshine Of My Life." The couple is easy to look at, with Jana's fairness complementing her husband's dark and dashing attraction, both in smart black and white outfits. We agree with the customers choice of stand-outs . . . Vaccaro's "Country Road" and Jana's "Natural Woman," with a heavy nostalgia trip when Jana re-vives "What A Difference A Day Makes." Together, they get the audi-tors beating time to a duet of "Rock In The Morning & The Boogie-Woogie Blues." The Vaccaros had music lovers pouring out applause for

Mel Sanetti and Paul Rueda are a clever, talented duo who are Nep-tunic in their comedy outpourings. They are enthusiastic and young, strong factors in conveying humor to any audience. One is impressed with the fact they reach for exactness in their carbons and I detected an ap-parent undercurrent of acting experi-ence. Sanetti's mimicry includes one of "Melvin Schwartz" singing "Folsom Prison Blues," with the sound of Johnny Cash. His Louis Armstrong doing "Mac The Knife" is a hand-clapper, as are his Elvis and Jim Nabors. Rueda is a mood-melter with his Moms Mabley, Geraldine Jones (Flip Wilson) and old Pioneer dupli-cations. People who know Jimmy Durante are impressed with Sanetti's double of our Schnozz, when he puts on the fake nose. He also does a win-ning straight on "Tie A Yellow Rib-bon Round The Old Oak Tree." flects his love of humor, tongue-in-cheek variety, as he prefaces a reference of "good actor" Brando in "The Godfather" role with an explanation of how clearly outspoken Italians are, and then positively twinkles as he emulates "Godfather" Brando, "with cotton wads in his cheeks." Franchi's tune-log incorporates ceremonial superstition . . . something old (Johnny Farrow's "I Have But One Heart"), something new ("You're A Lady & I'm A Man"), something borrowed is featured danseuse in the Bolero . . . Outstanding is the filmed salute to Israel . . . Ron Lewis staged and choreographed "Casino '73," with special staging and choreo by Billy Petch. Jose Luis Vinas takes credit for the costumes and scenery. Jerry Jackson staged and coached the singers . . . The orchestral score is flawless under the direction of inspired conductor Earl Green. People call it take-home pay because there is no other place you can afford to go with it.

(Fiddler medley — from another ethnic group), something blue ("Help Me Make It Thru The Night"), along with a must-mention, grandiose projection of the stirring "Vesti La Giubba." Deeply steeped in tradition, the singer rounds out his full course menu of entertainment fare with a special dessert, Franchi in dancing shoes, moves with the grace of a choreographer. The star's drummer is Ron Roach. Musical Director is Wayne Kirby, Sergio's pianist and guitar accompanist . . . Lonnie Shorr has to have the fastest drawl on record, by virtue of his extravagant verbalisms. He takes no breath pauses during his conversational sieges — so laugh fast — and stay attuned to the drawl that travels with the speed of Shorr-com. Among the many subjects the comedian pulverizes in softly-voiced mayhem are tube commershills, airlines, diets, politicians and hecklers ("You've got a lot of funny lines . . . all in your face."). Three femmes, Greta, Jeri and Jane (reading from L. to R.), answer the curtain call for Chapter One. Smartly outfitted in dress white pantsuits, they open with "Love Is A Good Foundation," a natural lead-in to remind that the beautiful girls curtain-opener is still the best foundation for any show . . . if they have the eye appeal and talents of this model trio. disks well know, and he is so engagingly country-style funny he could do a successful stand-up comedy routine without playing or singing a single note . . . Pretty, popular Diana Trask is next, and enthusiastic response to her animated singing indicates many of her many fans also are on hand. They go bananas over Miss Trask's "Help Me Make It Through The Night," "Say When" and medley song bow to country superstars . . . Roy returns for the meaty part of his program, so pleasing, numerous opening nighters gave the personable star a standing ovation. Would like to see her project the more sultry, romantic tunings . . . Diane Destry is a voice, potent, dramatic, finely-tuned, with the promise of great tomorrow . . . Jonathan & Darcel Wynne are an extremely fleet-footed, loose-limbed duo, who move as gracefully as young sprigs in a Summer breeze . . . Jimmy Martinez incorporates the timing of a dramatic performer throughout his sophisticated creation of mundane witticisms, resulting in a surprisingly natural shower of laugh-getters . . . Although it isn't her only segment in the show, you'll long remember Hallie Bowes for her highly amusing mimicry of a booted girl singer, without an octave to her name . . . When Gail Ganley unleashes her educated taps in the finale, one wonders why she wasn't afforded a solo dance spot earlier, rather than a front-of-the-curtain vocal that is sandwiched between two other singing segments that could have used the contrasting relief . . . The musical comedy journey is instrumentally supported by the Lou Cardo Ork.

