Historical Background

The Holocaust Survivors Group of Southern Nevada was founded in 1995 by Henry and Anita Schuster, along with Harry and Helen Goldman, Edythe Katz-Yarchever, and the Jewish Community Center of Southern Nevada. The organization publishes the Survivors Chronicle, holds regular meetings and social events for Holocaust survivors, and organizes remembrance events. It coordinates speakers for schools, civic organizations, and religious groups. In addition to its social and educational functions, the Group is a practical resource and support group for Holocaust survivors in the Las Vegas area. It provides legal assistance for restitution applications and financial aid to survivors in need, as well as helping with tasks such as arranging a Jewish funeral or transportation to visit a spouse in the hospital. Henry and Anita Schuster were the original co-chairs of the Group, along with Harry and Helen Goldman. The Goldmans passed away in 1996 and the Schusters continued to lead the organization until 2007, when Raymonde Fiol became president.

Scope and Contents Note

The Holocaust Survivors Group of Southern Nevada records (1965, 1972, 1999-2016) mainly consist of organizational records created by the board of directors and officers of the Holocaust Survivors Group such as meeting minutes, correspondence, by-laws, and a list of officers. In addition, stories about the experiences of local Holocaust survivors make up a substantial portion of the collection. There are also newspaper clippings that document events held by the group or related to their mission, and members such as president of the group Raymonde Fiol. A memory book from the Diary of Anne Frank premiere performance in Las Vegas in 2009 and a special edition of Menorah magazine (written in Portuguese and English) provide summary information about people, organizations, and activities of the local Jewish community. Materials also include a digital recording of a 2006 Yom Hashoah memorial service to remember the Holocaust at Temple Beth Sholom and the Spring 2016 issue of PRISM: An Interdisciplinary Journal for Holocaust Educators.
