CRISWELL PREDICTS

An Accurate Glimpse of the Future

I regret to predict that the tides of time will sweep away one of the giants of our century within the month. He will leave a lonesome place against the sky and in our hearts! One to a century and this century belonged to him! . . . I predict that the sentence of death will be given to all narcotic pushers in America to stem the growing drug curse! When 9 year old boys and girls die from a heroin overdose daily in our nation, it is time to take action! The general public is becoming horrified! . . . I predict that outer space will soon reveal one of Nature's long kept secrets of the universe! The truth will be shattering! . . . I predict that the world of art will become very excited over Belgian artist De Sager and her character portraits of off-beat personalities of the concentration camp inmates. The unique technique of De Sager will be widely copied! . . . I predict that Norma Shearer will return to the movie screen more youthful and lovelier than ever! She will play the wife of a United States Senator above suspicion! You will greet her like the return of a very good friend! . . . I predict that there is a treasure in your attic . . . a treasure of items you could sell for ready money! The age of nostalgia is sweeping over the nation and old things take on a new value! Things you would toss away could bring you hundreds of dollars! Why not hold a garage sale or a rummage sale? You can find a swap meet near you, or organize your own second-hand sale! Prediction: ready money!

THE PULSE OF THE TIMES

I predict that a parade of broken bodies, broken minds and broken hearts will pass by our Lawmakers in the stately halls of Congress in mute evidence of the effect of illegal drugs! Not without question, the most despicable of creatures, the most evil, the most foul, is the person who sells illegal drugs to anyone, worst of all to young people! Drugs have broken their bodies, cracked the minds and shattered the hearts, creating a human vegetable. The mothers, fathers or wives, husbands, brothers, sisters will bring these pitiful to parade before the Senators and Representatives as mute evidence that some one thing must be done to stem this human destruction machine!

NEW LAWS TO BE ENACTED

I predict that the property owner can take possession of any house or apartment when the rent becomes ten days delinquent! Rent is the foundation of our economy for it gives taxes on property which operate our financial structure! Rent, food and medical care are the three most important items on the personal list of daily existence! . . . I predict that it will be impossible for a mother (wed or unwed) to give her baby away just because she does not have room in her life for it. The father will be legally responsible! I predict that the Supreme Court will rule that abortion is murder, for even after ten days the tiny brain has brain waves which can be picked up by a delicate medical machine! New laws to be enacted!

THE REVENGE OF MOTHER NATURE

I predict that Mother Nature will take her revenge once and for all in a grand climax! In the past three months we have had the Mississippi Valley floods, never before equalled! Millions of acres of farm land under water with slow drainage which will mean a very late planting and a very short crop. The citrus crops in both Florida and California were damaged beyond repair! Other fruit crops such as cherries, apples, peaches and pears bore the brunt of a devastating Winter! Each year we take greater punishment! I predict that the Winter season of the coming year 1974 will be the heaviest and the most damaging of all Winter seasons to date!

TOUCHING TRIBUTE

I predict that the world of recorded music will pay a very touching tribute thru the new album of "The Harpers Bazaar" when Lloyd Lindroth performs the favorites of the late Harpo Marx! This album will prove to be a collector's item! . . . I predict that the Artist Guild of America will honor Edward Rivera with the annual award for the year 1973! . . . I predict that Lily Ponds, Maryland will arrange an ovation for Lily Pons on her coming natal day! This thriving community will prove to be an inspiration to other areas who seek recognition! . . . I predict that Anna DeGaulle, the widow of the late Charles DeGaulle, will be voted the most popular woman in Europe by the International Press and the Literary World!

PREDICTIONS!

I predict that Russia will withdraw the welcome mat from many of her planned tours for "foreigners"! These widely advertised guided vacations

The Robert Goulets (Carol Lawrence) and Foster Brooks applauded Bobby Curtola in the Sands Regency Lounge, between showroom performances . . . When Goulet closes on the 5th, he returns to Ellay to do a Jack Paar guesting, then planes to New York for his Waldorf-Astoria run (June 8-23) . . . A perfectionist in performance, Carol Lawrence paced the Frontier stage for exact dimensions to use in her out-of-town rehearsals, before opening here with husband Bob on the 28th . . . Funtime Goulet/Newton will continue in the near future, now that Robert broke Wayne's dinner show attendance record at the Sands.

