Abstract:	Oral history interview with Carol Leavitt conducted by Nathan Miller on October 28, 2002 for the Public School Principalsip Oral History Project. In this interview, Leavitt reflects upon her 35-year career as a teacher and administrator with Nevada's Clark County School District (CCSD) from the 1960s to the 2000s. She discusses her experiences working at several middle and high schools, though she highlights her experience as dean of Valley High School in the 1970s, and as principal when she returned in the 1990s. She discusses changes that she witnessed within the school, as well as the school district in general such as student expectations, violence, and standardized testing.
