Biographical Note

Born in 1937 in Erie, Michigan, Dr. John M. "Jack" Vergiels earned his B.A., M.S., and Ph.D. in Education from the University of Toledo before moving to Las Vegas, Nevada. During his thirties, Vergiels worked as professor of education at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV), served as both chairman and vice-chairman of the UNLV Faculty Senate, and as a trustee for the Clark County Committee for the Aging. During this time, he also served as the president of the Las Vegas Young Democrats organization, encouraging local youth to participate in politics.

Elected as a Clark County Assemblyman in 1973, Vergiels served District 10 until 1984. When he filed to run in 1972, he identified drug abuse, the crime rate, the local environment, education, and budgetary issues as his primary concerns. He served as chairman of the Assembly Education Committee, the Legislative Commission's Subcommittee to Study the Structures and Functions of the State Board of Education and State Department of Education, and the Subcommittee for the Study of Private Care Providers of Mental Health Care and Services. Vergiels was also a member of the Subcommittee on Mental Hygiene and Mental Retardation programs in Nevada (MHMR), the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education (WICHE), the Ways and Means Committee, and the Legislative Commission, and served as Speaker of the Nevada Assembly in 1983. In the 1980s, he also worked outside of his political office as president of the board of directors of the National Kidney Foundation of Nevada.

In 1985, Vergiels won election to the Nevada State Senate, and served in that position until 1992. As a senator, Vergiels remained focused on many of his Assembly priority issues, including insurance and benefits programs for workers, commerce and labor, rights for people with disabilities, and education, and served on committees and subcommittees devoted to these matters. Vergiels also served on committees that examined the state's prison system, transportation, and consumer rights, and served as Senate Majority Leader.

Vergiels passed away on December 16, 2009.
