Biographical Note

Woodrow Wilson was born in Morton, Mississippi in 1915, the eldest of four children. In 1940, he left Mississippi, joining the growing migration of Southern blacks who were drawn to employment opportunities in the West. Moving to Las Vegas, Nevada, he first worked at Basic Magnesium, Inc. before shifting his attention to developing greater opportunities for the city's black residents. Among his accomplishments was the creation of the West Side Federal Credit Union, the first local financial institution to serve the black community, in 1951. In 1949, he joined the Las Vegas NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People), serving as president and director for twenty-eight years. In 1966, Wilson was elected to the Nevada State Assembly, becoming the state's first black legislator; he was re-elected to that body in 1968 and 1970. In 1979, Wilson was appointed to the state's Equal Rights Commission. Wilson retired in 1984 and died in Las Vegas in 1999.