Foster Brooks guests on the Mickie Finn telly special, filming here June 16-18, with Fred and Mickie and Charlie Callas . . . Did you watch the "lovable lush" make his singing debut on Johnny Carson's show this past Monday, with host Bill Cosby? . . . Foster is also planning to be Goulet's inebriate caddy during the Sealy-Faberge tourney this weekend.

The Riviera's Tony Zoppi and Marty Allen's wife Frenchy put their heads together to line up the entertainment for the POW's salute in the Dallas Cotton Bowl, June 2, produced by Charlie Meeker. Bob Hope will emcee. George Kirby, Marty Allen, Gloria Loring, Barbara McNair, Lynne Anderson, Charo and Mike Connors will perform before 75,000 people.

George Kirby then flies to Reno for Harrah's 15th Invitational Golf Tourney (June 4-7), where he'll tee off with Morey Amsterdam, Jerry Lewis and Burt Holiday. A Rolls Royce Silver Shadow is waiting for the golfer who shoots a hole-in-one during the competition.

The writers strike is causing growing concern in the film and tube industry. Producers fear a prolonged continuation will force a shutdown, especially now that the writers bargaining extension overlaps negotiations with the directors.

Producer Joel Rogosin acted like a tourist when he was stopped on a Beverly Hills street by a femme who wanted to sell him a cat badge. He explained his favorite charity was Muscular Dystrophy and countered her salesmanship with his own . . . Behind the shades and under the golf cap was Doris Day, who finally sold Joel both a cat and dog badge ("Actors & Others For Animals" fund), as he alerted her to the Jerry Lewis M.D. Labor Day Telethon.

Liberace will bring more cars with him when he returns to the Hilton on the 4th (Mon.). His onstage vehicles made news when he bowed here last year and more surprises are planned for this trip.

Closing at the Flamingo on the 23rd, The Treniers began shuttling off in all directions for a rare vacation, but were rounded up two days later to return to the lounge when Fats Domino was unable to open. At deadline, it wasn't known how long the award-winners will continue here but they will definitely have to leave

Rusty Warren winds up her current run at the Bridge-Vu Dinner Theatre in Valparaiso, Indiana on the 3rd. Then she dashes off to Chicago for a week, before going on to the Gold Cup Horse Show in Columbus, where the redhead would like to see her Shakers Bolero win another world's championship this year . . . Rusty, incidentally, also held a three day horse show at her Marquis Farms in Danville, Calif. It was so successful, it may become an annual event.

President Nixon will be absolved and with his progressive reforms, will come out bigger than ever as a great President, is the talk everywhere. I don't think President Nixon was personally, directly involved in Watergate. He was concerned at that time, with such vital personal projects as his trips to and the breakthrough with China and Russia and getting our P.O.W.'s home. In the vast administrative offices of government, he could not possibly nor like any President of a big corporation, know all of the details employed by executives he delegated as responsible, and assigned to the varied working machinations. How could he? He was ill-advised in waiting to make cautious investigations, but it is being said in top political circles, that when the whole truth is brought to light, our President will become more popular than ever.

A juror on the Ellsberg trial since January, called to tell us that the judge told the jury later, that the Watergate Case technically forced him to dismiss the trial — whereas he and the jury felt the verdict should have been guilty. Invasion of privacy and bugging is abhorrent to all of us. She said Jane Fonda, George Segal, Shirley MacLaine and others working for their respective causes, were in court almost daily. With cheers, they gave a big victory party the night following the dismissal, inviting the jury. Most didn't accept, even though it was a chance to mix with film stars, "My cousin is a returned POW, and the way Jane talks about our POW's, and confirms her loyalty to Hanoi, sickened us," said the juror.

Bob Salvatore, ace makeup artist at Max Factors, showed me the latest in TV makeup — which is really very natural — almost as light as street. There are also many tricks today that you can discover yourself by reading the directions on the beauty kits, which Bob showed me. How did he come by his craft? "I'm from Watkins Glenn upstate New York, a big Summer theater town," he said. "I acted a bit, did cosmetic displays but was always making up people." The demand became so time consuming, Mr. S. turned pro. Today, he's in the enviable position as top man at celebrated Max Factor's, Hollywood.

