Abstract:	Oral history interview with Frances R. Peterson conducted by Claytee D. White on October 24, 2025 for the Boyer Early Las Vegas Oral History Project. In this interview, Peterson describes her childhood in St. Louis, Missouri and Davenport, Iowa. At the age of nineteen, she relocated to Las Vegas, Nevada where she worked at Sunrise Hospital from 1974 to 2008. She recalls watching the hospital expand from its initial single building, and helping implement the computer system at the hospital. Peterson also enjoys entertainment, and frequents the Smith Center for ballet and other performances. She describes how entertainment and the arts have expanded in the city, including the Arts District. Peterson currently spends time volunteering in the community, with organizations such as the Center for Spiritual Living, AARP, and the Nevada Cinemaniacs. Her goal for each year is to do twenty-five new things.
