Biographical Note

Nevada politician James Robert "Bob" Coffin was born on October 7, 1942 in Anaheim, California and grew up in Las Vegas, Nevada where he graduated from Bishop Gorman High School and obtained his B.S. in Accounting and Business Administration from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. Coffin, an independent Democrat, served the state of Nevada as an elected official for thirty-six years. He was first a member of the Nevada Assembly from 1983 to 1985 and then elected to the Nevada Senate in 1987, a position he served until 2011. As a member of the Nevada Legislature, Coffin was a member of various committees including the Senate Committees on Finance, Natural Resources, Taxation, and Transportation. He served as Chairman of the Senate Committee on Taxation and the Legislation Commission's Information Technology Subcommittee. In 2011, Coffin was elected to the Las Vegas City Council representing Ward 3, an area that includes downtown Las Vegas and the Arts District. As a councilperson, Coffin worked on issues such as homelessness, housing development, and establishing a branch of the Las Vegas-Clark County Library District on the east side of Ward 3 off of Bonanza Road. He retired from City Council and politics in 2019. Coffin has been commemorated for his work as a public servant of Las Vegas and Nevada by community organizations such as the Young Democrats of Nevada, the Latin Chamber of Commerce, the Hispanic Business and Professional Women of Las Vegas, and the Nevada Women's Political Caucus.