Alas, I slipped on that piece of paper and broke my wrist in both bones, so wound up in a cast instead of on TV for the time being.

Carroll Righter, the world's Numero Uno Astrologer said the promo tour for my new book, "Jayne Mansfield Biography" was due to Saturn, the planet of delays; that after September first, it would be clear sailing ahead and my book would be a best seller. So patience. George Dareos the famed Numero Uno Psychic, said the same exactly.

Edy Williams was so excited reading the book, she couldn't put it down and came to my house for the book's autograph, my first. Edy brought some pictures of herself with blonde hair. The gorgeous Edy has the same sensational curves and measurements as Jayne. With the right makeup she can look so like her — she could play her in the movie. Edy starts her new starring picture "Foxy" come July for Russ Meyer.

My first night out in thirty two days and nights, ten hours and thirty five minutes was to attend the glamorous party given Mayor Sam Yorty and Betts at the Palladium. It was gala, even with me carrying my cast, which weighs like cement, fifteen pounds. But ohhh, was everyone so nice seeing that no one bumped into me, cutting up my prime rib dinner in tiny pieces and all. What one can not do with one hand, when you other hand is in a cast. Oh well, better days.

Mayor Sam pointed to world opinion that Los Angeles is the last great city which has a real chance; safest and best run; he also remembered the late Eleanor Chambers. Sam always gives credit to all who help him make Los Angeles. More were Betts Yorty, Dept. Mayor Joe Quinn, Eddie Martinez — Chief of Protocol, Chief of Police Davis, Chief of Fire Dept. — Ray Hill, while Orchestra maestro Ray Noval, beamed when Sam congratulated his dotter Michele and Councilman Arthur Snyder newlyweds, a very beautiful couple.

Herb Jeffries, M.C., accoladed Rudy Vallee, one of the real greats of the entertainment world who, seated next to me, asided his wit and marvelous stories, brought his own bag of wine to treat our table: "AlMaden Sauvignon Blanc" Rudy declared to be the world's finest white wine, and everyone at the table agreed. Our table was hosted by the ebullient and popular Paul Lamport and his Ruth, Rudy's Ellie and President of the Republican County Assembly Dr. Gordon Bennett. More were Martha Raye, Henry Salvatore, Sybil Brand, Jack Cramer, Ruta Lee.

Lights of Las Vegas

By PHIL SOLOMON

Mr. Showmanship — Lee Liberace will glitter into Las Vegas Hilton on Monday night, June 4th for his annual three week engagement supported by Little Angels.

Syndicated columnist Earl Wilson once said, "Liberace is what show business is all about." No truer words were ever said.

The man with the glittering candelabra, the bespangled, bejeweled wardrobe, brilliant pianistics and billion dollar smile has become a legend in his own time. In person he is magnetic and amusing.

The Liberace brand of showmanship has something extra to it. Something one might call "magic." It has to do with the way he communicates with his audience and "with" is the word, for it goes both ways.

In the trade he is known as an entertainer's entertainer. He not only entertains, but is as delighted with his audience as they are with him. Liberace and the audience become increasingly captivated with each other as the performance goes on. It's not easy to reach out to each member of any audience numbering in the thousands with any degree of intimacy, but that's just what he does in every appearance.

Nothing is certain just how to open and close the show. He may come out in an opulent sable and chinchilla maxi coat, with the finale showing him in a blaze of electricity. No one else but Elvis Presley would use a tailor with an electronic background. The flash is balanced by an equal sense of humor that's needed in the business.

Liberace's innate love of people has him the enduring favorite of fans of all ages, from the time of his own television show through command performances, concert appearance, nightclub and college dates.

The likeable star spends about 32 weeks each year making personal appearances all over the world and ranks among the five highest paid performers.

Mr. Showmanship's program of musical fare is as varied as his wardrobe . . . and just as dazzling. He adds his inimitable dash to everything from classics through a gamut of old favorites to the latest and newest pop and rock.

Liberace is something to see and something to remember. He'll do two shows a night through June 24. This pillar recommends the Liberace spectacular highly.

