Scope and Contents Note

Oral history interview with Gwendolyn Walker conducted by Claytee D. White on July 15, 2014 for the African Americans in Las Vegas: a Collaborative Oral History Project. Walker discusses moving to Las Vegas, Nevada from Texas and dealing with racism while attending junior high school, and her mother founding S.W.A.P. (Students With a Purpose) and the Swapettes, the first precision drill team in Las Vegas, to keep youth busy with positive activities. Walker also talks about collecting African American memorabilia and founding the Walker African American Museum. She then mentions her relations to the African American blues guitarist T-Bone Walker, and Moses Fleetwood Walker, who was the first African American to play major league baseball. Digital audio and transcript available.
