Historical Note

The Las Vegas Rotary Club was founded on March 15, 1923 with eighteen original members, and within five years the membership grew to thirty-four members. In 1931, the Rotary partnered with Six Companies for local support in the building of Boulder (Hoover) Dam. In 1952, the Las Vegas Rotary opened its second location in Henderson, Nevada. In 1986, the Las Vegas Rotary hosted the first International Convention in Nevada for over 20,000 participants. In 2018, Mayor Carolyn Goodman proclaimed April 5 as "Las Vegas Rotary Day." As of 2019, the Rotary Club in the Las Vegas area hosts over 200 members and active within the Las Vegas community.

Administrative Information

Access Note

Collection is open for research. Where use copies do not exist, production of use copies is required before access will be granted; this may delay research requests. Advanced notice is required.

Publication Rights

Materials in this collection may be protected by copyrights and other rights. See Reproductions and Use on the UNLV Special Collections and Archives website for more information about reproductions and permissions to publish.

Acquisition Note

Materials were donated by the Las Vegas Rotary Club in 2013; accession number 2015-023. Addition materials were donated in 2022 by Caty Crockett; accession number 2022-093.

Processing Note

Material was minimally processed during accessioning by Joyce Moore in 2015. In 2019, as part of an archival backlog elimination project, Sarah Jones revised the collection description to bring it into compliance with current professional standards. In 2022, Sarah Jones ingested files off two DVDs, created .MP4 access copies, and updated the collection description; additional materials were added in 2022.