WHEELIN' 'N DEALIN' — Am happy to report that Carl Cohen is the new senior vice president of MGM's Grand Hotel due to open this Fall. Al Benedict made a wise choice for Cohen is a very capable man . . . A major Strip hotel is paging Gene Barry to resume his nitery career. He hasn't made up his mind whether to accept . . . big issue . . . Comedy star Sammy Shore was signed for a two week stand at Harrah's, Reno beginning June 14 . . . Will Dave Victorson be successful in obtaining Joey Heather-ton from Caesars Palace for the Las Vegas Hilton Hotel?

Col. Tom Parker set Elvis Presley for a four week engagement at Las Vegas Hilton Hotel beginning Aug. 6 . . . Bob Evans inked Jimmy Caan for the starring role in Paramount's "The Gambler" to be filmed here in Aug. for a few weeks . . . Do you remember Ron Husmann? He appeared in "Tenderloin" at the Dunes Hotel and just inherited the top male lead opposite Debbie Reynolds in "Irene" on Broadway.

Walter Kane and Richard Danner have decided to move Wayne Newton into the Grand Ballroom of Sands Hotel for a seven week stand beginning July 18. This is due to the large crowds expected . . . Joel Grey's next appearance at the Riviera Hotel will be as headliner. Management feels he's ready to move up . . . Maynard Sloate will present "South Pacific" as the next Union Plaza Hotel attraction starting June 8, without Mitzi Gaynor . . . Howard Hughes filed a $6 million damage suit in L.A. Superior Court against former entertainment director Frank Sennes charging kickbacks and secret profits. This should be a knock-down and dragout classic with other people involved. It could hurt our great city.

By Bob Joyce

Buddy Bob Joyce needed a guest columnist this week and gave me a big hour's notice to do it . . . So here's J.C. (Jimmy Campbell), subbing for a busy B.J.

Page Cavanaugh, currently appearing at the Thunderbird is a pianist without peer, and I had the pleasure of working with him for quite a while, including recording an album, "Page Seven Live At Basin Street East." Incidentally, it was while working with him in Phoenix in 1966 that I met my sensational 6'1" wife, now a Las Vegas school teacher.

Caught the Four Freshmen, Slappy White and The Treniers at the Flamingo lounge the other night. Slappy is ethnically funny as usual, the Treniers are up to their usual brilliant standard, and the Freshmen have graduated to the top of the senior class . . .

My partner in crime, Max Lindberg, has finally done what he has been threatening to do for ages . . . He went and got himself a Yul Brynner haircut. The girls tell me it looks sexy (I wouldn't know myself), but he just says it's cool and comfortable. What could be easier than combing your head with a towel? (Sorry about that, Max . . .)

Welcome home, Joe Williams! Joe opened at the Tropicana lounge, June 2. A longtime Las Vegas resident, it's a shame that Joe, one of the world's best singers, doesn't work here more often. Speaking of Joe, his former accompanist Ellis Larkins is now working successfully in Manhattan as part-owner of his own joint on the chic east side.

Another ex-New York pal, Jack "Taps" Ackerman, opens June 8 at the Union Plaza in "South Pacific." Anybody who remembers the team of Conn and Mann, who appeared on the earliest Ed Sullivan shows, will dig seeing Jack back on the boards.

Don't forget to tune in KLAV radio midnight to 6:00 A.M. to Max Lindberg's jazz show (with America's foremost guest, J.C.), Sundays to Thursdays. A record we have been featuring, Med Flory's "Supersax" album, has become a runaway best-seller, and we are told the local record shops can't keep it in stock.

Since I'm filling in for Bob Joyce, it is only fitting that I include a "trivia" question of the week . . . Who played fourth tenor sax with Woody Herman's band (when he still used lead alto — Sam Marowitz at the time), when he first took over the band from Isham Jones?

The Sahara Casbar Theatre's a perfect showcase for Ron Eliran. Israel's #1 contemporary artist, Ron is a multi-faceted human being who, like so many Israelis, must be many people in one. His lifestyle encompasses entertainer, journalist, soldier, writer, cook, photographer and fiddle maker, among others. Ron wrote "Sharm El Sheik," the million selling song, for Israel's triumphant 6 day war.