Ever Before." Michel Gyarmathy works wonders in production and direction. It is obvious that a great deal of care, along with great amounts of money, have been expended and nothing is wasted. The acts, the settings, costumes, music and extra touches are all evident from the breathtaking "Ca C'est Paris" opening to the equally eye-popping finale . . . Audrey Arno is a small, but choice, bundle of international joie de vivre, singing and dancing away in a variety of numbers. She frequently changes her act for benefit of return fans. Audrey is especially captivating singing a French medley and moving "Til The Parade Passes By," terping an Eiffel Tower tour with the revue's dancers (choreo conceived by Jerry Jackson) and affectionately song saluting the beloved Maurice Chevalier . . . Gus Augspurg always breaks up the place with His Girl Friends, one a 26-year-old Rhesus Monkey, the other a Guinea baboon of 24 years. The Augsburg chatter and the monkeyshines make up one of the perfect acts in showbiz . . . According to one's viewpoint, Berri Lee is either a magician with a good comedy act or a comedian who spoofs magic, with both interpretations fulfilled in good humor . . . The Ultra Three bring one of the most humorous acts to springboard the "Folies" to a high pitch of amusement. If you don't quite believe what you see, just trust your eyes. They tell it like it is and so do the roars . . . Dan Parker joins the "Folies" as premier male dancer on May 26, and will be featured with lovely Janelle Urbina . . . The high soprano of Carolyn Everett is a standout, while Felicia Atkins and Joyce Grayson stand out in their own way, figure-wise . . . No group excels like the Rudas Acro Dancers, exhibiting precision and adept ability in the "Can Can" and in a later scene amidst the lavish "Casanova" sequence . . . The stately and curvaceous Les Mannequins move well within the scenes surrounded by the fleet Tropicana Dancers, their patterns directed by Larry Maldonado, with Nick Navarro assisting . . . A fine blend of voices occurs throughout production numbers from the Tony Costa Chanteurs, and in all the music, the arrangements by Billy May and original scores by Henri Bettis of Paris and May, lyrics by Bobby Troup, have the special conductorial talent of George Hernandez. Plaza . . . an enchanting, sensitive proclamation of love in musical captivity. Maynard Sloate's production of "The Sound Of Music" is one of the most palatable stage offerings seen in the last three decades of theatre. Each of the cast fits his role perfectly. . . . Louetta Farrar is portraying sweet light-hearted "Maria" whose warmth lifts her from total commitment to a cloistered life and places her in the arms of a Baron and his motherless brood . . . John Myhers, Richard Rodgers' original choice for the role of "von Trapp," is perfect as the reserved nobleman whose constraint is dissolved by love . . . The role of "Mother Abbess" could well have been created just for Virginia Jaeger . . . Norman Fontaine is an engaging clown . . . Ruth Johnson is the stunner who loses the Baron to "Maria's" overpowering presence . . . The voices of the ensemble are totally exquisite, commanding, penetrating. There is no room for improvement here. If one must reach for an outstanding vocal performance, single out the brilliant beauty of Maria's "Sound Of Music." And by all means laud loudly the unbelievable blending of "Mother Abbess" (Jaeger) and the Sisters (Jeanne Costa, Phyllis Deyo and Beth Peters) as they anoint the heart with an ethereal chorale . . . Nancy Reichert & Bill Katt are endearingly young in their brush with romance . . . Rick & Leslie Sullivant, Jimmy Cisco, Lisa Williford, Melissa & Twila McClendon (the little darling) are adorable progeny . . . Small roles are importantly portrayed by Ted Huffman, Belle Elilig and Kirk Norman . . . Multi-talented John Myhers created and directed this condensed version, potently scored by the Anthony Costa Orchestra. Musical staging by Larry Maldonado. Original music and lyrics by Richard Rodgers & Oscar Hammerstein. (Cortez)

Once upon a time, THERE WAS A LITTLE BOY NAMED BOBBY.

He liked to run and jump and flex his muscles. He especially liked to go swimming. When he wiggled his toes in the water, he wore a bright red woolen bathing suit considered "the cat's pajamas" way back then in the 1920's. And he wore his cap at an "Oh, you kid" angle on his head. His mother and father dubbed him "Sonny Boy." Bobby was very healthy too, not counting measles and mumps . . . and poison ivy. Today he's a strong middle-aged man called Bob (even Robert). . . . Needless to say, Bobby did not suffer from muscular dystrophy — the tragic muscle-wasting disease that ruthlessly cripples youngsters (mostly little boys). If Bobby had been attacked by dystrophy during his growing-up years, he wouldn't be alive today. . . . Modern scientific research is working overtime to find a cure, to give dystrophic children a tomorrow. Won't you please support this urgent effort. Please contribute generously to ogled) and then to a reading for Prince.

"When I read the show and heard the music I knew it would be a masterpiece technically," the perky Miss Fowler said, "but I really questioned it as a commercial success."

The fact that she can remain gainfully employed for months, maybe years, speaks well for our mature audience these days.

Within the heart of Beth no doubt lurks the possibility, the probability more likely, of stepping out one night and singing a song by herself. She is understudy two ways — to "Charlotte" and "Petra," the later role is invested with a show stopping number, "The Miller's Son." This is not to wish a cold for Patricia Elliott or laryngitis for D. Jamin-Bartlett but if Beth gets her inning in the spotlight, somebody out front, producer, agent, writer, who knows, may jump up and say — "There she is."

Beth Fowler, a refreshing young lady with no head in the clouds, but her feet now firmly planted on the ground, aspires to have a lead in an off-Broadway show.

"I try to do things well," she concluded, taking the last sip of the libation, "I love material that I respect, written by someone I admire."

This may prod the extremely talented, much sought after Stephen Sondheim to write something nice for off-Broadway. It would make one girl from New Jersey very happy.