Peter Nero, who crouches over the piano with concentration and intensity, covered the 88s in grand style during his return visit to the Maisonet. . . We'll miss Abel Green, Variety's great editor. He was Broadway-vibrant, dynamic and talented. . . You make founder-owner-operator Lou Brecker mad should you refer to Roseland as a dance hall. It's a ballroom, if you please. You buy your ticket and enter an environment where souls, hearts and eventually, feet are moved. . . Don't knock success, Jacqueline Susann's latest, "Once Is Not Enough" (Tomorrow) is her best. We have that on the words of a beauty shop operator and a secretary. And they buy books. The reviewers who pan them get them gratis. . . An eat treat beat winner: Veal Goulash with Nockerl at Emke, a Hungarian restaurant-supper club. . . At the Waldorf's Empire Room, there was Pearl Bailey doing her effective soft sell. Nobody in the business grabs an audience any faster than Pearl Mae. She's endearing, that's what. . . Carmine Santullo has been Ed Sullivan's good right arm for 35 years, part time for a couple of years during Ed's Loew's State appearances and full time since 1940. He's a quiet man, dedicated and efficient. Of late, he's been catapulted to some strange fame through mistaken identity of an unusual nature. The facts are these. A man named Carmine J. Santulli, who owns a message service business, hired a press agent. The flack's main delivery has been to break his client's name in the columns associated with gags. Some good, some fair, some lousy. The similarity of names Santullo — Santulli (how close can you get after both are christened Carmine) has led many Main Stemmers to conclude that Santullo suddenly became a funny man. This is a justifiable conclusion inasmuch as nowhere is Santulli's business ever mentioned. Have the C.Ss met? We doubt it.

TWO DILIGENT DIGGERS GET MARRIED TO A PROJECT AND PRODUCE ONE FAT, COMPREHENSIVE, ENGROSSING, FACTUAL COMPILATION THAT COVERS THE SONGS, WRITERS AND SHOWS FROM THE MIDDLE 20's UP TO THE EARLY 70's.

Behind a monumental work, researched to the teeth with mutatis mutandis, as some old Latin student might utter, Richard Lewine, a Broadway tunesmith himself and TV producer when the urge gets the better of him and Alfred Simon, described as a rehearsal pianist who graduated to director of light music on a respected radio station. WQXR, have brought forth "Songs of the American Theatre." Dodd, Mead is the publisher to be commended. There are show fans, song buffs, musicians — all members, unofficially of a hypogeous cult. They know or they'd like to know the origin of obscure tunes. Many of them can recite words of verses. More involved specialists sing the music of an unknown Youmans release. These people are hip musicologists and on-the-ball librarians will welcome the Dick and Al package. Quick you turn to page 417, listing one, and you know immediately that "Safety in Numbers." was written by J. Fred Coots and Clifford Grey for a show "June Day" in 1925, or you try page

The '73 edition of "Casino de Paris" bears the distinct signature of Fred-eric Apcar, who conceived, produced and directed the New Year enfante. . . . The incorporation of horses and Hondas borders on upstaging the physical splendor of the boy and girl dancers and Les Mannequins. The noble steeds, manes flying, gallop furiously on a moving floor that restricts each to his own unfettered cubicle of activity. The motorcycles are revved onstage by the shapely torsos of the girl dancers. . . . Toplining in the glamorous adventure is titian-tressed Kitty Kover. A dynamic tunesmith, Miss double K. upstages all activity by her mere presence and creates a color transparency of every song picture she projects. Kitty Kover is

Following a hearty backstage laugh that swelled above the orchestra's overture and captivated the full house before he stepped onstage, the lithe Sergio Franchi flashed his beacon grin and sang, "You Got A Friend" to an audience resounding reciprocity. The singer's strongly chiseled face reflects his love of humor, tongue-in-cheek variety, as he prefaces a reference of "good actor" Brando in "The Godfather" role with an explanation of how clearly outspoken Italians are, and then positively twinkles as he emulates "Godfather" Brando, "with cotton wads in his cheeks." Franchi's tune-log incorporates ceremonial superstition . . . something old (Johnny Farrow's "I Have But One Heart"), something new ("You're A Lady & I'm A Man"), something borrowed (Fiddler medley — from another ethnic group), something blue ("Help Me Make It Thru The Night"), along with a must-mention, grandiose projection of the stirring "Vesti La Giubba." Deeply steeped in tradition, the singer rounds out his full course menu of entertainment fare with a special dessert, Franchi in dancing shoes, moves with the grace of a choreographer. The star's drummer is Ron

"Turn It On!" has all the characteristics of a repertory company, innocently conceived by drafting a collection of young performers into this one production. A group chemistry has drawn the ego components into one directional force, to revise, rout and tighten the seams . . . Starring in the Kuller-Ficks production is Jean-Paul Vignon, who is so elegantly talented he is deserving of special literary coinage — savoir schmaltz! Poignant, dramatic songs are accented by the graceful hand movements of a continental. projects an over-the-footlights compatibility even when he just stands still. He's the chubby kid with the Fred Astaire feet and karate acrobatics — but should be turned on sooner — and longer . . . Although obviously a seasoned pro, Nancy Bond's spontaneity in characterization is captivating and arresting . . . Skip Cunningham is a dancing experience that snubs choreography in its insipid pallor and puts the foot muscle back on the leg muscle, letting those taps tell it like it was, is, and will always be. Skip is the dancer, returned in all the glory of legitimate movement, toe walkin' and the schticks that excite lovers of the art, including a voice that sells . . . Susan Anton is a beautiful girl who not only sings, but displays a good, basic knowledge of comedy, especially in her tall-girl-short-fella-bit with Schwartz. Although it isn't her only segment in the show, you'll long remember Hallie Bowes for her highly amusing mimicry of a booted girl singer, without an octave to her name . . . When Gail Ganley unleashes her educated taps in the finale, one wonders why she wasn't afforded a solo dance spot earlier, rather than a front-of-the-curtain vocal that is sandwiched between two other singing segments that could have used the contrasting relief . . . The musical comedy journey is instrumentally supported by the Lou Cardo Ork.

Among "My Favorite Things," one of the outstanding Bennett vocals, are his "Girl Talk," "Something," "Maybe This Time" and swingy "O Sole Mio." Tony's version of "Mimi" is a delight, and his trademark "I Left My Heart In San Francisco" is enhanced by magnificent color film clips showing scenes of the city . . . Other special Tony treats are his "Sophisticated Lady," wow "It Don't Mean A Thing" with the orchestra really wailing, and an enchanting "The Summer Knows," a beautiful blend of Bennett's voice and the lush violin section . . . "The Trolley Song" and "On The Sunny Side Of The Street" bonuses bring the memorable evening to a finale . . . Joe Guercio directs the Nevada Philharmonic overture, and Bernie Leighton conducts for Mr. Bennett. Audrey is especially captivating singing her newly added "Le Temps and impressive "Corner Of The Sky" from "Pippin," terping an Eiffel Tower tour with the revue's dancers (choreo conceived by Jerry Jackson) and affectionately song saluting the beloved Maurice Chevalier . . . Gus Augspurg always breaks up the place with His Girl Friends, one a 26-year-old Rhesus Monkey, the other a Guinea baboon of 24 years. The Augspurg chatter and the monkeyshines make up one of the perfect acts in showbiz . . . Rod Hull and Emu, of England's Royal Variety Show, are a hit in their American debut, also. Hull's funny, frustrated attempts at controlling his impish, over five foot tall bird puppet are high hilarity, with added howls when stage manager Larry Grayson gets into the act for a tumultuous physical encounter with Emu . . . The Ultra Three bring one of the most humorous acts to springboard the "Folies" to a high pitch of amusement. If you don't quite believe what you see, just trust your eyes. They tell it like it is and so do the roars . . . Handsome, blond Dan Parker is the spectacular's splendid new premier male dancer.

A pas de deux with lovely Janelle Urbina is brilliant . . . The high soprano of Carolyn Everett is a standout, while Felicia Atkins and Joyce Grayson stand out in their own way, figure-wise . . . No group excels like the Rudas Acro Dancers, exhibiting precision and adept ability in the "Can Can" and in a later scene amidst the lavish "Casanova" sequence . . . The stately and curvaceous Les Mannequins move well within the scenes surrounded by the fleet Tropicana Dancers, their patterns directed by Larry Maldonado, with Nick Navarro assisting . . . A fine blend of voices occurs throughout production numbers from the Tony Costa Chanteurs, and in all the music, the arrangements by Billy May and original scores by Henri Bettis of Paris and May, lyrics by Bobby Troup, have the special conductorial talent of George Hernandez. The orksters in the pit make good sounds for the entire cast . . .

disturbed by his one-show policy, pointing out the Donn Arden spectacular will keep the other showroom open . . . Robert Corff, who opens in the Plaza's "South Pacific" on the 8th, played a top role in "J. C. Superstar" . . .

Jack Morgan & The Russ Morgan Orchestra play a string of one-nighters in Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin before returning to the Dunes on the 22nd . . . Before closing out of the Hilton, Bill Cosby and his imported tennis pro used the roof courts daily from 2 to 4 ayem . . .

The Aladdin has set its 1st Annual "Hoop 'n Tee" Golf (Scramble) Tourney July 1-3 on the Tropicana course, for NBA & ABA basketball stars, owners and celebs . . . Bob Mackie creating new costumes for Carol Lawrence's Frontier teaming with hubby Bob Goulet . . .

Gowned by Bill Belew, Florence Henderson has dance partners Roy Smith and David Chavez with her for her Desert Inn bow, co-headlining with "Uncle Miltie" Berle, whose Inn booking was requested by the Sealy-Faberge tourney chieftains to coincide with their current annual here . . .

A special Hughes Airwest plane was routed to Memphis May 19th to return Wayne Newton and Paul Anka here, following their participation in Danny Thomas' St. Jude's Hospital Annual fund-raiser . . . Danny Thomas, who returns to the Sands June 27, will entertain at the Annual Governors Conference in Lake Tahoe, June 5 . . . Pepper Davis creating minor whirlwinds at the Hacienda, dashing about on his P.R. chores . . . Handsome Trini Lopez in town for the Sealy-Faberge golf tourney . . . Gloria De Haven co-hosting the Frank Sinatra, Jr. pilot currently being shot here . . . The Kim Sisters back at the Stardust Lounge for a two-weeker, return for a month in July . . .

Among the tubed highlights of the President's welcome home for the POW's were Irving Berlin's broken-voiced "God Bless America" and Sammy Davis inviting the POW's to "applaud the ladies who brought you home" . . . The Corp. for Public Broadcasting will fund William Buckley's "Firing Line" for continuous broadcasts thru the Summer (Ch. 10-PBS) . . .

True to her code, Audrey Arno is preeming new numbers in her long run act as star of the Tropicana's "Folies Bergere" . . . Comedian Allen Drake currently with Ed Ames at Kings Castle-Tahoe . . . Following his closing at CP, Tom Jones playdates the Sahara-Tahoe, June 8-21 . . .

Being honored by the Vandenberg A.F. Base June 13-14, Peter Hurkos was advised nothing but to "bring your tuxedo" . . . Robert Goulet, Nancy Sinatra and Hugh Lambert at the press/celeb party for Tony Martin and Cyd Charisse, following their Thunderbird opening . . .

Hilton showroom attendees impressed as the 100 members of the Nevada Philharmonic Orchestra walk onstage and tune up for the Tony Bennett concert . . . Works of Lee Jenkins in exhibit at The Gal'ry in Boulder City, June 3-29 . . . Eddy

Arnold currently at Harrah's-Tahoe thru June 13.

The invasion of those distasteful, enormous black bugs is a vexing problem. The Showboat Hotel's Prexy Joe Kelley turned off all the neons temporarily in an attempt to discourage them . . . While in a posh Strip hotel last weekend, this publisher made a hasty retreat to avoid them as they flew about the lobby and took up residence in lounges and drapes . . . All hotel managements should call out the exterminators, or have a maintenance squad armed with vacuum cleaners to assure the comfort of the guests . . . and that's for sure.

680, listing five, and get the info about "Jackpot," a musical that had 67 performances in 1944 with music by Vernon Duke and lyrics by Howard Dietz. And 13 totally forgotten songs are listed. It is a reference book to hover over when you feel stumped about Rodgers and Hart. Or when you've returned home from a bad new musical race to this prodigious volume and recall better nights. If you even play two finger piano or can hum, you might thumb through to page 380 and commune with something from "The Pajama Game" or "Pal Joey." Your evening won't be a total loss. This book, "Songs of the American Theatre," is a largess of a kind. Lewine and Simon can come out from behind the galleys and take a deserved bow. We're going up the proverbial aisle whistling their book.

GOING HOLLYWOOD

"Hitler: The Last Ten Days" which the critics say is a big winner; 20th Century Fox's "The Neptune Factor" starring Ben Gazzara, Yvette Minieux, Walter Pidgeon and Ernest Borgnine; Universal's "The Day of the Jackal" preem; Paramount's "The Mattei Affair" by Franco Cristaldi; The Film Welfare League's "This is Show Biz" dinner dance starring Vivian Duncan, Buddy Rogers and Nick Lucas; 20th Century Fox's "Kid Blue"; M.G.M.'s "Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid"; Warner Bros. "Let the Good Times Roll Along"; 20th Century Fox's "Battle for the Planet of the Apes" — the last in the movie series I hear, it will become a TV series. The MGM Studio Club's dinner dance at the Coconut Grove; KNBC's screening and press party for "Inner Space," a new under-sea adventure series; plus all of the personal parties and doings.

And That's Hollywood!

will vanish, as the Russian citizen becomes too interested in our American way of life! They take the oriental for granted, but anyone from America is a curiosity and very much noticed and admired! . . . I predict that the state of Florida will introduce a law that will forbid any overpricing of food, rent or any item to any tourist! A price fixing and price control ceiling will be the new rule for the coming tourist season! When tourists are overcharged they tell their friends back home, which results in less tourism than the year before! Many areas have suffered a boycott of tourists and the State Chamber of Commerce will take definite steps this year thru the Legislature! You will be amazed at the new tourist boom Florida will have thru this new ruling! . . . I predict that a famed Broadway Theatre, which has had many backstage robberies and muggings, will employ a huge security staff!

INFORMATION FREE!

By Arnold E. Hagen

("Information Free" is a listing of booklets and/or materials available on miscellaneous subjects. Write directly to sources indicated. Each source reserves the right to withdraw its offer at any time.)

DESSERT LOVERS HANDBOOK: Borden's puts it out. In it are ninety-seven recipes for making condensed milk desserts. The name of the book is as above, The Dessert Lover's Handbook. Write: Borden, Inc., Dept. WD 670, P.O. Box 451, Jersey City, N.J. 07303.

FREE SAMPLE TEST IN AUTO-MOBILE INSURANCE: To find out if you are knowledgeable about auto insurance, the Insurance Information Institute has made up a quiz of six questions relating to the subject. Try your luck with a sample:

1) In which of the following instances does bodily injury liability insurance apply?

- Injury to persons riding in a vehicle your car collides with.
- Injuries caused by your car when driven by others with your permission.
- Injuries to a pedestrian hit by your car.

The answers: all three are correct. And if you send for this quiz it comes included in a pamphlet called Every Ten Minutes which discusses (with graphs) the whole question of risks in an automobile. Write: American Information Institute, 110 William St., New York, N.Y. 10038.

FREE LARGE-LETTERED DANGER KITS FOR THE HIGHWAY:

At one time or another all of us have gotten stuck on some super-highway with no gas or a broken piston and no means of communicating our jeopardy to the passing vehicles. The Ford Motor Company knows about these problems and they have a wonderful free tool available to all: two large-lettered, red and white colored signs, one saying, "SEND HELP," and the other saying, "NEED GAS." These signs are about two feet long, wide enough to be read from a great distance, and bold-lettered to stand out through any atmosphere. And that's not all. On the other side of this sign there is a whole small volume of helpful safety aids. Included in these are a quick check list telling you if you have prepared your car for take-off, a phone list for you to write in important numbers, and a column they call "The Big Four," which enumerates the four ingredients of safety. Ask for the pamphlet Helpful Hints for a Safer Ride. Write: Ford Motor Company, Department of Public Affairs, Dearborn, Mich.

FOR INVESTORS ONLY: A number of interesting booklets for those interested in putting their money into the stock market has been published free by Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith. Write for: 1) What Everybody Ought to Know About the Stock and Bond Business; 2) How Over-the-Counter Securities are Traded; 3) Investor's Record Keeping Kit; 4) How to Read a Financial Report; 5) Questions and Answers About the Stock Market; 6) The Stock Market Explained for Women. Write: Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, Inc., 110 E. 59th St. — 2nd floor, New York, N.Y. 10022.

CHRISTMAS CARD CATALOG: A forty-page special catalogue of Christmas card ideas. Write: Miles Kimball Company, 550 Bond St., Oshkosh, Wisc. 54901.
